Child Safety Campaign Set This Month

A state-wide effort to reduce Texas' child accident toll of about 900 lives yearly through participation in the national safety campaign in September was set forth by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, as an immediate public health objective calling for concerted cooperation by all public health and medical authorities and interested civic organizations within the state. The needless loss of a single life, or the crippling of even one child, is an exorbitant price to pay for any neglect of this problem, said Dr. Cox. The importance of such a campaign is evidenced by the fact that accidents are now the leading cause of death among children more than one year old. Among children 5 to 9 years old, the death rate from accidents was 25.7 per 100,000, as compared with a rate of 4.6 for rheumatic fever and organic heart disease, the next cause; and among children from 9 to 14, the accident death rate was 20.8 and that for rheumatic fever and organic disease 7.2. The outstanding improvement in the death rates from all non-accident causes during recent years is the result of the advance in medical science and concentrated efforts in the field of child health. The premise of the child safety campaign is that efforts now must be intensified to bring about a somewhat comparable reduction in the number of child accidents. West Texas Irish potatoes are shipped to Oklahoma, Louisiana, New Mexico, Mississippi, Wisconsin, Kansas, Illinois, Missouri, Iowa, Ohio, Arkansas and Tennessee.

Seed Wheat

It is now time to begin thinking about sowing wheat. You can't afford to take a chance of grain crop by sowing heated, musty, weevil run-out wheat. We will buy your wheat, will exchange with you for a small difference. We have the best seed wheat we have ever and we are selling our seed wheat much lower than you would expect to pay for these varieties of quality.

The West Texas Fair will have the distinction of holding the world's first All Performance Quarter Horse Show when this year's Fair gets under way the week of Sept. 27, announced D. H. Jeffries, Fair Association President. This show, to be held Sept. 30-Oct. 2, will feature a three day race meet and three nights of performance contests with cowpokes from all over Texas riding hard to corral some of the $3000 added money and trophies which will be offered. Only registered quarter horses will be eligible to compete in the tests which will include a cutting race and the performance con-horse contest, reining contest, calf roping, western pair class, and women's reining and flag race. There will be six races each afternoon written to accommodate the horses on the grounds with the races being run in accordance with the official rules and regulations of the American Quarter Horse Racing Association. A photo finish will be used in each race. Abilene will be a real mecca for horse lovers during the Fair, for in addition to the Quarter Horse Show, a Palomino Show has been scheduled for the first three days of this colorful, annual event. Only registered stock may be entered in this show which has been sanctioned by the Texas Palomino Horse Exhibitors' Association. Premiums totalling $1550 and many fine trophies will be awarded. Miss Carolyn Williams and Jack Pippin Recite Vows In Church Ceremony Friday

Friday evening at six thirty, Miss Carolyn Williams, only daughter of Mrs. Carrie Sherrill Williams, became the bride of Jack Pippin, the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Pippin of Miles, Texas. Dr. Lewis J. Sherrill of Louisville, Kentucky, uncle of the bride, performed the ceremony in the candle-lighted First Presbyterian Church of Haskell.

The steps leading to the altar on the rostrum were covered with white. Tall floor stands of gladioluses and greenery formed the outline for the altar. White gladioli and fern in floor baskets were also used to further decorate the church. A trellis of greenery covered the choir section.

Miss Beverly Williams, harpist of Waxahachie, played "Oh Promise Me" before the ceremony. Miss Emily Grissom of Eastland sang "Because and I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. John Pace, who also played the traditional wedding music and Liebtraum during the wedding ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle Ben Charlie Chapman, wore a candlelight ivory satin gown fashioned with an illusion bertha trimmed with lace and embroidered with pearls and iridescent sequins. The tight fitting bodice came to a point at the waist. From the Victorian bustle in the back the cathedral length train cascaded. Her crown of pearls intermingled with orange blossoms was one worn by her mother and by her grandmother. From this crown flowed a fingertip veil of imported illusion dotted with pearls and sequin flowers. The bride carried a white orchid with stephanotis and carnations showered with white satin streamers.

For the traditional something old, the bride wore the orange blossoms of her grandmother for something new, she wore white satin slippers embroidered with seed pearls; for something borrowed, she carried a white Korean handkerchief belonging to her aunt, Mrs. Tom Davis, and for something blue, she used the ribbon from the Distinguished Flying Cross that was awarded Mr. Pippin while serving with the Eighth Air Force. In her shoes she wore a gold four leaf clover and a six pence for luck.

Mary Lou Robertson of Abilene and Leah Ratliff of this city were flower girls. They wore dresses alike in ivory net over ivory satin. Their off the shoulder frocks were sashes of ice cream satin. They carried gold baskets filled with white roses and petals.

Charles Chapman, dressed in a black velvet suit with a white satin shirt, carried the ring on a white satin pillow.

Miss Catherine Davis, a cousin of the bride, was her maid of honor. Mrs. Al Milch of Abilene, was matron of honor. Other bridesmaids were Beverly Williams, Bobbie Klatt of Waco, Maurine Treadwell of Fort Worth and Janice Pace of Haskell. The honor feminine attendants wore dresses of antique gold satin and the bridesmaids were identical dresses of ice cream satin. Their costumes were fashioned with front drapes made from the folds of satin and had semi-sweetheart necklines with high collars in the back. They wore mock veils of imported Swiss illusion cascading from gold head bands. Their mits matched their dresses in color. All carried flame colored gladioluses bouquets.

Clifford Pippin, the groom's oldest brother, served as best man. Ushers were Lyndel Smith of Munday, Royce Adkins of Haskell, Charles Roden of Munday and Willis Pippin of San Angelo.

Mrs. Williams, mother of the bride, wore a champagne colored dress of crepe with the neckline embroidered with sequins. Her accessories were in pecan brown and her corsage was an orchid.

Mrs. Pippin, the groom's mother, wore a grey crepe dress with matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony there was a reception in the garden of the bride's home. White gladioluses and baskets of fern were used in the yard decoration. The three tiered wedding cake was served by Mrs. Tom Davis from a table covered with a yellow and white organdy cloth. Mrs. E. N. Williams poured punch from an antique silver bowl belonging to Mrs. John W. Pace. Mrs. R. E. Sherrill, assisted by Betty Oates, presided at the

Miss Jimmy Lou Free Becomes Bride of Royce Adkins In Double Ring Ceremony

In a double ring ceremony read by Rev. Allen O. Webb, Miss Jimmy Lou Free, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Free of Cramham, became the bride of Royce Adkins, son of Mrs. Olen Dotson of Haskell, on September 5, 1948.

Vows were exchanged at 4:00 p. m. before the altar of the First Baptist Church. An arch of white satin, palm leaves, and white gladioli was flanked by treble candelabra bearing white tapers. Matching glads marked the aisles.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin, fashioned with a full skirt, ending in a sweeping train. The circular yoke of marquisette was banded and edged in lace and the long sleeves terminated in deep points on her hands. Wide lace emphasis was placed on the hem of the skirt and train, caught up in the front to reveal the four tiered lace petticoat. On her hair was a halo of pearlized orange blossoms, descending into a chapel length veil in fragile mist of silk illusion, and hand rolled. Her bridal bouquet was of white roses. Around her neck was an antique diamond lavellet belonging to her aunt, Mrs. M. R. Hemphill. Blue satin adorned her slippers of white satin.

Miss Nancy Kate Free of Graham served her sister as maid of honor, with the bride's niece, Paula Jo Roberts, as flower girl, and Miss Jeffie Maude Toliver and Miss Ruby Ejems as bridesmaids. The attendants wore identical gowns of perisian blue taffeta, with fitted bodices and cap sleeves that extended across the front to form the sweetheart necklines. The full skirts were caught in the back with deep bustles accented with dubonnet gladiols. Each wore gauntlets of matching trend, and a circle of dubonnet glads in their hair.

Dan Oates of Austin was best man, and Glenn Mann of Haskell and Dale Condron of Throckmorton were ushers.

Miss Nancy Furrh, cousin of the groom, played "Clare de Lune" as a pre-nuptial solo. She was also organist for the Lohengrin wedding march and recessional composition of Mendelssohn, and played "Traumerci" during the ceremony. Miss Jean Conner, accompanied by Miss Furrh, sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because."

The bride's mother wore a pebble crepe dress of aqua with sequin trim and elbow length gloves. Her accessories were black and her shoulder corsage was of white carnations. The groom's mother was attired in a birminghamp dress of dusty rose, also edged in sequins and complemented with elbow length gloves. Dark brown accessories and yellow tulleman roses completed her ensemble.

Immediately following the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Free were hosts to a reception at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Carl Wheatley. Mrs. Pat Speer presided at the bride's book, with Mrs. Steve Powers of Abilene and Mrs. Burnell Gilliland in charge of serving. Others in the house party were Miss Nanette Weaver of Haskell, cousin of the groom, and Mrs. Roy Clay Brock of Stillwater, Oklahoma. White gladioli decorated the dining table which was covered with imported lace over blue satin. In the center was a pastel pink cake with five cascading tiers, topped with a miniature bride and groom. White rosebuds, doves, and hearts outlined the tiers.

The bride's going-away costume included a clarinet red gabardine suit with clipper gray accessories and a shouldered corsage of white roses.

Mrs. Adkins is a 1945 graduate of Haskell High School and has been employed by the Southwestern Telephonic Company the past two years. The groom graduated from Haskell High School in 1944 and attended Texas A&M before enlisting in the Coast Guard.

After a wedding trip to New Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. Adkins will be at home at 805 1/2 47th St., in Austin, where Mr. Adkins is a law student at Texas University.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were: Mr. I. N. Furrh, Mr. Raymon Liles, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Monke, Mr. John Mayfield, Mr. and Mrs. John Alex Mayfield, Mr. and Bill Liles, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Liles, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Derr, and Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Guess, all of Weinert.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Prince, Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Prince, Mr. and Mrs. Raymon Mobley and Mrs. Steve Powers, of Abilene.

HASKELL COUNTY HISTORY

Brief Items Taken from Old Copies of The Free Press

20 Years Ago—Sept. 6, 1928

Seven representative citizens from Haskell County, most of them farmers, left Saturday morning for Abilene, where they will join a large party from West Texas for a tour of California. They will study the diversified farming methods used in that state with a view to adapting some of the practices to this section. Those going from this county included E. M. Whitaker and son Bill, J. O. Jackson and C. O. Davis of Rule, Ray Overton of McConnell, W. R. Perrin and W. M. Free.

The fourth annual Haskell County Old Settler's Reunion was held last Thursday in Baldwin's pasture east of town. Several hundred pioneer settlers of this section attended the affair, and a barbecue and picnic lunch was served at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Edwards and daughter have returned from a week's visit with relatives in San Angelo and Christoval.

Faculty of the Haskell Schools for the 1928-29 term has been announced as follows: J. Horace Bass, Superintendent; J. O. Dodson, High School Principal; Mrs. J. Horace Bass, North Ward Principal; Mrs. Irene Ballard, South Ward Principal; Herman

K. Henry, Vocational Agriculture; Mrs. Ed Sprowls, Home Economics; Miss Bertha Carmen, Mrs. George V. Wimlish, Miss Marguerite Stephens, Miss Dolly Louise Chambers, Miss Elaine Hills, Miss Lela Welsh, Miss Lewis Manly, Miss Alene Mitchell, Mrs. Scott W. Greene, Mrs. M. D. Crow, Mrs. J. O. Dodson, Mrs. Bob B. Covey, Miss Velma Hambleton, Miss Ruby Fitzgerald, Mrs. W. M. Murphy.

30 Years Ago—Sept. 14, 1918

M. H. Hancock of this city has received an inquiry from a friend in St. Louis, concerning the possibility of renting one thousand acres of land in Haskell County to be planted in wheat this fall. The St. Louis man wants to pay cash rent for the land, Mr. Hancock said.

John L. Robertson has returned from Springdale, Ark., where he spent several months for the benefit of his health. Judge S. W. Scott of San Antonio was in Haskell this week looking after business interests.

Elmer Wall, manager of the Fields and Hunt Store in Rule, was a business visitor in Haskell Friday.

Joe Maxwell returned Thursday morning from Ranger, where he has been for several weeks.

R. C. Montgomery of the Farmers State Bank made a business trip to Dallas and Fort Worth this week.

Mrs. W. M. Reid returned home the first of the week after a visit of several weeks with relatives in Sulphur Springs.

Arthur Hays and Mark Whitman left Wednesday evening for Ranger.

Miss Lula Smith of Temple arrived Thursday morning and will make her home with her cousin, Mrs. Leon Gilliam, during the school term.

Mrs. George W. Andress of Burkburnett is visiting the family of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Couch.

Rev. C. Jones left Friday for Spur to fill his appointment there Sunday.

M. B. Watson shipped two cars of cattle to the Fort Worth market the first of the week.

Earl Odell of the postoffice force left for Ranger Friday to look after his oil interests in that section.

Property owners of Baylor County, voting last week, approved a $300,000 bond issue to be used in constructing hard-surfaced highways in that county.

50 Years Ago—Sept. 10, 1898

S. S. Cummings informs us that he saw W. B. Tullis of the Livestock Sanitary Board at Quanah a few days ago and that Mr. Tullis told him that the quarantine line would likely be opened about October 1 for the passage of inspected cattle.

There were good rains in several parts of the county this week, but only light showers in town.

Judges H. G. McConnell and J. M. Baldwin attended district court in Fisher County this week.

The Haskell public schools opened Monday with five teachers and an attendance of 171 pupils. The attendance will probably be increased considerably a little later on.

Dr. A. B. King of Throckmorton visited Haskell the first of the week in response to a professional call.

Messrs. Foster and Scott moved their law and land offices this week to the second floor of the National Bank building.

W. F. Rupe and family and Mrs. H. S. Post and Mrs. W. F. Draper are expected to return this week from a visit in Dickens County.

Mr. Terrell of Ranger is here this week preparing to open up a new drug store.

A Lee Kirby was over from Aspermont this week.

Judge P. D. Sanders left Monday for Roby to have another round with the voters in that section.

We learn that Miss Sunie Reeves and Miss Cora Craft of Knox City were married, the former on Tuesday morning to a Mr. McLendon and the latter on Monday to a Mr. Sweet. Both young ladies are well known and have numerous friends in Haskell.

Mrs. Martin is again fixing up for the ladies in Carney & McKee's millinery department, after a visit of several weeks in Dallas.

Harley Sadler Tent Show Destroyed In Littlefield Fire

Tent and stage equipment of the Harley Sadler Show was destroyed by fire at Littlefield, Tuesday morning of last week.

The blaze was believed to have started from a cigarette dropped by a patron at the opening performance in Littlefield Monday night.

It took only 20 minutes for the "big top" to go up in smoke. Several hundred chairs were saved by the Littlefield fire department.

Sadler was presenting his stage show in a scheduled three-day stand. No immediate estimate was made on the value of equipment lost but an official of the show said it probably would run more than $20,000.

Jno. A. Couch Home Scene of Pre-Nuptial Breakfast

Friday morning at 9:30 in the home of Mrs. John Couch a breakfast was given honoring Carolyn Williams and Jack Pippin who were married on Sept. 3rd in the First Presbyterian Church here. Two aunts of the bride, Mrs. Ben Charlie Chapman and Mrs. R. C. Sherrill of Pittsburgh, assisted Mrs. Couch.

Place cards, made by tying together with wedding bells the pictures of the bride and groom-to-be, were laid for the following guests:

Bobbie Klatt of Waco; Mrs. Al Milch of Abilene; Miss Maurine Treadwell of Fort Worth; Mary Lou Robertson of Abilene; Willis Pippin of San Angelo; Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Williams and Beverly Williams of Waxahachie; Dr. R. E. Sherrill of Louisville, Ky.; Lyndell Smith and Charles Roden of Munday; Janice Pace, Leah Ratliff, Catherine Davis, Royce Adkins, and Mrs. Jno. W. Pace, all of Haskell.

WEEK-END VISITOR IN HASKELL

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church met September 6, at the church with the president, Mrs. D. H. Persons presiding.

Mrs. O. E. Patterson program plans for the months. Mrs. J. E. Patterson challenging interpretation theme for the year. Light Shall Thee Shine. The meeting was an inspirational meeting. Mrs. W. A. Kimbrough.

To The Cotton Producers

We want to thank each of you for your good patronage through the past years.

As the 1948 season opens we will be ready to serve you with the best market price for such cotton as we can buy and all the facilities for executing Commodity Credit Loans for cotton that is advantageous to you to place in the loan.

In executing the loans there will be no charge for our services except the "Clerk's Fee" as authorized by the Commodity Credit Corporation.

Bring us your grade cards and warehouse certificates.

If You Are an Average American

Your automobile is your second largest investment, and when you protect it, you also protect your largest investment, your home.

For if your automobile is uninsured or underinsured, it may become necessary for you to place a mortgage on your home in order to pay a liability judgment.

Don't gamble on these unpleasant probabilities when adequate protection costs so little.

CWT Fair—

Poultry Show Again Feature The Poultry Show division, missing from the fair for several years, has been resumed and the department greatly expanded to include a comprehensive picture of the growth and development of this important West Texas industry. The show is open to poultrymen and breeders of all West Texas.

Cowboy Events Added Another added division in this year's fair are Cowboy Events on Oct. 7-8, with several hundred dollars in prizes offered winning contestants. Events will include Cowboy and Cowgirl Riding Contests, Senior Cutting Horse Contest, Jackpot Roping Contest, and Reining Horse Contest.

With several thousand dollars to be expended for new buildings and improvements to the fair plant, the program includes rebuilding of the main livestock building, in addition to the facilities provided by the livestock building constructed last year, new pens for the sheep and swine departments, poultry building completely repaired and renovated, new gates and fences, repairing of the main exhibit building, with rearrangement of the interior to provide more space for booths and exhibits. A ladies lounge is also being added this year.

CEMETERY ASSOCIATION WILL MEET MONDAY
