

GERMAN PLAN TO ENTER XIVRAY IS FRUSTRATED

AMERICAN MACHINE GUN FIRE BREAKS UP ATTACK AND PRISONERS TAKEN.

SURPRISE IS UPSET

Only One Party of Attackers Reaches Village And It Is Forced To Surrender.

By Associated Press.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN France, Sunday, June 16.—In their attack on XIVray on the Toul sector today the Germans hoped to enter the village and carry off a large number of prisoners, but the alertness of the American artillery observers completely overturned the enemy plan.

Examination of the Germans captured in the fight disclosed that the enemy planned the raid a week in advance and that the six hundred special troops who took part in it were rehearsed behind the German lines. The enemy plan was to send forward a large party without preparatory artillery fire. This party was to take up a position near the American barbed wire and then send up a signal rocket for a box barrage to cover XIVray village and the approaching communication trenches while the heavier artillery was to bombard the villages in the rear.

American artillery observers saw a large number of Germans creeping about in No Man's Land and thinking they composed a large working party, the artillery signaled for a barrage. The American artillery and machine guns went into action immediately and, before the enemy barrage could get started, had inflicted heavy casualties on the unprotected Germans in No Man's land and played havoc with the advance for the raid. The original enemy plan was for the attacking party to divide into three sections and come into XIVray from three different directions. Only one section actually reached the outskirts of the village but only after it had been cut up badly by artillery fire. The group got into XIVray where they were quickly surrounded by the Americans and either captured or killed.

Eight prisoners, including a lieutenant, remained in the American hands. The majority of the marine casualties, which do not include any missing, resulted from the German artillery fire. Casualties among French civilians occurred when a German shell burst near a church as a procession of villagers was emerging from mass. Many of the French wounded were cared for in American hospitals. This afternoon the American artillery opened a retaliatory fire against the area behind the German lines, while the Germans, apparently angered by the failure of the raid, bombarded villages as far as eight miles behind the American lines. The whole Toul sector is now echoing to the heaviest gun fire in many weeks.

CLAIMS AMERICAN WAR PRISONERS NOT ILL TREATED

By Associated Press.

AMSTERDAM, June 17.—American war prisoners are not being ill treated in Germany, says a dispatch telegraphed to Amsterdam by the semi-official Wolff Bureau of Berlin.

The prisoners, it is declared, are not used as show objects to the German public and are not subjected to insults and the throwing of stones, which is "foreign to the calm tempered German mind which does not excite itself anyhow over a few Americans amidst so many thousands of war prisoners of all nationalities." Adequate food "on a scale corresponding to present conditions in Germany" is not lacking in the camps where American prisoners are quartered.

CHAUTAUQUA PROGRAM.

Tonight, Cimera's Band and Madame Helen Cafarelli.

Tuesday Afternoon, Myrtle Thornburgh and Gladys Yves Brainard in recital.

Raphael Emmanuel, "The Story of Mesopotamia."

Tuesday Night, Myrtle Thornburgh and Gladys Yves Brainard in concert.

Captain Dave Fallon, "Fighting Through Hell," or "The Big Fight."

Proceeds from the Chautauqua from now on go to the Call Field down town club room. B. F. Johnson of the Chautauqua committee announced this morning. The required amount for the Chautauqua company has been raised and the remaining four days will be for the benefit of the soldiers of the local post. The committee is very glad to be able to make the announcement this early in the week, and state that the chautauqua is proving very much more of a success in every way than anticipated.

Sunday the largest crowds ever gathered at one time in Wichita Falls heard the two splendid free programs and were thrilled by the forceful, patriotic inspiring address of Lieutenant E. H. Lougher. The Marr Entertainers and Eugene Laurant, musician, were also on the programs, which were counted among the best yet staged.

Today is a red letter day for music lovers, as Cimera's Band, that world famous organization, assisted by Madame Helen Cafarelli will present the afternoon and evening programs. For six successful seasons Cimera and his band played on Eastern Chautauqua circuits. For the last two years they were on the same circuit. The fact that the critical Eastern audiences were insistent in their demands for the band's return the second year is a good criterion as to its ability and popularity.

Jaroslav Cimera will conduct in person. He will contribute the trombone solos which made him a national celebrity when he was with Innes, Sousa's and Krayl's bands.

Cimera knows how to build a wonderful program. He also understands how to select assisting artists who are not only skilled musicians but also fine, clean cut, high class gentlemen.

With Cimera will be Madame Helen Cafarelli, an Italian Prima Donna soprano, who has filled many featured engagements. She has appeared as a soloist with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra and Krayl's Band. Her voice is unusually brilliant, splendidly controlled and with a very great range.

In the program there is a judicious blending of the classical and modern, the former including the overture from "William Tell" and a fantasia from Carmen.

"The Evolution of Dixie" is a fantasia depicting the gradual evolution of "Dixie" slowly through the "Creation" and "The Minuet," the melody being slowly developed until there emerges the immortal "Dixie."

"The Village Blacksmith" depicts Night, The Dawn, By the Brook, Morning Prayer, At the Forge, Introducing the costumed corps of musical blacksmiths, electric anvils, etc.

"The Death of Custer" includes the Sioux Indians' war dance, the night before the battle, the bugle call in Custer's camp before forming the line of march, the sound of horses' hoofs in the distance, approach of cavalry with band playing "National Airs," the Indians responding with their customary war music. This grand piece closes with Custer's bugle, volley of shots, muffled drums and bugle sounding the last call over the great general's grave.

ENGLISH AUTHOR SEES HIS FIRST BALL GAME.

By THOMAS BURKE

(Author of "Limehouse Nights," etc.)

LONDON, May 25.—Last week I suffered all the thrills described in the verses of Keat's sonnet, "On First Looking into Chapman's Homer": "I discovered a new art-form, I discovered baseball."

The match between the U. S. Army and Navy teams was my first glimpse of a pastime that has captivated a continent, and I can well understand its appeal to a modern temperament.

What a crowd! "Say, buddy, you should have seen Pitcher Williams at the top of his pitch; you should have seen the sweep of Lieutenant Mims's shoulders at the completion of a faithful hit; you should have seen Catcher Fuller receiving a pitched ball. Such an opulence or vortical rhythms surely never was before."

I had heard and read much of baseball "fans" and their methods of "rooting," but my conceptions were nothing near the real thing. The grand stand, crowded with Army and Navy "fans" breathing with megaphones and waving limbs and tossing hats and demotic faces, would have made a superb subject for a lithograph by Sir Frank Branklyn.

I was received in the Army's dressing room and presented to Lieutenant Mims, their captain, who said he was mighty glad to know me and would put me wise to anything that had me beat.

The game got hold of me before the first pitched ball. The players in their hybrid costumes and huge gloves, the catcher in his gas mask, and the ecstatic movements of the teams as they practiced, shook me with excitement.

The Rooting Begins. Then the game began and the "rooting" began. In past years I attended various Test Matches—England vs. Australia—and various football matches in mining districts, when the players came in for a certain amount of "barracking"; but they were church services compared with the furious abuse and "hazing" handed to any unfortunate who failed to "play ball." Such screams and eldritch noises I never thought to hear from the human voice. No Englishman could achieve them; his vocal cords are not made that way.

There was, for example, an explosive, reverberating "Ah-h-h-h-h!" which I have been practicing in my back garden ever since, but without once catching its true quality.

Barbaric Pandemonium. The whole scene was barbaric pandemonium near it, and that's saying demonium. A Chinese theater is something I never dreamed that that hard, shell-covered business nation could break into such frenzied abandon.

You should have heard Admiral Sims as college-yell leader, when the Navy made a home-run hit, with his "Attaboy! Oh, attaway to play ball! Zaaaaa!" And when they got an "error" he sure handed the Navy theirs.

Here are a few of the phrases hurled at the offending players: "Aw, well, well, well!" "Ah, you pliers, where was you raised?" "Hey, is this a corner lot or is it a ball game?" "Say, buddy, you can play ball, maybe." "At's right, Navy—on yer toes the Navy, all of the time." "Hey, pitcher, Quit the plate and send yer li'l brudder."

"Aw, buddy, dear, glimme some barb' wire, I wanna knit a sweater fer the pliker." "Watch this, watch this! He's a bad actor—kill the bad actor!" "More ivory, more ivory!" "Get a step-ladder to it." "Oh, you quitter, Oh, oh, oh! Bonehead—bonehead—BONEHEAD!"

And a chorus, chanted like an anthem, "Going up! Going up! Going up!" "Yes, I've caught it. From now I'm a fan." I'm going to see every baseball match played anywhere near London. I shall never be able to watch with excitement a cricket or football match after this; it'd be like a tortoise race. I shall take all my friends with me to the next match to join me in rooting and killing the umpire.

BOARD DIRECTS ATTENTION TO RECENT RULING

Present classification of Wichita county registrants who have recently married will in most instances not be affected by the recent amendment to the selective service regulations concerning marriages of registrants since last May, the Wichita county board states, as in practically every instance this board has already put the men in Class I, as they would be put by the recent ruling. The majority of the cases of deferred classification of men married since May 18, 1917, has been the result of appeals to the district board. A member of the board speaking this morning said:

"The Wichita county board members have been the subject of severe criticism in several instances, for the classification of registrants who come in the class of 'recently married,' but our action is now being upheld by the adjutant general, as this ruling indicates. We have tried all along to obey the law to the letter and as a result we will have very little of our work to do over. Some of the boards in the nearby counties will have to reclassify the greater part of their registrants and much confusion may be expected to result but we will have no such trouble with our classification."

We advise that all registrants, new or of last year, read over Rule Five, which relates to recent marriages, carefully. The rule follows:

RULE V. (a) The fact of dependency resulting from the marriage of a registrant who has become twenty-one years of age since June 5, 1917, and who has married since the date of the introduction of the Joint Resolution in Congress requiring his registration, to-wit, January 15, 1918, will be disregarded as a ground for deferred classification.

(b) If a registrant who has attained the age of twenty-one since June 5, 1917, and who has contracted marriage subsequent to the date of the enactment of the Selective Service Law, to-wit, May 18, 1917, but on or prior to January 15, 1918, claims deferred classification on the ground of dependency resulting from his marriage, the fact of dependency resulting from his marriage will be disregarded as a ground for deferred classification, unless the dependent is a child of the marriage, born or unborn, on or prior to June 5, 1918, in which case such a registrant upon satisfactory proof being made shall be classified in Class II.

(c) If a registrant, other than one who has attained the age of twenty-one years since June 5, 1917, who has contracted marriage since May 18, 1917, claims deferred classification on the ground of dependency resulting from his marriage, the fact of dependency resulting from his marriage will be disregarded as a ground for deferred classification, unless the dependent is a child of the marriage, born or unborn on or before June 9, 1918, in which case such a registrant upon satisfactory proof being made shall be placed in Class II.

(d) Nothing contained in this amendment to Rule V shall be considered as requiring the transfer to Class II of any registrant who had been finally classified in Class I on the affirmative finding that his marriage since May 18, 1917, was made with the primary view of evading military service.

CAPTAIN FALLON TO SPEAK FOR WAR STAMP CAMPAIGN

Captain David Fallon, British soldier and veteran of the Somme campaign, is to give impetus to Wichita County's War Savings Stamp campaign by speaking to the committee and all others interested on Tuesday afternoon at the Chautauqua tent. Captain Fallon this morning wired R. E. Shepherd asking to be permitted to speak on the subject of War Savings Stamps and the local committee was very glad to receive this request, immediately making plans for a meeting at five o'clock Tuesday, following the afternoon Chautauqua program. Captain Fallon, one of the features of the Redpath-Horner program this season, accomplished great things by speaking for the Third Liberty Loan on the coast and wherever he has appeared has held enthusiastic patriotic rallies and furthered war work of all sorts, so that much is expected from the meeting Tuesday.

SEND THEM BACK TO GERMANY

Secretary Baker's suggestion that conscientious objectors who refuse to fight because they have relatives in Germany or Austria be sent, after the war, to the countries of their preference ought to meet with general approval.

The United States has no use for a man who is unwilling to fight for his country in this crisis and has still less use for the man who is unwilling to fight because he does not want to hurt any boche from Germany or Austria. Prison is the place for such a man until the end of the war and then the first ship that can be spared ought to carry all such persons back to the fatherland. We'll be better off here, and judging from their attitude, they will be happier there.

WATCH OUT FOR GERMAN PROPAGANDA.

Captain Lougher who spoke at the chautauqua Sunday night, like many other observers, foresees a German peace drive propaganda when the great offensive movement that has been in progress for several months ends in failure.

Among other things which Captain Lougher thinks may be offered will be the return to France of Alsace and Lorraine, the evacuation of Belgium, the ceding of some territory to Italy, the conditional evacuation of Serbia, and more liberal peace terms to Russia and Rumania.

But this peace propaganda, as Captain Lougher points out, will be only a military propaganda designed to cause division among the allies and to weaken the morale of their peoples, and as soon as one of the allied belligerents had, through this propaganda, been rendered helpless, the Teutons would strike as they struck several months ago in Italy, as they struck in Russia and in Rumania.

The thing we must watch out for in this country is the German peace propaganda. It is certain to appear. It must be swiftly and certainly met and those who spread it must be handled vigorously. We do not want to find the United States in the position of virtual slavery and humiliation that Russia is today or in the grave situation that confronted Italy several months ago. We will come to that posture and maybe worse if we fool with "Made in Germany" peace propaganda.

There is a whole lot more danger from this German peace propaganda than a good many folks think. For one thing there are still thousands upon thousands of pro Germans left in this country. They are mighty quiet now but they will be active agents in spreading peace or other German propaganda. And there are some folks who will be ready for peace at any price. There are some elements in congress which will be influenced by this propaganda and this makes it all the more essential that strong, stalwart Americans be sent to congress in the coming elections. This is a consideration that ought to outweigh all others in the choice of a congressional or any other candidate for public office.

stitutional or other reasons quite as powerful. While it is true the personnel of the present committee is composed for the most part of men who were Ferguson supporters two years ago, it by no means follows that this situation exists now. About half the members of the committee are supporters of Governor Hobby.

The vote of 26 to 3 in favor of placing Ferguson's name on the ticket may be taken to mean that Governor Hobby's friends on the committee either doubted the authority of the committee to reject applicants or thought that rejection might be misconstrued by uninformed people. It will be remembered that in the legislature the overwhelming anti-Ferguson majority declined to enact a law expressly rendering Ferguson ineligible because it was regarded as better to permit the people to add their own condemnation of his misconduct to the action of the house and the judgment of the high court of impeachment.

Governor Hobby himself was averse to any action omitting Ferguson's name from the ticket, because he was glad to invite the verdict of the people, which no man can doubt will be overwhelmingly condemnatory of the man who violated their sacred trust. Another thing the friends of Governor Hobby on the executive committee felt was, with the judgment of the high court ratified by the people the incident would be forever closed and the fate of Ferguson would remain for years to come an example setting forth the swift and inevitable disgrace which must always await officials high and low who shamelessly betray the people.—Houston Post.

NEW MEAT POLICY VERY NECESSARY

The following has been sent out by E. A. Peden, State Food Administrator: The need of immediate meat conservation by the American people is emphasized by the following telegram received Saturday morning by Administrator Peden from Herbert Hoover:

As to any misunderstanding of apparently large figures of beef in storage sent out by the Department of Agriculture, beef in storage has decreased from 346,000,000 pounds on January 1 to 227,000,000 on June 1. Of this latter amount about 130,000,000 pounds is meat in process of preparation for shipment to the Allies and for army use.

The balance of approximately 97,000,000 pounds in storage represent a three days' supply for the nation. Meat shipments abroad have increased from 15,000,000 pounds a week during pre-war times to 75,000,000 pounds a week, a recent week sparing to 83,000,000 pounds making great inroads into the nation's supply.

The above statement of facts explains the necessity for the adoption of a meat retrenchment policy at once in all hotels and restaurants in Texas and in the headquarters quarters that a completely revised meat program may be instituted on Monday.

SIXTY AUSTRIAN DIVISIONS USED ON ITALIAN FRONT

(Continued from page 1.) tempted to cross the Piave in great force Saturday, the Austrians had the city of Treviso as their objective. In getting across the Piave the Austrians paid a tremendous sacrifice before the machine gun fire of the Italian defenders of the western bank. Counter attacks by Italian infantry and heavy Italian artillery fire have forced the enemy to retire from most of his gains along the Piave. An order found in pockets of prisoners was to the effect that the Austrians were to be at Preganzola south of Treviso on Saturday night.

AUSTRIAN PRISONERS RAGGED AND ILL

By Associated Press. WITH THE ITALIANS, Sunday, June 16.—Austrian troops which forced the Piave river have been driven back. The fighting along the river is most intense. Nowhere else along the front of attack has the struggle been so severe as on the Piave line. One of the most brilliant of the Italian actions was the defense of the Monte Moschin salient protecting the important Brenta positions. Here the Austrians suffered heavy losses and many of their machine guns were captured. The prisoners are ragged and ill.

LONDON PAPERS VIEW OUTCOME HOPEFULLY

By Associated Press. LONDON, June 17.—The outcome of the Austrian offensive is viewed hopefully, even confidently by the newspapers here. This view is based on the staunch resistance of the allied defensive and the failure of the enemy to make anything like a big success in his initial advance. It is admitted that some days must pass before the results of fighting on such a great scale can correctly be judged but the belief is firmly expressed in several quarters that it will end in failure for the enemy. "Failure," says the Daily News, "on the first day of these attacks as conducted on the modern German plan, has hitherto been fatal as in the case of Vimy Ridge and in the present case the fact of failure can hardly be doubted."

OFFICIAL

AMERICAN. By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, June 17.—Repulse of local enemy attacks in the Weevre and in the Chateau Thierry region, was reported today in General Pershing's communique for last night. The communique follows: "Section A—This morning in the Weevre the enemy executed a local attack against the left of our positions. During the attack there was brisk artillery fighting. The assailants not only failed to penetrate our lines but were thrown back with severe losses, and left in our hands several prisoners, of whom one was an officer. "In the region of Chateau Thierry two local attacks made by the enemy during the night on the line Boueres-Bois De Belleau were easily broken up. Artillery on both sides continues very active in this region and in Picardy. "Section B—There is nothing to report in this section."

FRENCH. By Associated Press. PARIS, June 17.—French troops improved their positions north and northwest of Hautebaye, between the Oise and the Aisne in a local operation early today. One hundred prisoners and some machine guns were captured, says the official statement issued today. German attacks were repulsed in the Caveres wood and in the Vosges. The statement reads: "Between the Oise and the Aisne the French succeeded in carrying out early today a local operation which resulted in improvement of the French positions east and west of the Haute-baye. The French took 100 prisoners and captured several machine guns. In the Caveres wood and in the Vosges our troops repulsed enemy surprise attacks. There is nothing to report from the rest of the front." BRITISH. By Associated Press. LONDON, June 17.—A successful raid was carried out last night east of Arras by the British, who took a few prisoners, it is announced officially. The statement follows: "We carried out a successful raid last night east of Arras and captured a few prisoners. A raid attempted by the enemy yesterday morning in that neighborhood of Givenchy was repulsed. "For a short period during the night the enemy's artillery heavily bombarded positions northwest of Albert. Elsewhere only normal activity was reported."

"Specked Apples" When the produce peddler offers you apples that cost less than the other fellows charge, look out for specked apples. They cost you a trifle less than you have been paying your regular tradesman, but look out they are specked apples. When you try to buy ice at less than fifty cents per hundred pounds, the established price the country over, look out for impure ice. At first you think you have found a neat way to save money, but look close and you will see the evidences of impurity. Look close and you will discover soft, snowy spots. They are caused by two things. They are caused by the presence in the ice of a dangerous foreign substance, a serious menace to health. They are caused by hurried, improper freezing. If the ice had been frozen hard and solid, and if distilled water had been used in its making, those soft, snowy spots would not be there. When you buy ice for less than the price you know it is worth, think of specked apples. Were specked apples ever a real bargain at the price you paid for them? CONTEMPLATION! CONSTERNATION! Is this the way it looks to you every ironing day? Do you look forward to a hard, hot, tedious job—a whole day spoiled—52 times a year? Very likely—if you still stick to the old sad iron treatment of the weekly wash. ENTER THE ELECTRIC IRON. CONCENTRATION CONSERVATION The Electric Iron gives a new lease to home life. It removes one of the most irksome parts of the housewife's task and substitutes a real pleasant duty. It is a significant fact that no woman ever went back to the old sad iron after once using an Electric. Or put it the other way if you like—thousands of women have abandoned the old sad iron for the Electric. It's just a matter of time when you will become one of these thousands. Why not make up your mind this minute to never see another ironing day in the old way. Call, phone or drop a postal—whichever is most convenient. New Orleans Cotton. NEW ORLEANS, June 17.—A good demand was felt on the opening of the cotton market today and prices were lifted by 6 to 30 points. ### SAFEGUARDS ABOUT EMBARKATION OF AMERICAN TROOPS

Associated Press Staff Correspondent.
LONDON, May 17.—No greater care and secrecy could attend the shipment of royal jewels than is observed in shipping American troops to France. To safeguard his boys, Uncle Sam takes every possible precaution, from the time they embark until the transport has reached its destination. He leaves no loophole for the machinations of enemy agents.

Usually, as a result of this elaborate protective system, the trip from "An Atlantic Port" to the French or English port, as the case may be, is remarkably uneventful. All elements of danger have been so carefully anticipated that the risk is reduced to the lowest minimum.

Until the troops and civilian passengers have reached the pier they do not know the name of their ship. It is only a number to them. On the regular troop ships it is difficult for a civilian unless he is engaged in work, to secure a passage. Those who manage to do so are subjected to close scrutiny, and their credentials and luggage are thoroughly examined.

Embarkation often begins several days before the transport sails. All good-bys have been said before the troops start for the ship. No relative or friend may accompany them to the pier. This rule applies to the officers as well as to the men.

Once aboard, there they remain, no shore communication being permitted. This regulation imposes no hardship other than inactivity. Until all troops have been assigned to quarters and organization has been effected, the men are left pretty much to their own devices.

No restriction is placed on writing, and bags are kept open for soldiers' mail up to almost the hour of sailing. This privilege gives many a chance to get off neglected letters and postcards, although these, as a matter of precaution, are not put into the mails until the ship has passed through the submarine zone.

The troops also take advantage of an arrangement devised by the government for the sending of "safe arrival" messages. Telegrams or postcards advising family and friends that the writer has made the trip in safety may be prepared in advance and left in charge of the authorities at the port of sailing. As soon as word is received by cable of the ship's arrival on the other side, the telegrams and cards are released to the wires and mails. Not only is much time saved by this plan, but the soldiers are spared the high cost of cabling from Europe.

With the exception of the ship's executives and the officers in military command, no one aboard knows the hour fixed for sailing, and this becomes a favorite topic for speculation among the men. But finally the last soldier has come up the gangplank and the last piece of freight has been stowed away. A busy little tug appears alongside and begins to nose the vessel like a ferret investigating a greyhound.

Suddenly there is a blast from the ship's whistle, and then are enacted a few details of the familiar scene which before the war was witnessed whenever a transatlantic liner left its pier. The company, however, is extremely limited. The call of "All ashore that are going ashore" affects only a few stevedores and perhaps an official or two, who move leisurely off.

What excitement there is is confined to those on the ship. There is none on the pier for the reason that it is now empty and its great doors are closed. Only a blank wall looms there.

On deck the movement, instead of being toward the transport's falls, is away from them. Orders have been given for the troops to go to their quarters, so that when the ship is leaving harbor no uniform may be visible to any prying eyes on shore.

Slowly the big vessel is coaxed by the tug into the stream, and majestically she gets under way. A few civilian passengers to the envy of officers and men, hang over the rail and watch the city's skyline fade away.

Soon the port is only a blur in a veil of mist. It is safe now for the troops to appear. They rush out on deck, joyously eager for the sight—strange to many—of the open sea. A few draw nearly all of their attention to the horizon that is home. There they turn and peer forward into the mystery of the unknown, toward the scene of the great adventure—over there.

MANY ENROLLED IN WAR SCHOOLS AT UNIVERSITY

AUSTIN, TEX., June 17.—The school of military aeronautics, which was established by the university under the direction of the War Department of May 2, 1917, at the start drew nearly all of its instructors and many of its officers and clerks from the faculty, graduates and students of the university. This practice still holds so that the majority of those responsible for the teaching work, both military and technical, are University of Texas men. Some of those who were originally with the school of military aeronautics are now in active service in the army or taking preliminary instructions at officers' training camps or other special schools for officers. The school of military aeronautics has an average attendance of about 1,000 students who are now given a twelve weeks course. Formerly the course was only eight weeks. In making up the list of instructors for the school of Military Aeronautics 19 members of the faculty of the University of Texas were selected. Besides this number many other members of the instructor staff were former students of the University.

A complete list of all students of the school of military aeronautics, together with their residence, high school and college affiliations and their photographs is kept in the office of that school. Each week President Vinson is furnished with a list of the graduates, together with residence and college for a permanent record in his files for use after the war.

The University is conducting a school of automobile mechanics for the war department at Camp Mabry, Austin. The school was opened the early part of May with an initial attendance of about 300, which will gradually be brought up to a maximum attendance of about 3,500. The school of military aeronautics furnished a number of its instructors and clerks to this school.

The average attendance of students at the radio school which the University is conducting for the war department is close to 300 men. Instructors for this school were also furnished largely by the University.

MILITARISM WILL BRING VICTORY KAISER DECLARES

EMPEROR REPLIES TO CONGRATULATIONS ON 30TH ANNIVERSARY TO THRONE.

By Associated Press.
AMSTERDAM, June 17.—Prussian militarism will bring victory to Germany, says Emperor William in reply to a telegram of congratulations on the thirtieth anniversary of his accession from Chancellor Von Hertling. The emperor declares that he leads "the most capable people on earth," and expresses the hope that the German people will have strength to bear their sufferings and privations. The telegram reads:

"I express cordial thanks and kind good wishes to your excellency and the state ministry on the day on which, thirty years ago, I ascended the throne. When I celebrated my twenty-five year jubilee as ruler I was able to express my gratitude to point out that I had been able to do my work as a prince of peace."

"Since, the world picture has changed. For nearly four years, forced to it by enemies, we have been engaged in the hardest struggle history records. God, the Lord, has laid a heavy burden upon my shoulders but I carry it in the consciousness of our good right, with confidence in our ship, our sword, and our strength and in the realization that I have the good fortune to stand at the head of the most capable people on earth. Just as our armies under strong leadership, have proved themselves invincible, so also will the homeland, exerting all its strength, bear with strong will the sufferings and privations which just now are keenly felt."

"Thus, I have spent this day, midst my armies and it moved me to the depths of my heart, yet filled with the most profound gratitude to God's mercy."

"I know that Prussian militarism, so much abused by our enemies, which my forefathers and I in a spirit of dutifulness, loyalty, order and obedience have nurtured, has given Germany's sword and the German nation strength to triumph, and that victory will bring a peace which will guarantee the German life."

"It will then be my sacred duty, as well as that of the states, with all our power to see to the healing of the wounds caused by the war and to secure happy future for the nation. In most faithful recognition of the work hitherto performed, I rely on your proved strength and the help of the state ministry. God bless our land and people."

MACHINERY TO SPEED UP ORDNANCE PRODUCTION

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, June 17.—New machinery for speeding up the production of ordnance for American soldiers is being put into operation today by Brigadier General C. C. Williams, acting chief of ordnance. Administrative methods in the ten ordnance districts into which the country has been divided were re-organized with a district chief for each to co-ordinate the efforts of the field forces and contractors. In addition a new organization of manufacturing specialists has been set up to direct the direction of the different phases of ordnance production.

Eight manufacturing experts have been named for the work of supervision. They will go from one factory to another co-ordinating the work and will be retained until the peak of quantity production is attained.

Reduce the High Cost of Living in Your Home by Trading with Groceteria

Care in buying is necessary just now and we offer you the greatest possible value for your money here. Groceteria prices compared with the Big Cash Store that says 15 carloads of goods to our one.

Speaking of misrepresenting weights and prices, etc.—will say that "old Newton" who is proprietor of the Groceteria does not represent weights to be 10 lbs. when they are not but 8 lbs. and 10 oz. As the Swift Jewel compound lard is but for Saturday will sell you the so called 10 lbs. lard for $2.19 Large gal. Crisco, as the Big Cash Store calls it, $1.75 The Crisco is 6 lbs. net.

Small Carnation Milk ..... 15c
Large Carnation Milk ..... 15c
3 bars Ivory Soap at the old prices—better buy now. 21c
Eagle Brand Milk ..... 21c
The Big Cash Store will sell you Lipton's Tea 25c, 40c and 80c. The Groceteria sells it—not on sale—but regular, for 20c, 33c and 75c
8 lb. peanut butter for ..... $1.75
Pink Salmon 20c or 5 for ..... 95c

I mention a few prices to show you that there is absolutely nothing to buying in 15 car lots, because you would have to have large warehouses to store these goods in and the goods would become stale and Mr. Hoover would not stand for that. There is another thing that Newton does—and that is recognizing 16 oz. for 1 pound.

We will have for next week 1000 pounds of Boneless Sugar Cured Hams to offer you at about the dry salt price, only per lb. .... 31c

"Remember we are going to throw in the good old brown gravy with these hams." The reason I make this low price is to sell them all out immediately after the car gets here.

Remember: The date of this ham sale will be next Tuesday. We expect to have amancipation melons Saturday and another car of Blackberries for canning about the first of next week.

We give you the price net F. O. B. 612 9th Street. Don't forget we are selling Thrift Stamps at the old price, 25c each.

30TH DISTRICT GRAND JURY IS EMPANELLED

JUDGE BONNER'S CHARGE DEALT WITH SLOT MACHINES, BOOT-LEGGING, BAWDY HOUSES.

BRALLEY FOREMAN

Jury's Attention Also Directed to Court House and Jail and Other Matters.

With local option laws, bawdy house operation, slot machine operation and practicing of medicine by certain persons without a license as the chief points in his charge, Judge W. N. Bonner this morning empaneled the Wichita county grand jury for the June term of the 30th district court and appointing W. C. Bralley foreman, started the jury on their work of considering law violations in Wichita county during the past months since the adjournment of the last grand jury.

Opening his charge, Judge Bonner spoke of the unusual conditions now obtaining in Wichita Falls and Wichita county which have already shown a tendency to lessen crime and stated that not for years had a grand jury been empaneled in Wichita county which had not had a number of murder or assault to murder cases to consider, but that this grand jury at present has no killings to investigate. He stated that an improvement could be made already, and he hoped it would be made.

Judge Bonner also suggested that the grand jury give its attention to the question as to whether or not Wichita county is under the fee system. It is claimed by some that the county offices should be operated under the fee system, while others claim the opposite. At present the county is not under the fee bill.

"For the first time we are called on to consider violation of local option or as they are commonly called, 'bootlegging' statutes," Judge Bonner stated while charging with diligence to investigation of violations of the prohibition laws. "It is but natural that there be violations of these laws when whiskey is first taken from a city or county, but it is your duty to hunt the violators down, though it may take some time, for the bootlegger does not come out in public and sell his wares but seeks the darkened alleys and other hiding places. But however much time it may take it is your duty to search these violators out and indict them."

In reference to bawdy houses Judge Bonner said that for years grand juries had been charged with reference to this violation of the law at each term of court and that they had adjourned after their work without returning any indictments, while the houses of assignation were running openly in the city.

"Everybody knew they were running openly in defiance of the law," he said, "and everyone but the grand jury, it seems, could have found them. This happens time and again, but I am glad to say gentlemen, it was not a grand jury of my court. The first grand jury I charged in this court returned 40 or more indictments against persons running houses of assignation."

Several people, Judge Bonner said, "have stepped me on the streets of late, and made the charges that the courthouse, the handsome new building which we are occupying, is not kept clean. I do not know what arrangements are made for caring for this building, but I would suggest that the grand jury investigate this building and the county and city jails. If there is any reproach to be made, let it be made here, and if praise is due it could come from no more appropriate source."

Other charges such as "pistol toting" and the election laws, demanded by law to be included in every grand jury charge were given by Judge Bonner, and he urged them to look diligently into every matter which the district attorney and other officers might bring to their attention.

Four of the grand jurors were excused, these being E. A. Dale, C. W. Reid, F. M. Myers and A. H. Fowler. The jury is composed of W. C. Bralley, foreman; D. E. Hooks, J. T. Overley, J. A. Stanley, D. H. Carl, A. J. Andrea, Roy Brumback, K. Brewer, J. W. Gilbertson, J. D. A. Jones, E. Honaker and T. B. Noble.

The grand jury began work this afternoon. Acting as bailiffs are: L. P. Webb, J. B. Nail, R. V. Gwinn, Will DeHoff and T. Johnson. The matter was left open for decision until Tuesday.
