From the Rio Grande. MORRINDIAN NEWS. The return of the boat—Fought with the Apaches—Capt. Magruder killed—Fort on the Rio Grande—Description of the Apaches—Full particulars, etc.

From Mr. E. Gallagher, who has just returned from the coast after the Indians we learn the following: After leaving this place, on Sunday, the 29th inst., they proceeded to the G's ranch. Arrived there they took up the trail of the Indians, which led them almost in every direction, winding through the hills, sometimes to the North, then West, then South, and then East, about by this trail and as they proceeded they had led the trail on which they had first started, and had to look that of some boys who had been out hunting, and this trail it was which led them to the ranch.

MATTERS IN GENERAL. Laramie is said to be engaged on a life of Washington, which will be published within this year.

The aggregate value of private property in London is calculated to be two and a quarter billion dollars.

There are nearly five thousand brewers and distillers in the United States.

The quantity of corn annually sold in England is estimated at 40,000,000 quarters.

A revolution in Prussia is not among the least improbable events of the next three months.

The Austrian Government, in reward of the services of M. Welcker, in the arrest of Kotsa, promoted him to the consulate of Genoa; but the Sardinian Government refuses his exequatur.

The annual report of the Secretary of the State of New York, gives the whole number of papers relieved during the year 1853, at 180,027.

Two thousand German emigrants were at Liverpool at the latest date, waiting vessels to take them to the United States.

The Irish exile in the United States—Mitchel, Meagher and Duffy, are violently ridiculed and abused by a Dublin newspaper called the 'Telegraph' which doubts their pretensions to the championship of Irish independence.

Judge Pierpont has decided in Vermont that the liquor Act is unconstitutional, as far as it directs that liquor should be destroyed without proof that it was kept for sale. This is the Massachusetts' decision.

Ex-President Fillmore continues to have a brilliant reception in all parts of the Southern country where he goes. The Nashville (Tenn.) Banner bears witness in every probability that he will return West through that city, via Charleston, S. C., and the Chattanooga Railroad.

Meliana Goldschmidt is now in Berlin, and shortly goes to Vienna, where she will remain two months, and during that time five concerts. She will then, probably, be hindered by the war, go to Dresden, and pass a part of the autumn in England.

It was intimated by the President and certain members of the Cabinet, while the Gadsden treaty was under discussion, that its rejection would be followed by an immediate war with Mexico. The President thinking himself called on to resist upon the Matilla valley in any event. This intimation was considered as a threat by Senators, and it is generally believed that another commission will be appointed.

The French Minister's marine circular to the Chamber of Commerce, highly applauds the United States' refusal to grant letters of marque. It was remarked that Lord Aberdeen would reply to the Globe's contradiction.

Baron Walewicz ordered to quit the Dukedom of Parma forever.

The Russians were abandoning forts on the shores of the Black sea. It was rumored the Turks had attacked Sebastopol. Light houses had been removed, and 300 additional gun boats ordered. The Car and son were both engaged in superintending the works of defense.

Napier's fleet was underway, with the supposed intention of sailing the island of Oakland (Alaska).

A gentleman at Raleigh writes us that he has discovered a means of preventing wheat from rotting, but does not give the mode operand. Such a discovery, if practical for farmers, to us would be of the greatest value in Texas.

We learn verbally that Mr. Gen. J. Durham, of Austin, killed a Mr. Chesnut, a few days ago—particulars. Mr. D. is a man of long and high standing in Austin.

Mr. Partington thinks Texas must be a great country for Post-Whys, said also, their Governor says, they tell me, it is made of Post.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The vote rejecting the Gadsden treaty is being reconsidered to-day by the Senate in executive session, and another report is being made in favor of ratifying it.

Messrs. Jones, Dawson, and Toombs, who were absent yesterday, are present to-day, and will all vote in the affirmative. A change of two or three negative votes into additional affirmative will secure it, and the Administration can secure that.

A young Greek writing to William Wain, under date of April 18th, says that considerable excitement prevails in that vicinity, owing to some murders committed by some Indians on Messrs. Wood and his wife, upon some Texas Rangers. These Rangers.
