

Spur Will Have A Compress For This Year's Business

Two different companies have purchased lots and are making preparations to build compresses in our city. One of these is the Guitart Company of Abilene, one of the best known firms in that line of business in our state and who own a number of compresses in different towns. These people purchased a building site here more than a year ago expecting to build a compress for last year's business but for some reason did not get the plan to materialize. They have erected a tool house and had an engineer to locate a tract for them and expect to start building in the near future.

The other party is T. P. McGraw of Luling. Mr. McGraw has operated a compress at Luling and owns one at Paducah. He has commanded the respect of the people where he has been doing business, and is considered a citizen of the highest type. It is Mr. McGraw's intention to make Spur headquarters for his business.

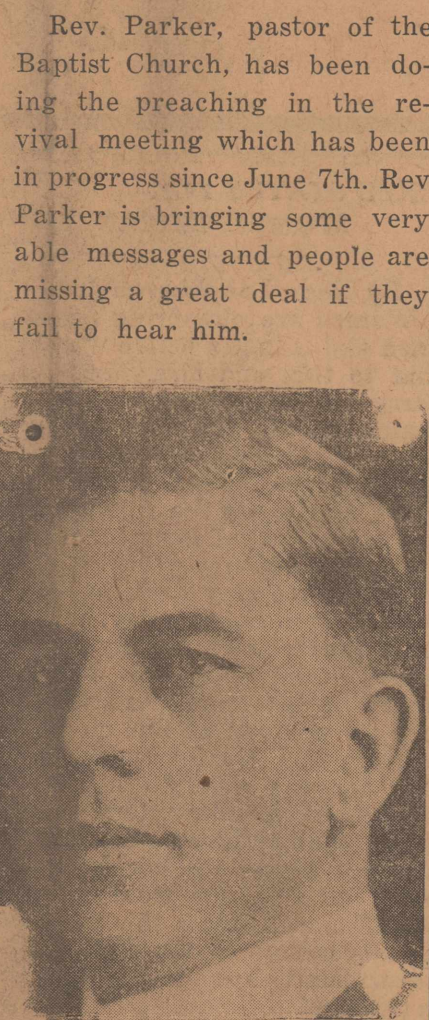

The only objectionable feature about these two industries coming to our town, is that it is very doubtful if we have business sufficient to support both of them. It would be very regretful should any industry come here and make a failure. The people of Spur desire people to come here to engage in business and make money—good money. It really looks like business suicide at this time for two compresses to try to operate here, but there would be reasonable good money in operating one.

It is understood that the Swenson Company, who sold building sights to both firms, are willing to cancel the contract of either one and refund all money paid. This is not to keep any firm from coming, but the management of the Swenson Company does not desire to see the business over run. One compress will make reasonable money here, but it truly looks unfavorable for two. Without expressing our preference, we hope there will be a compromise and that we will get one good compress here that will be a success.

Three Prominent Characters In The Revival

Mr. B. B. McKinney, of Fort Worth, who is conducting the song services in the revival, is a composer of songs. At this time he is assisting Robert Coleman in composing a book of songs. Mr. McKinney teaches in the Southwestern Seminary at Fort Worth.

Mr. John Josey, of Alabama, who has charge of the instrumental music. He plays a number of instruments and is capable of handling the piano and xylophone at the same time. He is the first man we ever saw who could make music on a common carpenter's saw.

Mr. Josey arrived here from Los Angeles California, where he played for the Shriners' Convention, which closed on June 4th.

Spur Chamber Of Commerce Holds Meeting.

A session of the local Chamber of Commerce was called for Wednesday morning and many things of interest were discussed. Mr. W. W. Sample tendered his resignation as president of the organization, and impressed upon the members the importance of their accepting it. There was much discussion as many, in fact all of the members felt that Mr. Sample was due the honor, and they desired his services in this office. However, feeling that Mr. Sample is one of the most loyal members and that he could not arrange his business to look after the office, it was thought best to relieve him of the responsibility. James B. Reed, of the City National Bank, was unanimously elected president of the organization for the year.

A discussion in regard to the importance of the District convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at Paducah was very interesting. A number of delegates were authorized to represent Spur at this convention. R. E. Dickson was appointed to ask for the 1927 convention to come to Spur. This convention was in session yesterday.

C. E. Cook, manager of the local cotton exchange, presented a plan for a local market association. A committee consisting of C. L. Love, Ned Hogan and C. L. Martin were appointed to confer with Mr. Cook and report back to the next meeting.

Another very important proposition was presented by Mr. Height manager of the Tri-County Lumber Company, for a building association to be established in Spur. There are many people who would put up buildings in our city if they could make proper financial arrangements. Mr. Height Mr. Edmonds and Mr. Elkins were appointed a committee to secure this enterprise for our city.

C. L. Love presented a publication plan for boosting the interests of Spur and Dickens County, and to let people of other counties know about the many great opportunities that are offered here. A committee consisting of Clifford B. Jones, Geo. S. Link and C. E. Cook were appointed to carry out this plan.

ROARING SPRINGS GETS A NEW GIN

J. E. Johnson, one of our prominent ginners, is building a new gin in Roaring Springs. Mr. Johnson operates two gins in our city and has a great number of friends who lend him their patronage because of the good service they get from him.

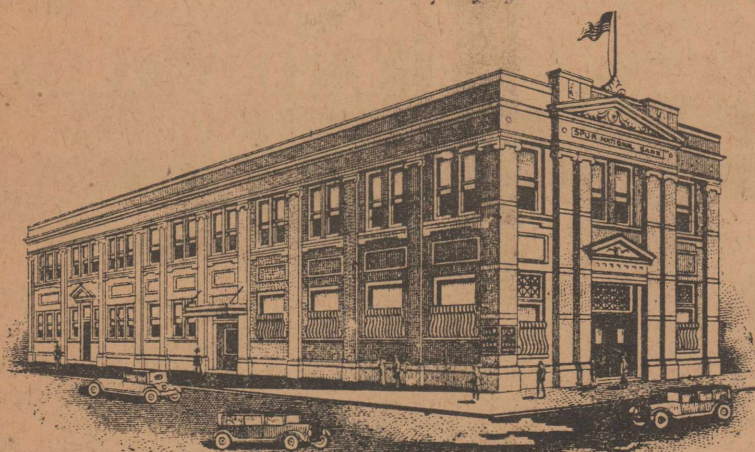

Roaring Springs people are very fortunate in securing this efficient man's service in the ginning business. He has had years of experience in this business, and has always been able to command a good patronage from people in the community he serves.

Work on the building has begun and the gin is expected to be ready to operate by the opening of the season.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $125,000.00
SPUR, TEXAS

Dear Customers and Friends:-

You will probably be interested in knowing the progress that is being made in our Savings Department which was opened at considerable expense for your special benefit and for the encouragement of thrift and saving in Spur and adjacent communities.

This department has been in operation six months and now has:

527 ENTHUSIASTIC SAVINGS DEPOSITORS
WITH DEPOSITS AGGREGATING $53,232.01—AN AVERAGE OF $101.00 TO EACH ACCOUNT.

Tuesday, June 30, several hundred dollars will be paid to these thrifty savings depositors.

We hope that you are in this fortunate list—if you are not, then we extend you a hearty invitation to get on our pay roll for the next interest payment which will be January 1, 1926.

Whether you have a regular checking account here or not, a hearty welcome awaits you in our Savings Department.

Why not give the Children 5 or 10 acres of cotton so that they may open Savings Accounts and begin now to accumulate for that college fund.

We shall be glad to help and encourage them if you will give us an opportunity.

We thank you and await an opportunity to be of further service.

Faithfully yours,
THE SPUR NATIONAL BANK

POULTRY-LIVESTOCK MEETING

Thursday, June 25th

Spur is fortunate to be included in the itinerary of a series of programs to be held by representatives of the Fort Worth Stock Yards Company and the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. These meetings are in the interest of farm diversification, with especial stress being laid upon Dairying, Hog Production and Poultry.

The men in charge of these programs are experts in their line, notably Mr. C. C. French, Industrial Agent of the Fort Worth Stock Yards, long known as an authority in these matters, and Mr. B. M. Whiteker, Exhibit Manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. Their addresses will be along practical lines.

Moving pictures will be shown of value to those interested in these several subjects. There will also be shown again the reel of the Annual Convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at Mineral Wells, in the foreground of which is shown the Spur Band. No admission will be charged.

Aside from the practical value to be had, Spur owes this meeting a large attendance, and it is hoped that the business men as well as the farmers will see to it that a good representation is had.

The meeting at Spur will be held June 25th, at 2:30 p. m., at the Picture Show Building, for the gratuitous use of which is due the management, Mr. Flournoy.

Go to Layne-Yates Co. and see the new hats for ladies.

We are proud of our store and invite those of you who have not visited it to pay us a visit and look it over. Yes the weather is warm, but you will find in this store two drinking fountains bubbling ice cold water, and if you like a real cold soda pop you'll find it in our Grocery Department. The electric fans are kept going and we will meet you with a smile. You don't have to buy goods, just pay our store a visit and bring the Kiddies, they like to come to town. Can't you remember what it meant to you when you were a child, to get to go to town. The writer used to go to town with his Dad, and hold the horses in the street while Dad attended to his business. He said he'd be back in a minute. Now Dad was truthful but it seemed a long minute. But I wanted to go next time. Sure, I got a sack of peanuts and was happy; so bring the children to see the big store. Not many like it. It's a "Good old world," the pathway may have some thorns but aint the roses sweet.

FIXED STATUS FOR WOMEN DEMANDED

By Jean Loughborough

Women are clamoring for a fixed status in the active world and to that end Mrs. Maggie Barry of College Station, Tex., chairman of the American home department of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, has made the following announcement of her plan for such recognition:

"A woman may work in her home sixteen hours a day, cook three meals each twenty-four hours, milk fourteen cows, make butter from the milk, care for a flock of 200 chickens, do the family washing, care for the sick, do all the sewing and mending, look after her small children, pack water from a well to her house and 'work in the field in a pinch,' nevertheless this woman, according to the Federal Government has no money equivalent!

"In the Federal census under occupation she is listed as having none."

"This is to be changed, if 2,000,000 voting women can change it.

"First steps toward changing it will be taken during the General Federation of Women's Clubs mid-biennial council at West Baden, Ind., in June, when Mrs. Maggie W. Barry introduces the following resolution:

"WHEREAS, Instruction for filing the population schedule from the United States Department of Commerce, Bureau of Census, says in paragraph 64, that entry should be made (Col 26. Trade or Profession, etc.) of the occupation pursued by each person enumerated if by such occupation such person earns money or a money equivalent, and

"WHEREAS, in paragraph 69 the instruction given is that in case of a woman doing housework in her own home and having no other employment the entry in column 26 should be 'none,' and

"WHEREAS, in paragraph 70 the instruction given is that a woman working regularly at outdoor farm work, even though she works on the home farm for her husband, or other relative and does not receive money wages should be returned in column 26 as a farmer laborer, and

"WHEREAS, clubwomen believe that a woman doing house work in her own house and having no other employment has a dignified and worthy occupation with a money equivalent and that such occupation should be given a distinct name and listed with 'Trade, profession or particular kind of work,' etc., in column 26 of the aforementioned document; and as clubwomen believe that the home is an establishment of paramount importance in American business and industrial establishments and should be listed with 'Industry, business or establishment in which at work,' e. c., in column 27 of the same document.

"THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the General Federation of Women's Clubs request the legislative department to take such steps as necessary looking toward having homemakers and the home properly listed in the United States Census rolls of the next enumeration."

AMUNDSEN SHIP AVAILABLE SOON.

According to report from Basil D. Woon the French boat, Pourquois Pas, will be ready to leave Cherbourg by the middle of June in search for the Amundsen Polar expedition if Norway accepts the offer telegraphed by M. Briand May 31, Doctor Charcot, famous French explorer, announced last week in making his report to the Universal Service.

ARE YOU GUILTY?

Kissing children that do not belong to you is offensive and dangerous stupidity, and that applies to politicians and all others.

You need not be diseased to be a disease carrier. Your own system may resist germs that would be fatal planted on the delicate mucous membrane of a child.

But promiscuous kissing of children by people that should have sense enough to leave the children alone can be prevented and should be.

Then you read the dispatch from Mexico City telling about Senorita Hortensia Cortes, charming young lady of ardent temperament, seeking excitement at a party.

She bet her life against that of a young man, Jose Concepcion Saucedo, on the turn of a card. She won the turn and promptly killed the young man with her flashing stiletto. The risk of life seems different from the risk run by Amundsen.

The crowd in the Mexican court admired Hortensia excessively and threatened the life of the judge when he said the young lady's case should go to a higher court.

"The dream of my life for a home in Ireland is about to be realized although I am doing my best to keep the news from leaking to London real estate dealers."

Joh McCormick made this statement at the Ritz Hotel. He was in London to appear at a concert in Royal Albert Hall last Sunday.

McCormick said: "When I go to Dublin in August to give two concerts, I intend to remain until October seeking the place I have dreamed about ever since as a boy I left my native land. When I find the place I shall buy it.

"I believe I know just where it is now—a wonderful old castle with almost three miles of shoreline in Clonakilty County, near the birthplace of my dear friend, Michael Collins.

"Of course this does not signify by any means, my retirement."

PLUM, CHERRY CROPS DAMAGED BY FROST

Reports from the country surrounding St. Thomas, Ont., two severe frosts are unfavorable. In West Elgin the plum and cherry crops are reported to be virtually ruined, as well as early strawberries, while several acres of early tobacco plants that had been set out were also destroyed. Huh C. McKillop, M. P., of West Lorne, is reported to have lost twelve-acres of stuff. A market ardenner at Eagle, lost three acres of tomato plants that he had just finished planting. The only district that does not appear to have suffered extensively is at Sparta on the "fruit ridge." The high elevation of this land, which is of anticline origin, makes it almost immune from frosts. The growers there report that there promises to be a good crop of peaches in certain varieties.

Also, he added, it is the most sinister acquisition to be received at the Philadelphia institution, inasmuch as boom slangs, green and black cobras pythons, ball pythons and gaboon vipers are in the lot.

DRUGGISTS WOULD CUT OUT WHISKY

A dispatch from Austin to the San Antonio Express says Texas drug stores do not want to sell liquor by prescription, and greatly prefer that the government would take over the sales and handle whisky through a dispensary system, according to Walter Whisenant of San Antonio, president of the Texas Pharmaceutical Association, which began a three-day convention here Tuesday. Walter D. Adams of Forney, secretary of the association, elected the same sentiment.

"We sent questionnaires to 1,000 druggists in the State,"

Adams said, "and 800 of them in their replies declared that they did not want to handle liquor in any way, and we resent the term 'drugstore saloon'. We found ourselves forced to sell liquor by prescription. We have officially informed the government of our attitude and would like to see it take charge of liquor sales tomorrow."

MISREPRESENTING TEXAS

Alceding and long-time resident of the Panhandle of Texas, Mr. W. A. Palmer, has voiced an indignant protest of an article which was published recently in a prominent Eastern magazine. He has served not only his section of Texas, but the State as a whole by doing so. The article, as this complainant quotes from it, misrepresents the great Panhandle country by referring to it as "that desolate region of sagebrush and sandhills called the Texas Panhandle." to most of the towns in that region "as wide places in the road," and adds to these references the statement that the inhabitants of the region keep their eyes on the storm caves for about six months of each year.

No person who actually knows the Texas Panhandle as it is could do other than protest such misrepresentations, as Mr. Palmer has done in the vigorous fashion which is characteristic of the man. His suggestions that Chambers of Commerce and civic organizations join him in filing formal protest with the nationally circulated periodical has been well made. Texas should have such championship. The Panhandle of Texas, as every informed citizen knows, has become in our time one of the most productive and progressive territories in the Southwest, and should be presented to the world for what it is.

The lady who did the article which has provoked complaint which has written of the territory as it impressed her during a brief residence in a section of it, but she should have gone to the trouble to inform herself concerning the Panhandle of today, in order that she might write justly and with authority.

Texas is rather favorably known everywhere. But the State has suffered, nevertheless, from misrepresentations. Brown, curator, returned to due to the ignorance of a few writers who break into print for what they can get out of it, and from willful misrepresentations by some who are inspired by the same sordid motive. Only a few months ago one periodical of the ultra-modernistic type published an article in which Texas was described as being a cultural desert, peopled by irredeemable lowbrows.

It is high time Texans were taking steps to brand such misrepresentations as such. They have rather tamely submitted to such things to their own hur. It is a fact that texts have actually been taught in the schools in other years which made the Panhandle of Texas but little better than an arid waste and which revealed but slight conception of the greatness of Texas in resource and accomplishment.—Dallas Journal.

BERLIN SHOWS TO CUT PLAYERS WAGE

Highly paid actors and superstars of the Berlin stage are walking about with long faces these days. A drastic cut in pay is in the offering for them. Already the national federation of stage producers has agreed that the fees of stars must come down, and now the managers in the various cities are getting together to put the verdict into effect.

The Berlin theatrical directors a great diversity of interests and viewpoints, and it is usually difficult to get them together on any proposition. They are unanimous, however, in agreeing, first, that this year's theatrical season is the worst in years, and second, that the prominent stars are charging such exorbitant fees that prices of admission must be boosted to a point where the public can not afford to patronize the theater.

It has been tentatively agreed that Berlin stars are to be paid 75 to 400 marks a night. It remains to be seen whether actors and actresses accustomed, many of them, to 800 marks and more a night will accept this drastic reduction. The German Mark is worth about 23.8 cents in U. S. Money. —Dallas News

FIRST HEAT PROSTRATION IN TEXAS

Brownsville, Texas.—A very heavy overcoat and a swarm of bees caused the first heat prostration of the season at Brownsville, Texas last Thursday. Ted Graham, local attorney, wore the overcoat and other heavy clothes to protect himself while attempting to clear away a swarm of bees that had lighted on his house. He was overcome with the heat, several stings from the bees contributing to the prostration.

TOM MIX HERO OF BOY SCOUTS

Tom Mix, film star, yesterday became the idol of Avalon's Sea Scouts trough playing the role of "big brother" in their hour of greatest gloom. Several days ago a fine, big, gray whaling boat arrived on the dock as the gift of the Government to Avalon Ship 1 Sea Scouts of America.

Eagerly the boys unpacked the boat, excitedly discussing the adventures at sea in store for them. Then out popped a gloom imp and spoiled all the fun. It came in the form of a freight bill, which took all the wind of the Sea Scouts' sails; an amount which there seemed little hope to raise, even with every seaman doing his bit. Just at this moment Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mix hove in sight around Sugar Loaf on board their cruiser, the Miss Mixit. Tom noted a group of sad-faced boys gathered about an erecting looking boat.

"What's the trouble boys?"

he asked. A check quickly covered the freight bill, which but a short time before had taken all the joy out of life for the Avalon Sea Scouts.

"Wasn't I a Scout once? And how about that 'do a good turn daily'? Just because a fellow grows up does not let him out of that Scout motto," grinned Tom Mix as the boys crowded around to thank him.

PLAYS GUITAR BOUGHT BY S. A. CAPTAIN

Fred Haile, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Haile, owns a guitar that was once in the service of the Salvation Army. It is a very fine instrument and was made in 1910 by John Gillensprger of Kansas City, Mo.

The instrument was bought by F. A. Bailey, a captain in the Salvation Army, and used it a number of years. Mr. Haile came into possession of it in 1923. He is quite an artist with this guitar and has been producing some excellent music with it.

Mr. Haile completed his work at Simmons University during the Winter term and received his bachelor degree at the last commencement exercises at that institution. He has accepted a position with a college in Oklahoma where he will take up his work in September. At present he is assisting his father in his office.

COOLIDGE REST PLANS ARE NOW COMPLETED and Mrs. Coolidge may enjoy Washington, D. C.—President Coolidge will leave here the night of June 23 for his summer vacation at Swampscott, according to plans tentatively completed today.

He will ride in a special train, arriving at Boston early the following morning. He will auto at once along the thirteen miles of Bay State beaches to White Court, summer capital, at Swampscott.

White Court will be isolated from the world at night during the President's stay. Telephone and telegraph stations are being installed there, with direct connections to Washington, but they will be closed at 5 o'clock every afternoon in order that President complete respite from official duties. Only messages of the utmost importance will be taken at night by secretaries.

The Mayflower will leave at about the time of his departure and will anchor in the bay off Marblehead, a few miles distant from Swampscott.

Rev. Victor Crabtree, of Dickens, was transacting business here Saturday.

L. E. Cooper, of Roaring Springs, was greeting friends here Monday, and stated he was no his way to enjoy a few days fishing.

W. F. Clements, of Duncan Flat, was transacting business in our city Monday.

GRANDSON OF WEBSTER IS DEAD AT AGE OF 83

Samuel Appleton, 83, grandson of Daniel Webster, and for 35 years editor of the West Publishing Company of St. Paul, is dead. He was born in Boston, his mother being Julia Webster, only daughter of the famous orator and statesman. Two sons and two daughters survive.

Dr. and Mrs. P. W. Horn, of Lubbock were guests in our city Wednesday and Thursday. Dr. Horn accompanied Mr. Clifford B. Jones to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, District Convention at Paducah, Thursday.

R. E. Dickson, Ned Hogan, S. L. Davis and J. B. Cook, attended the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at Paducah yesterday.

DICKENS CITIZEN PASSES AWAY

W. A. Hicks, a prominent citizen of Dickens, died at his home last Friday. Mr. Hicks had been ill about a week, suffering from a paralytic stroke. He and some friends went on a vacation to Knox County a few days before, his death, and while on this trip he became ill. He was brought home, and it was thought he was improving, but serious complications set in which proved fatal.

Mr. Hicks was 44 years of age, and had lived in this county some years.

Funeral services were conducted at the cemetery at Dickens by Rev. H. L. Burnam Saturday, a great number of people being present to pay their last respects to the deceased.

THE REVIVAL STILL GOING

The revival at the Baptist Church is still going and gaining in interest. There have been a number of additions to the church and indications are that there will be many more.

The meeting will continue on through the week, and possibly will close Sunday night. However, that depends on conditions at that time. The Christian people of every denomination in the community are lending their support, and there have been great numbers in attendance every night. The music is the best that has ever been in Spur, and people are enjoying it. Rev. Parker, is doing better preaching than any outside man we could have gotten. The sermons are great and are encouraging to those who hear them.

BUYS DIXIE CAFE

A transaction was consummated the last of the week whereby G. C. Alexander became the owner of the Dixie Cafe. Mr. Cox has been in charge of this business for some time and has made many friends who have given him their loyal support. Mr. Alexander says he expects to conduct the business in a manner to hold the respect of the old friends and gain new ones if possible. It is his chief purpose to be a friend to the hungry ones, (provided they have the money to pay for what they eat.)

COMEDIANS COMING MONDAY

The Garret Comedians will play in Spur next week beginning Monday evening. The Garret Comedians are one of the cleanest shows on the road today and have generally commanded the respect of people in towns where they play. There is a new cast of characters this year who have worked up an entirely new program that will be very interesting. The management stated that there is a good lesson in every performance, and their chief object is to create good thoughts in the minds of their audience.

The opening play is entitled "The Painted Lady," a 4 act comedy drama, which they claim is a very heavy feature. They will have many other good plays for the week. Go see their plays and you will like them.

LADY OF LOST LAKE COMMUNITY DIES

Mrs. S. T. Johnson, of Lost Lake Community twelve miles south of Spur, departed this life last Saturday afternoon. Death came very suddenly. She leaves her husband and four children to mourn her departure.

Funeral services were conducted and interment made in the cemetery at Jayton. O. R. Maples was funeral director.

ELTON LOCALS

The young people were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Blakely with a musical last Saturday evening. The occasion was in honor of Mr. Singleton, of Oklahoma, who is visiting in the Blakely home. A great number were present and all enjoyed a very pleasant evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Oran Bethel are now located in Spur, Mr. Bethel having secured a position there.

We are sorry to note that Mr. Ike Cox is not doing so well at this time, but hope will pull through all right yet.

Master R. L. (Buck) Webb celebrated his 5th birthday this week. We hope for him many happy returns of the day and trust he will always feel just fine.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Hickman and children and Miss Jim Hickman, were visitors here Sunday.

Miss Norma Blakely dined with Miss Vera Webb Sunday.

PERMIT OUR CORRECTION

Last week the Times run an article about the S. R. Bowman farm just north of town. In that article we made the statement that Mr. Bowman raised 95 bales of cotton from 101 acres of land. These are the right figures but we had them reversed. The article should have said that he raised 101 bales of cotton from 95 acres.

An extract of this article appeared in the Progressive farmer a few days ago, too, and this office expects to try to secure a correction in that paper also.

In addition to this correction we want to state that the alfalfa crop was harvested on this place last week. On the six acres which was intended for a meadow crop, there was produced a little more than 10 1-2 tons. In a lot that was used for a hog pasture the yield amounted to one ton per acre. Mr. Bowman says he will harvest three more crops from these fields.

BIG CHILDREN'S-DAY EXERCISES HELD AT DUCK CREEK SUNDAY

One of the greatest community days in the history of the country was the children's day exercises held at Duck Creek schoolhouse last Sunday. The morning was devoted to an excellent program rendered by the young people of the community. This was an excellent program, and if the older people of that community would be as active in regard to moral upbuilding as are the children, there would be a great event come to pass in history. These little people are full of zeal in the Sunday school work. The success of the program was due to the untiring efforts of Mrs. W. B. Bennett and other good ladies of the community. They conducted the training of the children and the selection of the different numbers on the program.

In the afternoon a great community singing was conducted by Mr. W. R. Lewis and Mr. T. C. Cooner. The people of this community are good singers, and about all they needed was some one to stand before them and say "go," and watch the time for them, at which the above named gentlemen are well qualified to do. One feature we wish to mention is the quartet rendered by Mr. Bennett and his children. The little boy who sang the soprano was so small that he had to stand in a chair to be of sufficient height to read the music, but when it came to singing he was no small fellow. It was a great number and was enjoyed by everybody. dinner was served at the building, and it was a great dinner. People of that community are hospitable and take pleasure in seeing their guests well cared for. There was much dinner and everybody ate freely, and yet there was plenty left.

Those who took part on the program were: Bertha Mae Carlisle, Oleta Timms, Harold Simmons, Robbie Lou Magins, Harmon Bennett, Aletha Justice, Mary Pearl Higgins, Joe Simmons, Davis Magins, Ora Pearl Johnson, Evelyn Bennett, Paul Bennett, Dollie Bennett, Alwin Dement, Juanita Justice, Bernice Justice, Edward Corral, Leollie Fox, Phill Simmons, Elmer Justice, Quincy Arnold, Bessie McCulloch, Effie Lea Hainey, Elmer D. Hagens, Hester Arnold, Lucy Lee Hagens, Misses Nona Brasher, Mary Simmons, Agnes McCulloch, Beaula Tooke and Ima Stovall. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Lewis gave a duet and Mr. R. B. Johnston made a short talk.

People who missed this day missed a great time.

Misses Eva and Frances Blackmore, of Crowell, are the guests of their sister, Mrs. G. W. Mills, here this week.

CAMPING AND PROBLEMS OF FOOD

There is no healthier sport than camping. During the warm and balmy spring and summer days, it is real recreation. To get out in the fresh air and sunshine, free from worry and care, enhances the health of anyone, be he office man salesman or what not.

But due to the entirely inadequate means of food preservation and refrigeration found in the majority of camps there is the ever-present danger of sickness from infected foods. The utmost care must be taken in order that this may be avoided. Butter and eggs should be bought only as used. The milk is a problem in itself. Perhaps the solution lies in the use of a milk other than market milk, in order that purity and sterility may be assured. For such use, evaporated milk is ideal. Many people are wont to confuse evaporated and condensed milk but there is no similarity between the two. Condensed milk is a combination of sugar and milk and can be used only when both of these substances are desired. Evaporated milk is merely pure, fresh milk with about sixty per cent of the water removed and the nutrient content left intact. It is absolutely sterile and pure, having been sterilized before leaving the factory. The water, removed by evaporation, may be replaced very easily and the milk restored to its original volume. Evaporated milk may be obtained in small cans, containing six ounces or in larger ones containing sixteen and can be taken to the camp in quantities sufficient for the needs of the entire period, thus assuring a constant supply of pure, fresh milk without the worry or the danger attached to the use of the market products.

Following are recipes for a few dishes that are best adapted for camp consumption because of ease of preparation, purity and food value.

TOMATO SOUP

1 pint tomato pulp or canned tomato soup, 1 1-2 cups evaporated milk, 1 1-2 cups water, salt and pepper to taste, 1-8 tsp. soda.

Bring tomato pulp or soup to the boil, add the seasonings and soda. Heat the milk and water and combine slowly with the tomato mixture.

STIRRED EGGS

1-2 cup evaporated milk, 1-2 cup water, 1-8 tsp. pepper, 1-4 tsp. paprika, 6 eggs, 2 tbsp. fat, grated cheese.

Beat the eggs, add the milk, water and seasonings. Melt the fat in a frying pan. Add the egg mixture and stir until the mixture is creamy. When almost done, sprinkle with grated cheese. Serve on slices of bread, toast or crackers.

KNEES OUT FOR AIRING WITH PLEATED SKIRTS

The "back to the knee" tendency in summer styles was strikingly illustrated at the beautiful Chantilly race course last Sunday afternoon when the Diana stakes, the first of the season's great classics, was run before an enormous crowd of fashion's notables.

Invariably the women await the Diana stakes for a definite indication of what will be worn until the return to Chantilly in September.

After today's fashion parade, they know the following absolute points on style:

1.—The waistline has irretrievably been placed below the hips. Even the famous arbiter of fashions, Jean Patou, who daringly restored it to nature's waist in the February openings, now has been routed by the overwhelming preference of women for a low waist line. Patou's new models all place the waist about one-third distant from the hips to the knee.

2.—Skirts will be very short but not tight. Instead, an artistic use is made of flounces and pleats, so that even knee length frocks can be worn conveniently without an undue display of the limb when walking or climbing. There is something incredibly youthful about this combination that left the concourse of admiring males breathless in the paddock all evening. 3.—Stockings will be worn. Moreover, they won't be flesh colored. The so-called "nude" color has definitely been discarded in favor of the darker shades.

Yvonne D'Aroy, who has just become affianced to the Count De Montmorency, reveals a happy inspiration when she wore "spider weave" stockings of a delicate mauve tint. She also used mauve powder on her cheeks, and wore an egret tinted in mauve on choche hat.

Chiffon, printed in brightly colored designs, and organdie are the favorite materials used. Sunshades again were used, but they were so tiny their shade barely kept the sun off the women's nose.

Thousands of Americans flooded the paddock, definitely eclipsing all other nationalities for the uniform smartness of their dress.

The season's activities are exceptionally brilliant this year. Pavlowo, the dancer, gave a gala performance at the Trocadero the following night, while almost every night from then on until the grand prix has one or more social events, including one next week when the entire grand palais in the Champ Elysees will be given over to a monster society fete. Ten thousand are expected to attend, and supper will be served at $50 a plate.

FEAR THE DENTIST?

A glass of orange juice a day keeps the dentist away when accompanied by an hour or two of sunshine, Dr. Percy Howe, noted dental authority, told an audience at Harvard Medical School at Boston.

Even more important than the toothbrush is the need for fruit, fresh green vegetables and a daily sun bath, said Dr. Howe.

"Primitive people all have perfect teeth," he continued. "They never use a toothbrush, and yet they never suffer from decay." Eskimos were said to owe their good teeth to the large amount of oil they consume, and natives of India to the strong glare of the sun.

Pyorrhea, known as "the dread mouth disease," according to Dr. Howe, is caused by abnormal nutrition. Monkeys used for experiments became sufferers from dental decay, pyorrhea, hardening of the arteries, inflammatory rheumatism ulcers and stiff joints when they were put on a deficient diet. As soon as they were given plenty of raw greens and orange juice they became normal.

The same reaction to incorrect diets is said to be true of human beings are concerned. Poor eyesight and cataracts also are produced by feeding the animals an excess of one type of food, and in one case blindness was produced.

Dr. Howe used in illustrations the case of an immigrant girl who never used a toothbrush, and a little boy picked up in the congested part of a large city. The girl was in perfect physical condition. The boy whose teeth were covered with black tartar and were in a state of decay, was suffering from malnutrition. Sugar and candy could not have been responsible as the boy had no money for such luxuries.

SAY RUBBER PRICES WILL REMAIN HIGH

New York.—From a study of the London markets I am convinced we shall see high priced rubber for some time," said H. Stuart Hotchkiss, vice president of U. S. Rubber Company, last week. I am positive that if conditions are not radically changed we will see a shortage of rubber a few years hence. We need some plan that will keep the bottom from being knocked out of the rubber market yet will stabilize it so that investors will get a fair return. An investor should get between fifteen per cent and 20 per cent on an investment of this kind because of the risks which are so great in tropical plantations that large acreages of rubber may be wiped out almost overnight from floods, disease or other causes. For a 15 per cent to 20 per cent return, rubber should sell around 35 cents. And if users were taking advantage of the Stevenson plan, the price would be at present levels.

"The outlook is very favorable for the U. S. Rubber Company. In Sumatra and the Malay peninsula we have at present about 110,000 acres. Of this amount 72,000 acres are planted and 75,000 acres will be planted by close of the year. The total producing area of U. S. Rubber is about 50,000 acres and production will amount to about 18,000,000 pounds annually.

'POOR' WOMAN WILLS $30,000 TO AGED FOLK

Either by fate or fortune, or both, the Bloomfield Home for Aged Men and Women, at Trenton, N. J., is in possession of a $30,000 legacy as a result of the affirmance of a Chancery Court decree by the Court of Errors and Appeals. Mrs. Harriet Shuman, an aged woman, who was comparatively poor, a few years ago was admitted to the home. The authorities agreed to keep her the remainder of her life if she would will her estate to the home, to which she agreed. Sixteen years before her death, four years after her admission to the home, her son-in-law died, leaving to his wife $29,373.93. A few days after wards the daughter died, bequeathing to her mother the money.

BOLT DODGES HUSBAND, GIVES LADY HEADACHE

Lightning struck a tree in the yard of D. C. Bosworth's Home at Vineland, N. J., last Tuesday and running all around Mr. Bosworth, jumped over to Mrs. Bosworth and gave her a headache. The tree was torn to bits and pieces of white wood were scattered for a hundred feet around, making the ground white.

C. P. Hagerty living across the road, fainted when he saw a ball of fire come directly toward him.

Prof. W. C. Roddy, of Wichita Falls, was here the last of the week visiting his cousin, S. B. Roddy.

SPUR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HOLDS MEET
Hogan were appointed to promote this business.
The session lasted more than an hour, every minute of which was taken up in discussing good things for the town and county. Every one present seemed to be ready to go with good, progressive movements, and the next twelve months will see some great things come to pass through the influence of the local Chamber of Commerce.

SPUR MERCHANTS HAD FINE BUSINESS SATURDAY

In an interview with different merchants of our city this week we were met with the favorable statement that business is good. Layne-Yates Co., who staged a big sale beginning Saturday morning, stated they had one of the best days in a long time. They offered a 5-dollar gold piece for the one buying the largest bill of goods from them, and J. I. Greer, one of our good farmers, was the successful winner.

Love Dry Goods Company were delighted with their business. They had no high pressure sale on—just their ordinary line of sales, but they accommodated their many customers with some great bargains.

C. Hogan & Company's sales force were busy the entire day waiting on the the great line of trade that visited that great store. That store was selling on their ordinary prices, but people know that they get full value for what they pay when they trade there.

Salems was a busy store. There seemed to be a constant line of people going in and coming out of this place of business. The many salesmen were busy the entire day, and customers carried out goods seemingly well pleased.

C. R. Edwards, the little merchant (in statue), who does a big business, declared his store to be a factory of industry for the day. Mr. Edwards sells goods for the whole family and people are learning that they can get what they want when they visit there.

Bryant-Link Company had most too many customers for the number of clerks, and had it not been for the efficient wives of some of the stockholders there would have been a dearth of service there. This great firm does lots of business and number their many good customers by the hundreds.

Every groceryman in town was busy as could be the entire day. Some groceryman have stated that their business is very encouraging and is exceeding their expectations.

There is a reason for this good business. The Spur territory has an excellent class of citizenship that believe in standing by their home merchants. Their homes are nearer Spur than any other large town. The growth of Spur means an advance in the price of their property, a better market for their products, greater conveniences in industries and many other great features of interest that cannot be mentioned here.

Again, our farmers realize that every great city has been built by the farmers standing by home industries. The great cities of Texas have made their progress because the merchants have commanded the patronage of the people who live in their trade territory. In this county the farmers, stockmen, merchants and bankers have worked together for the progress of this county and in this county they desire to see a nice little city that will furnish good markets, bring industries and promote the general welfare of the citizens.

One may ask any business man in this town about the farming element and they will say the farmers are our friends. Let one of these farmers need help and if he is worthy the confidence of a business man, just see how readily the business men of Spur are to give assistance. Let the farmers know that the town people need their co-operation to put over a progressive proposition, and see how readily they respond.

It is through this mutual co-operation that Dickens County is rapidly becoming the greatest county in this state and Spur is the greatest little city in Texas.

SWIMMING PARTY

Miss Lera Albin entertained Mr. and Mrs. Chas. S. Hardt of Eastland with a swimming party at the Williams Tank. After everyone had enjoyed a good swim and had lots of fun, a luncheon was spread in picnic fashion and the following guesets enjoyed the feast.

Mesdames, W. B. Lee, Floy Rector, Ella Williams, H. O. Albin and Chas. T. Hardt of Eastland. Misses Lois Lee, Kittie Powell, Katie Ellis, Winnie McArthur, and Annis Albin. Mr. Floyd Barnett, Cecil Hicks, Howard Reed and Chas. T. Hardt of Eastland.

SUN RISE BREAKFAST

One of the most enjoyable events of the past week was the Sun Rise Breakfast on Wednesday morning honoring Miss Kathrine Mohler and Miss Lorene Beard, the guests of of Rev. and Mrs. Parker. The young people gathered at 5 a. m. at the home of Mr.

and Mrs. E. C. Edmonds, as Mrs. Edmonds chaparoned the party.

It not being the custom of most of the boys and girls to arise so early; the sleepiness was soon overcome by the invigorating morning air and the very uniqueness of the occasion.

As the sun rose over the horizon from the Espuela Country Club Golf Links, a most sumptuous repast was served, after which the following guests returned with many expressions of enjoyment.

Misses Kathrine Mohler, Lorene Beard, Dura Whaley, Mildred Williams, Lera Harris, Pauline Brown, Eula Smith, Lurine Seale, Lucille Lucas, Rachael Langston, Lucille Stewart, Fannie Stewart, Bonnie Gilbert, Willie Lee Gilbert, and Vera Bell Whaley, of Anson, guest of her Sister Dura.

Messrs. B. B. McKinney, John Josey, who are conducting the singing for the baptist meeting, Weldon McClure, Clarence Bilberry, Hobart F. Dick, Harold C. Jones, Jimmie McClanahan, Homer Hindman, George Lisenby, Jack Slaton, Alph Glasgow, James Sample, Elzy Watson, Roy Edmonds, Thurmon Harris, Mack Gilbert, Cecil Burnam. Mr. and Mrs. Riley Squires of Haskell.
