Shell Employees Win Safety Award

Because of its outstanding achievement in safety during the last two years, the Shell Pipe Line Corporation's employees were presented a certificate of honor by the Joseph A. Holmes Safety Association at the home office of the Corporation in Houston, Texas, on August 16, 1946.

Presentation was made by G. M. Kintz, of the Bureau of Mines, at a banquet attended by area and division superintendents, training representatives, first-aid and safety instructors, and others.

Mr. Kintz, in making the presentation, explained the award was based on achievement, not competition. "Recognition comes for what you have done and not for what someone else did not do in the matter of safety," he said. "A good safety record is not an ideal, but a working reality. Safety is not a goal, but a means of reaching a goal." Kintz advised against relaxing safety efforts because a splendid record had been made in the past, adding, "I hope each of you leaves here tonight fully determined to come back next year with another outstanding record which reflects the fine teamwork of you and your men in the field."

Upon accepting the award, T. E. Swigart, the Corporation's president, said, "Credit for this achievement rightfully belongs to the men over our entire system who established this commendable record by their constant effort and fine cooperation with our able safety instructors."

The Joseph A. Holmes Safety Association is a national organization devoted to the promotion of safety in American industry. It is composed of twenty-nine organizations, which include the American Federation of Labor, the American Red Cross, Bureau of Mines, and U. S. Public Health Service. No awards were made during the war, but recently the safety achievements of various companies from 1941 to 1945 were studied and certificates of honor presented to those with extraordinary accomplishments. In the Southwest, only twenty-nine companies merited awards for the 5-year period, and Shell Pipe Line Corporation is one of them.

The safety record which earned the certificate covered approximately 7,000,000 man-hours worked in 1944 and 1945, during which time the company reduced its accident frequency rate from 12.7 to 2.4, and included 1,788,854 man-hours worked without a disabling injury.

Sharing credit in the outstanding safety record are Shell Pipe Line employees at Haskell, Weinert, and Hamlin who have organized the Haskell Safety Chapter. The chapter made notable contributions to the safety record which earned the award for the company.

Chapter officers are: O. G. Harvey, governor, Hamlin; R. W. Bischofschausen, chairman, Weinert; and M. W. Roberson, secretary, Weinert. Meetings are regularly held in Haskell.

The 4-H Club section of the Youth United for Famine Relief program has already made its first contribution—a check for $1382, presented to the Famine Emergency Committee.

Hubam Clover Ideal In Crop Rotation

Favorable results were received in this year's yield of maize following Hubam clover, according to Elmer Boedecker, cooperator with the California Creek Soil Conservation District, whose farm is ten miles northwest of Stamford on the Sagerton highway. Early in the spring of 1945 Boedecker planted his Hubam and then harvested seed from the field in August making a yield of approximately 170 pounds to the acre. After harvest the crop residue was "stubble mulched", that is, turned back to the land in such a manner as to leave the trash and litter on and in the upper few inches of the soil. This year combine maize was planted on this plot and also on adjacent land where clover was not grown. Boedecker stated that in spite of the drought condition which prevailed in his locality, the maize grown following the clover made an estimated ten per cent larger yield than did that where no clover was raised. "The tilth of the soil was better and there always appeared to be more moisture in the clover land" was Boedecker's comment concerning his observations. Hubam, an annual white clover, is grown quite extensively in the black land belt of Texas as a soil building legume crop. When grown in a rotation with field crops, it has brought about a reduction in the amount of root rot in cotton as found by the Agricultural Experiment Station at Temple, Texas. This reduction has run as high as 95 per cent. Hubam has been grown in this district to a limited extent as yet, but with successful results as to yield. Dick Boedecker and Milburn Thompson, both farming in the same vicinity as Elmer, raised patches of this clover last year and harvested seed in amounts ranging from 150 to 200 pounds per acre. In addition to its soil building and seed producing qualities it also furnishes good grazing as witnessed by the completeness with which it was grazed on the Dick Boedecker farm on two rows which extended over into an adjacent sudan patch.

Steel Mills Are Safer Than Farms

THE steel industry has a better safety record than farming, according to a study of the statistics of the National Safety Council made by the American Iron and Steel Institute. The steel industry, which, during the past ten years, has stood consistently near the top of the list among safe industries, moved up from fifth to fourth place in 1945 among forty major industries on the basis of frequency of accidents. Owing to the lack of information about farm workers' exposure and accidents, no accurate basis exists for a comparison of accident frequency between farming and steel-making. However, reliable statistics place the number of accidental deaths among farm workers at 53 per 100,000 in 1945. The average for manufacturing industries, including iron and steel, was 19 per 100,000 workers in 1945. On that basis, 2900 lives would have been saved if the fatality rate among farm workers were as low as the average for all manufacturing. Today, industrial accidents occur less than half as often for each 100,000 workers as they did in 1930. Intensive safety programs and better working conditions have paid off in many fewer accidents and have helped make steel one of the safest of all industries.

If you were only a few days old, out of a job, and owed the government $2,500, you'd squall too.

Changes In Law Affect GI Benefits

Zerk Robertson, Veterans Administration contact representative, has summarized recent legislation, passed by Congress and approved by the President, which will affect thousands of veterans and their dependents of this area. The new legislation comes within the jurisdiction of the Veterans Administration:

- Increases by 20 per cent the pensions of nearly 2,000,000 veterans of both World Wars and 400,000 dependents, effective Sept. 1st.
- Sets up tighter standards for on-the-job training for veterans; provides for financial assistance to states to supervise the program; and sets pay ceilings of $200 for veterans with dependents and $175 for veterans without dependents who are studying or training under the GI Bill.
- Authorizes the Veterans Administration to operate canteens in hospitals and veterans' homes, financed by a $4,000,000 revolving fund.
- Allows full pensions to veterans who became disabled in peacetime service. Some 40,000 veterans are affected.
- Authorizes the payments of full pensions to veterans who are hospitalized or who live in VA institutions. In the past these payments have been limited to $20 a month and for those pensioned for non service-connected disabilities to $8.
- Lifted ceiling limits for dependents' pensions allowing widows of veterans of both World Wars and peacetime service to draw full payments for their minor children, regardless of the number.
- Appropriated $30,000,000 with which the Veterans Administration is enabled to provide an automobile or other conveyance for each World War II veteran entitled to compensation for loss, or loss of use, of one or both legs at or above the ankle.
- Increases pensions for more than 55,000 veterans and widows of the Spanish War group by 20 per cent, effective September 1. The pension increases will be made automatically. Inquiries are not necessary and will only delay the administrative work required to effect the new rates. The increases will be included in payments made September 30, Robertson said.
- Robertson visits Haskell each two weeks on Thursday afternoon with offices at the court house. The VA contact office at 618 Alexander Bldg., Abilene, Texas, remains open six days a week for the service of veterans from this area.

COOKED A FINE DINNER; THEN THREW IT TO DOG

One lady recently stated that she used to throw her own dinner to the dog most of the time. It made her sick just to look at anything to eat. She was swollen with gas, full of bloot, had headaches, felt worn out and was badly constipated. Finally she got INNER-AID and says she now eats everything in sight and digests it perfectly. Bowels are regular and normal. She is enjoying life once more and feels like "some other woman" since taking this new Compound.

INNER-AID contains 12 Great Herbs; they cleanse bowels, clear gas from stomach, act on sluggish liver and kidneys. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering! Get INNER-AID. Sold by all drug stores here in Haskell County. (c)

His Farm Fields Are Factories

U. S. FARMERS have made our fields into factories. We live better than people in other countries because our farmers get more out of the soil. The steel industry takes pride in the way it has helped bring about this improvement in farm practice. Tools of steel—from the plowshare to the giant combine—have multiplied in number and increased vastly in quality. Fifty years ago the typical farm in America used about 3 tons of steel. Today the figure is nearer 17½ tons. That is a measure of the modernization of agriculture and an indication of the interdependence of steel and farming. We no longer have separate "farm production problems" or "industrial production problems." We have but one set of problems for everybody. If strikes, for instance, restrict the supply of farm implements and supplies through work stoppages, or make their cost prohibitive, America is out of gear. Anything which tends in this direction is bad for the farmer—and finally for everybody. Farmers know it. Everybody else should know it. Steel mills need all the scrap iron and steel they can get. The shortage is serious. Farmers can get extra dollars and help increase steel output by sending worn-out machinery, etc., on its way to the furnaces. AMERICAN IRON AND STEEL INSTITUTE, 350 Fifth Avenue, New York 1, N. Y. The Institute has printed a booklet STEEL SERVES THE FARMER. Write for a copy and it will be sent gladly.

NEWS OF INTEREST to WOMEN

Strike—At Whom?

Financial reports make interesting reading to people who know even a little bit about what they mean. To some, they look drab because they are printed mainly in figures; many students never have learned to enjoy studying figures. Just the same, dull old numbers tell the truth in a romantic way to those who love cold facts of struggle and adventure.

Late in May it was my good fortune to have with me an annual report of one of America's largest corporations when I had to spend three hours on a day train. In the back of my mind as I rode along, was a lurking fear that I might reach home a day (maybe a week) late because of labor troubles, just then coming to a head. My dread threw a bright light on the figures in hand.

Division of Wealth

The company about which I was reading plays an important part in the lives of more than a quarter of a million people: 100,000 employees and 150,000 stockholders. Two out of every five of these people drew wages while the other five received dividends. Two average share owners got less than $500 a year. The average employee took home more than $2,500 a year.

Daily newspapers for days had reported threats of strikes in the plants of the firm I was studying, also on the lines of the railroad I was riding, and in many other industries. Question: If all the employees of all the companies strike for what they want and get it, who will pay the difference? How will they pay it? These questions have answers and they're not secrets.

Enter Apple Conductor

The train stopped for a few minutes under the sheds of a big town station and a railway newsboy came through with fresh afternoon papers. On page one, under Washington date-line, a wire story told how OPA would grant higher prices on automobiles. Nearby was another item about a 10% boost in shoe prices. Then I remembered that bread and milk and meat all had gone up recently.

Whether you ride or walk or only eat, the price gains catch you. Wages are inside the cost of every manufactured thing, and the consumer pays. It is too obvious to deserve proof. Not long ago officialdom was sounding off freely about how wages in Detroit could be boosted without charging higher prices for automobiles but it didn't work out that way. Why?

Strikes Are Weapons

It is because strikes are not tools. The official theory was right: Wages can go up without boosting prices but production has to be increased if it happens, and strikes don't increase production. Sudden wage increases of 15% to 30% have to come from somewhere, but where? A stockholder drawing $500 a year can't offer much of a boon to a $2,500 wage earner.

Strikes can't take something from the owners of a company that the owners don't get. That leaves nobody to pay the higher wages but Mr. Consumer whose family drives the car, wears the shoes and eats the food. A large majority of consumers are themselves workers. In the absence of increased production, a strike is a boomerang.

H-D Clubs Will Resume Meetings

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui, many women say, has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, & thus help build resistance for the "time" to come. Started 2 days before "your time," it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. Try it!

Oldest Dog Search Being Made Here

In the hope that it may be found in this locality, The Free Press has been asked to aid in the Gaines Dog Research Center's search for the oldest dog in America.

The dog is wanted so that it and its owner or owners can be duly honored during the forthcoming observance of National Dog Week, September 22 to 28.

Persons owning or knowing of extremely aged dogs are urged to send complete data and pictures immediately to Harry Miller, executive secretary, Gaines Dog Research Center, 250 Park Avenue, New York 17, N. Y. In the case of a purebred, a copy of the registration papers should accompany the communication, while in the case of a crossbred, an affidavit from the owner accompanied by sworn statements from persons acquainted with the dog since birth should be sent. The final selection will not be made until the leading candidates have been seen and investigated, according to Mr. Miller, who adds that any documentary papers submitted will be returned after National Dog Week is over.

An announcement that affects a number of Haskell County people was made Thursday morning by Don H. Morris, president of Abilene Christian College. To allow completion of emergency housing expanded to shelter 592 persons, the college yesterday postponed opening of the fall semester two weeks, to Sept. 30.

President Morris made the announcement following a conference with trustees residing in Abilene and members of the administrative staff.

As a result of the National School Lunch Act, more children over the nation should soon be getting better lunches.

Man Heating

AS PART OF HOUSE

When heating is planned as part of house and equipment installed when it is built or remodeled, it can be included as part of monthly payments. This way the finest automatic natural gas heat costs so little more each month that even the owner of a modest cottage can afford it. Evidence of this fact is that many of the 2,200 homes being built here in the Southwest in one of the nation's largest single home building projects will be heated with central automatic gas spaces. Below are two popular types:

Basement-type GAS FURNACE

For large houses with basement or ground floor utility room is the forced-air furnace with filters. It sends cleaned warmed air balanced with right amount of moisture to every part of house. It is automatically controlled to maintain desired temperature.

Closet-type GAS FURNACE

For the cottage where space is limited this closet-type furnace is ideal for installation in small space. It, too, provides clean, warm air throughout the house. It is completely automatic. It is quiet, efficient and costs little to operate.

Vent to A Flue...

Remember, flues are necessary for venting low gas heating equipment. Only when heat is used are wall sweating and air eliminated.

Lumbermen Ask Full Compliance With New OPA Rules

With the re-establishment of OPA, the Lumbermen's Association of Texas, through Gene Ebersole, executive vice-president, has again cautioned all lumber dealers, manufacturers, truckers, and retailers to cooperate fully with federal authorities by observing the statutes of the law and aiding in the elimination of the lumber black market.

According to Marshall T. McCullough, OPA Enforcement Attorney for the Houston region, numerous cases have been uncovered recently where lumber dealers have failed to maintain proper records, a direct violation of the law. Failure to comply with this provision subjects the offender to a maximum fine of $5,000 or imprisonment for as much as two years, or both.

"Cases of this nature," said McCullough, "have come before this office with regularity in the past few weeks. We're sparing no efforts to prosecute to the very limit of the law."

Such feeble excuses as "I intended to keep books but just never did" — "I know I should but just haven't gotten around to it" — "I've never bothered to keep records" — "I know I'm supposed to, but it's just too much trouble" — prompted McCullough to chuckle, "they'll find out fast that it's going to be a lot more trouble for them!"

"We're splitting our effort between manufacturers, retailers, and legitimate truckers," McCullough continued. "We're also preparing to institute action against those mills who are operating illegitimate retail yards by misusing Amendment 20 (covering the establishment of a retail yard) as an excuse for such operations."

The law states clearly that all sellers of lumber must keep records which will show a complete description of the items of lumber sold (grade, condition, quantity), the name and address of the buyer, and the date of the sale and price for a period of two years. Buyers must keep similar records, including the name and address of the seller. Failure to comply with these provisions constitute a violation of the regulation.

Black market dealers have also felt the sting of McCullough's widespread efforts to eliminate through heavy prosecution, the alarming growth of black market dealings in lumber. A recent example cited was the case of R. H. Jowell, a small mill operator at Groveton, Texas. Jowell, apprehended selling lumber above the ceiling price, was tried in Houston before U. S. District Court Judge A. B. Hannay. Pleading guilty, he was fined $3500 and sentenced to serve nine months in the penitentiary. The penitentiary sentence was suspended for three years because of Jowell's bad health.

According to Ebersole, "The Lumbermen's Association of Texas urges all dealers to live under the rulings set up by the OPA and to assist federal authorities in every way possible to eliminate this vicious practice of evading the law."

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION

H. J. R. No. 62 proposing an Amendment to Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas by the addition of a new Section to be known as Section 49-b, creating a Veteran's Land Board and establishing a Veteran's Land Fund; providing for an election and the issuance of a proclamation therefor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section I. That Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto a new Section to be known as Section 49-b which shall read as follows:

"Section 49-b. There is hereby created a Board to be known as the Veteran's Land Board, which shall be composed of the Governor, the Attorney General, and the Commissioner of the General Land Office. The Legislature shall provide by law for the issuance by said Board of not to exceed Twenty-Five Million Dollars ($25,000,000) in bonds or obligations of the State of Texas for the purpose of creating a fund to be known as the Veteran's Land Fund. Such bonds shall be executed by said Board as an obligation of the State of Texas in such form, denominations, and upon such terms as shall be prescribed by law, provided, however, that said bonds shall bear a rate of interest not to exceed three per cent (3%) per annum.

"In the sale of any such bonds a preferential right of purchase shall be given to the administrators of the various teacher retirement funds, the Permanent University Funds, and the Permanent Free School Funds; such bonds to be issued only as needed, in the opinion of the Veteran's Land Board under legislative authorization.

"The Veteran's Land Fund shall be used by the Board for the sole purpose of purchasing lands suitable for the purpose hereinafter stated, situated in this State (a) owned by the United States, or any governmental agency thereof; (b) owned by the Texas Prison System, or any other governmental agency of the State of Texas; or (c) owned by any person, firm or corporation.

"All lands thus purchased shall be acquired at the lowest price obtainable, be paid for in cash, and shall be a part of the Veteran's Land Fund.

"The lands of the Veteran's Land Fund shall be sold by the State to Texas veterans of the present war or wars, commonly known as World War II, in such quantities, and on such terms, and at such prices and such rates of interest, and under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by law; provided, however, that any such lands remaining unsold at the expiration of eight (7) years after the effective date of this Amendment may be sold to anyone as shall be prescribed by law.

"All moneys received and which have been received and which have not been used for repurchase of land as provided herein by the Veteran's Land Board from the sale of lands and for interest on deferred payments shall be credited to the Veteran's Land Fund for use in purchasing additional lands to be held to Texas Veterans of World War II, in like manner as shall be provided for the sale of lands purchased with the proceeds from the sales of bonds, provided for herein, for a period of eight (8) years from the effective date of this Amendment; provided, however, that so much of such moneys as may be necessary to pay interest on the bonds herein provided for shall be set aside for that purpose. After eight (8) years from the effective date of this Amendment, all moneys received by the Veteran's Land Board from the sale of the lands and interest on deferred payments, or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be set aside for the retirement of said bonds and to pay interest thereon, and any of such moneys not so needed shall be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund to be appropriated to such purposes as may be prescribed by law."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held throughout the State of Texas on the first Thursday in November, 1946, at which election all voters favoring the proposed Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the following words:

Question. Is it possible for me to complete a four year course in three years if I go to school during the summer as well as during the regular school year?

Answer. Under the accelerated program, in some schools, it is possible to complete the four-year course in three years or less.

Q. In event a veteran is employed, can he meet all requirements for a degree by attending late afternoon and evening classes on a regular schedule?

A. Some colleges and universities have served the needs of employed workers for many years by offering complete program of instruction in the late afternoon and during the evening. With the exception of medicine, the requirements for a degree in any curriculum may be met while the student is employed full-time during the day. Since it takes proportionately longer on a part-time basis, approximately 60 per cent of the veterans in the past two years have preferred to obtain subsistence benefits from Veterans Administration and attend college full-time.

Q. May I transfer from one college to another under the provisions of the Serviceman's Readjustment Act or the Rehabilitation Act?

A. Yes. Under the regulations of the Veterans Administration the veteran may change his school but he must have the approval of Veterans Administration in advance.

Q. If I get out of service just before school opens and do not have time to make formal application and wait for official determination of my eligibility and entitlement before the beginning of the term, may I attend classes?

A. Yes. You may make application, formal or informal, directly to the approved school that you desire to attend. You should, however, make a formal application on Form 1950 at the earliest possible time. This formal application may be submitted to Veterans Administration through the approved school.
