This has been a wild week around these parts, and getting the paper out a day early due to the Fourth of July, hasn't helped matters at all.

I hardly looked up to realize that just one year ago, I purchased the paper from Mr. White. After pondering this fact and looking back over the year, I still can't decide whether to congratulate myself or beat my head against the nearest brick wall. Perhaps by this time next year, I will have decided.

Much work and worry goes into each edition of this newspaper, although looking through these pages might not give one that impression this week, tis so. When we finish one issue, we get started on the next one. It's sort of a vicious cycle, and quite often I realize that I'm not running it; it's running me. This has been especially true this week.

Things began going to pot right after the paper was mailed last week and continued to decline. While I was out of town Friday morning, my son, Jim, had an emergency appendectomy in San Angelo. I had no more than gotten inside the office until I had to rush off again. Arriving at the hospital, I found Jim fine but groggy. Tom had been both father and mother all day, and he was really a bit worse for the wear.

Being the end of the month, we left Jim in the care of doctors and nurses and rushed back home to get the bills out. Then it was back to the hospital where we found Jim much improved and grouchy.

I got back to the paper late Sunday night. Suddenly it hit me that I had a day and a half to get this edition out and my head man was on vacation. If you are reading this, you'll know we made it.

Although we put it to bed early, you are getting it a day late. If this doesn't make sense, remember July 4. Everyone took a day off. And may it never fall on Wednesday again.

Road construction gangs are just not what they used to be. I reached this conclusion between Ozona and Big Lake Friday morning as I was headed for Midland. Along the eighteen miles of construction were many hazards and if there were flagmen on duty I failed to see one. They were just letting traffic go at will and the devil take the hindmost. I narrowly avoided a head-on collision with a truck-tractor heading my way and in my SAME TREE, SECOND WRECK -- This large pecan tree in front of the George Bunger home on Hwy. 290 claimed its second trailer house about mid-morning Friday. A Los Angeles, Calif. family, on an extended tour of the United States, decided to pull over for orange juice on the lovely tree-lined street. The first inkling of disaster came with breaking glass, and when the car came to a stop they found that the driver had not allowed for the height of the trailer house. The trailer looked almost totally demolished. Almost the same thing happened at the same spot last summer.

The Art Of Eating

A new Italian cook book, "The Classic Italian Cook Book," by Marcella Hazan, speaks of the art of cooking and "the art of eating." The art of eating is the food art too many Americans neglect.

Really good cooking takes concentration and devotion, and can do much to make a house or an apartment a home. But there is also an art of eating and it is discouraging to one who has carefully prepared outstanding cuisine when beneficiaries simply gulp it down and hurry off. Unfortunately, that is often a by-product of the American pace of life.

In offering readers the regional cuisines of Italy, Mrs. Hazan stresses that one should know how to enjoy and appreciate good food—in other words, know the art of eating. Not only does this make for enjoyment but it makes for better health, a better disposition and a happier family.

The art of eating (not over-eating), then, is an art more Americans should perfect.

Brezhnev's Visit

Despite what might be said negatively about the visit of Leonid Brezhnev to the United States, and his sessions with President Nixon, the trip and the many meetings were a historic milestone.

Without claiming how much was accomplished, it can be said that such a dialogue between the leaders of the world's two most powerful countries is of vital importance to the peoples of both countries and the cause of peace. In this connection, it should be remembered that such a relationship with the leader of Russia was the goal of all recent U.S. Presidents.

President Eisenhower seemed to be on the way when the U-2 incident dashed his hopes. President Kennedy had similar hopes before he was assassinated. President Johnson wanted very badly to develop such a dialogue but the Vietnam war handicapped his chances.

Nixon has achieved it, has visited Russia and Mr. Brezhnev has returned his visit. Both proclaim their respect for the other and a desire for peace and closer relations. Both have therefore contributed much to the lessening fear of war throughout the world. For that, and that is a lot, all Americans can be thankful.

Drunk Driver Schools

In Florida, in 1971, a drunk driving school was begun at Fort Lauderdale. Since April of that year, thirty others have been opened and at a recent organizational meeting of an association binding them together, Governor Rueben Askew of the Sunshine State says the schools have sharply reduced the number of repeat offenders.

Askew says the average repeat rate for drunk drivers is 20 per cent but that those who attend the drunk driving schools have only a 3 per cent repeat rate. In Florida the schools are jointly run by the highway department, the Alcoholic Rehabilitation Bureau and the Governor's safety Conference.

Progress has been so impressive, Secretary Emmitt Roberts of the association says he believes the new schools are conquering alcoholism among drunk drivers, just as tuberculosis was conquered several decades ago. Askew says the new approach, including self-analysis and positive behavioral modification, has been a "phenomenal success."

Other states have similar programs but many have nothing of this kind. The success of the Florida approach should attract wide interest in other states across the nation.

EPA & Cars

Acting Administrator Robert Fri of the Environmental Protection Agency recently held a press conference to publicize the agency's recommendations to reduce smog. Congress has instructed the agency to achieve certain results by 1977.

With typical bureaucratic bombast, Fri told reporters the aim of the agency was to break up the love affair of the average American for his car. He also said that the plan "I propose" could result in a ban of all traffic from the streets of Los Angeles, though the agency might ask Congress to ease requirements in such areas.

Both statements are unrealistic and reflect no credit on Fri. It's not the business of EPA bureaucrats now embarked on their vast new program to teach Americans not to love cars.

If controls are necessary to eliminate smog in urban areas, they must be imposed; there's no question they are badly needed. But the American can continue to love his car, and will be able to drive it elsewhere.

Nor will things ever come to such a state that there are no automobiles on the streets—anywhere. Emissions can be reduced to very low levels and traffic greatly reduced but talk of a total ban is nonsense. Electric cars, as one alternative for example, cause no pollution at all.

"No, that doesn't mean you can ORDER money here!"

County Oil And Gas Discoveries Increase

Crockett County gained a discovery, tests continued at one prospect and completion attempt was slated at another and a plugging back operation was scheduled. An Upton wildcat recovered shows on a drill-stem test and a Coke wildcat showed oil and gas, along with salt or sulfur water, on tests of several zones.

Amoco Production Co., Midland, No. 1 T. A. Kincaid Jr., Crockett County Permian gas discovery, 30 miles southwest of Ozona, 5 3/4 miles southwest of the southeast extension area of Canyon gas production in the Ozona field and 4 3/8 miles east of the one-well Morrison (Wolfcamp gas) field, was finalized for a calculated, absolute open flow of 1,050 million cubic feet of gas per day.

Production was through perforations at 4,348-71 feet, which had been fractured with 30,000 gallons.

Drilled to 5,000 feet, operator set 4 1/2 inch casing at 4,943 feet and plugged back to 4,520 feet.

Location is 1,320 feet from the north and 1,020 feet from the east lines of 5-Q4-TCRR.

The Morrison opener, Mobil Oil Corp. No. 1 Blakeney-Krueger, was fired May 2, 1966 for a calculated, absolute open flow of 1.84 million cubic feet of gas per day, with gas-liquid ratio of 287,000-1, through perforations at 3,596-4,468 feet.

Amoco, Odessa, No. 1 W. West, in 59-0-GH&SA, Crockett County prospect, 21 miles south-southeast of gas production in a southwest area of the Ozona multiphase field, flowed 24 hours, making gas at the rate of 360,000 cubic feet per day.

Flow was through a 1/2 inch choke and perforations at 3,631-639 feet. Testing continued.

Amoco No. 1 L. M. Morrison Estate, in 16-A-TCRR, Crockett County wildcat, 3 1/2 miles northwest of the No. 1 Kincaid and 3 1/2 miles north of the one-well Morrison (Wolfcamp gas) field, was preparing to make production tests in an unidentified zone.

Operator perforated from 5,123-187 feet and acidized with 1,000 gallons.

Drilled to 6,150 feet, with 4 1/2 inch casing set at 6,067 feet, it is plugged back to 5,965 feet.

Phillips Petroleum Co. will attempt to open Yates oil production in the Land-caster Hill field of Crockett County with the plugging back to 1,290 feet at its No. 2-L University Lands, former Strawn gas producer, 25 miles west-northwest of Ozona.

It originally was drilled to 7,462 feet, with 4 1/2 inch casing set at 7,200 feet, and plugged back to 7,164 feet.

It was finalized March 11, 1962 for a calculated, absolute open flow of 22 million cubic feet of gas per day, with gas-liquid ratio of 39,000-1 through perforations at 6,850-918 feet. Gravity of the liquid was 70.7 degrees.

Location is 660 feet from the south and west lines of 10-29-University.

The field, which currently has six Strawn gas wells, formerly produced gas from the Devonian and oil from the San Andres, at 1,400 feet; Clearfork at 2,802 feet; and Grayburg at 1,719 feet.

Baptist On Move!

In this age of declining influence and membership for so many churches, it's striking to see one of the Protestant denominations moving ahead in membership and collections. This denomination is the Southern Baptists, whose convention has just concluded in Portland, Oregon, an old southern city!

The Southern Baptists now claim over 12,000,000 members; they set a record in 1972 for baptisms, collected over a billion dollars for the first time and look forward to further expansion in 1973. By contrast, the next largest Protestant church, the United Methodists, trail them by 1.4 million members. (Total Baptist church membership in the United States is over 27,000,000, second only to Roman Catholic membership—48,000,000.)

Thus there is no retrenchment for Southern Baptists, as in so many other churches today. What is the explanation? Some church leaders say the answer is that the Southern Baptists emphasize personal salvation, evangelism and missions, rather than delving into civil rights questions and controversial social issues. In other words, they haven't turned off many members with controversy. Whether the analysis right or wrong, such a course has two sides, and the questions it raises deserve serious consideration by thinking citizens.

No-Frost Refrigerators Need Regular Cleaning

No-frost refrigerators need regular cleaning, one authority emphasizes.

"Just because it doesn't build up frost is no reason to overlook cleaning," says Mrs. Doris Myers, home management specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. Uncovered and stale foods, as well as accidental spills, create "off" odors in any refrigerator, the specialist continued.

"Regular cleaning removes these odors and sweetens an otherwise stale refrigerator," Mrs. Myers recommended using a solution of two table-spoons soda per quart of water to "sweeten" or neutralize odors.

She outlined six steps for thorough cleaning.

Remove frozen foods from the freezer section and wrap in layers of newspapers, or place in an insulated chest, to keep frozen.

Wash freezer compartment with soda solution. Rinse with clear water, dry and return frozen foods to section.

Remove all foods from refrigerator. Wash the bottom, top and walls. Clean all drawers, shelves and racks thoroughly with soda solution. Return to proper place.

Wipe door and gasket with a cloth that has been dipped in detergent water then wrung out. Rinse and dry well. Avoid touching the gasket as it will deteriorate.

The specialist warned that food, or grease build-up on the gasket can cause an incomplete seal. As a result, the refrigerator works harder to keep cool.

Wipe outside of food containers, jars and bottles with a damp cloth before returning them to the clean refrigerator.

Clean appliance exterior with detergent water. Rinse with clear water and wipe dry.

In addition, the drip tray under the appliance should be washed and dried regularly. Occasionally dust the coils with a vacuum cleaner, she concluded.

Ruffles Attract Attention In Summer Fashions

Ruffles attract attention this season, adding feminine touches to summer fashions.

"After all, ruffles are very feminine, whether wide and smocked or in several layers of gathered eyelet," points out Mrs. Vivian Simmons.

"This season finds them edging necklines, sleeves, collars, and hems," the clothing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System, noted.

"When sewing at home, remember that ruffle style determines the application method used.

"Single ruffles offer the choice of sewing them in the seam or directly on the garment."

Double ruffles, on the other hand, must be sewn directly on the garment. Otherwise, the desired "double effect" is lost, Mrs. Simmons explained.

"When making a single ruffles, cut fabric two or three times longer than the area decorated.

"Sew strips together to make one continuous piece. Before gathering, make a narrow hem along one edge--it's much easier to handle at this point.

"Along the other edge, machine baste two rows of long stitches.

"To achieve evenly-spaced gathers, first divide both a ruffle and area to which it will be attached into fourths. Then gather ruffle to fit area, one fourth at a time, and pin.

"Stitch ruffle to right side of garment and finish with a facing.

"Wide ruffles--and those of sheer fabrics--are more attractive with extra fullness," Mrs. Simmons added. To give them additional fullness, she recommended cutting them longer than the suggested two or three lengths.

MR. AND MRS. THOMAS L. WHATLEY

Miss Lida Garrett Is Married In Mission Rites

Miss Lida Ann Garrett became the bride of Thomas Lamar Whatley in a ceremony May 20, at the First United Methodist Church in Mission. The bride's father, Rev. Leonard Garrett, pastor, officiated.

Parents of the couple are former Ozonana Rev. and Mrs. Leonard Garrett of Mission and Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Whatley of Auburn, Ala. Rev. Garrett formerly pastored in Ozona United Methodist Church.

The bride wore a gown of white linen featuring a rounded neckline and formal length A-line skirt with empire waistline. The bodice and short sleeves were of heavy Venician lace. The lace formed trim for the dress and edge of the detachable train. Her veil of silk illusion was shoulder length. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow daisies and carnations.

Maid of honor was Miss Celeste Garrett, sister of the bride of Mission, and bridesmaid was Miss Sally Harle of Belville.

Best man was Sam Whatley, and groomsmen was Maurice Neathery.

Ushers were Lane Garrett and Edwin Garrett, brothers of the bride, and James and John Harle. A reception followed the wedding on the church patio. After a wedding trip to Alabama, the couple will be at home at College Station where both are students at A&M University. The bride is a senior student at A&M, and her husband is working toward his master's degree.

RECIPE

By Sarah Anne Sheridan

The right salad or slaw is a compliment to a meal and often the key to a successful meal. Cabbage is relatively cheap and retains its crispness if properly prepared. Use home cooked or prepared dressings--oil is not recommended. Here are a few basic rules and hints for cabbage combinations.

A salad should fit into meals for flavor, color, texture and food value.

Salads should be simple, attractive, easy to eat, fresh and crisp with the right dressing.

In-season ingredients are budget-wise. Save your exotic, expensive creations for special occasions.

Cabbage Combinations

1. Cabbage, onion, tomatoes, green pepper.
2. Red cabbage, white cabbage, green pepper, onions.
3. Cabbage, carrot, peanuts.
4. Cabbage, cucumber, radish.
5. Cabbage, celery, turnip.
6. Cabbage, apple, raisins.

A key to successful cook-outs is planning. Good planning makes meals nutritious, economical and fun.

What foods are best for cook-outs? Ones that are easy to prepare, easy to serve, and easy to eat. The Basic Four Food groups should be used as a guide. Include a leafy green or yellow vegetable and a protein food such as meat, cheese, fish or eggs. Bread, buns or potatoes will provide a starchy food. Fruit makes a simple dessert.

Stuffed Hamburgers
 1 lb. ground beef
 Salt and pepper to taste
 1 T. soft butter
 1 T. Steak Sauce
 1/2 c. chopped mushrooms
 1 med. onion, chopped
 1/2 c. grated cheese
 1 T. shortening
 Season beef with salt and pepper. Add steak sauce and mix well. Add butter and mix until well blended. Shape into 4 patties. Saute mushrooms and onion in shortening. Then mound in center of two patties. Sprinkle grated cheese on top of mixture. Top each with another patty, sandwich fashion. Press the edges together to seal in the stuffing. Broil over hot coals 3 minutes on each side or to desired degree of doneness.

Overnight Tossed Green Salad

1 med. head of lettuce
 1-10 oz. pkg. fresh spinach
 1/2 c. sliced green onion
 1 pt. cherry tomatoes, halved
 1-10 oz. pkg. frozen peas, thawed
 1 lb. bacon-diced, cooked, and drained

Dressing:
 1 1/2 c. mayonnaise
 1 c. dairy sour cream
 2 T. lemon juice
 1/2 t. oregano leaves
 1/4 t. salt
 1/4 t. basil leaves
 1/8 t. pepper

Tear lettuce and spinach into bite-size pieces. Add onions, tomatoes, peas, and bacon; toss gently.

Combine dressing. Spread over green - be sure to "frost" entire surface. DO NOT mix in. Cover with plastic wrap. Refrigerate overnight. Toss Dressing with greens. Serves 8.

Chive Bread
 1 unsliced loaf French bread
 1/2 c. soft margarine
 1/3 c. grated Parmesan cheese

1/2 c. finely snipped chives
 Slash bread in 1" slices, cutting to, but not through bottom crust. Blend together remaining ingredients: spread on one side of each bread slice. Wrap loaf in foil. Heat on grill 20-30 minutes.

When planning a picnic remember that carefully packed foods will keep in good condition until eating time. Sandwiches should be wrapped individually and packed carefully. Pack cookies and cake closely in a box so they do not move around and break up while being carried.

Tips For Gardeners

From the Ozona Garden Club by Mrs. Bailey Post

With our drought still extending into July, the watering problem is the one that will perplex more gardeners than any other.

If you have an established yard, your principal task will be to maintain it, but if newly-planted, a closer watch will be necessary.

The first step is to test the soil before watering. Don't water soil that is wet, but don't let it become overly dry. Watch plants carefully for signs of wilting. This is when mulches really prevent so much evaporation of moisture. Keeping container-grown plants in the afternoon shade during hot weather will eliminate many watering problems. Clay pots should be watered everyday usually.

You can look forward to growing and seeing the three new 1974 All-American Rose selections. Bon-Bon, a floribunda, is an unusual type of rose with good landscape appeal for groups or borders. In its ancestry are "Spartan," "Fashion" and "Bridal Pink." Bon-Bon was created by William Warriner, research director for Jackson Perkins Co.

Bahia, another floribunda, is the product of Dr. Walter Lammerts, considered the dean of American rose hybridists. It is a flashing orange with pink tinges. "Peace" and "Tropiciana" are included in its ancestral line. Other favorite roses from Dr. Lammert are "Charlotte Armstrong" and "Queen Elizabeth." Bahia will be introduced by Armstrongs, Calif.

"Perfume Delight" is the only hybrid tea selection. Its good qualities are fragrance, pointed buds, rolled petals and a clear deep pink color that lasts the life of the flower. Its originator was O. L. Weeks of Weeks Wholesale Rose Growers. Its ancestral background includes Charlotte Armstrong, Mifrandy and Chrysler Imperial.

If you are growing mums, fertilize at least once each month until color shows in the flowers. Continue to pinch out the terminal growth until the middle of July on early blooming varieties and the last of the month of late bloomers. Keep well watered or moist at all times.

Crape myrtle coming into bloom now should be watched for mildew and insects and given plenty of water. Cut off old blooms as they fade and shatter.

Watch for red spiders on vines and shrubs and spray if necessary.

CARD OF THANKS

May we take this message of expressing our appreciation to all our friends who offered so many expressions of sympathy upon the death of our loved one, Steve, Thank you for the floral offerings, the food, and the many acts of condolences.

Court To Study Legislation

Crockett County Commissioners will study two pieces of legislation recently signed by Governor Dolph Briscoe as soon as copies of the bills arrive here.

The bills are Senate Bills 66 and 886. Both will effect Crockett County residents.

S. B. 66 authorizes county governments to adopt an ordinance establishing procedures for the abatement and removal of junked vehicles.

S. B. 886 authorizes county governments to create restricted traffic zones on county roads and property. Since Ozona streets belong to the County, this will give the Commissioner's Court the right to determine and fix the maximum, reasonable and prudent speed on any street, and establish a system of traffic control devices.

County Judge Troy Williams has ordered copies of both bills.

KITCHEN SHOWER HONORS BRIDE-ELECT

ANOTHER NOTE TO OUR CUSTOMERS

Our allotment of gas and diesel from the refinery for the month of July is no better than for the past three months.

We ask our wholesale customers to call in three to four days before running out to allow us to schedule several deliveries in one direction. It will be too costly to deliver 250 gallons to one corner of the county one time and 250 gallons to the opposite corner next.

It is an exasperating experience after advertising for years for your business to have to ask you to "conserve" on gas and diesel, and to "please wait awhile," but it seems it has come to that. "They" tell us that if everyone did with 2% less, we would all have it made. We're trying to do with the 20 to 30 percent less.

OZONA OIL COMPANY will begin closing Sundays as well as at night, beginning July 8. We're going to church--come with us.

BOY---then MAN

That's my son, Jerry, literally two feet off the ground last Saturday in the top half of the ninth. His team was ahead by one run and the bases loaded when he caught the fly that ended the game.

Whatever else good happens to Jerry, I know he'll never forget that sweet thrill of victory.

Years from now, when faced with a tough situation, that memory could be the inspiration for another triumph. The things that happen to a boy do shape the man.

That's why I've always taken Jerry to our church. I want the smell of candles on the altar, the blend of voice and heart in hymn and litany, to be a part of his life. I want for him the joy that comes from understanding God.

My father did the same for me.
 How about you?
