B. McIlhane has refused and still refused to pay the same or any part thereof.

3. That said note has been placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, and plaintiff has contracted to pay him for such service the ten per cent in said note stipulated as attorney's fees, the same being reasonable and the usual and customary fee for such services.

COUNCIL ADOPTS
1937 BUDGET

Four home demonstration club women will receive trips to the Farmer's Short Course next year if the budget as presented by the Finance Committee of the county home demonstration council and approved by the council is raised.

The budget as accepted by the council in the October meeting includes scholarships for the Council chairman to the annual meeting of the Texas Home Demonstration Association; the yard improvement and home food supply demonstrators who make the best records in the county and the winner in the June clothing fair.

Those entering the clothing fair contest for the scholarship must enter a cotton wash dress, pieced or appliqued quilt, tufted bedspread and a pair of plain pillow cases. The award will be on the basis of all four entries. Any woman may enter one or more of the four classes but is not eligible for the scholarship unless she enters all four. This is the only scholarship within the reach of all home demonstration club women.

Other items in the budget are $10.00 for setting up exhibits; printing 200 copies of the 1937 yearbook; $8.00 for the Home Demonstration Association scholarship fund; and $5.00 for miscellaneous.

In accepting the budget the council also accepted the recommendation of the committee that each home demonstration club contribute to the council fund at the rate of fifty cents per member and the fund to be brought in to the November council meeting.

ANOTHER ACHIEVEMENT

Red Top Club ladies had a beautiful day for the family food supply demonstration held with Mrs. L. B. Jones Wednesday afternoon. She demonstrated her pantry, told the story of her work and Miss Pratt scored the luncheon table set for two. She also had a large poster, setting forth the amount of the club's canning, dried and cured vegetables, fruits and meats. Also of some non club members.

Seven members were present to answer roll call: Mrs. J. C. Childress, Mrs. Jim McArthur, Mattie Howell, Miss Carrie Childress, Mrs. Matt Howell, Mrs. C. Garrison, and hostess, Mrs. L. B. Jones. One visitor was also present, Mrs. Floyd Barnett and Miss Pratt. All enjoyed the recreational period with games and refreshments were served to all.—Reporter.

Girard

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Beaver and son, of Lamesa, spent Tuesday and Wednesday nights in Girard visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Beaver. Clay worked all day Wednesday re-interviewing registrants in the county for the N. R. S.

Miss Ruth Grimes, County demonstration agent, and Mrs. May of Jayton, met with a number of ladies in Girard Tuesday and organized a club. The officers are as follows: President, Mrs. Floyd Blackwell; vice president, Mrs. B. P. Woody; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Buddy Smith; Council representative, Mrs. Leon Henderson; reporter, Mrs. Rogers, Recreation committee, Mrs. Doris Hurst, chairman, Mrs. Anson Sewalt and Mrs. P. S. Rogers; Yearbook Committee, Mrs. B. J. Kellett, Mrs. Virgil Peek, Mrs. R. E. Beaver; Kitchen demonstrator, Mrs. Doug Graves; Pantry demonstrator, Mrs. Ray Williams. The club decided to meet the second and 4th Tuesdays in each month and the next meeting will be with Mrs. Kellett November 24, at 2:30 P. M. At this meeting, Miss Grimes will demonstrate the candying of fruit peel and give her recipe for Christmas fruit cake. Each member is asked to bring her favorite fruit cake recipe to the club. We are inviting more members into the club.

Mrs. P. S. Rogers and Mrs. E. James were hostesses at a lovely shower for Mrs. Alton Clark Thursday at the home of Mrs. Rogers. Mrs. Clark was formerly Miss Ethel McGaha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McGaha of the Lost Lake community. When guests arrived, each was given pieces of a quilt block to piece. When they had finished, they printed their names on the blocks and these were presented to the bride instead of a bride's book. Games of progressive forty-two were played the honoree winning high score which proved to be a large improvised pumpkin overflowing with lovely gifts. Mrs. Buddy Smith and Mrs. Jerome Blackwell tied for second high score, each awarding their prize to Mrs. Clark.

A Thanksgiving motif was carried out in all appointments, such as tallies, nut cups, napkins and table covers. A delicious plate course was served consisting of chicken sandwiches, potato chips, pumpkin pie topped with whipped cream and hot chocolate.

Those attending the party were: Mesdames Millican, Kellett, Graves, Dyer, Simmons, Young, Henderson, R. E. Beaver, Doris Hurst, B. P. Woody, M. E. Beaver, Floyd Blackwell, Jerome Blackwell, Preston Blackwell, Davidson, McGaha, Griffith, Bud Cooper, Jinks Cooper, Wright, Bailey, Smith, Ray Williams, C. W. Fincher, Joe Fincher, Elsie Lundy, Lou Clark, Virgil Peek, Roy Nance, M. A. Darden, Bonnie Simpson, Earl Hahn, Alf Parks, G. W. Willis, Misses Evelyn Fincher, Lula Waggoner, Dorothy Parks, Azaline Havins, Mildred and Viola Vincent, the honoree and the hostesses, Mrs. J. M. Foster and Mrs. H. C. Foote from Spur came just before the party was over to help organize a study club. The organization, incomplete, consists of Mrs. J. H. Smith as president, Mrs. Reed Dyer as secretary, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. M. A. Darden and Mrs. Ray Williams as program committee. Mrs. Floyd Blackwell, Mrs. B. P. Woody and Mrs. B. J. Kellett as committee of By-Laws and constitution, Mrs. Roy Nance, Mrs. Doug Graves and Mrs. Anson Sewalt as Yearbook Committee. We urge that everyone who would like to belong to this enlightening club will join. The first meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, November 18, at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. J. H. Smith. Organization will be completed at this meeting and further plans discussed.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Craig and son, Larry, and Mrs. J. T. Stephens and son, Mike, spent the week end in Girard with Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Beaver and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Stephens.

Church o' Christ

There were 64 present at Bible Study Sunday morning. Rev. Young from Spur filled his regular appointment before a large audience at the church hour. R. E. Beaver conducted the song service and John Brantner officiated at the Lord's table. The evening sermon was called off that all might hear the lecture at the Baptist Church.

The Baptist Church

We had 67 present in Sunday school Sunday morning. Our Sunday school is very much alive. We invite you to worship with us. Mr. Boedeker made his address on "Youth and Religion" to a full house of interested people. We are grateful to the other two churches for their help and encouragement in calling off their services and being present with us. It was an inspiring talk and much good will result from it. The parents were shown what a responsibility lies upon their shoulders in the religious training of their children. "Bring up a child in the way it should go and when he is old he will not depart from it," so says the Bible to the parents of every age. The Sunbeam Band meets each Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Encourage your child to be present. The W. M. S. also meets each Monday afternoon. The time is drawing near when we shall with thankful hearts send a box of cookies to the motherless children at Buckner Orphan Home.

Ninth Grade

We, the Ninth Grade in turning in our school news have decided to take each week a member of the faculty and present their life. We are going to begin with Miss Dunlop, our high school English teacher, who was born in Florence, Texas, near Austin. She attended Florence school eleven years, graduating with honors in 1929. As a result of her efforts she received a scholarship to Texas Technological College where she attended four years receiving her B. A. degree with a major in English.

She then began teaching in Lubbock county and remained three years. She heard about our well known matrimonial bureau at Girard and as she is entering the old-maid age thought best that she apply here. She is not bad looking and at once was selected. She has already taken an active part in extra-curricular activities, such as plays, interscholastic league work, etc.

She spent last summer traveling through the New England states and portions of Canada. She reports that throughout her travels she met only one ideal man. The sad part of it all was that he was married. But laying all jokes aside, she is not a bad teacher and is a wonderful companion to the children.

Sports

School activities are standing in a doldrum this week with only a basket ball game with Clairmont to break the monotony. The game is scheduled for Thursday night and we are expecting everybody to come and watch the battle.

Last week we played a close game with Jayton. We came out losers but it was close. Friday of last week Clairmont fell in our stead. It was rather one sided, in our favor.

It looks as though this is going to be a progressive year and we are expecting promising results in our games.

Seventh Grade

Monday, October 5, the Seventh Grade class met and organized an English Club. We elected the following officers: Melvina Boland, president; Dale Mayfield, vice-president; and Miriam Alva Parks, secretary. For our program committee: Thelma Overfelt, Pearl Willis, and Nettie Faye Gardener were appointed. Our purpose is to study literature. Our program October 30 was limited. Blanche Barton told a story of Hal-oulen and our English teacher, Miss Dunlop, read a selection.

Friday, November 13, the Seventh Grade is moving to the city of Spur class told a story. We planned the next meeting and adjourned.

Fifth Grade News

Elizabeth Bradley of the Fifth Grade is moving to the city of Spur this afternoon. She is the daughter of J. B. Bradley.

The tennis court back of the water house is completed. They have three nets up at the present and many high school pupils enjoy themselves at recess and noon.

Mr. Rogers gives a picture show every noon. Sometimes it is silent. Last Friday he showed "Mountains of Copper." It told how they blasted the copper and how they loaded it.

The 4-H club will meet in January to elect officers. The president is in high school.

1600 Scouts Expected at Lubbock Nov. 27-28

All scouts, cubs and their leaders from all parts of the South Plains Council are busy making final preparations for the big Boy Scout Circus to be held Nov. 27 and 28 at Texas Technological College in Lubbock. Approximately 1600 boys and their leaders have been preparing for weeks on their various stunts to be given in the circus.

Seventeen big events are on the schedule of the program which promises to be by far the biggest thing that has ever been held for youth in West Texas. Some of the outstanding events that are being developed are: a big Indian Dog Dance ceremony put on by Troop 22 of Lamesa under the direction of Joe Spikes, scoutmaster; a First Aid act with troops from scattered sections of the Council participating; scouts on the Flying Trapeze promises to be an outstanding event with Kendall Young and his three sons, all of Troop 24 of Levelland, which is perhaps the first act of its kind ever put on by scouts in a Boy Scout Circus; a big communications act put on by the troops at Littlefield, Muleshoe, Morton, Sudan, Bula, Levelland, Circle Back, Anton and Olton with H. B. Teal of Sudan in charge; a bicycle act with scouts from Troops 25 and 26 of Littlefield demonstrating feats, figures, and special riding under their director, A. B. Sanders; Charles Brock, Scoutmaster of Troop 32 of Crosbyton, will direct contests and games which scouts like to play with troops in the towns of Crosbyton, Floydada, Ralls, Lorenza, Spur, Slaton, Post, Matador, and Lockney participating; a brief closing ceremony will be put on by Troop 23 of Lamesa under their leader, Leslie Pratt.

One of the high lights of the circus will be the impressive opening pagemat to be put on by troop 28 of Slaton directed by Rev. C. G. Sewell, their scoutmaster. The climaxing event will be comprised of the camping and pioneering stunts which will pack the floor of the gym with such things as bicycle camp, cowboys camp, pup tent camp, lean tos, rustic bridges, 15 foot signal towers, 40 foot rope bridge, beehive shelters, Indian teepees, campfire circle, etc. These events will be under the direction of Gene Stobaugh, scoutmaster at Lorenza, and George Hamilton of Lubbock. A special cubbing event for the younger boys ages 9, 10 and 11 will also be staged. They will dress as Indians and make Indian teepees.

Other Features
The show will be run off on a time schedule for all events so that there will be no period that will not be filled with action from start to finish. There will be an announcer, lighting men, properties men, entrance and exit guards, information men, ringmasters, etc., to see that the show clicks along in true circus fashion. Special decorations will add to the circus atmosphere.

Special arrangements have been made for free housing for all out of town scouts, cubs and leaders for Friday night, November 27, and their breakfast Saturday morning, November 28, in the Lubbock homes. During Saturday a special entertainment will be provided for all out of town scouts and leaders.

WILL HOLD FARM SALE NEXT TUESDAY

As will be observed on another page of the Times, W. M. Gragson of the Twin Wells community is holding a sale of his farm stock, implements and household goods at his home next Tuesday, November 24. Mr. Gragson is planning to move to California in the near future and will not farm here another year. Seale and McDonald will call the sale and there is good farm stock and implements to be offered to the people. Look the list over, and there are many other articles which are not listed. Free lunch will be served at noon.

Miss Amelia Hargis, teacher in Lubbock City schools, was the guest of Mrs. Sam Koonsman, of Dickens schools, last week. Miss Hargis is a former teacher in our county and has many friends here.

OWNS THE WHOLE BUSINESS

Last week W. R. Lewis made a deal with John Albin, buying his interest in the New Deal Grocery. Mr. Lewis stated that probably one person might make a living from the business but he knew that two persons had to cut expenses to get by. Mr. Lewis established the New Deal Grocery three years ago, November 18, 1933. Since the business opened it has enjoyed a good patronage and is one of the nicest groceries in West Texas.

Mr. Lewis has been in the grocery business in Spur more than 17 years. He was manager for the grocery department of Bryant-Link Company for eight years, then organized the wholesale department and was in charge of it for eighteen months. After the wholesale was purchased by Wooten Grocery Company, Mr. Lewis organized the Good Will Grocery Company, a wholesale establishment and was in charge of it for quite a while. He knows a great number of people in Spur country and has many friends. Mr. Albin has not stated what he will do in the future.

DISAPPEARED—A BLACK COAT

On Tuesday, November 3, the day of our last election, someone through mistake took my long black cloth coat from the hall in the Patton Springs School building and left their instead. This coat is too small for me. I prefer my own anyway and should appreciate its return.

This coat is lined with black silk, has an interlining, a large, long, black bear skin fur collar, and places for three black buttons which were about the size of a dollar. The middle button has been lost.

DUNCAN FLAT MAN FINDS POULTRY PROFITABLE LINE

Joe M. Rose of the Duncan Flat Community finds poultry flock a profitable side-line to his farming operations. With a flock of 23 White Leghorns he obtained an income of $656.58, or a profit per hen above feed cost of $1.79. His feed cost per dozen eggs was 6.5 cents. Feed cost per hen amounted to 97 cents. He sold his eggs on the general market, the average for the year was 18.4 cents per dozen.

At the beginning of the year, he started his demonstration with a flock of average English strain of White Leghorns, and employed the best method of poultry management as outlined by G. J. Lane, County Agricultural Agent. Mr. Ross attributes his success to observation of minor details and careful methods of feeding and proper housing. His 238 hens, which is an average for the year, produced an average of 180.1 eggs per hen. He did not cull his flock, but lost 6.2 per cent from natural causes.

SOME HIGH POINTS OF THE ARMISTICE PROGRAM

Few towns in West Texas could have enjoyed a better program than the one sponsored by the American Legion at Spur Armistice Day. With the number in the parade running into thousands yet everything was done to schedule. V. V. Parr, who had full charge of the parade, announced in advance that the parade would start at ten o'clock and the ranks were in motion within one minute of that time.

Spur school band led the parade with the guests from Cottle County next in rank. Motley County guests were second and the local service men were third. All divisions had the American Legion colors flying beside the American Flag with impressive formation. Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bird rode at the head of the Motley County division. Mrs. Bird riding on a side-saddle. Many people remarked that it was the first time in years they had seen a lady use a side-saddle, and some of the younger people acknowledged it was their first time to witness such a thing.

An Antique in the Parade
A real antique was introduced in the parade. George S. Link Jr., and J. M. Foster rigged up an old time buggy with a span of mules drawing it, and drove at the head of the business men's division in which were twelve or fifteen floats. This old buggy attracted more attention than any other feature. The buggy was the same one used by the late C. A. Jones in locating people on town lots when the town of Spur was started in 1909. It had been in use then several years and Mr. Foster stated that the buggy must be close to 35 years old.

School children from four counties were in the parade. How many, no one knows, but their part was an attractive feature. The program the school children rendered at the stadium will be remembered for many years by the citizenship present. The address given by Carl Arthur, a Spur High school boy, was said to be one of the best of its nature heard in this country. Mr. Arthur used Armistice Day as his subject and his address was a masterpiece of oratory.

Congressman Mahon Chief Speaker
Congressman George H. Mahon was the chief speaker. He spoke on the program of America at this time. He stated that the United States had never waged a war in its history purely for material gain, but there was always a principle to be upheld in every war in which our country has been engaged. He stated that in 1898 we fought Spain to secure the independence of Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines and at the proper time

MRS. G. W. DAY PASSED AWAY SUNDAY MORNING

Mrs. G. W. Day passed away at her home in Spur Sunday after suffering a stroke Friday. She and a little grand child came to town and were in Bryant-Link Company store when the stroke hit. Mrs. Link and others in the store gave assistance and then she was taken home. She did not rally from the condition and passed away Sunday. Funeral services were held at Afton Baptist Church Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock. Dr. M. F. Ewton of Spur Baptist Church, preached the discourse and was assisted by Rev. A. P. Stokes of Afton.

The husband and ten children survive: Monroe Day, location unknown; Mrs. Dollie Owsley of Louisiana, O. L. Day of Afton, Mrs. J. W. Tabb of Dallas, Mrs. H. B. Vayette of Dallas, Geo. Wilson Day of California, Ollie Day of California, Mrs. C. V. Wilson, location not known. Mrs. Virgil Wilson of Spur is an adopted daughter in the family.

Mrs. Day's maiden name was Miss Mollie Jane Marshall. She was born in Titus County, January 3, 1867, and would have been 70 years of age next January. Mr. and Mrs. Day moved to Dickens County in 1920 and settled on a farm in Afton community. They farmed there several years but on account of their advanced ages they moved to Spur two years ago and have been living here, giving up the farm.

Eight of the children were present for the funeral Tuesday.
