Dickens County Times

VOLUME 14 THE DICKENS COUNTY TIMES THURSDAY, APRIL 14, 1938 WHOLE NUMBER 629

WITH THE WILD CATS

The Dolman No. 1, O'Keefe, four miles southwest of Girard, is trying to lower 16-inch casing at 100-foot mark. The drillers hit into a very troublesome layer of quicksand which is causing a lot of grief. However, they hope to land the surface casing on solid formation before long.

The General Crude No. 1, Smith, northeast of Rotan in Stonewall County, is drilling at 3,550 in lime. Cuttings are looking favorable.

The Swanson No. 1, Carlisle, is drilling at 3,652. They are underreaming to lower 7-inch casing from 3,557 foot mark to the bottom of the hole. It will require several days to accomplish this.

There is a rumor that a new well will be started in Dickens County within the next few weeks. The location has not yet been made but it is understood a new company is to start operations soon.

The deepest well to be drilled for oil by any company to the present time is that of the Continental Oil Company in the San Joaquin Basin in California. This is No. 2-A Kern County Land in the Wasco District and is bottomed at 15,010 feet. A core at 14,977 to 14,990 feet showed the formation to be sandy shale in contrast to the hard dark shale which had prevailed the several hundreds of feet above that point. The sandy shale was what the company had been looking for and drilling operations were concluded within a few days after its discovery. The sandy shale had excellent porosity, but the hard dark shale had practically no porosity, and the sandy shale core showed a small reaction in acetone. This test should be encouraging to equipment manufacturers as it proves that the limit of present equipment has not yet been reached under careful supervision and safe drilling.

Sixty-two leases of University of Texas lands located in West Texas were sold recently at public auction for an average of $43.90 per acre. The sales included 11,035.6 acres and brought the sum of $484,000. The highest price paid was for tract No. 70 of 165.4 acres in Andrews County which brought the nice sum of $34,000.

The Gulf No. 1 Swenson, on Section 25, Block 2, H&GNRRC. Survey, is drilling at 3,418 in lime formation. There has been quite a lot of new casing went out to that well this week so that if needed they will be prepared. The formation is hard but drilling good.

The Carter No. 1, McMahan, is drilling at 740 in sandy shale. There has been quite a few difficulties encountered in the drilling of this well on account of machinery. However, it is hoped now that everything is in good condition and the work is going on.

The Morrissey No. 1, Bird, on section 290 is drilling at 2556 in grey lime with excellent indication. A strata of fresh water was encountered Sunday which slowed up operations some, but the work is going on in a fine way. A nice little rain-bow was encountered Monday.

Third Sunday Community Singing

The community singing will be at Girard Sunday afternoon starting at two o'clock. Every one is invited to attend and bring your Star Books. Rollie Beavers will sing with his quartette.

Jack Gipson, President.

T. S. Lambert, merchant of the Wichita community, was among the crowd in town Saturday. Mr. Lambert stated that he had lived a hundred years, but had never seen weather like we experienced last week.

Spur School Board Elects Teachers For Next Year At Meeting Tuesday Night

The Board of Education for Spur School District held a session Tuesday night for the purpose of qualifying new members and to organize for the year. E. C. McGee, Jack Rector and Lester Ericson are the new members on the Board. However, they were re-elected at the last Trustees election April 2. Ned Hogan was elected president of the Board Tuesday night and R. A. Taylor was retained as secretary.

The Board went into the election of teachers for next year. In the Ward School teachers elected were:

First Grades, Mrs. F. G. Collier and Mrs. Coy McMahan; Second grades, Mrs. Joe D. Giddens and Miss Margaret Maloney; Third grades, Mrs. G. B. Wadzeck and Miss Emily Smith; Fourth grade, Mrs. Carl Patton. S. L. Benefield, principal, who was elected some weeks ago, will teach one division of the fourth grade. Grammar School teachers elected are: Arithmetic, Mrs. O. A. White; English, Miss Alberta Strugeon; Geography, Miss Minibel Johnson; English, Miss Nell Francis; Mathematics, Don T. Martin. H. C. Foote, principal, will teach some work in this school.

In the High School teachers were elected as follows: English, Miss Theima Logan; Mathematics, Miss Edith Caveness; Speech-English, Mrs. O. M. McGinty; Spanish-English, David Sisto; Band-Science, Robert T. Fielder; History, H. U. Butts; Homemaking, Mrs. O. C. Thomas; Commercial Work, Miss Marian Gibson.

O. L. Kelley, High School principal, was elected some weeks ago at another meeting. At the same meeting G. B. Wadzeck was elected Coach and teacher, and Cecil Ayers was elected instructor for the Vocational Agriculture department.

However, it is reported that Mr. Kelley will not remain with the schools another year, and filed his resignation with the Board at the meeting Tuesday night. Mr. Kelley has been with Spur school ten years. He served two years in the Grammar school, five years in the Ward school and is completing his third year as High School principal. He is a real educator and knows school work, and his leaving Spur schools is creating a vacancy that is going to be difficult to fill.

Visit Work In Dickens County

George E. Adams, assistant state agricultural agent, and K. J. Edwards, district agricultural agent, were in our county Saturday going over the work of the County Agent and cooperating with him in various phases of the agricultural program. In their check-up they complimented County Agent Lane for the work being done and for the fine set-up in the office.

They visited the Spur Experiment Station Sunday and Monday and went over the work there. They seemed to be well pleased with conditions and with the work and experiments now in progress.

Spur Ladies Among McMurray Graduates

Among the June graduates at McMurry College, Abilene, is Miss Tommy Brittain, daughter of Mr. F. O. Brittain of Spur.

Miss Brittain, majoring in Business Administration, is also a member of the Spanish Club and the Art Club.

Miss Zell Ellis, also of Spur, will receive her degree from McMurry in August. She is now teaching in Fort Sumner, New Mexico.

Senior activities began Friday, April 25, when the traditional senior breakfast was held at the Wooten Hotel. That day the seniors were honored by juniors in a special chapel program.

During April the class will present an old fashioned music hall melodrama entitled "Honest Richard's Revenge". The proceeds from this production will go toward financing the senior trip to San Antonio for the Battle of Flowers. Commencement is June 2.

District Court At Dickens Proceedings

District Court went into business for the third week Monday. Several cases were disposed of the first two days of this week and it seems that there will be plenty of business for the fourth week. The jurors who served the second week of Court will also serve on cases next week which will be the fourth week of court. The following cases have been reported this week:

Chas. McGregor vs R. T. Gibson. Judgment was rendered in favor of the Plaintiff and order of sale granted.

State of Texas vs J. S. Ethridge. Defendant fined $50.00 and assigned five days in jail. The charge was driving a car while intoxicated.

Chas. McGregor vs G. H. Watson et al. was set for a special term of Court in May.

The petit jurors will be called back for duty today and just how long they will serve is not known.

Texan Cafe Is Air Conditioned

The Texan Cafe is completing the installation of an air condition system for the comfort of their patronage. The West Texas Utilities Company are making the installation which is expected to keep the temperature of hot July and August down to about 80 degrees. It will be washed air operated by an automatic pump which causes water to circulate through air as it is driven into the building. This is the first cafe in Spur to install an air condition system.

Spur Creamery To Install Cheese Factory

The Spur Creamery, manufacturers of the famous Espuela ice cream and butter, is working on their building for the purpose of installing a cheese factory in the near future. The building which was formerly used for the bottling works is being arranged and workmen are getting it in condition for the new machinery which is expected in before long.

A large storage vault is being built capable of storing about two carloads of cheese. This will be equipped with refrigerator pipes which will make it the proper temperature. An elevated platform is to be built in the rear of the building and one door at the back is to be closed. The loading platform at the rear of the building is to be extended to afford more loading facilities. W. P. Nugent is in charge of the work.

Farmers of this section may get those dairy cows on good feed because there is going to be a market for all the good milk that they can produce. It is thought the machinery for the cheese factory will be installed within the next three weeks.

SOME BIG PUBLICATION

The Daily Texan, publication for the University of Texas, was strong competition, not only for other university publications, but for the large commercial dailies with its issue of Friday, April 8. The publication contains 60 pages of eight columns and arranged into five sections.

The editors are: Historical section, Mavourne Fitzgerald and Eldyss Jarrett; Building section, Jim Anderson and James Williamson; Sports section, John D. McCully and Vernon Rooke; Society section, Elizabeth Keeney.

W. R. Stafford, prominent farmer of the Afton country, was a business visitor in Spur Wednesday.

Dr. J. N. Haney

Funeral services over the remains of Dr. J. N. Haney will be held at Afton this afternoon at three o'clock. Arrangements had not been completed at press hour. He passed away yesterday afternoon in a Lubbock sanitarium, having been taken there about three weeks ago. He had been in ill health for a long time.

The survivors are eight children. Dr. Edward L. Haney of Ralls, B. R. Haney of Hot Springs, New Mexico; Mrs. R. L. Thacker, Mrs. Raymond Brown, Mrs. R. H. Gray all of Mount Pleasant; Byron and Burnett Haney of Afton, J. B. Haney of Matador; twelve grandchildren and a great host of friends in all parts of Texas. Mrs. Haney passed away March 29, 1937.

Dr. Haney was a native of Georgia and was born September 12, 1861. He moved with his parents to Arkansas in 1871 and to Indian Territory in 1872. He was married to Miss Mattie Reagan at Van Buren, Arkansas, November 4, 1884. He remained in Arkansas until 1895 when he came to Texas and established a home in Bowie County. Later he lived in Cass County and Morris County.

He took his work in medicine at the medical college at Memphis, Tenn. He took the state examination in 1897 before the State Medical Board and received his license to practice his profession. He was a great student of medicine, and at various times he took courses in medicine and surgery, building himself to the top of his profession as a practicing physician.

He remained in East Texas until 1916 when he and his family moved to Afton, where he has made his home since. The 22 years in this country has endeared him to a great number of people and he became one of the most beloved men in Dickens County. It was in the horse and buggy days and the night was never too dark, nor the weather too cold for Dr. Haney to answer a call to administer to the suffering. In 1920 he installed a drug store at Afton to assist in his work. Later he added other merchandise and by the assistance of his sons, was able to serve the people in Afton community in a great way.

Dr. Haney was a member of the Christian Church and was a daily example to his religious profession. His life was devoted to the service of humanity, and his religious experience went along with his profession. He was a member of the Knights of Pithias and of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. He was very devoted to both of these fraternities.

His health began to fail in 1927 and since that time he was not able to attend the calls as well as he had before. In 1934 he became quite ill and since then has not attempted to do practice except just to assist his neighbors and friends on special occasions.

Since the death of his beloved wife one year ago, he has not seemed so much concerned about this life. It appeared that he wanted to go on to be with her. He and Mrs. Haney had been life partners more than fifty-two years. They observed their Golden Wedding anniversary November 4, 1934, and enjoyed the pleasure of having most of their children and a great number of friends with them at that time. Mrs. Haney has been greatly missed since her going, and Dr. Haney will be missed by his great host of friends. Both of them were great benefactors to their community and lived to make others happy.

Whittacre-Milam's Store Well Pleased

T. E. Milam, manager of the Whittacre-Milam 5-Cent to $1-Dollar Store, expressed his satisfaction for the business the store is making during its first year of business, and said he thanked the people for their patronage. They are making a nice Easter display this week especially candies and Easter baskets for the little people. In addition they have a very complete line of variety store stock. In addition to Mr. Milam, Mrs. Milam and Mrs. Cecil Scott are on the regular sales force and during busy days they have a number of extra sales people.

Dickens Senior Class Play Friday Night

The Senior Class of Dickens High school will give their annual class play in their High School Auditorium Friday evening, April 15. This will be tomorrow night, and the program will begin about 8:00 o'clock. The title of the play is "Crashing Society", a three act comedy with 12 characters, all home people.

The gist of the play is that of a country family who inherit a million dollars from the estate of a rich uncle. The mother and elder daughter of the home become society minded and the family moves to a large city against the will and judgment of the father. The foolishness of the mother, the idiotic ideas of the daughter, and the mannerisms of the butler become disgusting to both the father and the son in the home.

A disagreement in any family usually calls for a family row. Be at Dickens Friday night and see the results. The play is a scream from the first curtain on through.

Speakers For WTCC Convention At Wichita Falls

Additional speakers for conference sessions of the WTCC Convention at Wichita Falls, April 25-27 to be heard at other than the general assemblies at which Mayor LaGuardia and U. S. Senator Tom Connally, of Texas, will speak, have been named by Wilburn Page, convention manager.

R. T. Harbo, administrative assistant to J. Edgar Hoover, head of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, will address a joint newspaper and officials luncheon on April 26.

Harold B. Fell, Ardmore, Okla., executive vice-president of the Independent Petroleum Association of America, will speak at the oil industry conference on April 25.

Regulations to govern the $1,000 inter-county annual soil and water conservation contest, an innovation the WTCC convention is expected to approve, were adopted by the group's agricultural commission, headed by Clifford B. Jones, of Spur, past WTCC president.

The yearly award will be made to the county showing the greatest improvement in soil and water conservation practices. Of the amount, $250 will be retained by the winning county, and the winner will administer distribution of the remaining $750 to other West Texas counties with outstanding conservation records.

Big Spring, Sweetwater, and Abilene, enter the contest for the honor of entertaining the 1939 convention, made plans to support their invitations with banner delegations to the convention.

Big Spring has entertained the WTCC in 1933, Sweetwater in 1932, and Abilene in 1920 and 1930.

Paul Seeds, Wichita Falls band director, who is chairman of the annual bands contest, sent entry blanks to more than forty towns. Coleman High School won this contest a year ago, and is the current official band of the WTCC. Seeds said he expected more than 800 boys and girls to be here with the bands.

Rev. Cochran Is Holding Revival At M. E. Church

The revival services at the First Methodist Church is now in the second week and is going in high and growing in interest. Rev. Cochran is bringing some masterful messages on the Bible. He speaks in plain terms, yet he does not abuse any one or any sect or other denomination.

The services will continue throughout the week, closing possibly with the services Sunday night. Mrs. J. W. Henry is in charge of the singing and Mrs. Clifford B. Jones is at the piano. Services are being held at ten o'clock each morning and at 7:45 each evening.

People who are not taking advantage of hearing Rev. Cochran are missing the opportunity of hearing some fine messages on the Bible. Everybody is extended an invitation to attend the services the remainder of the meeting.

Sunday is Easter, there will be special music and services at all churches, make your plans to attend some of these services Sunday morning.

Did you know that the name Easter was derived from the name of the Anglo-Saxon Goddess of Spring Eostre or Ostara, to whom the month corresponding to our April was dedicated?

Ladies To Attend Plainview Show

Preparations for the Home Demonstration club women of Dickens County to attend the Plainview Dairy Show April 19-23 are under way, with each club sending as many products as possible. Each club may send one delegate for the first two days, whose responsibility it is to bring valuable information to her club members concerning quality dairy products.

Dickens County club women will present a team demonstration at the Dairy Show on the utilization of processed Cottage Cheese. Mrs. Cecil Meadors and Mrs. Murray Lea, both from the Dickens Club, will give the demonstration, which shows how to make two casserole dishes containing home-made cheese, how to use these in planning meals, and the nutritional value of the dairy products used. Their demonstration will be given at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, April 20.

Each club woman who enters either sweet milk, butter, or any of the cheeses must label that product with her name and the county. Products must be brought in to be carried to Plainview not later than 10:00 a.m. Tuesday morning, April 19. Those club women nearest to Spur may bring their products to the office of the Home Agent; those club women nearer to Dickens may leave their products at Mrs. Murray Lea's one mile south of Dickens on the highway. No products can be entered in this county after 10:00 o'clock, April 19 for the cars taking the entries will leave for Plainview at that time.

It is hoped that every club woman will enter at least one dairy product; the success of our part of the Dairy Show and the benefits derived from it depend upon the cooperation of every club woman.

Eugene L. Naugle, Pastor

Next Sunday is Easter Sunday. It ought to be and is the happiest day of the year to the Christian man or woman because on that day nearly two thousand years ago the Savior of the world, who had been crucified on the cruel cross for the sins of the world, rose from the tomb. Because of this fact, Jesus made the promise, "Because I Live, Ye Shall Live Also", John 14:19. The resurrection of Christ is a historical fact—by the testimony of competent witnesses. The resurrection of Christ is more than a historical fact. It is a spiritual force in the lives of men. Through fellowship with the risen Christ men rise from a death in sin to a life of holiness. The resurrection of Christ is more than a historical fact and more than a spiritual force. It is prophecy and hope and assurance of future life. The outstanding fact of Easter is immortality—the imperishable life, the abundant life, the expanding life, the triumphant life.

A BRIGHTER DAWN
A brighter dawn is breaking
And earth with praise is waking:
For thou, O King most highest,
The power of death defiest;
And thou hast come victorious,
With risen body glorious,
Who now forever livest
And life abundant gives.

—J. Spoolman.
Next Sunday morning, our presiding Elder, Rev. E. B. Bowen will preach at the morning hour. The Third Quarterly Conference will be held soon after the noon hour at which time a basket dinner will be served with the Afton church as host. Our District Conference will convene at Goree on the afternoon of April 21. The representatives from this charge at that meeting will be V. S. Ford and Joe Tom Jackson from Afton and J. T. Swim and Maurice Campbell from Roaring Springs.

Soldier Mound Club Met April 7

Yeast must have a favorable temperature as well as moisture and food in order to grow, and the best temperature for bread fermentation is probably between 80 and 90 degrees Fahrenheit. Miss Jean Day told the Soldier Mound Home Demonstration Club in a demonstration on "yeast bread", at the home of Mrs. Horace Gibson, with Mrs. I. E. Abernathy, hostess, April 7.

Yeast grows faster at temperatures above 85 degrees but when the dough gets warmer than this the growth may be retarded and the growth of other less desirable organisms may be started. In order to keep the dough at an even temperature the bread bowl may be covered and set in a pan of luke warm water adding a small amount of hot water now and then to keep it at the same temperature.

From the "ice box roll" recipe, Miss Day prepared the cloverleaf pocket-book, braided and crescent rolls.

A delicious refreshment plate consisting of hot rolls, butter, pineapple preserves and coffee was served to Mesdames: Jno. Bochman, V. L. Graves, Floyd Barnett, Paul Loe, and the hostess. Also Misses Elizabeth Williams, visitor, and Jean Day.

County Attorney L. D. Ratliff, Jr., returned to Spur Monday from Haskell where he had been visiting his parents and recuperating from an operation two weeks ago. He seems to be getting along fine.

Do you want to SAVE MONEY?

The Standard Ford V-8, with 60-horsepower engine, gives you a lot of car for a little money.

300,000 new owners acclaimed the "thrifty '60" last year. Hundreds a day are buying it in 1938. Why?

Because it is priced low—includes essential equipment without extra charge—and goes farther between filling stations than any Ford car ever built. Owners all over the country report averages of 22 to 27 miles on a single gallon of gasoline.

But economy isn't all the story by any means. The Standard "60" is built with the same precision as the De Luxe "85," and has the same 112-inch wheelbase chassis. It is easy to look at and ride in —as well as easy to buy and run.

There's a Ford dealer near you.

Beware Of The Lease Snipers And Chisellers

As there is quite a lot of drilling activity in the country at this time, and as this will stimulate quite a lot of leasing of lands for oil development projects, we want to warn our neighbors and friends in regard to the lease snipers and chisellers that always come around when oil activity gets to looking good. These birds have no conscientious scruples as to what they tell you relative to any lease they can secure. In fact, they will tell you anything just to get your lease. It is customary for oil companies to be ethical and to respect the leases in the block of another oil company. But the lease sniper and chiseler does not do that. He will try to induce you to lease you lands to him for a small pittance even if you are located right in the center of a block. He gets you to look at the few nickels he is giving you instead of trying to get you to cooperate with the company who really wants to drill wells and get productions. Wells and production are the only things which will bring you real money in the long run.

When any bird comes to your place and tries to get you to sign your lease to try to find out if he is willing to drill a well within a reasonable time, and see if he is going to place your lease in escrow for drilling purposes, or is going to place it on record for speculating. If the lease goes on record your titles are clouded, and before he gets through with the speculation routine, it may cost you hundreds of dollars to get your records cleared up.

We have known lease snipers and chisellers to go into blocks, where the landholder has already leased his lands for drilling purposes and has the lease in escrow. The sniper and chiseler gets the farmer to sign a new lease for a few dollars, back date it, put it on record, add in such manner prevent wells being drilled, when such wells drilled would probably make the landholder independently rich. So we are warning landholders about these fellows. They may be operating in the country now. But beware of any fellow who is not willing to respect what another firm or people is doing to get a well drilled. The fellow who takes your lease under such conditions has no more respect for the landholder than he has for the company who is trying to get drilling done. He is a chiseler who wants to get the advantage and speculate on you or the company who is trying to block up to drill.

Dr. and Mrs. M. H. Brannen, left the first of the week for Temple, where Dr. Brannen attended a meeting of the Brazos River Dam.

J. Matt Dawson, of Afton, was a business visitor in Spur Monday.

McAdoo News

The last few weeks students from the local school have been "going places and doing things". The FFA boys entered projects in Crosby County Fat Stock Show at Crosbyton Saturday, March 5. Beware Of The Lease Snipers And Chiselers

As there is quite a lot of drilling activity in the country at this time, and as this will stimulate quite a lot of leasing of lands for oil development projects, we want to warn our neighbors and friends in regard to the lease snipers and chiselers that always come around when oil activity gets to looking good. These birds have no conscientious scruples as to what they tell you relative to any lease they can secure. In fact, they will tell you anything just to get your lease. It is customary for oil companies to be ethical and to respect the leases in the block of another oil company. But the lease sniper and chiseler does not do that. He will try to induce you to lease you lands to him for a small pittance even if you are located right in the center of a block. He gets you to look at the few nickels he is giving you instead of trying to get you to cooperate with the company who really wants to drill wells and get productions. Wells and production are the only things which will bring you real money in the long run.

When any bird comes to your place and tries to get you to sign your lease to try to find out if he is willing to drill a well within a reasonable time, and see if he is going to place your lease in escrow for drilling purposes, or is going to place it on record for speculating. If the lease goes on record your titles are clouded, and before he gets through with the speculation routine, it may cost you hundreds of dollars to get your records cleared up.

We have known lease snipers and chiselers to go into blocks, where the landholder has already leased his lands for drilling purposes and has the lease in escrow. The sniper and chiseler gets the farmer to sign a new lease for a few dollars, back date it, put it on record, add in such manner prevent wells being drilled, when such wells drilled would probably make the landholder independently rich. So we are warning landholders about these fellows. They may be operating in the country now. But beware of any fellow who is not willing to respect what another firm or people is doing to get a well drilled. The fellow who takes your lease under such conditions has no more respect for the landholder than he has for the company who is trying to get drilling done. He is a chiseler who wants to get the advantage and speculate on you or the company who is trying to block up to drill.

TURN BUSINESS LOOSE

The following editorial appeared in the Abilene Reporter-News under date of April 7, under the caption of "Turn Business Loose". We feel that it gives an angle to present conditions that the American people might be willing to impartially consider as this is the time that good judgement, and not prejudice, should rule.

It is as follows:
Governor George H. Earle of Pennsylvania oft-mentioned aspirant for FDR's mantle, was in Washington yesterday advocating a public spending program of three billion dollars a year for three years. It is needed, he argued, to prevent a complete breakdown of the country's morale and the smash-up of its industrial well-being.

In the same city the day before Senator Bankhead of Alabama, in an impassioned speech, called for economy. He warned that "pay day is coming." The country cannot continue to spend money in huge sums without doing more or less permanent harm to its business life and people, who will have to foot the bill in the long run.

Meantime relief officials were speaking of additional appropriations to take up the slack left when business hit the skids. Unemployment grows by leaps and bounds.

A Washington woman newspaper publisher, Eleanor Patterson, in an open letter told President Roosevelt what she thought was the matter with business—and with him. Business, she said, is afraid of the president. That is what is holding back recovery efforts from the business angle.

Men are afraid to invest their money because they have been shot at by government until they are gun-shy. Men with millions to invest are subject to the same influences as the child with a nickel to spend. Both have a right to get a play for their money. The child would be leery about walking to the corner grocery for a bar of candy if he feared some larger boy would waylay him and pinch his nickel. Capital is leery about investing his money if it fears that the tax collector will waylay him, or congress will pass some law to make his investment worthless or some official magnifico will call him a robber and a cheat.

Both the government and business are agreed that it is the part of business to provide more jobs and lift the intolerable burden of relief from the taxpayers but they differ widely on their methods of procedure. Business has been the object of much interference and regulation on the part of the government; it has been called names and held up as crooked and grasping and subversive. It is hardly surprising that business takes the attitude that it is foolish to make long term commitments or invest a lot of money in schemes that may be legislated out of existence tomorrow, or eaten up by taxes the day after.

Yet business confidence, the courage to make long-term commitments in the financial marts and invest money in enterprises that may yield a slow return, are vital parts of any program of expansion designed to provide jobs and end the recession.

Since business is simply a collection of human beings for the purpose of making money, it is subject to all the doubts and fears that assail the individual. No man is going to invest his money if he fears that it will be lost to him forever. If he happens to be a member of a community that has been the target for almost constant sniping on the part of officials in high place, he is likely to feel pretty blue about it—and keep his money to himself. He wants to invest his money, but only when he feels secure as to the future. Opportunities to invest may lie all around him but if he is uneasy in his mind about it he isn't going to put out. You can lead a horse to water but you can't make him drink.

The administration could change this attitude by adopting a policy of friendliness and understanding, in place of one of open hostility and brazen misrepresentation. But will it? On the answer depends the decision whether this country is to continue to pile up the relief burden, or turn business loose from its thrall of fear and let it do the job in the normal and time-tried way.

"A YANK AT OXFORD" OPENING AT PALACE THIS WEEK END.

Robert Taylor Stars In Vivid Story

Of English University Life

The first story of English undergraduate life to be filmed in England with a cast of American stars sent abroad to act in authentic locales comes to the Palace screen, Preview Saturday Night and Sunday and Monday with the showing of "A Yank at Oxford," with Robert Taylor playing the title role and with such American and English film favorites as Lionel Barrymore, Maureen O'Sullivan, Vivien Leigh, Edmund Gwenn and Griffith Jones filling prominent supporting roles.

Taylor as the American college boy who wins a scholarship to Oxford and becomes stroke of the Oxford crew, is said to eclipse anything he has done before in the new role of the Yank who has never known at home and who emerges triumphant and with a new understanding of the sympathy and comradeship existing between the two English speaking nations. Aside from presenting a story replete with excitement, humor, thrills, and romance, "A Yank at Oxford" offers the American filmgoer an unusual insight into the traditions and colorful life of English undergraduate life. Such unfamiliar episodes are shown as the Oxford-Cambridge track meets and boat races, the May races, the rite of "Sconcing," and various other intimate glimpses of Oxford life.

The plot centers about the romance between Taylor and Miss O'Sullivan and the feud which Taylor has with Miss O'Sullivan's brother who is a rival undergraduate. The popular English actress, Miss Leigh, enters the scene to complicate matters. The picture is based on an original story by Leon Gordon, Sidney Gilliat and Michael Hogan and on an idea by John Monk Saunders and was directed by Jack Conway.

Says Mineral Survey Should Be Valuable

O. E. Hans, who is in charge of the mineral survey of Dickens County, says there should be some great values brought to light in this work. The survey includes different types of mineral such as copper, lead, iron, manganese, different types of clay, asphalt beds, salt beds, lava beds and other useful materials and minerals.

The survey is being sponsored by the University of Texas and there are twelve men included in the work. Some of these are local people and others of the crew are located in Spur.

Mr. Hans is a paleontologist and is on the lookout for bones of pre-historic animals and reports that many lairs of such bones have been discovered in West Texas. He has much practical work in his field and is capable of devising instruments to suit different situations. He has invented a new altimeter which is destined to become very popular in the field of surveying. He stated he is able to bring out views of objects at a distance of five miles very distinctly. The instrument has been tested with other like instruments and has proven its ability in all conditions.

Neither flood nor storm can silence your telephone long...

The telephone company depends upon Western Electric... Bell System supply unit... to pour material into wrecked areas AT ONCE!

Floods and storms in Arkansas and Oklahoma took heavy toll of telephone lines in February. Yet almost all the silenced telephones were back in service within a few days.

One reason: Western Electric warehouses, spotted so no Southwestern Bell town is farther than an overnight jump, rushed material into the wrecked areas as fast as repair crews arrived.

Spur To Be Represented At State Rally

The State Homemaking Rally for Vocational Homemaking students is to be held in San Antonio May 5, 6 and 7. Mrs. Thomas, Homemaking Teacher, and three or four girls from our school will represent Spur at that meeting.

Friday, April 15 the first local tryout for the Rally will be held. This tryout will test the knowledge of students in planning, preparing, serving and doing the marketing for luncheons and dinners. Their ability to plan for a specific group and to market with a given amount of money will be graded by judges outside of the high school. In order to make the judging completely fair each girl is known by a number instead of her name.

April 25 judges from neighboring towns will inspect the girls for complete school and tailored dresses. The first year group will model school dresses that they have made for themselves. The second year girls will parade in their self-made tailored dresses and appropriate accessories that they themselves have chosen. At that time, also, the girls will be known by number instead of by name.

The announcement of the winners in both of these contests will be made at the picture show the night of April 26 when the annual style review of the Homemaking Department will be held. The Department will sponsor the picture show that night and will be given fifty percent of the tickets they sell in advance of the show. The name of the picture is "Vogues of 1938", with Warner Baxter. The show is in complete technicolor, and the department feels that it will be well worth anyone's money to see this picture and the girls wearing their own dresses.

Plan on coming and spending a pleasant evening as well as helping a worthy cause. Be sure to buy your ticket in advance from some girl in the department.

The consolidation will not become effective until next school year. The present school plans will continue until the present term will have been completed, but next year there will be no school at Espuela as all the school children will be brought to Spur in school buses.

WTCC Convention Queen To Be Selected April 25

Beauty queen nominees from throughout West Texas, named by member cities in the West Texas Chamber of Commerce has added a colorful feminine note to business and program plans for the twentieth annual convention of the WTCC, to be held in Wichita Falls, April 24 to 27.

Miss Inez Mayo, senior student of the Texas State College for Women, Denton, elected at the Brownwood convention in 1937 will reign over the convention as Her Majesty, Queen of All West Texas.

At the Monday night ball festival, entertainment highlight of the convention's opening day, registered convention delegates will ballot on Miss Mayo's successor, after the community queens have been presented.

Tuesday night, Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia, principal speaker at the general session of that day, will preside at the coronation of Miss West Texas.

Walter D. Cline, Wichita Falls, WTCC president in 1933, will be master of ceremonies, and Miss Elizabeth Huff, as Miss Wichita Falls, will be hostess to the visiting queens.

Entertainment plans for the West Texas queen include an airplane trip to Chicago, with a chaperone, as guests of the Braniff Airways.

R. W. Lindsey, convention chairman of the community queens contest, said today he had arranged for the queen and her escort to be guests at the Hotel Muehlebach, Kansas City, and the Blackstone Hotel, Chicago, while on this trip.

Fort Worth's queen nominee, newly received, is Miss Mary Francis Hutton, senior at Texas Christian University.

Other nominations already received are those of Miss Lois LeFevre, Henrietta; Miss Margorie Maddox, Nona; Miss Mary Beth Wilson, Vernon; Miss Margaret Nell Crews, Plainview; Miss Ellen Sue Yeager, Mineral Wells.

Childress, Haskell and other cities are conducting local contests to select a community queen.

An Editorial About Buying Bread

What kind of bread do you eat? If you eat bakery bread, is it made in Spur?

Thanks to the fact that Spur has an excellent bakery, folks of this trade territory for several years have supplied their major bread, cake and cookie needs right here at home. Only a few highly specialized pastry products, in any quantity, have been found on grocers' display stands.

But a new bread came to town a few days ago. It is made in Hamlin by a concern that has many bakeries. It is probably good bread—almost as good, perhaps, as the bread made by the Spur Bakery.

But even if this new bread is fairly good, why buy it? The Times has often heard it remarked that Spur bread is excellent, and that the town is fortunate to have a bakery whose products are equal to or better than the products of outside bakeries.

Too, Spur Bakery is manned by good citizens. They support several Spur families, month after month, year after year. Loss of it would hurt the business life of the town and county.

The Times is presenting these facts now, while only a few loaves of the new bread are coming to town, because it feels that housewives, grocers, business men in general, as well as farmers and ranchers and their wives—all of us are vitally linked together in many ways—will join firm hands to protect a worthy local enterprise.

This Hamlin bread will disappear from Spur grocers' display counters if folks will simply say, when they ask for bread: "I want Spur Bakery Bread."

Buy GOOD bread MADE IN Spur by our GOOD Bakery!

Two-Gun Baker Is At It Again!

Get ready for a session of sweet music to the accompaniment of roaring guns at the Palace Theatre Saturday. At that date Bob Baker, two-fisted cowboy crooner and a gang of ruthless bandits will gallop onto the screen in Universal's new Western thriller, "Border Wolves."

This swiftly-paced drama tells a story of intrigue and adventure in the exciting days when California was preyed upon by outlaws. It relates how Bob Baker and his pal, Fuzzy Knight, armed only with their wits and six-shooters save a beautiful girl from the clutches of a cunning renegade leader, and his merciless gang. It also tells how these two daring cow-punchers put an end to the crimes that have been terrorizing a community for years.

Bob Baker's leading lady in this out-door drama is charming Constance Moore of Radioland. There are tender moments in the film where she and Baker sing wistful cowboy melodies.
