Buck Tales

Hunters are a funny lot! Come Saturday morning, if some of the local people (included) you'll know that they are in the woods trying to outdo perhaps the smartest creature of the land.

The next few weeks hunting will be predominate where a crowd gathers, and those who might never go afield in search of Master Whitetail will be bored stiff by the many of the big one that got away. Hunters are somewhat like men—most of them are liars.

Hunters in this area are hoping for a bright dry season opener. Some of the white stuff (snow) they waded through on opening last year. If you remember correctly, there was perhaps eight inches of snow on the ground when hunters trekked to the stands on opening day.

Conditions are for this to be one of the most successful openers ever and only time will tell if the forecasts are correct.

Deer are plentiful, and they are in good shape, but that doesn't insure the success of a hunt.

There will be those who shoot miss, shoot again and miss, after perhaps half a box of expended and a red-hot gun they will wonder why they haven't taken time to sight in their rifle.

When there will be others who simply get "buck-itis," and this happens you can't hit the side of a big red barn. It's not to most every hunter at one time or another, and some have been known to fall out of their tree stands.

Lackey, who once lived over the Hogue, tells about the negro who went to the woods one morning seeking his buck. Seems the first deer he saw was a doe and he promptly downed it.

After cleaning the Doe, he left it on the side of the trail and continued in pursuit of his buck. The same warden came along the next day and found the dressed Doe, decided to wait until the next day when the hunter came back.

The warden said to the colored man, "That's a nice deer you have Sam."

Sam replied "Yes sir, it sure is, that's a nice one you have too, yours is a Doe!"

Sam let this happen to you unless you have antlerless deer because if you think beef is better then figure what a 60-lb. Doe costs.

Added incentive for area hunters is the new rifle that will be given away by C. R. Jackson at the end of the season for the trophy killed in a 20-mile area.

Mr. Jackson has offered the prize to encourage more hunting traffic in the area, which we all benefit from. For years deer hunting has been a big business in the Hill Country area and this is coming to the attention of the better areas of the state. Further promotion will be even better.

If you are successful on opening weekend, the News Review would like to recognize your kill. If you wish, mail us a card, or call, and we'll tell the world about your

C. R. Jackson this week released rules to be observed for the free 30-30 Winchester rifle that his firm will give away during the approaching deer season to some lucky hunter.

Mr. Jackson is shown above holding the new gun.

He listed rules as follows: "Gun will be awarded for best trophy. Best trophy will be determined by measuring the widest point inside the horns and uniformity. In case of tie amount of points of one inch or over will be considered."

"If horns have been sawed off the head, they will be disqualified. This offer is good only in this trade territory. (20-mile radius of Hico). Measurements will be made at Jackson's Superette."

"Management's decision will be final. Winner will be notified at end of season."

hunting success.

But whatever you do, handle that gun with respect, and don't become the first casualty of the season.

One parting shot—the town will be full of hunters and visitors this weekend, and each of us should show them every courtesy, and assist them in any way possible.

Lone Star Gas Seeks Rate Increase For Iredell System

Lone Star Gas Company this week asked the City of Iredell to increase local residential and commercial gas rates to enable the company to earn a reasonable rate of return on the fair value of properties used in rendering public service.

The application for rate increase, the first major request since 1953 based on an income deficiency in the Iredell distribution system, listed increased cost of gas, higher property and equipment costs, increased wages and salaries, higher interest rates on borrowed money and increased taxes as primary reasons for the deficiency.

The company indicated that it had used every means available to avoid a request for rate in-

Battle of Bengals Set at Blanket

Hico and Blanket, two Tiger elevens that have had some real battles in past years, will hook up Friday night at Blanket in a 7:30 game, and when these two teams meet you can always expect a good ball game.

Fans will recall last year when the game was played at Hico with perhaps six inches of snow on the field. Blanket was rated a slight favorite in the game, but after the cold battle, the Tigers from Brown County were on the short end of an 18-0 score. They will surely remember that game this Friday night, and will probably be more ready to play than at any time this season.

Blanket is winless in district play, while Hico shows a 3-1 mark. Blanket was defeated 44-0 by Rising Star last week.

Other scores last week were: Richland Springs 12, Evant 6; and Lometa 25, Gorman 0. The win by Lometa enabled the Hornets to take over undisputed lead in district play with a perfect 4-0 record.

Other district games this week finds Rising Star at Evant, Lometa at Richland Springs, and Gorman at Meridian.

Standings and records of district 19-B teams is as follows, with season record listed in parenthesis:

Lometa (6-1)	4-0
Hico (6-1)	3-1
Rising Star (6-1)	3-1
Gorman (3-2)	3-1
Evant (5-2)	2-2
Meridian (2-5)	1-3
Blanket (2-5)	0-4
Richland Springs (1-6)	0-4

IN 56-32 HALLOWEEN THRILLER

Tigers 'Trick' Yellowjackets

In an offensive thriller at Tiger Stadium last Friday night, Hico out-scored the Meridian Yellowjackets to get back on the victory trail.

And would you believe 56-32? Touchdowns were coming so fast that it was difficult to keep up with who was making what.

But when the gun sounded, Hico had strung eight sevens for their 56 points, and Meridian had four sixes and an eight for their 32.

Offense was surely the name of the game on this Halloween night, as Hico rolled up 268 yards rushing and 343 passing for a fantastic 611 total yards. Meridian garnered 245 by land and 140 through the air for 385 total yards. Not even six-man teams compile 966 yards in their explosive games.

Galen Lindsey, the fine Hico freshman running back, figured in five of Hico's touchdowns, running for three and passing for two more on the halfback option. He ran 1, 5 and 7 yards for scores, and passed 44 and 65 yards to Mike Ferguson for the other two.

Reggie Grover also passed for two TD's, one going to Floyd Johnson for 25 yards and the other to Barry Christian for 46 yards. Christian also ran two yards for another Hico TD.

The younger Lindsey also kicked eight extra points.

Hico scored 14 points in the first period, and 21 in the second quarter to rack up 35 points in the first half. The Tiger defense allowed Meridian six points in the first quarter and 12 in the second, which left them trailing 18-35 at the half.

Both teams scored once in the third period, and Hico tacked on two more in the final quarter, and allowed Meridian a lone TD to post

Pleiku, Vietnam (AHTNC)—One of the Army badges that soldiers wear with special pride is the Combat Infantryman Badge. It was awarded to Private First Class Jackie Owens near Pleiku, Vietnam.

Local Minister is Speaker at Regular P-TA Meeting

"What Community Forces Influence Education?" was topic of the regular monthly meeting of the Hico Parent-Teacher Association Monday evening. Austin Emery, Minister of the Hico Church of Christ, was guest speaker.

Brother Emery reminded parents and teachers that today's world is not the same as it was when they were growing up. While discussing present day problems, Bro. Emery emphasized that one does not have to be like today's youth to understand them. "Don't try to act like the present generation or dress like them in order to gain their respect," stated the minister.

Currently today's youth and education are affected by five major forces, revealed the speaker. The first is student unrest—the students want a voice in what affects them.

Second, today's youth is accustomed to the world in their living rooms through mass media. Today's youth are more informed and they have accepted violence as a way to success from their constant television viewing. Moral values today attribute to another major force in today's youth—youth are seeking to find answers to problems that their parents did not bother to question.

The attitude of parents toward change, young people and education also explains many of the problems some young people face. Lastly, Bro. Emery challenged the teachers to review their attitude toward youth and strive for genuine discipline and respect.

The third grade, under the direction of Mrs. O. C. Cook, was in charge of the room program. The third graders presented "Things to Be Thankful For."

P-TA President Lamar Johanson expressed his appreciation to each parent and teacher for their part in making the Annual Harvest Festival a success. President Johanson announced the winners of the ten dollar cash awards for selling the most tickets were presented to the seventh grade in Elementary School and the ninth grade in High School.

Dr. Johanson also noted that the Harvest Festival totaled $690.50, with each class earning the following: 1st, $38; 2nd $66; 3rd $57; 4th $58; 5th $96; 6th $46; 7th $105; 8th $25; 9th $57; 10th $41; 11th $34; and 12th $22.

Supt. O. C. Cook encouraged parents to insist that children be in school. Mr. Cook stated that present Average Daily Attendance was very high and that he was going to recommend to the school board that an additional teacher be hired to assist with the large classes of physical education and biology in high school.

Room count was won by the third and the tenth grades.

BOWLING ALONG . . .

By RUTH SALMON
League Secretary

By the time the bowling session was over last week, some wanted to sell their bowling balls and others wanted to just give them away, while others blamed the weather, and for myself, I had the plain old toothache. But for others it went off fine, such as Morse Ross striking up a 197-200-563, and Shirley a 171-164. Ruth Salmon managed a 179 game as their team, the Hornets divided the count 2-2 with the Operators, with the Johansons carrying the team as Lamar whipped up a 170-174. Marilyn a 188-478, and Lucille Dayton a 151.

Jim Bullard was next in line with high game, 205-529, but the rest of his team, the Chokers, let him down as they lost three points to the Albies, with Doyle O'Neal putting aside a 187-471.

Louise Blair took all of the honors for the ladies with 198-502 as she led her team, Gemini 4, to a 3-1 victory over the Mixers, which wasn't easy as Buddy Randals whipped up a 186-508. Terry Vincent rolled a 160 game, and Cecilia bowling well above her average.

Danny Barnett set the pace for the Jets with a 174-479, ending the flight with a 2-2 split with the Astros as Sarah Reeves tossed in games well above her average.

Team Standings:

Gemini 4	23	9
The Hornets	20	12
The Chokers	19	13
The Operators	17	15
The Albies	16	16
The Astros	15	17
The Jets	11	21
The Mixers	7	25

RIDDLES IN SEASON

Family and friends gathered round the fire. The joy of the first snowfall. Red noses and mittened hands. This is the time of fun for all—It's winter!

What is the time of year when the temperature is right for snugglin' and holding hands in coat pockets and wearing look-alike sweaters and drinking hot chocolate by a roaring fire? Give? It's winter!

What is a locker full of coats and sweaters, a ready supply of Kleenex and cough drops, fogged up windows, blushing cheeks and bright red noses—It's winter!

THE SOUNDS OF WINTER

Rain on the windows; Crackling of a fire; Christmas carols; Shooting of deer; The sniffing of people with colds; The splash of mud under your feet; The cold wind blowing through the trees; People falling down wet steps; Cold cars that won't start; The crunch-crunch of people walking through the snow; The sound of Santa's sleigh.

WHAT IS OCTOBER — LOOKING BACK?

October is a brisk wind in the treetops, a whisper among crisp leaves, a gleam from a jack-o-lantern, the echo of laughter under a full moon.

October is the year come to harvest, in the barn, in the cellar, the jam closet, and cold pantry. It is the long evening and the book beside the fire, the brisk evening hayride; it is the blanket-covered night.

October is the power and the glory, to touch, to taste, to hear and to see. There are not words to describe a single tree when the color comes, let alone a whole valley of them. Even if you could find words, those words would have to be revised from day to day. The color changes—hour by hour. It creates its own light and has its own boldness and its own softness. It challenges the eye and it defeats the tongue.

There may be other times as good as late October to go out afoot, but there isn't a better one.

Walk the open fields now and yesterday is all around you, last spring's growth, last summer's maturity and last month's ripeness. October is the evening of the year; but after dusk comes starlight, and dawn, and another day—November 1st.

SPIRIT GIRLS

This week we would like to honor two cute and petite juniors. The first is very active in HHS, along with the three-act play. She can always be found with her mouth open and a great big smile on her face. She can usually be seen with her best friend, J.W.

Local employees who attended the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Frankey Williams, and Mrs. W. E. East.

The second is a constant contribution to HHS. She can usually be seen driving a yellow Plymouth with her best friend, little Heath. She also has a sneeze that can be heard for miles around.

We are sure you know by now that our spirit girls are Judy Putty and Devonna Scott.

BRUTE OF THE WEEK

Our brute this week is a real bruiser. Brute is always seen with spirit and a never-ceasing drive for the team. Brute has black hair, hazel eyes and is about 5 feet tall. Brute is sometimes called a weenie but doesn't seem to mind. If you are stumped, the brute this week is Lavern Busby.

TO MY GRANDCHILDREN:

Each of you have greatly enriched our family, and God has blessed each home with your arrival. Your parents are proud of you, and I beam with pleasure that through you my name shall be carried on into future generations. A man reproduces himself through his son, and the shining glory of crowning achievement is revived along the shadowy paths of things to come by virtue of a daughter.

My sincere aim in this entreaty is to appeal to the stronger will of your conscientious perception; that I not be merely sounding as one who shall be accepted as old fashioned, or outdated, but that I may speak in language you understand, and pause to ponder. I should like to guide your youthful steps away from many pitfalls. These are trying times. Each generation is faced with many barriers, but your generation has many added problems to cope with. I should like to state briefly those qualities of character and stamina that shall sustain you, and permit you to overcome those fiendish evils that seek to destroy you.

Don't be afraid to say no. Never compromise your convictions to be one of the crowd. It is better to go alone than allow your sincere persuasions to be trampled underneath the treading throngs. Carefully choose your friends, but to gain friends, you must be a friend. No other quality shall you owe to your friends more than loyalty. Be truthful and honest in all matters. Be not overcome by desire of possessions, but be a companion of thrift. This is a virtue that has almost been forgotten, but one cannot neglect such a vital need, and escape paying the Piper. Do not be apprehensive toward hard work. The rewards are generous to those who make serious application to any task undertaken. Be patient. Heedless haste tumbles many goals. Be a dreamer: Not one who dreams in vain fancy, but one who dreams of great visions of attainment. Be humble. Be compassionate; always showing a love, understanding and concern for those whom you meet on your journey of life. Be yourself, and be original. You do not have to imitate anyone to achieve recognition. Despite any other suggestion given, never try to climb the ladder of success by trampling someone in your effort to climb.

The effervescent buoyancy of youthful strength and courage shall lead you into the paths of life with a wide-eyed anticipation of great things to come. This is well but it does not insulate you for proper absorption of the shocks and reverses that you shall encounter. Be alert to opportunity, and seize all that comes your way that is conducive to betterment of life and character. Shy away from that which might involve you in regrettable situations. Many moments of joyous thrill and mountain-high elation shall be yours, but many bruises and thorns shall bump and prick along the way. To meet those stumbling blocks head-on better prepares you to rise again, and perhaps achieve greater objectives than you had hoped.

Forsake not the faith of your fathers. God gave life, and you owe to Him dedicated devotion, not only that you render service to your Maker, but that you may enjoy the most complete fulfillment of life itself. An abiding faith in God shall lift you up when all others shall have failed.

Think not that I have set forth guidelines that are long forgotten, and were practiced by preceding generations, but by the experience of my own life, and the testimony of many, these virtues shall give you the greatest stability, the most security, and provide the best anchor, as you launch forth on the turbulent sea of uncertainty.

FLORIST — A FLOWER?
The plant has a beautiful fragrance and is tinged in delicate shades of pink because cats like to roll on them. They are used to make a home tonic and a baby's colic. It has been used as a seasoning and has become a common road weed in North America. The old standbys are the favorites. For instance there is nothing that more to the mother of a baby than an arrangement of flowers. Just call.

Fairy Community News

By MRS. EUNICE DANIEL

We had a misty weekend, but up to this writing only one-half inch of rain fell. We have had somewhat cooler temperature. We received 3.8 inches of rain last week.

Mrs. Lesley New returned home recently from the Clifton Hospital where she underwent surgery, and is doing fine. Visiting in the New home since her return were Mr. and Mrs. Vance Wadlington, Rev. Bob Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Abel, Mrs. W. L. Streater of Lanham, Mrs. New's mother, Mrs. Axie Guest of near Olin, the New's daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Wood of Burleson, a son, Truitt New of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Hobb Shedd, Mrs. Sam Hubbard and Mrs. Coy Parks of Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Blakley, Mrs. T. R. Parks, Mrs. Ruth Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Oakley, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Turner, Mrs. Eunice Daniel, Mrs. Lester Timmerman, Ray and Mairs New, and Keith of Pleasant Valley, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mason.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Overton and family and her sisters' three children, the Benny Dowdy children of Fort Worth visited during the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Goynes.

Mr. and Mrs. Audie Parks visited here during the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Duncan of Fort Worth spent the weekend with their parents, Mrs. Olga Duncan, and Mr. and Mrs. Pettitt of Hamilton.

Those from here attending the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carson of Hamilton Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bolstad, Glenn and D'Ann, and Eunice Daniel. The Carsons formerly resided here. Our congratulations to them.

Neal Jones of Whitney is preparing to open up a welding shop at Lanham, across the farm road 1602 from where the Lanham school was located. We wish for him a successful adventure.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Turner had the following children and families home for the weekend: Mr. and Mrs. Billy Turner and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Botkin and children and Miss Bernice Turner of Killen, Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Turner and family and her mother, Mrs. Gordon of Arlington. Mrs. Gordon visited her father, Mr. J. H. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Richardson spent the weekend at Burleson visiting their son, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Richardson.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl King attended an SCS meeting at College Station last week.

A few little tots were out last Friday night on a spook serenade but seems they failed to get some folks out. This scribe, for one, failed to hear the door bell. We had fixed several bags of candy and other eats and lay down to rest and dropped off to sleep and missed them. Sorry kiddos, we hope to see you next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and Janice visited Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Springer and family of Paint Rock. The Springers formerly resided here and were neighbors of the Sellers.

Mrs. V. H. Heyroth of near Clifton underwent lung surgery at Scott & White Hospital last Tuesday and was doing well at last report. She is a sister of Mrs. E. M. Hoover and the writer, who will visit with her as soon as she can have visitors. Her room number is 463. We hope she will soon be able to return home.

The writer attended services at Carlton last Thursday for little Terry Jordan. After the service we visited in the home of a former neighbor and friend, Mrs. Marie Turner and Sammie.

We also attended funeral services in Hico Tuesday morning for little Landis Craig Salyors. It was a coincidence that both little boys were 11 years old and each would have been 12 in November, and both were in the funeral home at the same time. Our deepest sympathy to the parents and others bereaved in the tragedies that cut their little lives short. May God bless those bereaved.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Guinn of Iredell spent Friday night and Saturday with their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Guinn.

We received 3.8 inches of rain last week which made some repairs necessary at the cemetery. This was looked after Friday.

Birthdates for November which we have are E. M. Hoover, Nov. 1; Mrs. Edwin Selheimer, Fort Worth Nov. 2; Audie Parks Nov. 6; Texie Allison, Dublin, Nov. 13; Mrs. Lilla Byrd Nov. 13; Frank Hanes, Nov. 21; Mrs. Carl King, Nov. 22; Kay Pittman, Nov. 30. Happy birthday to all. Also Justin Bullard, Nov. 9, and Amon Morgan, Hamilton, Nov. 21.

Thanks to Connie Yarborough and sister, Mrs. Green of Abilene, who handed us $4 for the Fairy Cemetery while in Dublin to attend funeral services for Mrs. Minnie Yarborough.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jackson went to Grand Prairie the first of last week and accompanied their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Jackson to Galveston on a sight-seeing trip. It was the first trip down there for the J. T. Jacksons. Enroute they visited with the Vernon Jackson's daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Young of Brenham.

All are glad to see fair skies Monday. Fields are really wet from recent rains, and some fields have water standing in middles and low places.

We received a letter recently from Mrs. Vergie Cox Sitton of Abilene, stating that she and a nurse, Mrs. Ruth Gonzales of Abilene, had recently returned from a visit with relatives and friends in the Lubbock and Plainview areas. While there she said she visited at graves of her sister, Fannie and husband also the late Mr. and Mrs. Will Greer and infant baby at Lorenzo, who formerly lived here. They visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. Neva Arthur Cox of Lubbock. Mrs. Cox is also a former resident of Fairy being the former Neva Rainey, and the Cox family lived here for some time before moving to Lubbock. Mr. Cox passed away before the family left here. A daughter, Mary, is with her mother, who is nearing 90. Mrs. Sitton stated that an early freeze on the Plains had ruined the cotton crop, which was in the green boll stage. She stated that hundreds of acres was killed.

The German police dog and another of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Priest was gone when they returned home recently from a trip to Alabama to visit a daughter. A neighbor was feeding the dogs. They heard of a dog at Cranfills Gap which answered the description of the German police. Mrs. Priest called, the man gave her the vaccination number the dog was wearing. She told him that wasn't her dog number. He told her he believed it was her dog and advised that she come and see it. She did only to find its collar had been changed and it was wearing a Ft. Dodge vaccination tag and was her dog. They still haven't found the other dog.

Anyone needing a good young male dog please call me, 796-4381. Next Sunday is the regular monthly singing at Lund Valley Baptist Church. All have a cordial invitation to attend.

NOVEMBER 11

A DAY DEDICATED TO WORLD PEACE
1918—VETERANS DAY—1969

Fifty-one years have passed since the original Armistice Day or Veterans Day (as it is now called) — 51 years and many wars since the day in 1918 when "the war to end all wars" ended. We commemorate the anniversary of this day with the belief that peace will prevail and wars will end; with the hope for mutual understanding between nations and good will among all peoples; and with a sincere tribute to those who have valiantly fought for our country.

how can Lone Star Gas help you get rid of wrinkles?

We know all wrinkles are not due to aging. Some are due to drying. And dryers. Some dryers affect clothes the way sun affects skin. They not only dry out moisture. They bake in wrinkles. Even in permanent press. But gas dryers are more sensitive to your family's clothing. And more sympathetic to your work load. Most new gas dryers have a special cool-down cycle that turns off the heat before your clothes become overheated. That means your clothes have fewer wrinkles. And you have less ironing. You also have less expensive utility bills. Because gas dries for about a penny a load. See your gas appliance dealer or Lone Star Gas Company. Find out how to take it a little easier. And avoid wrinkles.

Clairette Community News

By Mrs. Lucile Mayfield

We were surprised to wake up Sunday morning and find it raining as Saturday was a beautiful day. Several Clairette folks attended the Harvest Festival supper at the school in Hico Saturday night. I never saw so much good food at one place before, and it was as good as it looked. It reminded me of the big dinners we use to have on the last day of our schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Red Reed and Gary Lynn visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Buster Roberson and James at Hico.

Mrs. Janell Garner and Debbie of Stephenville and Franklin Roberson of Hico visited Herman Roberson Sunday.

Rev. Hodges and wife of Hico, pastor of the Methodist Church, visited awhile Saturday afternoon at the Frank Johnson home.

Mrs. John Noland spent Tuesday in Stephenville with Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Noland.

Eunice and Nola Lee and Mr. and Mrs. George Lee of Stephenville visited from Tuesday until Thursday of last week at Colorado City with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Thompson. Mrs. Thompson is ill in a hospital there.

News came that Mrs. B. J. Pruett of Caldwell, Idaho, has been ill with the flu. Also her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Marshall, whom they are living with.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny King and Tanya of Benbrook and Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Mayfield and Terri of Stephenville had dinner Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mayfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hoffpaur and family of Mart spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hoffpaur. Other visitors Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Tommy McAnally and family, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman McAnally and family of San Angelo, and Mr. and Mrs. Gage McAnally and family of Dublin.

Mrs. Frank Johnson had a surprise Saturday afternoon when an old friend, Mrs. Lillian Burges Cosby and her daughter, Rev. and Mrs. Jack Durham of Arlington visited her. It had been between 60 and 65 years since Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Cosby had seen each other. Mrs. Johnson said she did not know Mrs. Cosby. They also visited at the cemetery.

Mrs. Frank Johnson visited Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Carter in Dublin.

A light frost was in evidence Saturday morning in low places, and on Monday a larger frost fell. Bro. Irshel Harrison of Fort Worth preached Sunday at the Baptist Church.

COUNTY AGENT REPORTS

By BILL McCUTCHEON

There is quite a lot of interest in TAM Wintergreen Hardinggrass and Kleingrass 75, both products of Texas A&M's research center at McGregor. TAM Wintergreen Hardinggrass is a perennial wintergrass and I expect that it will fill a real need in Hamilton County. Kleingrass is also creating a lot of interest and also promises to be a good one.

Let me put in a word of caution at this point. When purchasing seed make sure you are getting the genuine article. Make sure you specify TAM Wintergreen Hardinggrass or Kleingrass 75. These two grasses have been selected and proven over the years to be drought resistant and cold resistant under our climatic conditions.

I am afraid some people in the county have bought imported Kleingrass and Hardinggrass. It can be purchased for about one-half the cost of the improved varieties but you generally get what you pay for.

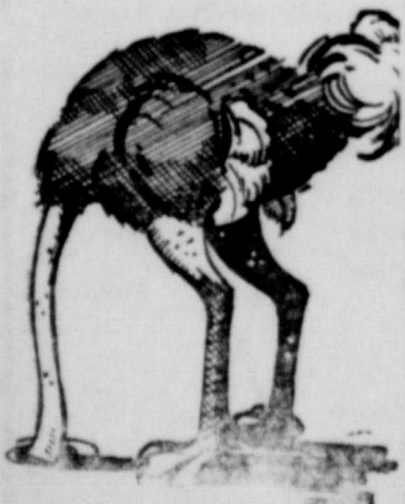

It's time to act when a fire hits and too late to plan how to fight it. The time to do the planning and training of family members is when there is no fire to fight.

How well are you prepared to fight fire or hold it in check until help arrives? Are you familiar with the location of fire departments which are available in the county? Valuable time is sometimes lost in getting in touch with the nearest department and such loss could mean the difference in saving the property or its complete loss. It's a good idea to have equipment available, including tools, for fire fighting but perhaps equally important is to have one or more persons who know how to use the equipment.

Perhaps the most important tool is a fire extinguisher. Make sure it is adequate in size and filled with the proper chemical to fight the kind of fire expected. Look for the "UL" or "FM" label of approval on extinguishers before they are purchased. These letters on the extinguisher means that it has been tested and approved by a nationally recognized laboratory.

Extinguishers should be strategically placed in all fire danger areas, including the kitchen, barns, machine sheds, and near the storage tanks for gasoline and oil. Remember also that different chemicals are required for different types of fires. Make sure the extinguisher is always in top operating condition by regular checks and keeping it filled.

Washington, D.C.—There seems to be good reason to distinguish between critics and apologists. Our system of Government would not be what it is if the right of criticism on issues and policy, and of those who make them, were limited in the least.

Apologists are all critics but not all critics are apologists. There are those in prominent po-

ORDINANCE

AN ORDINANCE MAKING IT AN OFFENSE FOR THE OWNER OR OPERATOR OF ANY MOTOR VEHICLE, AUTOMOBILE OR OTHER TYPE OF CONVEYANCE TO LEAVE SAME PLACED, STANDING OR PARKED OR IN ANY MANNER UNATTENDED FOR MORE THAN SEVENTY-TWO CONSECUTIVE HOURS IN OR ON ANY PUBLIC STREET, ALLEY, SIDEWALK, PARK, OR OTHER PLACE OF THE CITY OF HICO, PROVIDING PENALTY AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF HICO:

Section One

Any owner or operator or other person in charge of any motor vehicle, automobile, or other type of conveyance who shall place or leave same standing, parked or in any manner on any public street, alley, sidewalk, park, or other place of the City of Hico, unattended, for more than seventy-two continuous hours shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $200.00; and each day that same continues after expiration of said continuous period seventy-two hours shall constitute a separate offense.

Section Two

In the event any section, clause, sentence, or paragraph or any portion of this ordinance shall for any reason be adjudged by any Court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such invalidity shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder of this ordinance.

Section Three

The welfare of the citizens of Hico requires that this ordinance go into effect immediately from and after its passage and publication as provided by law, and any provision of the ordinances of the City of Hico or of the law providing otherwise are hereby suspended.

PASSED AND APPROVED this 4th day of November, 1969.

O. L. DAVIS, Mayor.

BESS LACKEY, City Secretary.

I, the undersigned City Secretary of the City of Hico, Texas, do hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a true and correct copy of an ordinance passed by the City Council of the City of Hico as same appears of record in Vol. II at page 25 of the minutes of said Council.

sitions in all walks of life, including some members of Congress, publications and organizations, acting as apologists to the world for just about everything our Country does, even to the extent of appearing ashamed of its very existence.

We are a divided people on our position in Vietnam. Every opinion carries its legitimacy and respect. It is our right to oppose or support the whole mess in part, or in its entirety, but hardly a right to apologize to the enemies of our fighting men who are there.

It is our right to question our activities in Laos but to have an apologetic attitude toward Red China because of our secrets there is no right at all.

We joined the radicals in the United Nations in condemning Rhodesia for her struggle to run her own affairs. There are the apologists to Russia for our defense preparations.

The apologists were on the stump ready to support a recent story in a Copenhagen newspaper that the United States and England at the end of World War II, dumped mustard gas in the waters off the coast of Denmark and that the leakage had seriously injured six fishermen and had killed thousands of tons of fish. The story described the panic at the vacation resorts of Sweden and Denmark, all the while blaming Great Britain and the U.S.

The documented proof shows it was German gas captured by the Russians and dumped by them. When this became known, the story and the apologists were hushed. It is further proved that there was no panic and that the resorts in the area thrived beyond anything ever experienced.

Someone said a long time ago, in effect, that every man is entitled to his own judgment but no man is entitled to be wrong in his facts.

It is notable, too, that by and large present-day apologists had nothing to say when Russia crushed Hungary in 1956 and more recently when the cries of Czechoslovakia were heard beneath her Soviet oppressor.

Seemingly some of our apologists have a guilt complex because of the strength and power of our nation. Maybe they are somewhat like a great many wealthy liberals who appear to feel guilty because of their plenty in the midst of want. There are cases of those doing what the rich young ruler declined to do but mostly they are for the Government doing it for them.

Perhaps the meek will eventually inherit the earth but a comparison of events in the world could leave one to conclude that only a brutal hard-nosed show of power guarantees safety under prevailing conditions. It was not meant that the meek be vassals and slaves. Neither does it mean that we as a people should, or can be, oblivious to the opinions of neighbors in this small world but to apologize for every action lends encouragement to those who would destroy us.

In 1816 Stephen Decatur gave a

Four Conservation Leaders Attend Dallas SCS Meeting

Four Hamilton-Coryell Soil Conservation leaders were in Dallas recently to attend the 29th annual statewide meeting of conservation district directors.

O. C. King, Gene Pruitt and Alfred Marwitz, directors of the Hamilton-Coryell Soil and Water Conservation District, and Bomer Harris, District Conservationist, are attending from the Hamilton area. The meeting started Tuesday and ended Thursday.

Governor Preston Smith addressed the conservationists at a banquet Wednesday night.

At the state meeting the directors discussed ways to improve their service to both urban and rural interests. They also were to elect officers and take care of other business.

There are 188 conservation districts in Texas covering 99 percent of the state. They are governed by 940 directors who by law must own land within the district they reside. The locally-run conservation districts sponsor a wide range of conservation activities. Technical help from professional conservationists is furnished by the Soil Conservation Service.

toast at a dinner in Norfolk, Virginia. "Our Country," he said, "in her intercourse with foreign nations may she always be right; but our Country right or wrong."

In 1847 in debate in the Congress on the great domestic issue of slavery, John Quincy Adams said "And say not thou 'My Country right or wrong' not shed thy blood for an unhallowed cause."

The difference—Foreign and Domestic.

This nation has plenty of room to wash our own "dirty linen" without apologizing to those to whom we have done no wrong.

Life-size characters, rocking boats, barnyard scenes, flying pink elephants—they sell some food products, but wise shoppers look for something else—food labels. They clue shoppers in on what to find inside, and labels help them get their money's worth.

Buy products that meet your needs; examine food packages carefully for contents, net weight and degree of fill. Knowing the cost of food and comparing cost per unit leads to rational choices.

Modern laws help. The Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act requires that food be wholesome and suitable for consumer use. All information on food labels must be accurate, easy to find, easy to understand and not misleading.

Labels must tell the name of the product, name and address of manufacturer, packer or shipper, accurate statement of quantity by weight, measure or numerical count, and a list of ingredients when two or more foods go into a product that is not standardized. Watch the label on packages you purchase.

Although a guarantee or warranty may insure repairs and services, it often provides little protection for the consumer.

But warranty conditions seem to be changing for the better. Manufacturers have been simplifying guarantees by eliminating legal jargon and making them easier to read. Government pressure and consumer complaint caused this. The new warranties do not necessarily provide more protection, though.

Many warranties cover only parts or a selected group of parts. Follow these precautions for protection.

1. Insist upon seeing the warranty before you purchase.
2. Check the warranty to determine how much you have.
3. Find out who will service the product.
4. If the product has been chased on a 30-day change you will be in a better position to receive service you make the payment.
5. Keep warranty in a safe record date of purchase on it.
6. Do not be afraid of litigation in getting proper service. If necessary, take your case to the president of the manufacturer's company.
