Kitty's Korner

By Kitty Montgomery

This just hasn't been my week. I took to my sick bed last Friday and was just barely able to be up and around Monday. I regained my health Tuesday, but it was too late, by then I was several days behind.

Everybody seemed to think I had what is commonly known as the flu, but I know better. I have a huge medical book, gives full descriptions of all known diseases and symptoms. I had most all the symptoms of most all the diseases and there was certainly nothing common about that.

To top it all off, Tom stayed at home with me to, as he said, "look after me." After you spend three days and nights locked up in the same house with your husband, you just naturally get well or die one.

He spent most of his time spraying that well-known spray that's supposed to kill flu germs on contact, and taking my temperature, and just generally bossing me around. By Sunday I was beginning to be able to defend myself and bit the thermometer in two. That took care of that. He ran out of spray and when the odor finally diminished and I found I could breathe I knew I was at last on my way to recovery.

I ventured out into the world Monday, a little trembly, and with dire predictions about a "relapse" ringing in my ears, but so far, so good.

Surely the siege of illness is about over in Ozona. I think almost everyone has had it from kindergarten up. Barring relapses and another bug invasion, we should be healthy until hay fever time rolls around.

Hubert Baker, who is always on the ball for the local Chamber of Commerce, called just four hours after the deadline to remind me to plug the annual banquet, which is next Thursday night. According to Hubert, whom we have dubbed "Ozona's Good Humor Man," everything is beautiful. That is everything is going according to schedule and the banquet will be held next Thursday night at 6:30 at the Civic Center as planned. So y'all come. Tickets at the chamber office, from chamber members or at the door.

Political activity is picking up around these parts and over the nation too, as far as that goes. The Democrats have more presidential hopefuls than you can shake a stick at. Let us hope their ranks will thin somewhat before the national convention.

Statewide I have noticed that the newspapers backing Ben Barnes for Governor have intimated that he has emerged as clean as the driven snow from all the stock fraud scandals and wheeling-dealing that has been going on in Austin. Considering the fact that he is Lt. Governor and was speaker of the House before becoming Lt. Governor, this is a little hard to believe. I frankly think old Ben was thoroughly familiar with every bill passed, banking, stock or what not. But if he can have his slate wiped clean by some of this state's leading newspapers, it certainly won't hurt his political chances any. I guess I'm sort of cynical, but Ben just doesn't strike me as being above it all. Although Governor Smith said earlier that the stock fraud scandals would not be an issue in the election, he has gone to great pains to present himself in a good light. Frankly I think the scandal tainted both candidates and I believe the great state of Texas would be better off with a new hand at the helm.

We would like to see Dolph Briscoe victorious in the May 6 Democratic Primary. That's where the governor's race will be won or lost in this state. It's hard to tell about the local races this early in the game, so I'll save comment until a later date. Don't really know who's running for

Group Deplores Fort Lancaster Fund Swipe

Concerned with published reports that funds are being transferred from the Fort Lancaster project to the Fort McKavett project, the Crockett County Historical Survey Committee, meeting Monday, approved a resolution calling on the State Parks and Wildlife Department to restore any funds so transferred from the Fort Lancaster fund and asking the Crockett County Commissioners Court and County Judge to use their influence in pressing state officials to see that the funds are restored and that work proceed on the Fort Lancaster development.

The report on the fund transfer emerged from a recent meeting of the Parks and Wildlife Commission in Austin. The press report said that the department staff had asked the Commission to transfer $13,800 of funds earmarked for Fort Lancaster to the Fort McKavett restoration project. The funds, the staff claimed, were needed to stabilize the hospital building at Fort McKavett. Inquiries made later by Mrs. R. A. Harrell, chairman of the Historical Survey Committee, and by County Judge Troy Williams brought replies from the Parks department that the funds were in effect being "borrowed" from Fort Lancaster because archeologists had stopped work until preliminary archeological work could be completed. The committee, discussing the matter at the Monday meeting, expressed alarm at the apparent neglect of the Fort Lancaster project. Even if work on restoration of the buildings to ruins state, as is planned, had been interrupted by lack of archeological preparation, there are numbers of other places where the funds could be used to advantage.

Construction of an overseer's cottage at the site is in the plans and no preliminary work would be required for this, other than the selection of a site and determination of a building (Continued on last page)

Ellenburger Strike Indicated In Tripoli Field

Second Ellenburger producer and a 2,300-foot south-south-east extension to that pay had been assured in the two-well Tripoli multipay field of Crockett County, with the swabbing of 90 barrels of new oil and 30 barrels of load water in 10 1/2 hours at Humble Oil & Refining Co. Chappo Morrison Murdered On Lonely Road Near Acuna, Mex.

Word was received here Wednesday afternoon of last week that the body of a murdered man found three miles south of Acuna, Mex. had been identified as that of L. M. (Chappo) Morrison, formerly of Ozona.

Mexican authorities said the body was discovered by a passer-by about noon Tuesday on a dirt road south of the Mexican city.

According to a report in the Acuna daily newspaper, El Eco, Morrison died of a head wound inflicted by a type hammer commonly used in a welding shop. He was brutally beaten with the instrument about the head. At mid-week several suspects were in jail and Mexican authorities claimed to have cleared up the murder case, according to the El Eco article.

Morrison was found with his pockets turned inside-out and a canvas bag, used for carrying money, was lying open and empty nearby.

Services were held here at 3 p. m. from the Ozona United Methodist Church with burial in Cedar Hill Cemetery under the direction of James Funeral Home.

Mr. Morrison, 44, attended Ozona schools and was a graduate of Ozona High School. He was born in Ozona March 1, 1927.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Danny Gauna of Brownwood; and three sons, Leonard Morrison III, Thomas Morrison and Timothy Morrison, all of San Angelo.

Ted Lewis Announces Bid For Prec. 3 Post

Ted M. Lewis announced his candidacy this week for County Commissioner of Precinct 3. He has filed for a spot on the ballot in the Democratic Primary May 6.

Lewis has been a resident of Crockett County for 20 years, moving here from Odesa in 1952.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis have two sons, Major Larry M. Lewis, presently serving a tour of duty in Vietnam; and David Lewis, a student at North Texas State University in Denton.

Mr. Lewis is a member of the First Baptist Church, a past vice-president of the Ozona Chamber of Commerce, and served as president of the Rotary Club in 1971.

He has operated a drive-in grocery in Ozona for the past nine years, and looks forward to the continued growth and good future of Ozona and Crockett County.

Six Youths Held On Dope Charges

Six youths, age 19 and over, were lodged in Crockett County Jail Saturday night and charged with possession of a dangerous drug. Bond was set at $5,000, but at mid-week the six were still in jail.

The sextet consisted of three boys and three girls. Two of the girls were from El Paso and the remainder of the group were from California.

Highway Patrolman Dean Watson, DPS, of Iran noticed the car in Sheffield and followed it into Crockett County on Hwy 290, where he stopped it and a search revealed marijuana.

Jack Williams Asks 2nd Term As Commissioner

Jack Williams, Crockett County rancher, serving his first term as County Commissioner from Precinct 3, this week announced his candidacy for a second term in the office.

Williams said that his candidacy is based on his record in office as commissioner from Precinct 3.

"The experience I have gained in two years as a member of the Commissioners Court, I believe, has qualified me to offer the people of Crockett county an even better job in the office in the next two years," Williams said.

"The county has a number of important matters now in process of development and I think that I can be of greater service in the coming years in assisting the court in these pending matters."

"The court is presently working on plans for submitting the nursing home project for a vote of the people and this will entail a great deal of effort on the part of the court. The highway developments in the county are a concern of the court, one outgrowth being the necessity for moving the county road department to the new location north of town, a project now well under way."

The Commissioners Court has provided the leadership in making great progress in various fields in the county during the past two years, the Precinct 3 Commissioner pointed out. The expansion of the 4-H and FFA Livestock barn facilities, development of the county park, new jail construction are some of the accomplishments pointed out.

"I will appreciate the support of voters in my precinct in sending me back into county service for a second term," Williams said. "I feel that my first term record should entitle me to another term."

Mahon Defends Court's Decision In Kincaid Case

(From the Fort Stockton Pioneer)

Following the denial by Judge John Benavides of San Antonio of the motion of defense attorney Warren Burnett for a new trial of John Russell Kincaid last Friday, the following statement regarding the matter has been issued to The Pioneer by 112th District Attorney Dixon Mahon:

"The 17th Canon of Ethics states that I should not publicly pending litigation. I have refrained from a lot of comment about this case until now and suffered for it, because that fact hasn't kept the defendant's lawyers from doing so. But now that the trial of the John Russell Kincaid case is over, Judge Sherrill has asked me to make a statement about the case to The Pioneer and I am glad to do it.

"I was disappointed that the case turned out no better (for the State). However, please remember that a lot of people around after the arrest surmised the evidence in the Kincaid case was so slim that a conviction was improbable. It wasn't difficult to come to this conclusion -- and I tell you that the evidence got no better -- it got a whole lot worse.

"One of our witnesses became incompetent to testify because of marriage and then in the midst of the trial, the Court blew us out of the saddle with a holding which excluded an absolutely essential statement by the defendant. "You know, of all the evidence you read about in the Pioneer and the area daily newspapers, about four-fifths of it the jury never heard -- this evidence was only brought out in testimony before the Court in what we call a Jackson-Denno hearing (named after a U. S. Supreme Court case) with the jury out of the courtroom. The Judge ruled most of this incriminating evidence out -- the jury didn't and would never have heard it."

(Since John Russell Kincaid pled guilty for a ten year sentence, lots of folks wonder why not 200 years or so, which he deserved). But the decision at that point in the trial wasn't whether he should get 10 or 200 years. (We didn't have a 'TV-like' defendant pleading guilty and throwing himself on the mercy of the Court). The question was whether we were going to get a plea of guilty, a conviction, and 10 years -- or whether he was going to go scot-free!

"The unanimous opinion of the Bexar County District Attorney's staff, as well as every other person on our side who was there, was that unless we took the plea, that we were going to get a not-guilty verdict. (Some folks have wondered, if the case were so bad, why Burnett pled the defendant guilty for the ten years. We have reason to believe that he thought we had additional evidence. We didn't.)

"The action taken by us was only after conference with and concurrence of Bert's father. (Continued on last page)

MODERN RED RIDING HOOD LEGEND

Once upon a time in a far-away country, there lived a little girl called Red Riding Hood. One day her mother asked her to take a basket of fruit to her grandmother, who had been ill and lived in a cottage in a forest. It happened that a wolf was lurking in the bushes, overheard the conversation, went to the grandmother's house, killed her, dressed in her nightgown and jumped in bed to await the little girl. When Red Riding Hood arrived, he tried to grab her. She ran screaming from the cottage.

A woodcutter working nearby heard her cries and rushed to her rescue. He killed the wolf with an axe, and Red Riding Hood's life was saved. All the townspeople hurried to the scene and hailed the woodcutter as a hero.

However, at the inquest, several facts emerged. The wolf had not been advised of his rights. The woodcutter had not made any warning swings of his axe before striking the fatal blow. The defense stressed the point that, although the act of eating Grandma may have been in bad taste, the wolf was only "doing his thing" and thus should not have been punished by death.

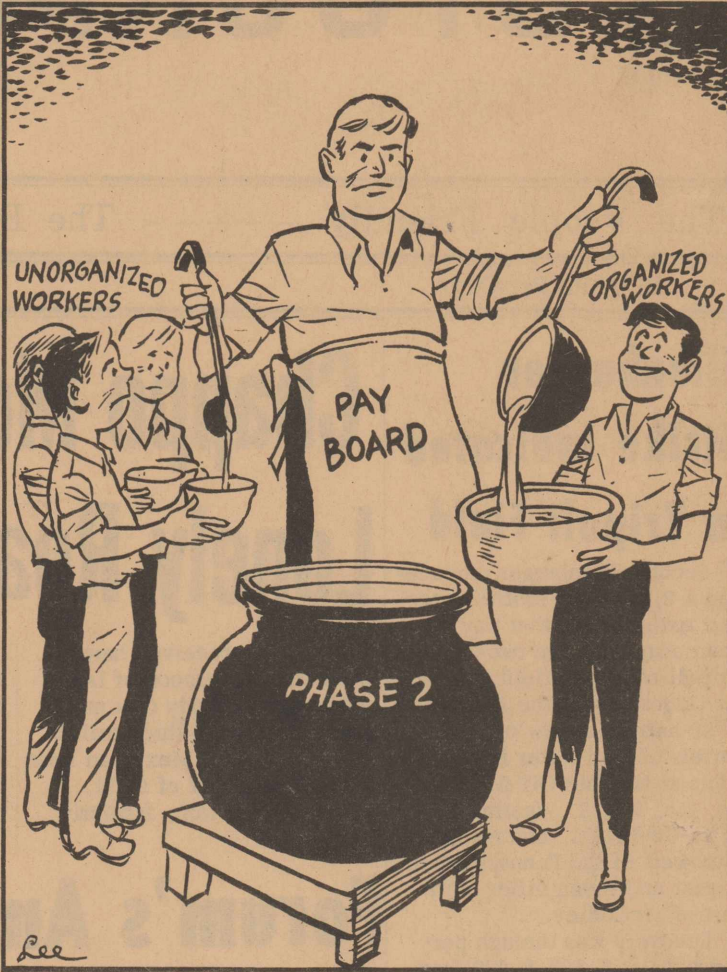

The SDS appeared on behalf of the defense and contended that the killing of Grandma should be considered self-defense since she was over 30 and therefore beyond the age of serious regard. This evidence was convincing enough for it to be decided there was no basis for charges against the wolf.

On the other hand, it was felt that the woodcutter should be indicted for unaggravated assault with a deadly weapon. One year after the "Incident at Grandma's," her cottage was made a shrine for the wolf who bled and died there. All the village officials spoke, but Red Riding Hood gave the most touching tribute. She said that, while she had been selfishly grateful for the woodcutter's intervention, she now realized he had over-reacted. As she knelt to place a wreath in honor of the brave wolf, there wasn't a dry eye in the forest.—Rep. Ed Eshleman, (R-Pa.)

Snelson—

(Continued from page one) full for the confidence which the people have expressed in my past service," said Senator Snelson.

Counties which are still in the 25th District are Brewster, Crane, Crockett, Edwards, Irion, Jeff Davis, Kinney, Loving, Midland, Pecos, Presidio, Reagan, Reeves, Schleicher, Sutton, Terrell, Tom Green, Upton, Uvalde and Val Verde.

Counties added to the district by the reapportionment act of October 15, 1971 are: Bandera, Coke, Comal, Culberson, Gillespie, Glasscock, Kendall, Kerr, Kimble, Llano, Mason, Real, Sterling, Ward and Winkler.

"The 63rd Legislature will face many momentous decisions in such areas as financing public schools, welfare reform, changes in the area of the state's courts, revamping of legislative procedures and the enactment of a meaningful code of ethics," said Senator Snelson. "I believe my experience can help in obtaining the best solutions possible."

As a member of the 62nd Legislature Senator Snelson serves as chairman of the Oil & Gas Committee, vice chairman of Education and chairman of the permanent sub-committee on public education and vice chairman of the local and consent calendar committee.

He also served on the committees on administration; agriculture and livestock; claims; constitutional amendments; environmental matters; finance, which handles senate appropriations; legislative, congressional and judicial districts; nominations; state affairs; transportation and water and conservation.

In addition, he is a member of the five-man Senate General Investigation Committee. During the regular session, the committee conducted a thorough investigation in the shortcomings of state banking and insurance laws that came to light as a result of the failure of the Sharpstown State Bank.

The work of this committee resulted in the drafting of nine bills, eight of which were passed by the Legislature.

Born into a pioneer West Texas farm and ranch family in Ward County, Senator Snelson is active in the business affairs of the area as the owner of an advertising agency. He is married to the former Susan Sutton and they live at 2406 Shell Street in Midland with their children, Gene, 11; Sandra, 9; Steven, 7; and Shane, 3.

Snelson received a Bachelor's degree from the University of Texas at El Paso and a Master's degree from Northwestern University. He is a purple heart veteran of World War II.

Tips For Gardeners

From The Ozona Garden Club By Mrs. Bailey Page

The moisture of last week was a welcome gift and should encourage everyone to continue with gardening plans for the spring.

If you want early blooms, plant seed indoors or where they can be protected. To apply moisture without disturbing the seeds, use pots or flats that can be set in large containers of water. Placing a piece of glass over the top of the seed container will keep enough moisture in the soil for seed germination, provided the soil was thoroughly wet before planting. Remove the glass when growth starts, first removing it halfway, then altogether.

There's nothing like growing something new and entirely different to stimulate your interest in gardening. It doesn't have to be something expensive. New annuals and perennials are developed each year, and can be grown from seed. It doesn't necessarily have to be something newly developed, but new to your own garden.

If you want a fragrant garden, plant stock, sweet alyssum and petunias. Too, there are many shrubs, fruit trees and roses with fragrant blooms. After poinsettias are through blooming and you want to keep them for fall plants, their stems should be shortened and the plants stored in a dry, cool place to rest.

Foliage indoor plants used for decoration should be cleaned once or twice a month. Use a soft cloth or sponge, dampened. This will keep the foliage bright and glossy. If they need to be washed, use a solution of mild soap and warm water. Let air-dry, then polish with a dry cloth.

A sub-shrub which does well in Ozona is the Fatshedera. It is an evergreen plant used as a ground cover, espaliered plant or vine. This hybrid between Japanese Aralia (Fat-shedera japonica) and English Ivy (Hedera Lelix) shows characteristics of both plants.

The large highly polished leaves and trailing stems give the appearance of a giant English Ivy. It needs plenty of water, partial shade and protection from hot, dry winds. Fatshedera has shiny, ivy-like leaves that are six inches wide with pointed lobes. Pinch tip growth to force branching and to prevent its habit of growing straight upward. Shape and tie tender young growth two or three times each year to train the plant as you want it to grow. When used as a ground cover, cut back the vertical growth at frequent intervals during the growing season. One problem seems to be the tendency to lose its bottom leaves regardless of care.

Crane Downs Lions In Second Half Openers

The Ozona Lions lost two, while the B team won two the past week in the second half of basketball play.

do cats laugh?

We don't mean to offend any cat-lover, but we don't believe cats laugh.

Laughter is a muscular response to appreciated humor. And we're inclined to view humor as one of those high-level responses which are characteristic in humans only. And thank the Lord for humor. Without laughter this would be a sorry world.

Religion is another human characteristic not evident in animals. Our belief in and worship of God, coupled with our conscientious effort to live according to moral principles — these are not found in the animal world.

Whether cats laugh is not a question of great moment. But whether man is living up to the religious capacity God has given him is another matter. Our awakening to our spiritual potential is a great moment!

what or how many, by these races will also be decided in the May 6 primary, Democratic that is, since we have no Republicans running in local races.

That's one nice thing about Texas politics. You never have to wait until November to know who your duly elected officials are going to be.

We were sorry to hear that George Baker will not run for re-election as state representative in his district. Although he did not represent our immediate district, being the state rep. in the Pecos area and calling Fort Stockton his home, his presence in Austin on behalf of West Texas will be sorely missed by all in the area.

Mahon—

(continued from page one) mity, the Pecos County Sheriff and County Attorney. So it wasn't 10 years or 200 years, which sounds so simple now that he has pled guilty, it was 10 years or nothing.

"Somehow custom contemplates a more ethical standard in the District Attorneys than it does for other attorneys. I am not opposed to this. If I have to stoop to lies and dishonesty how can I expect others to respect the law? I tell you that the sentence hearing and the hearing on the motion for new trial was the longest series of misrepresentations and vilifications of your District Attorney, the other prosecutor, and the Court, that I have ever witnessed -- and which I hope no intelligent citizen fell for.

"There was no 'deal' regarding probation -- Warren Burnett simply bet wrong on what the judge would do and now he is going to keep up a big hassle about it. While it is a Court, not prosecutors, which decides punishment that a convicted defendant shall receive, and whether or not he shall receive probation, this Court, is denying the motion for a new trial, in effect confirmed that the State had no part in misleading, nor indeed was the defendant misled, by other than his own lawyers.

"I tell you this is the truth, no matter what Mr. Burnett and Mr. Caldwell have stated; and if one prefers to believe Mr. Burnett, rather than your District Attorney, it is regrettable, but it is his or her right to do so.

"The law authorized Judge Benavides, without the District Attorney's consent, to allow defendant to remain free on $150,000 bond during appeal. He did so. He did not permit the State's position to be known. If he had, I would have opposed the bond."

Fort Lancaster—

(continued from page one) plan to harmonize with the surroundings, the committee pointed out. The recently completed visitor's center leaks copiously when it rains and this is another need at the fort. Display cases for use in the center to hold artifacts gathered at the fort site have been promised and a large number of mementoes are being withheld until they are delivered. There is need for development of a water and sewer system for the cottage and visitors center, it was pointed out.

Fort Lancaster site was donated to the county and in turn to the state by the Meadows family, and Henry Meadows of Midland has written a letter to the department strongly criticizing the long delay in development of the historic site. Recently a matching grant provided a fund of $15,000 for use in the Fort Lancaster restoration, $7,500 in federal and $7,500 in state funds.

Congressman O. C. Fisher has been advised of the action and expressed concern indicating that help from his office would be available if needed in seeing that allocated funds are properly spent. Judge Williams also contacted State Senator Pete Snelson and Representative Hilary Doran seeking their good offices in behalf of the Fort Lancaster the people in Precinct 1 due to previous experience in the office," he said, and added "I feel I have served all the people fairly and well and will not limit my services to one group or one faction of the people."

Marley pointed out the many projects subject to action by the court at present. Negotiations for a nursing home or facility offering these services, the moving of the county road department and Little League Park due to highway construction, plus state roads in the county which are a concern of the court.

"I feel qualified for the post and will appreciate the support of all the voters in my precinct," Marley said.

And now a word about H&R Block's competition.

Because we think our competition represents more of a threat to you than it does to us, we're going to help you sort them out.

Your Family

The greatest people in the world. Most of the time. Unfortunately, most of the time doesn't include income tax time. Because the last thing you need when you're doing your taxes is an aunt who took an accounting course just before she dropped out of college. Or a father who thinks how much money you make and what you do with it is something the rest of the family should know about.

Your Neighbors

You know the type. The mild-mannered shoe salesman next door who suddenly turns into a mathematical genius just about the time income tax is due. He knows all the angles. Some of which even the Internal Revenue Service doesn't know about yet. And he's willing to share them with you. "Just to be neighborly."

You

Your own worst enemy. All year long you can't balance your check book, but that doesn't stop you. Armed with your W-2's, a few reams of paper and a couple of gallons of coffee you bravely attack that stack of forms. You may be taking deductions you're not entitled to, and entitled to deductions you're not taking. So, should you be doing your own taxes?

Us

We're H & R Block, with over 6,000 conveniently located offices manned by thousands of specially trained tax preparers who eat, sleep, and drink income tax returns. People who set out to save you money and much of the time do it. The cost? Fees start at $5 and the average cost was under $12.50 for over 7 million customers we served last year.

Furthermore, if your return is audited we will accompany you, at no extra cost, to the Internal Revenue Service and explain how your return was prepared, even though we will not act as your legal representative.

And everyone is eligible to receive our year 'round service which is covered by our one time fee. No extra charge for help with audits, estimates, or tax questions.

We know the people we've just told you about will do your income tax return for less than we can but we don't think you can afford them.

DON'T LET AN AMATEUR DO H&R BLOCK'S JOB.

H&R Block.
The income tax people.

INSTALL GAS AIR CONDITIONING NOW?

Install GAS air conditioning now and beat the rush that always comes with the first hot days. While everyone else is waiting on installation, central GAS air conditioning will be quietly and efficiently cooling your whole house. And another benefit of installing now is you have the time to consider the advantages that GAS air conditioning has over the other kinds.

A GAS air conditioning system is ruggedly built and operates on a simple principle. Heat from the steady blue flame circulates a refrigerant through the system to cool the air. There are fewer major moving parts and no compressor to break down or wear out. It's this simplicity that gives GAS air conditioning its low operating costs, its long life with no loss of cooling capacity, and its easy maintenance with few repair bills. GAS air conditioning also filters the air to reduce dust and pollen.

If you have a forced air heating system, you may be able to use the same ductwork for GAS air conditioning.

So, be foxy. Call Pioneer Natural Gas Company for a free air conditioning survey of your home or business.
