Golf Tournament Held July Fourth

Many people of our town who did not feel disposed to go visiting July 4, spent the day on the golf course getting some good exercise and enjoying association with their neighbors. The day was featured with a flag tournament and several were in the contest and some good scores were turned in, especially after deducting the handicaps.

Ernest George took first place in the tournament and received three new balls. T. C. Ensey was second and was awarded some new balls. Andy Hurst was third and received a new golf ball.

The scores were as follows: Jack Christian, 42. Woody Perrin, 43. McCarty, 42.

C. E. Fisher, 42. Neal Chastain, 42. Carl Arthur, 42.

Red Hurst, 52. Andy Hurst, 42. Darden, 43.

Ensey, 41. George, 39. Fred Kinney, 43.

Those in the tournament enjoyed the day and everybody seems to think the golf still holds its thrills.

Spur course is in excellent condition now with four grass greens and more grass greens coming up. It is tricky and when anyone gets a par on that course they have done some real golfing.

FSA Group to Help Farmers Hurt by Rain

Services of the Dickens County Farm Debt Adjustment Committee in relieving possible distress among farmers caused by excessive rain was volunteered today by chairman W. J. Collier.

"Our committee feels that farmers should seek our help when they first realize they are not going to be able to pay their debts," Mr. Collier said, "not wait until they have become delinquent. A lot of distress later can be avoided."

The Farm Debt Adjustment committee, which is sponsored by the Farm Security Administration, helps farmers and their creditors work out agreements that are fair to both parties. These agreements permit the farmers to pay his debts as he is able and in many cases FSA advances its loan and advisory service to help him become more able to pay.

With his work at the University of Texas this summer, he has acquired a broad field in laboratory work and an extended knowledge of disease and bacilli activity.

All School Transfers To Be Made This Month

In compliance with the school laws of Texas all transfers for children from one district to another must be made before August 1. County Superintendent O. L. Kelley stated this week that people may contact him at his office in Dickens most any time as proper blanks can be had there and also, he stated he will be on the streets of Spur each Saturday from now on where people may contact him and arrange for transfers. After August 1 no transfers can be made.

School Money from State Received

County Superintendent O. L. Kelley announced this week that his office was in receipt of a check from the State Department of Education in the amount of $1,012.00 to be applied on transportation funds in the county. He stated this makes 86 per cent of the approved amount that had been paid by the State Department. The amount approved was $16,875.00 for the year 1940-41 school term. The amount received on this fund by the county to support the 20 buses is $14,513.00.

There still remains a per capita payment of two dollars yet due the county to be paid from the State Department. This amount will run into the thousands of dollars for Dickens County schools if it is paid. Possibly it will not be received until this fall.

There still remains about half of the vocational reimbursement fund yet to be paid by the State Department. If all state funds are paid, there will be some money with which to start the schools this fall.

V. C. Smart, Jr., a student at Texas Technological College, spent a few days here the last of the week with his parents Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Smart.

The committee on horse racing is Johnny Koonsman and Leo Speer. Nobody will want to miss this picnic this year.

People to Vote on Band Question Tuesday

The property tax paying citizens of Spur will go to the polls next Tuesday and vote on the question of Spur providing for a municipal band. This question will involve a small expense, which, if distributed over the entire city will be very small to any one. The average home owner in Spur will have to pay an amount which possibly will not exceed $1.50 each year, or about 12½ cents per month. Many people have paid many times that amount to keep our present band going.

The election will be held in the Director's Room of the Spur Security Bank with J. I. Mecom as election judge. The polls will open at eight o'clock Tuesday morning and will close at six o'clock Tuesday afternoon making the required nine hours for all municipal elections.

All property tax paying voters will be eligible to vote in this election. A person who just pays a poll tax and does not pay property tax in addition, is not eligible to vote in this election. The laws says property tax-paying voters.

Harris Street is to be paved along with the paving of this highway from Willard Avenue to the western city limits. The curb and gutter on all properties have been put in for this pavement, and it is thought now that it will have been completed within the near future.

Beauty Review Commands Large Audience

The bathing beauty review Friday night was favored with a very large number of people. About thirty bathing beauties were in the contest and the interest was at a high tension.

The young ladies representing different business firms were announced and marched around the pool in order that everybody might be able to see them. At the same time the judges selected were making a check-up on the contestants to select the best and near best of the group. It was no small matter to select a first, second and third winner from that group of young ladies as it seemed all of them were eligible to be winners.

The judges asked that eight young ladies make their second appearance and from that eight they made their choices for the different ranks.

Miss Melba Lewis, representing the Elliott Appliance was selected as first place winner and was awarded the loving cup and accorded the honor of Miss Spur for 1941.

Miss Janice Gibson, representing the Jimison Beauty Shop, was selected for second place. She was awarded a prize of thirty free swims at the Spur pool.

Miss Allene Morrow, representing Polly's Shop, was given third place honors and was awarded a ticket for 15 swims at the Spur pool.

Others in the contest who were close to the winners were: Miss Louise Ince, representing the Red Front Drug Store; Miss Betty Jo Allredge, representing the Texas Spur; Miss Robbie Hoover, representing Henry Alexander and Company; Miss Ouida Lis-enby, representing the Food-Way Store; and Miss Marie Whitwell, representing the West Texas Utilities Company.

After the review and contest closed the Spur pool was filled with swimmers who completed their Fourth of July pleasures by cooling off with good swims. Spur's pool is one of the best in the country with plenty of clear water going through a sterilizer all the time to keep it pure and to prevent any contamination should there be cause for such.

The pool is operated by Messrs. Jeff Smart, Ross Culbert and Bob Weaver, all of whom are good swimmers. There are life guards on duty all the time.

I WOULD BE FREE
 The truth makes some men proud, The truth makes some men humble. I want to be made humble.

Though the truth unheeded condemns, The truth is meant to make men free, I desire to be humble and free.

If I were the author of truth, I might have reason to be proud. But being only the unworthy recipient of the blessings that truth provides I cannot be too humble if I would be free.

Lord, make me both humble and free, I pray.

Prepare to make money and at the same time be of service in the nation's Defense Program.

A father was in our office a few days ago to arrange for the enrolling of his daughter who was graduating from high school and he remarked,

"This is a splendid time for a young man or woman to attend a business school and secure their business training for it looks like there is going to be plenty of good positions for them."

This father was right. We are receiving more calls each week for Byrne graduates than we can supply.

Need More in Tech Textile Department

"We have, in my opinion, the finest textile school in the United States at Lubbock. It is under-manned and under-equipped. It is the 'neglected baby'. This observation was made by Walter Dillard, vice-president and general manager of the New Braunfels Textile Mills, in a speech delivered at the second Annual Cotton Research Congress at Waco, June 26.

Lewis B. Thomas, instructor in textile engineering at Tech, represented the college at the meeting.

Mr. Dillard said further: "I attempted to employ one or more men from Tech and was told that all of the boys had jobs and more jobs were waiting for them so you see that other parts of the country want Texas brains. What Texas needs is some of the other parts of the country's money or vision enough to spend some of our own."

Mr. Dillard believes that one of the basic flaws in textile mill education is that we are training operators and not training leaders. Tech is an exception, however, as operators from the school are educated also for executive positions.

Mr. Dillard pointed out that Texas has all the advantages to encourage growth of the textile mill industry. It is the world's greatest cotton growing region. It has low living costs, intelligent labor, and a mild, healthful climate. There is no state income tax. There are many deep water ports and adequate power. A new anti-strike law has just been passed.

"There are two major factors," continued Mr. Dillard, "which will retard industrial development in Texas unless we correct them. The first is the structure of freight rates, which must be equalized if Texas manufacturers are to compete successfully with other sections of the country. The other is less governmental interference — threats of processing taxes and the like."

There is, stresses Mr. Dillard, a demand in Texas for four finishing plants. One 75,000 spindle mill and its equipment, including a finishing plant, would save the cutters in Texas $100,000 per year on freight alone.

He predicts a movement of the Textile industry from the northeast to the southwest as soon as the national emergency is over.

Texas, Mr. Dillard says, does not want large cotton mills but many small specialized units, which can be placed in the small towns of Texas.

Trees and shrubs make an ideal harbor for poultry, protecting them from the wind, hot sun and predatory birds and animals.

Putting pigs on "hardening" feeds before they are too heavy will help swine growers avoid the problem of "soft pork" which results primarily from fattening hogs on such oil-rich feeds as peanuts, soy beans, and rice polish, according to specialists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

U. of T. to Extend Research Bureau

In line with the policy, "The University of Texas Serves the State," the school proposes to reorganize one of its research bureaus into a state-wide service agency.

The Bureau of Research in the Social Sciences plans to revamp its set-up to make its publications, research facilities and other services available to citizens over the state.

Three major functions will be assumed under the plan of reorganization: (1) to serve as a repository for social science information about Texas, with intensified investigations in state and community fields; (2) to publish reports giving information of public interest concerning state problems; and (3) to afford research and survey assistance to state departments and Texas political subdivisions.

Clean, fresh water in sanitary containers should be kept before young turkeys. Water should be shaded in hot weather because poult will drink more if it is cool.

Farmer's Short Course Has Big Program

A two-days' program, packed with discussion subjects of primary interest to Texas farm and ranch people, has been prepared for the 1941 Farmers' Short Course, which will be held at Texas A. and M. College, July 13, 14 and 15. Coke R. Stevenson, Lieutenant Governor of Texas, will be the principal speaker at an open air meeting in Kyle Stadium Monday, at 7:30 p. m. Mrs. Nancy Richey Ransom of Dallas, poet laureate of the state, will be on the program with the Lieutenant Governor. The adult section of the Short Course will be concluded with a program in the Stadium at 7:30 p. m. on Tuesday, at which Roy Dickerson of the Federal Security, Washington, will speak and the students of the Stephen F. Austin High School, Bryan, will perform a pageant, "Freedom We Defend."

Tours of the A. and M. College Campus, with visits to the college and administrative buildings, will be conducted by members of the college staffs from 2 to 5 p. m. Sunday.

The formal program will be inaugurated at 7:45 a. m. Monday in Guion Hall with George E. Adams, vice director of the Extension Service, presiding. Dean E. J. Kyle of the College will extend greetings and prominent guests will be introduced. Thirty-four sectional meetings will be held during the forenoon of Monday and a like number in the afternoon, and 32 and 36, respectively, on Tuesday. These meetings will be so spaced that visitors will be able to hear as many of the discussions as they desire.

Among the highlights on Monday's program are: Discussions of problems submitted by county land use planning committees, Bassett Orr and C. A. Bonnen, speakers; fundamental of organization common to various types of organizations, Helen Swift, speaker; agriculture credit clinic, Louise Bryant, T. R.
