Many citizens are becoming alarmed over the web-worm situation which almost wiped the town clean of tree leaves last year, especially the pecan tree, of which Ozona has an abundant planting. These parasites are just showing up on trees in town this year and many concerned citizens are interested in finding a solution to the problem.

After several telephone calls, I decided to check the situation out. Finding one of the webs on one of my own trees also spurred me on.

A check with a tree-spraying expert revealed that while the common name for the unsightly nests is web-worm, they are actually the gypsy moth, common in the Eastern States, and presently being controlled by a Federal Government program.

The parasites multiply in the rubbery web and feed on tree leaves. If you manage to pull one down and break it open, you will see hundreds of worms of various sizes. Evidently as one batch of caterpillars hatch out, another becomes active and so on through the summer until the first freeze.

According to the sprayer, who has made a study of the moth and its larva, if they are not controlled, they get worse each year, showing up earlier and multiplying with alarming rapidity. Some forests along the Eastern seaboard were almost wiped out within the space of a few years before the government spraying program was put into effect.

Another problem, if you have your trees sprayed and your next-door neighbor does not, before long you are right back where you started from.

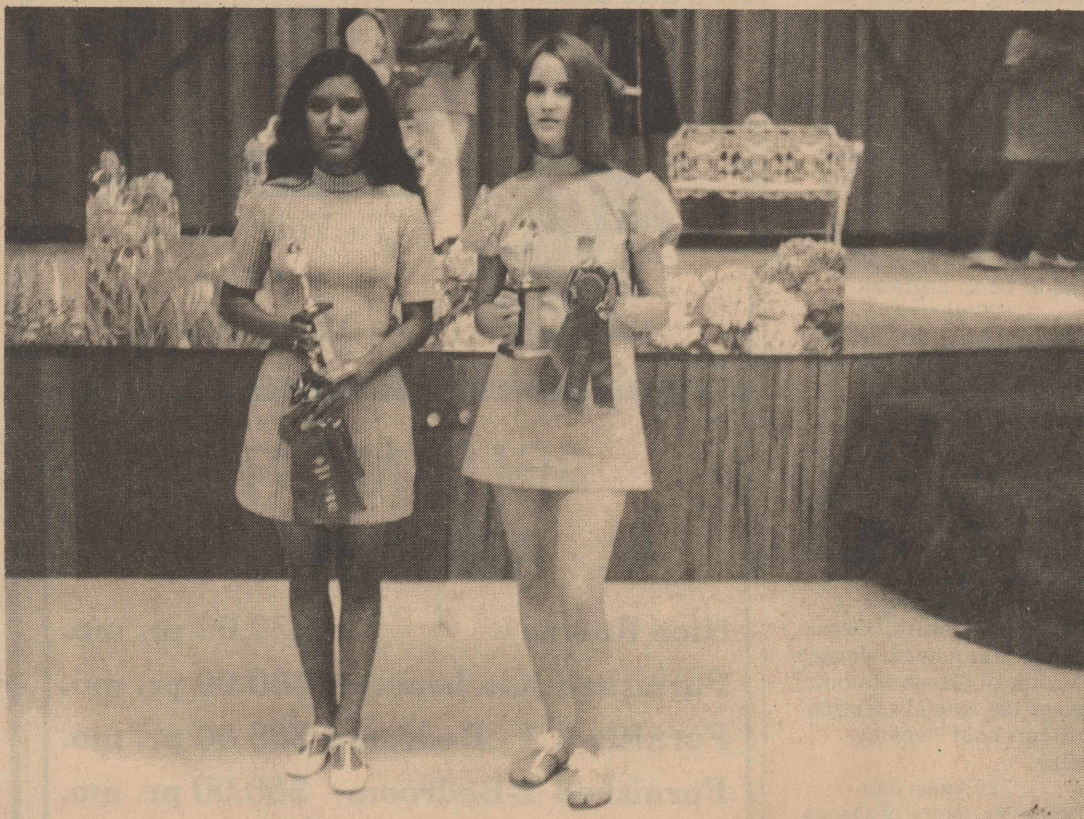

Expert opinion has it that a countywide or citywide spraying program within the next few weeks would control and indeed wipe out the moth in Ozona, at least for this season. However, there are not enough tree sprayers in town to do an effective job and for really good control several more would need to be imported.

Most citizens feel that this is a job for the county. While some would be willing to pay their part, others would not, and if all trees are not sprayed the outlook for control is hopeless.

The commissioners court meets Monday morning at the courthouse, and I would suggest that those interested take it up with the court. I understand petitions are being circulated, but at this writing I have no firm information. However, I feel sure the court will give the situation its attention and try to come to some sort of agreement in order to keep Ozona beautiful. After all, it's all for the common good.

I have a little item for all you cowboys and cowgirls. It came in too late to make the deadline, but you are reminded of the steer roping Saturday night at the arena. It begins at 6 o'clock, and as far as I can gather all are welcome to participate. I feel sure, however, that you must furnish your own horse.

Please do not be concerned when you get your subscription bill late. We just can't get around to subscription billing every month, or even every two months for that matter. So we just do it as time permits. Quite often we run past your expiration date before we are able to get a statement off to you. Some of our subscribers write to apologize for being late and some get quite angry that they didn't get a bill right on the due date. We are attempting to come up with a common expiration date, whereby we remind all our subscribers that it's "paper paying time" by way of a little note in the paper. This would be a simple solution, but until that time (Continued on last page)

Screwworm Outbreak Epidemic Proportions

Screwworm cases started popping up all over the county the past week, according to county agent Pete Jacoby. Eight cases have been reported confirmed to date on ranches of Beecher Montgomery, Bud Cox, J. S. Pierce, Jack Williams, Troy Williams, B. B. Noelke and Bill Hoover Estate. A number of other ranchmen have sent in sample bottles of suspected screwworm cases and most will be confirmed cases, Jacoby believes.

Screwworm cases have exceeded six thousand for the state as compared to a total of only 444 for all of last year. Crockett County had four confirmed cases in 1971.

Dr. M. E. (Cotton) Meadows, Jr., eradication program director, reports that all areas where cases are confirmed are being treated with sterile flies at each location. In addition, 1,600 flies are dropped per square mile each week in the southern part of the state that has heavy infestations. Certain other areas receive sterile fly drops at the rate of 500 to 800 per square mile each week. When cases are confirmed in scattered western and northern counties, routine fly drops are made along rivers and streams in addition to the "hot-spotting."

Dr. Meadows recommends the spraying of livestock every two weeks with Korlan or Corral for screwworm fly control. Ranchmen should check label precautions and follow directions when treating meat or dairy animals to comply with slaughter restrictions of animals going to market.

Dr. Meadows reports that almost 70% of the cases being reported are from the navels of new-born calves. Nearly 20% are from man made wounds of dehorning, castrating or other deliberate surgery.

Unnecessary surgery should be postponed and all wounds treated with screwworm protectants until they are healed.

Check livestock regularly for worm cases, collect and mail samples when found, urges Jacoby.

Highway Dept. Presents Awards To Safe Drivers

The Texas Highway Department has awarded certificates and pins to accident free drivers of trucks, pickups and station wagons in this area. Driver award certificates are issued for accident free driving records for one year through as many years as districts have drivers who qualify. Beginning with the tenth year, a pin is issued in addition to the certificate.

Two men from the Ozona Maintenance Section received awards. They were Cecil F. Hedrick, certificate for 1 year accident free driving, and to Otilio V. Duran, who has 19 years of accident free driving. Duran also received a pin.

Presenting these awards was Charlie Low, Maintenance Engineer of the District Office in San Angelo during ceremonies at the Maintenance Office here.

This year for the first time, drivers of pickups and station wagons are included for the awards. These men are now eligible for the award though some have driven accident free for many years.

Carson-Rose Team Wins In Ozona Tourney

The team of Billy Carson and Rick Rose of Alpine took the championship flight of the Ozona Country Club men's partnership tournament last weekend with a score of 167.

They won over John Brinker and Fred Brinker of Odessa who also had a 167 by virtue of a card rule.

Sonny Perez and Danny Osha of San Angelo took third place with a 168 and the team of H. O. Allen and Bruce Armstrong of Big Lake had a 169 for fourth.

Topping the first flight were Clyde Perry and Herb Woody of Big Lake, carding a 180. Pritchett-Fuller of Odessa had 181 and Wade Daugherty-Bill Ashcraft of Big Lake had a 182 as did fourth-placers Jerry Adams and Bill Emerson of San Angelo.

In the second flight the Crane team of Modisett-Carlson of Crane came in first, Mercer-Keel of San Angelo, second; Renfro-Renfro of Sonora were third.

Third flight winners were Dempsey-Falcon of San Angelo, first; James Sanker of Ozona and Alexander of Fort Worth, second; Thompson-Jacoby of Ozona, third and Jack Baggett of Ozona and Web Elliott of Sonora, fourth.

Ties were judged on the scorecard.

Deep Wildcat On Shannon Estate By Dallas Firm

The Petroleum Corp., Dallas, will drill an 8,000-foot Ellenburger wildcat in Crockett county, 11 miles east of Iraan, 1-7/8 miles northwest of shallow production and 2 1/2 miles southeast of the depleted Cisco opener and lone producer from that pay in the Shannon field. It is the No. 1 Shannon.

Location is 6,400 feet from the south and 990 feet from the east lines of Archer CSL No. 2. Ground elevation is 2,404 feet.

It is also a southwest offset to a 7,925-foot Ellenburger failure, Ohio Oil Co. (now Marathon Oil Co.) No. 1-1A Shannon, abandoned May 25, 1962, after unsuccessful tests of the Ellenburger dolomite was picked at 7,610 feet and the Permo-Pennsylvanian at 6,300 feet on elevation of 2,419 feet.

The Cisco opener, Houston Oil Co. of Texas, No. 1 Margaret A. Shannon, was finished Jan. 29, 1953, to pump 19 barrels of oil, plus 77 barrels of water, through perforations at 6,666-74 feet. Drilled to 8,190 feet in the Ellenburger topped at 7,578 feet on ground elevation of 2,583 feet, it was plugged back to 6,703 feet.

Texas Oil & Gas Corp., Midland, will drill the No. 1-A Todd as a location northwest offset to its No. 1 Todd, Strawn opener and lone producer from that pay in the Todd multipay field of Crockett County, 21 miles northwest of Ozona.

Location is 2,173 feet from the north and west lines of 6-WX-GC&SF. Contract depth is 6,600 feet; ground elevation is 2,497 feet.

The discovery was finished Jan. 14 for 192 barrels of 39.2 gravity oil, plus 38 barrels of water, through a 16-64-inch choke.

Fortune To Try For Completion Meadows Test

Fortune Drilling Corp., San Angelo, announced plans to re-enter for completion attempt in the Strawn reef at approximately 6,530-50 feet at the former Southland Royalty Co., Fort Worth, No. 1 Meadows, Crockett County 7,195-foot wildcat failure six miles northeast of Sheffield, 4 1/2 miles west of the Lancaster Hill (Strawn Gas) field and 1 1/2 miles southwest of shallow production in the Half field.

The project, abandoned April 8, flowed gas at the maximum rate of 200,000 cubic feet daily and recovered 300 feet of mud and gas-cut oil, plus 60 feet of drilling water on a drillstem test at 6,513-40 feet. Flowing pressure was 85-170 pounds; one-hour initial and final shut-in pressures were 2,762 pounds.

Results of a drillstem test at 6,540-580 were not released.

Location is 1,980 feet from the north and west lines of 43-GG-HE&WT.

Texas Oil Wells Topped Billion Barrels In 1971

Texas crude oil production in 1971 topped 1 billion barrels for the seventh consecutive year as reserves fell toward the 13 billion barrel mark, according to a study by the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Assn.

Texas oil wells produced 1,210,818,658 barrels last year, bringing the state's 82-year production total to 35.3 billion barrels. Reserves dropped 172,000 barrels.

"With producers unable to increase drilling activities, additional oil supplies in Texas hinge on recovering more oil from existing fields," Robert A. Buschman, Association president, commented. Secondary recovery units in Scurry County contributed a (Continued on last page)

Jess Marley Run-Off Winner For New Term In Commissioner Post

Jesse Marley, incumbent commissioner of Precinct 1, beat Armando Reina for that post in Saturday's run-off primary by a vote of 318 to 213. The race created a great deal of interest locally when after the first Democratic Primary, in which Marley led the ticket, Reina filed a suit in 112th District Court to have Marley's name removed from the ballot, claiming Marley did not reside in Precinct 1. Judge Pat Patterson, 83rd District Judge from Alpine, heard the case during the spring term of 112th District Court and denied the petition. There was no evidence presented to show that Marley was not a resident of his precinct, where he claims his ranch home as his homestead, although he also has a house in Precinct 2. Voters of Precinct 1 cast ballots at the courthouse Saturday, and numbered 397. The absentee box had a total of 198 votes, most of which were Precinct 1 ballots. The run-off came about when two other contenders in the first primary polled enough votes to deny a clear majority to either of the two candidates.

There were 1,140 votes cast in the county and for the most part Crockett County voters went along with the rest of the state, with the exception of the Lt. Governor's race and they gave Wayne Connally the nod over Bill Hobby 547 to 519, although Hobby won statewide.

Voters in Precincts 2, 3 and 4 voted at the Civic Center, and numbered 511. There were 12 votes cast at the Powell Field box, and 22 at the Power Plant box.

Complete county results were as follows: U. S. Senator - Ralph Yarborough, 445. Barefoot Sanders 623

Governor - Dolph Briscoe 761. Farenthold, 337. Lt. Governor - Hobby, 519. Connally, 547.

Comptroller of Public Accounts - Robert S. Calvert 596. James Wilson, 428

The state candidates will be opposed in the general election in November by the Republican nominees. Marley will run unopposed in the November election.

SENSING The NEWS

BY ANTHONY HARRIGAN, Executive Vice President, Southern States Industrial Council

THE SOVIET TRIUMPH

Every good citizen shares President Nixon's stated objective of a generation of peace. Thus Americans have looked to the Strategic Arms Limitation Talks with the Soviet Union as evidence of U. S. Determination to achieve peace through negotiation. The U. S. - USSR arms limitation agreement signed in Moscow last Friday, however, provides cause for grave concern among Americans who are realistic about national security. The announced terms of the agreement favor the Soviet Union. Indeed the summit agreement will place the United States in a position of permanent strategic inferiority.

Consider the key facts: The Soviets are far ahead of the U. S. in numbers of land-based missiles, having 1,618 to America's 1,054. The freeze on land-based missiles will leave the USSR with this enormous advantage.

Even more alarming is the situation with respect to sea-based missiles by only a small fraction. The Soviets, on the other hand, will be allowed to increase their submarine force from the present 25 missile-firing subs to more than 40. In other words, the Soviets will match the U. S. in sea-based missiles, the only area in which the United States retained a major advantage over the USSR.

True, the U. S. has a temporary advantage in the number of warheads because of America's lead in developing warhead missiles. But intelligence sources expect that the Soviets soon will be able to install multiple warheads on their land and sea-based missiles. When that is done, they will have many more warheads than the U. S.

Moreover, a provision of the Moscow arms pact permits the Soviets to improve their giant 20-megaton SS-9 missiles, which are far larger than anything in the U. S. arsenal, and even replace them with the vastly more destructive 50-megaton warheads.

There's no mistaking the meaning of these provisions: 1) the Soviet negotiators triumphed in the SALT talks, achieving their objectives and 2) the United States has accepted the Soviet Union as the No. 1 military power in the world.

This is an historic come-down for the United States and a threat to the freedom of the American people and their allies. It is all so unnecessary, for the United States pioneered in nuclear armaments and only had to maintain its forces and innovative development.

Congress and the American people should consider what it will mean for the U. S. to be deprived of the nuclear superiority this country has enjoyed since the dawn of the atomic age. The U. S. nuclear superiority safeguarded the lives and liberties of Americans in crisis after crisis since the end of World War II. Are our people so naive as to believe that there won't be anymore crises involving the Soviet Union? And how can the United States hope to stand up for the cause of freedom or resist atomic blackmail when the Soviets have deployed gigantic supermissiles that carry vast nuclear payloads?

At the beginning of his administration, President Nixon promised to lead the nation into an era of negotiation rather than confrontation. Negotiation -- from one position of strength to another position of strength -- is a sound policy. But it is clear that America's negotiators in the SALT talks failed to take a hard line. The Soviets, on the other hand, again demonstrated their skill in militant negotiation. They got what they wanted. Perhaps President

Ozona Relatives Attend Grimmer Iowa Anniversary

Ozona residents and members of the W. J. Grimmer family recently returned from Winfield, Iowa, where Mr. and Mrs. Grimmer celebrated their 50th anniversary May 19.

There were twenty-seven members of the clan present for the dinner at the Harlan Hotel Friday night and for the tea at the United Methodist Church the following Sunday afternoon.

Three of their children and their families were present. They were Dr. and Mrs. Billy Grimmer and sons of Mt. Pleasant Valley, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bailey, Jim Bob and Sally of Ozona, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Grimmer and family of Winfield. Another daughter, Mrs. Duane Rosenberger of Fort Summer, New Mexico, was unable to attend.

For the first time in nineteen years, Mrs. Grimmer, her four sisters and her sister-in-law were together. They included Mrs. Bryan McDonald of Canyon, Mrs. Frank McMullan of Ozona, Mrs. Dixie Meybin of Sewickley, Pa., Mrs. Betty Garver of Fort Worth and Mrs. Joe (Winnie) Davidson of Ozona.

Other members of the family present included Bryan McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDonald of Bangs, Bob Meybin and son, Capt. Johnny Meybin, of Sewickley, Pa.

Scoutmaster Garland Young and Boy Scout Troop 153 are attending Boy Scout camp at Camp Fawcett this week.

Nixon was too eager for a quick settlement. The Soviet leaders didn't have an election facing them in November. They weren't under pressure to pull something out of the hat, irrespective of the cost in national power and prestige.

Many questions arise from the Moscow pact. What for example, will happen to plans for the proposed Trident Missile submarines, conceived as replacements for Polaris and Poseidon? Will these plans be scuttled in a time of widespread euphoria? Will the George McGovern now say that the U. S. should proceed to unilateral disarmament? What will be the defense strategy of the United States, given the confirmed reality of Soviet military supremacy? What will be the defense strategy of the United States, given the confirmed reality of Soviet military supremacy? And what will the Soviets do in the world arena? They don't separate military and political capabilities. It is hard to believe that the Soviets will refrain from impressing on the world at large their new stature or making their new weight felt across the globe in big and little crises.

Many Americans, perhaps the vast majority, will view

Mrs. Charles Williams presided at the business meeting. Mrs. M. E. Nicholas, Crusade Chairman, presented Certificates of Appreciation to The Study and Action Club, Mrs. Johnny Rodriguez, president; Mrs. Charles Black, Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Ray Davis.

Other individuals and organizations to receive certificates are Beta Sigma Phi, with co-chairmen Mrs. Al Schmid, Mrs. Jay Berry, and Mrs. Sonny Kirklen; Mrs. Savannah Wright, Bill Watson, Mrs. Jim Dudley, J. B. Miller, The Ozona Stockman, Kerbert Kunkle, Mrs. C. E. Davidson III and Mrs. Bill Morrison.

It was reported that all civic clubs and several church groups had received educational programs during the year, plus film strips shown in the Intermediate school.

In crusade Crockett County again received the Texas Division's Golden Achievement Award for exceeding its best previous year in fund raising. All collections, including the Rummage for Research sale held Friday and Saturday, amount to $8,710.74 the Moscow accord as a giant step toward peace. But more realistic Americans will note the details of the Moscow agreement, which acknowledge Soviet military supremacy. They are likely to judge that the summit agreement plainly indicates that the U. S. government accepts a world order in which the Soviets have the greatest strength.

An evening out

...at home

... where the charm of a GAS light lets the evening last a little longer

... and the food has an exciting outdoor aroma and flavor, found nowhere else in the World!

A GAS outdoor grill gives food a tangy outdoor flavor without the time and bother of charcoal fire. Char-broiled flavor comes from the smoke of meat juices dripping on hot briquets. Charcoal itself provides no flavor. Permanent ceramic briquets in the gas grill reach cooking heat in a few minutes, and there is no long wait to start cooking. The heat is regulated manually so there is no need to move a grill up or down.

Tips For Gardeners

From the
Ozona Garden Club
By
Mrs. Bailey Post

Just back from Houston and Galveston, I still declare we have the prettiest little spot in Texas for our home.

On the way down, we went by way of New Braunfels and saw the devastation caused by the recent flood along the river. Some were taking the opportunity to haul the rich top soil and native compost that had washed over the roadways to use for their gardens.

Another beauty spot which I had never seen was the well kept and beautiful Canyon Lake Reservoir on 306 between Blanco and New Braunfels.

In the summer time most homes present several opportunities to use hanging baskets. No matter where it is placed, it never fails to act as a focal point and lends a particular fascination when it sways in the breeze.

There are many types of containers to use for baskets, both formal and informal. Wire baskets are usually large, light and therefore can hold more soil, but despite this they dry out quickly. In hot weather they require frequent watering, sometimes twice or three times a day. Select one according to the kinds of plants you intend to grow, but shun anything less than six inches across.

Usually, just one kind of plant is set into each hanging basket. Typical examples are lantana, fuchsia, ivy geranium, English ivy, cascading petunia, airplane plant, succulents, shrimp plant, jew, cherry tomato and others. An attractive mixture of plants might include one or two kinds of upright plants, such as zonal geraniums with sweet alyssum and lobelia. Another, pink ivy geranium with pink, lavender and white verbenias. A general potting soil will suit most kinds. Use two parts garden loam, one part sand and one part peatmoss, plus a sprinkling of fertilizer and bone meal. Or you can buy ready mixed soil at the nurseries. During the summer follow with regular feedings using dry or liquid fertilizer.

Mrs. Bailey Post spent last week in Houston and Galveston visiting her daughter and grandson.

Is now the time to buy land?

Acquiring that farm might seem more practical with financing through the Federal Land Bank. Land is easier to pay off when costs are amortized over extra years with a long-term Land Bank Loan. Your total cost of borrowing, too, can be less. Ask us for help: We know land values; we will inspect the property. We will then try to make a loan that meets your exact needs.

HIS FEET ARE ON THE GROUND!

This man can see for many, many miles, but he's not up in the clouds; his feet are on the ground!

The Church gives man stability too—a broader vision. It lifts up his eyes to see God and the eternal values of love, truth, justice and service which God inspires. It gives him a divine perspective from which to view his job, his family, his country—his life!

But the Church always keeps that man's feet on the ground! It accepts him for what he is—regardless of the clothes he wears or the job he holds. It looks evil in the face and sees it for what it is—a devilish cancer which only God can cure. It keeps a man's feet on the ground while it lifts up his eyes to see beyond the horizon.

And this is what the Church can do for you! It can give you greater vision. But it's not up in the clouds. It keeps your feet on the ground!

SEVEN RULES TO HELP IN DECORATING

1. Let your home reflect your own personality. Learn from - but do not copy -- your friends and neighbors.

2. Combine beauty with comfort. Choose furniture that's lovely to look at and to live with.

3. Don't overcrowd rooms

4. Use color lavishly, whether you like monotones, harmonizing or contrasting color schemes. Avoid drabness.

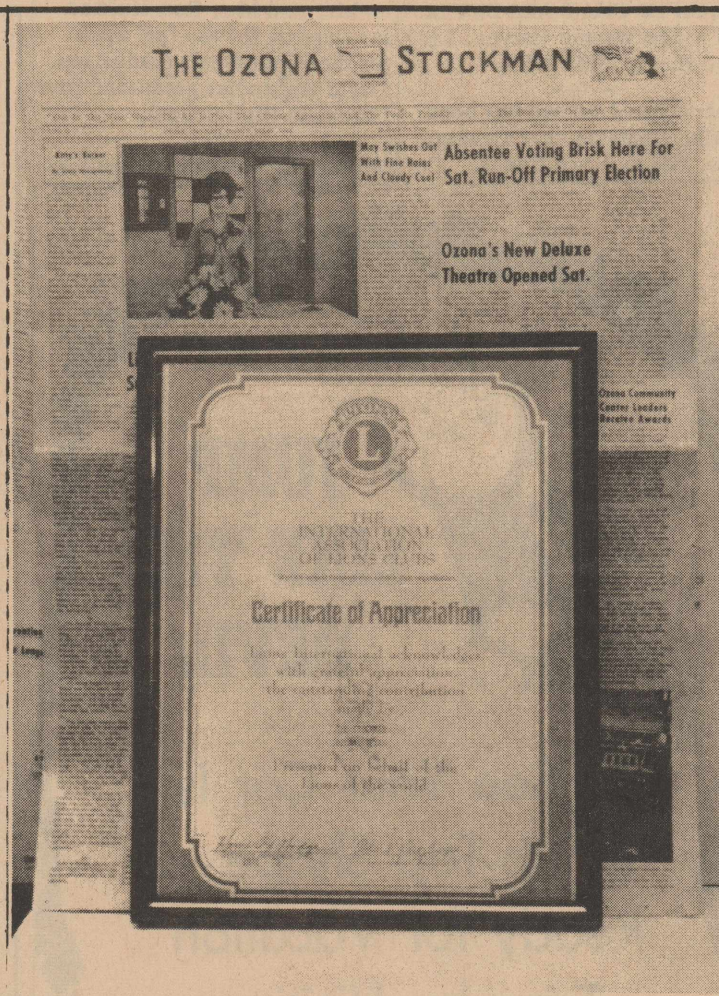

5. Mix -- don't match. Mix periods, wood finishes, and fabric textures so that each item in the room will have a character of its own. Your items do not have to MATCH but they must BLEND together beautifully.

6. Use your imagination. Have the courage to express yourself and keep in mind good taste.

7. Sketch a lay-out of your rooms. In a new home this can be done right in the plans. Your furniture dealer can help you -- and we invite you to come in and take advantage of our free decorator service.

Lions International Expresses

Appreciation for Newspaper Help

An organization that directs the energies of its members to community service paused this week to recognize the help of another institution whose total energies go into public service.

The Ozona Lions Club, on behalf of the worldwide service organization, The International Association of Lions Clubs, presented a "Certificate of Appreciation" in the form of a handsomely framed plaque to the Ozona Stockman at the club's regular weekly luncheon Thursday noon.

In presenting the Certificate to the newspaper, Bill Watson for the club explained that the Lions Club itself does not particularly seek publicity as such for the club, but does actively seek publicity for the many projects it sponsors on behalf of the community and its humanitarian endeavors, and complimented The Stockman for its generous support of the club's many projects.

The plaque, accepted for the paper by its publisher, Evert White, reads as follows: "The International Association of Lions Clubs, World's largest humanitarian service club organization, 'Certificate of Appreciation' Lions International acknowledges, with grateful appreciation, the outstanding contribution made by THE OZONA STOCKMAN, Ozona, Texas. Presented on behalf of the Lions of the world"---and signed by Homer J. Hodge, District Governor 2-A1, 1971-72, and by Robert J. Uplinger, Lions International President, 1971-72.
