ROAD WORK GOES STEADILY AHEAD

Progress Being Made on Previous Contracts Awarded by County Commissioners

HARD SURFACE NO. 70

Twelve and Half Miles from Mountain Leading South to Be Asphalted Next Week

Despite the tangle in which a part of the Nolan County road program is involved with the State Highway Department, work is rapidly progressing on other sections where contract has been previously let.

The 12 1/2 mile section on Highway 70 south of the mountain is nearly completed insofar as the rockbound base in concerned, and according to County Engineer John Foelt, work of pouring asphalt will begin next week.

The dirt work has been completed on the section from Sweetwater south to the mountain and all piles have been driven for the bridge over the Sweetwater Creek. It is expected this bridge will be completed around Christmas. The bridge over the Cottonwood Creek it is expected will be completed in the next three weeks.

Work of putting the sledge stone base on this highway will not begin for a time until the dump has had an opportunity to settle and also not to interfere with the hauling of asphalt to the second project beyond the mountain.

It is expected that the bridge over Sweetwater Creek east of town will be completed and thrown open to traffic about Thanksgiving.

The slabs on the Bitter Creek bridge six miles east are nearly completed.

Nearly all the dirt work is in place on the Bankhead from Sweetwater east to the Taylor County line and with three gangs at work, it is expected to have it all done in the near future with the exception of backfilling. It cannot be used for traffic however, owing to the fact that the underpass at the Santa Fe crossing is not yet completed. Plans for this underpass are in Austin waiting approval by the State Highway Commission.

The Santa Fe railway has several car loads of stone and other material on the ground ready to begin work at once the plans are approved.

The same company which has the contract for the underpass at Musgrove street in Sweetwater also has the contract for the underpass on the Bankhead west of Sweetwater on the way to Roscoe. It is expected work will start on that when the work in town is completed.

The Bankhead west of Sweetwater to Mitchell county is ready for surfacing and has been ready for some time awaiting the pleasure of the State Highway Commission for a contract to be let. Plans for the highway from Roscoe to the Severy County line are in Austin and have been there for quite a while, awaiting approval and the letting of a contract on this stretch.

Only some preliminary lines have been run for the highway north from Sweetwater to the Fisher County line.

Too Much Job for $25 Per-Opinion Walter Trammell

Street Commissioner Walter Trammell issues the following statement.

The mayor has called an election to be held for November 10 in order that the qualified voters may determine whether the street commissioner shall draw a salary of $25 a month to be the case, or whether he shall draw not to exceed $150 per month. Some of the curbstone talkers together with some distinguished gentlemen declaim that I knew this was a $25 job when I took it. This is true. But would you have your street commissioner be the only servant within the gift of the people not to be provided with a living wage if you demand his time and thought?

The mayor gets $100 and its trimmings, (about $25) per month; your water commissioner gets $150 and its trimmings (about $25 to $50 per month); your secretary gets $200 and its trimmings (about $40 to $50 per month), and all other employees are provided for with enough to have their hams and eggs.

I am not asking something for nothing. Anybody's time should be worth a living if it's worth anything. You can't keep a car going for $25 a month. I have asked the people for this job. It's some job. They say it covers 7 square miles together with the people in it who seem to want something all the time.

I have tried to serve each and all alike as far as what I had to serve with. What I have done and tried to do is build up our city, grade streets, pave streets and all other things for the city's welfare.

I want to say now that it is not my plan nor aim to be a candidate for another term. I hope to serve you well while I am serving you. But whoever has the job ought to have a living wage for his time. We can all attend two meetings a month for $25, but none of us can give our time and keep up a car very long for that price. Vote your sentiment on the 10th. Your pleasure will be mine.

I thank you,
Walter Trammell.

"All that the other clubs of the district want is the names of students who really need and deserve aid and each will take care of students from its particular town," the governor said.

File Suit Against Highway Contracts

Attorney General Dan Moody Petitions for Injunction in Travis County District Court Thursday Morning

AMERICAN ROAD CO. NAMED

By United Press.

AUSTIN, Nov. 5.—The long expected suit by Attorney General Dan Moody against the American Road Co. was filed today in the 53rd District Court of Travis County. It was brought in the name of the State of Texas, and is for the purpose of obtaining cancellation of road contracts by injunction and to compel return of $650,000 to the state alleged to have been collected by the company in excess.

Allegations of a sensational nature are made in the petition with reference to the formation of the American Road Co. and the road contracts obtained in Texas.

Organized under the laws of the state of Delaware, the company maintained its principal office in Texas at Dallas.

The Attorney General asked the court to set down the injunction features of the petition for a hearing at an early date and also appoint a receiver to take charge of the defendant's property which is sought to have impounded.

PLANES DWINDLE

The number of army planes fit for combat use has dwindled even in the last few weeks from 15 to 12.

The Navy air force is slightly better equipped, but falls far short of what it should be.

And all this because of the selfishness and greed and general unfitness of the men now in control of America's aviation.

These are the views of A. M. Fisher, chief investigator and statistician of the special congressional air service investigation committee and recognized as one of the country's leading authorities on aviation matters.

His opinions are based not only on his own experience and research, but also upon his preliminary examination of every witness to testify in the probe.

Beside criticizing present operation of the air services, Fisher predicts a congressional survey to eliminate waste in both army and navy and thus save funds for aviation development.

He also foresees the creation of a minister of defense in charge of the three departments—Army, Navy and Air Service.

He says: "America's air services are getting far from the best because the men able to furnish it, the pioneers of aviation—men of ideas and capabilities—have been frozen and crowded out of the industry."

"The men in control play a cut-throat game. They are afraid of competition and therefore fear the men with new ideas. Naturally, they do not produce the best results for the government."

"As a result, the army has very inferior planes. Only 12 are fit for combat use and the life of each of these under battle conditions would be but two weeks."

"Neither Admiral Eberle nor General Patrick is to blame for this condition. The admiral is kept too busy signing papers to acquaint himself with the situation, while all the information received by the general reaches him through military channels—which means it is wholly biased."

"The Mitchell case is extremely important. It is a test to determine whether a witness who is in the government service can tell what he believes to be the truth before an investigating committee and not be punished for it."

AFTER PHOSPHATE WEALTH

France's interest in Morocco is not confined to fighting tobacco. In a report to the American section of the International Chamber of Commerce, Basil Miles, American Commissioner, points out that the greatest economic wealth of Morocco lies in its phosphate beds, covering an acre of 750,000 acres, between Casablanca and the Zouf river.

"The latest estimate of total deposits here," he says, "is 25,000 million tons. Other enormous beds to the south also have been discovered. The Koulich beds are directly exploited by the French government through its Office National des Phosphates. The area now being developed (since 1921) is said to contain several million tons and is located 90 miles from the port of Casablanca. In 1921 there were shipped 8,000 tons, in 1923 about 200,000 tons, and in 1924 over 400,000 tons, and the total output for 1925 is expected to reach 600,000 tons. This is only a portion of the phosphates produced in French territory. France with Alsace and her colonies, produces some 60 per cent of the total world output, which was 7,000,000 tons last year."

Which may help to explain why France is so eagerly hunting the Rifians, although France has never admitted it officially.

SEND IT

In an effort to pare down business costs American mercantile interests represented in the National Distribution Conference, are bringing their collective judgment to bear upon the question of cutting down the expense involved in the simple phrase, "Send It."

"One woman in a morning's shopping," it was pointed out, "very easily may require deliveries from half a dozen stores." Six motor trucks may be needed to carry home her purchases. The obvious solution of the problem is to reduce the number of motor trucks to one, or as many as may be necessary to carry the purchases of all the women, or men, who may elect to go shopping on a particular morning.

This involves the establishment of a central delivery system. There are now such delivery systems in operation and the committee which has been studying the problem finds that "there is no insuperable obstacle to the establishment of a co-operative delivery system even in communities of comparatively small size, if the idea is properly presented as a preliminary and an appropriate plan of operation is adhered to rigidly." The trouble is that the saving does not appear as increased income but as reduced outgo.

The whole question will be threshed out at the general meeting of the National Conference to be held at Washington late this year.

Houston, Texas—"When I was comparatively a young woman I became afflicted with woman's trouble and got so I could hardly walk. I had a delacy in submitting my case to the doctors. Finally a friend advised me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I did so, and before I had taken three bottles I was all right. Later on in life I became afflicted with a kind of poison in my blood; for this I took the Golden Medical Discovery, and gradually my blood became pure. I never again had anything like either of these afflictions." Mrs. D. M. Wilson, 1521 Fulton St. All dealers.

GOOD LOOKERS

Brownwood Bulletin: And another thing: Wouldn't it be nice to be as handsome as the man in the cigarette advertisement?

Mineral Wells Index: Not for us it wouldn't. We have no desire to be as handsome as the man in the cigarette ads or in the B V D ads, or in the collar ads. If we were as "purty" as they are we wouldn't be worth a cuss to the community in which we live.

State Press, Dallas News: It is a fine thing to be satisfied with what one has. If one hasn't beauty, let him content himself with something else. That is the way the Mineral Wells editor does. He gives the mirror to the go-by, except when shaving. And when shaving, his face is so lathered he can't really see what he looks like.

Brownwood Bulletin: I'm less well adjusted to his condition. He wishes he were handsomer than he is, although he is already as good-looking as the Mineral Wells man. It is all a matter of temperament. A man with a million dollars wants to be a multi-millionaire as much as he at first wanted to be a one cylinder millionaire. The man with average good looks wants to be as handsome as that movie Spaniard, whose name we can't think of at the moment, but who certainly has pictorial sideburns and is said to be a devil among the women. But what does a handsome man do when he begins to wrinkle? Handsome men, as the Mineral Wells editor insinuates, are seldom worth a leaky clam to the community. They are like the boy whose mother said he was so bright she was afraid he would never amount to anything. Everybody agrees and their pictures confirm it, that the presidents of the United States have never been of the handsome sort. Photographs reveal that Chester A. Arthur was perhaps the best looking, yet he served only part of a term. He was refused a nomination, notwithstanding it was his whiskers rather than his face that were beautiful. If the Mineral Wells or the Brownwood editor were downright handsome he wouldn't be an editor, therefore useful. Very likely he would be a lecturer to ladies' clubs, all such specialists being lovely.

It is all very well for the above mentioned gentlemen to vigorously declaim their dislike for personal pulchritude. Everybody knows they haven't any in the first place, and it is sound philosophy not to want what one has not. Even State Press will agree to that. Nobody expects an editor to be beautiful, anyway.

Pale, Tired Mothers Should Beware of Chronic Fatigue

Many a discouraged mother thinks that her thin, pale, tired-out condition is due to exhausting housework and care of children—when as a matter of fact the real cause of all her distressing ailments is chronic fatigue. Don't confuse chronic fatigue with the ordinary fatigue you feel after a good long walk. Chronic fatigue comes from within. Your organs and muscles have become debilitated due to lack of sufficient organic iron in your blood. To conquer chronic fatigue you must strengthen your system by restoring this organic iron to your blood. But don't take the older mineral iron medicines which many doctors now say do little good. Take organic iron—Nuxated Iron—which is like the iron in your blood and like that in spinach and lentils. Unlike ordinary mineral iron it will not injure the teeth or disturb the stomach, but is promptly assimilated. Take Nuxated Iron for just two weeks and you'll be astonished how much stronger and better you feel. Money back if not improved. All good druggists.

To the People of Sweetwater

It is, therefore, with pleasure that we announce that the Sweetwater plant is to be enlarged, with the very best of equipment, to enable it to serve the people with the finest fresh water ice that can possibly be made, and provide capacity that the people of this entire territory can depend on—if they want ice, Sweetwater will have it, and is anxious to serve.

Construction work will begin at once, and when completed, we want every citizen to visit the plant. It will be our great pleasure to show you around and explain to you all the processes necessary to make the finest fresh water ice in Texas—using, of course, water from the city's own plant.
