GIRL TESTIFIES IN MURDER TRIAL

An Unwed Mother Is Placed on Stand By Defense in Stevens Case Quizzed for Hour

IS DAUGHTER OF DEFENDANT

State Rests Case at Noon Thursday—Two Defense Witnesses Examined in Afternoon

The second day of the trial of Dan Stephens, Fisher County man charged with murder in connection with the shooting of Otha Martin, was featured Thursday by the testimony of Mattie Stephens, 19 year old daughter of the defendant, who testified that she was the mother of Otha Martin's her brother-in-law's child. The girl was placed on the stand by the defense counsel at about 2 o'clock and was questioned for an hour by W. W. Beall of the defense counsel.

Cross examination of Miss Stephens began shortly after 3 o'clock. In a long, pitiful story told by the pretty witness, details of her relations with Otha Martin, before he was married to her sister, Louann Stephens, were brought out. The girl, speaking in a calm, clear voice but in broken sentences, told the jury, in answer to the attorney's questions, that her living child "is Otha Martin's."

Details leading up to her first intimacy with Martin, who was shot to death at the Roby court house in March, 1924, were told by the witness. Her relations with him were "forced," she said, because he threatened to tell her parents, of her attending parties and dances.

"He said he would tell about my going to parties at Longworth," the witness stated. "I didn't want papa to find it out."

The witness said "the first time, he told me he would tell if I didn't." She added that Otha said, referring to her father, that "he could shoot that old man half a dozen times before he could shoot once." Otha carried a pistol, she said.

Martin drove the girl to a side road in his car and "made me get in the back seat," Miss Stephens continued in describing her relations with Martin. "I didn't say anything about it because I knew he carried a gun. He told me not to say anything to papa."

The second occurrence was in March or June, the witness continued, following a party which she attended with her sister and brother. Otha took her and another girl in a car, after the party and took the second girl home, she stated.

"We were about half a mile north of Royston and he stopped the car. He said he would tell everything. He had a gun with him."

When she told Otha about the baby, he went to McCauley to get her some medicine, she said.

"It had no pills," she said, "I went to a doctor at Hamlin and got some more pills," she continued. "Otha made arrangements with a doctor at Hamlin to have me examined. 'Otha, my sister and I went to Hamlin and I went to see the doctor.'"

She attended school that fall, she said, and no one knew of her condition until a short time before the baby was born. Her father didn't know "anything about it until the baby was born," she declared.

Before the baby was born, the witness said, Otha said he knew a boy who could "help her out." He arranged a meeting between her and the boy whom she said was George Maberry at an orchard a short distance from their home. Her intimacy with the second was told. The girl desperate at the time, said she "knew it couldn't hurt anything."

Following that, Martin told her that she couldn't "lay all the blame on him," Miss Stephens testified. Martin and her sister, Louann, were married before her baby was born in January, she continued.

"Three days after the baby was born papa asked me whose baby it was. I was in bed. I just told him it was Otha Martin's. He didn't say anything else."

Court took a few minutes rest when the defense counsel completed examination of the witness. Roy Formway was later recalled to the stand for cross examination.

The first witness called by the defense was Roy Owen, abstract man of Roby whose map of a portion of the Roby county court house was offered as evidence. He was questioned at length in regard to the arrangement of the court house, dimension of various rooms, corridors and steps. A long cross examination of Owen followed and Miss Stephens took the stand immediately after he was dismissed.

The State rested its case shortly before noon Thursday after four witnesses had testified concerning the shooting of Otha Martin in Roby a year ago last March.

Brother Called
The first witness called at the morning session was Wiley Martin, brother of the dead man. An eyewitness of the tragedy, he reconstructed a graphic word picture of the events on that fatal morning in March, 1924. He and his brother, had entered the gate of the court house yard and were on their way to the court house. The figure of the defendant, Dan Stephens, appeared in the doorway. A pistol spoke and Martin fell. He was carried to the Price barber shop where he died and later removed to an undertaking parlor.

Dr. R. R. Allen of Sweetwater, but at that time of Roby, was the next witness. He told of being called to the barber shop where Martin was carried. He started to make an examination he said, but was told by Dr. Hambricht that it was useless for Martin was dying. He told of examining the body after death and finding but one wound. The bullet, he said, had entered the back near the shoulder blade and ranged upward, passing out near the breast bone.

Death From Wound
In Dr. Allen's opinion death was due to the severing of a large artery near the heart. On cross examination, Dr. Allen testified concerning the good reputation of the defendant.

The testimony of Dr. Allen concerning the wound and cause of death was corroborated by Dr. Hambricht who followed him on the witness stand. Dr. Hambricht reached the dying man first and told of the condition in which the mortally wounded man was found in. Dr. Hambricht also testified concerning the good character as a law abiding citizen borne by the defendant.

Roy Formway, county attorney of Fisher county, was next called to the stand. He was on his way to Roby from his home at Rotan, he testified, and was told of the shooting on his arrival at Roby. He immediately went to the Price barber shop and found conditions as described by the preceding witnesses. After the doctors had concluded their examination in the barber shop, the witness testified that he with the then Sheriff Lambert, now deceased, had searched the clothing worn by Martin, but had failed to find any weapons. The only item of this nature was an ordinary pocketknife.

Jury Completed
The jury finally selected is composed of A. C. Hatgraves, Dick Jackson, W. N. Judd, W. P. Colepand, I. L. Fry, S. T. Duncanson, Bob Lanier, B. T. Catching, E. K. Willis, J. W. Shadd, R. H. Rogge, T. B. Stone.

Two of the defendant's daughters, Mrs. Bushing and Mrs. Creitz sat beside Stephens during the morning session. Another daughter, Mrs. Otha Martin, widow of the slain man, is among the witnesses.

With an exhibition that is worth much more than the twenty-five cents admission asked, and with the main exhibition building comfortably heated, everyone is asked to attend.

MITCHELL TRIAL NIGHT FIRE HERE GETS UNDER WAY CAUSES BIG LOSS

Officers Refuse to Allow Motion That They Without Jurisdiction in the Case

NO FREE SPEECH IN ARMY

Constitutional Guarantees Do Not Apply in Army Officers Hold in Ruling

By United Press.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The army court martial trying Col. Win. Mitchell today rejected his contention that it was without jurisdiction in the matter after a heated argument for and against sustaining the defense challenge. The court, after a ten minute secret session, sided with the government and ordered the trial to proceed.

Mitchell and his counsel contended that the constitution guarantees the right of free speech and thus safeguards an army officer in criticism of his superiors. The army prosecutor disputed the argument by saying that discipline would be impossible if such were the case. The court then took up the eight exceptions one by one and voted on the jurisdiction question raised by each. Major General Howze asked Gen. Moreland if the question of jurisdiction should be passed on by the law member of the court first. A discussion of the proper procedure of the question ensued. Col. Winship, law member, indicated that he would overrule the defense challenge and said he was prepared to pass on the question then and there. Gen. McCoy, however, objected to Winship making the decision and General Howze ordered the court back into session.

PAINLEVE FORMS FRENCH CABINET

Little Change in Personnel But Decided Change in Policy With Caillaux Out

PREMIER ON FINANCE

Painleve Himself Assumes Finance Portfolio—Briand Foreign Minister—Capital Levy

PARIS, Oct. 29.—The new Painleve cabinet was formed today. After working nearly until dawn and then snatching a brief rest only to resume activity, Painleve succeeded in forming a new cabinet to succeed the old regime, which resigned in order to get rid of Finance Minister Caillaux.

In the new cabinet Painleve will be Premier Minister of Finance, succeeding the picturesque Caillaux who failed to restore French finances to a state of health.

Supporting Painleve is Briand in the Foreign Ministry. There are a few personal changes in the new cabinet but the policy is decidedly different. Caillaux fought against a capital levy as a means of restoring French finances but the new group is understood to favor this measure.

Liberty Cafe Stock and Fixtures Destroyed by Blaze Wednesday Night—Buildings Damaged

EXPLOSION STARTS BLAZE

Oil Stove Explodes in Kitchen—Other Stores Damaged—Guests Flee From Adjoining Hotel

The explosion of an oil stove in the kitchen of the Liberty Cafe on south Oak street, started the spectacular blaze that gutted the building and damaged adjoining structures at 10:30 Wednesday night. Every available member of the fire department was called out and firemen battled the flames for nearly an hour before the blaze was finally extinguished.

Other buildings slightly damaged included the C. W. Williams Confectionery, Day Drug Store and Commercial Hotel.

According to Fred English, owner of the cafe, the fire started when a small oil stove exploded in the kitchen. The stove had been carried from the dining room of the small cafe to the kitchen to be refilled. When the explosion occurred, fire leaped to the walls and ceiling of the kitchen which was soon a mass of flames. English operated the Bon Ton cafe when it was heavily damaged by fire last spring.

The total damage resulting from the fire was variously estimated at between $4,000 and $5,000. Value of the fixtures and stock in the Liberty Cafe was placed at over $2,000, covered by about $1,500 insurance. The building, which was insured, is owned by C. H. Boyd of Ablene. A hasty estimate by a contractor early Thursday placed the damage to the building at $1,250. About half the ceiling and roof of the building fell in.

The C. W. Williams store was slightly damaged by smoke and water. This building is also owned by Boyd who was expected to arrive here Thursday to plan repairs and reconstruction of the buildings.

The Day Drug store, adjoining the Liberty Cafe, was only slightly damaged by smoke, water and soot. The Commercial Hotel, a second floor hostelry over the Day Drug Store was for a short time in grave danger of igniting from the flames that arose from the roof of the cafe and played about the wall of the two-story building. Guest were awakened, and those who had rooms on the side nearest the fire hastily gathered their belongings and fled to the street.

One line of hose was taken up stairs and into the hotel by fireman who sent a stream of water on the blazing roof of the cafe from the hotel windows. The hotel was only slightly damaged by water.

Prompt action of the fire boys, who were favored by no wind and strong water pressure, doubtless prevented damage to other stores along the street.

Mrs. C. A. Freeman and little son, Charles Alvin, of Coleman, are the guests of her father, C. S. Boyles, for a few days.

STAGE PARADE

Colorful Procession Opens Second Day of Fair—Many Decorated Cars Represent Merchants

Over a score of Sweetwater merchants and local clubs were represented in the fair parade which opened the second day of the Nolan County Fair Thursday morning. Although the cold weather and postponement of the parade caused a majority of the 60-odd firms and organizations which had signed up to enter cars and floats in the procession to drop out, the spectacle, nevertheless, was well carried out.

Many beautifully decorated cars were features of the parade which started shortly after 10 o'clock. The parade formed on Oak street, marched around the square and proceeded to the fair grounds on Elm street.

Chief of Police Gordon Headrick led the parade. The Sweetwater band was next and the decorated cars and trucks followed. W. R. Johnson was in charge of lining up the cars.

The order of the parade was as follows:

C. S. Boyles Motor Co., Sweetwater Vulcanizing Co., Nash Motor Co., Stages and Tacker Bakery, M System Grocery, Sweetwater Dry Goods Co., Galbraith's, City National Bank, Sorolis Club, Wright Hotel, American Legion Auxiliary, Motor Inn, Dabney Motor Co., Toler Motor Co., Wright Furniture Co., Pollard and Brown, Delphian Chapter, Higginbotham-Bartlett Co., City Pressing Parlor and Elliott and Shinn Barber Shop.

FRANCE WARNED IN SYRIAN MESS

Must Protect American Lives in Levant Disturbances With Druze Tribesmen

AMBASSADOR INSTRUCTED

Herrick Makes Representations to French Government—U. S. Destroyers Ready

By United Press.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The United States government has instructed Ambassador Herrick at Paris to make representations to the French government relative to affording protection to American lives and property in Damascus and other Syrian cities.

Made uneasy by continued disturbances in the Levant where French troops and Druze tribesmen have been at grips for some weeks, culminating in the bombardment of Damascus, the State Department took the positive step of calling the French government's attention to its responsibility toward foreigners in that region.

The destroyers Coghlan and Lamson have arrived at Alexandria, Egypt in readiness to proceed to the Syrian coast to protect the Americans, of whom there are reported to be 1,000 in that region.

Cold Continues Thursday Despite Weather Forecast

Thursday brought little alleviation from the stinging cold which swept this section late Tuesday night on the wings of a savage norther. The thermometer registered 30 degrees Wednesday night but a heavy bank of water vaporizing Co. volunteer weather observers here. By mid-afternoon Thursday it had risen to 36 degrees.

The sun struggled through the clouds for a few brief moments Wednesday night but a heavy bank of clouds Thursday morning gave a bleak tinge to the atmosphere radically different from the weather man's promise of "fair and warmer" for Thursday.

Shortly before noon a cold, misty drizzle began falling.

TWO SCHOOLS IN COUNTY EXHIBIT

Roscoe and Sweetwater Schools Have Well Arranged Displays in Main Fair Building

SCHOOL WORK SHOWN

Work of Students Displayed in Two Booths—Novel Advertising Stands Featured

The school exhibits arranged by the Sweetwater and Roscoe schools at the Nolan County Fair were expected to be judged Thursday afternoon and prizes awarded in the many divisions of this department. The two exhibits which are opposite each other in the main building, are declared by many to be the best school exhibits ever arranged in this section.

Many phases of schoolwork and activities, including novel advertising matter and information about the schools, are shown in the displays.

The Roscoe exhibit is well filled with splendid note books of various classes in the Roscoe schools, novel posters, mounted colored maps, drawings, cartoons and other school work. In the foreground of the Roscoe exhibit, is a miniature football field. The gridiron is marked off and opposing players are facing each other, with the ball in position for the kickoff. The two goal posts are decorated in Roscoe and Sweetwater school colors respectively. The display is an advertisement for the Roscoe-Sweetwater game here Friday morning.

A Halloween display in orange and black, featuring miniature witches, black cats and other Halloween effects is also an attractive part of the Roscoe exhibit.

The exhibit arranged by the Sweetwater schools is similar to the Roscoe exhibit. Note books, maps and posters are on display. Books of mounted grass, leaves and plants of Nolan county are featured. Displays of mounted butterflies and insects are shown. A mounted collection of stamps is one of the attractive features.

Football blankets, school pennants and other novelties in school colors add to the well arranged display. Several articles are displayed by students of the manual training classes of the local high school.

Posters in the Roscoe exhibit tell spectators of the rapid growth of the Roscoe schools within the past two years. Two years ago, according to the display, Roscoe had nine teachers, one building, eight class rooms, one auditorium, seating 300, no recognition by the state department, no sidewalks no library and no laboratory.

This year, the posters continue, the schools have 12 teachers, two buildings, 13 class rooms, two auditoriums seating 1,000, steel lockers, electric time clock, new equipment, sidewalks, $1,000 library, laboratory and 15 1-2 units of affiliation.

The foreground of the Sweetwater schools exhibit shows a varavan of miniature covered wagons and teams, "westward ho," down a long road lined with mesquite trees.

The picture of Henry Harris, suspected of many holdups, who recently forfeited $50,000 bail at Detroit, was identified by a dozen witnesses as the leader of the bandit gang. Five of the holdup men escaped in a car, the sixth mingled with the crowds and was not noticed.

THE SUWANEE RIVER

Some bright young men of the United States geological survey have gone into Southern Georgia and Northern Florida to make certain investigations. They have found that a stream known locally as the Suwanee (or Sewanee or Swanee) River is only an ordinary creek, affording some sort of lazy outlet to the waters of the Okefinokee Swamp and is as unimportant and unlovely as swamp creeks usually are.

That was all right and part of their business. But when these young men—or somebody for them—went so far as to report that the immortal river of Stephen C. Foster's song is little better than a mere ditch, they committed a colossal error. It is a blunder to which very practical men and very literal minds are particularly susceptible. They have confused the realm of geography with that of imagination, and have fallen into the fallacy of trying to measure with gauges and surveyors' chains something which is beyond logarithms and laughs at all the laws of trigonometry.

The real Suwanee River does not rise in any part of Georgia. It rises in the highest mountains of the human soul and is fed by the deepest springs of the human heart.

by the deepest springs of the human heart. It does not flow through the swampy regions of Florida, but thru the pleasant, sunny lands of memory. It does not empty into a material sea but into the glorious ocean of unfulfilled dreams.

It leaves the shores of childhood. Its current ripples with the low, sweet melody of recollections, softened and made misty by distance. There is such mystical power in its waters that whoever finds himself wearied and worn by the struggle of living has only to quaff and gain reprieve.

It is far, far away, but the heart is ever turning to it, because there's where the old folks stay. On its banks may be only a hut among the bushes, but the bees are still humming around it by day and the banjo is still thrumming there is the starlight. And so they will continue to do so while memories of home and simple hopes and affections are the most prized possessions of mankind.

It is a quaint jargon, such as probably was never actually spoken by any body, that Foster first sang about it. Nevertheless, his plaintive ditty has become one of the great songs of the times. The surveyors who would find the true Suwanee River must hunt not among the Florida swamps, but among the majestic streams of infinite tenderness and love.

CAN YOU ANSWER

Where can a man buy a cap for his knee?
Or a key to the lock of his hair?
Can his eyes be called an academy
Because there are pupils there
In the crown of his head what gems are found?
Who travels the bridge of his nose?
Can he use, when shingling the roof of his house,
The nails on the ends of his toes?
Can the crook of his elbow be sent to jail?
If so, what did it do?
How does he sharpen his shoulder blades?
I'll be hanged if I know! Do you?
Can he sit in the shade of the palm of his hand?
Or beat on the drum of his ear?
Does the calf of his leg eat corn on his toes?
If so, why not grow corn on the ear?

Envy is the key that Satan uses to unlock everything that is bad in mankind.

It does not require either skill or industry to make good resolutions.

If they love cake and hot bread at home . . .

Surprise them! Give them muffins, or biscuits, or pastry that will melt in their mouths before they can get a real bite. You can! All you have to do is to use Mrs. Tucker's Shortening in preparing them.

Mrs. Tucker's Shortening is a pure, wholesome, vegetable shortening. It is made exclusively of choice cottonseed-oil. When you use it, whether in making cakes or in frying foods, it imparts a wonderful richness like that of butter. But it is never heavy or greasy. And it goes much further than ordinary shortenings.

Mrs. Tucker's comes to you in an air-tight container that assures you absolutely pure and fresh shortening. It is easy to open, and convenient while you are using it. Once empty, it is useful in the house as a bucket or dinner pail. Interstate Cotton Oil Refining Company, Sherman, Texas.

Half the world is half asleep

Can success in life be understood by constitution? Indeed it can. The poison of this disease lies in your system, your eyes, your ears, your nose and mouth. You lose interest in things in general. Ambition is smothered often prompted by a thoroughly healthy body. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN brings permanent relief from constipation.

He didn't have the energy to fight

Lost . . . another big order . . . the fourth defect that day. All because he didn't have the energy to fight when his prospect said "No." Something had blunted his senses and stolen his strength.

That "something" was constipation. What a shame so many people suffer from constipation when there is an easy, pleasant, sure way to permanent relief—the regular use of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN—two tablespoonfuls daily, or in chronic cases, with every meal.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is what doctors call a bulk food. As it travels through the system, its fiber remains unchanged. Therefore, it sweeps the intestine clean and drives out the vicious poison of constipation. ALL-BRAN also absorbs and carries moisture through the intestinal tract, stimulating it to healthy, normal action. ALL-BRAN works its magic works.

Serve Kellogg's ALL-BRAN with milk or cream, sprinkled over cereals, or cooked with cereals, in soups, or made into the many recipes given on the package. Delicious with fruits too. If eaten regularly, it is guaranteed to bring permanent relief or your greaser returns the purchase price.

Caution! Be sure to get Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Only ALL-BRAN brings sure results. Kellogg's is the original and only ALL-BRAN. All grocers sell it. Leading restaurants serve it. Buy a package today.

"I have used my Perfection for six years and heartily recommend it as a safe and dependable stove. The heat is easily controlled and the oven is a wonderful baker." writes Mrs. J. Albert Class of Des Moines, Iowa.

Then Dad approved Son's Choice

She was pretty—Bob's fiancee—Dad admitted. But, could she cook? * * *

Sweet and fresh as a morning rose, she greeted Bob's folks when they came to Sunday dinner.

Such a meal! Good and substantial, the kind Dad liked—tender roast pork, well-browned potatoes, dressing, ruddy baked apples, and pie. One whiff, and he was completely won over.

"How did you do it?" asked Bob's mother admiringly.

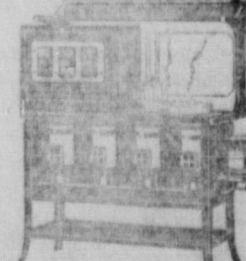

"It was easy," she replied. "I cooked the whole meal, except the salad and tea, in my Perfection Oven. I did not have to stand over a hot stove stirring and mixing. And I saved fuel, too. I'm glad you like it."

"What do you think of her?" Bob asked triumphantly, turning to his Dad.

"Great!" responded his father enthusiastically.

Try a Perfection oven-cooked meal on your family. For best results use Perfection Ovens on Perfection Stoves.

No heat escapes, as the glass door is tightly closed at the top by a patented feature. And perfect air circulation, necessary for good baking, is assured by 108 vent holes. Ask any dealer for a demonstration of Perfection Cook Stoves and Ovens.

All sizes and prices. From $7.00 for a one-burner camp-stove, to $125 for the finest five-burner range with built-in oven.
