Kitty's Korner

By Kitty Montgomery

Just when we thought our Easter Spell (the freeze that almost invariably arrives before or just after Easter) was going to skip us this year, it arrived.

I'll never believe people again when they say "if the mesquites have put out, it's safe for all plant life." The mesquites, along with the fruit and other tender plants got nipped in the bud. My apricot tree, so loaded with fruit last week, looks like a raisin tree this week.

Oh well, if the freeze hadn't gotten them, the hail would. I'm not forecasting the weather, but you know as well as I that we have had at least one and often two battering hail storms for five consecutive years. Why should this year be different?

Last week was almost too much for me in more ways than one. The kids arrived Friday week for Easter holidays or spring break or whatever. Anyway, they were home for ten days. The minute Jim arrived, the younger set in our neighborhood came to visit and by the time they left, it was old home week with the phone ringing, doors slamming, loud music playing and constant cooking.

My only break came when I took the cat "Sam" to San Angelo to put her on the plane, and that wasn't altogether peaceful and quiet. She howled all the way, as only a Siamese can and by the time I got there I felt like I had been to a rock festival without the lights.

I picked up materials for little hostess corsages and the sales lady made one with such speed and ease that I decided I could make 30 in nothing flat without any help at all. That night I was in for a surprise. It took me about 30 minutes to make one and it didn't look a thing like the lovely little creation done in seconds by the expert in the shop. Three hours and forty minutes later, I went to bed with 10 of the little things to go. I finally finished them and did get a little more adept as time went along. However, I found out one thing about myself that I had always suspected. I am not creative with my hands. Due to arthritis no doubt.

Anyway, Sunday came and after frying chicken (a special order from number one son) for three hours, it was time to get him off and back to school. As he left he said "Mother, you know, somehow I don't mind leaving so much this time." Before thinking I answered "You know, son, somehow I don't mind so much either."

I went in for a brief nap before cleaning the kitchen and the next thing I knew Tom was shaking me awake. It was dark and he said I was snoring so loud that he couldn't hear the television in the den three doors down. I don't know whether it was from exhaustion or relaxation. It had to be extreme one way or another, because I have never snored in my entire life.

What would have otherwise been a quiet after-the-holiday period Monday was anything but, with all the activity at the rodeo arena.

It seems that a half a million dollar show horse died under mysterious circumstances and he and his seven traveling companions wound up at the rodeo grounds. Those who wanted to view the dead horse (packed in ice for an autopsy) did and those who wanted to see real Arabian show horses did. It turned out that the horse died of natural causes, but it did provide a diversion for Ozonans with kids out of school.

It was more of a tempest in a teapot than anything else and the story that sums it up better than anything else I've MOVING DAY GOT A LITTLE HECTIC for Wilbur Jost of San Antonio, as he was driving this rented truck west on Hwy 290 Wednesday afternoon. The truck was ahead of two other vehicles, also traveling west, and this was the result when they both decided to pass at the same time. The truck hit a car as it cut in front of it, causing the driver to lose control and overturn.

Amistad Water Control Benefit To Lake Bass

Del Rio -- International cooperation in maintaining springtime water levels at Amistad Reservoir may prove to be a boon to the bass fisherman.

Biologists say a four-month moratorium on lake lowering prevented possible destruction of a large percentage of black bass nests in the lake.

Using information gathered by Texas Parks and Wildlife Department biologists, the International Boundary and Water Commission timed its springtime water releases in 1971 so as not to threaten bass nesting.

Todd Field Discovery Said Unidentified

An unidentified discovery was indicated in Crockett County with the recovery of 200 feet of gas, 60 feet of heavily oil and gas-cut mud and 120 feet of slightly oil-and-gas-cut mud on a drillstem test at Southland Royalty Co., Fort Worth, No. 1-17 Todd-ARCO, in 17-WX-GC&SF, 20 miles west-northwest of Ozona, 2-3/4 miles southwest of the Todd (San Andres and Ellenburger, Deep and Crinoidal, Deep) field.

Tool was open 1 1/2 hours on the test taken at 7, 020-064 feet. Flowing pressure was 99-113 pounds; one-hour initial shut-in pressure was 198 pounds; and two-hour final shut in pressure, 212 pounds.

The project, slated for 7, 000 feet was bottomed at 7, 114 feet, logging.

Highway Accidents Mar Easter Weekend

Several automobile accidents over the week were reported in the county, but the Easter holiday period was comparatively quiet.

Wednesday morning on Ave. J, 90 feet north of 11th St. at 5:55 Milton Wagner, driving a 1961 Buick, hit a

Midway Lane Oiler Changed To Gas Producer

The Midway Lane multipay field of Crockett County gained its fourth Ellenburger gas producer and a 3/4 mile north extension to that pay with reclassification of Atlantic Richfield Co. (formerly Sinclair Oil & Gas Co.) No. 4-D-68 University, former Ellenburger oil producer, 15 miles northwest of Ozona.

It was finalized for a calculated, absolute open flow of 2.2 million cubic feet of gas per day, with gas-liquid ratio of 38,764-1. Gravity of the liquid was 68 degrees.

Production was natural through perforations at 7, 285-295 feet. Location is 660 feet from the north and west lines of 26-45-University.

parked 1967 Ford belonging to Willena Holden. He looked off just as the collision occurred and collided with the right front fender. Both vehicles had minor damage.

Heavy damage was reported in a 3-vehicle wreck Wednesday afternoon about 28 miles west of Ozona on Hwy. 290. All three vehicles were traveling west when a 1961 Oldsmobile driven by Betty R. Guterrez, pulled out to pass a car and a U-Haul truck. The vehicle she was passing also pulled out to pass the truck, throwing her in front of the truck, which hit the Oldsmobile knocking it into the ditch, then overturned itself. There was no damage to the third vehicle. The truck, driven by Wilbur Jost of San Antonio, was heavily damaged as was the Oldsmobile. There were no personal injuries.

A 1972 Ford Pinto driven by Sammy Wayne Moore of Midland was totally demolished when it failed to negotiate a curve Tuesday night 32.9 miles south of Ozona on Hwy. 1 in Val Verde County and the driver lost control. The car traveled several yards down a ditch before smashing into a sign post and coming to a stop. Moore was not injured.

Rumor Mill Runs Wild As Valuable Show Horse Dies

Activity was centered on the rodeo arena Monday where all kinds of rumors were flying over the death of an Arabian show horse reputedly worth a half a million dollars.

The horse trainer told officers that he was coming from a show in San Antonio with eight show horses when one became ill. He was unable to get a veterinarian in junction and when he arrived in Sonora Monday late the clinic was closed and he was unable to locate a vet. He came on to Ozona with the horses and discovered the sick horse was dead. When he called the owners, identified only as Mr. and Mrs. Sturgill of Las Vegas, Nev., things began to pop.

The Sturgills asked officers here to hold the horses and trainer and ordered an autopsy for the dead horse. Rumor had it that Mrs. Sturgill was the granddaughter of Sen. Adlai Stevenson, Jr., and would be flown in shortly by Air Force jet to take over investigation of the horse's death.

The horse was packed in ice to await the autopsy. In yet another rumor, former President Lyndon Johnson called the Sonora Veterinary Clinic ordering the autopsy and hinting of foul play. Suspense built throughout the day, and Ozonans had a field day visiting the arena and watching the seven healthy horses at play.

Dr. Joe David Ross of Sonora arrived and did perform the autopsy, which revealed the horse had died of a perforated intestine (a fairly common "cause of death" in horses).

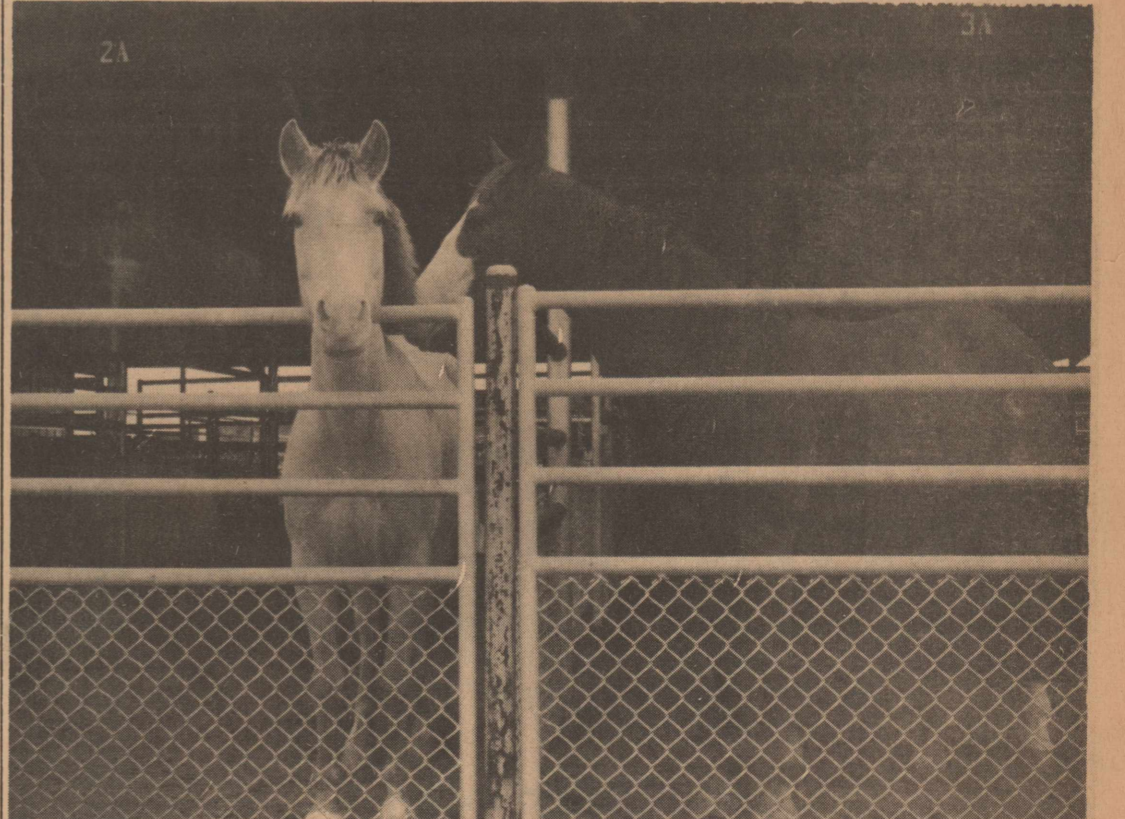

A search of the rodeo grounds Tuesday morning turned up nothing. The fancy truck van was gone, the horses gone, and peace and tranquility prevailed.

Horse Club To Stage Fun Day

Another 4-H Horse Club Fun Day will be held Sunday at 2:00 p.m. at the rodeo arena. Around 16 members were on hand to participate in the first Fun Day of the year last Saturday afternoon.

Dick Kirby was in charge of activities, instructions in reining and western pleasure were given by Lomnye Cain and Ray Davis.

Participants competed in barrel and pole races and goat roping the remainder of the afternoon.

OVER THE FENCE GOSSIP at the 4-H horse barn. Perhaps they are discussing the changing weather or if 4-H Fun Day is really fun. We will never know, but this pair of neighbors could have cared less about the presence of the photographer Tuesday morning. The pair had "no comment" when asked about the excitement of the day before when rumor had it that a show horse worth half a million dollars died and an autopsy was performed nearby.

AMERICANS AGAINST AMERICA

In our free society we have many learned people who believe the United States can do no right, while our enemies can do no wrong. Among these are a few senators, baby doctors, television commentators, and academicians. They demanded that we stop the bombing of North Vietnam unilaterally. We did in 1968. They demanded that we start withdrawing unilaterally from South Vietnam. We have withdrawn three-quarters of our men. They demand we treat Communist POW's in South Vietnam better, but say nothing of the Communist treatment of our POW's.

These friends of Hanoi and Peking demanded that we get Red China into the United Nations. We did so, unfortunately at the same time having to accept the expulsion of the Republic of China, a founding member and "permanent" member of the UN Security Council.

Now, in connection with President Nixon's visit to Red China, they have unearthed ex-State Department "experts" who told us in 1944 and 1945 that Mao Tsung-tung was an agrarian reformer and even an "agrarian democrat" (whatever that is). These "experts" are now appearing on television and lecture halls to advise us that this is our great opportunity to make amends (for "McCarthyism") by recognizing Red China, and handing over Quemoy, Matsu and Taiwan itself. These characters have been demanding elections on Taiwan, but never speak of elections on the mainland, just as they favor elections in South Vietnam, but not North Vietnam.

The record speaks for itself. Our concessions to the other side have not brought peace—only more aggression, more demands. Mao Tse-tung, Ho Chi Minh and his successors, and Kim Il-sung are cut out of the same cloth. They regard our concessions as weakness. They count on the anti-Americans in the United States to prevail. Meantime they continue to repress their own people and to threaten their neighbors.

It is time for all Americans to stand up and be counted—for or against tyranny—wherever it may lie. Whether it be collective security in western Europe, the Middle East, the Caribbean or East Asia, the world is, unfortunately, still beset with aggressors. The right of self-defense is elementary. Just as we defend our own families and homes, we must stand with our friends and allies. Let them undertake more of their own defense, to be sure, but we will not abandon them.

SOCIALISM VS. PRIVATE ENTERPRISE

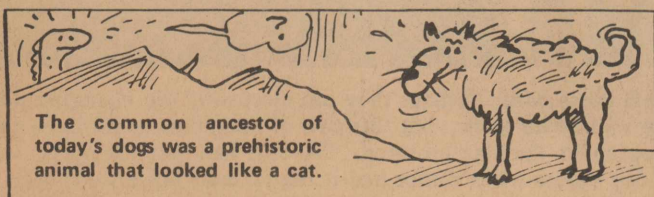

The only way to compare private enterprise with socialism is to use a unit of value by which both systems can be measured. The best measure is the length of time a production worker must put in to obtain the various commodities of everyday life.

A New York research organization, America's Future, Inc., has come up with the following figures, based on 1967 through 1969. Here is what it found: To obtain a pound of bread in New York, an American must work six minutes. In Moscow he must work 12 minutes. An American must work 24 minutes for a pound of sirloin steak; a Russian must work 2 hours and 12 minutes. The New Yorker requires only two minutes' labor to buy a pound of potatoes, the Russian requires nine. The American needs only 2 minutes for a bar of soap, the Muscovite takes 25 minutes.

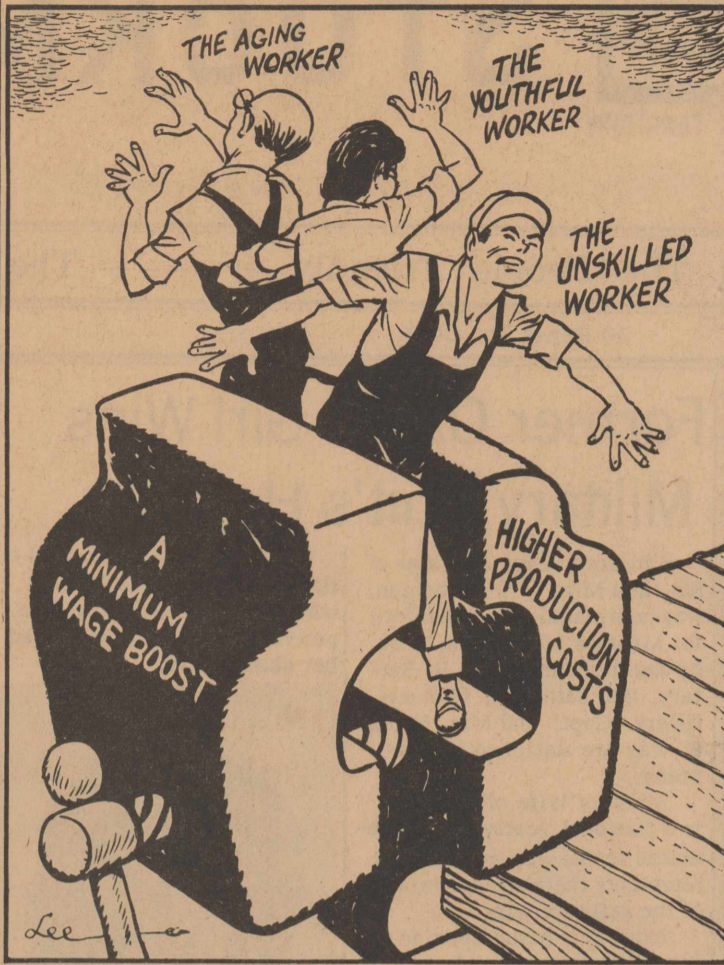

With larger items the differences are more notable. To buy a cotton shirt, the American works less than an hour—59 minutes. The Russian must work for 11 hours and 28 minutes. A business suit costs the American 13 hours and 22 minutes—the Russian a staggering 196 hours and 39 minutes.

An automatic washing machine in New York requires 53 hours' work. In Moscow it takes 204 hours. The average American must work 57 hours for a black and white TV set, the Russian, 695 hours, i.e. a 40 hour week for 4 months.

Apart from our priceless freedom, the material superiority of private enterprise over the socialist system is apparent. Strange, isn't it, that some people still want to exchange the free market for collectivism!

CAUGHT IN THE SQUEEZE!

UNSKILLED WOULD BE HURT

There are some things in this world which simply can't be successfully legislated.

For example, it does not appear wise to increase the minimum wage again by federal statute when that is the very reason why so many unskilled are not gainfully employed.

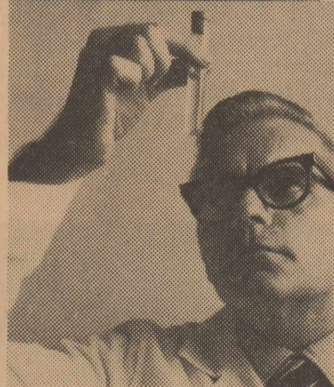

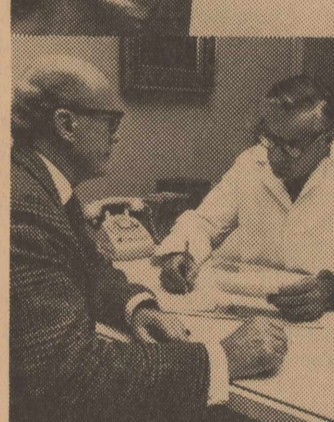

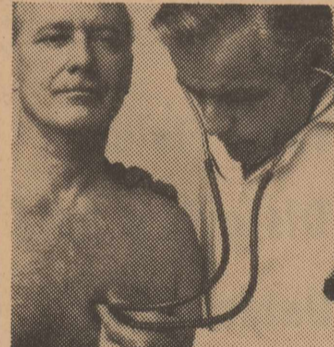

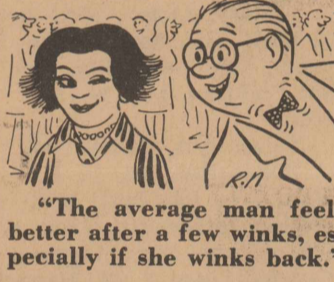

Let's get down to basics. Wages are paid for work or service performed. When wages are increased, the cost of the work or service is also increased unless output also goes up.

Then the law of supply and demand takes over. If the goods or services become "too costly" the buying market decreases. The result is a reduction in the production of such goods or in the furnishing of such services. This inevitably leads to a loss of jobs.

Therefore, when Congress considers another escalation of the minimum wage statute—it automatically slams the door on border-line cases in the job market.

The place to adjust wages is through bargaining between employer and employee or his delegated representatives, rather than the enactment of legislation, which is too often counter-productive.

Indications are we will be lucky to extract as much as a half billion dollars out of the reneging Rusksies.

Professional Welfare promoters, like the notorious Dr. Benjamin Spock, pulled a rather shabby pro-welfare publicity stunt in Washington the other day. Aided by the District School Board, they managed to round up some 20,000 Negro school children for a trek to the White House and called it "Children's March for Survival." Spock's crowd used the occasion to condemn the proposed $2400 guaranteed income as "debilitating, humiliating." An observer asked: "Is this an indication that welfare is indeed becoming a way of life with some Americans?"

Possible amnesty for draft dodgers and deserters has received headline attention recently.

It is estimated that as many as 75,000 are guilty, many of them having fled the country to seek asylum in Canada or Sweden. Some have returned home, plead guilty and taken their punishment.

At the same time, some three million young men served honorably in Vietnam, and more than 50,000 lost their lives in that conflict. Of those who served, 1600 are either POW's or they are unaccounted for.

This question is being asked: Would it be fair to those who fought to forgive those refused? Moreover, how could the United States ever field an army of draftees in the future if it is now determined, as a national policy, that draft dodging and desertion are to be condoned and forgiven?

A father who lost a son in Vietnam told the Senate Committee that an amnesty would be "an ambush of all young men who answered their nation's call to war...

Another question is raised: In a free country such as ours does an individual have the right to decide which laws or which wars he chooses to support?

This reminds us of the words of Socrates before he drank the hemlock, speaking to Crito: "You must do whatever your state and your country tell you to do, or you must persuade them that their commands are unjust."

The issue is clear: It's a criminal offense under our law not to answer a draft call. It's a criminal offense to desert. Those who willfully violate such laws should be held fully accountable for their deeds. The courts will decide the guilt, and the judges will assess the punishment to fit each case.

That procedure is in accord with the cherished American system of justice. There is no valid reason why deserters and draft dodgers should be treated differently from any others who violate the laws of our land.

Free Speech: The Outer Limits

At a large public meeting not long ago, about 25 dissenters stationed themselves near the back of the hall to heckle the speaker. Shouting slogans in unison, they made him almost inaudible to many members of the audience.

Someone asked an usher whether anything could be done. "Not a thing," he replied gloomily. "They're just exercising their freedom of speech under the Constitution."

But the usher was wrong about the Constitution. He was making the all-too-common mistake of thinking that whatever is oral is lawful. The freedom of speech guaranteed by the Constitution does not mean that at all. Many kinds of oral conduct are unlawful.

Here are some examples:
1) a moviegoer, just for kicks, yells that the theater is on fire;
2) an evasive spinster falsely informs the man next door that his wife is having an affair with the milkman;

3) a hardware dealer, selling a stepladder he knows is defective, tells the customer it is safe;
4) a drunk warbles "Sweet Adeline" outside a hospital window at midnight.

Each of these actions is oral—and each is unlawful. Furthermore, they were unlawful when the Constitution was adopted. So is the deliberate disruption of a public meeting, whether by shouting slogans or blowing whistles or ringing cowbells.

What the Constitution does guarantee is the freedom that really counts: the freedom to express and advocate ideas, however unpopular.

In fact, it is to safeguard this primary freedom that the law imposes reasonable limits on the time, place, and manner of speech. Judge Curtis Bok once put the matter in a nutshell:
"In the whole history of law and order, the longest step forward was taken by primitive man when, as if by common consent, the tribe sat down in a circle and allowed only one man to speak at a time."

It is this kind of common sense that enables a free society to function. It is what the law is all about.

HOW TO MAKE A SMALL ROOM LOOK LARGER

There are many ways you can make a small room look larger. Wall to wall carpet is one way. It always makes a room seem larger. The use of mirrors or an entire mirrored wall is another good way.

Another rule is not to overcrowd a small room. Use as few pieces of furniture as possible and use small dimensioned pieces.

Use a love seat instead of a sofa and the love seat should be lightly sealed and not heavy and overstuffed. Use occasional or armless chairs instead of large lounge chairs and keep the size of everything used in the room smaller in proportion.

Needless to say, never use wall paper, carpet or upholstery with a large pattern in a small room.

A hand painted or wall paper mural of a landscape or seascape will add third dimensional depth to a room.

Use a small snack table or two in front of your sofa instead of a large cocktail table.

Light, bright and airy colors make a room look larger while dark, drab colors make it contract. Heavy draperies should be avoided.

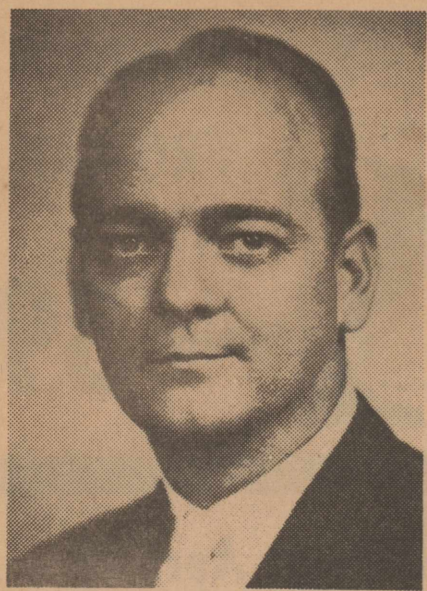

Try using groups of miniature pictures or accessories instead of a large picture.

Perhaps most important of all is the final ensemble and arrangement of the furniture you use. We'll be happy to offer you personal suggestions and help you in any way we can. Come on in and talk over your decorating problems.

Byron Tunnell Announces for Railroad Commission

BYRON TUNNELL

Byron Tunnell, vigorous young Chairman of the Railroad Commission of Texas, has announced for election to his second full term on the Commission. His election last year as Chairman established him as the youngest presiding officer of the agency in Texas history.

Tunnell is a graduate of Tyler public schools and Baylor University Law School. Prior to his Commission service he was a practicing trial attorney in Tyler. The candidate is a Navy Air Corps veteran of World War II.

This East Texan has already made a mark as one of Texas' great advocates of conservation of the state's natural resources. Tunnell, in accepting the Chairmanship of the Commission, pledged the full force and effect of the agency to conservation for the economic and ecological welfare of all Texans.

My Neighbors

"This is your free lunch—soon wait at your friendly bank..."

An Open Letter To The People Of Texas

Dear Voter:

I'm a candidate for attorney general of Texas because I believe it's time for a change in the office. Crawford Martin is seeking a fourth term. It's the first time in the history of Texas an attorney general is running for a fourth term. Campaigns should be run on the issues and I don't like to inject personalities and personal relationships into a political campaign. But, the relationship between Frank Sharp and Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin cannot be swept under the rug.

The new book about the Texas stock fraud scandal, "Texas Under a Cloud," tells about that relationship. On page 128 the book says:

"Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin... got some free newspaper publicity when it was revealed in October, 1971, that he received a 'stock tip' from Frank Sharp - while Martin and his family were Sharp's ranch guests late in 1969 and again at Sharp's Houston office early in 1970."

"Sharp was trying personally to sell National Bankers Life stock to Martin, although the attorney general said that Sharp never mentioned the possibility of Sharpstown Bank loans to buy the stock. 'Martin said that he turned the stock offer down because it would have cost too much, because NBL was in 'shaky' condition, and because he did not buy 'speculative' stocks."

"He did not comment on the ethical aspects of a state official's accepting a stock tip of that sort - perhaps, because Martin, as attorney general, had ruled in favor of Sharp on a key legal issue about Sharpstown State Bank only two and one half years before Sharp made the stock offer to Martin."

"Martin's ruling had the effect of increasing the bank's capitalization dramatically and thus its ability to make large loans, ultimately giving Sharp the financial resources he used in the manipulations charged by the SEC."

"As you know, hundreds of Texans lost their life savings because of Sharp's stock manipulations and it probably wouldn't have happened but for Atty. Gen. Martin's legal opinion."

"Don't you agree, it's time for a change in the office of attorney general of Texas?"

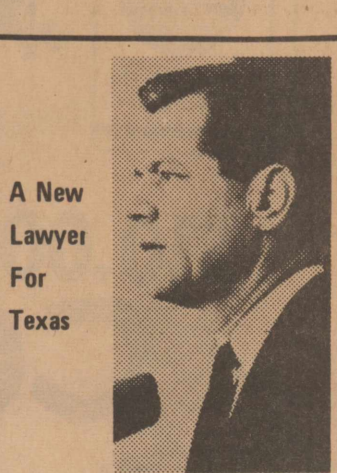

"Just so you'll know what you'd be changing to, I'd like to tell you a little about John Hill. I'm a native Texan, grew up in Wink and Kilgore, was national debate champion at Kilgore Junior College and graduated from the University of Texas Law School. I served in the Navy during World War II, practiced law (much of the time in courtrooms) in Houston, and was secretary of state from 1966 to 1968."

"I certainly would appreciate your support."

It is time for a change.

I'm Byron Stuart and I Say Dodge Builds a Better Pickup

OUR CAB IS THE ROOMIEST. Your first look inside tells you that. But we have the facts and figures to prove it. Since Dodge is the only all-new pickup this year, it's been designed bigger than any of the others.

OUR INDEPENDENT FRONT SUSPENSION IS EXCLUSIVE. Certainly, there are other kinds of I.F.S., but only Dodge pickups have newly designed coil spring suspension assemblies with a built-in front control strut. One test drive will show you what a difference it can make.

OUR TOUGHNESS IS A PROUD DODGE TRADITION. Toughness is a reputation Dodge has enjoyed for many, many years. We still have it with features we can show you now - if you'll come in and see the only all-new pickup on the road for 1972 - Dodge. Depend on it.

Tips For Gardeners

From the Ozona Garden Club
By
Mrs. Bailey Post

April is usually a month to enjoy the results of autumn planning and planting, though there is no let-up of garden work.

Now that Easter is past, it should be safe to plant tender bedding plants, but be prepared to protect them if a late freeze is forecast.

If you are interested in pest control in the garden, interplanting is an excellent organic method. Suggestions from well known growers and magazines are many.

Garlic planted near roses guards against blackspot, mildew and aphids. Also for aphid control plant coriander and anise (annual herbs) or tansy and rue (perennial herbs) among roses.

Purethrum (painted daisy) and Feverfew help with general bug control.

Basil in a border or potted, on a patio or terrace helps control flies.

Hot pepper scattered near bushes repels dogs, and will discourage chewing insects.

For spider mite control, mix one-half cup of buttermilk with four cups of wheat flour and five gallons of water.
The mites stick to the foliage and die as the spray dies.

Brown sugar and tartar emetic is an old fashioned pest control. The sugar attracts insects; the emetic causes internal disturbance.

Aphids also may be controlled with lights and colors.
Aluminum foil which reflects the sky's ultra-violet rays, con-fuses aphids, causing them to move on to something greener.

I haven't tried any of these controls but I intend to, so if anyone else has tried them, let me know the results.

Enter into the clean-up next week. After the dry, dusty and windy days of last month, there is a great deal of litter on our streets and lots.

USE OF PRE-ADDRESSED IRS LABEL HELPS AVOID ERRORS

(Dallas, Texas)—Many taxpayer errors, particularly those that delay refunds, can be eliminated by using the pre-addressed label on the tax package received in the mail. Peel the label from the tax package and place it on your Form 1040.

Income tax returns with labels can be quickly identified and processed since they contain necessary identifying information, Ellis Campbell, Jr., District Director of Internal Revenue for North Texas, said today.

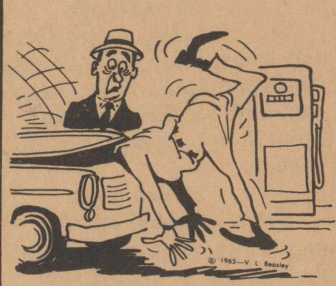

If your name or address has changed, make the necessary corrections on the label and lightly strike through the wrong pre-printed information. If you have a refund due, this will help insure delivery of the check to the correct address.

Taxpayers should also be certain that their correct social security number is entered on the label before they file their return.

The filing deadline for 1971 tax returns is April 17, 1972.
