Peace comes at last in Vietnam. At least for Americans, peace comes in Vietnam, and looking back over it all, we must wonder if it was really worth it.

We have heard much about civilian casualties. Yet, has ever a war been fought without civilian casualties?

When the bombing was resumed by Americans in North Vietnam, much of the American news media condemned President Nixon and labeled him a "war criminal." But would peace really have become a reality without the resumption of the bombing? Most observers doubt it, and it's up to history to decide.

A brief summary of the war in Vietnam tells us that the Eisenhower administration sent technical advisors to assist the South Vietnamese in their struggle against Communist aggression from the North. The Kennedy administration committed American ground troops, and the Johnson administration sent more with the almost full approval of Congress (if I am not mistaken, there was one lone vote against the Tonkin Bay resolution). American ground troops were cannon fodder for several years in the no-win struggle. North Vietnamese officials and Viet Cong officials made a mockery of the Paris peace talks, and continued their strictly propaganda tactics through October of last year. When the President ordered resumption of the bombing, and they realized he meant business, only then did they agree to negotiate a real peace settlement. Of course, this does not mean there will be peace in that tiny country, only that no more American lives will be lost.

Maybe it will not be in vain, if we have learned that war must be fought to be won. How much better for all had we gone for the military victory, instead of playing up to anti-war demonstrators and American traitors who were only a small part of the American public, but with more television coverage and louder voices than the vast silent majority. One must wonder how many lives would have been saved and how much sooner it would have come to an end.

However, it is peace for America, hollow though it is for the families of those who were killed or maimed. Perhaps the bitter lesson will prevent American blood being shed on foreign soil forevermore.

Well, guess I got carried away and ran out of space. Don't miss our letters to the editor column this week. We have another side of the story. And as the old saying goes, "there's always two sides to every story." Guess I'm not very objective, I always see

CATTLEMEN'S FIELD DAY at the Joe Couch Ranch was well-attended last week. Over 200 local and area cattlemen were on hand to see and hear about the American Breeders Service program featuring the growing artificial insemination projects and promotion of exotic breeds of cattle. Guests viewed specimens of the various breeds at the ranch last Tuesday morning. Here Buddy Couch, atop the fence, gives visitors a description of the breed shown here. Following a barbecue dinner hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Couch and Buddy, a seminar was held at the Civic Center.

Crockett County Records First Traffic Death

Crockett County's first traffic fatality of the year was recorded shortly after midnight Wednesday morning, Jan. 24, when Jas. S. Word, 53, of Odessa was dead at the scene of his wrecked auto.

The one vehicle accident occurred about 18 miles north of Ozona on State highway 137 in Crockett County. Word was traveling south when his auto left the road on the right, overturning and throwing the driver from the car. There were no passengers. Highway patrolman Bob Papasan was the investigating officer.

from 1:00 to 3:00 p. m., and then TS&GRA members and directors will go to the Capitol to visit with the members of the State Legislature. The general session will be held Tuesday, February 6, from 9:00 to 11:30 a. m. Committee reports will be heard, and in addition, Mr. Horace Wood, who is with the Wool Associates of the New York Cotton Exchange in Boston, Massachusetts, will speak briefly to the group.

Plans are being made for the members of the Woman's Auxiliary to the TS&GRA to tour the LBJ Library in conjunction with their general business meeting.

Cargile urged TS&GRA members and directors to attend this meeting and take advantage of this opportunity to get to know the members of the State Legislature. "Over half of these men are newly elected members of the Legislature, and it is very important that we let them know what we think about matters pertaining to agriculture in our State," said Cargile.

"Very Cold" Ozona Weather For The Winter

Weather has been very much in the news in Ozona this winter, with many old-timers vowing that the weather has never been colder nor has the cold lasted longer.

Unseasonably cold weather covered the area early in November, and freezing weather has been common since with a brief respite during the Christmas holidays.

The rainfall total for the year 1972 was 24.48 inches of moisture. Total rainfall for January, 1973, amounted to 1.19 inches, most of which was in the form of sleet or snow. Hazardous driving conditions prevailed during the month and many days saw below freezing temperatures throughout the twenty-four-hour period.

Several inches of snow covered the ground last Thursday morning, but melted and turned to rain before mid-afternoon. The previous Thursday saw the town covered with an icy layer of sleet and topped with fine, powdery snow. This spell lasted several days and travelers were stranded in hotels and motels along U. S. Highway 290.

The latest cold spell to hit the area came in Saturday with high winds and dust. The winds abated by Monday and the day dawned bright and clear. However, the mercury was standing on 20 degrees at 9 o'clock Monday morning and it was a cold, day of sunshine for Ozonans.

Low temperatures of 4 and 6 degrees were reported during earlier cold spells during the month with a reported low of 16 degrees early Monday morning.

Carson, Mrs. Joe Clayton, Mrs. P. L. Childress, Miss Leta Powell, Mrs. Fred Hagelstein, Fred Baker, Henry E. Meadows of Midland, Ewart White, Jim Marks, R. A. Harrell and Judge Troy Williams.

Committees were appointed as follows: Historical preservation: Miss Leta Powell, chairman; Henry Meadows and Mrs. Ira Carson.

History Appreciation: Mrs. P. L. Childress, chairman; Fred Baker, co-chairman; Mrs. Fred Hagelstein and Jim Marks.

Finance and Budget Committee: Ira Carson, chairman, and R. A. Harrell.

Publicity: Ewart White, chairman, and Miss Leta Powell.

The advisory committee is made up of County Judge Troy Williams, Mrs. C. O. Walker, president of the Crockett County Historical Society; Ted M. White, vice-president; Mrs. Dempster Jones, Director of the Crockett County Museum; B. B. Ingham Jr., and the county commissioners, Bill Black, Jess C. Marley, Jack Williams, and Glenn Sutton.

City Mail Delivery Depends On Vote Of Ozona Postal Patrons

City delivery mail service for Ozona postal patrons is being taken under consideration by the Postal Department and a study is being made.

At the request of the Ozona Chamber of Commerce board of directors, David E. Holster, a sectional center manager, U. S. Postal Service, of Midland, met with members of the board and went over the requirements with several members of the board recently. During the meeting he pointed out the advantages of city delivery and some possible disadvantages.

The service will not be house-to-house delivery, but curb delivery, and customers subscribing to this service will be required to erect a box on his curb in order that it can be serviced from a vehicle. The area must be cleared in order for the postal vehicle to service the box. Customer is required to furnish a rural-type box on a post along his curb line.

Another type service would be cluster boxes. In this service, a series of boxes would be furnished at strategic locations throughout town and customers would go to a neighborhood area to pick up mail.

Some of the advantages of city delivery include mail delivered inside buildings in main business district for business firms and curb delivery to residences and outlying businesses. There will be no need to go to town for mail, except to pick up notified mail. It would probably mean increased employment, a carrier now and possibly one later. Delivery of heavier parcels to place of business or home, and possibly other advantages.

Disadvantages are getting mail late. With a postal box the customer may pick up his mail at his convenience. Delivery routes would be on an 8-hour schedule with approximately 3 hours in the post office preparing mail after its arrival at 8:55 a. m. and five hours for delivery. Last delivery would be made about 4:00 p. m. Installation of a rural-type box at the curb is another possible disadvantage, along with calling at the post office for accountable type mail when carrier leaves a notice because addressee is not at home.

Customers would not be required to give up post office boxes, but delivery would be made according to address on article of mail.

Ozonans will have an opportunity to voice their opinions on the service and to make their wishes known by ballot which will be furnished by the post office. The ballots will be simple and patrons will vote for or against the service, sign their names with addresses and return to the post office.

Each family is urged to fill out the ballot one way or the other and return it to the post office in order that their vote may be counted. The service will depend upon the wishes of postal patrons, as the city does meet the basic requirements for the service.

Basic requirements are at least 2,500 population within delivery area to be served, street signs and markers, house numbers and all weather streets.

Methodists Present Alpha-Omega Players

Ozona area residents will have an opportunity to watch the nation's most active repertory theater in performance when the Alpha-Omega Players present "Aria Da Capo" by Edna St. Vincent Millay and "The Last Word" by James Broughton at the Ozona Methodist Church, February 9.

Headquartered in Dallas, Texas, the Alpha-Omega Players have given some 2,700 performances during the past five years, traveling more than 725,000 miles to 45 states and Canada. The talented young cast of "Aria Da Capo" and "The Last Word" includes Fiona Fraser, Sigrid Mureen, Jim Wiggins, and Rick Salome.

The performance will be a bill of two one-act plays. "Aria Da Capo" was written by Pulitzer Prize-winning poetess Edna St. Vincent Millay. It has become something of a modern classic. A recent survey revealed that this was one of the most frequently produced plays on college campuses. "Aria" is a play within-a-play. It begins with a comic duet, turns serious, then light again. It has been described as "An artful union of style and content that is thought-provoking without being heavy-handed."

"The Last Word" is a short play by James Broughton, one of America's leading experimental filmmakers. It is set in the style of a comic revue sketch and makes a timely comment on the problem of communication. The author describes his work as "a parable on the Last Judgment." In the Alpha-Omega production, the two plays are presented so as to compliment each other.

"Aria Da Capo" and "The Last Word" will be presented one night only; February 9; curtain time is 7:30 p. m. No tickets will be sold but a free-will offering will be taken. The public is invited.

Graveside Rites Here Wed. For Mrs. Marie Key Ozonans Honored At Girls Scout Meeting

Graveside services for Mrs. Marie Key, 47, were held here in Cedar Hill Cemetery Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 p. m.

Mrs. Key died Sunday morning in San Angelo apparently of a heart attack.

She was a resident of Ozona for many years and moved to San Angelo when her husband, Clarence, died here several years ago.

Survivors include a son, C. Wesley Key, of the U. S. Navy; her father, E. P. Havins of Whitharral; three brothers and three sisters.

Several Ozonans were honored at the Annual El Camino Girl Scout meeting Saturday night at the San Angelo Country Club.

Ozona Girl Scouts receiving First Class Awards, the equivalent of Eagle Scout in Boy Scouting, were Monica Delgado, Maria Gutierrez, Jostie Longoria, Rachel Berkley, and Ernestina Mas-kill.

Mrs. Herculano Delgado was presented with her 4-year tenure pin, and Mrs. Kenneth Kramer was honored as camp director.

The "Thanks Award," highest award given to adult leaders, was given to Miss Ethel Wolf and Miss Dorothy Price, former directors of the Ozona Community Center.

Edwin Kirken and Herculano Delgado, both of Ozona, were elected to the Board of Directors of the El Camino Girl Scout Council.

ANOTHER COLD, SNOW-COVERED DAY IN OZONA - Last Thursday the park was still covered with snow at mid-morning and cars along the way were well-covered. However, snow had turned to rain and the streets were slush-covered and messy. The snow was the second snow fall in a week for the town.

The Mails Get Through, Somehow

In spite of the large number of high-salaried officers in the new U. S. Postal Service, the advertisements of great promise that one hears on the radio, it is difficult to believe recent claims that the mails are getting through better than in days long past.

Herman Dinsmore, former editorial writer with the New York Times, can recall a time when a woman complained that she had mailed a letter in the morning to a point in another part of Manhattan, and the letter had not arrived until 3 o'clock that afternoon! Today, Mr. Dinsmore reports, one is more likely to hear complaints that a letter mailed at a Manhattan Post Office on January 2, 1972 did not arrive at its destination in another part of Manhattan until January 8.

An air mail letter from Washington to New York, at year's end in 1972 took eight days in transit. (They must have done better in the days of George Washington.) Other persons in New York were complaining that on January 8, 1973, they were still receiving Christmas cards mailed before December 25, 1972.

That may not be the worst of it. One organization reports that it has received whole boxes of mail which did not belong to it and which, of course, were returned for delivery to the right address. One wonders how many letters especially needed by someone went astray. After all, courtships, corporations, family plans, foreign projects and government works depend in large measure upon speedy delivery of the mail.

The great promise of the zip code is not being fulfilled. The large number of highly paid postal officers -- at last count, more than eleven receiving above $45,000 a year -- recalls the large number of vice presidents of the bankrupt Pennsylvania Railroad who drew large salaries. We were under the impression that divorcing the Post Office from direct Government operation was going to bring better service that was eventually going to pay its own way. What's the answer?

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR:

Dear Editor:
In regard to the salary increases for County officers, I would like to invite a comparison with some other counties of similar value in West Texas. This list of salaries is for Commissioners and Judges only as in most counties these officers are paid about the same as the Sheriff, Clerk, Auditor, etc. This is not the case in Crockett County some few cents deleted from the judges' salaries in Pecos and Reagan counties.

Dear Friends of 4-H:
On behalf of all exhibitors of livestock at our 26th Annual Crockett County 4-H Livestock Show, I want to express appreciation for your help, support and interest, which made this year's show and sale one of the most successful ever held.

Thanking you, I am Sincerely,
Pete W. Jacoby
County Extension Agent

SITUATION WANTED - Over 40 years experience in civil engineering. Phone 392-2347, T. L. Watson 46-2tp

CORRECTION:
In listing the senior honor roll last week, the name of Jack Baggett was inadvertently left off.

County	Commissioners	Judge
Crane	$9,600.00	$10,800.
Upton	9,198.00	11,000.
Pecos	11,909.37	11,909.
Scurry	9,666.50	10,440.
Tom Green	9,300.00	12,000.
Ward	8,580.00	8,976.
Reagan	6,037.50	7,762.
Andrews	10,766.00	11,150.
Gaines	9,100.00	9,100.
Crockett	4,350.00	6,750.

The maximum salary for Judge or Commissioner in Crockett County by law is $12,500 per year. At $7,200, we will be receiving a little over 1/2 of that amount. Most other counties also have the expense of city government which we do not have as our county government does this. Other counties also have city taxes, which we do not, as well as much higher county taxes.

I would like to point out that these raises do not call for any additional taxes and also that over 75% of our tax revenue comes from industrial (outside), not local sources. To clarify a couple of rumors, the court is not going to use any of the Revenue Sharing money for road equipment or salary increases. It is deposited in 6-month Certificate of Deposit and will be used to help pay revenue bonds for a geriatrics wing on the hospital if the bonds are voted by the people.

I hope these facts will be printed as written. I am writing this of my own accord and not as spokesman for the other members of the court.

Respectfully,
Jess C. Marley

Washington News Letter

By Congressman O. C. Fisher

The busing issue is again on the front pages. In Maryland, for example, a Judge has ordered a salt-and-pepper mixture of more than 30,000 students, requiring hundreds of school buses. Irate parents are up in arms, and they are being supported by the U. S. Department of Justice, in efforts to block the busing order which is supposed to go into effect Jan. 29.

A new way to show anti-busing feeling was reported from Tennessee, when a Memphis goat had his diet augmented when a protesting anti-busing group in that city fed the animal with pupil re-assignment cards! The Tennesseans used this method to dramatize their fight against a court-ordered plan calling for the busing of 13,027 students -- also right in the middle of a school year.

Revenue sharing pops into the news now and then. The little town of Coahoma, in Howard County, got some national coverage recently when the city council there voted 3 to 2 to return its Revenue Sharing check of $1,899.

A half dozen other refunds have reached Washington some noting the federal government was in much worse shape financially than they were.

With these Sharing checks from Uncle Sam barely in the mails, recipients are already stirring with the dawning realization that Washington is simply returning to them what it has already taken from them in taxes, minus a huge sum withheld for handling charges; and that the federal government is not in the habit of giving out money without strings attached.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Armstrong of Monahans were here over the weekend for a visit with their daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. George Bunker, Jr. and Helen and Louis.

Spring Wardrobes Feature Return Of Hats And Belts

With all the fashion fabrics available today, the home seamstress can make nearly anything she wants! Sewing knits is simple - To keep up with the knit revolution, the notions industry has given us: Stretch threads that "give" with the knit, made of all-polyester or polyester and cotton; stretch lace hem binding in many colors; the ball-point needle with a slightly rounded point that won't damage knits; the roller presser foot which prevents snagging on knits with textured surfaces; the invisible zipper with nylon teeth which is lightweight and flexible; and featherweight polyester non-woven interfacing that gives like a knit. Many new sewing machines are equipped with a number of special stretch stitches to simplify sewing knits.

New patterns have been developed "For Knits Only" and "Ideal for Knits." Be sure to check for these in the pattern catalogues. Before beginning your knit sewing project, preshrink machine-washable knits and everything else that is going into the garment (this includes zippers, binding, interfacing, etc.) Preshrink by washing in the washing machine as you will after the garment is complete.

Knits do not have a grainline like wovens, but many have noticeable lengthwise ribs. To lay out, follow ribs as you would lengthwise grain, placing the grainline of the pattern straight in this direction. Be creative this spring and create your very own thing with knit.

Helpful hints: Peel fresh bananas; wrap in clear plastic and freeze for a cool treat for children.

Use a new pot scraper to clean vegetables for cooking. Clean a badly burned pan by boiling equal parts of water and vinegar in it.

To keep bathroom fixtures from water-spotting use a silicone car wax on them.

Gloomy winter may be outside, but in accessory showrooms it's bright springtime as designers show their ideas for the new year.

"With tailored clothes coming up, classic accessories will go along--creating a touch of drama," according to one authority.

Marilyn Brown, consumer education-clothing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A & M University, viewed the spring look.

"Starting from the top down, hats definitely belong in the spring picture. Fashion leaders have already adopted the stretch jersey turban, and to it they'll add the sharp-brimmed hats, especially cowboy styles."

Along with hats, scarves remain in the spring picture. Favorite prints come in every possible arrangement of dots and stripes, the specialist observed.

"If you're not concerned about the 'latest thing,' any brightly colored print will work. A major scarf style will be the small cowboy type, tied close around the throat inside the open collar of a shirt-top dress. Belts also will continue to be important," she predicted. "In keeping with the classic trend, they're now less overwhelming. About the widest you'll find for spring is four inches, but lesser widths are more common.

"Leather belts will be well-cut and honestly accented without cut-outs or appliques. Suede, brushed cowhide and grained leathers appear in belts of various widths.

"Hardware closings, big plain buckles, top-stitching and gilt rings all accent the tailored look of pants, suits and sportswear."

Spring handbags will return in such favorite shapes as the envelope, pouch, saddlebag and clutch, the specialist noted.

"Good leather is the theme, whether grained, semi-polished, soft suede or glossy patent. Trimming is part of the design, whether in the prints done on suede, the gleaming hardware closings, or the handling of leather in tucked or shirred forms," she concluded.

Tips For Gardeners

From the Ozona Garden Club by Mrs. Bailey Post

This is the big month to prepare for spring plant changes or to make new beds for the garden. If you have not used a dormate spray, be sure to do so now. Continue planting evergreens and deciduous shrubs and trees. They need to get a good root system started before summer.

Pruning should be started now on established shrubs and trees. Large shrubs near the house that rule the roof or walls and obscure the lines of architecture should be severely pruned. The old limbs may be cut near the ground, and other limbs pruned irregularly to enhance the beauty of the plant. They will put out new growth and cover the severe pruning. Examples are the Photinia, which grows fast, Wax Leaf Ligustrum, Pyracantha, Loquat, Pittosporum and others.

Prune late flowering shrubs between now and the end of February. This will encourage thicker, more attractive specimens. Examples are Abelia, Althea, Butterfly Bush, Crepe Myrtle, Eleagnus, Flowering Willow, Malon Hibiscus, Salt Cedar (Taxodium) and Vitex. Remove all injured branches and dead wood.

When buying landscape plants, it pays to purchase well grown plants from a reliable nursery. If well cared for, you should not have plants to die. Spread barnyard manure over buds this month.

You should start your feeding program this month especially for trees. Use a well-balanced fertilizer, using about 1 pound per inch of the circumference of the tree. Punch holes four to six inches deep, six inches to one foot apart, starting one to three feet from the base of the tree to the drip line of the branches. For shrubs, place fertilizer evenly over the ground utilized by the root system and lightly work into the soil, not disturbing the roots. Feed agaveas and mulch.

Keep Houseplants Clean And Well Miss Millspaugh Becomes Bride Of Mr. Jas. R. West

Keeping indoor foliage plants clean and attractive requires a little extra effort, says Everett Janne, landscape horticulturist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Leaves may be kept clean by using a soft camel hair brush or damp cloth or sponge once or twice a month to remove dirt which collects. Care must be used when cleaning as bruising and kinking the leaf surface will cause discoloration and blemishes," points out the Texas A&M University specialist.

To get a high gloss on some plant foliage, gently brush the surface with a soft cheese cloth or a soft, fine brush. Natural oils and waxes on the leaf surface will usually produce a high gloss. If leaves are extremely soiled wash them with a mild soap and warm water solution before polishing, suggests Janne. Allow them to air dry before polishing.

"Several commercial leaf polishes are available. If such materials are used, water the plants several hours prior to treating. This prevents dry plants from absorbing the material so rapidly, causing foliage burn. Do not use oil of any kind," cautions the horticulturist.

Plants with pubescent or hairy leaves are more difficult to clean. Occasional springing of such plants with clean, warm water is beneficial. Do not use water colder than room temperature as it can cause leaf spotting in certain plants. Occasional springing will also help keep plants free from red spider mites and mealy bugs, adds Janne.

WHY IS GOOD BEDROOM DECORATING NEGLECTED?

For one reason or another, people are more apt to neglect their bedrooms than any other room in the house.

Bedrooms should be bright, cheerful and relaxing. They should have a comfortable chair or pair of chairs and have good reading lamps, among other things.

Generally, there seem to be less imagination used in furnishing bedrooms than in other rooms. Doesn't your bedroom have the same bed or beds, dresser, chest and night stands as everyone else has?

Here are a few suggestions which may help avoid this uniformity and give your bedroom the individuality it needs.

With her antique white bedroom suite, one woman used a pair of ebony lamp tables instead of the usual night tables and added contrast and distinction to the room.

Instead of the usual headboard, one couple hung a pair of appropriate pictures on the wall over the bed with frames to match the decor of the bedroom suite.

In a room with a long unbroken wall, one family put two triple dressers side by side which provided an abundance of drawer space.

If you'd like to improve the looks and usefulness of your bedroom, stop in and look around our showroom. You'll see some attractive furniture and some good ideas.

Miss Marilyn Baker Millspaugh became the bride of James Roy West, Jr. Saturday, January 27, 1973, at half after twelve o'clock in the Unitarian Church of Boulder, Colo. Dr. Forrester J. Whitman officiated for the wedding ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Sidnev Sanderson Millspaugh, Jr., and the late Mr. Millspaugh, of Ozona, Texas. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Roy West, Northfield, Ill.

Dr. Samuel Ellsworth, the harpsicorder, and Dr. Gordon Sanford, playing the recorder, provided 16th and 17th century wedding music.

Mrs. Niels Brix Andersen, New Canaan, Conn., and Miss Kathryn McMillan, Austin, were the honor attendants. John G. Boylston, Northfield, Ill., was bestman, and Joe Brooks, San Angelo, and Niels Andersen, New Canaan, were the ushers. Eric Brix Andersen, the brides nephew, was the ring bearer.

Presented in marriage by her brother, Sidnev Sanderson Millspaugh, III, the bride wore an original gown of pale ivory peau de soie embroidered with crystal and seed pearl beads at the neckline and cuffs. The Princess lace veil overlaid the wateau train. The veil is an heirloom of the Childers sisters and was worn by them.

The reception was held in the Flatirons Country Club, Boulder.

The bridegroom's parents were hosts for the rehearsal dinner in the mountains at the Red Lion Inn.

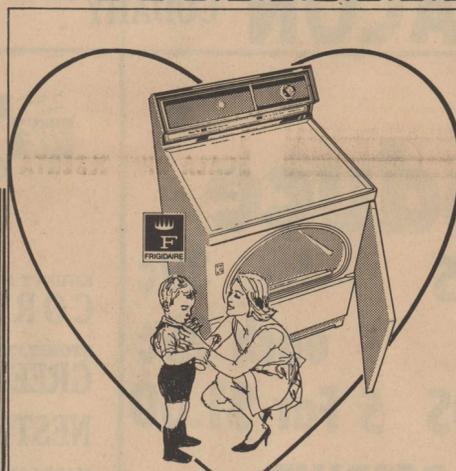

After a wedding holiday in Aspen, Colo., Mr. and Mrs. West will live in Boulder, Colo.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT

Crime, drug abuse, sexual license; contempt for society — on all counts the situation is worse, not better. Why do we no longer hear much about juvenile and parental delinquency?

First, the more common evil becomes, the less it is called delinquency. Lower standards enough and there are no delinquents!

Second, it wasn't juvenile or parental delinquency that caused our plight. It was spiritual delinquency. Millions in our society set their spiritual standards at a level where such delinquency became custom.

The thing to do with an opinion like this is to REVERSE it. That can be done by a Higher Court — such as an aroused citizenry, seeking every spiritual opportunity and fulfilling every religious responsibility that its churches provide and teach.

Acquiring that farm might seem more practical with financing through the Federal Land Bank. Land is easier to pay off when costs are amortized over extra years with a long-term Land Bank Loan.
