PARKS-BARNETT RITES

Mrs. Velma Hayes Parks, daughter of Mrs. Jessie Hayes, of Clifton, became the bride of W. C. Barnett, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Barnett of Valley Mills, at the home of the bride's grandfather, Frank Brittain at Clifton Sunday afternoon at five o'clock. Rev. Peyton Waddell, of Garland, officiated at the ceremony.

The bride wore her mother's wedding dress of white China silk with long full skirt and narrow baby blue velvet ribbon. Her only ornament was a string of pearls worn by her maternal grandmother. She carried a corsage of yellow gladiolas, and was given in marriage by her grandfather.

The groom was attended by his father.

Following the ceremony a reception was held. From a lace covered table was served a three tier wedding cake with miniature bride and groom and punch to the following out of town guests; Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hayes and Sue of Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Holly, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Roller and Mr. and Mrs. Otis Hulme of Houston; Mrs. J. P. Maupin of Oklahoma City, Okla., Mrs. Clark Lewis Spur, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Barnett, Mrs. Hubert Miller and Mrs. Duane Skiles of Valley Mills, Miss Lucille Cane of Beloxi, Miss, Miss Jean Howard of Austin, Mrs. Walter T. Bolton and children of Kirbyville, Mrs. Peyton Waddell and children of Garland, Mrs. C. H. Waddell of Lubbock, Mrs. Joe Butler, Misses Loupie Cave and Mary Thomason of Clifton.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnett will make their home at Goldthwaite where he is city manager.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wolfe and daughter, Miss. Elizabeth returned Monday from Hubbard where they visited Mrs. Wolf's mother, Mrs. Mary Norris; and from Bynum where they visited Mr. Wolf's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Wolfe.

The Bible

By Jas. Victor Allen

The guide is a familiar figure in history and experience. When we travel in a strange or dangerous land, we need the service of a reliable guide to show us the way, to tell us of the points of interest, to warn us of danger, and to bring us safely to our destination.

How much more, then, do we need as a guide as we travel through our span of life? Life, as every thing else, has not only its happiness but also its sorrows which should be avoided. Why then should we not use the Bible as our guide through life? Is it not God's eternal word unto salvation which will give us everlasting life if we follow its precepts? Does not warn us of the sinful things of this life? Why then should we not use it as our guide?

The Bible is a book, yet it is made up of many books. It is, therefore, a library of knowledge to all who seek therein. It is made up of sixty-six different books; yet it can be called one book as each offers something towards a unified message.

It is considered the best selling book in the world as over two million copies are sold each year. It is printed in 770 languages and dialects—practically everyone in the world. Even so, there are 35,000,000 people in the United States alone, without Bibles.

The Bible is full of sound advice for daily life. It offers wisdom to the business man. It is the best guide for family life. It is a good guide-book for lovers. Yes, it is equally a guide for the politician and statesman.

Of the Bible, many things, both good and bad, have been said. Voltaire said: "In less than one hundred years Christianity will have been swept from existence and will have passed into history."

The century is long past and gone and Voltaire with it. Except for his ignominious attack upon the Bible, he would have been forgotten, while the Bible and Christianity "Liveth and Abideth Forever."

Walter Scott in his last illness, when he asked what book he wanted his attendant to read to him, replied: "What book? There is but one book!"

John Ruskin wrote: "To my early knowledge of the Bible, I owe the best part of my taste in literature, and the most precious, and on the whole, the one essential part of my education."

Napoleon Bonaparte impresses most people as being pompous and self-centered, but he cheerfully paid high tribute to the Christ when he said: "Superficial minds see a resemblance between Christ and the founders of empires, and the gods of other religions. That resemblance does not exist. There is between Christianity and whatever other religions the distance of infinity."

Great men, rich men, poor men—all pay homage to Christ and to the Bible.

Some ask the question: what is the story of the Bible? This may be answered by the simple statement that it is the story of man and God.

Man was created sinless, like God, in the garden of Eden.

Man sinned and lost his place in the garden.

Man, by his disobedience became separate from God.

Man was under the condemnation because of his sins.

Man was unable to be reconciled to God by himself.

God immediately set forth to promise and to foretell the coming of His son as the Saviour of the world through the laws which He gave. Christ came, lived, labored, loved, blessed, suffered, died, was buried, arose again, returned to the Father and is now interceding for us, His people. While here on earth, he fulfilled the prophecy of old, established the gospel to save, commissioned his followers to preach the gospel and establish His church, arranged for, and promised to send the Holy Spirit to guide in all this work of redemption.

The Holy Spirit came and guided the apostles, early church workers, the church itself, and the writing of the New Testament which is our guiding light today.

In all this God reveals to man how he may be reconciled to his heavenly father and how his relationship with God may be regained, through obedience, that which Adam lost by his disobedience.

If all this be so, then why not take the Bible as your guide through life, for it is clearly stated that the religion it offers is not limited to any time or generation; nor to any race, nation or tribe; nor to east, west, north or south; nor to males or females, bond or free, rich or poor but all men upon the earth.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Frances Virginia Jopling, one daughter, Mrs. Iva Edwards of Lubbock and two sons, O. E. Jopling and J. L. Jopling, both of Spur. One son preceded him in death—Joseph Irvin Jopling. There are six grandchildren and two great grandchildren in the family. One sister, Mrs. Alice Stevens of Corpus Christi, still survives.

son preceded him in death—Joseph Irvin Jopling. There are six grandchildren and two great grandchildren in the family. One sister, Mrs. Alice Stevens of Corpus Christi, still survives.

Mr. Jopling was born at Belton October 20, 1863. He was a son of the late J. J. and Julia Chandler Jopling who came to Texas from Arkansas. He was married to Miss Frances Virginia Sparks January 23, 1881.

Mr. Jopling moved his family to Dickens County in 1910 and was a citizen here 32 years. He served the county as Tax Assessor in early days and served as City and School Tax Collector for Spur several years. He was elected Justice of the Peace for Precinct No. 3 and served several years resigning from the office the early part of this year on account of his health. He was a fair judge in all cases that came before his court.

When just a young man he was converted and joined the Methodist Church. He was a faithful and devoted member until his death.

Make Your Sugar Go Further in Canning

If you feel that you are going to have difficulty in preserving your foods at home this year, here are some tips that might help you, from Fae Bass, County Home Demonstration Agent of the A and M Extension Service.

In order to make our one pound of sugar for every four quarts of finished fruit go farther why not try thinner syrups for canning fruits and fruit juices instead of juices? A little sugar is needed in canning most fruits to develop the flavor and preserve the color. Less sugar will be needed if the fruit juice is used for the syrup instead of water. Then this juice may be used in punch later.

Corn syrup and honey are quite good in canning. Use 1-2 cup corn syrup to 1-2 cup of water or 1-4 cup of honey to 3-4 cup of water, for a light syrup. Honey is especially good in sweet pickles, probably better than sugar. Of course, honey and corn syrup are more expensive than sugar.

A Florida experiment station scientist recommends making invert sugar to make it go further. To do this, mix one cup of sugar and 14 tablespoons of water. Add one-fourth teaspoon of tartaric acid (which you can get at any drug store). Cover this sugar water and tataric acid mixture and boil gently for thirty minutes. Allow it to cool. Then you have invert sugar syrup. Each cup is equal in sweetening to a cup of sugar. In other words, it is about 1 3-4 times as sweet as the same weight in plain sugar. This syrup is excellent in use of canning, and it may be diluted one-half syrup and one-half water. It is also good in sweetening fruits, cereals, ice cream and beverages.

Those who have freezer lockers should take advantage of the excellent products which can be gotten from freezing certain fruits and vegetables, says Miss Bass. Especially good are sliced peaches, all kinds of berries, corn, greens, green lima beans, and asparagus. In sweetening the fruits for freezing one part of dry sugar to six parts of fruit may be used, or one cup corn syrup and one-half cup water may be used for a syrup to pour over the fruits.

Further information about canning, freezing, and drying foods may be obtained at the Home Demonstration

Agent's office in Dickens or the Dickens County Library at Spur.

Here is a recipe for sweet pickles which should be good:

3 cups honey 2 cups water
3 cups vinegar 1 teaspoon salt
Bring these ingredients to a boil. Add fruit and cook until tender. Pack in sterilized jars, cover with pickling syrup and seal.

For apples tie the spices (cloves and cinnamon) in cheesecloth sack and boil in pickling syrup. For pears and peaches stick two or three whole cloves in the fruit and allow stick cinnamon to cook in the pickling syrup.

In substituting corn syrup, use 5 cups corn syrup and omit the water.

Be Careful of Cords
Cords are precious. Lamps and appliances just can't get along without them, and Uncle Sam needs the copper and rubber they contain for war materials.

Judging by that, it's our job to prolong the life of the cords we already have on hand.
Cords can take it, though, if you handle them with care and repair them at the first sign of wear. First of all, remember that cords bruise easily -- and see that they don't get knotted and twisted or shoved into a drawer any-which-way. Such rough treatment wears out the insulation and leads to exposed wires and possible shock or to short circuits and blown fuses.
Instead, wrap the cord around a small appliance when it isn't in use. Wait until the appliance is cool, of course, for heat damages the covering of a cord as much as careless treatment. Hang extra cords on a well-rounded hook or coil them loosely and fasten them with a metal clip or rubber band before putting them away. Always connect a cord at the appliance end first, then at the wall outlet. To disconnect it, grasp the plug at the wall outlet and remove it with a firm quick motion. Never yank the cord itself -- it's a strain on the cord, and it isn't safe either.
Once a cord becomes frayed, it should be repaired right away by someone who knows how. Husbands usually do, and it's something you can learn, too, with a little coaching. If only the covering of the cord is worn, it's safe to wind it with friction tape. Don't attempt to mend a broken plug -- it should be replaced.

*Lamb and Vegetable Fricassee Recipe
4 large neck slices of lamb (3/4 lb.) (Have butcher cut neck slices about 1-inch thick)
2 tablespoons fat
1 cup tomato juice
2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
3 large potatoes, quartered
4 carrots, halved
8 small onions
2 cups celery, cut in 2 inch pieces
1 1/2 tablespoons flour
2 tablespoons cold water
Brown lamb quickly in hot fat on both sides in skillet. Drain off fat. Add tomato juice, 1 teaspoon salt and 1/2 teaspoon pepper. Cover and simmer one hour. Add onions, potatoes and carrots in liquid. Top with the celery and sprinkle remaining salt and pepper over top of vegetables and cook 30 minutes longer. Mix flour with water to smooth paste. Add gradually to hot liquid, stirring carefully until thickened, taking care not to break the vegetables while stirring.

A Valuable Publication

The people of West Texas will have the privilege of knowing the records of their U. S. Senators, and their Representatives in Congress in the first and second sessions of the 77th Congress now since J. H. Thompson, of Canyon, is getting out his little book on the records. This little book is coming off press this week and it has information that every farmer in Texas should know. There is the vote record with full explanation on 21 important bills in the first session of Congress and eight important bills in the second session of Congress that is given in the Senate, showing how every U. S. Senator voted, if he voted at all. There are 53 important bills showing how members of the House voted, if they voted.
The voters elect men and send them to congress and never once try to check up on their records. Fortunately the people have elected American citizens instead of politicians most of the time. But, times are changing and it should be the duty of the people to learn whether or not they have elected men to Congress of the people as a whole or of special corporations. This little book will give you some idea of how your senator and representative have been voting. You should have a copy. Write Mr. Thompson about it before you vote.
Also, this little book announces the bills and tells you how your State Senator and your Representative in Texas Legislature voted on bills in the 47th regular session. There are 26 vote records in the state Senate and 18 vote records in the House Recorded in this little book. Do you know whether or not your State Senators and Representatives have been voting for your interests? They are the people you are employing to look after your interests. It is about time you are finding out about them, don't you think?

This little book by Mr. Thompson

CALLIHAN-PIPKIN RITES READ

Miss Ruby Maxine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Callihan became the bride of Henry Lawrence Pipkin, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Pipkin, Thursday, June 25, at the home of the bride's parents near McAdoo at three o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Frank Beauchamp, of Abernathy.
The bride wore a white dress with accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The wedding march was played by Miss Myra Nell Neeley. The bride's only attendant was Miss Oma Grace Hickman. Nathan Pipkin was best man to his brother.
A small reception was given for the relatives of the bride and groom. Hostesses were Mrs. Quinton Payne, sister to the bride, and Miss Verna Mae Hickman.
Mr. and Mrs. Pipkin left for their honeymoon amidst shower of rice in a car typically decorated with "Just Married" signs and old shoes.

Cotton In War And Peace Will Be Discussed at Third Cotton Congress

"Cotton in War and Peace" will be the men of the Third Annual Cotton Congress at the Baker Hotel in Dallas, July 9-10, under the sponsorship of the State-wide Cotton Committee of Texas, Burris C. Jackson, Hillsboro, has announced.
Director A. B. Comer of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station is Congress Chairman. A. L. Ward, Dallas, Educational Director, National Cottonseed Products Association; H. H. Williamson, College Station, Director, Texas Extension service; and Dr. A. B. Cox, Austin, Director Bureau of Business Research, University of Texas (are program chairmen for the three Congress sessions. More than thirty Texas organizations as the Cotton-Textile Institute and National Cotton Council are cooperating in the convention program, to be featured by a large number of exhibits of products and potential products made from cotton and cottonseed, as well as speeches by leaders in the cotton industry.

Nationally-known speakers on the Congress program will include: Dr. Henry G. Knight, chief, Bureau of Agricultural Chemistry and Engineering, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington; Doctor Claudius T. Murchison, president, The Cotton Textile Institute, New ory; Ed Lipscomb, director, Domestic Consumption Section, National Cotton Council of America; and others.
Cotton and cottonseed products are an important part in the war effort and in post-war developments will be stressed at the 1942 Congress, and the program has been planned especially to be of interest and value to industrialists, bankers, chamber of commerce executives and other business leaders, as well as to several hundred members of the cotton industry who will attend the two-day session.

OUR NATIONAL BIRTHDAY—SPUR STORES WILL CLOSE TO SHOW THEIR RESPECT

The Fourth of July just did not happen—it grew out of a great principle which was established by human sacrifice. It is the Birthday of Our Nation, because it was the day on which the Continental Congress approved the Declaration of Independence of the United States.

That Declaration of Independence meant the severance of relationship with the Mother Country—a nation that the United Colonies loved and respected. All of this had to be given up and the loyalty to a King had to be broken. Yet our forefathers stepped out in zeal and courage and expressed themselves as willing to die that a new nation might be conceived in Liberty. A Nation where the rights and Sovereignty were in the hands of its people. That Declaration was the foundation of our liberties and privileges today. It involves the same principles for which our country is fighting today, and for which our gallant young men are freely giving their lives on the alter of liberty.

It is no more than fitting for us to close our places—The Birth of our Country.

DR LAKE CLUB MEETING
The Dry Lake Home Demonstration Club met Wednesday, June 17, in an all day session at the home of Mrs. Coy Dopson. Testing of pressure cookers was carried out in the morning and several cookers were tested. After an elegant noon meal Miss Bass gave a demonstration on drying fruits and vegetables. "And some very inviting Victory desserts, or entrees," says Miss Bass, "Are frozen fruits packed in a solution made with white syrup."
After the business session and the second afghan was completed all enjoyed an interesting recreational game. The prize was won by Mrs. Jeff Smith.
The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Ellis Draper Wednesday, July 1. Those to enjoy the day were nine members, four new members and seven visitors.
—Reporter
N. Riter, president of the Riter Hardware Company, is reported confinied to his bed at this time. His advanced age causes sickness to be very serious to him. It is hoped he will be out again soon.

Miss Faye Jameson, of Abilene is in Spur this week visiting relatives and friends. She was at one time with Speer's 5-Cent to 5-Dollar Store.
Mrs. H. F. Smith, Mrs. R. G. Goodall and daughter, Shirley, Anne, Miss Thelma Smith, and Jean Helen Rushin, all of Jayton, were trading in Spur Tuesday. They complimented the Times very highly and asked that it be sent to them.
Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Legg, of Croton community, were in Spur Wednesday doing some trading and enjoying friends. They called at the Times office to have their paper changed to Dumont office where they can get rural route service. They spoke very highly of the Times and set their subscription in advance quite a long time.

John McClesky, manager of the Afton Co-op Gin, was in Spur Wednesday looking after business matters. He is just beginning his work as manager, but he goes at the job like an old experienced hand.
At an adjourned meeting of Fort Worth Presbytery held in the First Presbyterian Church of Cisco, Jack Ramsay was taken under the care of the Presbytery as a candidate for the Presbyterian Ministry, after both a committee and a public examination.
Jack finished his sophomore year at Davidson College, Davidson, North Carolina early in June. He expects to return in September to Davidson. Following the requirements of the Presbyterian Church Jack will not be eligible to preach as an ordained minister until after he completes two more years of College and the three post-graduate years of Theological Seminary.

Albert Jordan, of Steel Hill, was in Spur Saturday enjoying friends and looking after business matters.
Mr. and Mrs. Lee Taylor of Croton community, were in Spur Saturday doing some trading and meeting friends.
Pete Robinson, of Highway community, was attending to business matters and greeting friends in Spur Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. J. M. French of Midway country, were in Spur Saturday looking after business affairs and meeting friends.
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Atchison, of Midway country, were in Spur Saturday looking after business affairs and meeting friends.

Sam T. Battles, of Dickens, was in town Saturday doing some trading and meeting friends.

W. T. Link Asks For Chief Justice . . . Court Civil Appeals
W. T. Link, Prominent attorney of Donley County is asking the voters of the Seventh District Court of Civil Appeals to elect him Chief Justice of that Court. Mr. Link has never held a public office during his 56 years of life. He has been unanimously endorsed for that office by the 100th Judicial District Bar Association, and lawyers all over West Texas speak of him as an able barrister.
An attorney who is well acquainted with all lawyers in West Texas stated that Mr. Link has less connection with corporations than any other man in the race. He is not a big corporation lawyer, although he is a big lawyer. If elected he will be the Chief Justice for all the people in all of the 46 counties in the Seventh Civil Appeals District.

When a young man he spent four years in the United States Navy and made a very commendable record. He is a loyal American citizen and is for his country one hundred per cent.
He has two opponents in the race who hold a public office and draw salary from the people. Mr. Link says that is wrong and that a man who is "A District Judge should resign before making the race for Chief Justice." The office of District Judge pay $5,000.00 per year, or about $17.00 per day. Mr. Link feels it is wrong for a man to draw that much money from the people and then spend his time making a campaign.
We believe that people who support Mr. Link for Chief Justice will be proud that they did so, and his record as a citizen and a lawyer is forthy of any voter's consideration.
A Friend.

ocracies did not act together to force Nazi withdrawal. Hitler again said he wanted no more territory in Europe. Several months later the democracies agreed to give Hitler Czech Sudetenland at Munich. Once more Hitler said he wanted no more territory in Europe.

1939
Hitler seized the rest of Czechoslovakia. Again said he wanted no more territory in Europe. During the latter part of March, Britain and France guaranteed to aid Poland against aggression. Several days later, Mussolini seized Albania. The Russo-German non-aggression pact was concluded. Hitler invaded Poland. Britain and France declared war on Hitler.

1940
Hitler invaded neutral Norway and Denmark. He invaded neutral Netherlands and Belgium. Italy, seeing France Prostrate, declared war. Japan occupied bases in French Indo-China near Singapore, East Indies and Burma Road. Japan signed a military alliance with Germany and Italy which was directed in effect, at the United States. Italy attacked neutral Greece.

Farmers Ask for Fair Chance to Meet Food For Victory Goals

Petitions for Congress—Petitions signed by 16,000 Texas farmers asking for a fair chance to meet Food for Victory Goals through average parity prices on all agricultural commodities were sent to Congress last week from state headquarters of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation in Waco.

Shown above are a portion of the 2,500 copies of the petition on display in state Farm Bureau offices just before being relayed to Texas congressmen in Washington.

The petitions, which were circulated by county community Farm Bureau leaders in more than 200 counties, are shown here lined up by congressional districts. Each of the 21 Texas congressmen received copies signed by farmers in his district, and master lists from the entire state were sent to Senators Connally and O'Daniel.

The petition urges Congress to retain the 85 to 110 per cent of parity market price provided in the present price control law so that farmers will have a reasonable chance to average parity for their products and thus be able, in the face of rising production costs, to produce the food and fiber needed to defeat the axis.

Supt. O. G. Joiner, of McAdoo Schools, was in Spur Saturday attending to business matters and greeting friends.

Mrs. Lance Hurst, of Dallas, spent the week end here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Andy Hurst.
