WITH THE WILD CATS

The General Crude No. 1, Smith in the western part of Stonewall County is drilling around 4,200 feet in lime. The well is being drilled and then underreamed to lower the casing.

The Swanson-Parrot No. 1, Carlisle, northwest of Peacock, is drilling around 4,225 in black lime. Hard formation and sulphur water encountered about 250 feet above that point.

The Morrissey No. 1, Bird, ten miles northwest of Spur, had a new string of casing set the last of the week and cemented Sunday afternoon. The tools went back into the well yesterday afternoon to drill out the plug and the pack, and operations will be continued today.

The Gulf No. 1, Swenson, northeast of Garza County is drilling below 4,855 in lime.

The Dolmon No. 1, O'Keefe southwest of Girard, is waiting for a string of 12 1-2 inch casing. Will start up soon.

The Carter No. 1, McMahan, located on section 319 just north of Dry Lake school, is held up the securing of a larger equipment to go deeper. The well is now 1,050 feet deep.

Band Plays Last Concert Mon. Eve

The Spur school band gave a very enjoyable concert Monday night to a practically filled auditorium. People of Spur exemplified quite a lot of appreciation as every number received big applause and in many instances encores were called for.

One feature that seemed to go over well was the vocal selection rendered by three young ladies, Misses Sammie McGee, Peggy Hogan and Joyce McCully. They were accompanied by the band and the audience called them back and the second applause was greater than the first.

The selections rendered by the saxette band which was made up of eight small girls and boys, were received well by the audience. These players will be regular band members by another year.

The concert Monday evening will be the last for the Spur school band this year. Mr. Fielder, the director, thanked the people for their co-operation during the year and stated that parents of the members of the band should justly feel proud of those young people. He stated that not a number rendered Monday night had been practiced more than four weeks, and said that it is the intention on his part to teach members of the band music rather than to practice on a few selections just to show off the band.

LARGE CROWD ATTENDED PAINT DEMONSTRATION

Wheat Estimate For Dickens County Given

According to best estimates the Spur territory has approximately 25,000 acres planted to wheat. The ten years average of production for Dickens County has been about 10 7-8 bushels per acre. Considering 25,000 acres at 10 bushels per acre would be 250,000 bushels. Of this amount the farmers will reserve about 12,500 to 15,000 bushels for seed.

On an average a car will hold about 1,350 bushels, as the capacity runs from 1,000 bushels minimum to 2,200 maximum. On that basis Spur country will ship 235,000 bushels, or about 174 cars of wheat.

In 1937 Spur shipped 216 cars. The first car was loaded out June 8. In 1936 Spur shipped 42 cars, and the first car was loaded out June 15th.

There can be natural conditions which would cause the amount of wheat produced in Spur territory to vary from the above figures. These are taken from what has been in the past, and is only an estimate.

COUNTY BOOKS BEING AUDITED THIS WEEK

The County Commissioners Court are having the books of the county audited this week. Campbell and Merriman Audit Company of Lubbock are doing the work. All accounts and all records will be brought to date of January 1, 1938. It is expected to require from two to three weeks to complete the work.

MISS MIM REED PRESENTED IN SENIOR VOICE RECITAL

At the East Ward Auditorium Thursday evening at 8:00 o'clock Miss Mim Reed, will be presented in a senior voice recital. Miss Reed is a student of Miss Crystelle Scudder. Miss Reed is the first student to finish voice in a class here.

First Soft Ball Games Played Tuesday Eve.

The soft ball season of this section opened Tuesday night with a large attendance of fans and much interest. Games were played between Girard and Jayton, which enabled the opening of the season to be a double header. The game between Spur and Dickens was 9 to 10 in favor of Spur. It being so close that it was really thrilling. The game between Girard and Jayton was 13 to 3 in favor of Jayton.

Arrangements have been made for the organization of a league to be composed of six teams. Officers will be selected, rules and regulations will be drafted soon and the schedule of games made out.

The league is to be composed of teams from Dickens, McAdoo, Calgary, Jayton, Girard and Spur. The schedule will start June 2.

There will be a game on the local diamond tonight between Calgary and Spur. Calgary has a good line up and have been playing some good games.

One thing that the people should be more considerate about: unless you are willing to pay the small admission fee you should not try to attend the games. A number of people have been crashing the gate so to speak, and unless you are sport enough to pay your way, you are not worth anything to the cause of soft ball.

Red Mud School Closed Friday, 13th

The Red Mud school closed Friday, May 13th. The patrons gathered at the school house Friday evening and enjoyed songs, games and spelling matches and several musical numbers.

Mrs. Garrison has a well-trained rhythm band. Mrs. Garrison closed her fifth year of teaching in our school, and patrons and pupils regret losing her from our school. She has accepted a position in Kent County for the next term.

Cake, ice cream and fruits were served to the those present.

Building For New Cafe Started on Parker Ave.

The building for a new cafe at the corner of Parker Avenue and Hill Street was started this week. The new building, which is to be a stucco structure, will be 22 feet by 40 feet in size. C. S. Kearney, owner of the Hill Top Service Station, is building the cafe and it will be known as the Hill Top Cafe. H. P. Berry is in charge of the concrete and stucco work and probably different ones will do the carpenter work.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Wood will be in charge of the cafe and they expect to have their opening about June 15th.

In speaking of the cafe, Mr. Kearney said that they want to make it a real nice one, and it will be for home people as well as tourist.

E. W. WALTHALL PASSES AWAY

C. R. Walthall, manager of the local Safe-Way Store, returned from Waco Saturday morning where he had been to attend the funeral of his father, E. W. Walthall. The father died late Wednesday night at the age of 67.

George Goodall, of Girard, was a business visitor in Spur Saturday.

Thursday, Friday May 26th-27th In the Love Building

The Dickens County Times is co-operating with the West Texas Utilities Company in the annual community cooking school which starts Thursday afternoon of next week. The school will be held in the Love Building just north of the New Deal Grocery, and directly across the street west of the West Texas Utilities office.

The ladies of the community have stated they received much benefit from the schools held here in former years. It is hoped this one will bring greater benefit to the homemakers of the community.

Miss Bonnie Duke, of the Hotpoint Manufacturing Company of Chicago, has been secured for this school as instructor. She specializes in demonstrating simple methods of preparing foods. The school will start each day about two o'clock in the afternoon and the demonstrations will last approximately three hours each day. Miss Duke has made a life study of the work, and she will be in a position to give the homemakers of our community many new ideas, especially if they use the electric method of cooking.

Miss Virginia Blair, of the Home Service department of the West Texas Utilities Company, will be present for the two days and will be glad to confer with any ladies in the community in regard to their electric ranges. In addition, she will be glad to answer any questions relative to operating an electric stove, and if necessary, will go to your home and explain the different features of the stove. Miss Blair is a trained home economist and knows the trails of a homemaker as she has spent years in conferring with different ladies in their homes about their home work.

In regard to the mechanical arrangements of your electrical stoves, it is now thought that Bob McClesky, sales manager of the Stamford office will be present, as well as L. B. Tillotson and Gene Galbraith, who will be delighted to confer with any one relative to their electrical stoves.

In addition to these men, T. E. Kuykendall, general sales manager for West Texas, will be present and will be very lonely unless the ladies ask him a lot of question about electric stoves. Mr. Kuykendall is strongly sold on electric stoves and other electric cooking appliances, and he enjoys telling the homemakers how to operate electric stoves and other electric apparatus.

In starting this school every arrangement possible is being made to give the people the opportunity to enjoy two days of valuable instruction. You are asked to be present both days, especially if you use an electric stove or have any intention of securing one in the near future. If you live in the country from Aspermont north to McAdoo, it will be to your interest to arrange now to attend this school. It costs you nothing except your time and there is no doubt that it will be worth your time.

Pupils To Receive Rotary Club Awards

It has been the custom for some years for the Rotary Club to make certain awards to pupils of the Spur High School. These awards are made to the boy and girl in each class who has the highest rating in scholarship, personality, leadership, etc. The following pupils have won the awards:

Senior Class: Ruth Cowan and Bill Gruben.
Junior Class: Margaret May Weaver and Charles Senning.
Freshman Class: Jean Engleman and James F. Laverty.

Cheese Factory Nears Completion

The new cheese factory which is being added to the Spur Creamery, is nearing completion. R. G. Whistler, the plant engineer, is installing the equipment and hopes to have it ready before long. Then all the machinery and equipment will have to be tested out which will require some time. It probably will be after June 1 before everything gets to going right.

J. A. Neal will be in charge of the cheese making department. Mr. Neal and his family are living in Spur and he is lending his assistance to installing the equipment. He has had many years of experience in the cheese manufacturing business in addition to his foundational training. When asked as to the capacity of the factory, he stated that farmers are entitled to know that the cheese factory will be able to handle all the milk they produce. He stated they need not fear of over-production in milk.

Mr. Neal stated further that farmers still have their choice of selling whole milk or cream, or they may sell both. The creamery will need the butter fat which farmers produce and the cheese factory will need the whole milk. He said that whole milk is much less trouble and requires much less work.

The new cheese factory will afford another good outlet for the dairy products of the community.

East Ward Pupils To Be Presented In Operetta Fri.

Mrs. F. G. Collier, teacher of the First Grade in East Ward, will present her pupils in an operetta in the East Ward auditorium Friday night. "A Spring Day in Flowerland" is the title of the evening program, and parents of children of that room are extended a special invitation to be present. Other people are welcome to be there. The program will start about 8:00 o'clock in the evening.

Workers' Meeting At Friendship Church

The next Workers' meeting of the Dickens County Baptist Association will be held with the Friendship Church in Croton community, Thursday, May 26. The following is the program outline:

The advance committee for air mail week from Lubbock arrived in Spur last Thursday morning at 11:40 o'clock, and were received in a great way by Spur citizens. More than twenty cars took Spur citizens to the airport, who were waiting the arrival of the plane. Most active on the part of Spur was the Spur school band who played a number of selections, and the committee stated they had not so royal a reception since they had left Lubbock.

The object of the visit by that committee was to make complete arrangements and announce about the special mail plane which is to arrive in Spur 11:15 o'clock this morning. The Committee last week was composed of C. E. Maedgen, chairman of the airlines committee and president of the Lubbock National Bank; R. D. Shinkle of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, and Clint Breedlove, pilot of the plane. Mr. Thomas made the address of welcome. Mr. Maedgen then announced the purpose of the trip and why Lubbock wants and needs the co-operation of Spur. They want to secure an airmail line from Denver southeast to San Antonio and Corpus Christi. All other lines extend east to west, but at this time there are no north to south lines in the West Section.

Mr. Maedgen pointed out that it is the hope of Lubbock to furnish feeder planes to pick up mail for the main plane and thus to have the community to furnish a large quantity of air mail for this route.

The big plane will arrive this morning at 11:15 and will remain ten minutes, leaving at 11:26. Postmaster Arthur is making special efforts to have all air mail letters from Spur specially identified, and people may post air mail as late as ten o'clock this morning and be assured that these letters will make the plane. This is a new day for Spur and Spur country, and it may be the beginning of a new era in mail service. Let's all get our letters in this morning in time and show the world that we are doing things too.

The people, the Chamber of Commerce, and all concerned are co-operating in a great way, and it is hoped that this small movement at this time will develop into great event for our town in the very near future.

The pilot of the plane will be Art Chase, but we may say that he is a government employee, running on schedule time and will not have time to give people his autograph. But you can give your autograph by way of an air mail letter and secure something for Spur.

S. T. Battle Shows Times Freak Eggs

S. T. Battles, of Espuela community, was in town Saturday and exhibited a number of freak eggs. All of the eggs were of different size and shape. Three of the eggs had what is known as folded shells. One of these was rather small, another just medium size and the third was a very large egg. A fourth egg was very long, fully three inches in length. An average egg is about 2 3-8 inches in length if it is well proportioned. This egg was no greater in diameter than an ordinary egg of average size, but it had plenty of length.

While in town Saturday, Mr. Battles spoke of a neighbor who found an egg with three yolks in the shell. This is another very extraordinary event.

Denton Eagles Track Team Makes Records

Three oak-lunged Eagles flashed across the finish in the most amazing record-breaking half-mile performance in the history of Texas sports here Friday as Coach Choc Sportman's North Texans blasted their way to their seventh track and field title in the eight years of Lone Star competition.

It was an upset for the Eagles over the favored East Texas Lions and the third conference championship that has come in loop competition this year to North Texas teams in various sports.

Wayne Rideout's half was the fastest he has ever run, 1 minute 53.7 seconds, three and one-tenth seconds better than the old record set by Duane Abbey of North Texas in 1935. Twin brother Blain Rideout was second, and Co-captain Henry Morgan third with a clocking of 1:55. Thus the three Eagles came in ahead of both Lone Star and Southwest records.

The performance was made more striking by the fact that the same three men, together with Jack Sahling, had finished one-two-three-four (Blaine, Wayne, Sahlin, Morgan) in the mile run exactly 45 minutes earlier. In this event all four ran in better-than-record time, Baine Rideout's run of 4 minutes 16.5 seconds lowering the conference mark 13.3 seconds and setting a new record that is the fastest mile ever run in Texas except for his own 4:11.8 clocked in a dual meet here against the Oklahoma Aggies.

The Eagles 73 points were a clear first over their closest rivals, Commerce, with 51 5-6 points. Southwest Texas of San Marcos annexed 26 points, Stephen F. Austin of Nacogdoches 11 1-3, and Sam Houston of Huntsville 2 5-6 points.

Individual scoring honors went to Delmer of North Texas, curly-haired dash twin, whose double, Elmer Brown was out with an injured foot. Brown led the 110 and 220 dashes and broad jump and ran anchor for the winning mile relay team for North Texas.

The Eagles set three of the four new records smashed Friday. In addition to the half and mile already named, the Eagle mile relay team clocked 3 minutes 20.6 seconds to

Torn From Homes by Tornado, Electric Refrigerators Still Provide Ice, Food Protection

FOLKS who spend good money for a refrigerator are buying a specific Service. In addition, their purchase should give them a guarantee of Safety. The folks who many years ago bought the two electric refrigerators pictured above bought both Service and Safety. A recent tornado in a small West Texas community proved this point. Buildings crumbled around them and the wind tossed them into the street like a fretful child discarding a toy. But—these electric refrigerators operated perfectly when picked up and connected to an electric socket the following day. That IS Service! There was no damage resulting from refrigerant fumes. That IS Safety!

Funeral Rites For 'Uncle Dink' Arthur Thurs.

J. E. Arthur, known to his many friends as "Uncle Dink," died at his home four miles north of Dickens early last Thursday morning. He had been in ill health for about a year, having suffered a severe illness about one year ago from which he never fully recovered. Funeral services were held at the Church of Christ in Dickens at four o'clock Thursday afternoon. Charlie Graves, minister of the Church of Christ at Canyon, was in charge of the services. Interment followed in Dickens cemetery with Campbell's Mortuary in charge of arrangements. Pallbearers were members of the Midway Church of Christ, and the honorary pallbearers were the four grandsons of the family. Flower girls were eight granddaughters.

Mr. Arthur was born in Louisiana May 9, 1854, and was 84 years and three days old when he passed away. He came to Texas when about two years of age, and the family settled in what is now Comanche County before it was organized. Mr. Arthur's father, W. N. Arthur, assisted the organization of Comanche County and served as its first sheriff.

January 6, 1874, Mr. Arthur was drafted into the Texas Ranger service in Erath County. He served with Company Z during that year and resigned from the service in December, 1874.

He married Miss Elmina Bowen at Stephenville December 31, 1874. He remained in that country until 1899 when he moved to Dickens County, then a very pioneer section. He came by wagon and drove a small herd of stock and settled on a place four miles north of Dickens. He lived on that same section of land until his death last week.

Early in life he made a profession of religion and was baptized into the Church of Christ. He assisted with the organization of the Church of Christ at Midway which was then called Liberty Hill and the site was about two miles south of what is now Midway. This was about 1900, and Mr. Arthur assumed his responsibility as an officer in the church and held some official responsibility from that time on.

He is survived by his widow and three sons: B. T. Arthur of Matador, O. C. Arthur of Spur and E. V. Arthur who lives on the old home place. Three sons, W. B. Arthur, former sheriff; Marvin Arthur and Otho Arthur have been taken by death; and one daughter, Mrs. Irma McNeese, has passed on.

There are 17 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren in the family. Four sisters survive: Mrs. C. J. Keith of Moran, Mrs. M. C. Keith of Dublin, Mrs. May Hill of New Mexico and Mrs. Pallie Vail of Breckenridge.

JAYTON BABY POISONED BY LYE HERE IN HOSPITAL

The 16-months old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Ellison Bybee, of Jayton, was poisoned with lye this week. An older child of the family secured a can of lye from a shelf and set it on the floor where the baby got hold of it. The child was badly burned about the face and mouth with the lye. The parents rushed it to Spur where it was given treatment at the Alexander Hospital. It seems to be getting along very well now.

M. A. Darden, business man of Girard, was transacting business in Spur the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Bynum Brittan, of Ballinger, is in Spur, visiting with home folks and friends.

Kyle Good Died Thursday In Lubbock

Kyle Good, 29, of Lubbock, died in a Lubbock sanitarium Thursday night after being in the sanitarium one day. Mr. Good was affected with a tumor of the brain and had been suffering with headaches for several weeks. Thursday morning he dressed and told his family he was going to the sanitarium for an examination. When he arrived the doctors stated his condition was too far developed for them to render him any relief. He lived until sometime Thursday evening. Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at four o'clock with Rev. W. E. Petterson, pastor of the Lubbock Asbury Methodist Church, officiating. Interment was in Lubbock cemetery.

Mr. Good was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Milt Good of Dickens. He was born at Stanton January 21, 1909. He spent most of his life on the range as a cowboy and was well acquainted with West Texas. July 23, 1931, he was married to Mrs. Mildred Locke, of Dallas, and then established a home in Lubbock where he was associated with the Lubbock Fruit and Vegetable Company. He had worked for that firm eight years.

He is survived by his widow, one son, Milton James, and one step-daughter, Dorothy June, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milt Good of Dickens; four sisters, Mrs. J. V. Woods and Mrs. S. D. Howard of Lubbock, and Misses Gussie Faye and Sibyl Mae Good of Dickens; three brothers, E. H. and Virgil Good of Dickens; and G. W. Good of Levelland.

Mr. Good never affiliated with any church, but attended Sunday School and other church services and took quite an interest in the service. He was Methodist in his attitude, and stated to his mother and other members of his family that he was not afraid to die. He was a young man of sterling character and had the complete confidence of the company for which he worked.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gardner, of Sweetwater, spent Tuesday here visiting with his sister, Mrs. Bob Caraway and Mr. Caraway.

Dr. and Mrs. P. C. Nichols returned the latter part of the week from Galveston, where they attended the medical convention.

Mrs. J. H. Grace, of Galveston, is in Spur this week visiting in the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. E. Dickson and friends of the city.

Mrs. Uel Wylie, of Matador, was in Spur Monday, visiting with her friends.

Stamford Arranging For Cowboy Reunion

Replacements of the old No. 1 grandstand with a larger and more comfortable structure which increases the seating capacity at the rodeo arena by 2,000 is the largest item on the $7,000 improvement program now under way at the Texas Cowboy Reunion grounds just outside the Stamford city limits. The enlargement will give a total grandstand capacity of 10,000 besides the 3,000 bleacher seats.

The new grandstand, as well as the other improvements, will be completed in advance of the opening of the ninth annual Reunion, which will be held on July 4, 5, and 6. The floor of the rodeo arena is being re-graded to give a better take-off for roping contestants as they dash into the arena.

The bucking chutes, pens, judges' stand and directing official's platform also are being rebuilt. A new two-story rodeo office is replacing the smaller structure used for that purpose. As during the past two years, the rodeo arena will be practically dust-free, the ground being treated with a special preparation for that purpose.

Five registering turnstiles of the type used at the Texas Centennial Exposition will be installed at the main entrance to the rodeo arena and a new fence will be built on that side of the show arena.

This year's improvements, along with the superior lighting system installed last season, gives the Cowboy Reunion probably the finest outdoor arena in the United States.

In the chuck wagon area, a steel-towered Demster windmill will lend ranch atmosphere. The mill will be near the east shore of the tank which has been filled with sparking, clear water by abundant rains this spring.

Announcement was made this week in Austin by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, of the inclusion in the Texas Tech College curriculum of a public health course in sanitation to be offered this summer from June 9 to August 25.

This public health course is the first ever to be offered by any Texas college or university and is made possible at Texas Tech College in cooperation with the State Department of Health and the League of Texas Municipalities.

The course is designed for water works operators, sewage plant operators, and sanitarians in the smaller Texas cities who have for some time now demanded Texas public health courses offered within the State by men familiar with Texas problems. For the public health personnel of larger cities, the course will offer an opportunity to broaden their knowledge of public health and its trends.

The public health course will consist of training in plumbing, water works and sewage problems, garbage disposal, rodent control, mesquite control, swimming pool operation, proper handling of milk for distribution, and general sanitation with the inclusion of some field survey work and laboratory exercises.

"We feel that the inclusion of this series of public health courses in the curriculum of Texas Tech College is a step forward in public work in this state, because it makes accessible to so many men an opportunity for study of these problems than if they were forced to go out of the State for these courses. We should like to call attention to this series of courses to the smaller cities particularly, so that plumbing inspectors and sanitary inspectors may be given a chance to attend these courses this summer with resultant bettered operation and maintenance of the municipal health program."

Tons of sawdust from Texas mills will be used this year to control grasshopper plagues in the State, according to the Texas Planning Board. The sawdust is mixed with mill-run bran and sodium arsenite. The grasshoppers like the mixture, gobble it up, then die instantly.

The Adventures of ROBIN HOOD

Warner Bros. Present "THE ADVENTURES OF ROBIN HOOD" in Technicolor, with ERROL FLYNN, OLIVIA DE HAVILLAND, BASIL RATHBONE, CLAUDE RAINS, Patric Knowles, Eugene Fallette, Alan Hale, Melville Cooper, Ian Hunter and Una O'Connor; Directors, Michael Curtiz and William Keighley; Original Screen Play By Norman Krasna, Raine and Seton I. Miller, Based On Robin Hood Legends; Music by Erich Wolfgang Korngold. A First National Picture Fictionalized by Harry Lee

THE STORY THUS FAR: King Richard, leaving for the Crusades in 1191, put England under a Regency, mistrusting his Saxon-hating brother, Prince John. During a joust before the latter, Sir Robin of Locksley, a swash-buckling young Saxon, worsts Sir Guy of Gisbourne, a Norman knight, thus winning the dislike of Lady Marian Fitzwalter, Sir Guy's sweetheart. Word comes that King Richard has been captured and held for ransom abroad. Prince John, scheming to win the crown, begin wholesale persecution of the Saxons. After many daring deeds in the cause of the Saxons, Robin, with his squire, Will Scarlet, and Much-the-Miller's-Son, a poacher, go to the banquet of Norman barons, given by Prince John in Nottingham Castle. The Normans are discussing Robin as he hears the Castle.

CHAPTER III

THE GREAT HALL of Nottingham Castle flared and faded in the light of torches that hung in crevices on the dark stone walls, from which glimmered the gorgeous banners of the Normans—and the long table was surrounded by banqueters.

A lusty company they feasted lustily, using huge slabs of bread for their plates—heaping them high with meat from the spits as the servants passed. They quaked with might, laughter as they gulped the was-sail and gorged the food, and gaunt boar-hounds skulked among the shadows snapping up the morsels that were flung at them.

All those who were false to King Richard were on hand as honored guests of his brother, Prince John—the High Sheriff of Nottingham, his little eyes littler than ever—the sanctimonious Bishop of the Black Canons—and Sir Guy of Gisbourne—with a dozen others of his rank.

Prince John, resplendently bejeweled, partook of neither meat nor drink, but mused darkly on ways and means to raise himself to the seats of the mightiest. At last he turned to the jocular knight next to him and asked a question. All stopped to listen as the oracle spoke.

"Any more objections to the new tax, from our Saxon friends?"

"Objections, Your Highness?" guffawed Sir Geoffrey, "with a Saxon dangling from every gallows from here to Charnwood!" Uproarious laughter greeted this sally. "Well said!" exclaimed Prince John, then, wagging a playful finger at Sir Guy, he added, "But not too many, mind—or we'll have nobody left to till our land and pay our taxes!"

"There's one I'd except, Your Highness," replied Sir Guy venomously, "and that one is Sir Robin of Locksley!"

"Oho, I see, Sir Knight," taunted Prince John. "The one man who jarred the Lady Marian—and you, too, if I remember rightly—on the day of the joust! What's he been doing?"

"Only today I caught him killing a Royal deer in the forest!"

"Did you take him?" shouted Prince John.

"That, Your Highness," began Sir Guy apologetically, "would not have been easy . . . you see I . . ."

"Right!" broke in Sir Geoffrey. "Give the devil his due. Sir Robin of Locksley is the finest archer in all England!"

"But . . ." thundered Prince John off on one of his most terrific tantrums, "killing a Royal deer! I want him brought here at once and hanged! D'ye hear men? Hanged, I say! At once! I'll tolerate no . . ."

He got no further. From beyond the outer doors came sounds that brought the guests to their feet, hands on swords.

The door burst open and Robin entered thrusting the lackeys to right and left. "Who's this?" cried Prince John. Then he remembered, for the young man was striding toward him vigorously with the body of a deer across his shoulders. When he reached the banquet table he glanced at the remnants of the meal and at the Prince, and said with an impudently charming smile, "I hope Sir Guy has given me a better meal than my reception indicates! I no sooner entered the Castle with a bit of meat—than his hungry servants try the dark. One after another the knights vowed fealty to Prince John now that he had made his meaning clear, and swollen with pride he turned to Robin. "And what about you, my good young Saxon cockerel?" Robin of Locksley sprang to his

to snatch it from me!" He turned to Sir Guy saying with mild reproach, "You shouldn't starve them . . . really you shouldn't. They'd work better well-fed!"

With these words he deposited the deer on the table, directly under the high-and-mighty nose of Prince John saying with a ceremonious bow, "With the compliments of your royal brother, King Richard, God bless him!"

Prince John, whose anger had been melting into stupefaction, suddenly sank into his chair, threw back his head, and laughed himself into a state bordering on suffocation.

"By my faith . . ." he panted at last, wiping his eyes, "you're a bold rascal, Robin . . . but I like you! have you had meat?"

"None but this that I brought, Your Highness!"

"Sit down then, sit down! Sit there, opposite me! Get up, Sir Ivor, and give him your place! Ho, varlets, bring Sir Robin food! Plenty of it! Such insolence must support a mighty appetite!"

"It does need something to support it," said Robin genially, helping himself to food from his neighbor's trencher, "for it has little to fatten on when you tax-gathers are thro." You think you're over-taxed?" asked Prince John, with a wink at the scandalized Bishop of the Black Canons.

Robin nodded energetically as he ate.

"Overtaxed, overworked and paid off with a knife or a club or a rope . . ." he murmured dreamily. Suddenly he stopped eating and looked squarely at Prince John. "You know, we Saxons aren't going to put up with it much longer!"

"Oh, you're not aren't you?" cried John, his anger rising.

"Well, listen to me! I called this meeting of my friends . . . to tell them that to pay off Richard's ransom, they've got to collect, not two gold marks on the pound, but three! And the money is to be paid to me!"

"Why to you, Your Highness?" asked Robin with ominous calmness, "when King Richard appointed Longchamps as Regent?"

"I've kicked Longchamps out! From now on, I'm Regent of England!"

As he said the words, his crafty face dark with triumph, Lady Marian came to the upper balcony and looked down on the tense scene. It was as though a star shone through and cut down the nearest. Servants, squires and knights tried to bar his way to the door, but he hacked his way through. A man-at-arms behind him raised his sword to mow him down. At the shrill scream of a woman, Robin whirled—caught the man in the belly with his shoulder, and with terrific force heaved him at his enemies. Then cutting down another he dashed to the doorway. Pausing only to flash up to Marian a salute of thanks with his sword, he was out, pulling the door shut behind him.

Texas Tech Football Coach Pete Cawthon Raps For Admission Into Southwest Race

Behind the picture at Texas Technological College, Lubbock, stands a guiding genius of unusual merit and personality, Pete Cawthon.

And Pete, as mentor of Austin College in 1931, began getting his plans and schemes together, and today he raps for admission of Texas Tech into the Southwest Conference.

The football record during the last seven seasons speaks for itself and for the natural coaching ability of Cawthon and his staff. The win column shows 54; the lost, 19, and the tied, 4. Total points: Tech 1,349; opponents, 463. In 1932, the Red Raiders claimed national high scoring honors with 382 points during the regular season. A couple of spring practice games added 27 points.

Credit to Personality

But close followers of Texas Tech football are inclined to believe that Cawthon's coaching alone is not responsible. The credit a lot of Tech's success to the personality of the man, as well as to the fine staff which surrounds him. Russell T. "Dutchy" Smith, steady line coach, comes in for a lot of credit when Tech fans talk things over.

The man, Cawthon: Physically, he would weigh in as a middleweight. Not a veteran in point of years—his age is about 40—his short clipped hair is leaning toward the gray side. His keen, blue eyes sparkle youthfully in his lighter moods, become steely points of piercing light in his temperamental moments. He is extremely energetic, generally the picture of health, and strong for his size.

A man of moods, Cawthon lets circumstances govern his temperament. Fundamentally pessimistic when it comes to doping his football teams, he is the soul of light-heartedness and bright wit when pressing problems of the gridiron are not pressing. Although modesty is one of his virtues, he is easily met, a generous subject for interview, and never too busy to converse with interviewers.

In dignified company, Cawthon can be dignified too. Well advised on almost any subject, he can converse with persons in practically all walks of life, and make his points clear.

As for his personal habits, Cawthon possibly "lives" as clean a life as any person. He does not smoke, drink or chew anything stronger than chewing gum, keeps close tab on his diet, gets his eight hours of pillow-pounding except during the stress of preparation for a tough game and immediately thereafter, if the score is against him. He does not object to drinking and smoking habits of others, so long as his athletes refrain. In that respect, he is a rigid "trainer," and will tolerate no breaking of training rules.

Mellowed Considerably During the last two years, Cawthon has mellowed considerably in his treatment of and attitude toward "the boys." Whereas he formerly had a reputation for "tough and hard" on his athletes, although none of them complained, he now is more "like one of the boys" and regards them as his equals in every way, rejoices with them when the breaks are going right, sympathizes when his team loses after doing its best.

They like Cawthon around Lubbock. They believe he's the man for the job.

Texas Tech, her followers and boosters not only in West Texas but throughout the state, and many followers of sports in this section believe Red Raider teams should be admitted into the Southwest Conference. They have listed their reasons as follows:

1. Texas Tech is the third largest educational institution of higher learning in Texas, and the largest in the United States, are considered. The enrollment for the current long-session, not counting summer school, is 3,490 students. At the average rate of increase in enrollment Tech will have 5,000 students after three more years. At the end of this semester Tech will have issued more than 3,000 diplomas to graduates who have come from every part of Texas. To these should be added more than 25,000 ex-students who are vitally interested in Tech.

2. The record made by Pete Cawthon's Red Raiders indicates conclusively they are able to play on a par with Southwest Conference elevens. Last season Tech lost three games to Montana, University of

WE WISH YOU GOOD LUCK

"THE QUICK HEAT of the new electric ranges banished an old notion that had haunted me... the ancient idea that electric cooking is slow. These new electric ranges are incredibly fast. You can feel the surge of cooking heat the instant you flip the switch. And they...

COST SO LITTLE to operate! The Keeper of the Wampum in our family practically purrs when he gets our electric bills. I cook for a family of five... but from the cost you'd think I got meals for a midget. Automatic controls give me much more free time, and it's so...

WONDERFULLY CLEAN! I could take a pan right off the burner... and use it as a mirror to powder my nose! Blackened utensils, walls and curtains have gone out of my life forever. Kitchen work is much easier. I don't know how I stood it back in the dark ages before we decided to...

GO MODERN with electric cookery. Every woman who tries one of the new electric ranges will know why I fell in love with mine the day that it arrived!"
