Christmas Seals To Be Offered Soon

Dorothy Thompson, political columnist of the New York Herald Tribune, commenting on the annual Christmas Seals Sale says: "What pleases me about the Christmas Seal idea is its extreme simplicity. Everybody wants to fight tuberculosis, and everyone is bound to be interested—as an egoist and an altruist. The Christmas Seal campaign wins support because there are no solicitors to pester the life out of one. I like both the cause and the technique!"

This month people throughout the United States will have an opportunity to contribute by mail to the campaign against tuberculosis supported by the sale of Christmas Seals. Letters enclosing consignments of Seals, to be sent on approval to thousands of Texas citizens, are now being prepared in the offices of the Texas Tuberculosis Association and its affiliated local organizations. The recipient is privileged to mail his contribution in the return envelope which is enclosed or to return the Seals.

A Nice Lawn At A Small Cost

"For only $6.15, I have succeeded in growing a good lawn of Bermuda grass, and all of the foundation shrubs which I need," was a statement in the report of Mrs. Ben Overstreet, Yard Demonstrator of the Dickens Club, on her yard work for this year.

"In January I set out all my shrubs. I have crepe myrtles, Armoor River privets, spirea, Japanese quince, butterfly bushes, and two wax leaf Lycidiums.

"During this same month, I have planted my grass. We levelled out the lawn, filling in with barnyard fertilizer. We did not disturb the grass already growing, but sowed fifty cents worth of Bermuda seed of the cleaned quality which comes up from two to four weeks sooner than the ordinary seeds, husks and all."

Mrs. Overstreet plans to continue her yard improvement this next year by planting the entire back yard in grass to make a playground for her two small boys.

A Well Filled Pantry

"Our family never cared for canned corn until we started putting it up whole-grain style, but we liked it so well that we canned all our corn by that method," Miss Merle Bennett, Home Food Supply demonstrator of the Prairie Chapel club, told visitors who came to see her pantry November 9. "Canning corn in this way means that you just cut the corn off the cob without scraping, heat it to boiling with half as much water as corn by weight, and process quart glass jars for 70 minutes at 10 pounds pressure."

Miss Bennett has on her pantry shelves now three hundred thirty-three quarts of vegetables, fruits, jellies and preserves, and canned meats. She has a good variety of vegetables, including blackeyed peas, green beans, yellow squash, greens, okra, corn, and cabbage. In order to supply more protein in the diet, Miss Bennett increased her poultry flock from 15 to 75 hens this year. The goal she has set for next year is to have an orchard and berries to help provide the fruit needs of the family.

Grass Sod Adds Much To Home Appearance

"The grass around the house has been so much help, and pleasure to me, because it helps keep dust out of the house and the children's clothes don't get soiled so easily when they play outside," was Mrs. John Sharp's comment as she showed a well-sodded lawn to her cooperators at her Yard Achievement Event October 21.

"The total cost of my yard demonstration has been about six dollars and just the trees alone have been worth more than that. I have one hundred Chinese elms, five red cedars, and several paradise trees, which are growing and making shade trees and screening for the barn and out-buildings."

"The lawn is sodded with Bermuda grass, part of it put out last spring and part of it in the fall of the preceding year. The yard now has a thick carpet of grass, and it has been a source of pleasure for the entire family. Mrs. Sharp plans to finish her foundation plantings next year.

3 BIG STARS IN "THE BRIDE WORE RED"

Joan Crawford again demonstrates her superb artistry in "The Bride Wore Red," playing at the Palace Preview Saturday Night, Sunday and Monday, presenting the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer adaptation of Ferenc Molnar's stage hit, "The Girl From Trieste."

With the lovely star as her distinguished actor-husband, Franchot Tone and Robert Young in romantic competition. Others in the cast whose performances are noteworthy are Reginald Owen and Billie Burke, Lynne Carber, George Zucco and Dickie Moore.

The story describes the dramatic adventures of a charming girl who rose from poverty to wealth and then gained spiritual riches in love. It is, of course, Cinderella up-to-date, but this one is dated every night in the modern manner. Miss Crawford handled the part with finesse.

The director was Dorothy Arzner, Hollywood's only woman megaphonist,

Farmers Say Grasshopper Control Saved Much

Approximately $5,000,000 was saved Texas farmers by the grasshopper control program waged during the spring and summer in Northwest and Central Texas counties which were threatened with a severe grasshopper infestation equal to or worse than the destructive one of 1924, according to a conservative estimate by R. R. Reppert, Extension entomologist and state leader of the committee on grasshopper control.

Definite data on the saving have been supplied by Hemphill and Wheeler counties. Hemphill county wheeled a crop loss of $84,000 and estimated that the loss would have amounted to $212,000 except for control measures—a saving of $128,000. In Wheeler county, the actual loss was $40,000 and the estimated savings effected by the control campaign were $900,000.

Egg counts made in the spring revealed the area in greatest danger of a severe infestation. "Egg counts are of definite value in determining the severity and exact location of an infestation," says Reppert. "Grasshopper eggs are laid in pods, each pod containing approximately 100 eggs. If one pod is found per square foot in fields or pastures, or as many as 16 egg pods are found per square foot along roadsides or ditches in the fall or early spring, farmers should prepare for grasshopper damage the following summer."

Control campaigns were carried on by county committees working with the county agricultural agent under the supervision of a state committee. The Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine which has been designated by Congress to administer a $1,000,000 fund for grasshopper control furnished the state with 2,190 tons of bran and 45,000 gallons of arsenite. Additional bran was supplied from local sources.

Tex Ritter Sings 3 New Song Hits In Latest Film

Three new song hits and one old favorite, sung by Tex Ritter, popular singing cowboy star, provide tuneful contrast to the repeated thrills in Grand National's, "Tex Rides With The Boy Scouts," the first of a new series of Tex Ritter musical westerns at the Palace Saturday. It portrays with vivid realism the adventures of a troop of Boy Scouts with Cowboy Tex in a typical western setting.

One of the songs—"Girl Of The Prairie"—Tex wrote, himself, in collaboration with Ted Shout. It is especially designed to give full play to Tex's melodious baritone voice, which has become so popular among western fans since Edward Finney, producer of the series, first introduced Tex to the screen as year ago in "Song Of The Gringo."

"Headin' For My Texas Home," a riding song, inspired by the emotions of men alone under the stars on the great plains, was written by Frank Sanucci, musical director of the Tex Ritter pictures. The third new song, "Bad Brahma Bull," a vigorous western ballad, was especially created for Tex Ritter by Curley Fletcher.

The famous traditional marching song, "The Girl I Left Behind Me" is also sung by Tex in the course of the development of the action in "Tex Rides With The Boy Scouts," while the Beverly Hill Billies, celebrated western band, provide additional tuneful divertissement with the old time ballad "Red River Valley."

Sixty-Seven Foreign Students At U. Of T.

Foreign born students at The University of Texas include young men and women from Germany, Turkey, Japan, the Philippine Islands, and Mexico. A total of 67 students are enrolled this year who were born on foreign soil. The one Japanese student at the University is Seizo Huga of Azabu, who is a transfer from the University of Dayton, Ohio, and is doing graduate work in cotton marketing.

Some 10,000 miles of land and ocean lie between Austin and the homes of three University students, Ramon

Santos Austria, Elias Fijer Bumatay, and Emilio Fijer Bumatay, all from the Philippine Islands. The boys transferred to The University of Texas from the University of Kansas. Austria is a pre-law student. One of the Bumatay brothers is studying engineering, and the other is a graduate student in psychology. The latter, Elias, is a tutor in psychology.

Cotton marketing, petroleum engineering, and mathematics are three subjects in which the University has gained international recognition; and it is these three subjects which have attracted some of the students from far-away places to Texas. Huga came from Japan to study cotton market-

Life Hazards At Grade Crossings To Be Eliminated

The old adage that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure is being applied by the Texas Highway Department, and the Federal Bureau of Public Roads to make highways safer for the traveling public, according to an article, "Toward Greater Safety", contributed by Charles E. Simons to the November issue of Texas Parade.

"The best method yet devised to prevent collisions between a motor vehicle and a locomotive at a railroad grade crossing is, forsooth, to eliminate the grade crossing," says Mr. Simons. "And that briefly, is what these two units of government are doing in so far as funds are available."

"Figures compiled by a national safety organization disclose that approximately 2,000 or 2,500 persons lost their lives in collisions at railroad grade crossings last year. A like or perhaps larger number will lose their lives under similar circumstances in 1937, due to increased motor travel and faster train schedules. This does not take into consideration the thousands that were permanently crippled or injured and the additional thousands that suffered only temporary hurts. The property damage, both real and human, caused in these scores of needless 'accidents' will offset many times the cost of providing grade separations at the most dangerous crossings."

"During each of the next two years the federal government has made an extra allocation of $2,724,825 to Texas to finance railroad grade separations and install warnings and other preventive devices at railroad grade crossings having a bad accident record. The Texas Highway Department will furnish the plans, specifications, award the contracts and supervise their construction and installation."

The ordinary practice followed in eliminating grade separations is to construct either an overpass or an underpass. In the main, this procedure will be followed in Texas, although there will be an important variation in that, for the first time in the history of the relationship between the two departments. Texas has been granted permission in a few instances to relocate railroads to eliminate the necessity for a crossing at grade.

WORK OF NYA STUDENTS EXHIBITED AT WASHINGTON

An exhibit of farm equipment made last summer by youths assigned by the National Youth Administration to a Resident Work and Agricultural Training Project which was operated at several Texas colleges has been sent to Washington for display this week at a conference of NYA directors of all States in the Union.

J. C. Kellam, Texas Youth Director, had the equipment shipped ahead and took with him several rugs which girls working in NYA sewing rooms in Dallas and San Antonio had made from cloth scraps. Among farm equipment made by youths on the Agricultural project were singletrees, halters, pruning knives, driving lines, and lariats. The articles sent to Washington were made under the supervision of M. F. Thurmond, associate professor of agricultural engineering at Texas A. & M. College, at which one unit of the resident training project was operated.

Mr. Kellam is scheduled to report at the Washington conference on the Resident Work and Training Projects conducted in Texas. Last summer nearly 500 Texas youths from rural areas were assigned for six weeks to work at an agricultural college. During their spare time they were given

Don't Get Your Home Too Warm
"With colder weather on its way to Texas, its time to think about home temperatures during the winter months," says Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

are not only uneconomical with their fuel supply, but are endangering their health as well," Dr. Cox continued. "People living in homes with overheated temperatures become soft, the system is weakened and is at a decided disadvantage in defending itself against the sudden change from a too great intramural heat to penetrating cold."

Mothers and fathers of students and ex-students of the college, who organized last year as the Mothers and Dads Club with C. W. Cox of Canyon as president, are joining the Ex-Students Association in what officials believe will be the biggest homecoming in the history of Abilene Christian College.

"There is evidence that thousands of home are constantly over-heated during the winter. In fact, many families tolerate an indoor temperature during the colder months to which they would do strenuously object in the summer. Such persons

"Consequently colds, bronchial troubles and pneumonia, taking advantage of this situation, step in and do much unnecessary, and not infrequently, fatal damage. You will agree that this is entirely too high a price to pay for a few extra degrees of unneeded heat. "We all know families who are starting on their annual scourge of colds and sore throats. But this does not alter their affinity for super-heat. They ignore the fact that 68 to 70 degrees is the best temperature. A thermometer kept within that range, plus proper humidity, is a definite safe-guard. We need that safe-guard. What does your thermometer read?"
