

OUR ARMIES GAIN NEW ON PIAVE FRONT

The war situation of today is summarized by the Associated Press as follows: Heavy masses of Austro-German troops are being thrown against the Italian lines between the Piave and the Brenta in an effort to drive a wedge between the Italian armies defending the Piave line and those to the west in the Asiago region.

Comparatively rapid progress has been made in this offensive in the last day or two and it is becoming clear that the main Austro-German effort is concentrated at present upon what is probably the most vulnerable point in the Italian defensive line.

Quero is Taken. Quero, on the upper Piave, about 50 miles from the coast, was taken by the invaders, who subsequently pushed the left flank of their line west of the river, a considerable distance south along that bank.

Further west the massed offensive movement has carried the Austrians to Monte Tomba, some five miles southwest of Quero, and they are attacking the front between the Piave and the Brenta with a force which the Italians are finding it hard to cope with, despite their most desperate efforts.

Should the Austro-German thrust be carried much farther here the entire upper Piave line, from a point near Conegliano, approximately 35 miles from the Adriatic, would be in German possession, and it is difficult to see how the Italians in this case will be able to continue their hold on the southern stretches of the river, which at present they are bravely and successfully defending.

In the eastern Trentino the Italians have begun a counter offensive on the Asiago plateau, which already has netted them gains. It is not apparent as yet, however, that this movement is in sufficient strength to constitute any menace to the Austro-German operations further east.

Petrograd newspapers report Germany refusing to treat for peace with the present Bolshevik government, Emperor William declaring he will negotiate only with the legitimate successor to the imperial government or with the constituent assembly.

The extremists are now threatening to make a peace on their own accord and to maintain a neutral status if the war continues after Nov. 23, which is reported to have been the latest limit for replies from the belligerents on the Bolshevik peace proposal.

In Trentino and along the Piave the Italians have the Austro-Germans in check for the moment and there are indications of a reawakening of fighting activity on the western front, especially in Flanders and around St. Quentin.

East and northeast of Ypres the British are now well established in the Passchendaele ridge. Their positions have been under heavy bombardment by the Germans for several days, giving apparent evidence that the Germans are nervous and that their artillery fire to check a new British thrust.

Around St. Quentin, northwest of the Ailette, where the trench gained the notable success recently German and allied patrols have been busy. North of St. Quentin both the British and Germans carried out raids, the German positions south of the town for several days and a thrust by French troops, evidently in a feint, was repulsed by the defenders, Berlin reports.

Teutonic Pressure Strong. Although the Teutonic pressure from Asiago east to the Piave continues very strong, the Italians hold valiantly to their positions and the invaders have been unable to make much progress. On the Asiago plateau the Austrians repelled violent attacks and near Casera recaptured an advanced position, taking 100 prisoners. Between the Brenta and the Piave the Austro-Germans have occupied positions from which the Italians withdrew.

Austro-German efforts to force the Italians back from the western bank of the Piave at Zenson and Fagare have failed. The invading force which crossed at Fagare has been driven back across the river, while efforts to debouch from the bridge head at Zenson were repulsed by Italian counter attacks.

On the right bank of the Piave the Italians have taken nearly 1,300 prisoners in two days.

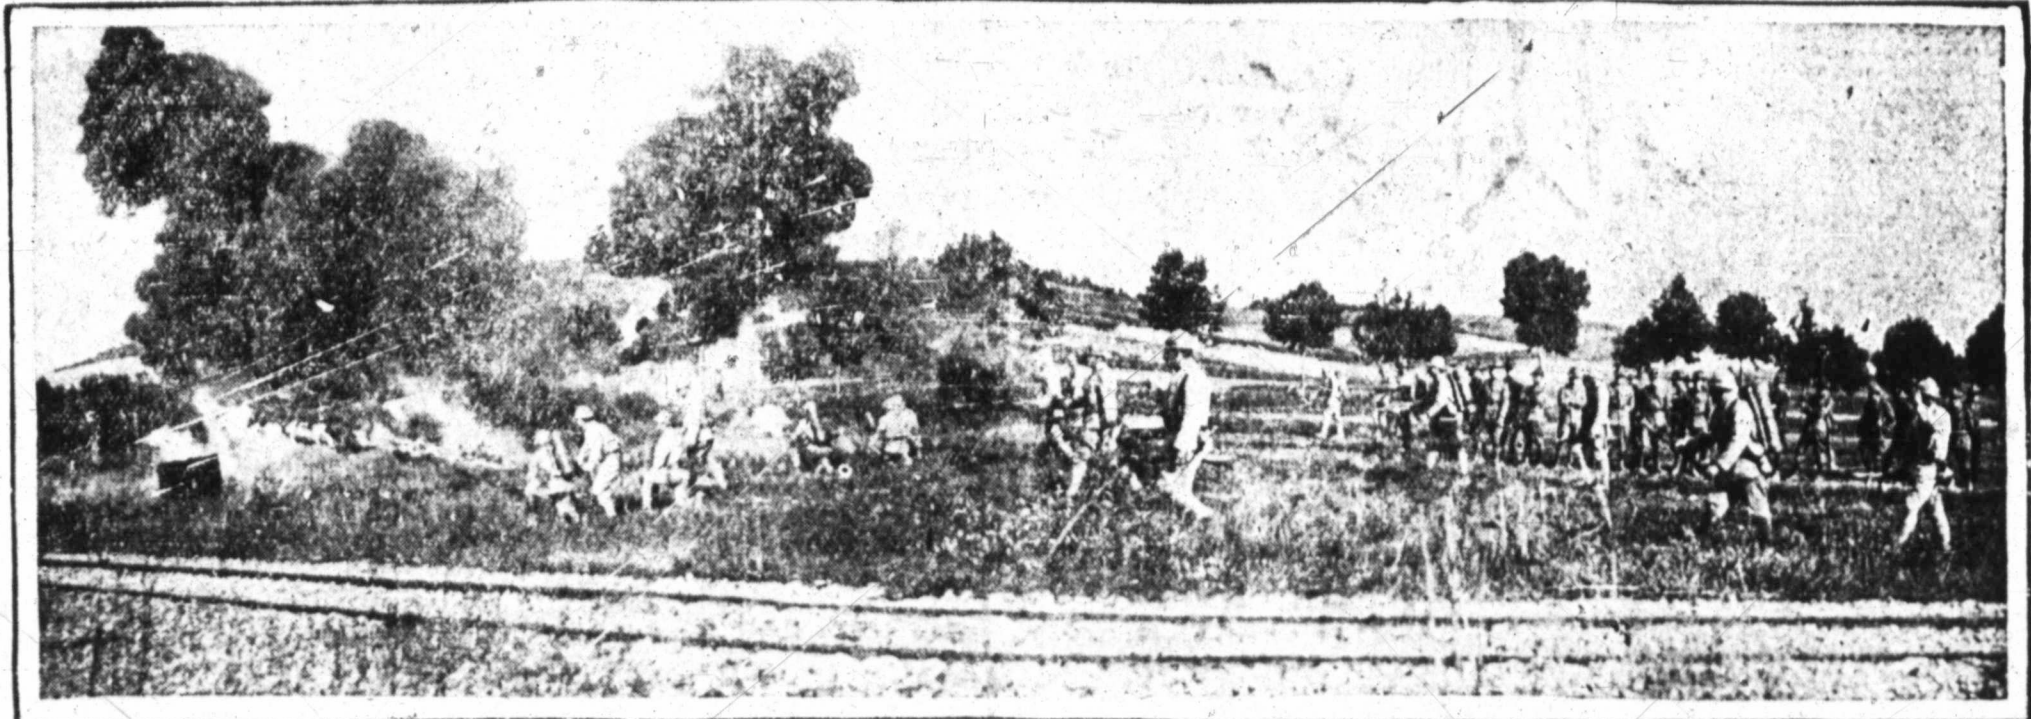

Another army is reported to be marching on Petrograd to oust the Bolshevik government. The vanguard, which is said to be near Gatchina, 30 miles southwest of the capital, already has had several brushes with the Bolshevik forces. It is rumored that Premier Kerensky is returning with the new force. All the reports lack confirmation.

There apparently is internal dissension in Petrograd between the Maximalists and the extreme Socialists, who have protested against acts of the Bolshevik regime. A report received from London says there has been a split in the Bolshevik ranks and some of the ministers have resigned.

In Moscow the revolutionists and the provisional government forces have reached a truce after several days of fighting, after several thousand people had been killed, and Russia's religious shrines within the Kremlin were destroyed by the artillery of the revolutionists. The American embassy in Petrograd has asked for a special train to take the American staff to Harbin, Manchuria, whence they can reach either Dairen or Vladivostok to take steamers home.

Jaffa, the ancient Joppa, and the seaport on the Mediterranean for Jerusalem, has been occupied by the British. The Turks gave up this important point without resistance and are retreating northward under pressure. Jerusalem is 25 miles southeast of Jaffa and its occupation by General Allenby's troops probably is a matter of only a few days.

AMERICANS SENT FROM PETROGRAD BY AMBASSADOR

SAYS NO GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS COULD BE UNEARTHED IN THE CITY.

NO DAMAGE IS FEARED

Conditions Are Represented as Chaotic, But U. S. Citizens in Moscow Are Reported Safe.

By Associated Press. Washington, Nov. 19.—Ambassador Francis at Petrograd reported to the state department in a message dated Friday and received today, that he had recommended that all unattached American women and American men accompanied by women and children, leave the city.

Arrangements have been made for them to travel on the transiberian railroad in two special coaches. The ambassador reported conditions in the Russian capital as chaotic but fairly quiet.

No Central Head. There was no central head of government and the embassy dealt directly with the superintendent of passenger service of the railway in arranging for the removal of the Americans. The departments of government were either closed or being operated without their chiefs.

Mr. Francis said he feared no damage to the embassy, but conditions were so unstable that he deemed it best to take the Americans out. Information at the state department indicates that there are in Petrograd about 200 Americans.

A report from Moscow, sent Saturday by American Consul General Summers, said all Americans there were safe. The Maximalists there, he reported, had taken over the direction of the government after hard fighting.

Lenine's Statement. Basing their opinion on the statement of Louis Fischer, the success of the Bolsheviks was dependent on a worldwide revolutionary movement by soldiers and workmen, officials at the Russian embassy predicted today that would win either through a military victory or through the incapacity of the Bolsheviks to carry good their promises to their followers.

No late news had been received at the embassy, but officials declared that the mention of Captain Pavloff as the commander of troops opposing the Bolsheviks was an encouraging sign. Captain Pavloff is said to be of the staff of the Social Democratic workmen's party and his opinion was expressed as this means that one of the strongest factions of the opposition had gone over to the moderates.

CHICAGO WAITERS REPORTED GUISE OF ENEMY SPIES

By Associated Press. Chicago, Nov. 19.—Investigation of charges that waiters employed in first class Chicago hotels were alien agents of foreign espionage corps to report the result of their inquiry to report the result of their inquiry to federal authorities should it deem what is discovered important.

The charges were made by B. M. Parker, representing the waiters' union. The accusation met a prompt denial from hotel owners, who asserted that since the beginning of the war they had taken precautions to prevent just such espionage.

Parker asserted that most of the waiters serving in large hotels are members of an organization known as the International Geneva Association, with headquarters in Dresden, Germany, and that 75 per cent of these waiters are not citizens and that a majority of them are German and Austrian subjects.

With the American Army in France (delayed), Nov. 18.—Artillery fighting and patrol activities continue on the American sector. The infantry has not taken part in any engagements and for the past few nights, the Germans have not been coming near the American lines, apparently having learned that it is danger to do so.

Dies in Mesopotamia After Brief Illness

GEN. F. S. MAUDE

GENERAL MAUDE DIES IN MESOPOTAMIA; ILL FOR ONLY SHORT TIME

By Associated Press. London, Nov. 19.—General Maude, British commander in Mesopotamia, died yesterday.

An official announcement issued today says General Maude died in Mesopotamia yesterday evening after a brief illness.

By Associated Press. London, Nov. 19.—Major General Frederick Stanley Maude, the captor of Baghdad, was rated as one of the most brilliant commanders of the war.

At a series of British defeats in Mesopotamia, General Maude was placed in command last year and won an unbroken series of successes. Advancing more than 100 miles beyond Baghdad, his operations being designed primarily to defeat the expected attempt of the Germans and Turks to recapture the city.

General Maude was 53 years old. He had a distinguished military record before the war. He took part in the Sudan campaign in 1895 and received the medal with clasps and the Khedive's star. He served with distinction in the South African war, where he won the distinguished service order and the Victoria cross.

Prior to taking command in Mesopotamia General Maude saw service in France, where he was wounded. He was mentioned five times in the dispatches and made a Commander of the Bath.

From 1901 to 1904 he was military secretary to the governor general of Canada and later private secretary to the secretary of state for war.

American Sector Is Still Active Scene; Germans Are Wary

By Associated Press. With the American Army in France (delayed), Nov. 18.—Artillery fighting and patrol activities continue on the American sector. The infantry has not taken part in any engagements and for the past few nights, the Germans have not been coming near the American lines, apparently having learned that it is danger to do so.

Managements Say Entire Matter Now In Wilson's Hands

By Associated Press. Washington, Nov. 19.—Formal announcement was made today that the railroads of the United States decided if any crisis should arise, to place the interests in the hands of President Wilson for protection and such disposition as he may deem necessary to prevent interruption of transportation during the war.

The four railroad brotherhoods who have made demands for increased wages, have agreed to mediation of the dispute, but have refused an unconditional submission of the questions to a board of arbitration.

Strike Averted.

Today's announcement by the railroad war board is regarded by officials as eliminating the possibility of a strike by giving the president a free hand so far as the railroads are concerned when he meets the brotherhood leaders in conference here next Thursday.

Fairfax Harrison, chairman of the executive committee of the American Railway Association, commonly known as the war board, wrote this letter to Judge William L. Chambers, chairman of the United States board of mediation and conciliation, who conferred with various railroad executives in New York Saturday and with the war board today.

"We confirm what we said to you this morning in reply to your inquiry as to what will be the attitude of the railroads with respect to the manner of settlement of any demands for increases in part of changes in workmen's wages which during the war may be made upon them by employees.

Favor Arbitration. "Speaking for all the railroads to day we reiterate our belief in and general acceptance of the principle of arbitration. In the midst of war we are, however, prepared to go further. As no interruption of continuous operation can be tolerated under war conditions, we are ready, should any crisis now arise, unreservedly to place our interests in the hands of the president for protection and for disposition as he may consider necessary in the public interest."

The entire war board was present at the conference with Judge Chambers, including Mr. Harrison, president of the Southern railway, and President Howard E. Eoff of the New Haven, Hale G. Holden, Chicago, Burlington and Quincy; Julius Kruttschnitt, South Pacific, and Samuel Rea, Pennsylvania.

Representatives of the brotherhood will confer Thursday with the president regarding the points of issue and means of settlement. It is expected that the railroad war board will meet immediately after this conference to learn the attitude of their employees.

ALL ALIEN ENEMIES UNDER RULE

Washington, Nov. 19.—All alien enemies are required to register and to obtain permits for travel, under a proclamation issued today by President Wilson. Enemies also are prohibited from approaching within 100 yards of water fronts, docks, railroad terminals or storage houses and are forbidden to enter or reside in the District of Columbia.

The proclamation, issued as a supplement to one declaring a state of war with Germany, provides further that an alien shall not, except on public ferries, be found on "any ocean bay, river or other water" within the United States. They are forbidden to fly in airplanes, balloons or slips or to enter the Panama Canal zone.

Only Germans will be affected by the proclamation, as it specifies "enemies" and "not allies of the enemies."

ALBI GETS HARD BLOW BY DAY'S EVIDENCE

By Associated Press. San Antonio, Texas, Nov. 19.—The Albi set up by Private Henry T. Walls, company I, one of the negro soldiers charged with participation in the Houston raid Aug. 23, received a severe blow during the session this morning. Walls, who took the stand in its own defense, testified that he spent the night with a negro girl, Cordelia Porter, under a house, near the camp. The girl, who followed him on the stand, testified that they spent the night under her mother's house 1212 Moran street, nearly two miles from the camp.

Incidentally it was brought out by question Private Walls failed to tell the same story on the witness stand today that he did when examined before the board of officers at Fort Bliss. During the regimental investigation at Fort Bliss Walls, according to record introduced, said he was Private Richard Lewis and one of the defendants crawled under the house but had neither arms nor ammunition with him. In testifying before the court martial he asserted that Lewis brought his rifle and a quantity of ammunition with him when he (Lewis) crawled under the house.

Walls First Witness. Walls was the first witness for the defense. He was called to the stand shortly after 11 o'clock, after Colonel J. A. Hull, judge advocate, announced that prosecution would rest. In a statement to the court Major Harry S. Grier, who has been assigned to conduct the defense, testified that Walls had been informed he did not have to take the stand but that if he did so he would be subject to cross-examination. Walls came forward from his place in the dock and in response to questions from Brigadier General George K. Hunter, presiding member of the court, said he voluntarily had expressed a wish to testify. General Hunter informed him that if he so desired the witness might present his statement until sworn. This he declined and having taken the oath stepped to the witness stand and gave his name, age as 20 years, time of service as seven months and birthplace as Mississippi.

In his direct examination he testified that he was in camp practically all afternoon, going to a girl's house for a few minutes, but returning immediately. He was present at a great number of the riotous parties at Fort Worth and he testified that he did not know any of the soldiers who were in the camp that night and did not see any of them.

Responding to questions by Major Grier, the witness said he was in rank when he heard the cry "here comes the man." There was a rush on the support until nearly 6 o'clock, when he went back into camp.

"Did you have your rifle?" asked Major Grier. "No, sir," replied the witness. "Any other soldiers under the house with you?" asked Colonel Hull. "None when I got there."

"Did any come there a few minutes?" "Yes, sir, Richard Lewis, company I. You say you were about the camp that afternoon; did you notice whether there was any unusual talking?" "No, sir."

"Did you hear anyone suggest going to Houston to shoot the town up that night?" "No, sir."

"Where were you all afternoon?" "In the camp street most of the time."

HUN ARMIES GAIN NEW FRONT

The war situation of today is summarized by the Associated Press as follows: Heavy masses of Austro-German troops are being thrown against the Italian lines between the Piave and the Brenta in an effort to drive a wedge between the Italian units defending the Piave line and those to the west in the Asiago region.

Comparatively rapid progress has been made in this operation in the last day or two and it is becoming clear that the main Austro-German effort is concentrated at present upon what is probably the most critical point in the Italian defensive line.

Quero, on the upper Piave, about 50 miles from the front, was taken by the invaders, who subsequently pushed the left flank of their line west of the river, a considerable distance south along that line. The offensive movement has carried the Austrians to Monte Tomba, some five miles southwest of Quero, and they are attacking the front between this eminence and the river with a force which the Italians are finding it hard to cope with, despite their most desperate efforts.

Should the Austro-German thrust be carried much further here the entire upper Piave line, from a point near Conegliano, approximately 100 miles from the Adriatic, would be in Teutonic possession, and it is difficult to see how the Italians in this case will be able to continue their offensive in the southern stretches of the river, which at present they are bravely and successfully defending.

In the eastern Trentino the Italians have begun a counter offensive on the Asiago plateau, which already has netted them gains. It is not apparent as yet, however, that this movement is of sufficient strength to constitute any menace to the Austro-German operations further east.

Petrograd newspapers report Germany refusing to treat for peace with the present Bolshevik government, Emperor William declaring he will negotiate only with the legitimate government or the imperial government or with the constituent assembly.

The extremists are now threatening to make a peace on their own accord and to make a neutral status if the war continues after Nov. 23, which is reported to have been set as the time limit for replies from the negotiators on the Bolshevik peace proposal.

In Trentino and along the Piave the Italians have the Austro-German forces have been under heavy bombardment by the Germans for several days, giving apparent evidence that the Germans are nervous and hope by the artillery fire to check a new British thrust.

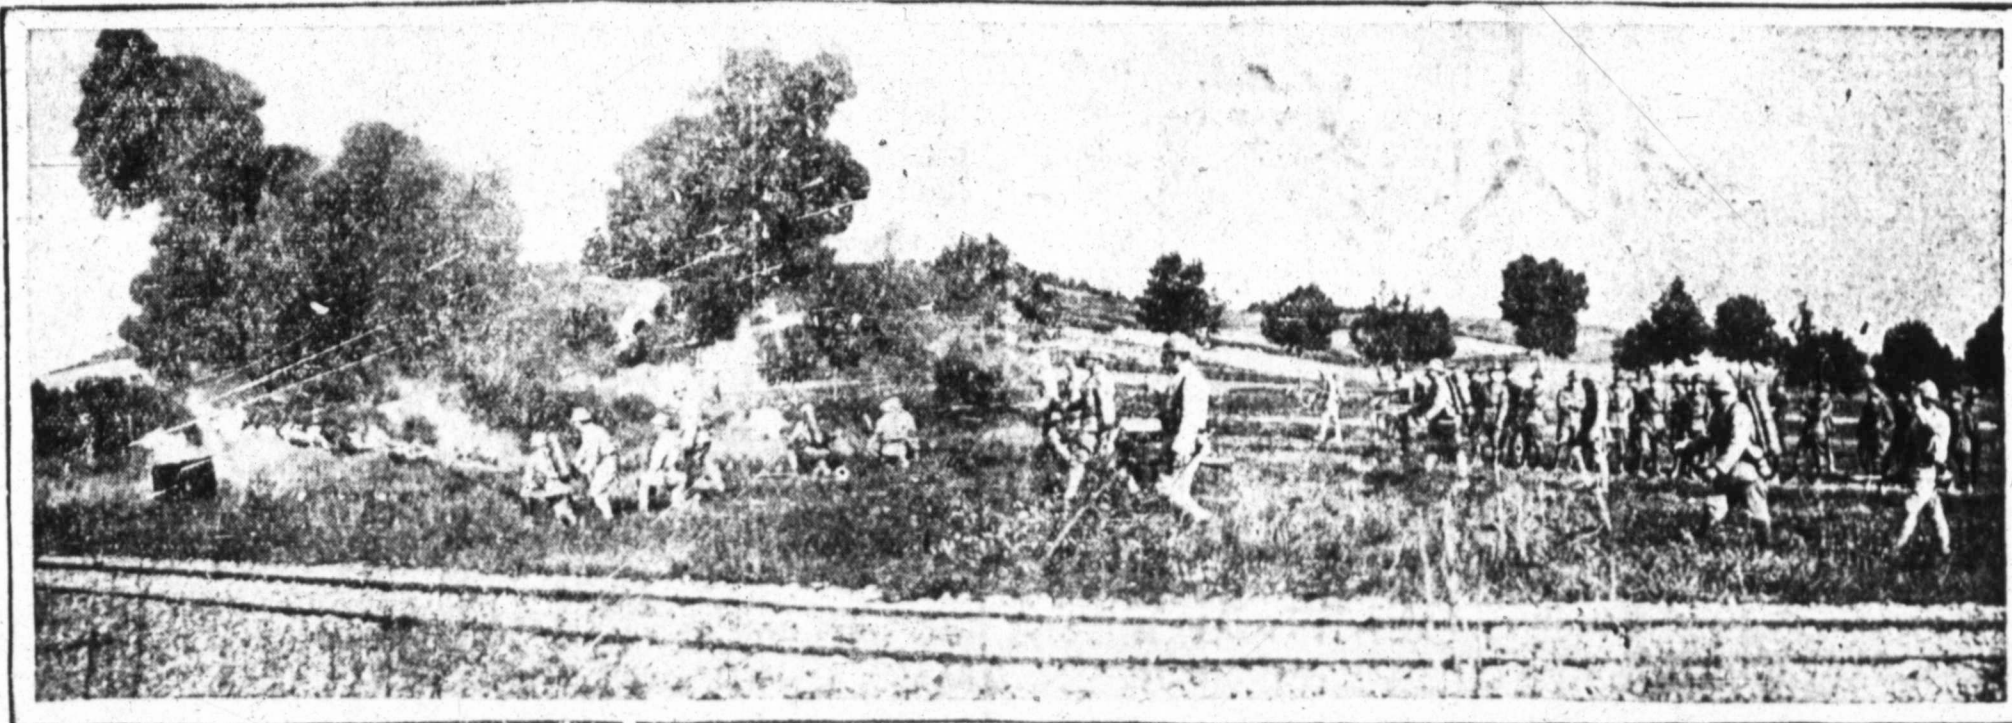

Around St. Quentin, northwest of the Ailette, where the British and the notable successes of the German and allied patrols have been busy. North of St. Quentin both the British and Germans carried out raids.

Teutonic Pressure Strong. Although the Teutonic pressure from Asiago east to the Piave continues very strong, the Italians hold valiantly to their positions and the invaders have been unable to make much progress. On the Asiago plateau the Italians repelled violent attacks and near Casera recaptured an advanced position, taking 100 prisoners.

Austro-German efforts to force the Italians back from the western bank of the Piave at Zenson and Fagare have failed. The invading force which crossed at Fagare has been driven back across the river, while efforts to debouch from the bridge head at Zenson were repulsed by Italian counter attacks.

On the right bank of the Piave the Italians have taken nearly 1,300 prisoners in two days. Another army is reported to be marching on Petrograd to oust the Bolsheviks from control there. The vanguard, which is said to be near Gatchina, 30 miles southwest of the capital, already has had several brushes with the Bolshevik forces. It is rumored that Premier Kerensky is returning with the new force. All the reports lack confirmation.

SAYS NO GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS COULD BE UNEARTHED IN THE CITY.

NO DAMAGE IS FEARED

Conditions Are Represented as Chaotic, But U. S. Citizens in Moscow Are Reported Safe.

Washington, Nov. 19.—Ambassador Francis B. Pickens reported to the state department in a message dated Friday and received today, that he had recommended that all unattached American women and American men, accompanied by women and children, leave the city. Arrangements have been made for them to travel on the Transiberian railroad in two special coaches. The ambassador reported conditions in the Russian capital as chaotic but fairly quiet.

There was no central head of government and the embassy dealt directly with the superintendent of passenger service on the railway in arranging for the removal of the Americans. The departments of government were either closed or being operated without their chiefs.

Mr. Francis said he feared no damage to the embassy, but conditions were so unstable that he deemed it best to get the Americans out of information at the state department, not that there are in Petrograd about 200 Americans.

A report from Moscow, sent Saturday by American Consul General Sumner, said all Americans there were safe. The Maximalists there, he reported, had been driven out of the city by the government after hard fighting.

Lenine's Statement. Having his opinion on the state of the city, the ambassador reported that the Bolsheviks were dependent on a world-wide revolutionary movement by soldiers and workmen, officials at the Russian embassy reported today that the followers of the Kerensky government would win either through a military victory or through the incapacity of the Bolsheviks to manage their own promises to their followers.

No late news had been received that the Bolsheviks had declared that the mention of Captain Pavloff as the commander of troops opposing the Bolsheviks was an encouraging sign. Captain Pavloff is said to be of the staff of the Social Democratic workmen's party and the opinion was expressed that this means that one of the strongest factions of the opposition had gone over to the moderates.

Chicago, Nov. 19.—Investigation of charges that waiters employed in first class Chicago hotels were alien enemies, agents of foreign espionage corps to report the result of its inquiry to the International Geneva Association, was ordered yesterday by the Chicago Federation of Labor. The federation intends to report the result of its inquiry to the International Geneva Association, which is discovered important.

The charges were made by B. M. Parker, representing the waiters' union. These accusations were a prompt denial from hotel owners, who asserted that since the beginning of the war they had taken precautions to prevent just such espionage.

Dies in Mesopotamia After Brief Illness

GEN. F. S. MAUDE

GENERAL MAUDE DIES IN MESOPOTAMIA; ILL FOR ONLY SHORT TIME

London, Nov. 19.—General Maude, British commander in Mesopotamia, died yesterday. An official announcement is issued today says General Maude died in Mesopotamia yesterday evening after a brief illness.

By Associated Press. London, Nov. 19.—Major General Frederick Stanley Maude, the captor of Baghdad, was rated as one of the most brilliant military commanders of the war. After a series of British defeats in Mesopotamia, General Maude was placed in command last year and won an unbroken series of successes. He captured Kut-el-Amara, where General Townshend's army had been completely surrounded. He continued his drive in the Tigris, advancing 90 miles in two weeks and last March captured Baghdad. His operations being designed primarily to defeat the expected attempt of the Germans and Turks to recapture the city.

General Maude was 53 years old. He had a distinguished military record before the war. He took part in the Sudan campaign in 1898 and received the medal with clasp and the khivis's star. He served with distinction in the South African war, where he won the distinguished service order and the queen's medal with six clasps.

Prior to taking command in Mesopotamia General Maude saw service in France, where he was wounded. He was mentioned five times in the dispatches and made a Commander of the Bath.

From 1901 to 1904 he was military secretary to the governor general of Canada and later private secretary to the secretary of state for war.

American Sector Is Still Active Scene; Germans Are Wary

With the American Army in France (delayed), Nov. 18.—Arms and military activities continue on the American sector. The infantry has not taken part in any engagements and for the past few nights the Germans have not been coming near the American lines, apparently having learned that it is danger to do so.

Managements Say Entire Matter Now In Wilson's Hands

By Associated Press. Washington, Nov. 19.—Formal announcement was made today that the railroads of the United States decided if any crisis should arise, to place the interests in the hands of President Wilson for protection and such disposition as he may deem necessary to prevent interruption of transportation during the war. The four railroad brotherhoods who have made demands for increased wages, have agreed to mediation of the dispute, but have refused an unconditional submission of the questions to a board of arbitration.

Strike Averted. Today's announcement by the railroad war board is regarded by officials as eliminating the possibility of a strike by giving the president a free hand so far as the railroads are concerned when he meets the brotherhood leaders in conference here next Thursday.

Fairfax Harrison, chairman of the executive committee of the American Railway Association, commonly known as the war board, wrote this letter to Judge William L. Chambers, chairman of the United States board of mediation and conciliation, who conferred with various railroad executives in New York Saturday and with the war board today.

"We confirm what we said to you this morning in reply to your inquiry as to what will be the attitude of the railroads with respect to the manner of settlement of any demands for increases in pay or changes in working conditions which during the war may be made upon them by employees. Favor Arbitration. Speaking for all the railroads to day we reiterate our belief in and general acceptance of the principle of arbitration. In the midst of war we are, however, prepared to go further. As no interruption of continuous operation can be tolerated under war conditions, we are ready, should any crisis now arise, unreservedly to place our interests in the hands of the president for protection and for disposition as he may consider necessary in the public interest.

The entire war board was present at the conference with Judge Chambers, including Mr. Harrison, president of the Southern railway, and President Howard E. Kott of the New Haven, Hale G. Holden, Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, Julius Kruttschnitt, Southern Railway, and Samuel Reed, Pennsylvania.

Representatives of the brotherhood will confer Thursday with the president regarding the points of issue and means of settlement. It is expected that the railroad war board will meet immediately after this conference to learn the attitude of their employees.

ALL ALIEN ENEMIES UNDER RULE

Washington, Nov. 19.—All alien enemies are required to register and to obtain permits for travel, under a proclamation issued today by President Wilson. Enemies also are prohibited approaching within 100 yards of water fronts, docks, railroad terminals or storage houses and are forbidden to fly in airplanes, balloons or ships or to enter the Panama canal zone.

Only Germans will be affected by the proclamation, as it specifies "enemies" and "not allies of the enemies."

ALIBI GETS HARD BLOW BY DAY'S EVIDENCE

By Associated Press. San Antonio, Texas, Nov. 19.—The alibi set up by Private Henry T. Walls, company I, one of the negro soldiers charged with participation in the Houston raid Aug. 23, received a severe blow today when the morning witness Walls, who took the stand in its own defense, testified that he spent the night with a negro girl, Cordelia Porter, under a house near the camp. The girl, who followed him on the stand, testified that they spent the night under her mother's house 1212 Moran street, nearly two miles from the camp.

Incidentally it was brought out by question Private Walls failed to tell the court where he was after sunset today that he did when examined before the board of officers at Fort Bliss. During the regimental investigation at Fort Bliss Walls was accused of introducing, said Private Richard Lewis and one of the defendants crawled under the house but had neither arms nor ammunition with them in testimony before the court martial he asserted that Lewis brought his rifle and a quantity of ammunition with him when he (Lewis) crawled under the house.

Walls First Witness. Walls was the first witness for the defense. He was called to the stand shortly after 9 o'clock by Captain J. A. Hull, judge advocate, announced that prosecution would rest. In a statement to the court Major Harry S. Grier, who has been assigned to conduct the defense, explained that Walls had been informed he did not have to take the stand but that if he did so he would be subjected to a court martial. Walls came forward from his place in the dock and in response to questions from Brigadier General George K. Hunter, ordered to testify. Walls testified that he voluntarily had expressed a wish to testify. General Hunter informed him that if he so desired the witness might prefer to be sworn until sworn. This he declined and having taken the oath stepped to the witness stand and gave his name, age as 20 years, time of service as seven months and birthplace as Mississippi.

Went to See Girl. In his direct examination he testified that he was in a camp practically all afternoon, going to a girl's house for a few minutes, but returning immediately. He was present at retreat and heard the orders that none of the soldiers was to leave camp at 8 o'clock, and turned in his rifle at 8 o'clock, just before the riot started.

Questions by Major Grier, the witness said he was in the camp when he heard the cry "Here comes the night." There was a rush on the supply tent and he did not take part in the riot. He said he was in the camp that he ran across K company's street to his girl's house, near the railroad.

"I ran down the porch," he said, "and handed her a letter. I told her to lay down on the floor."

Got Under Bed. "We crawled under the bed and then I said we better go under the house. We went out the back way and crawled under the house. I went to sleep and woke up about 3 o'clock, got up and went into the house, staying there until nearly 6 o'clock, when I went back into camp."

"Did you have your rifle?" asked Major Grier. "Any other soldiers under the house with you?" asked Colonel Hull. "None when I got there."

"Yes, sir, Richard Lewis, company I." "You say you were about the camp that afternoon, did you see whether there was any unusual talking?" "No, sir."

"Did you hear anyone suggest going to Houston to shoot the town up that night?" "No, sir."

"Where were you all afternoon?" "In the camp street most of the time."

WHAT Y. W. C. A. IS EXPECTED TO DO
IS NOW OUTLINED

PAMPHLET TELLS OF ORGANIZATION FOR WAR TIME SERVICE.

The work of the Y. W. C. A. is some what along the same lines as that of the Y. M. C. A.; dealing, of course, with women and girls, instead of men and boys. Its object is the same—that of their welfare, and their activities around the many camps has been of incalculable benefit.

Of their work in the war—what they have done, and what they plan to do, the following extracts from one of the pamphlets will give some little idea.

"Ever since this country faced the possibility of an active part in the European war, the national board of the Young Women's Christian Association has been confronted with an immense responsibility for helping to safeguard the moral conditions in the neighborhood of army and navy training camps and to provide for the welfare of women in varied industries in the unusual conditions created by the war.

"Telegrams from the war department commission on training camp activities and from the general secretary of the international committee of the Y. M. C. A., setting forth the need of expert women workers added impetus to the plans of the national board. The acceptance of this sudden challenge to prove their ability to help in the social, industrial and economic readjustments in the lives of thousands of women and girls in our country culminated in two meetings on June 5 and 6, wherein a war work council was organized. The national board authorized the creation of the war work council of 100 women, consisting in part of national board members and field representatives, and in part of women of varied interests not at the time connected with the association.

"This council voted to raise a budget of $1,000,000, which has been increased to $4,000,000, for work among women and girls in communities adjoining United States army training camps and mobilization centers, in connection with special war industries employing girls, and in European countries affected by the war.

"In order to enlist the interests and activities of the younger girls, the patriotic league has been formulated; not as an organization, but as a standard to which every girl may pledge herself. This league is being promoted by the junior war work council, and literature and buttons have been prepared for distribution to all members.

"The pledge reads:
'I pledge to express my patriotism
whatever I have to do by rendering whatever special service I can at this time to my community and country.

"By living up to the highest standards of character and honor, and by helping others to do the same.

"It is an exceptional privilege to so direct the spirit of youth and patriotism that it may be a power and not a danger in these days of trial.

"The whole secret of the usefulness of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. depends upon motives and ideals and personality. Buildings do not count unless there is something behind them.
They are important, but it is the question of individual work and the motive of it that will go a long distance in settling the issue of whether we are going to pay the awful price which has been paid up to date with every army.

American Sergeant
Has Rifle Broken
But He Is Not Hurt

By Associated Press
With the American Army in France,
Nov. 19.—The experience of an American sergeant in a support trench has demonstrated that a shell can go within a few inches of a man and not hurt him. Recently the sergeant was standing back of the lines holding his rifle out of the mud by the side. Suddenly there was a rush of air and the rifle was almost pulled from his hand, followed by an explosion in the mud twenty yards in the rear.

The sergeant was knocked down and when he scrambled to his feet he discovered that the shell had clipped off the rifle stock, leaving only the barrel in his hand.

I was so nervous that the least noise

I was not able to do anything until I

Great Gun Factory
Being Constructed
at National Capital

Seven and a half million dollars has recently been appropriated by the government for a mammoth naval gun factory at Washington, and work has already begun on it. Eight thousand men are employed at present, and there is work for four thousand more according to the following notice from Washington:

Nearly 55,000 appointments were made to the forces of mechanics, helpers and laborers at navy yards and other naval establishments during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1917, and since that date appointments have been made in increased proportion.

An appropriation of $7,500,000 is now being expended in the enlargement of the great naval gun factory at Washington, which, when completed, will furnish employment for 4,000 of more skilled mechanics, in addition to the 8,000 already at work in the plant. In this mammoth factory, one of the best equipped and most interesting in the world are built the great guns for our war vessels, which carry to every country the message of America's ability to protect herself and to safeguard the rights of her citizens wherever they may be.

The new naval aircraft factory at Philadelphia, which will be completed

this month, will also employ about 3, 000 men.

The workers who man such plants are of a superior class, and they feel a personal pride in turning out products that will stand the test of conflict with the arms of other nations.
A considerable part of the building of war vessels is also done in government yards.

The United States civil service commission, which is charged with the task of recruiting the ranks of this great civilian army, through its widespread organization, is furnishing the men as they are needed. In certain trades, particularly those connected with shipbuilding, there is usually a shortage. Sailmakers, coppersmiths, shipfitters, anglers, smiths, blacksmiths and machinists are especially needed.

Women to operate power sewing machines are also in great demand. The representatives of the civil service commission at the postoffices in all cities are the official recruiting agents for this as well as other branches of the civil service. The commission urges competent mechanics to offer their services to the government at this time of great need.

Do These Puppets Represent You?

These men who strut around and prate of the "people's rights" and "helping the farmer," did you ever look into their records and see what they have ACTUALLY DONE to promote legislation on the big fundamental questions that they talk about so glibly? What bills have they introduced to help YOU? How have they voted?

Are you SURE that your representatives are not influenced by the HIDDEN POWER that now holds the government of a great Southwestern state in the palm of its hand?

Here is what Mr. Joseph Emerson Smith, Managing Editor of the San Antonio Express, has to say about the astounding political novel "Hidden Power" by Senator John G. Willacy which is now running in

HOLLAND'S
The Southwest's Own Magazine

"The conviction grows on me that 'Hidden Power' will be one of the material factors in fighting conditions where iniquities of a political system of bossism have temporarily chained and shackled the people. You have accomplished a remarkable work. You have written a splendid piece of fiction, a novel of absorbing interest—and when I say absorbing I am not using it other than as a plain fact—and yet the tremendous moral or lesson of your narrative is so made a part, is so vitally essential in the development of the story that there is no line of demarcation, and the reader is swept along to the very conclusion without realizing that the book has a big purpose. And then the lesson it teaches becomes an unforgettable truth implanted in the consciousness."

SPRIT OF DEMOCRACY MADE STRONGER BY WORLD WAR

(By Margaret Walter) London, November 19.—With the beginning of the fourth winter of war smart London shops have opened up with something of the old fashionable assemblage.

Paris dressmakers are restricted to four yards for a suit. It is amusing to find our American word "suit" rapidly becoming popular in London.

Green Season's Color. The color of the season is green with Venetian red as a close second, but the greater number of smart women in the restaurants and tea shops are dressed in dark with touches of vivid color used as lining or inverts.

House Dresses Worn. Because of the universal chilliness indoors this winter, most house dresses are fitted with inner linings of the softest possible wool, so light and transparent that they look like lace but are indestructible by wear.

Velvet and Brocade. Velvet and brocade are being used wherever possible to take the place of cloth, for these are very scarce.

NEWSIES OF CITY ORGANIZE CLUB AT SUNDAY'S MEETING

BOYS ELECT SHELTON PRESIDENT AND COMPLETE LIST OF OTHER OFFICERS.

The Wichita Falls Newsboys' Club was organized Sunday afternoon with 77 charter members and County Probation Officer C. C. Shelton was elected president.

At 3 o'clock sharp Sunday afternoon the 77 boys who later organized themselves into a club were gathered together in the recital hall of the Harrison-Everson Company's store on Seaventh street.

Misses Katha Bonham, Agnes Belloc, Mae Scott and Mary Porter were there to furnish vocal and instrumental music, which was much appreciated by the vendors of newspapers.

At the beginning of the meeting F. W. Greer of the Tribune stated the object of the organization was to furnish a club for every boy in Wichita Falls who sells The Times and the Tribune and the outside newspapers.

Mr. Shelton received 54 votes, E. P. Hany two votes and Noble Gray 42 votes. The election was by ballot, each of the 76 boys participating making the name of his choice for president on the slip of paper which he had been provided with.

Subsequently Jack Mayo, a newsboy, was elected secretary of the club. Hany and Jack Strman, then five vice presidents were elected as follows: Glenn Hawkins, newsboy, first vice president; J. W. Mahon of the Tribune, H. Murphy of The Times, Noble Gray of the Dallas News, Jack Leonard of the Star-Telegram.

It was stated during the meeting that two hotel men had already made arrangements for a Christmas dinner for newspaper vendors, and the mention of it elicited applause that would have drowned out the faint "ring" of the gavel.

President Shelton told the boys that he had learned that crap shooting and gambling houses and bicycle races are the principal offenses for which boys are sent to the state reformatory at Gatesville. He asked the boys to help in the work of preventing other boys from committing offenses, and every lad in the hall agreed to do so.

Evenly the cables from Russia are crossed.

A dead man has been indicted for an offense in Waco. The church folk there seem to have gained "some start" toward reforming this world and the next.

According to a headline, "Hamburg Meeting Is Reported to Be of Significance." We have an idea that before very long a hamburger steak is going to be of much significance to the Germans.

President Wilson and his advisers are no respecters of persons when it comes to taking steps necessary to speed up war preparations. Some industries, says a recent announcement, may be denied transportation facilities if it is shown that they are in any way contributors toward winning the conflict. If all of the people realized the situation and conducted themselves as do these leaders, the war would be shortened by many weeks, for efficiency would instantly rule in every department of the work, from the farmer's barn lot to the front line trenches.

IS VILLA LESS WANTED THAN FORMERLY? Francisco Villa is again at the head of a Mexican sore-head coalition, and early indications are that the Carranza government will have its hands full, so far as the northern part of the republic is concerned.

Villa is the same who, with his cruel, lawless following, crossed the border into Columbus, N. M., and there wantonly murdered innocent Americans, then fled back into the heart of his own country.

The Pershing expedition was sent into Mexico to capture the bandit, penetrating far inland and remaining so long that relations between Mexico and the United States reached the verge of the breaking point. The expedition was withdrawn and Villa was not captured.

At Parral, the bandit was reported to have been wounded or killed. Since then nothing definite had been learned as to his whereabouts until, with brazen audacity, he appeared opposite Presadio, captured the Mexican town of Ojinaga and moved on, indifferent to the fact that American soldiers were drawn up along the border.

Indifferent to the fact that he is supposed to be "wanted" on this side of the line for the murder of many innocents.

We cannot understand why Villa is less "wanted" now than immediately following the Columbus outrage.

We believe him to be, not only a menace to this country, but a menace to the stability of the new Mexican government.

And peace in Mexico, at this time, is important to the people of the United States, they being otherwise engaged.

THE KAISER—AND GOD. Once again the Kaiser has libelled God.

God, he told his troops, crowned the German banner with victory in the recent Italian drive.

Do such statements as these sound "funny" to you?

They are not "funny." Rightly viewed, they do not even sound "funny." For they have the effect, little as we can understand it, of solidifying the people of Germany, being but a reiteration of the teachings of their childhood that their Kaiser can do no wrong.

The rank and file of the German people do not think out matters of this kind. What right have they to think? They have been taught what to believe. Until they do begin to reason, independent of the dogmatic statements of their rulers, so long will they stand behind these rulers in barbaric warfare.

There is a school teacher at Washington who is starting a campaign of education in Germany. His name is Woodrow Wilson. He is endeavoring to teach them that God and the Kaiser are by no means one and the same. Once they have learned this lesson, once they have learned that this war is being waged by the democracies of the world quite as much for their benefit as for our own, revolution will do the rest.

But their previous schooling of a lifetime may not be eradicated in a moment. It will take time.

No Verdict Reached In Parker Case Up to Late Afternoon Hour

The jury in the T. W. Parker case against W. R. Arnold and 17 other citizens of and near Iowa Park had not arrived at a verdict at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The case was turned over to the jury shortly after 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon, at which time Judge Edgar Scurry informed the jurors they could consider the case on Sunday if they wished to.

At one time this morning the foreman of the jury sent word to Judge Scurry that the jurors wished to be further informed on a point of law, but the jurors are said to have finally agreed upon the question that had been giving trouble without Judge Scurry's assistance.

This is the case in which the plaintiff is suing eighteen defendants for $10,000 alleged actual damages and $5,000 alleged exemplary damages, alleging that the defendants conspired together to injure his business when he was editor, publisher and proprietor of the Iowa Park Herald.

The trial consumed all of last week, beginning on Monday morning, Nov. 12, and continuing until 5:15 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Nov. 17.

Three Good Wells On Ramming Lease Are Reported In

FINAL ARGUMENTS MADE AT HEARING FOR RATE ADVANCE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Final stage in the common fight of the eastern railroads for a 15 per cent advance in freight rates, involving $5,000,000 annually, were reached today when interstate commerce commission heard closing arguments.

All the big trunk line systems between the Mississippi river and the New England seaboard and north of the Ohio river had a coalition of counsel headed by George Stuart Patterson, making a last stand in the great contest before the commission in Washington. They rested largely on their financial showing, along with the necessity of transportation efficiency for national defense.

Large shippers of livestock, independent oil and other bulk freight were represented by attorneys, including Clifford Thorne as leading counsel, who disputed the railroads' attitude. They contended that present freight rates are adequate.

Inadequacy of war time revenues of the nation's railroads is no longer a purely economic problem, but a vital question of national defense, Mr. Patterson argued.

He asked for a sweeping readjustment of prevailing rates to allow the railroads to meet soaring operating costs and serve more efficiently the transportation needs of the nation in the present emergency.

An increase of $97,000,000 produced by rate increase granted by the commission earlier in the year, taken in conjunction with the supplemental advance now asked for, Mr. Patterson said, would give a total of $155,000,000, or a little more than half the advance of $275,000,000 expenses. As a hearing must be had for further increases, he gave notice that application will be made by eastern carriers for permission to file tariffs making such additional increases.

Less Drunkenness Found in New York Than Ever Before

New York, Nov. 19.—Drunkenness has decreased greatly in New York because of the demand for labor caused by the war and "indirect" prohibition, according to conclusions reached by officials of the board of sobriety and hospital authorities, made public today.

Arrests for intoxication dwindled from 1,222 in February to 969 in August while the psychopathic ward in Bellevue Hospital has had fewer alcoholic patients in the last six months than at any time in its history. Similar decreases in other hospitals also have been reported.

Schwears Case on Trial

The suit of W. H. Schwears against Lucille Mulhall for debt and attachment will probably go to trial in the Seventy-eighth division of the Wichita county district court this afternoon. The defendant, Miss Mulhall, is well known in Wichita Falls, her wild west show playing here last summer. She is an Oklahoma woman.

QUARTER OF AN INCH OF RAIN FELL HERE

The rainfall at Wichita Falls Sunday and Sunday night amounted to only .25-100 of an inch, but it seemed to be much more. This precipitation was in addition to the .3-10 of an inch that fell Friday and Friday night.

The rainfall Sunday and Sunday night is thought to have been more or less general.

First Presbyterian Campaign to Be Cut Down to Two Months

Owing to the demands on the people for the war, it has been decided to cut short the three month campaign of the First Presbyterian Church by one month. Rev. N. F. Grafton announced that the campaign will close with the last of November instead of lasting through December, as had been planned. There have already been a number of additions to the church, a growth in the church and Sunday school congregations and similar good results of the campaign, it was announced. The committees will meet tonight at the church for a conference.

Mr. Grafton made a request from the pulpit Sunday morning that his church members do as much Red Cross and other war work as possible. The small or children of the church have been organized to make scrap books for the soldiers and meet each Saturday at the church for this purpose. The women of the church are to make a effort to be at the work rooms of the Red Cross on Monday and Saturday in addition to the work at home the church members are to write letters to the young men of the church who are in the various training camps and in France, a list of the boys being included in the church bulletins every day. There are about 20 names in this honor roll.

"Character Building" Topic of Dr. Jones in High School Lecture

A lecture on "Character Building" was enjoyed by the high school students in chapel this morning, the speaker being Dr. Claude L. Jones, titling expert, who is here for a campaign at the First Christian Church this week. Dr. Jones and Prof. Leo Clark, the superintendent of city schools, were classmates as boys and enjoyed a visit together at the schools after the chapel lecture.

Railroad Commission Assumes Jurisdiction Over Interurban Lines By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, Nov. 19.—The railroad commission today issued an order assuming jurisdiction over all the interurban railway companies operating in Texas, this rather unusual action being the result of notice received by the commission of an advance in freight rates by the interurbans. The order also requires the interurbans to file with the commission all passenger, freight and express tariffs covering a period from Oct. 1 to the present time. The interurbans are required to file these tariffs and rates within ten days from the issuance of this order. The commission proposes to regulate in the future all freight and express rates in operation by the interurbans. In the event that the commission finds that the advance in rates by the interurbans is not justifiable, the commission proposes to restore the old tariff and place the rates where they were before the advance was ordered.

REV. N. F. GRAFTON SPEAKS OF WILSON, MAN OF DESTINY

Woodrow Wilson as the man who the times have brought forth to be the man of destiny formed the subject of the Sunday morning sermon of Rev. N. F. Grafton at the First Presbyterian Church. The speaker showed that for every great crisis a man to control it had arisen, and he hailed the president of the United States as the man to control the situation. The many attributes of a man of destiny were named and it was shown that these belonged to Wilson. The hope was expressed that through all the criticisms and abuse and trials which are sure to come, the great man could maintain the same level head and superior calm which he had met everything that had come thus far. Kipling's "If," which the president is said to keep framed in front of his desk, was cited as a splendid motto for a man so much in the eyes of the world.

The speaker then turned the attention of his listeners to "the one perfect being who took on the form of a man who has been the man of the hour through the ages, the one person who could fill the needs of a world at all times, Jesus Christ."

AUSTRIANS WHO CROSSED PLANE SENT TO DEATHS

HAND-TO-HAND WORK FORCES MANY ENEMIES INTO THE RIVER.

FIGHTING IS DESPERATE

Both Sides Enter Combat With Determination to Win—More Than 1,500 Killed.

By Associated Press.
Italian Headquarters in Northern Italy (Delayed), Nov. 18.—The Austrians who forced their way across the Piave river above Zenson have been thrown into the river, drowned, bayoneted, killed or captured, until not an enemy remained in the hands of that most threatened point. The fight was one of the most fearful chapters of the war and one of the most glorious.

Details of the fight have been gathered from eye-witnesses who saw the fearful carnage through Friday night and yesterday and who stayed until the whole west bank was cleared except for the corpses on the shore and in the foreground.

Wounded Numerous.
The wounded were so numerous that many have not yet received succor. The enemy had staked everything on getting to the west bank of the river and the Italians risked everything on keeping him on the eastern bank. This nerved both to desperation. The Austrians made the first move Friday in two separate crossings. First they advanced above Zenson, first at the village of Fagare and then an old mill called the Segna mill, near Pollina.

Several creeks enabled them to pass. They chose a place where a sandbar ran in midstream, giving them a landing and dividing the main stream in two shallow rivers. They carried material for an improvised bridge.

This was about 5 o'clock in the morning, and in the next four hours they got across the second narrow channel to the west bank. The Italian men waded in water above their waists. In their waders they pushed past four Italian machine gun batteries, capturing the guns and driving the Austrians back into the village of Fagare.

Fight at Village.
Here the real fight began, as the Austrians had now recovered from the surprise, and they fought like demons. It was a hand-to-hand fight in the streets of the town, with no place for artillery or machine guns and the Austrians, using bayonets, hand grenades, knives and clubs, fought the Austrians held part of the town near the bank, with the Italians on the land side. The Austrians tried to throw a line across the river and succeeded in part on one side, until the Italian batteries to the north got the range of the line outside the shelter of the street.

The Austrians were driven back and the Italians on this side of the town advanced, cheering, hewing their way.

The enemy held at first, then began to seek cover and finally broke as the Italians pushed them from the town back to the river. Some plunged into the water and sought to get to the sandbar. All the machine guns were abandoned. Most of the enemy fell along the water's edge and an observer, who saw the gruesome sight, says the bodies on the river bank and in the water reminded him of seaweed after the tide had gone out.

Whole Shore Cleared.
Further up the river at Segna mill the crossing had brought on another bloody fight, which lasted until late yesterday when the whole shore was cleared of living Austrians. Now it was lined with dead. The movement here began late on Friday night and reached its culmination about 11 o'clock Saturday morning. For a night several Austrian battalions got across under the cover of darkness. They chose narrow channels and some of the Austrians officers rode across on horseback. They took a position near the town cemetery and opened on the Italians during the night with machine guns. The Austrians carried two searchlights, which they played on the Italian positions, while the Italians were without searchlights. It was only the Austrians who were able to see that the Italians could direct their fire.

At daylight yesterday the enemy still held his position at the cemetery. The situation began to look serious and for a time it appeared as though the Italians would have to fall back. But now the famous Bersaglieri brigade was brought up fresh after its heroic rear guard defense of the main army as it retired on the field.

Charge After Dawn.
The Italians charged shortly after dawn, their line moving straight up the hill to the cemetery. Against machine guns and snipers on the bank, the Italians moved with bayonets, grenades and torpedoes. It was one of those charges, inspired by love of home and country which will live always and it was irresistible. The enemy wavered and broke just as the Italian artillery on a near-by height got the range of the cemetery. But the main fighting was hand-to-hand, with the enemy being pressed back steadily to the river, where they were cut down, drowned, bayoneted or captured. By 10 o'clock yesterday all had been swept away except a few straggling groups, by noon not one of the enemy's force was left on the western bank.

In addition to some 1,500 killed, the enemy lost 1,500 prisoners, including two colonels and some 30 officers. All the Austrian machine guns were captured and are now being used by the Italians.

The fever of the fight is shown by the fact that the old Segna mill on the river's bank was taken and retaken six times during the day and night. The mill is full of bullet holes, but shows no evidence of the shell fire in which the fighting was carried on at close quarters.

Jury Commission of Federal Court Busy With Drawings Today

The federal jury commission for the Wichita division of the northwest Texas district, composed of United States Commissioner J. A. Lantz, Deputy United States Marshal Robert Goodfellow, Democrats, and O. T. Baggett, Republican, began preparations for the selection of the federal grand and petit juries this afternoon and will not complete the work until tomorrow.

They are placing the names submitted by the several postmasters in the district on cards this afternoon, about 25 in number. The cards will be placed in the jury box as soon as all are made out and given a good shaking up, from which box the required number of jurors will be arrived at by taking the same number of cards from the box.

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS AT THE MAJESTIC TUESDAY

Douglas Fairbanks gets into all kinds of trouble in "Double Trouble," a Triangle comedy which will amuse patrons of the Majestic Theatre Tuesday. But all the troubles of Fairbanks will only add to the enjoyment and interest of the play. Fairbanks is a good young banker who is primarily in demand by the old ladies of his church to fill the presidency of the Sabbath Day Society. Then he goes away for a vacation. Fairbanks is struck on the head by a holdup man, and then his amusing adventures begin. Waking up in a strange place, he forgets everything of his former life and begins a new career as Mr. Brassfield. He strikes oil and wins a fortune. This leads to his prominence in politics, and he becomes leading candidate for mayor. He becomes engaged to a beautiful young woman (Marjorie Wilson) and is also paying some attention to a girl known as Strawberry (Gladys Brockwell).

Charge After Dawn

The Italian charge shortly after dawn, their line moving straight up the hill to the cemetery. Against machine guns and snipers on the bank, the Italians moved with bayonets, grenades and torpedoes. The enemy wavered and broke just as the Italian artillery on a near-by height got the range of the cemetery. LAWYER LEADS NONDESCRIBTS AGAINST ENEMY

Special to The Times.

London, Nov.—An English padre, in a letter from East Africa (the letter is written with permanganate of potash because there was no available ink) tells of the heterogeneous attacks of the force to which he was attached. "Its general," he says, "is a lawyer by profession and writes K. C. among the letters after his name. A walk through one of the camps is a study in ethnology, or might be if any of us had time or energy to make it. In a short excursion I made lately in search of the Madras Pioneers I passed from the lines of the South African Infantry, skirted Canadian M. T. section, asked my way at the Houses (West African Native Regiment), was smothered in dust by a passing squadron of Dutch South African Horse (Z. A. R.), they bear on their shoulders, it stands for Zaid Africanus Ruiters), admired from a distance two enormous naval guns in charge of a section of Marines, and arrived by way of the Baluchis at my destination.

"Even this list far from exhausts the peculiarities of even this particular camp. There are Rhodesians across the river, also some Royal Fusiliers, and a detachment of the Royal North Lancs. There were several detachments of the King's African Rifles (native troops whose praise is in all men's mouths), and at least half a dozen units of the Indian army; truly an Imperial force if ever there was one. The M. T. Company whose headquarters were at Kajialo were most of them Canadians. It really looked as if the War Office had determined that the whole Empire should be represented in the East African Army."

Boiled Just Right

One of the arts of making good syrup is in the boiling. Dunbar's King Komus Syrup comes from the kettles just right. Not only is it boiled and sterilized in a most modern and up-to-date plant, but it is watched and tested by experts. It is heated to just the right degree to preserve it well, and at the same time it preserves the genuine flavor of the cane to the best advantage.

Dunbar's King Komus Syrup

is put up in a model factory. It goes right from the kettles to the cans and there is no possible way for it to come in contact with anything unsanitary on the way. The cans themselves are cleaned by machinery and sterilized and the syrup is capped by machinery. They are sanitary to the last degree. Dunbar's King Komus Syrup comes to you as pure as it is possible to get it. Above all the Syrup itself is of the highest quality. It is made from fine Louisiana sugar cane and has the delicious flavor of the cane that is so much desired in syrup. Dunbar's King Komus Syrup is the best for your table; for cakes, waffles and bread and butter.

on the edge of the limitless Nevada desert. William Dunbar, the screen's strongest and most daring star is seen in the role of Gwyn and his sweetheart is Miss Carol Holloway.

The Empress.
Violet Heming, who is the star of Gilbert Parker's "The Judgment House," which has been prepared for the screen by J. Stuart Blackton, is one of the most beautiful actresses of the screen. One often reads about "violet eyes," but in Miss Heming's case there can be absolutely no doubt that hers are a deep lavender. The picture recedes into purple. Conway Tearle, who appears in "The Judgment House" also, is the well-known screen and stage star, who will be seen on the stage this winter in New York with Ethel Barrymore. "The Judgment House" comes to the Empress theater on Monday and Tuesday.

DRINKS

With Apologies to the Whole World

OUR COFFEE IS BETTER THAN OUR POETRY

There's lemonade, and limeade, 'Coke and El Mate,' There's sweet milk, and buttermilk
And the leaves that Pat calls "tay," There's cider and grape juice
That Bryan loves so well;
There's ale and beer and whiskey
That leads you down to Hell.
Then there's a drink—a gift of the Gods,
That leaves your senses keen;
It cheers, but never inebriates—
It's brewed from the COFFEE BEAN.
L'envoy.
There's a difference, though, in coffee
As can be plainly seen:
Be sure it's WHO CAN BEAT IT—
Roasted by BERT BEAN.
