March 8-17 Dates Set For Fat Stock Show

FORT WORTH.—Bridging the gap between trail driving days and 1946, the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show will observe its 50th anniversary in Fort Worth March 8-17. Ten million longhorns were driven over the winding cattle trails from Texas to the northern railheads between 1865 and 1890. Then came the railroads to Texas, and the trails were no more. Early day cattlemen began importing purebred cattle in the eighties.

By 1896 the Texas cattlemen were so sure of their progress in developing improved herds that they decided to hold a stock show. Four leaders held their first show the first in the Southwest, on what is now the site of two mighty packing industries in North Fort Worth.

The new management of the Fat Stock Show, headed by Edgar Deen as general manager, is making elaborate plans for the 50th anniversary, which will denote half a century of progress in the livestock industry.

It will be the third consecutive year for the exposition in its new location, the Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum, and the first show season for Deen, who last April succeeded John B. Davis who retired after nineteen years as secretary-manager. Deen, a salesman by profession and mayor pro tem of Fort Worth, has opened a few pages of the official program to reveal plans which indicate the 1946 show will be new and different, the best ever held in Fort Worth.

Top billing on the stock show program will go to the Gene Auto Rodeo, which will be produced by the popular singing star of western movies, and his associates, Everett E. Colborn of Dublin, Texas, will be managing director.

Cagers Win, Lose In Pair of Games With Albany Teams

The Haskell basketball boys swapped away Friday night when they lost the B game but came up with a win when the A team slapped a 30-28 score on the visitors. Score for the B game was 21-19.

Corzine of Haskell was the first man to score. But Isbell came up shortly to tie the score. It was nip and tuck for both teams all during the game. The score at the first quarter was only 7-4, and at the half, 15-10.

The A game provided fine entertainment for all spectators, as the boys really put out all they had. It looked like Haskell would have a pretty sure chance of winning at the half, but Albany came back fighting, and before the last half was over it could have been anybody's ball game.

Byrd was Haskell's first man to score, then only with a free shot, but Tooley came in with a long shot that put them off to a flying start. Albany was not to be left behind until the last quarter. Thompson, Albany's center, tied the game about the middle of the last quarter. Smalley's fast shot put Albany in the lead but it wasn't long until Byrd brought the local boys out of trouble with a win of 30-28.

High point men for the A game were: Tooley, 16; Byrd, 10; Smalley, 9; Thompson, 5. For the B game: Isbell, 14; Byrd, 11. Byrd played in both games and earned a total of 21 points for Haskell.

Lineup for the A game were: Haskell—Byrd, Tooley, Peiser, Strain and Greenway. Albany—Smith, Burton, Viertel, Smalley, and Jumper.

J. Cleo Scott, superintendent of Haskell schools, was referee for both games.

Next home game will be with Hamlin at the local gym. Everyone is urged to attend and support the hometown quintet.

Victim Says Sack of Feed in Road Causes Wreck Killing Two Monday

Jury Finds Newberry Innocent of Charge Of Drunken Driving

It took a jury only thirteen minutes Tuesday morning in District Court before Judge Ben Charlie Chapman to find J. R. Newberry of Rochester innocent of a charge of driving while intoxicated. It was the second such charge against the defendant, making it a felony. In his address to the jury, T. R. Odell, defense counsel, stressed the points that it was incumbent upon the state to prove Newberry was intoxicated, that he was driving upon a public highway and that he had previously been convicted of a similar charge. It was his contention that none of the points had been proved. Fred Stockdale, district attorney, and Arthur Foster, county attorney, represented the state. Stockdale made the final address to the jury. The jury for the trial was selected by two o'clock Monday afternoon and examination of the witnesses began. State witnesses were Sheriff Mart Clifton, J. R. Cooper of Rochester, Luke Martin of Rochester and Henry Williams of Hamlin, who appeared in that order. Newberry then testified in his own behalf, whose testimony was corroborated by Henry Callahan of Rochester, the second and final witness for the defense. Callahan was with the defendant when the latter was arrested by Clifton July 30 last year.

The jury recessed at 5:15 Monday and heard Judge Chapman read the charge about ten o'clock Monday after which arguments were begun. The jury retired at 10:50 o'clock Tuesday morning and returned to the courtroom again at 11:03.

Members of the jury were W. L. Richey, foreman; S. E. Lanier, Martin Rueffer, Morris Gannaway, Lee Corzine, J. B. Bell, W. A. Arend, Adell Thomas, E. F. Naurert, A. Y. Barnes, George Crofford and C. B. Lackey.

Grimsley's Condition At Haskell Hospital Believed Not Critical

The condition of W. S. Grimsley, 51, of near Weiner, was reported as good today by Haskell County Hospital attendants where he was taken following a car-truck crash on the highway about six miles north of Haskell Monday night about 7 o'clock in which two men were killed. Dead were James Dudley Boone, 64, Grimsley's neighbor near Weiner, and Joe Davis Montgomery, 50, of Throckmorton.

Grimsley said Wednesday that a sack of feed on the highway had caused his car to swerve and ram the back of the pickup that was parked with a flat tire on the shoulder of the highway on the west side. Both vehicles were facing south coming toward Haskell.

"I saw the truck some distance before I got to it, but I did not see the sack of feed until I was nearly to it. I pulled my car to the left in an attempt to miss the sack. My right front wheel struck the sack and threw my car into the truck," Grimsley said.

Cal Wilfong, who was with the two who were killed, was under the truck working with a jack when he heard Montgomery call out to watch out. Boone and Montgomery were lifting on the right rear side of the truck where the flat was when the car hit them. The bodies of both men were badly mangled. The body of Montgomery was thrown about sixty feet down the highway. Wilfong was not injured. Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Winchester came upon the wreck soon afterward. They came to Haskell and notified Bill Alden, who took an ambulance to the wreck.

Boone and Montgomery were killed instantly and Wilfong and Grimsley appeared to have escaped death miraculously. Grimsley said he was rendered unconscious and could recall only flashes of memory until some time the following morning. His nose was broken and cut severely and he suffered from shock and bruises. What was first believed to be serious internal injuries about the chest developed to be bruises.

Wilfong said the three men had stopped three times previously to look at the tire that was low and finally selected the spot where they were when the accident occurred because the ground was firm there. They were returning from Monday where they had been to get feed.

Sheriff Mart Clifton went to the scene of the accident soon after it happened, notifying state highway patrolmen in Stamford before leaving. Patrolmen E. W. Green and Homer Bailey arrived at the scene of the accident soon after Sheriff Clifton got there. The 1942 Chevrolet sedan that Grimsley was driving was badly wrecked, but the GMC pickup was only slightly damaged. It was knocked some sixty feet down the highway.

Funeral service for Boone was held Tuesday at the home of his mother, Mrs. J. S. Boone in Haskell. Dr. J. T. McKissick, Christian minister of Abilene, and Rev. D. M. Overton, pastor of the Christian Church, officiated.

"HOW TO SAVE MONEY ON YOUR ELECTRIC BILL"

by Phineas Q. Twitch, Eminent Economist

Dr. Twitch

- 1 Disconnect your electric door-bell. What if your friends and neighbors do bruise their knuckles knocking! You'll save a penny a month. Naturally, a penny saved is a penny earned. In only eleven years (at compound interest) you'll earn enough to buy another door-bell for the back door so you can save TWICE as much by not using it!
- 2 Sell your vacuum cleaner and beat your rugs by hand. The money you get for your old machine will buy several sturdy beaters and an ample supply of liniment. Then, every time you beat ten large rugs, you'll save a whole penny.
- 3 You can easily do ten rugs in a couple of days, after you get used to it. The exercise will build you up, even if it does break down the rugs. And the more you beat 'em the more you save!

Turn off your radio during "The Electric Hour" on Sunday afternoon. Of course, you'll miss Nelson Eddy and his guest stars and Robert Armstrong's Orchestra, but you'll save a sixth of a penny every time you do it. In a year, that's nearly 9c. And there's no music so pleasant as those coppers clinking in your pocket!

SOCIETY NEWS
We didn't know how much talent we had in H. H. S. until last Wednesday morning when we elected the girl's trio and boy's quartet. The ones elected were:

Girl trio, Ruth Greene, Bonnie Edwards and Elwanda Desmond. The boys quartet is Kenneth Larned, Giles Kemp, Roy Glenn Johnson and Jerry Johnson. The others nominated were Eddie Bess Fouts, Carolyn Turner, Nancy Ratliff, Felton Everett, Earl Ross, Felix Byrd and Truett Reeves. I am sure we have elected the best possible.

When we eight children were growing up on the farm, my father was always able to see plenty of things that needed to be done, even on rainy days. Well, his eyesight is still good. He amazes the family by reading his morning paper without his glasses. If he has any, they have long since been misplaced.

When he stood out in the front yard in the snow and waved "good luck to you" as I drove away, I noticed he was wearing what I call the Tech trousers.

Here is the story about that: After being first elected to Congress in 1934, I was presented with a suit at a special ceremony at the fair grounds in Lubbock. I prized it very highly because it was given to me by the college and the city, and I first wore it when I took the oath of office in Congress in 1935. The wool for the suit was sheared from the sheep at Texas Tech and made into cloth at the college. After wearing the suit for five years, I gave it to my father, and he is still wearing it. I know that a lot of people would be very happy if such high quality and workmanship could be found in present day garments.

There was nothing encouraging for relatives of men overseas in the personal report given to a joint meeting of Members of the House and Senate last week by General Eisenhower and Admiral Nimitz. They gave a full statement on the over-all picture, but they did not give information in regard to individual cases of personal hardship and injustice—cases in which Members of Congress and the people generally are most interested.

Officials of the Armed Forces freely admit that following the original plans made after V-J Day, the demobilization program was speeded up far in excess of Army-Navy plans. There is no doubt but that this was done because of the numerous pleas and demands of Members of Congress, the people generally, and the servicemen themselves.

Sidelights From Washington

By GEORGE MAHON

A newspaper friend who carries this column told me in Texas the other day that I should try to give my little weekly reports a more personal touch. Here goes.

Prior to returning to Washington for the present session of Congress, I went by the old home place two miles north of Loraine in Mitchell County to tell my father goodbye. He has lived on this same farm for 35 years. He is 85, but his health is good and he is still active in the management of the farm.

When we eight children were growing up on the farm, my father was always able to see plenty of things that needed to be done, even on rainy days. Well, his eyesight is still good. He amazes the family by reading his morning paper without his glasses. If he has any, they have long since been misplaced.

Dealer Offers Advise On Machinery Care

It will take several years for farmers to obtain all of the new machinery needed for replacement and expansion, states John D. Marlow, Ferguson System dealer here, in sounding a warning on winter care of the tractor and implements with a view toward longer wear.

He pointed out that all manufacturers are rushing tractors and various types of equipment to dealers everywhere as production increases, but that the service ability of machinery now in use can be maintained by the following helpful suggestions:

Keep the battery clean, the terminals greased, the cells filled with clean, distilled water. The charge in the battery should be maintained by running the engine or taking it to a service station for re-charging when the tractor is not in use for some time. Never store the battery on a concrete floor or in a damp place.

Marlow suggests that a hot engine be allowed to cool gradually before filling with cold water. In freezing weather, let the engine cool off a bit before draining the water.

Slow starting in cold weather may be caused by too heavy crankcase oil, frozen water pump, water in the fuel system, moisture in the distributor, or dirty spark plugs.

The following steps are advised for tractor storage: Store tractor in shed or some sheltered place; drain entire fuel system and cooling system; remove the battery for proper storage, and relieve the tires by elevating the tractor on blocks.

A coat of paint not only improves the looks and service ability of the tractor, Marlow states, but the machine will work better and last longer.

with servicemen overseas can hardly realize how desperately anxious these men are—especially those who have been long overseas—to return home to their families. In an effort to be helpful to these men, I have conferred personally with the President and others and will continue to avail myself of every possible opportunity to be helpful to them.

Between May 12 and mid-January approximately 6,772,000 servicemen were discharged. General Eisenhower said that not until June 30 will all enlisted men with two years of service be discharged or on board ship bound for home to be discharged. He said that enlisted men with 45 points or 30 months service will be discharged or on their way home by April 30.

Tech Soliciting Funds For Football Stadium

LUBBOCK, Tex.—Satisfactory progress is being made in the campaign for funds to build a new $300,000 stadium at Texas Tech, officials in charge have announced.

Spencer Wells, chairman of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce campaign committee, said solicitation principally has been confined to persons asked to give $1,000 or more and this phase of the program has already raised over $46,000. He said further work was expected to swell the total.

Meantime, Jason O. Gordon, president of the Lubbock County Ex-student association, announced major progress in a drive for funds among alumni and former students. Several checks have already been received.

"It is thought every alumni of Texas Tech will want to help in erecting this new stadium and will be happy for the opportunity. The new stadium is badly needed and should go a long way toward bringing greater recognition of rapidly growing Tech," Gordon said.

He asked that anyone wishing to contribute to send checks to Texas Technological College Foundation, Box 96, Tech station, Lubbock.

The $300,000 stadium will be named Clifford and Audrey Jones Memorial Stadium in honor of Clifford B. Jones, president emeritus, and his wife. Dr. Jones underwrote $100,000 in bonds for the structure and told directors the principal in that amount eventually would be given Tech. Directors pledged $50,000 and the drive for funds of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce and alumni seeks $50,000 more.

Weekly Health Letter

AUSTIN, Tex.—An official announcement from the State Committee for Approval of Educational and Training Institutions has been received by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, designating the Texas State Department of Health as an approved vocational training agency for veterans.

Training offered by the State Health Department will include sanitary engineering, entomology, technician, water and sewage plant operation and typhus control.

Veterans who meet the eligibility requirements under the "G. I. Bill of Rights," ages 20 to 40, with at least a high school education and physically fit for field work may apply for this training. Applicants should be men who desire to make sanitation or some other phase of public health activity a career or life work. Applicants who have been accepted will receive such training allowances as is provided under the "G. I. Bill of Rights"; for instance, $65 and $90 per month, depending on marital status, which amount may be supplemented by the city where the applicant is taking his training.

For full information concerning this type of training, veterans are urged to consult their local branch of the Veterans' Administration, their local health officer or the State Department of Health in Austin.

Price Control Board Asks for Volunteers

More and more workers will be needed by the Haskell Area Price Control Board to do an effective job on surveys and assist with clerical duties during 1946, Chairman S. N. Reed reported today, as the OPA volunteer program swung into its fifth year.

"Price control at the retail level is a community responsibility. We must not shirk lest inflation engulf this nation's economy and lest the peace for which our boys fought so gallantly be nullified," the chairman declared.

"We must remember that the peace is not yet won and won't be until such time as the supply of civilian goods comes in reasonable balance with demand.

"The OPA will hold the line on prices at the manufacturer's and wholesalers' levels, but its efforts to prevent disastrous inflation will be of no effect unless we, the citizens of the Haskell area, pitch in and guard prices at the retail level."

An average of twenty volunteer workers was employed in board work during 1945, but forty volunteers will be needed to carry on through 1946, Chairman Reed said. There are two kinds of volunteers, he related: the panel members who receive consumer complaints, check results of price surveys, hold hearings with violators, and help in the information program, and the board representatives, who work in every community—board site or not—who make the surveys and assist with clerical duties.

The self-lifting tractor is now a reality. It rises any height, up to four inches, virtually drawing itself up "by its own bootstraps." The lifting operation is accomplished by placing light tubular frames beneath the axles, connecting the rear to the two arms of a Ford-Ferguson tractor's hydraulic linkage and lightly touching the "finger-rip control" lever which is one feature of the Ferguson System. The entire operation takes less than one minute.

Rev. and Mrs. C. Jones Have Celebration of Forty-fifth Wedding Anniversary

On Sunday, Jan. 20, a host of friends and members of the Fundamental Baptist Church celebrated the forty-fifth wedding anniversary of their pastor, the Rev. C. Jones and Mrs. Jones, with a basket lunch at the Sunday School room of the church. A huge wedding cake was presented them by friends and members of the church.

REV. AND MRS. C. JONES

Four children were born to them, Mrs. Alice Smith of Spur, Mrs. Vernie Lytle, of Rule; Jesse Jones and Mrs. Lillian Townsend of Haskell; and seventeen grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren, all of whom were present at the celebration except two grandchildren.

Rev. Jones was licensed to preach by the California Baptist Church in Young County May 8, 1904.

He was ordained to preach by the Proffit Baptist Church in Young County June 25, 1905.

His first pastorate was the Bush Knob Baptist Church, Throckmorton County. He was missionary of the Macedonian Association, embracing Throckmorton and Young Counties, for four years.

The meeting opened with the audience singing "Juanita" and "Old Black Joe" after which Mrs. Ira Johnson led in prayer.

We were entertained by the second grade with a program "The Year Clock." There were twelve children representing the months of the year, and each child said a verse for the month he or she represented.

Then the seasons of the year came in, Winter, Spring, Summer and Autumn, represented by boys and girls. Songs were sung concerning the seasons. The program ended with the entire group singing "Happy New Year." Mrs. Hilroy Stone was hostess and introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Palmer. Her talk on "What We Substitute for War" was enjoyed by everyone.

The group learned with regret that Mrs. Sonnemaker was resigning as treasurer, due to her health although the PTA is not losing her entirely, as she has consented to remain a member and help in carrying on the work in any way she can. Mrs. Ovid Cobb will be the new treasurer for the remainder of the year.

Visitors present at the meeting included Mrs. Solomon, Mrs. Jack Daniels and Mrs. Kreger. The room count was taken, and the second grade won.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui, many women say, has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Take it like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, & thus help build resistance for the "time" to come. Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. Try it!

The FFA and 4-H Livestock Show

The large number of entries in the F. F. A. and 4-H Livestock Show to be held here Feb. 18 speaks well for the interest being shown in this worthwhile project. It is expected that about $250 in cash prizes will be offered for the best calves and pigs. These prizes, made possible by the members of the Haskell Chamber of Commerce, are but a small part of the ultimate advantages realized by the young farmers and ranchers.

Naturally the winners will accept their prizes with a sense of pride for the effort expended in giving proper care to their livestock over a period of several months. The large number of entries indicates that the competition will be keen, and the winners will have given excellent care of their livestock, the most important part of which is scientific, planned feeding. Proper breeding, of course, is the first step which must be taken to make the champions.

In this connection, it might be observed that the entire section of Central West Texas is coming to the front as one of the best cattle raising areas in the world. Texas is noted for its cattle, and this section is doing its part, as indicated by the number of winners in statewide livestock shows, as well as the number of shows being held in Central West Texas.

There is no better way of encouraging the production of quality cattle than by staging annual livestock shows. Such events have gone far toward making this area more prosperous through better breeds of livestock.

Another Case of Bungling

No person who has ever served in the armed forces can blame the servicemen for clamoring to come home. They were led to believe they were fighting to win a war, and now that the war is won they think they have a right to come home. Their demonstrations in all the war theaters indicate they believe they have not been dealt with fairly. They believe the government that sent them out to fight has broken faith with them.

Actually the situation is one that has been brought about by a typical job of bungling. Our nation has won the war in the face of a lot of bungling—mistakes and carelessness for which there were no reasons under the sun. Of all the strategy and plans that were made to win the war, it seems that some of the high brass might have tried to prepare the minds of the soldiers and sailors for what they would have to face after the war was won.

The responsible leaders of the nation have known all along that we would have to have occupation forces of certain strength. There would not have been much point in fighting a war and walking away from the scene to let the conquered go about their business of being international thugs.

The big mistake has been in not teaching the men all along that all of them could not go home when the shooting ended. Their courses of training should have included one that would have prepared them for the situation they are facing now. They are rightfully indignant and disillusioned. It seems the best way of correcting the error now is in replacing the veterans with new men entering the service.

Should the Negro Get a Vote?

The state of Alabama has taken a step forward in fostering better understanding between the white and black races by agreeing to allow Negroes to vote in its elections this year. It has pointed a way for the entire South. And the South needs to face frankly its racial problem.

The rest of the nation has tried for years to settle our racial problems for us. Well-meaning social prophets usually advanced the notion that we should accept the Negro as a complete social equal. Those of us in the South know that others cannot understand our feelings toward intermingling of the races when we see such suggestions. They do not seem to understand that neither of the races want such conditions to exist. The South knows that the twain can never meet.

But there is no good reason why the Negro race should be held forever in complete subjugation. There are very few of them who have ever felt the freedom of social action that white people take for granted. Feeling is no respecter of persons. Mistreatment penetrates black skin as readily as it does white. And no rational-minded person can deny that Negroes are burdened with discrimination.

So while we in the South know that the two races cannot have social intermingling, it is our duty to recognize the fact that there's no good reason why the Negro should not have a right to vote. As a citizen, he must pay taxes. He must support the laws of the land or suffer punishment accordingly. It is time for Texas and all the South to face the responsibilities that are thrust upon us by the racial problem. Allowing the Negro his natural right to vote is one point forward in settlement of the question.

Doyle Eastland Is Candidate For Treasurer

Doyle Eastland, resident of Haskell County practically his entire lifetime, who recently received his discharge after serving more than three years in the Army Air Force has authorized announcement of his candidacy for the office of County Treasurer, subject to action of the coming Democratic primaries.

The young veteran served ten months with the Ninth Air Force in the European Theater and was stationed in Germany on his last assignment before returning to the States.

Secretary Wallace Stresses Importance Of Wages and Prices

(By HENRY A. WALLACE, Secretary of Commerce.)

Industrial wages and farm prices are two powerful elements in the strong bond of interdependence between farmers and industrial workers. Farmers normally depend to the extent of 85% on the purchasing power in the domestic markets, made up very largely of wage and salaried workers. On the other hand, farmers represent the largest single economic group in the national market for the goods and services produced by the industrial population.

About one-fifth of our total number of consumers live on farms. The efforts of labor to sustain its take-home pay, would, if successful, give farmers the high level of consumer purchasing power they need to sustain their incomes. And the efforts of farmers to prevent a post-war collapse in farm prices such as has occurred after other wars would, if successful, help maintain the national market for industrial goods.

There is now general agreement on this view of the dependence of farm prices and income on city wages, and vice versa. No one can argue honestly that if farm prices were cut in two, as they were after World War I, the rest of us could buy more farm products. This is theory, because, in practice, allowing farm prices to drop drastically would cause millions of workers to lose jobs, their earnings, and their capacity to buy farm products. And no one can honestly argue that if wages are cut down, costs and prices of industrial products would be reduced and make it possible for farmers and other consumers to buy more. This is theory, for in practice a sharp cut in industrial workers' wages and take-home pay means the loss of income to farmers and millions of others, and a reduction in their capacity to buy industrial goods.

The clearest illustration that farm and factory people sink or swim together is what happened during the ten years before World War II, and also during the war years. Between 1929 and 1932 factory payrolls dropped from 11 billions to less than 5. During the recovery period when factory payrolls got back to 10 billion dollars, farm income rose nearly in proportion, to 9 billion dollars.

The experience during the past few years corroborates this basic common interest in sustained purchasing power for all groups. During the pre-war 5 year period 1935-39, all wages and salaries for all industries amounted to about 40 billion dollars; by 1944 they reached 113 billions, or 2.8 times as great as in 1935-39. This rise in earnings made it possible for farm cash income to rise from an average of 8 billion dollars before the war to 20.6 billions in 1944; or about 2.6 times as great. To put it another way, the rise in farm and other prices which raised living costs made it necessary for wages to increase. The fact is that we cannot have a major change in the one segment of our economy without a major effect in the other.

During the reconversion period and beyond, the major farm problem will be how to maintain the volume of agricultural production which was expanded for war purposes, for the military needs at home and abroad. The country as a whole will consume more farm products if its purchasing power remains at a high level and we have full employment. This was amply illustrated by the war when our per capita consumption of food reached record proportions. If the purchasing power of the industrial population can be maintained and if we can thus reduce the number of families in the low income brackets, the domestic market for farm products will be greater than ever before and the problem of cutbacks in farm production would be greatly minimized.

Thirty to forty per cent of the industrial workers earnings goes to the grocery stores and, on the average, about half of the retail price gets back to the farmer. The more earnings the city workers can turn over to their wives for living purposes, for dairy products, for meats, for fruits and vegetables, for clothing materials, the more money will farmers get from the processors and dealers in farm products. Farmers and factory workers live in one economic world.

Hints Recommended In Floor Cleaning

The following method for removing black marks on floors caused by composition sales and heels of shoes is recommended by Louise Newman, County Home Demonstration Agent. First, take up all loose dirt on the floor by sweeping and dust mopping. Second, wipe the floor with a clean cloth wrung from lukewarm water and borax solution. Rub stubborn spots until they are removed. Third, wipe the floor with a clean cloth wrung out in lukewarm water, then remove all possible moisture with a dry cloth. Fifth, let the floor dry completely without walking on it. Sixth, refinish with the original finish if the floor needs it, even if it means repainting, varnishing or shellacking. Be sure the floor is completely dry before taking this step.

The last step puts a protective coating over the floor, keeps scuff marks off and makes it easier to remove those that do appear. Apply three to five coats of good water emulsion wax, being sure to allow each coat to dry for at least thirty minutes. With such protection on your floors, black marks come up by rubbing with a clean cloth dampened in the water emulsion wax.

Re-Enlisted Men May Retain Former Army Rank

The West Texas U. S. Army Recruiting Service with enlistment stations in Amarillo, Abilene, Lubbock, Big Spring and San Angelo, this week received a War Department communication by telegraph which is of vital concern to men who have been released from the Army and who are now on inactive status in the Enlisted Reserve Corps, particularly those who have been discharged more than twenty days, thus being ineligible for retention of the grade held upon discharge if they desire to re-enlist in the Regular Army.

According to the telegram received, all members of the Enlisted Reserve Corps on inactive status who request enlistment in the Regular Army on or before January 31, 1946, may be administratively discharged from the Enlisted Reserve Corps and enlisted in the Regular Army in the grade held in the Reserve Corps.

The telegram further stated that members of the Enlisted Reserve Corps on an inactive status, who request enlistment in the Regular Army on or after February 1, 1946, will be administratively discharged from the Enlisted Reserve Corps and enlisted in the Regular Army in the grade of private; except that such individuals may be enlisted in the Regular Army in such higher grades as may be authorized by War Department instructions in effect at the time of enlistment in the Regular Army for persons who are not members of the Enlisted Reserve Corps.

Summed up, this means that men now in the Enlisted Reserve Corps who wish to avail themselves of family allotments, and the twenty year retirement benefits have until January 31, 1946, to reenlist and also retain their rank held at time of discharge. Those men who are on an inactive status for less than 90 days and who receive a discharge from the Enlisted Reserve Corps and reenlist in the Regular Army within the 90-day period are also eligible to receive the reenlistment allowance of $50 a year for each previous year of service on their last AUS or RA enlistment prior to their recent discharge.

For further information and necessary forms, all veterans interested are urged to contact the nearest United States Army Recruiting Station.

Recruiting stations are also located in Dalhart, Pampa, Borger, Wellington, Childress, Plainview, Lamesa, Odessa, Sweetwater, and Ballinger, Texas.

THE ARMY ANSWERS YOUR WAR PROBLEMS

Your questions on allotments, insurance, legal problems and other matters as they relate to Army personnel and their dependents will be answered in this column or by letter. Write Headquarters, 8th Service Command, Dallas 2, Tex.

Q. If I am receiving a pension resulting from the death of my late husband, a veteran of World War I, would I be entitled to a pension for my son who was killed in World War II?

A. If a dependency on the son can be proved, it is possible for a World War I widow, who is also the bereaved mother of a son killed in World War II, to draw pension from both sources. However, each pension case of this type is treated on its own merits, and you are advised to discuss your problem with the Veterans Administration, which acts on pension applications.

Q. My husband is a warrant officer in the Army. He will soon be separated from the service. Is he entitled to terminal leave pay, or is terminal leave pay only given to commissioned officers?

A. Commissioned officers, warrant officers and flight officers are all entitled to terminal leave pay. Q. Where can a discharged soldier get corrections made on his discharge certificate?

A. Send the discharge certificate and details regarding the changes to be made to the Demobilized Records Branch, 4300 Goodfellow Boulevard, St. Louis, Mo. You are advised to have a photostatic or certified copy of the discharge made and to use registered mail in sending the original.

Q. Can an honorably discharged WAC re-enlist?

A. No. Enlistments are not being accepted in any of the women's branches of the armed services.

Some singers should be advertised as vocalists.

PROCEEDS FROM DANCE TO POLIO FUND

A dance will be held at the Sons of Herman hall in the Irby community Wednesday night Jan. 30, with proceeds from the affair to be donated to the Infantile Paralysis Fund.
