Kitty's Korner

By Kitty Montgomery

Here I am again, late at night and the deadline long past. I have used up my brain power on the rest of the paper. However, we are not without editorial content. Our Letters to the Editor column on page two gives plenty of food for thought. We just might start putting it on the front page.

If I could manage that, I would have plenty of free time for book work and tax reports. There is always time for rest between two and four o'clock in the morning.

Speaking of tax reports, the quarterly reports are bad enough, but then the end of the year comes around and you have to make annual reports on the quarterly reports and that's enough to confuse anyone. I still can't figure out how the taxing agencies can have the businesses all over the nation collecting taxes for them without remuneration of any kind. The only thing you are sure to receive is a penalty if you are late. Oh well.

Alien Info Is Confidential

According to Mr. Albert G. Vaughan of the San Antonio Immigration and Naturalization Service office, the information furnished by aliens in reporting their addresses has been declared confidential by statute. These reports must be submitted during January each year by all aliens in the United States, with few exceptions. Forms on which to submit the reports are available at any Post Office or office of the Immigration and Naturalization Service. Persons who are unable to pick up a form because of illness, or other reasons, may have a relative or friend obtain a card for them.

The card should be returned to one of these offices or mailed directly to the nearest office of the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

Historical Group Is Reappointed

The official appointment of members to the Crockett County Historical Survey Committee has been announced by County Judge Troy Williams. The county survey committee, which implements the state marking and preservation program in this area, will cooperate directly with the State Office of the Texas State Historical Survey Committee in Austin.

Mrs. R. A. Harrell of Ozona, Texas will be chairman of the group. Other members are R. A. Harrell, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Carson, Mrs. L. B. Cox, Jr., Mrs. Joe Clayton, Miss Leta Powell, Evert White, Mrs. Fred Hagelstein, Fred Baker, Mrs. P. L. Childress, and Jim Marks. Non resident members are Henry Meadow, Clara Lee Benkenstein and Claude Meadows.

"Goals for the Seventies," a comprehensive historical preservation plan drawn up by the State Survey Committee, will provide the focus for county committee activities. It encompasses a wide range of objectives and programs.

County Judge Troy Williams commented, "The committee has been appointed at this time so that they may make plans for the coming two years."

He also pointed out that the overall purpose of the committee's work is the development of local history as a scholarly resource and a tourist attraction. "County survey committees work with local historians, county commissioners courts, and tourist related organizations to insure the preservation of history for future generations of Texans," he said.

The rate raise in natural gas became effective January

17, 1973, and will apply to all monthly bills rendered after that date.

Two little girls of the family were at home when the blaze started and told firemen the "television set blew up." They ran to neighbors who called the fire department, but the house and furnishings were almost a total loss before firemen arrived upon the scene. (Don Ingram Photo)

Over 200 Cattlemen Here For Field Day

Around 200 cattle raisers from all parts of Texas and from other states attended cattlemen's field day Tuesday at the Joe Couch ranch west of Ozona, which was concluded at a lecture series after a free barbecue lunch at the Ozona civic center.

Hosting the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Couch and their son, Buddy Couch, and the American Breeders Society, featuring the growing artificial insemination program and the promotion of the so-called exotic breeds of cattle.

The visiting and local cattlemen spent the morning at the Couch ranch where the various domestic and foreign breeds of cattle were in display with pedigrees and growth information placarded on fences. Buddy Couch, mounting the fences, gave brief descriptions of the various breeds on display. Included were the Simmental, Limousin, Maine-Anjou, Charolais, and other foreign breeds as well as the domestic Hereford and Angus breeds.

One of the most capable panels of speakers ever assembled in such a seminar presented various aspects of the beef cattle industry at the afternoon sessions at the civic center.

Jim Beverly from Texas A&M University, an expert in the field of animal nutrition and careful management in successful cattle raising.

Andy Devine of Kansas City, an authority on artificial insemination, spoke on this practice, which is making possible the upgrading of beef and dairy herds throughout the United States. Its use is being embraced more and more by West Texas ranchmen.

Dr. Ray Woodward of Bozeman, Montana, one of the nation's leading beef cattle experts and an authority on the exotic breeds, compared the various breeds and showed slides of specimens from each.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR: Ozona National Purchases Top 4-H Show Lambs

Dear Editor:

The $13,950.00 which the Commissioners Court has raised their collective salaries would, if invested in a sinking fund for 20 years at 6% interest, amount to $513,158.95. This is more than the $500,000.00 needed to build a new geriatrics wing onto the Crockett County Hospital.

I can sympathize with the position the members of the court found themselves in when they discovered that the jobs for which they campaigned so hard only paid $4,350.00 and $6,750.00. They probably felt like the man who reached for a gold nugget and picked up a horse apple.

In spite of my sympathy, I think the county needs the hospital improvement more than these gentlemen need to turn their horse apples back into gold nuggets.

Wayne E. West

Dear Editor:

I was amazed to learn the county commissioners felt they were overworked and under paid. They could resign and let someone have the office who is interested in the county instead of the salary.

The present salary and benefits seem to be adequate for 12 half-days of work a year! Any adult in the county knows how hard the work is. Seems to me this is their biggest bust since they gave the hospital to Medica Diversified.

The only thing I ever asked of the court was made a farce of. This was a request by myself and several other residents to spray trees for webworms and help rid our city of the unsightly mess.

sincerely,
Alice Baker

-it's just like getting a raise

After-school snacksters have good reason to "drink up" if the family shopper reads labels to compare ingredients and prices of real juices, imitation juices and synthetic juices.

"Most synthetic drinks containing vitamin C are two or three times more expensive than real fresh, frozen or canned orange juice."

Some synthetic drinks may be a less expensive source of vitamin C, but they may not contain all of the other important nutrients. For example, although we drink orange juice primarily because it's rich in vitamin C, it also contributes vitamin A, thiamine and the minerals calcium and iron.

In drinks such as instant breakfast drink, imitation lemonade mix and instant soft drink mix, sugar is present in the greatest quantity, followed by citric acid, several chemicals, vitamins, artificial flavors and color—but no real fruit juice. Some imitation orange juices, however, contain not less than 10—and some up to 50—percent orange juice.

Drinks made with a substantial amount of real fruit juice rather than entirely synthetic drinks, are likely to provide more food value. In addition, they contain less sugar and are not so injurious to teeth.

On your next visit to the grocery store, take a few minutes and check the labels, prices, and ingredients. Make sure your family gets the most from the snacks that you provide.

Misleading Ads Sent To Local Recipients

Some private insurance companies have been sending misleading advertisements to Medicare beneficiaries in the Ozona area, according to J. M. Talbot, social security manager, in an effort to sell them health insurance to supplement their Medicare protection.

Mr. Talbot said that the promotional literature distributed by these companies has been deliberately designed to give the reader the impression that the company is in some way connected with the Social Security Administration, or that it has access to the Federal agency's records.

One company used a window envelope that was almost identical to the ones social security uses to send out benefit checks, Mr. Talbot remarked. He went on to say that only careful reading of the fine print in the advertisement revealed the statement that the company was "not an agency of the State or Federal government".

Mr. Talbot stressed that the Social Security Administration does not endorse any privately-sponsored insurance plan designed to "supplement" Medicare benefits. He also emphasized that private insurance companies do not have access to social security records, which are confidential by law.

Mr. Talbot indicated that most private insurance programs supplementing Medicare offer valuable additional protection and advertise honestly in their sales literature. "However," Mr. Talbot said, "a few companies have engaged in practices which clearly are intended to mislead Medicare beneficiaries." Those persons who are confused by material they get in the mail should contact the Social Security Office at 3000 West Harris Avenue (P. O. Box 3808) in San Angelo, Texas, or see the representative when he is in your area. Persons who are unable to meet with him are encouraged to call the office in San Angelo. Residents of Ozona may call toll free by dialing "Operator" and asking for "Enterprise 2058".

Tips For Gardeners

From the Ozona Garden Club By Mrs. Bailey Post

Particularly throughout the long dreary cold spell we had, I wondered if it is possible to enjoy a garden without the presence of birds.

There are many ways to remedy this, but the greatest single attraction is water. Birds receive moisture from berries, fruit and early morning dew, but this is rather the hard way of getting a drink.

Bird baths may be a home made one or may be purchased. A large flower pot saucer is a very good choice if used on the ground level.

Light weight bird baths are apt to be broken by animals hunting water if on stands, so choose a heavy cast stone structure if not in an enclosed place.

To be large enough for more than one bird at a time it should not be less than one foot across and two or more feet is best. Keep the water and bath surface clean. Never place a bird bath in an area where cats can make sneak attacks.

Give the birds and yourself a break. Furnish them with water and they will supply your garden with engaging antics and never ending song.

HERE ARE RESULTS OF TESTS ON DINING ROOM TABLES

Tests have been made on the ideal measurements for dining room tables, and because of these tests, here are some of the things you should keep in mind in selecting furniture for the dining room.

These tests have shown that about 24 inches of space should be provided for each person who is going to sit at the table.

The table should be at least 30 inches wide if you want two people to face each other across the table and have room for their place settings above the table and their feet underneath.

If space in your room is limited, it is better to choose a narrower chair than to save an inch or two on the table measurements.

Ideally, table legs should not be in the way of those sitting around the table even when it is extended. But they often are, so look to see how inconvenient this will be before making up your mind.

Is the height right? Most people find a height of 28 to 29 inches from the floor to the table top most comfortable. The table should be between 10 to 12 inches higher than the chair seat.

To see furniture for any room in your home and to see interesting furniture ideas, stop in and browse around. There's no obligation.

THE WEEKLY HEADLINE

Grandpa frowned when I took this picture. "It won't look natural," he said. "My desk is never clean." It's clean now. The umbrella stand is empty, the hat rack bare. His old Web press has been retired. But Grandpa's presence lingers on.

For over fifty years he printed the Mayfield Progress, reporting the news with integrity. There were times when he was threatened, cajoled by attempted bribery, menaced by pressure groups, but he stayed true to principle. He was a giant in our town.

What made Grandpa strong in the face of danger — incorrupt when confronted by unscrupulous forces? His church was the center and circumference of his being. Its truths and its goodness sustained him. It was all that he needed — he remained steadfast and sure.

Your church is eager to help you meet the pressures of your day. Its resources are unlimited and eternal. Go to church, and take your family with you.

Bitterweed Seminar To Be Held In Angelo

A discussion of bitterweed problems, as well as past and current research will be held at the Texas A&M University Research and Extension Center at San Angelo on Friday, January 26. The meeting will start at 10:00 a.m. and end at noon. The purpose of this meeting is to discuss what research is available on managing areas infested with bitterweed and to identify problem areas that need further research. All interested ranchers are invited to attend.

A preliminary survey of problems indicates that bitterweed has already taken its toll with the sheepman on the Edwards Plateau and the Trans-Pecos areas of Texas. Ranchers' estimates place the reduction of sheep numbers 25 to 50 percent of those 20 years ago due to bitterweed alone. Estimates of costs of $5 per head to run sheep on bitterweed areas has been made. This includes feed cost to prevent toxicity and death loss of other animals.

This meeting will include individual discussions of the research that has been conducted and a panel discussion by ranchers of the program will be outlined in general by Dr. Carl Menzies, resident director of the San Angelo Center and Dr. Joe Schuster, head of the Range Science Department at Texas A&M. Research about bitterweed toxicity and possible antidotes will be discussed by Dr. J. W. Dollahite and Dr. B. J. Camp of Texas A&M University's veterinary science department. The aspect of proper range management on bitterweed areas will be presented by Dr. Leo Merrill from the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research Station at Sonora. Aspects of control will be discussed by Dr. T. J. Allen, Texas A&M Researcher; and Garlyn Hof-

Field Day—

Dr. Woodward has been making yearly trips to Europe for the past 25 years for a continuing study of the European and English cattle breeds.

The threat of cattle diseases was the subject of a discussion by Dr. Joe David Ross, Sonora veterinarian. Dr. Ross spoke of the six most common diseases of cattle in this area and discuss the various vaccines and remedies available. Dr. Ross particularly emphasized the most common cause of death loss, the difficulty of calving, and pointed out some characteristics to observe in selecting cattle with less tendency to have such trouble. At the conclusion of the session, the Couches were given a round of applause in appreciation for their efforts in bringing the field day here.

Is now the time to buy land?

Acquiring that farm might seem more practical with financing through the Federal Land Bank. Land is easier to pay off when costs are amortized over extra years with a long-term Land Bank Loan. Your total cost of borrowing, too, can be less. Ask us for help: We know land values; we will inspect the property. We will then try to make a loan that meets your exact needs.

Heart Fund Drive To Be Held Week Of Feb. 5-10

Volunteers now are being recruited for the Heart Week canvass which is to be conducted in Crockett County as the high point of the 1973 Heart Fund Campaign here, it was announced today by Mrs. L. D. Kirby, local campaign chairman. The volunteers, she said, will call on their neighbors during the week of February 5 through the 10.

"So that everyone in the community will have a chance to give, it is our hope to enlist enough men and women who can find time to call on neighbors to advance the most vital health crusade of our time," said Mrs. Kirby. "The importance of our cause may be adjudged by the fact that the heart and blood vessel diseases are responsible for more than half of all deaths in this country, while on the average one of each eight citizens is afflicted.

"We are not asking very much -- certainly, not more than a few hours of your time," she continued. "Considering the seriousness of the problem and the fact that heart disease poses a threat to every family, the investment is surely a wise one."

Mrs. Kirby said volunteers may call 392-3239 to enroll.
