The 88th grand ole' Reunion is history, and a lot of us are getting weary from going to the reunion each night to see what is offered in the way of entertainment. The event got underway Wednesday evening with the traditional parade at 7 o'clock. Members of the Fort Hood Color Guard led the parade, followed by the Fort Hood and four track vehicles. The parade was close behind, filled with a group of wide-eyed youngsters thrilled by the ride. The parade had more entries than ever with fewer floats, but decorated cars. The Stephen-Twirlers added to the parade, and the Cub Scouts and usual of bicycles, beautifully decorated. Then there were motor-cars, mini-bikes, horses and riding special and comic entries. All together added up to a parade and another job well by the parade committee. Evans of Stephenville was the sponsor.

Wednesday night entertainment at the pavilion was provided by a group composed of James Wesson, Curtis Keller, Tony Field and Gary Westmoreland. Singer Mrs. Jimmy Ware of Douglas and the Shrimpers featured attraction Thursday

Friday night the annual Miss Reunion contest was held when 30 lovelies in the senior division and 17 Little Miss candidates paraded before the judges. Don Hartman, WBAP radio personality, was the emcee for the event, and background music was presented by B. F. Thomas on the organ. Wesson and Wayne Baker of Stephenville provided entertainment during the evening. "Fantasy Land" was the theme of the pageant, with contestants coming out on the golden brick stage amidst an array of summer flowers, butterflies and mushrooms. Stage background mural was painted by Miss Donice Park in vibrant colors.

The night of the four-day celebration featured Joe Paul Nichols and his Four Pennies, and also the crowd of the event. It's the time when people from far and wide come to see friends that they haven't seen in years, or least last year. "I didn't miss a night, but why go, some day I'll be too old," my sister and her husband were here and their children wanted to go, so we went there next year. Youth is gone when you've money to burn and the fire is out.

School Plant Has 'New Look' With Added Improvements

Many new improvements have been made at the school this summer in preparation for the new term. Cleanup and paint jobs have been in progress all summer, with new paint in many rooms. Blinds and windows have been cleaned, and floors have been cleaned, waxed and polished. Some playground equipment has been located to better advantage, and is also sporting a new paint job. The new 30x60 foot athletic field house, which has just been completed, has been the major project at the school this summer. The building includes adequate showers, storage space, an office, and equipment room. The project was financed by issuing time warrants in the amount of $18,500, to be paid in the next five years.

Alan Ross Completes Training; Transferred
San Antonio (Spl)—Airman Glenn Alan Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn R. Ross of Hico, has been assigned to Lowry AFB, Colo., after completing Air Force basic training. The airman has been assigned to the Technical Training Center at Lowry for specialized training in the munitions and weapons maintenance field. Airman Ross, a 1971 graduate of Hico High School, attended Tarleton State College.

AIRMAN ALAN ROSS

Former athletic dressing rooms were located under the east stadium and were inadequate. Also in the new field house is a washer and dryer, which was donated by the Booster Club. New Lighting System. A complete new lighting system for the football field has been installed at a cost of about $3,000. About half of this amount has been contributed by local citizens. Work on erection of the new light standards and wiring was contributed by Community Public Service Company. "The school board and community would like to express their gratitude to Mr. Ollie Davis, local CPS manager, and Mr. Frank Williams for their untiring efforts and help," stated O. C. Cook, Superintendent. Mr. Cook also said the school wished to give special thanks to Mr. T. F. Crawford, Central Division manager, and Mr. Jake Perry, foreman, who made it possible to have the use of five pieces of heavy equipment and 17 men for three days at no cost to the school. The work was estimated at $3,000. The old light fixtures at the stadium were installed in 1938, and had reached the stage of being inadequate and unsafe. A new chain link fence has also been constructed across the south end of the football field. Also guard rails have been placed on both sides of the stadium. Cost of these two projects was $921.50. The P-TA contributed $500 from their fund and the remaining $421.50 came from the school's general concession fund. The new tennis courts, sponsored by the senior classes of 1971 and 1972 are almost complete, and lights have been added.

Fairy Community News

By Mrs. Eunice Danif

We are still very dry in this section and everyone should be very cautious of fire. All these pastures need is just a spark to start a serious fire.

Our sympathy is extended to Mrs. W. E. Goyne in the loss of her sister, Mrs. Effie Lowe. Mrs. Lowe had visited here only a few weeks ago.

The writer and Mr. and Mrs. Scott Blakley attended the Burris reunion Sunday at Hamilton. The Blakleys also attended Saturday. A large crowd of relatives and friends were present. So glad to see Paul Agee again. He resided at the Hillcrest Nursing Home with his mother, Mrs. Selma Agee until her death. He is now living in Dallas just two blocks from his sister, Nadine. He looks real well and has gained some weight and seemingly happy.

Those from here attending the Miss Reunion contest at Hico Friday night whom we saw were Mr. and Mrs. Carl King, Mrs. Ruth Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and Janice and Miss Mary Krupala of Hamilton. Certainly a bunch of beautiful young ladies and tiny tots.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Wright of Carlsbad, N.M. visited awhile Sunday morning in the E. M. Hoover home, enroute to Bryan to visit their son and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Adams and family of Arlington and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Richardson and Tommy Owen spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Richardson. Mr. and Mrs. Garland Latham and family of Austin joined them for breakfast Sunday morning. Jimmie and Mrs. Latham are children of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Adams, sister and brother-in-law of the Richardsons. All spent Sunday together, their first gathering since the tragic death of the Adams who were killed in a car accident.

Miss Mary Krupala of Hamilton visited last Friday and Saturday with Janice Sellers.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Blakley and Becky of Colorado were visitors at the cemetery Friday visiting the family plot. He said it was his first time to see the double marker and curbing that been erected. He handed us $5 for the cemetery. We told him he wasn't due anything since his sisters had put the lot in endowment. He said he wanted to give something anyway, and insisted we take it. Our sincere thanks to him. Was good to see him again after many years. They spent Friday night with his uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Blakley.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Loden of Kerrville spent Saturday night in the home of his sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Goyne.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Arrant, Brent, Shyrla and Lisa of Ft. Worth visited Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Arrant and Mrs. Ruth Cunningham. Mrs. Cunningham had lunch with the Arrants Sunday.

The writer attended singing at Evergreen Sunday afternoon, being accompanied from Hamilton by Mrs. G. E. Woosley.

Cecil Grisham of Lanham also attended the singing.

Mrs. Mildred Allison of Hurst is visiting at this writing in the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Oran Willeford and Delia.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Porterfield and Billy returned the first of last week from a vacation to Colorado and reported a wonderful trip.

Some have been combining maize the past week and report good yields.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Turner and family of Arlington and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Turner, Kurtis and Rhonda of Killeen spent the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Turner. Kurtis and Rhonda remained to visit this week.

Mrs. Wilma Crow of Hico visited awhile Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover.

Mrs. V. H. Heyroth of Clifton visited a short while Monday of last week with her sisters, Mrs. E. M. Hoover and the writer. She wanted to see the Charles D. Hoovers but found them at Hico and couldn't wait for them. They returned home Wednesday and few of the relatives got to see them.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hoover of Dallas visited Tuesday in the E. M. Hoover home to be with the Chas. Hoovers.

We learn that Mrs. Willie Bullard is now a patient in the Hico Hospital. Still having trouble with a broken hip. We do hope she will soon be on the road to recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison made short calls at the Carl Ray Sellers, Oran Willefords and our home Sunday night. They were returning from Gatesville where they had gone to hear the children of the late Nelson Seago sing, only to learn that the Seagos had their last performance Saturday night.

At the Willefords, the Allison's visited Mrs. Mildred Allison.

NOTE OF APPRECIATION

MRS. GARY WARREN DUNCAN

MISS SUE FARLEY BECOMES BRIDE OF GARY DUNCAN IN WACO CEREMONY

Miss Elizabeth Sue Farley and Gary Warren Duncan exchanged wedding vows at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, July 29, in Lake Shore Baptist Church in Waco. Rev. Ron Smith, Baptist minister and Professor of Religion at McLennan Community College, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard A. Farley of Waco, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Duncan of Hico.

Prenuptial music selections were rendered by Miss Grace Anna Jones of Waco.

Two seven-branched candelabra holding white lighted tapers, and baskets of pink and white gladioli against a background of banked greenery formed the altar setting.

The bride was escorted to the altar, and given in marriage by her father.

For her wedding, she chose a white peau de soie formal gown with empire waistline with an imported white Venice lace bodice, accented with dainty off the shoulder short sleeves. The hemline of the gown was also enhanced with Venice white lace.

Forming a large satin bow at the back neckline, two wide streamers fell to floor length. She carried a cascade bridal bouquet of feathered pink and white carnations and pink rose buds.

The bride's young sister, Laura Farley, preceded the bride down the aisle as a flower girl, wearing a replica of the bridal gown. She carried a basket of pink rose buds.

Miss Paula Billegie, maid of honor, and Miss Carol Menefee, bridesmaid, were attired in identical floor-length gowns of pink dotted Swiss over taffeta, designed similar to that of the bride. Each carried a nosegay of pink roses from which fell pink and white satin streamers.

Miss Kathy Farley of Waco, sister of the bride, was at the guest register.

Roland Sherrard of Houston was best man. Wayne Duncan of Waco served as groomsman.

Ushers were Dan Bakke of Houston, brother-in-law of the groom, Dickie Farley of Waco, brother of the bride, and Doyle Crews of Clifton.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Farley chose a pink knit sleeveless dress with matching sleeveless three-quarter length coat with white accessories. The groom's mother wore a sapphire blue knit dress with white accessories. Each wore white orchid corsages.

For going away the bride chose a hot pink suit with white accessories, and wore the corsage from the center of her bridal bouquet.

After a short wedding trip to Acapulco, the couple will be at home at 2201 N. 50th St. in Waco. Mrs. Duncan is a nurse at Hillcrest Hospital, and Mr. Duncan is a professor of mathematics at MCC.

Mr. and Mrs. Farley hosted a small reception at their home in Waco following the wedding. The table, laid with a white imported

The Memory Phone.™

Forget it.

Leave the house and forget the phone. Because now you can have a telephone that answers calls and records messages for you.

The Memory Phone. It works like any telephone. Until you switch on the "memory" part. Then it answers calls automatically. In your own voice. And remembers every word your callers leave. Later it plays back everything that's gone on since you've gone out.

Use the Memory Phone to monitor and record calls when you're home—but too busy to answer.

We can install one for just a few dollars on your monthly statement. So whenever you can't answer the telephone, turn on the Memory Phone. And forget it.
