Poker Game Costly To 11 Weinert Men

A quiet, Sunday afternoon poker game came to an abrupt end at a vacant dwelling two miles north of Weinert when Sheriff Mart Clifton and Deputy Doss Fuller, walked unexpectedly upon the game. Charges were filed against 11 men, all of whom pleaded guilty and paid fines of $1 and costs, a total of $16.60 each. The men were brought before S. L. Coggins, justice of the peace at Weinert, and their names were not available here. Dee Kirkland and Lawrence Holley, both of Haskell, pleaded guilty Monday before Joe E. Pace, justice of the peace, to complaints filed against them by Sheriff Mart Clifton, charging them with disturbance of the peace. The complaints were filed after residents in the east part of town complained about the disturbance Saturday night and early Sunday morning. The court assessed a fine of $25 and costs, totaling $38 in each case. Gentry G. Griffis of Wichita Falls pleaded guilty Saturday before Justice Pace to a complaint filed against him by E. W. Green, highway patrolman of Stamford, charging him with speeding on the highway, and was assessed a fine of $1 and costs, a total of $14 which he paid. Willie Taylor, colored of Haskell, entered a plea of guilty to affray before Justice Pace Friday and was assessed a fine of $1 and costs, totaling $14, which was paid.

Sixteen Members Added to Jaycees As Plans Advance

Sixteen new members joined the Haskell Junior Chamber of Commerce in a lively meeting of the organization Monday night at the Chamber of Commerce building as the purpose of the civic group was outlined more definitely. A motion was passed to get a permanent meeting place for the Jaycees and J. A. Byrd, Tom Roberson and J. W. Young were named to a committee to make such arrangements. The chamber will meet at 8 o'clock hereafter. The organization also passed favorably a motion to assure the American Legion of the support of the Jaycees in the latter's drive for funds for a new building. Fred Sanders, Jr., Stuart Burson and Wallace Stark, were named to a committee to coordinate assistance for the Legion. Dues were collected in the amount of $48 and very few are now delinquent. Five representatives to a state meeting were nominated. They are Bob Herren, Tom Clifton, Bill Wilson, S. E. Lanier and Fred Sanders, Jr. New members who joined Monday night were Wallace Stark, Truett Pfiland, Covell Adkins, J. W. Young, J. B. Gibson, Bill Wilson, Fred Sanders, Jr., M. D. Richmond, Stuart Burson, Tom Clifton, R. A. Lane, J. B. Claiborne and J. W. Casey.

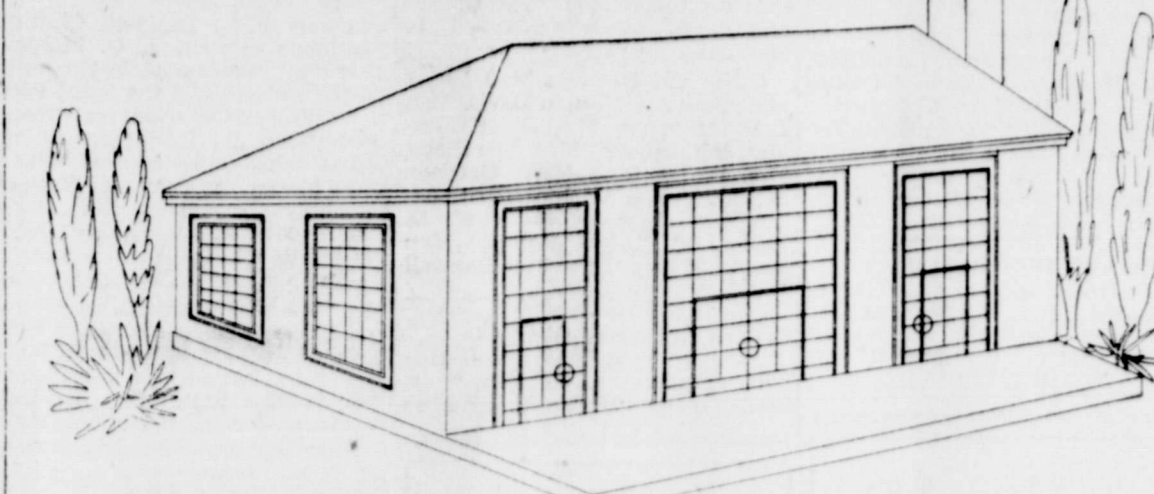

Lions and Guests Gather at School For District Meet

Haskell Lions and their guests gathered at the high school lunch room Tuesday evening about 75 strong for a district meeting of the service club. Local Lions and their ladies were hosts to visitors from Olney, Seymour, Breckenridge, Vernon and Abilene. Theron Cahill, president of the Haskell Lions, acted as toastmaster for the banquet and introduced Lions Robertson, Lassiter and Whalen from Olney; Lions Murphy and Whiteman and their wives from Seymour; Lion and Mrs. Gray from Breckenridge; and Lions Grimes and Roberts from Vernon. The latter two were here in the interest of the candidacy of Lion Culberson of Vernon for the office of district governor. Lion J. C. Scott was in charge of the program. Jane Richey read a clever skit, after which Mrs. Hubbard Ball read her own composition of "There'll Be a Hot Time if the Old Town Tonight," during which she played six arrangements of the familiar tune. Speaker for the evening was Miss Choy, native of Hongkong, China, who spoke on "My Personal Experiences in Wartime China." Miss Choy is a student in Hardin-Simmons University, having been given a scholarship in the Abilene school by Gib Sandefur. To conclude her talk, Miss Choy expressed appreciation for hospitality of the American people and urged citizens of the United States to promote better understanding between her country and this by promoting scholarships for Americans in Chinese universities and for Chinese students in American schools. She plans to return to China following her education here and enter a career in the newspaper field.

Oil Company Gets Five More Leases

Five more leases were recorded this week in favor of the Anderson-Prichard Oil Co. of Oklahoma City as drilling and exploration crews continued their work. The company is assembling a block in the vicinity of Weinert. The leases filed this week total 618 acres. Leases are as follows: Beatrice Weinert, 55 acres; Cora Jones, et vir, et al, 200 acres; Bertha C. Hohenberger, et vir, 88.5 acres; John M. Pace, et ux, 150 acres; Carl J. Jones, 125 acres.

Proposed American Legion Building

Above is an artist's conception of the American Legion Building for which a campaign for funds is now being waged. The building is to be built of modern materials throughout and will include an air-conditioning unit. The overall size of the building is to be 60 by 80 feet and will include an auditorium of 40 by 80 feet which would accommodate a gathering of several hundred people. The building is to have a meeting room for members of the Legion, adjoined by a locker room and showers. The Woman's Auxiliary also will have a meeting room and a powder room. A modern kitchen is to be installed which will be convenient when banquets and parties are given at the building. Sketch by Fred Sanders, Jr.

Businessmen Hope They Die Like Rats

They probably will die like rats. At least that is the hope of the merchants of this city who are cooperating with a plan sponsored by the U. S. Fish and Wild Life Service to rid local buildings of rodents. A representative of the service will be here Monday, April 8, to offer his professional advice on how best to kill the numerous rats that have become more than a nuisance to merchants. Using a special poison known as No. 1080, the rat eradication expert has indicated that the remedy affects the rats in such a manner that they will die in the open. A recent experiment at Graham was said to be 90 per cent effective in ridding businesses of rats. A fee of $5 will be paid by merchants who cooperate in the plan. CORRECTION A news item last week stated that subsidies would be paid for milk and cream at the office of the Agricultural Conservation Association. The correct amount of subsidy payment is 17 cents per pound for butterfat and 70 cents per 100 pounds of milk.

Haskell Over Top On Red Cross Fund While County Lags

Haskell became the only city in the county this week to meet its Red Cross quota and with only three more days remaining before the drive closes, less than half of the amount had been subscribed in the county. Workers here had raised $1,677.38 Wednesday night to go over the top on a quota of $1,609.60. The drive will close March 31. Fred Stockdale, campaign chairman, said it now appears doubtful that the full amount of the county quota will be raised. Total raised to date is about $2,348. However, some parts of the county had not been heard from at all and it was hoped they would make a sizeable contribution to give the county a better record. Haskell County has not failed before to raise its quota in a Red Cross campaign. Rule, which has the second largest quota in the county, was far behind in its campaign, having raised only $456 and having a quota of $1,056.30. Other communities reporting were Irby, $25, quota $74.45; Cobb, $40, quota $50.30; Weinert, $30, quota $352.10; and Sagerston, $100, quota $150.90. Parts of the county which have not made reports are Mattson, Precinct 1, Precinct 3, Precinct 4, Rochester and O'Brien.

Cross-Country Rider

59-Year-Old Cowpuncher Here On Horseback Trip Across U.S.

The pioneering "forty-niners" who crossed the continent for gold in the covered wagon era were compensated by riches, but the latest cross-country rider has a simpler motive. Dave Satterwhite, 59-year-old former Texas cowpuncher with friendly blue eyes and a firm handclasp, is riding across the continent on his six-year-old bay mare to improve his health. He reached Haskell late Friday afternoon, some of the worse for wear, but still determined to complete his journey that it now more than half over. Leaving Long Beach, Calif., Feb. 3, Satterwhite was to go to the home of his sister on a ranch near Wichita Falls to rest for two days before continuing his trip to New York City. He estimated he would reach his destination about April 25. With nothing more serious than lack of water to slow down June his 1,100-pound mare, Satterwhite crossed one 86-mile stretch of desert in Arizona and watered his horse only once. But the rider is never bothered for lack of water. He doesn't drink it. Relying entirely on milk and coffee to appease his thirst, he said he had taken two drinks of water since leaving California, both times with medicine he bought to counteract an attack of ptomianic poison. He became sick near Colorado City and at one time became so ill he was unable to get on his horse. The illness cut down on the pace he had established at about 40 miles a day. He had been riding about eight hours a day, but was unable to ride so long when he reached Haskell. However, his health was improving Friday, and he said he would be able to make better time after resting on the ranch. A small man, weighing 122 pounds, the ex-cowpoke has gained six pounds since starting his ride. He explained that his health had not been too good after spending four years in the Pacific islands as a civil service employee of the navy. His leathery complexion and dusty clothes attested to many days in the open, but the weather had been kind to him. Carrying only a blanket and a slicker, Satterwhite "slept out" crossing the Arizona desert. Some of the nights were cold, but daytime traveling was ideal. He credited his sturdy half-Arabian mare with making possible the trip across the desert. So far as could be learned, he was the only man ever to cross the desert without carrying water or feed. He had 127 signed statements from people across the route attesting to his making the trip without assistance. (Continued on Page Twelve)

12 Candidates in City Election As Interest Reaches High Peak

Trustee Election Set for April 6 Will Name Three Men

Names of six men had been filed this week for places on the board of trustees of Haskell for the election scheduled for April 6. Three trustees are to be named. Those whose names have been filed are E. A. Howard, Sam P. Herren Jr., Roy A. Sanders, Dr. T. W. Williams, Bob Herren and W. C. (Red) Collins. Others wishing to file must do so before April 1 since the ballot will be made up and printed on that date. Names may be added by notifying W. D. Rogers, president of the board; R. L. Burton, secretary; or J. Cleo Scott, superintendent of the schools. Those whose terms are to expire after the election are A. M. Turner and W. C. Johnston.

Smith Enters Race For Mayor's Post In Election April 2

One candidate for mayor, Chas. E. (Smitty) Smith, was added this week to the ballot for offices in the city election to be held here Tuesday as the deadline passed for additional candidates, now numbering twelve. There are six positions to be filled. Friends of Mr. Smith, well known garage owner and implement dealer, submitted his name for consideration of the voters in the election that is only five days away. All the offices in the election will be contested and interest reached its highest peak. Talk of the election took its place among discussions and brought about indications that a heavy vote will be counted following the election. While there is no gauge as to the number of probable votes, the fact that every office will be contested gives promise that there will be a good-sized turnout. Voters will cast ballots at the City Hall from 8 o'clock in the morning until 7 o'clock in the afternoon. Counting of the ballots will begin immediately after the polls close and results probably will be known within two hours. Virgil Brown will be the election judge. Here are names of the candidates as they will appear on the ballot: For Mayor: Jno. A. Couch, Charles E. Smith, For City Secretary: J. Helton Duncan, Cecil Bradley, For City Marshal: R. O. Miller, C. S. Gay, W. C. Allen, A. Tonn, For Aldermen: (Three to be elected) Geo. L. Neely, Hallie Chapman, J. M. Crawford, R. A. Lane

Enlisting were Robert Venus Eales, Marvin Davis Fulbright, Ralph Orville Ammons, Basil Lee Huckabee, Milton F. Elkins and Henry Lee Hill. Inducted were Ervin Ewalt Puschel and Emil Mueller. Five men were placed in Class I-A. They are Richard Clay Bischoffhausen, Horace Randolph Crawford, R. V. Hagle, Hollis L. Cogburn and Harold Lloyd Adkinson. William Chester Via was given a 4-A classification and Kenneth Jackson Thornton is a new registrant.

Haskell County's Newest School Begins for Benefit of Veterans

Haskell County's newest school is less than a month old but it is already suffering growing pains. The latest students are not likely to be playing hookey or throwing paper wads. All of them are full-fledged veterans of World War II and are ready intent on learning a new trade or improving their present one. The Haskell County Vocational School, begun March 7 after a meeting of the Haskell County School Board and now operating under the supervision of the board, is the only such school in this area. It is open to honorably discharged veterans in agriculture, trades and industry, and distributive education. The professions constitute practically the only class for which training is not provided. With offices on the third floor, northwest wing of the courthouse, the school provides veterans an opportunity to learn while on the job and sees that veterans are paid for the trouble. And the trouble really is not trouble at all. Classmates who have such training are thereby equipped them for their own business or to command a higher paying job. Sponsored by the Veterans Administration and the State Service Board of Austin, pay for on-the-job training amounts to $65 a month for single veterans, or $90 if they have dependents, and $90 a month for married veterans. Employees who have such training working for them must supplement their salary at a rate not less than that paid a competent journeyman in the same occupation. Such a plan enables the veteran to receive a high salary and benefits the employer, also, in many cases. The board determines the number of employees who may take part in the training, the salaries and the expenses allowed. Tuition for the various courses is paid by the Veterans Administration and the amount is not to exceed the actual operating cost. The school is non-profit in every respect. While some of the plans are still in the formative stage, the training program is well under way and is attracting wide interest from all parts of the county. J. Weldon Young, coordinator, said the school is open to veterans in any part of this area and said the sponsors are anxious to have more trainees. Veterans from such places as Stamford and Munday are welcome to attend, he said. Young pointed out, however, that all the instruction must be given in this city, since decentralization of training is not permissible. Young is a graduate of Texas A & M. College and has taught vocational agriculture ten years, including four years at Weinert. Also on the staff is Boyd Baird, assistant coordinator who will teach agriculture. He also is a graduate of A. & M. and is a veteran of 31 months of service with the air corps in the Pacific Theater. Gracie Nell Brito is secretary-stenographer. An instructor in distributive education is to be named soon, Young said. Other additional details are to be arranged, but plans for class work are under way. Classes will be held at the City Hall. All will be conducted some time during the day, except for agriculture studies which will be held at night. Among the training program are listed such things as drug stores and fountain management, filling station and auto supply management, furniture management, general merchandising, grocery store management, hardware and paint operation, hotel operation, restaurant operation, management of electrical supplies and accessories, meat market operation, dry cleaning plant management, banking, car sales, insurance, jewelry, florists, wholesalers, shoe stores, men's furnishings, lumber yard operation, automobile accounting, book-keeping, accounting, abstract and job printing. Merchants in the county now employing veterans in training are Pitman Motor Co., Gholson Grocery, Hub Dry Goods, Jones-Cox Hardware, Payne Drug Store, Piggery-Wiggly Grocery, Burton-Dotson Chevrolet Co., O. K. Rubber Welders, O. K. Rubber Welders of Munday, J. B. Childress, Cox Moulder Co., Richmond Jewelry, Casey Motor Co., Henderson Electrical Shop, Virgil Sonnmaker, Master-son Garage of Rule, Aubrey Shoe Shop of Rule, Lee's Boot Shop of Rule, Davis Hatchery of Rule, Williams Meat Market of Rule, Dishong Woodshop, McMillan Construction Co. and R. B. Spencer Lumber Co. Those who are member of the county school board are John Couch, president; Mrs. Iva Palmer, secretary; Ernest Griffith, Alfred Rinn, and John Mansell.

Twins Neglected in Hearing No Precedent in State Courts

that had no precedent in state courts so far as neglected children can be released to the custody of their parents or any other responsible person or can be sent to an institution for children. The hearing that started Friday morning attracted more interest than any suit heard here in many months, and was heard before a well-filled courtroom. Testimony started Friday afternoon and continued through Saturday morning. The hearing was unusual in that no criminal act was charged, but rather the suit was heard to establish the fact of whether the twins were neglected. Judge Chapman had to call for order several times during the hearing. A ripple of laughter swept the courtroom when Odell was questioning B. C. Butler, caretaker at Willow Cemetery, a witness called by counsel for the petitioner. Butler, who testified that he had seen the children overturn tombstones at the cemetery, was asked how much the boys weighed. Declaring that he did not know how much they weighed, Butler was asked if they would weigh 30 or 40 pounds. "I don't know how much they weighed—I never weighed them," Butler said. Both the twins, who weigh 57 pounds each, took the stand Saturday morning, as did their father and mother. Neat in appearance and with pleasant features, the boys had the spectators straining to hear their testimony. The first, James, obviously was awed by the courtroom scene and could not be coaxed to give his answers aloud. He nodded his head to questions by both sides. His brother followed him on the stand, and while hesitant about some of his answers, he responded clearly and sometimes promptly. The children sat at the counsel table with their father and mother and apparently were oblivious to the purpose of the hearing. They sat quietly throughout the hearing and seemed untroubled by emotion. James was cross-examined by Stockdale, but only Odell questioned Jimmie. Both the father (Continued on Page Twelve)

Address Easter Mail Early, Officials Ask

Recognizing that Easter Sunday, April 21, 1946 will undoubtedly have more significance to members of the Armed Forces overseas than at any time in recent years, and anticipating the mailing of large numbers of Easter greetings to the soldiers in the occupation areas, the War Department has urged that Easter cards be mailed immediately if delivery is to be effected before Easter Sunday.

Now, more than ever before, "mail call" is a vitally important event in the daily lives of G. I.'s in distant places and the Army postal service of the Adjutant General's office points out that friends and relatives at home should make special effort to comply with this year's mailing date for delivery of Easter messages.

Overseas Army mail should be addressed with the soldier's full name, his rank, Army serial number, organization and unit, Army Post Office (APO) number and should be sent in care of the postmaster at the port of embarkation through which the mail is routed. Failure to address overseas mail properly may cause its delay or even loss.

In the case of Easter greetings, these must be sent as first-class mail in sealed envelopes.

Camp Fire Founded As Channel for Girls' Activities

When planned—The organization was conceived in 1910 by a group of educators in the vanguard of the progressive education movement. First experimental groups were set up. It is the oldest organization for girls in America.

Why—There was no organization for girls comparable to the Boy Scouts. At an annual community pageant in Thetford, Vermont, in August, 1911, Boy Scouts and Camp Fire Girls were used. From then on plans went forward to establish Camp Fire Girls as a national organization for girls.

By whom—Dr. Luther Halsey Gulick, founder and first president of Physical Education in New York City; principal of a leading progressive school in New York; lecturer at New York University; Playground Association (now National Recreation Assn.) owner and director of Gulick camps for boys and girls. Mrs. Luther H. Gulick (wife and co-founder), William Chauncey Langdon (Russell Sage Foundation), Ernest Thompson Seton (authority on Indian lore), Dr. Joseph Raycroft (for many years professor of hygiene at Princeton University; had been associated with John Dewey's experimental school at University of Chicago and brought those techniques to the program; later, vice president of Camp Fire Girls, Inc.) Lester F. Scott (then associated with People's Institute in New York, later national executive of Camp Fire Girls. John Collier (also of People's Institute, later, U. S. Commissioner of Indian Affairs). Mrs. Charles Farnsworth (principal of Horace Mann School). Dr. Mary Schenck Wool-man (professor of household arts at Teachers College and founder of Manhattan Trade School for Girls; compiled first "Book of the Camp Fire Girls"). Dr. Anna Brown (Y.W.C.A.). Dr. James West (president of Boy Scouts, contributed administrative advice). Miss Lina Beard and Dan Beard (helped shape woodcraft and camping sections of the program).

When incorporated—Camp Fire Girls was legally incorporated on March 15, 1912. The anniversary is celebrated in March each year.

Insignia—The crossed logs and flame symbolizes the hearthfire of the home and the campfire of the outdoors.

Law—Worship God. Seek beauty. Give service. Pursue knowledge. Be trustworthy. Hold on to health. Glorify work. Be happy.

Watchword—Whohelo (composed of first two letters of the words Work, Health, Love).

Camping—First Camp Fire Girls camped at the Gulicks' camp in Maine. Among the earliest Camp Fire camps established in the country were in Kansas City, Mo., Chicago, Buffalo, and Baltimore. There now are 153 camps in the country.

Blue Birds—Junior organization of Camp Fire Girls is called the Blue Birds. War formed in 1913. Takes in girls 7, 8 and 9 years old. These youngsters wear a costume and program of their own.

Horizon Clubs—Senior organization, for girls 15 through Junior college age. Established in October 1941 to meet the needs of older girls. Their costume and program are likewise distinctive from Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds.

Membership figures—In excess of 360,000 members. More than 2,000,000 girls have been Camp Fire Girls since it was founded.

200 Members Added In Area Camp Fire

Camp Fire growth in Haskell during the month of March has been unprecedented. Five new leaders and assistants have offered their services so that more girls may enjoy Camp Fire activities. Thirty-seven girls have been added to Camp Fire Girls roll this month. South Ward has organized a Blue Bird group with three leaders and thirteen girls. Thursday night another new Camp Fire group was formed as eleven Blue Birds "flew up" in a ceremony at the Progressive Study Club.

In the Area another county, Kent, has been added. The first of their four groups has been registered, having twenty girls and four adults. From stories in the Jayton newspaper a Blue Bird group of a dozen is meeting with three adults, a Horizon Club with ten is meeting, and another Camp Fire group of sixteen is forming. Anson has a new Blue Bird group of twenty with five adults and another Blue Bird group forming a new Camp Fire group of seventeen with five adults paid their dues this month.

Munday is getting their Camp Fire groups organized. Stamford has a new Blue Bird group of twenty-eight under a five leadership plan. Two more Blue Bird groups are organizing in that city as well as another Camp Fire group.

The increase in area membership at the end of the month will exceed 200, it is believed.

Fly-Up Ceremony for Blue Bird Group

All Blue Birds in the fourth grade flew up into Camp Fire Thursday in a ceremonial meeting sponsored by the Progressive Study Club.

Their leader, Mrs. R. B. Crocker was assisted in the ceremony by Mrs. Fred Stockdale who received them into Camp Fire. The tiny diplomas were presented by Mrs. Crocker to Mary Sue Byrd, Nancy Lee Brown, Patsy Cagle, Barbara Campbell, Janis Crocker, Duwana Matthews, Paula Ratliff, Doris Strain, Mary Linda Stockdale, Annette Merchant and Helen Kimbrough. Afterward each point of Camp Fire Law was discussed by the speaker, the girls took off their blue ties and were presented with a red bow on a pin which they will wear until they get their red ties. Bows were pinned on by each girl's mother. A Blue Bird tie made by Mrs. Crocker was part of the decoration.

Girls remaining in the Happy group are Jean Bass, Terry Bynum, Betty Jane Melton, Barbara Ann Mullins, Irene Myers, Elaine Oneal, La Verne Ross, Frances Strickland, Vella Cloe Redwine, Mary Ann Thomas and Wanda Jane Long. Mrs. Crocker, assisted by Mrs. Thurmond Bynum will remain with the Happy Blue Birds and the Progressive Study Club will sponsor them. The little girls in the new Camp Fire group will meet Wednesday afternoon in the room given them by the Presbyterian Church with Mrs. J. A. Byrd and Mrs. Stockdale to sign their application for a charter and select their name.

School Will Test Seed Germination

LUBBOCK, Tex.—Sorghum seed should be tested this year because of low germination percentage due to immaturity caused by drouthy conditions last summer, according to Dr. A. W. Young, head of the plant industry department at Texas Technological College.

Almost all seeds are lower in germination this year, reports Miss Barbara Bedford, assistant seed analyst for the State Department of Agriculture, who is in charge of the seed testing laboratory on the Tech campus.

Farmers wishing to have their seed tested should send samples, from one pint to one quart representative of the entire lot, to the seed testing laboratory at Tech.

West Point Exams Open to Veterans

Colonel Robert L. Hardy, West Texas army recruiting officer, has announced "West Point exams will soon begin and World War II veterans up to 24 years of age, sons of deceased veterans of World War I, and sons of Congressional Medal of Honor winners will, for the first time participate in the annual entrance examination for admission to the United States Military Academy at West Point." The examination will be held at 24 military posts throughout the country on March 5, and successful candidates will be eligible for admission to the academy, in accordance with existing vacancies, when the next regularly scheduled term begins on July 1.

Col. Hardy stated, "As a result of recent legislation veterans with at least a year's honorable service in the army, navy, marine corps or coast guard are now eligible for appointment to fill vacancies in the military academy at any time between their seventeenth and twenty-fourth birthdays."

Previously, the top age limit for entrance was 22 years. The new law was enacted to provide for men who might have applied for admission had they not been serving in the armed forces. These men, however, must meet the usual entrance requirements.

Group Studies Plans To Help Small Towns

AUSTIN, Tex.—How can small towns of Texas be made more attractive to the veteran, the recent university graduate, and other young people who want economic happiness and security?

This question will be the basis for serious consideration by young teachers of arts in Texas high schools and colleges this summer, when a two-month course on Creative Arts in the Community is held at the University of Texas.

Sponsored by the American Institute of Architects and the Carnegie Foundation, nine $100 scholarships will be awarded to teachers and major students for the course. Hugh L. McMath, associate professor of architecture and the chairman of the committee, has announced.

"It is the purpose of this course on 'Arts in the Community' to bring out the natural resources of each community, and to offer guidance to the leads of the community by making the towns attractive not only physically, but also culturally and economically," Dr. Archie N. Jones, professor of music education and member of the committee, said.

Need $25,000 More For Tech Stadium

LUBBOCK, Tex.—With the goal in sight, Texas Tech alumni and Lubbock civic leaders have intensified efforts to complete the drive for funds to erect a new $300,000 stadium for the college.

Leaders have announced that only about $25,000 more is needed to reach a $150,000 campaign goal set to raise funds by Clifford B. Jones, president emeritus of Tech, and others. Alumni solicitors say virtually every ex-student in the Lubbock area who has been asked has contributed some amount.

Ex-students and friends throughout Texas have been asked to send checks to the Texas Tech Foundation, Box 96, Tech station, Lubbock.

FARM INCOME DROPS

Cash farm income in Texas dropped 41 per cent in January, under what it was in January, 1945, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports.

The decline in cotton ginnings from 362,000 bales in January, 1945 to 33,000 bales in January, 1946, as well as a similar decline in marketings of cottonseed accounted for practically all the drop in income.

The Bureau's Texas Business Review for February computed the January cash income as $58,000,000, as compared with approximately $98,000,000 in January, 1945.

BUILD AROUND COTTON

"The only diversification that will benefit the South in the long run is one in which a balanced farm program is built around cotton, the one cash crop eminently adapted to southern soil and climate and is the growing of which the farmer's experience best fits him."

The Cotton Digest, Houston

On most Cotton Belt Farms, the farm program will be better balanced and on a sounder economic basis when built around COTTON. For Cotton, the South's No. 1 cash, food and fiber crop, also furnishes essential Cottonseed Meal, Cake and Hulls to feed the Nation's farm and ranch livestock.

- Food, fuel and clothing are higher. But electricity is still cheap!
- Today, electricity for the average household costs only about half as much as it did fifteen years ago. If your bill is a little higher than it was then, that's because you use a lot more electrical appliances. And you're getting just about twice as much for your money!
- Why is electricity so cheap? Because tax-paying electric companies under experienced business management have done a better and better job of bringing the benefits of electricity to more and more families at lower and lower prices.

LET'S STOP FEEDING INFLATION

You know what happens... When you continue to spend more than you make and... Keep on borrowing to make up the difference! You know too, that a big chunk of every dollar you earn and every dollar you spend goes to pay the cost of government. That's why it's important for you to take a good look at the way the government spends your dollars.

Government should begin now to live within its means

During the war government necessarily spent huge sums of money. Yet, with the war over, the government plans to spend four times as much in the coming year as it spent in the highest pre-war year.

Most thoughtful people believe that government expenditures are now far greater than they need be.

They believe that government, like a family, should live within its means... that it should not spend more than it takes in... that it should not keep on going deeper into debt.

Yet that is exactly what's happening today. Our government is spending billions more than it takes in. And it continues to borrow to make up the difference.

This is the kind of money-handling that causes inflation.

Economy in government means money in your pocket

If the American people—through Congress—will reduce government spending and take steps to encourage production, inflation will be stopped... and this is the only way it can be stopped.

Write your representatives in Congress today.

Urge them to cut the cost of government, eliminating all waste... all unnecessary services... and postponing all expenditures that can be put off until our war bills have been paid.

Urge them to make the government start living within its means... at a level that you and your neighbors can afford to pay.

You'll see the results soon in the cost of everything that you buy... food, clothing and everything else. And you'll be doing your country a real service.

YOUR DOLLARS... a postcard to the National Association of Manufacturers, 14 West 49th Street, New York 20, N. Y., will bring your copy of this informative booklet on government spending—a subject which is all-important to you.

This week we have a very popular Senior couple. The girl is small and very cute. She has light brown hair and blue eyes. She is on the Warwhoop Annual Staff. The boy has rather light hair also, and it is curly. He came to Haskell only this year, but arrived in time to come out for football. Who are they?

Next we have a Junior boy and a Sophomore girl. The girl is small, blonde, and very energetic. She is president of her class, and is very popular among both boys and girls. The boy has black hair. He played basketball and football. He was best all-around boy this year. Who are they?

The Sophomore couple this week is very well known around HHS. The girl has blonde hair and blue eyes. She was recently seen in a yellow two-seated convertible, and at present drives a maroon car. The boy has dark hair, and is better known by a nickname than his real name. He works at one of the shows in town. Who are they?

And now the Freshmen. The girl is short and pleasingly plump. She has light brown hair and grey-blue eyes. She is very popular with everyone. The boy is small, with light hair. He is one of the reporters for the Freshman class. Who are they?

SENIOR SLANDER

In case any of you kids didn't know it the spring holidays are coming up the last of this month take trips but I think most of them are going to stay home.

When Felton told Earl the other evening that he preferred the company of his fellowmen and that women no longer interested him, Earl replied that he was broke, too.

Why don't the senior girls (who always keep their chemistry notebooks up) refuse to loan the boys theirs unless they ask them for a date? The boys might raise a howl or else start keeping up their notebooks.

SPORTS REVIEW

In case you haven't heard, track season has begun and the Indians have only a few tracksters out. It's known that more boys could come out and in case you are interested there are only a few more weeks until the District Meet which is to be held at McMurry College in Abilene. So if you want to or have an interest in the old HHS track squad come out and join us.

The boys out for track are Rice Alvis, Henry Harris, Herbert Vines, Earl Ross, Dobber Dodson, Peter Powers, Asro Bryant, Bobby Neil Smith and Abe Turner.

SOCIETY

Haskell High School was very fortunate in having the Abilene Christian College Band here Monday morning March 11. They played several songs and two overtures for us. The songs we liked best were The Three Blind Mice with the clarinets leading, and Turkey in the Straw. They have a very good band and we hope we may be fortunate enough to have them play for us again soon.

ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

Hey, kids! Ricardo the magician was really super! Didn't you think so?

How he did all those tricks we'll never know. Not even after he told us!

He really knew his business, but we are sorry Arthur Vance, who is a famous pianist, didn't get to come with him because of his mother's illness.

Gypsy Ramblers, thanks a lot for the wonderful show!

JUNIOR CHORUS

The Junior Chorus went to Stamford to present a program on March 12. We sang for the Stamford Music Club and High School. The Haskell Harmony Club, our sponsor, made it possible for us to go to Stamford and we appreciate their help. We are very lucky to have such a swell director as Mrs. Moore. Girls, hats off to her! We are also very grateful to Mrs. Odell, president of the Harmony Club, who sees that we have a good time but sang, too.

We were honored to have the Stamford Music Club give a tea for us afterwards.

When the curtain went up we sang Lift Thine Eyes to the Mountains, next we sang Lullaby, and our closing number was Steal Away. Those who sang solos were Mary Lois Littlefield, Nancy Burton, Nelle King, and Carolyn Turner. Anita Jo Pitman is the chorus accompanist.

Charles Greenway is one of the outstanding students of HHS. His personality and easy way makes everyone like him and his ability in sports makes everyone admire him. Charles will long be remembered for his loyalty to HHS as Charles played on Haskell's team while living in Stamford. He played football all his four years in high school and basketball three years. He was elected football hero, which he truly deserved. He is vice-president of FFA this year and H Club reporter. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Greenway.

Pansy Harrow, one of the new students of HHS is another favorite with the student body. This is Pansy's first year to attend Haskell but she has already made many friends. Her dark hair, eyes, and skin make Pansy a beauty as well as a very well-liked girl. Pansy is a member of Gypsy Ramblers and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Harrow.

BABY CHICKS

We don't hear much from Tulsa and Freida and we have such a hard time keeping up with Pansy and Sis that we just quit. Tula and Freida have been good little girls we know but we just can't seem to catch Pansy and Sis long enough to find out if they are being good. I wish I could keep up with them. I bet I could have a lot more fun.

Charles Crandall has evidently noticed or discovered something in the library. Should you be in the library at certain times of the day I'm sure you'd see him. Funny he never finds a book that would interest him.

Haskell was really represented at the Fat Stock Show in Fort Worth recently. Rice and Henry even went so far as to get their picture put in the paper.

We take orders for Baby Chicks, straight run, in most all strains. Delivery every Monday.

Beta Chi Chapter Meets Saturday

The Beta Chi chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma met Saturday, March 23, at the home economics cottage at Haskell for a luncheon in celebration of their tenth birthday.

At 12:30 o'clock guests assembled in the dining room where Mrs. Iva Palmer led the group in singing "A Prayer for Delta Kappa Gamma" for an invocation. The luncheon was served by the home making class under direction of Miss Louise Newman, home demonstration agent of Haskell County.

Mrs. Hazel Weaver, president of the chapter recognized the following guests of honor: Mrs. Marguerite McCollum Jordan, Mrs. Irene Ballard, Miss Minnie Ellis, Miss Evelyn Ellis and Dr. Eula Lee Carter, head of the Spanish department of Texas Christian University.

Following the program an initiation service was held, followed by a short business session.

Beta Chi chapter includes the counties of Haskell, Knox, Stone-wall and Throckmorton.

Mrs. Herren Directs Study Club Program

Mrs. R. W. Herren was director for the program of the Progressive Study Club at the regular meeting last Thursday evening.

China was the subject of the evening's program. Many interesting souvenirs which had been sent from China to Mrs. Pyeatt McCollum by her husband were on display. Mrs. McCollum told many interesting stories in connection with this display.

Virgil Meadors Jr., told of many experience of the Burma Road and over The Hump. He also told of the rural life in China and of the people's occupations.

Others on the program were Mrs. Paul McNutt and W. O. Holden.

About twenty club members attended.

Parent Study Group Discusses 3 Topics

Members of the Parent Education Study Group met for the third night meeting Friday night in the Homemaking Cottage. Three topics relating to parents and their problems were discussed.

Roy Sanders opened the discussion by presenting the topic, "Being a Parent Is a Problem." He stressed the point that it is our duty to rear our children in such a manner that they will not only be a pleasure to us, but that they will be interested in and credit to the community as well.

We should be interested in the affairs of our children; we should know where they are going, who they are going to be with, and what activities they will engage in. Rather than sending them to Sunday School and Church services and to some of the other places we are prone to send them, we should take them with us as well.

We should see to it that our children can be economically independent. Therefore, the school and its problems become our problem. It is our duty to find out the existing conditions and cooperate with the teachers and school officials to the greatest extent. If we train our children correctly in their early years, and see that they have the proper leaders after they leave the family circle and enter school with its numerous and varied activities, we will be pleased to find that they are a joy and a pleasure to us and to those with whom they come in contact.

Garry C. Myers' opinion on Obedience and what to do about the lack of obedience was emphasized by Mrs. Fred Stockdale. Misbehavior on the part of youngsters does not necessarily imply that they are bad children. It is usually a reflection on the parents in that they have not trained and directed the children as they should have. When a child fails to do as his parents bid him, he might be reminded again, but the third time don't speak—just spank. This process won't have to be repeated many times, for the youngster will be quick to catch on and lack of obedience will cease to be a problem. Children should be taught to respect parents and other adults. Lack of proper respect toward adults shows that the parents have failed again in the job set forth for them. It is our duty as parents to see to it that our children respect us and other adults.

Reverend Stuart Currie rounded out the discussion by calling to our attention the part religion and religious training should have in the growth, development and education of the child. We are so apt to neglect the spiritual training of the child. We act they usually have so many activities that there is no time left for spiritual guidance. In teaching children to become economically independent, we must not lose sight of the principles of honesty, fair play and dependability. Rather than how rich they become we must be concerned with how they become rich. Some children are growing up with the attitude that "dog eat dog

Fourth Grade Gives Program for PTA

The South Ward P. T. A. met March 21 at 3 p. m. The fourth grade presented a short safety play, When You Ride a Bicycle. A safety song was sung by the Safety Fairy and her four Brownies. Then the entire fourth grade sang a song.

Mrs. C. R. Cook was hostess for the meeting and for our singing, Battle Hymn of the Republic was selected. Our guest speaker, Mrs. Wallace Cox was then introduced and she gave a very interesting talk on Let's Get Rid of Prejudice.

During the business meeting there was a discussion on electing new officers for the coming year, but we decided to keep the old ones for the first month of school of the next term.

A Life Membership certificate was presented to Mrs. John Crawford in the Texas Congress P.-T.A.

Room count was taken and the fourth grade won in having the most mothers present.

Hillbilly Hoe-Down Furnishes Club Fun

Members of the Horizon Club were entertained by their sponsoring group, the Progressive Study Club, with a Hillbilly Hoe-Down, Thursday night March 21, in the Homemaking Cottage. Starters and their guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. R. W. Herren and Mrs. Felix Byrd who pinned names of comic characters on their backs. Each person guessed his identity with the aid of questions asked each other.

After all guests had assembled the party got under way with a rollicking game. While the girls were catching their breath, the boys participated in a stunt which tested their ability to recognize a song and then don the article of wearing apparel suggested by the group. Following this the entire group participated in a game of pinns. The boys again provided the entertainment when each tried to sit cross-legged on a milk bottle and write the word "milk." Each comic character then found his partner and entered wholeheartedly into a rousing singing game. A halt was called and all rested while playing a word game. Each member then found her guest and all were served refreshments.

Sandwiches, potato chips, pickles, cookies and cakes were served from long wooden tables lighted by candles of various sizes and colors. Empty bottles served as candle holders.

Horizon club members and their guests who attended the party were: Genelle Bailey, Carolyn Turner, Eddie Bess Fouts, Mary Emma Reeves, Dorothy Toliver, Nancy Ratliff, Lois Heiweg, Pat Harrison, Anita Jo Pittman, Mamie Ruth Naylar, Fredie Kendricks, Flova Jean Bird, Rex Power, Felix Byrd, Jerry Gannaway, Kenneth Tooley, Glen Marugg, Giles Kemp, George Larned, James Strain, all of Haskell and Donald Hash, Alton White, Johnny Bell and Bob Ricker from Stamford.

Games were under the direction of Mrs. James A. Byrd and Mrs. R. W. Herren. Mrs. Vanna Lee Whatley and Mrs. Garvin Foote provided the music. Mrs. Lon McMillan, Mrs. W. O. Holden and Mrs. Felix Byrd were in charge of the refreshments.

Magazine Club Hears Vet Talk on Italy

The Magazine Club had one of its most interesting programs Friday March 15 when Fred T. Sanders, Jr., spoke on Italy.

Fred Sanders was stationed in Italy for two years, and this gave him ample time to visit the places containing the great art collections. His lecture was all the more interesting because he had studied art in New York before joining the Army, and was unusually well prepared to appreciate the works of the old masters.

The highlights of his talk were the Royal Palace at Concerta, the Vatican and St. Patrick's Cathedral. He gave vivid descriptions of the masterpieces of Michael Angelo and Raphael.

The club room was beautifully decorated with spring blossoms. The director and hostess, Mrs. F. T. Sanders, Sr., and Mrs. Roy Sanders served refreshments to the club members and guests.

Liberty H-D Club Has All-Day Meet

The Liberty Home Demonstration Club held its regular meeting Friday, March 22 at the home of Mrs. W. J. Kendrick.

At the noon hour a delicious lunch was served.

House was called to order by the chairman and business matters were discussed.

Refinishing pearl buttons was studied and an enjoyable recreation was spent.

A quilt was completed for the benefit of the treasury.

Visitors were Mesdames Milford Henshaw, Claud Gordon, Gerald Lytle and Jim Henshaw. Members present were Mesdames Collins, Davis, Speer, Wisdom and Kendrick.

The club will meet next with Mrs. Leclair—Assistant reporter, Mrs. Orbie Collins.

and devil take the hindmost" is the only way to survive. Homes, churches and schools must work together to rid our young people of this idea, never losing sight of the fact that children must grow physically, mentally and spiritually.

National Executive Of Camp Fire Will Address Meeting

Martha Allen, National Executive of the Camp Fire Girls, Inc., will be the main speaker at the area meeting of the district of the Camp Fire Girls Inc., April 11, 12 and 13 at the Adolphus Hotel, Dallas.

West Texas Area Council should be represented by at least ten members. Supt. J. C. Scott has been asked to speak on the panel discussing Public Relations. Mrs. T. R. Odell, area extension chairman and Mrs. Artie May Maloy, education chairman for the area are being asked as part of the ten from the area, as is the president of the board, John A. Couch.

The national executive has no vote in area matters so it is imperative that the laymen attend the meeting at which the president, Judge Clarence Craft of Ft. Worth will preside. Mrs. Fred Stockdale, West Texas area executive, will attend the professional conference scheduled for the same days and remain over to attend the camping conference scheduled from Saturday through Sunday at El Tesoro, Camp Fire camp of the Ft. Worth Council, near Granbury.

Vets May Reenlist With Former Rank

Under a liberalized plan recently released by the War Department, certain deserving former enlisted men may reenlist in the grade held at time of discharge from the army regardless of how long they may have been separated from the service. Consideration will be based strictly on the service job formerly held by the applicant and the length of time spent on this job. Anyone desiring further information about this opportunity should contact Pvt. Milton Stapp at the City Hall in Haskell.

Spots Is Convinced He Wasted His Time

DENTON, Tex.—Spots, North Texas State College's sewer-watching dog has finally been convinced that there is nothing down the hole, and has lost interest after staring down the college sidewalk drain since Jan. 20.

The dog, who has been featured in leading newspapers throughout the nation and who was the Magazine's picture of the week, Mar. 4, watched Denton firemen plug the sewer-hole this weekend. In the presence of more than 150 visitors on the campus.

When firemen poured gallons of water into the sidewalk drain, the mongrel dog had to be restrained as he attempted to crawl down the sewer. Later firemen and college officials led the dog to the end of the drain where it emptied into a flat basin near the college power house and allowed him to inspect the contents.

Spots interestingly watched the procedure about 15 minutes, then, disgusted, walked away. College officials had the drain cleaned following requests by telephone wire and letter from all sections of the United States, Canada and Mexico. The drain held nothing, and now even Spots is convinced.

This week, college officials noticed the dog at the hole only occasionally and then he only hesitated, then passed it by. Spots has a home now, and although the gypsy dog prefers to roam the campus and belong to the student body in general, he finds his way to his new home at meal-time and is beginning to put on weight.

New Bread Better, Darker in Color

Tests made by the Department of Agriculture to determine the color and quality of bread made with the new 80 per cent extraction flour produced loaves of an off-white or creamy cast which differed little in looks and taste from those made with present standard white or rich flour.

To avoid any mistaken impressions about the new flour, the Bureau of Human Nutrition and Home Economics informs us that for many years modern white flour has been losing important values in milling. In order to get it white and fine the outer coat of the grain was removed and with it about seven-eighths of the thiamine and niacin, three-fourths of the riboflavin, and four-fifths of the iron, some calcium, phosphorus and the better quality protein was also removed. Some of these values were returned when flour was enriched. If the present standards of enrichment are continued, the new 80 per cent flour will have these same values and an additional improvement in protein quality.

The new flour is finer and lighter in color than whole wheat flour. Wedding announcements at The Free Press.

For downright comfort, I wouldn't swap my cottage for the finest mansion unless I could take my closet furnace with me. This, you know, is the vented gas appliance that provides luxurious automatic central heat. It was installed when house was built and is financed as part of total house cost. Therefore, central heat, considering its advantages, costs me little, if any, more than ordinary heat. No wonder Lone Star Gas Company recommends closet furnace for heating cottages. Of course, it is vented to a flue.

Training on The Job

American servicemen who went away to war made many sacrifices. They gave up opportunities in the world at a time when they stood ready to make the most brilliant bids to get started in life. Some gave up established businesses that were no more when they returned. A great many of them have needed assistance to get started in the world.

Youth Week

Perhaps the most frequent and caustic criticism levied against Haskell by younger people is this: "There's nothing here." The statement is almost entirely correct. Naturally, some entertainment comes to Haskell, but there is no continuous means here to afford diversion and relaxation. Young people here have to go to other towns to find their entertainment, or else they have to be content with the theaters. Picture shows are a good entertainment, but they are hardly sufficient for a well-planned program of entertainment.

Best-Dressed

We have a profound admiration for the Fashion Academy. We presume the Academy is in New York. Or it has branch offices in every city, town and hamlet in the United States. At least we think it should have for it has just completed.

Advices on Removing Spots on Furniture

If white spots on varnished furniture are slight they can be removed by rubbing with camphorated oil or oil of peppermint. Another method is to wash the surface of the furniture with a mixture of one quart of warm water, three tablespoons of boiled linseed oil and one tablespoon of turpentine. It should be dried with a soft cloth then rubbed with furniture polish.
For the more severe spots which are old or very deep, Louise Newman, County Home Demonstration Agent, advises the use of an abrasive as well as oil. One method is to dip the finger in salad oil, then in-salt, and rub. Repeat the treatment until the spot disappears then dry and polish. A paste made of powdered pumice and linseed oil and rubbed over the spot with the finger or soft cloth until the spot disappears, is another method frequently used.

Allen Says Duties Halt Campaigning

W. C. Allen, who recently announced his candidacy for the office of city marshal, has said in a statement this week that he will appreciate the voter's consideration of the fact that he has been engaged in the duties of his position as nightwatchman and probably will not be able to see all the voters.

He added that he would see as many voters as possible but that his present duties engage his time about twelve hours during the night and he is left with but little time to campaign.

Cross-Country—

(Continued from Page One) A number of radio stations have broadcast the news of the continent-crossing rider and he made a personal broadcast over a radio station at Pecos. Many newspapers also had given publicity to his feat and he had several clippings to prove it.

Aside from his illness, his greatest discomfort was caused by sandstorms. One struck March 4 when he was at Las Cruces, N. M., and the other found him at Odessa on March 14, date of the last sandstorm here. The wind reached 75 miles per hour, he said.

People he has encountered on the trip have been very hospitable to him and five of them have invited him to spend the night in their homes. Three of the invitations came from Texans.

Satterwhite already has received requests from as far away as Cincinnati, wanting him to appear there. The cowboy thinks he will have enough riding by the time he reaches New York City. He plans to buy a car and a trailer and resort to modern conveniences on the return trip. He is considering settling down in Texas after he gets back to California.

Joe Bob King Sent To Marshall Islands

Joe Bob "Dusty" King, 31-c, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd King, who has been stationed on Okinawa the past 11 months with the 521st CBMU, has been transferred to the USS Enoree and received orders to be on the Marshall Islands in April to take part in the atomic bomb tests.

Dusty landed on Okinawa during the heaviest fighting and also experienced the island's worst typhoons. He enlisted at 17 while in his senior year of high school. He has attended the University of Okinawa and received three certificates to finish his high work and receive his high school diploma when he returns.

R. O. 'Bob' Miller Is Candidate in City Marshal Election

In connection with his candidacy for city marshal in the election to be held Tuesday, April 2, R. O. (Bob) Miller made the following statement to the voters and people of Haskell with whom he is personally acquainted:

"I have lived in Haskell most of my life. I am 33 years of age, and a veteran of the U. S. Navy. I enlisted Nov. 12, 1943, and spent 21 months overseas. I was discharged with an honorable discharge Dec. 22, 1945.

"Your vote and influence will be very much appreciated. R. O. (Bob) Miller."

E. W. Green, highway patrolman, testified that he had taken the twins to the gin where they showed him how they overturned the safe. Green said three men turned the safe upright and asked Odell to guess how much it weighed.

Sheriff Mart Clifton, who was petitioner in the hearing, was the last direct witness to be called by counsel for the petitioner. He told of taking the children into custody and of their telling him of being responsible for acts at the church except for about five minutes when he questioned the boys, a statement that was denied by the father. Sheriff Clifton appeared once again Saturday morning as a rebuttal witness.

Evidence by witnesses called by counsel for the respondent established the fact that the father and mother are law-abiding and respected citizens who provide their six children with a good home. W. A. Holt and W. S. Pogue testified that Nelson had always bought plenty of groceries for his family and had been an excellent customer.

Clovis Bartley testified that he was working near the East Side Church the morning of Feb. 26, date the damage was discovered, and heard something fall and said the noise came from the direction of the church. The children were in school at the time. Emery Anderson said on the stand that he saw lights burning at the church the night before the damage was found, and also saw two cars parked at the church. Other witnesses for the respondent were Joe Pace, J. R. Crain, Covell Adkins, Frank Spencer, Tom Glenn and Edwards.

Mrs. Nelson testified sons were not out of the church a few minutes on the damaged. She told of her sons while they were at home about ten minutes. The boys told of their baptistry of the church, breaking some of the lights. They said they overturned or damaged the church.

Jury members were J. C. Foreman; J. R. Barrett; O. R. Cox, John West, Leonard, Gaston, Robinson, Felix Mullins, Smith.

Gas 'n Air

By BOB and PAUL Howdy Folks: It looks like we are on the right track to get readers for our advertising. Several folks came in and mentioned the opening column.

One man offered us a good joke to use in the write-ups. That's the kind of cooperation we like and appreciate.

He said that every man likes to see a broad smile, especially if she is smiling at him.

Not a bad one and we are glad to get it.

Already we are wondering whether we'll be able to wax humorous every time we sit down to write this column.

There's one thing we can always write about with pleasure, though, and that's our new Hartman quick changer. It's the best money can buy for battery testing and fast changing.

You'll be pleased with it, too, if you'll give it a try.

After Stockdale read the charge to the jury, Odell made a motion to have the hearing dismissed on the grounds that the children were not accountable for their acts by reason of their age. Judge Chapman overruled the motion and the testimony began.

The procedure was slow at first when Odell objected numerous times to questions asked witnesses by Stockdale. Judge Chapman finally ruled that Odell should not object to further testimony on the grounds that the children were not amenable to the law, declaring that the hearing was not a criminal one. He instructed the jury not to consider whether or not the acts described during the testimony were criminal.

Duncan Head, first witness for the petitioner, described damage found at the Graham Mill & Elevator Co., of which he is manager. Butler was the second witness and declared he had seen the Nelson twins overturn five tombstones about October 29, 1944. Mrs. Butler, followed him on the stand and corroborated his testimony. Parks Woodson was the next witness, describing damage to cars and tools belonging to C. B. Lackey and Bill Brock while the two men were employed by him while constructing a building.

Weldon Turnbow, manager of the gin, told of the damage he found at the gin where a safe had been overturned. He became confused at one point, saying he found the damage about Feb. 29 of this year. W. T. Priddy, pastor of the East Side Baptist Church, was next on the stand and told of the church damage. His testimony brought out that Mrs. Nelson and her children regularly attend the church of which he is pastor. Lackey testified next, followed by Brock, who said his car had not been damaged and that only some papers were scattered.
