Medical Prices Will Increase

Shortages always raise prices. The Texas Medical Association, by restricting enrollment in Texas medical schools to barely enough to replace deaths and retirement has cut down our supply of doctors, especially in our rural areas, thereby causing a shortage and higher fees for services, while 3,000 pre-med students find the gates barred against them.

This same medical association now plans to get control of the supply of all competitive healing professions, so they can cut off replacements in these healing professions and make the shortage even more acute and thus raise the prices higher than today.

The Basic Science Bill (S.B. 63) is designed to give the Medical Association complete control of all branches of the healing arts and it is being pushed by unlimited funds and a high-priced lobby. If we, the people do not write, phone or visit our senators and representatives, we will have this infamous legislation forced upon us.

This is a call for action. Want to know the names of legislators? Phone the Capital Station, Austin, Basic Science Bill, or phone today. (Paid Advt.)

They said,
"Rich man's toy!"

THAT'S what "wise guys" of the 1880's called the newfangled electric service. And that's all it might be today ... IF ...

IF people hadn't risked their savings to start electric companies such as yours, and to keep them growing.

IF others, often against expert advice, hadn't poured out their energy and time—to extend the wires farther and farther, make the service better and better, bring rates lower and lower.

They took the risks—they developed the skills—and everybody benefits. That's the way the American business system works. Rich man's toy? Today, electric service is every man's good right arm!

THOMAS A. EDISON, father of the Electric Age, February 11, 1847, and died October 18, 1931.

There is no monument above his grave. It is unnecessary this day. Somehow that seems quite fitting—because all the real monuments to Edison's greatness are around us.

We at the West Texas Utilities Company pay tribute to his memory, for Edison founded the first managed electric service company 67 years ago.

'Squeeze' netbooks
The "squeeze" is the farmers' and they can do a "squeeze" end. Farm crop off the cash for fertilizer and they can adopt Improved farm practices that will lower their cost of unit production. That is what C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist of Texas A&M College, says about the pinch of high production costs and sagging incomes generally are feeling. A recent drop in meat animal prices has the producers wondering "What Next?" about the net returns in livestock production.

And yearly everywhere people are asking questions about how to meet this situation and still keep fairly good living standards. To be a profitable farmer, you have to study the farm business carefully, says Bates, and work toward more efficient production. Whether the farm needs is for new machinery, a dairy barn, a tractor or a pasture fence, the "pay-off" should be increased goods per worker. In the long run these added investments not only pay for themselves, but lower costs and increase net profits. High yields from crops help lower costs, too.

It takes good management to keep the farm factories humming at top levels. Better livestock, fertile land, and the right kind of machinery are the standbys for making profits. These are obtained by planning and aiming for the best. Most farmers can improve some phase of their operations. They need only to plan to better utilize the same resources—land, livestock and modern equipment, says Bates.

Texas Poultrymen Adding Housing Units For Flocks

Many Texas poultrymen built new houses for their birds during the past year, in spite of the highest of construction.

The 1948 annual reports filed by county agents show that 3,405 laying houses, 4,126 brooder houses and 1,435 range shelters were built, according to a compilation made by W. J. Moore, assistant extension poultryman of Texas A&M College. An additional 9,002 old houses were remodelled.

A total of 7,108 4-H Club boys and girls conducted demonstration in poultry production, pullet production, laying flock management and in sanitation and disease control. They raised 336,936 chickens.

More than four hundred entries consist of a total of 126,701 birds from 95 counties were received in the Texas Extension Service Farm and Home Egg Laying Plan.

The objectives are:
1. To get higher egg production in Texas flocks.

ENROLLS IN H-SU

tion in Texas flocks.

2. To demonstrate the value of record keeping.

3. To put poultry production on a sound business basis.

4. To demonstrate the advantages of a good breeding, feeding and management program.

5. To encourage the marketing of eggs on a quality basis.

The program got under way Oct. 1, 1948, and will close July 31, 1949.

Texas imports far too many hatching eggs and chicks from other states, Moore believes. A sample of what is being done under the plan to produce baby chicks from Texas flocks is reported by Shelby county agent, John Moosberg, who reports that 10,000 high quality New Hampshire pullets have been placed with flock owners of that county. All the eggs from these flocks will go into home incubators and local hatcheries.

Similar programs are underway in a number of other counties, Moore said.

HIS MISTAKE

Gary, Ind.—The young man who attempted to burglarize the confectionery of Mrs. Maude (Ma) Harrison, 60, evidently didn't know that Ma's hobby is target-shooting. Instead of opening the cash drawer, he disappeared through the curtains covering the entrance to her living quarters at the rear and reappeared armed with her .22 target revolver. She fired three times at the youth who was fobbing her of $36. He staggered out and hailed a passing motorist, giving him $36 to take him to a hospital. He had two bullet wounds in his body.

GETS FISH IN SELF DEFENSE

Lewiston, Idaho.—While wading in Clearwater river, John Olson, 15, became frightened by the ugly mouth of a steelhead trout. Grabbing a rock, he let fly with perfect aim and went home with a 13 pound, 36 inch trout. His boy was diluted with fear, however, because he had taken it without a pole and hook. The Game Warden ruled it a clear case of self defense.

Eggs Keep Better If Properly Stored In Refrigerator

If you can't drop an egg into the frying pan without breaking the yolk, perhaps you are not storing the eggs correctly in the refrigerator.

There is a right and wrong way to store eggs in the refrigerator. And the right way, Myrtle Murray, extension home marketing specialist of Texas A&M College, says is standing on the small end with the large end up.

Here's why. The large end contains an air cell just inside the shell. If this end is down, the weight of the egg presses against this air cell, causing the cell to rise and gradually loosen the membrane. At the same time, the yolk, because it's heavier than the white part, rises from its normal position in the center of the egg to the top, or small end.

When the yolk floats to the top, it becomes attached to the membrane and may stick there. This is why it's often so hard to break egg shells and drop the yolks without breaking them.

Yolks in eggs stored large end up will remain in the center, and not float to the top where they will stick to the membrane.

Miss Murray says that 640 farm wives from 35 Texas counties report selling eggs on a grade basis directly to the consumers. And the women guaranteed these eggs on their grade basis.

Hospitalization and outpatient treatment provided by the VA are not available to members of veterans' families, VA said in response to a number of inquiries.

Many wives of veterans were treated by the Army and Navy doctors while their husbands were in service. Some wives now erroneously believe they also are entitled to medical treatment from VA physicians.

Only ex-servicemen and women, if discharged under conditions other than dishonorable, are entitled to hospital treatment under the following priority system:

- First—Emergency cases.
- Second—Those suffering from injuries or diseases incurred in or aggravated by military service.
- Third—Those who state under oath they are unable to pay hospital charges for treatment of nonservice connected disabilities or illnesses. These veterans, if not in the emergency category, must wait until a bed becomes available.

Outpatient treatment is available only for veterans with service connected disabilities. Each veteran's eligibility must be determined by VA before treatment of this type can be authorized.

Veterans of World War II who were discharged on or before July 25, 1947, can apply for readjustment allowances up to July 25, 1949, under present legislation, VA reports.

Men discharged after July 25, 1947, are entitled to readjustment allowances are payable after July 25, 1952.

More than 9 million World War II veterans applied for education and training under the GI Bill and Public Law 16 since the two laws went into effect in June, 1944, and March, 1943, respectively.

Questions and Answers
 Q.—Sometime ago I heard that the 4 percent rate of interest on GI guaranteed loans would be increased to four and one-half percent. Has this been done?
 A.—No. The Administrator of Veterans Affairs announced recently that there will be no increase in the 4 percent rate of interest at this time.

Q.—I have an opportunity to go into business of raising frogs for several well known restaurants. Can I get a GI guaranteed loan for this type of business?
 A.—VA will guarantee loans on any kind of legitimate business, but it will be up to you to find the lender and make your arrangements with him.

Q.—I have heard so much about National Service Life Insurance dividends and would like to know when they will be paid.
 A.—Dividends on NSLI will be paid as soon as the administrative work of determining the amount due to each participant can be accomplished.

February 14 to 21 Designated National Heart Week

Throughout the U. S. the week of Feb. 14-21, will be observed as National Heart Week, and Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has announced that the State Health Department will cooperate to the fullest extent in stressing to the public the necessity for full information and intelligent action in attempting to control this nation's major killer, heart disease.

From a national level, heart disease is the leading cause of death, and yearly takes a greater total number of lives than the next five leading causes of death combined. One out of every three deaths in the U. S. is due to diseases of the heart and blood vessels, and it is estimated that one out of every twenty persons suffer from some form of heart or blood vessel disease.

A great amount of research in the causes and treatment of the heart diseases has established that some of them can be materially helped by certain drugs, or even surgery, and it has been proved beyond doubt that the heart patient who places himself early under competent medical care has by far the best chance of survival. In many instances the patient can, under competent care, lead an almost normal life, with only certain restrictions as to activities and indulgence, which might adversely affect his condition.

Consult your doctor for a physical check-up at least once a year. Dr. Cox advises. If heart disease occurs, he will have an opportunity to find it, and begin proper treatment in the early stages, thus assuring you a better chance to finish a normal, comfortable life span.

Farm Machinery Care Studied By Farm Owners

In this period of mechanization, farmers are showing more and more interest in the selection and care of farm machinery. Texas A&M College agricultural engineers find special machinery for highly specialized farm and ranch jobs require large investments and depreciation of this machinery eats deeply into the operators profit margin if it is not properly cared for.

During the year, Texas county agents held numerous farm machinery field days. As a result, farmers were given an opportunity to become acquainted with new machinery and to actually see it perform, says W. L. Ulrich, extension agricultural engineer, in his annual report.

Five area tractor maintenance clinics were held in the state last spring. County agents and local 4-H Club leaders from 73 counties were given training at these two-day clinics. Those trained in the area clinics returned home and they were responsible for holding 105 county tractor maintenance schools. The attendance of these schools was 4,183. Savings can be made in the amount of gasoline used and the life of the tractor increased, if the principles taught at these schools are followed. These two items can materially increase the farm income, especially in areas where the investments in power machinery is large.

Farmers continue to build needed equipment. In 1948, 24,388 blueprints were sent to 218 counties and 19,346 pieces of equipment were built from these plans. Welding schools were held in 26 counties and 1,426 farmers were taught the techniques of welding. Machinery repairs by welding was stressed in the schools, concludes Ulrich.

Newly Discovered Vitamin Hailed By Texas Farmers

The newly discovered vitamin B-12 gives promise of being of great practical importance in swine and poultry production, Carl M. Lyman and J. M. Prescott, of the Texas A&M College department of biochemistry and nutrition, report. A recent study reported to the Journal of Biological Chemistry, is looking forward to the establishment of a reliable method for determining the vitamin B-12 needs for swine and poultry.

Hog feeding tests the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station workers have under progress are showing marked increases in growth rates as the result of adding a commercial preparation of B-12 to their regular rations. No satisfactory way has yet been established for analyzing this vitamin in feedstuffs and animal tissues, though a number of scientists over the nation are working on the problem. The full possibilities of B-12 cannot be developed until a practical system of analysis of this new vitamin is perfected. Texas A&M research workers progress in the determination of this vitamin through a logical method.

Snow, Ice and Rain Bring Good Moisture to Western Texas and Halt Wind Erosion

Moisture has given western and Oklahoma farmers from wind erosion. Large acreages are now covered to prevent erosion when the soil's surface is bare.

Soil Conservation Director Louis P. Merrill said that the recent rains and snow have helped farmers now can get a good crop that, with a good pattern and properly applied, will help to bring on a large scale.

Reports from soil field men in Texas show 4,612,934 acres of land without plant cover to prevent erosion when the soil's surface is bare. Of this, 3,119,853 acres in Texas, Merrill explained, is the two-state figure.

The main reason in the U. S., can be as farmers and ranchers who are already know they need to take to prevent erosion next year, and the others can use practices and aid in reducing the erosion.

The supervising board of conservation districts can use of this opportunity for general cooperation owners and land operator down next year's is a job that must be done ahead.

The immediate value of recent snow, Merrill explained.

POWER PLANT

that uses its Head!

THIS is the husky thrill-producer you find filling the bonnet of any 1949 Buick.

Look it over and you'll observe, among other things, that it is a valve-in-head straight-eight.

In simple language, this means that years ago Buick engineers lifted the valves from the side of the cylinder and put them on top—with some immediate advantages.

Such an engine "breathes" better. Gets a full, even charge on every intake—exhausts spent gases more easily—enjoys extra power, life and ginger.

And in such engines, compression ratios are relatively easy to establish. To step them up, the head is merely brought closer to the piston—no extra problems are presented getting fuel in and exhaust out.

Thus Buick power can—and has—kept pace with progress in fuels. Compression ratios suit gasolines actually available—and there's no waiting for tomorrow's gasolines to get full performance.

There are other things to notice about this engine.

It's a Fireball power plant—uses a special and exclusive type of piston that gets more good out of each fuel charge.

And it speaks with soft, new quiet. Self-setting valve lifters automatically keep valves properly seated, ending tappet noises for good.

With gasolines getting better, the swing to valve-in-head design will undoubtedly grow stronger. But that is what Buick has had all along—a power plant that uses its head to give extra lift and thrill.

That's enough reason to see your Buick dealer now, with or without a car to trade, to get your order in.

BUICK alone has all these features

- Silk-smooth DYNAFLOW DRIVE
- FULL-VIEW VISION from enlarged glass area
- SWING-EASY DOORS and easy access
- "LIVING SPACE" INTERIORS with Deep-Cradle cushions • Buoyant-riding QUADRIFLEX COIL SPRINGING • Lively FIREBALL STRAIGHT-EIGHT POWER with SELF-SETTING VALVE LIFTERS plus HI-POISED ENGINE MOUNTINGS • Cruiser-Line VENTIPORTS • Low-pressure tires on SAFETY-RIDE RIMS • DUREX BEARINGS, main and connecting rods

Income Drops 12 From '47

Income in Texas a- 858,952,000 in '48. Drop from the all- 1947, the University of Business Research reported.

Representing principally the drop in crop prices, income from all farm products except grain sorghum, wool, hogs, poultry, milk products, peanuts, and fux seed was below the 1947 level.

Dollar income for 1948 was a- above a year earlier in the East Texas Timbered Plains (up 2 per cent), Edwards Plateau (up 6 per cent), Trans-Pecos (up 11 per cent) and South Texas Plains (up 17 per cent), while other crop reporting districts showed less income in 1948.

Farm income fell 36 per cent from the 1947 level in Northern High Plains, 24 per cent in the Southern High Plains, and 16 per cent in Red Bed Plains. Totaling $1,658,952 in December 1948, farm cash income drop- ped 51 per cent from November. All farm districts except the Low- er Rio Grande Valley (up 4 per cent) turned in decreases rang- ing from 5 per cent in the South Texas Plains to 68 per cent in the Red Bed Plains.

After adjustment for seasonal variation, the Bureau's index of farm cash income dropped from 395 per cent of the pre-war base (1935-39) period in November to 337 in December 1948. A year earlier, the index stood at 547.

In comparison with December 1947, farm income in December 1948 was off 38 per cent. Income lagged in all crop reporting dis- tricts except Coastal Prairies, where income rose 21 per cent. Sizable decreases from December 1947 were registered by Southern,

High Plains, 63 per cent; Black and Grand Prairies, 56 per cent; Lower Rio Grande Valley, 43 per cent; Northern High Plains, 41 per cent; and Red Bed Plains, 38 per cent.

SPRING Is A SUITE

by Jaunty Junior

Tailored but Simply Feminine

A suit headliner for your wardrobe. Straight from the shoulder — complemented by curve at collar and hip. It's fashion news from the brief box jacket to the neat, gored skirt. In a pure worsted sheen. Size 7 to 16.

This smart suit, with its double-breasted simplicity, it's careful tailoring was adapted from an Alex Maguy French original. Soft roll to its wide lapels, soft curving flaps at either hips are clever details that make it over- whelmingly feminine and a star on young fashion's

Spring horizon. It does in fine pure worsted. Sizes 7 to 15

It now seems to be an assured fact that Haskell is soon to have a telephone exchange. With the quickening of the business pulse which it will produce we may soon expect electric lights and with these two to attract the rest of central we shall soon have a city to put us in closer touch with the outside world. We already begin to feel a deep sympathy for freighters and boatmen.
