Hutton Suggests Social Security Check Be Made

Are you sure all your earnings in employment covered by the Social Security Act have been reported by your employers?

John G. Hutton, manager of the social security office in Lubbock advises individuals who have been working and having social security taxes deducted from their pay to check their social security record at least once every three years.

This can be done by obtaining a post card at the social security district office, located at 2878-34th Street. When necessary, the number of quarters of coverage earned so far can also be obtained. If, after receiving your record, you find an error has been made in your social security account, the social security office will help you get it corrected. Mr. Hutton states you should check on your account at least once every three years because there is a limit to the period within which certain corrections can be made.

An employer is required by law to give his employees receipts for the social security taxes he has deducted from their pay. He must do this at the end of each year, and also, when an employee stops working for him. These receipts will help you check on your social security account, because they show not only the amount deducted from your pay, but also the wages paid you.

Remember, future social security benefits are based on your earnings record, kept in Baltimore.

A representative of the Lubbock Social Security Office will be in Spur on Sept. 3, 1958 at 9:30 a. m. at the Justice of Peace Office and will be glad to assist in all matters pertaining to Social Security.

Quail Are Still Available From State Farm

Pen-raised quail are still available for release to sportsmen, landowners, and clubs, if they have land suitable for quail. W. V. Cutbirth, Assistant Secretary of the Game and Fish Commission has announced.

Interested persons are encouraged to make application by letter to the Austin office or to local game wardens.

Under the program which is designed for quail habitat improvement, land must be inspected by the local game warden. After inspection of a proposed release area, the warden will recommend a quail management program and the number of quail to be released.

When an application has been approved the quail are shipped to the applicant at 50 cents each, which is approximately one-half the cost of production and shipment, the assistant secretary said.

"With this year's good quail crop, applicants would most likely need habitat improvement to justify a release," he added.

Birds are about two months old when released, allowing for sufficient growth while remaining young enough to make adjustment in the new habitat. Plans call for releases to con-

Banks Serve Agriculture With More Credit Than Other Groups

Texas banks were serving farmers and ranchers with more credit than any other group of lenders on January 1 of this year, according to Robert Lewis, President, Spur Security Bank, Spur, Texas, who represents the Texas Bankers Association as Kent and Dickens Counties Key Banker. During 1957, the state's banks maintained their leadership in agricultural credit services. Texas banks held a higher proportion of the total farm production credit than a year previous.

Based on the seventeenth annual farm lending summary of the Agricultural Commission of the American Bankers Association, Mr. Lewis reported that "at the beginning of the year, Texas bankers were helping farmers and ranchers with $309,115,000 in loans—12 per cent more than a year previous. This total included $268,221,000 in production loans and $40,894,000 in agricultural mortgages. On the same date, $294,909,000 in agricultural loans were held by insurance companies; $201,409,000 by Federal Land Banks; $77,249,000 by Production Credit Associations; and $73,807,000 in non-real estate loans plus $30,240,000 in real estate loans by the Farmers Home Administration. It can be seen from these figures that about two-thirds of the production credit used by Texas farmers and ranchers came from banks."

Mr. Lewis said that "more and more, the banks in Texas find that farmers and ranchers need a new type of credit to help finance the rapid increase in capital requirements. To meet this changing need, an increasing amount of agricultural credit from Texas banks is on an intermediate-term repayment basis.

"Intermediate-term loans are most frequently needed for machinery and equipment, livestock, soil improvements, additional land, and refinancing short-term notes. Over one-half of all real estate credit is used to finance those intermediate-term capital expenses.

SOCIAL SECURITY ON FARM

Any farm and ranch employer who pays $150 or more to a laborer or who hires a farm hand 20 days or more during a year, must pay social security taxes on the wages involved, says Cliff Bates, extension farm management specialist.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill R. Barrett and son, Pat, visited last week end in Holdenville, Okla., with her parents.

LOOK WHAT HAPPENS when you fall for "WHOLESALE" advertising! YOU'RE OUT ON A LIMB. Where can you take the merchandise in case it needs to be repaired? Does the firm which advertises "wholesale" prices provide service without additional charge for a period of time as does the retailer? Do you get the usual warranty or guarantee which the retailer offers you? In case it is shipped to you in a damaged condition, who pays? Or, who pays for the return transportation? Col. Garrison Predicts 29 Motorcides Over Labor Day

In announcing a prediction of 29 motorcides for the forthcoming three-day Labor Day period, Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, outlined an extensive traffic law enforcement program for the holiday week-end.

The prediction was made by N. K. Woerner, veteran statistician of the DPS, who estimated that motorcides will total two more than the 27 killed during the similar period last year.

Col. Garrison said that Texas DPS will begin its Operation Motorcade at 12:01 a. m. August 30 and that it will extend through 11:59 p. m. Sept. 1. During this period patrolmen of the Motor Vehicle Inspection and License and Weight services will bolster the force of the Texas Highway Patrol in enforcing our state traffic laws.

Garrison said state law enforcement officers will be out in force at all hours to seek out dangerous drivers.

"Our patrolmen are scheduled to work all hours of the day and night during the Labor Day week-end and to cover as many miles of our highways with the most effective enforcement possible.

"Patrolmen working during a period of increased motor vehicle traffic, and traffic hazards, such as will be experienced during the time of our Operation Motorcade, have two main purposes in mind.

Their prime objective is protection of the motoring public, and they can best do this by removing accident prone drivers from the road.

"The other purpose is service to the public. Each of our patrolmen recognizes his responsibility to the motorist and he will do his utmost to make driving in Texas a pleasant experience.

"During this holiday we will make every effort to prevent traffic accidents and the resulting loss of life. We hope all Texas drivers will recognize the seriousness of the traffic accident situation during this Labor Day period and will show their interest and ability to help by safe, sane driving."

The DPS director said that excessive speed and driving while intoxicated are the two leading causative factors in fatal accidents during holiday periods. Stressing that one drunk driving experience is

Most of Texas has had a good pasture year, but winter pastures will be needed to supply green grazing when the summer grasses are dormant, reminds E. M. Trew, extension pasture specialist. A soil test is a good starting point for planning the winter pasture program.

CONSERVATION DEADLINE

Texas farmers have until Sept. 26 to file a request with their county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee for a maximum rate for their farm under the 1950 conservation reserve phase of the Soil Bank program, says I. H. Lloyd, who has charge of the program in the State ASC office.

Dr. and Mrs. M. H. Brannen visited last week with friends in Ruidoso, N. M.
