PERSONALS

LEAVES FOR PARIS

Mrs. C. D. Carter left last Friday for Paris, where she was called by the illness of her daughter, Mrs. B. Deathridge.

Mrs. Deathridge underwent an operation for appendicitis on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Price of Vernon arrived Friday to visit with Mrs. Price's mother, Mrs. Minnie Goodwine. They returned on Sunday to Vernon where Mrs. Price is a teacher in the public schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Taylor of Fort Worth spent Sunday night here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Taylor.

The Taylors came here from Roswell, N. M., where he had been employed on a defense project and were on their way to Port Arthur, where he will be engaged in the same type of work.

J. T. Gee, instructor in vocational agriculture in the Friona school, has had the boys of his class pruning the shade trees on the school grounds the past week.

Jennings Dukes moved his family last week from the east part of town to Mrs. Crawford's building in the west part of town.

D. E. Habbinga, who lives southeast of Friona, received word Tuesday of the death of his father at Dallas. Mr. Habbinga left for Abernathy where burial services were scheduled to take place.

J. A. Blackwell left Wednesday morning for Tonganoxie, Kan., where he will attend the funeral of his brother, Charley Blackwell, who died Tuesday.

Members of the Congregational Church have been cleaning, redecorating and repairing the Congregational parsonage.

Mrs. G. Cranfill returned last week to Houston, where she had gone to attend the graduation of her brother, Dr. Vaden Coventry.

Rev. and Mrs. Joe Wilson received a letter Monday from their son, Joe Earl, who is with the Marines somewhere in the Pacific Ocean. The letter was dated some time in February and stated that Joe Earl was well and doing fine.

Revival services at the Pentecostal Church under the direction of Rev. Hassell, and at the Euclid Avenue Church of Christ under the preaching of Evangelist Leland H. Knight, are receiving good attendance and creating much interest.

Two Shops Operate In New Locations

Another story in this issue tells of the prospective moving of Jack Anderson's barber shop from near the bank, and George Odell's shoe shop from east side of main street to the E. V. Rushing building adjoining the Miller Jr. Department store. They have already moved and were doing business at their new stand, Tuesday.

Friona Beauty Shop Is Open For Business

One of the neatest and most inviting little places of business in Friona is the little building on Main Street, which houses the Friona Beauty Shop, with Miss Dottie McMillian as proprietress and manager, which is now open and doing business.

A representative of the Star, in his scramble for "more" business, stepped into this becomingly finished little business place Wednesday afternoon and was pleasantly greeted by the young proprietress with a smile and "You're next" which was so friendly and unfeigned that we were tempted to stop and wait our turn and have the miserable tangles and "rats nests" combed out of our hair. But remembering our motto: "Business before pleasure"—we made our excuses and departed; but not until we had secured an order from Miss Dottie for an advertisement, which may be found in another column of this issue of The Star.

New Pastor Will Arrive This Week

From information received, arrival of Rev. Paxton Smith and family some time this week is expected by members of the local Congregational Church, to which pulpit he was recently called to serve as pastor.

He will probably occupy the pulpit at the Sunday morning service. An Easter program will be presented by the members of the Sunday school.

Harold Lillard To Take Final Exam For Air Corps

Harold Lillard, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Lillard, of this community, departed Wednesday morning for Lubbock, where he was called to take final examinations as a flying cadet.

Harold applied for enlistment in the flying service several months ago and has taken three preliminary examinations; if he successfully passes this final examination he will be fully eligible for enlistment as a flying cadet.

Dumping Rubbish On Highways Creates Serious Hazards

Members of the county commissioners' court this week urged citizens not to dump rubbish or any waste materials on the highways or in the ditches.

Not only is the rubbish unsightly, the commissioners point out, but it also creates a menace to tires and makes all road repair work harder to carry out. Commissioners ask the co-operation of all citizens in refraining from this practice.

County Council To Honor Gold Star Club Girl

A reception and tea will be given at the next council meeting at two o'clock, for all home demonstration women and 4-H girls, honoring Oleta Thompson, Parmer County's gold star girl for 1941.

This was decided by the Parmer County Council, which met in the Blackwell Hardware building, Saturday, March 28, with fourteen members and the county agent present. Seven clubs were represented.

The Council further voted in favor of instructing the Parmer County delegates to the District Convention at Lubbock, to vote for a legislative policy for the Texas Home Demonstration Association.

The Council also decided to set up a refreshment center at the repair clinic to be held in the Home Ec. room of the Friona High School, on Apr. 18, beginning at 10 o'clock a. m.

Mrs. Homer Hyde, president of the Victory Club, recently organized, was introduced by the chairman, Mrs. Will Nittler. Other routine business was taken up and disposed of by the council.

Lt. Shackelford And Bride Visit Relatives Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Shackelford and daughter, Nancy, were agreeably surprised Sunday afternoon when their son, Lieutenant Gordon Shackelford, and his bride arrived for a three-day visit with them.

Lieut. Shackelford is in the U. S. Air service and is stationed at Camp Barclay, Abilene. He and Mrs. Shackelford departed Wednesday for Lubbock, where they will visit a day or two with her parents before returning to his post of duty.

EASTER

NEVER see white candles That march in proud parade: On altars Easter morning, Or lilies, slim and staid, But I remember Mary Who saw a tall lad die Upon an Eastern hillside One day as Spring came by.

THE high road to Golgotha Held half the crowded town; Long, long before the twilight Strange darkness settled down... Did Mary leave recalling How He who hung so high Once asked for love and stories As April dusk swept by?

NEVER hear glad anthems That tell how He arose, How angels moved the great stone, And loosed the binding clothes, But that I know a gladness 'Cause each grief and loss Must find a gracious taking... Some Spring will hide the cross!

AMERICAN LEGION NEWS

Post No. 206

By Roy Price, Commander

Residents of Parmer County are urged to join in the Army Day parade and celebration in Amarillo April 6, at which time Mrs. George Baker of this community will rank as honor guest, along with other mothers who have given so generously of their sons in defense of this country.

Mrs. Baker, as most of you know, has six sons in the armed services, and we as neighbors, will want to extend our heartfelt appreciation.

Buddies, keep in mind that we have a regular meeting on April 14th, when we will have refreshments. There will also be a district monthly meeting at Vega on April 27th. Several important things will come up at this meeting.

Please let me call your attention again to the boys now entering the service. We, the American Legion, are charged with the servicing of your disability claims; therefore, it is very important that you give us a history as it accumulates. Date of entry in service, birth record, serial numbers, camps in which located, and in addition to this we need all other kinds of information about you; also a small snapshot of yourself.

Please do not let this go on without attention or you will be sorry some day. Many of you know by now how the World War veterans are being handicapped by lack of this same thing. Don't delay.

Another ruling I want to call to your attention at this time is that during this emergency, the Veterans Administration will only consider medical patients for treatment; therefore do not take your discharge and go to the hospital for entrance as you will likely be turned down at the door. This is a strict order and I feel that it will be rigidly observed. However, if you are an emergency patient you can still have the same treatment in the same fine manner, but we simply must contact the necessary requirements to enter the hospitals. This order is not fully understood yet, so be patient and meet with us next meeting when it will be fully explained.

We now have 89 members which makes us short three members for our quota this year. Let me insist that you who have not done so just send us a year's dues to make us 100 percent as in the past three years.

Then, if possible, let each of us go to Amarillo on next Monday and enjoy the parade and also honor all those good fathers and mothers who now have sons in the Army.

"pull" admits that he does not have enough "push".

Come to the Sixth Street Church of Christ and worship with us. Gospel meeting starts April 19th.

War Regulations Now Affect Suit Styles

There may be no need to pull a Donald Duck stunt and buy a sheep and a spanning wheel to be sure of having a new suit, but a "Victory Suit", with modifications, is here; and rulings which went into effect March 30 are doing away with the gadgets and frills which decorated men's suits—and incidentally used plenty of wool which the War Production Board feels can be better used in some other way.

Friona dry cleaners this week outlined the new prohibitions on men's clothing, stating that cuffs on trousers, two-pants suits, pleats, patch pockets and vests (with double breasted suits) are just some of the things which will have to go—"for the duration".

The War Production Board is also urging that wool clips from men's and boy's trousers be saved by clothing retailers and sold to rag dealers so that they can be available for reprocessed wool.

Greenbugs Do Big Damage In Eastern Texas

Greenbugs, which are already reported to have done heavy damage to wheat crops in the section south and east of Abilene had made their appearance in at least one isolated spot in the Panhandle this week, but since the insect pests work in small patches—never covering an entire field at one time—it was hoped that an early start would combat the menace here.

Recommended treatment is a spray of 10 pounds wettable sulphur to 100 gallons of water. The county agent points out that it is, of course, too early to make predictions on this wettable sulphur treatment, but he is hopeful that it will get rid of the greenbugs.

Some farmers with irrigated wheat state they have been successful in washing the greenbugs off with a thorough irrigation of the field.

A worker with the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture last week made some examination of wheat fields between Hereford and Vega and reported no inroads by greenbugs or worms.

Farmers are requested to report immediately to the county agent any infestation by greenbugs or worms in the wheat and to get started immediately on spraying or some other treatment to destroy the pests.

Free Red Cross First Aid Classes To Be Conducted In Friona High School

Holmgreens Leave For Home In Minnesota

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Holmgreen left this week for their home in Minnesota after spending the past three months in Friona. The Holmgreens plan to return by way of Cresco, Ia., and Janesville, Wis. In Cresco they will visit Mrs. Holmgreen's father, A. N. Wentworth, formerly of Friona.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmgreen are the parents of Mrs. Buel Sanders and state that they expect to visit here again, possibly next winter.

Farmers Can Harvest Cane And Sudan But Leave Larger Stalk

By Keltz Garrison, Secretary, Parmer County ACA

I have just received notice of a very important change in the regulations for 1942. The regulation requiring a strip one rod wide (approximately 5 rows) of cane, sudan, or millet be left on the land for each strip not over five yards (approximately 25 rows) harvested for hay, has now been amended whereby the one rod strip may also be harvested, provided the stalks are left at least 12 inches high on the strips which previously were to have been left. This amendment is made so that producers will not have to contend with volunteer growth the succeeding year. In short, we can in 1942 harvest cane, sudan and millet just as we have done in previous years with the exception that possibly a higher stalk will be left this year than normally has been left in other years.

Besides being able to cut cane, sudan, or millet for hay and counting the whole thing soil-conserving if a 12 inch stubble is left, farmers will be earning 35c per acre on their soil-building payment. This 35c per acre may also be earned on grain sorghum land where a 10 inch stubble is left. Your rows do not have to be contoured to earn this 35c per acre, however, if they are, you earn 45c per acre more or a total of 80c per acre for all land contoured and on which a sufficient stubble is left. Of course, all farms are limited to the soil-building allowance established for the farm. The majority of farms in the county in 1942 have a soil-building allowance of 50% or more of what their conservation payment will amount to for 1942. Conservation payments for 1942 should about equal the amount of 1941 payments.

Remodeling In Progress On E. V. Rushing Bldg.

E. V. Rushing, of Portales is remodeling the room adjoining that occupied by Miller's Jr. Department store. He is placing a partition in the middle the entire length of the room, thus making two nice-sized rooms instead of one.

The north half will be occupied in the near future by Jack Anderson's Barber Shop, and the south half will be taken by George Odell's shoe shop.

Residents of Friona and surrounding territory will be privileged to take the Red Cross First Aid course, according to announcements today. The course, as in many other communities, will be taught by State Highway patrolmen and will feature two classes each week. Present plans are to hold the classes in the high school, but definite dates have not yet been released. All interested persons should contact Mrs. Kinsley, Ethel Ruth Spring, Lola Goodwine or Mary E. Stanford for registration and complete details.

"The classes will be open to men and women," the announcement said. "Plans are also being made for another course for young people. The course will be free of charge, only expense being 60 cents for a Red Cross First Aid book. Persons who complete the course successfully will be awarded Red Cross First Aid Certificates."

Emergency first aid treatments in practically all accidents will be covered in the course, which is affiliated with the national organization and contains much general information which can prove invaluable to average persons at all times.

Music Contest Winners Listed

Nancy Ruth Shackelford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Shackelford of Friona, was chosen to represent the Seventh District in the junior concerts at the state convention to be held in Temple, Apr. 8, at the Competitive Festival for juniors held here Saturday. Miss Shackelford made the highest grade of 97 and Hurselene Journey of Amarillo was chosen alternate.

County Judge A. J. Schroeter extended the city's welcome to the Festival group; Mrs. A. O. Thompson, president of the Seventh District Texas Federation of Music Clubs, extended greetings from the Music Study and Civic Chorus and Rachel Ireland, president of the Voco Club, also welcomed the visitors.

Wallace R. Clark and Miss Pauline Brigham of West Texas State College, Canyon, served as judges with Miss Mattie Mae Swisher, contest director.

Among other students receiving superior rating were Georgina Waghorn of Amarillo, vocal, Tim Miller of Lubbock, piano, Nadine Newell, Bonnie Miller, and Thelma Mae Boggus, Bobby Blackwell and Joyce Ann Miller of Friona, all vocal. National Honor Certificates were presented to those making superior ratings.

After the awards were given the visitors were entertained in the social hall of the Methodist Church with Mrs. A. O. Thompson in charge, assisted by members of the Music Study Club, the Civic Chorus and the Voco Club.

COGITATIONS and APHORISMS of Jodok

Well, this is election year again. It does not seem to me that it has been two years since our state and county officials were elected, and I am wondering if it seems that way to the officials who were then elected. My guess is that it seems like a mighty short two years to them.

But there will be another election long before the general elections occur, even the primary, for we will have the school elections this week and the city elections next week, and both these elections deeply concern the people of Friona.

The school election is dated for Saturday of this week, April 4 to be definite and the city election is dated for Tuesday of next week, April 7, also to be definite; and it is a duty of every qualified voter to get to the polls and vote at both of these elections, and no fooling.

The school election on Saturday will probably be a very quiet affair as so far as I have heard there will be no competition. There are three names on the printed ballots, with only two trustees to be chosen, and each person voting is supposed to make his choice of two from the three for local school trustees.

But I have been reliably informed that there will be three to elect, as it is stated that one of the trustees whose term has not yet expired has resigned, leaving a vacancy on the board which should be filled; and it may be done at this election by the voters voting for three candidates instead of two, as was originally intended.

As to the city election, I have been reliably informed that there will be two tickets in the field—that is, so far as mayor and city secretary and marshal are concerned. But my information is that the present commissioners will be named on both tickets, which will certainly assure their election.

But as to the secretary-treasurer and marshal, under the present arrangement of the city government, these offices are appointive rather than elective, and until there has been a city ordinance prepared and duly adopted these officers cannot become elective, and their choice by election would not become binding. In other words, the Mayor should choose to do so, could appoint to those offices anyone whom he might choose to appoint.

I shall take no personal interest in the election, but shall go to the polls and express my choice of the candidates by the way I mark my ballot, just as every free-thinking and liberty-loving American should do. Neither shall I try to influence any other voter to vote as I do.

And now, the people of Friona have an unusual opportunity of honoring one of our own citizens in the person of Mrs. George M. Baker, by going to Amarillo next Monday and being present at the big Army Day parade at which Mrs. Baker will be one of the guests of honor, as being one of the TWO six-star mothers of the entire nation. By our presence there we will not only be showing our patriotism, but will at the same time be especially honoring one of our citizens and neighbors.

Although not rich so far as this world's goods are concerned, Mrs. Baker is as true a lady and as worthy a citizen as any city in the land can claim as a citizen. She has manifested her sterling character as a citizen in the training of her eight sons, six of whom are already in the armed forces of their country and ready to do and dare to the extent of the supreme sacrifice for the freedom of their country.

True, we cannot all go to Amarillo, for some are unable physically, and others are bound by moral and business obligations to remain at home; but many of us can go, and we should consider it both a pleasure and a duty to do so on this occasion.

Farmer John SEES THINGS

"Farmer John" is away from home, he and his good wife having gone away last week, unannounced, on their "honey moon" and will not be at home for several weeks; therefore he is not here to write his column for the Star this week.

However, we of the Star have just received a letter from him, written at his present point of retirement, Hot Springs, New Mexico, which we high appreciate. Since "Farmer John" is so sincere and fair in his thought and speech, he is the same at all times, regardless of time, place or conditions, and his letter is so truly "Farmer John" in its tone and appeal that, with his consent, the Star is using it this week as his column. Here it is: Hot Springs, N. M. Mar. 30, 1942

Dear John: The Mrs. and I are holding forth at a cabin apartment belonging to your and our good friend, Ed McLellan, in Hot Springs, New Mexico.

A good percent of a century ago, when we were yet young people, we married on the 29th day of March, therefore we are having an old folks' honeymoon.

The landscape setting for this outing is a wonder for grandeur, especially to plains people. Looking but a short distance in any direction the mountains tower to varying heights but all of them steadfastly give off the impression of rugged stability and each with its individual characteristics. One can but wonder what secrets these upheavals of nature conceal. It would take ages these wonders to behold.

Adding to the scenic picture, the Rio Grande demands its full share of praise. The water, so pure it is nearly like the color of the sky, ripples, almost rushes, along the banks of the river, which is said to never get up and never go dry, the people (natives and visitors) leisurely, but with assurance, try their luck at angling.

The City of Hot Springs is picturesquely located. Some of the homes are on the very bank of the river, and the occupants can fish from their back porches. The main or business part of the city is on a little higher ground in a natural basin. Some of the people have climbed the side of the mountain to build their houses. The whole city gives one the impression of thrift and permanency. Yet it seems very quiet here. There is no railroad noise and apparently the airplane route is not overhead.

Although there are some mining operations around here, with a mineral well just completed here in town, the principal industry seems to be taking care of the visitors.

The Hot Springs mineral baths are very popular. Many people swear by them as being the legendary "Fountain of Youth". Living here is not high priced, but accommodations are very nice. There are people here from EVERY PLACE. I guess. One is favorably impressed with the fine "countryfied friendliness". Almost a hundred percent talk "Farmer John" language. It is a farmer's and ranchman's resort, and of course, they bring their homegrown ideas with them. A man can be a rabid New Dealer here and at the same time be a patriotic American. Although I am definitely anti-New Deal (or anti-Roosevelt!) some of the criticisms and accusations—even if they should be true—seem unwarranted and unhealthy. I suppose it is partly the natural swing of one extreme following another.

It is hard for me to concede to New Mexico people a more healthy political philosophy than to Texas people. I think they are simply in a little more fortunate position. They have access to a two-party system while Texas has but one, and is hamstrung by the New Deal. Sentiment here seems to point toward New Mexico using the Republican party to win the war and save the nation.

We expect to be in Friona a week or two, and I will try to write you a "Farmer John". Yours truly, Floyd Reeve.

P. S. You may use any of this for the Farmer John column if you care to. I am mailing you a copy of "The Herald", Hot Springs' weekly newspaper.

Our secret weapon: U. S. Defense Bonds and Stamps. Buy them!

Priorities Spotlighted In Spring Style Shows

New York — Priorities were spotlighted in fashion shows today for men and women.

The men proposed to save material by abolishing lapels and pocket flaps and vests while the women proposed an ingenious use of substitute materials.

Metals, dyes and silk were scarce in the women's styles, called "G-10 fashions" because the materials used are low on the priorities list.

The men's clothes, presented by the Merchant Tailors and Designers Association, made up for scarcity of material by an abundance of derring-do in cut and color.

The young man's "wartime business suit" in a shawd-plaid worsted was neat and somewhat gaudy with its collarless, lapel-less neckline, its flap-less pockets, its tight cuff-less trousers, colorful shirt.

Definitely gaudy was the gentleman's siren suit in a good loud black and white check overlaid with red. The front zipper is supposed to make it easy for a man to jump into the suit within two seconds after an air raid alarm sounds.

The convoy coat, popularized by Prime Minister Churchill, was adapted to civil life in an all-purpose suit made of lightweight covert cloth in navy blue.

With it, a brim-up blue homburg. This costume, the announcer said, would be ideal "for a flying trip to Washington and hours spent dashing in taxicabs from anteroom to anteroom."

One girl wore a yellow wool bicycle culotte shown among the G-10 numbers. This was one of a series of trousered costumes recommended for wartime girls.

"Thou Shalt Keep Thy Mouth Shut" First Commandment For Civilians

Ventor, N. J.—New Jersey's aviation director Gill Robb Wilson, a former Presbyterian minister, says the first commandment for civilians in this war is "Thou shalt keep thy mouth shut."

Mayor Harry S. Hodson of Ventnor distributed copies of Wilson's commandments to local civilian defense workers today.

Wilson's commandments for civilians were as follows:

I. Thou shalt keep thy mouth shut.

II. Thou shalt stay out of Washington, both thou and thy conventions and thy car and thy family and thy family's family and all thy correspondence and thy personal problems; none of these shalt thou bring to Washington, for they clutter up the works.

III. Thou shalt not harass thy son because he hath not a commission; neither shalt thou make him feel the service of an enlisted man to be beneath his college education and thy colonial background; neither shalt these things be held against him by other enlisted men if thou dost not make them an abomination.

IV. Thou shalt not hoard; only the squirrel hoardeth, and this he doeth because he is a squirrel.

V. Thou shalt not get ants in thy pants to put on a uniform only because thou art vain and hast no courage to hoe thy row in the place where thou art most needed.

VI. Thou shalt walk; even thus shalt thou aid to save gas and rubber; thus shalt thou redeem the price of thy girdle and the doctor's bill and thy very hide.

VII. Thou shalt not strike; neither shalt thou walk out; neither shalt thou sit down on the job; in order that thy days may be long in the land which the Lord thy God hath given thee.

VIII. Thou shalt not in thy confidence measure the seas, for verily they who hath thought to hide behind the seas are full of prairie juice.

IX. Thou shalt not fret because of evildoers, for thou hast not done so well thyself.

X. Thou shalt not lose faith; thou hast lost nothing beyond recovery if thy faith be not lost

Miss Langham of State Health Dept. To Carry Out Nutrition Study Here

A thorough nutrition study of Deaf Smith County will start this week, it was learned in a letter from Dr. Edward Taylor of the State Health Dept., who stated that Miss Lucille Langham of the state department will arrive in Hereford on April 3 or 4, to carry out further details of the dental study in this county.

According to Dr. Taylor, plans call for a study of the diet in three homes in each of the four directions from Hereford and three in the town itself. Representations of poor, medium and extra good living conditions will be picked for the study and each family represented will be one of at least two children.

"We are eager to know," Dr. Taylor says, "what the average diet (in Deaf Smith County) is—as compared with the average diet elsewhere."

Other factors which will be noted will be the percentage of home-grown foods in the diet.

Miss Langham will be in Hereford for two or three weeks and will be assisted in her study by Miss Sadie Lee Oliver, county home demonstration agent.

A. R. Bateman, county agent, will write a description of the physical characteristics of the county and the nutrition study will be completed to give a general background on the diet and soil characteristics which are thought to be contributory to Deaf Smith County's low tooth decay rate.

Vitamin-Conscious Americans Demand More Vegetables

BY RALPH HERBERT
AMERICANS have not yet reached the food ideal known as the nutrition yardstick, but they are well on the way. Improvement is largely due to the fact that as knowledge of vitamin-bearing vegetables grew, the American people increasingly demanded those vegetables.

In 1941 there was a big increase in vegetable production and the government is urging 10 per cent increase for 1942. This would mean 1,840,000 acres in 1942 as against 1,680,000 in 1941. Last year a large amount of vegetables were canned. Not including potatoes and sweet potatoes, 11½ million tons of vegetables were canned, or 7 per cent more than in any previous year.

Known fact about necessity for vitamin A have been the causes for heavier demands and bigger crops of various vegetables as follows: In 1921, 7,214,000 crates of lettuce were shipped to market. In 1941 this had gone up to 23,335,000. In 1921 the figure for much-derided spinach was 76,900 tons. In 1941 it was 143,277. In 1921 carrots were considered donkey food and there were no figures. In 1941, 17,747,000 bushels of the vitamin-rich vegetable went to market.

Increases are noted in vitamin C vegetables. In 1921 we marketed 81,050 tons of snap beans; in 1941, 348,705. In 1921 there were 128,500 tons of green peas; in 1941, 406,835. In 1921, 726,900 tons of tomatoes were reported; in 1941, 3,374,600 tons, of which nearly five-sixths were either canned or converted to tomato juice. Cabbage increased from 679,500 tons in 1921 to 1,273,300 in 1941, a considerable part going into sauer-kraut which has slowly but surely increased in demand.

In 1921 there were listed only 14 vegetables that were either shipped fresh in large quantities or were processed and canned or whose juices were bottled. In 1941 this list had grown to 21: asparagus, beets, snap beans, cabbage, carrots, cauliflower, corn, egg plant, celery, cucumbers, garlic, kale, lettuce, lima beans, onions, peas, green peppers, pimentos, shallots, spinach and tomatoes.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Personal Contact Is Essential in Organizing Church

The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for April 12
Text: Luke 10:1-7, 17, 21-24

In this lesson, we see Jesus associating with His ministry in organizing the Church. We might think of the Twelve Apostles as a rather unorganized band, accompanying Jesus as He went about teaching and healing, or going upon special missions as He assigned them to certain tasks. But here we have the definite appointment of 70 others and a planned campaign of action, in which Jesus sent them two and two into every city and place where He Himself was planning to go, that they might prepare the way.

We see that Jesus was not only pre-eminent as a Teacher and Savior, but that He was also a great strategist, considering carefully just how His words and His ministry could be made most effective.

We recall another passage, in Luke 14:28-31, in which Jesus compared the strategy of the kingdom to that of a man intending to build a tower but sitting down and counting the cost, whether he would have sufficient to finish it, and to a king going to make war against another king considering well whether he be able with 10,000 to meet him that cometh against him with 20,000. If our modern democratic nations had shown as careful strategy in their affairs as Jesus showed in His strategy and planning, we would not be in the plight that we are in today.

All that Jesus organized was based on the idea of hand-to-hand contact, of man with man. The preaching of His gospel was not something theoretical; it was a matter of direct action. It is a grave question whether in our modern religious work we have not gone too far from this basic method of Jesus, depending upon brilliant sermons, mass movements, and various other factors, all worthy enough in themselves, to do what can be done only by more directly personal contacts.
