Kitty's Korner

by

Kitty Montgomery

We are sort of new this week. You will find the paper is not so wide and slightly longer. You will find a Want Ad Section on page seven. The new look is due to the fact that we have a new printer. I will personally dedicate the more narrow paper to Peggy Perner, who complained that holding the paper open to read it caused her arms to tire.

The classified ads, all in one section instead of scattered through the paper, is due to popular demand. Everybody complained about having to read the entire paper to find a "for sale," or "wanted" etc. We hope you like it, but if not, don't mention it. We suffer when we break with tradition.

Lions Lose District Track Title To Crane; Come In Second

Hampered by 40-mph winds, the Lions failed to recapture the District 6-AA championship in track Saturday at Crane. The Golden Cranes won the meet with 175 points and the Lions placed second with 113 points. Big Lake was third with 77 points, Sonora placed fifth and McCamey, sixth.

Strong winds kept the Lions' scoring down, but they gave a good effort, scoring in 13 out of 14 events.

Montgomery's Restaurant Gets Award

The Razzle Dazzle, a restaurant owned and operated by Bryan Montgomery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Beecher Montgomery, in Los Angeles, California, has been cited for excellence by the California Restaurant Writers Association.

The restaurant received a one-star rating by the Association. Out of approximately 8,000 restaurants in the state, only 100 merited the recognition.

Bryan opened the restaurant at 2200 Wilshire Boulevard three years ago on April 1. It features gourmet type menus in a casual but elegant atmosphere.

The Razzle Dazzle is in the process of being remodeled and enlarged and construction is underway on a garden care in nearby Malibu, which Montgomery will also operate. In his spare time, Bryan does television commercials. Commercials currently running and featuring Bryan include Suzuki motorcycles, Dairy Queen, Datsun and Hanes.

Mrs. J. W. Howell and Mrs. Bailey Post attended the Menard Flower Show Tuesday.

Cox Family Hilites History Meeting

The Crockett County Historical Society held its regular quarterly meeting on Monday evening, April 21, with 32 members and guests present. Mrs. P. L. Childress, president, greeted out-of-town guests who included Mrs. Sam Mann, mother of Mrs. L. B. Cox, III, of Wichita Falls and Dr. Emerson Ebere of La Jolla, California. Dr. Ebere, who was in Ozona due to car trouble, shared some cut-glass items from his mother's home in a small exhibit.

Mrs. W. D. Cooper, Museum Hostess, reported that attendance at the Museum continued to be good and that she had been able to transcribe some fourteen of the Oral History tapes to date. This work, of course, will continue. Ted M. White, Museum Director, invited local citizens especially to visit the Museum on Sunday afternoons beginning at 3:00 p. m. Volunteer hostesses will keep it open at that time during the summer months.

Mrs. Childress reported that Historical Book sales were going very well but that many more were needed to be sold before printing was possible.

Mr. White presented Mrs. L. B. Cox, Jr., who gave a history of the early day Crockett County L. B. Cox family.

After giving a history of the Cox family and their migration from England to Pennsylvania and on to Johnson County, where Lemuel Bascomb Cox was born on July 14, 1860, and moved with his family to Gonzales, Lemuel Bascomb Cox became the head of his family at the age of 19. He wanted to study medicine, but in 1885 he went to Val Verde County and made his headquarters near Beaver Lake, running sheep on unfenced country. On November 6, 1889 he was elected commissioner of Precinct 4 in Val Verde county. In 1889 he leased 2 sections of land from the Railroad Company for 4¢ a section for five years. In 1891 he and a Mr. Whitehead together leased 5,000 acres in the Devils River Country.

On a trip back to Gonzales to visit his family he again met a school friend, Miss Zaidie Parker, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Horatio S. Parker, who was teaching

High Speed Chase Results In Arrests

Ozona law enforcement officers were involved in a high speed chase which reached speeds of up to 120 miles per hour about 11 o'clock Sunday night when two vehicles left the Southwest "66" Truck Stop without paying for gasoline they had purchased.

The two vehicles, a '72 Olds and a '70 Chrysler both left the station without paying and left at high speed, turning north at the intersection on Hwy. 163. Ozona officers were in pursuit and area officers were alerted.

Apparently the vehicles went in different directions at midway lane. The Olds was found on U. S. 29 toward Eldorado. One man was in the vehicle and two others were apprehended in a nearby pasture. The occupant of the car was charged with drunkenness, the driver with theft of service, evading arrest, speeding over 120 miles per hour, passing in a no passing zone. The other passenger was charged with evading arrest and drunkenness.

THE SHOT HEARD 'ROUND THE WORLD

Listen, my children, and you shall hear Of the midnight ride of Paul Revere, Generations of Americans have thrilled to the story of the first skirmish of the Revolutionary War, when stalwart Minutemen responded to the call to arms sounded by Paul Revere, William Dawes and Dr. Samuel Prescott.

One if by land, and two if by sea; And I on the opposite shore will be, Ready to ride and spread the alarm Through every Middlesex village and farm, Forewarned that General Gage planned to seize gunpowder stored in Concord, Massachusetts, and to capture patriots John Hancock and Samuel Adams in Lexington, Dr. Joseph Warren, who headed the Committee of Safety, alerted Revere to sound the alarm. Today, sniveling "hate-America" critics seldom miss an opportunity to point to technical errors in Henry Wadsworth Longfellow's immortal poem: but the undisputed fact is that Revere accomplished his mission, and did it well.

A hurry of hoofs in a village street, A shape in the moonlight, a bulk in the dark, And beneath, from the pebbles, in passing, a spark Struck out by a steed flying fearless and fleet; That was all! And yet, through the gloom and the light, The fate of a nation was riding that night;

When the Redcoats arrived in Lexington, at dawn, the Minutemen were already assembled and waiting. Hancock and Adams had successfully escaped. In Concord, the prized cache of powder and arms was spirited out of sight. By the time the British had arrived at the North Bridge crossing the Concord River, over 400 Minutemen were ready and waiting. Outnumbered by more than two to one, they courageously stood their ground; and it was there, as everyone knows, that they fired the first volley marking the Revolutionary War - literally, "The shot heard around the world."

The British fled back to Boston, where they were kept under constant siege. Forty-nine Americans died for freedom on April 19, 1775; 46 more were counted as wounded or missing. Little did the surviving patriots realize that it was to be many hard years before the American Revolutionary War would end in victory at Yorktown on October 19, 1781. But because of the courage shown by that small band of Minutemen at Lexington and Concord, Americans throughout all of the Colonies were inspired to stand fast for the cause of liberty.

THE FUTURE OF TAIWAN

The death of President Chiang Kai-shek of Nationalist China removes perhaps the last great world leader who refused categorically any form of accommodation or compromise with Communism. His long struggle with the Chinese Communists taught him the futility of coalition governments and cease-fires. He predicted, with accuracy, that the Vietnam War would never end so long as mainland China was under Red rule. His dream was always that one day he would return to the mainland. He was convinced that if only his forces could establish themselves ashore, his people would rise in revolt against their Communist oppressors.

Chiang never got the chance to prove himself right. The upheavals which wracked the mainland during the Great Cultural Revolution in the late 1960s were allowed to pass without action by Chiang. The U.S. would not support a landing, and without such support Chiang feared to move. History seldom presents a second opportunity.

Now the question is: what comes next for Taiwan? President Ford is pledged to visit Peking before the end of the year. The question of formal U.S. recognition of Communist China will undoubtedly arise. Peking will accept nothing less than a formal break in U.S. relations with the Nationalist Chinese on Taiwan as a condition of "normalizing" relations with the U.S.

With Chiang now gone, U.S. acquiescence to this demand will be that much easier, we suspect. Most native Taiwanese would probably prefer that their island become an independent country, and we suspect that many of the Nationalist mainlanders, who have lost hope of a return to their homeland, would be satisfied with that status also. But not Peking. To the Communists, Taiwan is part of China and they will be satisfied with nothing less than their eventual control over it.

Thus, the status of Taiwan will be a problem. We hope that President Ford will resist the temptation to sacrifice our commitments to Taiwan on the altar of "better relations" with Peking. Taiwan is a prosperous, stable friend. To withdraw our support and protection would be a disastrous mistake. As Chiang Kai-shek already knew, and as we will eventually find out, there can be no lasting settlement with any regime, anywhere, dedicated to the revolutionary principles of Marxism-Leninism.

A recent Gallup poll showed that 47 per cent of American families had vegetable gardens in 1974.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Lyndell Williams TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Statistics and common sense indicate the 64th Legislature is heading for a wild and crowded finale, and that more bills will die than survive.

This is inevitable with more than 2,200 House bills and joint resolutions and nearly 1,100 Senate bills and joint resolutions introduced. The system is overloaded, and the tabulations of unfinished business on legislative computers effectively turn on the warning lights.

Of about 2,400 House and Senate bills referred to House committees, fewer than 500 have emerged. About 900 bills and important resolutions have been referred to Senate standing committees, and some 500 have come out.

With the exception of constitutional revision, which was effectively and promptly disposed of, most of the session's key business remains unfinished.

Budget bills are still in the Senate Finance and House Appropriations committees. School finance reform measures are in sub-committees, and seem likely to stay there awhile. Agreement is far from reached on public utility regulatory legislation.

Legislators have their hands full in the next six weeks, and the facts are stacked against any easy way out.

STANDARDS COSTLY Federal water quality standards may cost Texas cities, towns and industries more than $6 billion before 1983, according to a Texas Water Quality Board inventory.

Federal requirements call for complete elimination of pollutional discharges into waters by that date. The Federal Water Quality Act specifies that every river, stream, creek, lake and coastal area is to be fit for swimming, boating and fishing in eight years.

Texas Water Quality Board estimates the cleanup of city wastewater discharges would cost cities $400 million a year if their part of the deadline is met. Industries would have to come up with another $3 billion, TWQB estimated.

CONSTITUTION SUBMITTED

Final concurrence by the Senate in House amendments to a proposed constitutional revision resolution sent the issue of a new constitution for Texas to a November 4 statewide ballot.

Campaigns already are shaping up for the eight-section article-by-article rewrite proposals, which are virtually identical to the final recommendation before the 1974 Constitutional Convention. Funds will be provided by the legislature for advertising the document and "educating" voters on its provisions.

ALLOWABLE WIDE OPEN The Railroad Commission again set the oil allowable at 100 per cent for May in spite of a minor decline in crude requests from national buyers.

Next month will be the 38th of wide-open production. East Texas Field, restricted to 86 per cent, is an exception.

COURTS SPEAK

The Court of Criminal Appeals, by a 3-2 vote, upheld the 1973 Texas death penalty law which permits execution for several categories of murder. Thirteen men are on death row at Huntsville prison. Texas Supreme Court held that a man who lost an eye in an oilfield accident can collect disability insurance only for that specific injury unless he can prove that other physical problems (including traumatic neurosis) are direct results of the eye loss.

AG OPINIONS

A county clerk has authority to issue a marriage license even though it appears applicants have been divorced less than 30 days, Atty. Gen. John Hill held.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded: A bill permitting veterans to defer paying tuition and fees at colleges while awaiting federal benefits is constitutional.

A county can spend money to maintain and operate parks without holding an election to levy a park tax.

An investigative report of the Texas Real Estate Commission is public information and must be disclosed. The College Coordinating Board and Vocational Education Board may refuse to renew approval of out-of-district junior college course offerings.

A statute which bans bringing a child into the state for purpose of placing him for adoption is an unconstitutional infringement on right to travel.

APPOINTMENTS

Gov. Dolph Briscoe appointed Tolbert Thurman Crowder of Port Arthur to the board of regents of Lamar University to succeed William Samuel Monroe of Port Arthur who resigned.

Briscoe named Durwood A. Sutton of Grand Prairie to the Texas Turnpike Authority board of directors. Truett Smith of Wylie was elected chairman of the Texas Industrial Commission and John Turner of Houston vice-chairman.

Briscoe reappointed Houston H. Harte of San Antonio, Raymond M. Holliday of Houston and Joseph Zeppa of Tyler to the East Texas State University board of regents.

Nelson A. Clare is a new assistant attorney general in Attorney General Hill's San Antonio regional office, and John H. Richards is assistant chief of the AG anti-trust consumer protection division.

SHORT SNORTS

The Senate again passed a bill calling for a study to determine if state agencies are doing adequate jobs and if they should be continued.

A multi-million-dollar alcoholic treatment and rehabilitation program also received Senate approval. A $150,000 rural development loan went to Corsicana Industrial Foundation to help finance a tool and rubber company expansion.

Fifteen model programs for handicapped children will be developed by school districts under a $1.3 million federal grant.

Comptroller Bob Bullock asked the attorney general to shut down 21 Houston businesses which owe $118,000 in city and state sales taxes.

Bob Krueger Reports U.S. Representative 21st District

The previous Congress began to approach the federal budget in a more sensible way. That Congress mandated that a Budget Committee would be established to bring together revenues and expenditures so that the Congress could consider these matters together, instead of separately, as it has been doing. The present Congress does not have the new budgeting process in effect, but it is beginning to bring it into place.

By anybody's standards, the budget for next fiscal year will have a massive deficit, from $65 billion to $100 billion. Most of these expenditures have been set into motion in previous years and many of the programs requiring funds cannot be immediately stopped. Nonetheless, the prospect of a deficit of this size gives cause for great concern.

As more people are out of work, unemployment compensation will increase. At the same time, while people are producing and earning less, tax revenues will decrease. My concern is that when the government borrows from the private sector to pay its debts, we will see several things. First, interest rates will rise as the government and business compete to borrow available funds. A credit crunch similar to last year's will follow.

Thus, cities, towns, utility companies and businesses that count on selling bonds to finance their long-term growth will be unable to market all those bonds. At the same time, money will leave banks and savings and loan institutions, and thereby bring new problems to the housing industry, agriculture, and business generally.

As you know, I voted against the tax rebate bill because it substantially increased the federal deficit. But members of Congress of both parties outvoted me, passed it, and the President signed it. Policies such as this create inflation for the future. The best we can hope for is that the confidence of the people in their government and their economy will remain strong enough to turn the economy around this summer. At some point though, people in the government will have to learn that you cannot spend consistently more than you earn without creating tremendous inflation and future problems.

The Seniors will be leaving Sunday morning at 8:30 a.m. for their trip to Six Flags. Having only 24 hours for the bus journey... come Monday, many exhausted and sleepy seniors will be seen at OHS.

(Ed. note: The following letter was sent to the sheriff's department following the arrest of the writer's husband's murder suspect. A similar letter was sent to the Department of Public Safety. Patrolman Tom Finley, DPS, apprehended the suspect and met Mrs. Arter when he attended the pre-trial hearing for the suspect.)

Dear Sheriff Mills: On their return from Ozona, Texas, to Los Angeles both Sargeants Sharp and Thomson of the Sheriff's office in Los Angeles told my son and I of the excellent cooperation you extended them in the matter of my husband's stolen Mark IV (License LALALA) and the suspect who was arrested.

We feel people take policemen too much for granted as we have done in the past. However, after the homicide of my husband, and the stolen car, both my son and I cannot speak highly enough of the work you have done.

Your department certainly deserves great praise for its part in the apprehension of the suspect. While anything anyone does in this case will not bring back my husband, I do want you to know that we both extend our very deep gratitude to you.

You have done an excellent job and we are extremely grateful. Most Sincerely, Mrs. Lee Arter Los Angeles, Calif

Brad Hoover, son of Mr. and Mrs. Armond Hoover, modeled Temis togs in the ASU Mamselles fashion show held on the lawn of the University Center Tuesday evening in San Angelo. The show was entitled "Something Sporty," a showing of spring sportswear. Models were ASU Mamselles and ASU Varsity players.

Attending the Southwest Texas Conference of the United Methodist Women in Sterling City Sunday were Mrs. R. A. Harrell, Mrs. S. M. Harvick and Mrs. Bailey Post.

Tips For Gardeners

From the Ozona Garden-Club by Mrs. Bailey Post

April brings no let-up in garden work. Usually there is more to do now than in any other month of the year. Much of the success of your summer garden and lawn depends on what you do this month.

If you haven't repaired winter storm and freeze damage it should be done now. Remove dead ends of branches on shrubs and trees before too much new foliage begins.

Feed roses with a rose food and be sure to follow directions on the label. Or, you may want to use a complete fertilizer to stimulate new growth and extend the flowering period.

Prune early flowering shrubs as they finish blooming such as dogwood, spirea, weigela, mock orange, forsythia, pink hawthorne.

The latter part of this month is a good time to fertilize newly planted lawns again so they will be well established by the time hot weather begins. Also, a light fertilizing to established lawns will help maintain a beautiful lawn for the summer.

Chrysanthemums should be lifted and replanted this month for specimen plants, borders, potted for the patio, or moving from place to place where color is needed. Re-work the bed where they are to be planted and separate into single plants. If too tall, cut back top to 6 or 8 inches in height. For the border, plant about 10 inches apart, and for large flowered plants, about 15 inches at least. Discard the old root stem, using new side branches for better plants.

JUNIOR DIVISION TENNIS WINNERS -- The team of Jeannine Perry and Cynthia Williamson, (l.) defeated Teresa Brown and Gigi McKinney, (r.) in the finals of their division in the district tennis meet held here last week. Both teams are Ozona teams, and had no trouble gaining the finals.

Flower Show Is Hit Despite Late Freeze

In spite of the late freeze this year, garden club members and viewers were pleasantly surprised at flower show entries last Thursday at the annual garden club flower show.

Horticulture specimens were scarce, but there was a beautiful array of outstanding irises. The rose section was disappointing, as very few were entered, and it seems always to be the most popular. There were some excellent peonies and a few amaryllis received blue ribbons.

The houseplant section was outstanding and there were many beautiful foliage, succulent and blooming plants. Dean Phillips exhibited a collection of colorful carnations grown from seed and California Giant Geranium plants.

Mrs. Richard Mayfield received the Educational Award for her excellent display of herbs entered in the educational division.

The Artistic Division was beautifully staged this year with more well-designed entries than in previous shows. The center of interest in keeping with the theme "Flowers in Song," was a gazebo displaying trailing ivy, cut flowers and potted flowering and foliage plants. Many guests and the judges said they thought the show was one of the most attractive the club has ever staged.

This was especially rewarding to new members.

Judges for the show were Mrs. Lacy Way and Mrs. Sam Mann of Big Lake, Mrs. Charles Speck of McCamey and Mrs. Don Sparrow, Mrs. M.H. Sibilsky, Mrs. Maurice Mullins and Mrs. Melvin Burner all of San Angelo.

Many blue ribbons were awarded in the different divisions.

The tri-color award in the artistic division went to Mrs. I. C. Schroeder for her design. The Award of Distinction for dried plant materials went to Mrs. Fleet Coates, along with the Creativity Award. Mrs. Coates also won the Artistic Sweepstakes Award.

Mrs. Charles Williams won the Nature, Art and Industry Award which used materials of the designers' choice.

A Special Award in the horticulture division went to Mrs. Mike Clayton for her hanging basket. Mrs. Ben Bohmfalk won the Award of Horticultural Excellence with her Norfolk Island Pine.

Awards of Merit went to Mrs. Charles Williams for her prize irises and to Mrs. Alvin Harrell for her peony. The Arboreal Award went to Mrs. I. C. Schroeder. Mrs. Charles Williams won the Horticulture Sweepstakes Award.

In the youth division, best in section went to Lori Clayton. Blue ribbons went to Dona Lilly, Lori Clayton and Lucy Perner.

Foxworth Drawing Saturday

The Foxworth-Galbraith Building Materials Center here in Ozona should be a very popular place Saturday, April 26. Drawing for a free 16-inch portable color TV set will begin promptly at 11:00 a. m., and there will be $50.00 and $25.00 gift certificates for second and third prize drawings.

Entries for the drawing came from the catalog mailing and the newspaper ad that advertised "the 75th year" Anniversary Values. This annual promotion was just completed April 19, and entries received through that day will be shuffled for the drawings.

Tommy Harris, manager of Foxworth-Galbraith here in Ozona says, "each one of our participating stores is giving away a TV so you can be sure that area residents will be winners Saturday morning". He adds, "be sure and come watch the drawing - you or a friend could win a free TV or one of those gift certificates."

The valuable prizes being given away at 11 a. m. Saturday are part of the special promotions planned by Foxworth-Galbraith during the next six months. The company is celebrating its 75th year, because the first of today's Foxworth-Galbraith Building Materials Centers opened at Stratford in the Texas Panhandle in 1901.

Debra Says

by Debra Price H. D. Agent

In springtime, consumers often turn their attention to garage sales. This is one of the best places to buy second-hand portable appliances. Large coffee urns and roaster ovens used only a few times a year may be priced low enough to make it practical to own them.

It is best to try the appliance before you buy. Other considerations are general condition and cleanliness of the appliance; fitting of lids and other parts; presence of the UL seal; convenient and safe handles; and whether the open hearing coils have broken wires.

When buying a portable with detachable cord, check appliance terminals where the plug is inserted. Pitted terminals indicate that the cord has repeatedly been attached to the appliance after the plug was inserted into the wall outlet. Arcing and subsequent carbon deposits resulting from this practice reduce the electrical conducting ability of the terminals and shorten the appliance's life.

If open heating coils have broken wires, replacements are simple and inexpensive. Broken coils should never be stretched and reattached. If it's possible to plug in the appliance before buying it, the thermostatic controls can be checked for accuracy. Before buying an item that obviously needs repair, you may want to check with an appliance service center or repair manual to estimate the cost of repairs.

A caterpillar crawls along a branch. So unsightly and useless is he that at best he is scorned, at worst, exterminated.

A grain of sand, one of an infinite number, lodges within an oyster's shell. It is coarse and hard, worthless and unwanted.

And then, there are people. They are restless, a bit lonely sometimes, and apprehensive about the future. They enter churches and speak to God.

From the cocoon, a gaily-colored butterfly emerges. People paint pictures of it; children try to claim it as their own.

From the oyster, a pale, creamy pearl is taken. It is admired, sold for a small fortune, prized.

So, God changes the lowly caterpillar and richly clothes the grain of sand. How much more can He change the lives of those who ask it of Him!

God awaits you. Come meet Him in church this Sunday.

Questions Answered For Stories Published In County History

Q. Does it cost to be included in the History?
 A. No.
 Q. Must a book be bought for one to be included?
 A. No.
 Q. How long should a family story be?
 A. Not more than 1,000 words unless additional space is purchased for a nominal cost.

Q. How do I write a family history?
 A. Begin with the most important facts. Add interesting details and family traditions. Leave out unnecessary words--many a's, and's and the's can be eliminated.

Q. Can old photographs of local interest be used even if a story is not turned in?
 A. Definitely. Such material will add interest to an historical volume. Special care will be taken of such pictures and they will be returned to the local committee just as quickly as the publisher can copy them--long before the book is out.

Q. Will the story I turn in be published exactly as I write it?
 A. Although the committee plans to keep the style of each writer, all stories will be carefully edited. Space makes this necessary.

 Q. Is space so important for such a small community?
 A. Sample books from counties of less than 3,000 population show that volumes of material were received, often requiring the publication of a second volume.
 Q. Again, how much will each book cost?
 A. $15.00 + 60¢ tax and plus $1.00 if the book is to be mailed. Total $15.60 + $1.00 for mailing.

Q. Where will local people pick up their books?
 A. A designated pickup place will be announced in advance of release.

Q. If I have lost my letter and order card how can I order a book?
 A. Leave, or send, your order to the Crockett County Museum, 1:00 - 5:00 p.m.

Mondays through Fridays. Or give it to any member of the committee. Or leave at the Ozona National Bank.

Q. Must the book be paid for in advance?
 A. Yes. This project is an expensive one and the Crockett County Historical Society must know in advance whether or not there will be enough books sold to pay the costs of publication.
 Q. Will extra books be published?
 A. Very few, if any. Should extra copies be desired it would probably be necessary to have a second printing, making each volume more costly.

Hanging Baskets To Continue In Popularity

Hanging baskets continue to gain in popularity, adding a touch of nature to many surroundings.

According to Dr. William Welch, landscape horticulturist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, hanging baskets can be hung in carports, terraces, porches, under trees or inside the home.

"Any plants with drooping foliage such as ferns are excellent for hanging baskets," says the horticulturist with the Texas A&M University System. "Asparagus sprengeri ferns are popular because they can tolerate a lot of direct sun and some cold, but Boston type ferns need high humidity and partial shade to do well."

Succulent plants such as hen and chickens or burro tail sedum make good plants for hanging baskets and can tolerate considerable heat and drought.

"Periwinkles and portulaca will bloom through the hottest weather on into fall," says Welch, "and petunias do well during spring and early summer."

Galvanized wire baskets with pressed or sphagnum moss liners and wooden and terra cotta hanging planters all make good containers.

"Fill the basket with a good potting soil high in organic matter such as peat moss," recommends Welch, "and place plants at the same depth they were originally growing."

"Because hanging baskets are exposed to hot dry air on all sides, plants should be watered two or three times a week," Welch suggests watering the bottom of the container in a tub of water.

Also, use a water soluble fertilizer once or twice a month, advises the horticulturist.

By snipping off dead flowers, seed pods or leaves and pruning back vining plants to encourage branching, hanging baskets can be attractive throughout the growing season, adds Welch.

May Social Security Visit Is Scheduled

Garland Gregg, social security representative for the San Angelo Social Security Office, has scheduled his May visit to Ozona. He will be at the County Courthouse on Wednesday, May 21st from 10:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon.

Persons who are unable to meet with him are encouraged to call the office in San Angelo. Residents of Ozona may call toll free by dialing "Operator" and asking for "Enterprise 2058".

Reddy's helpful tips for your Room Air-Conditioners

Your air-conditioner will operate inefficiently if filters are not cleaned regularly. Dirt and lint, collected on the filters, restricts air flow to the coils. Clean filters every two weeks.

Let nature help you save energy by shading your home with trees and shrubs to help cut down on summer cooling costs. Draw draperies against afternoon sun.

Remember to keep outside doors, windows, and fireplace dampers closed. If you have window units, close the heating vents near the floor, as cool air falls and can escape through vents.

You purchased fine-home comfort when you bought your air conditioning unit. Properly maintained, it will offer you years of efficient service. A once-a-year check-up by your dealer pays dividends in savings on operating and breakdown costs.

PEANUT MARSHMALLOW LOG

2 Tbsp. butter or margarine
 1/2 of 10-ounce package marshmallows
 1 cup confectioners' sugar
 1/4 tsp. vanilla extract
 1/2 cup chopped peanuts
 1/2 of 14-ounce package caramels
 1 Tbsp. water

Melt 1 Tbsp. butter. Add marshmallows and stir until melted. Beat in enough confectioners' sugar to make mixture of kneading consistency. Add vanilla and 1/2 cup peanuts. Knead further with more sugar and shape mixture into thin roll, 12 inches long. Place remaining peanuts on wax paper cut into 12 x 4 inch rectangle. Combine caramels with remaining butter and water. When melted, pour caramel over peanuts in a thin even stream, spreading caramel mixture with a knife dipped in hot water. When caramel peanut layer is cool, place marshmallow roll in center. Using wax paper, lift caramel around marshmallow center and seal edges, pressing peanuts in carefully. Place in refrigerator long enough to harden, then slice. Wrap pieces individually and store in an air-tight container. Yield: 24 1/2-inch slices.

"The government has been up to its hips in the beef business for years," White stated. "We've got to be realistic about the insurgence of the federal government into the livelihood of cattlemen."

White cited excessive imports of meat into the music at Moulton Institute in Gonzales. They were married June 10, 1893 and spent their honeymoon at the Menger Hotel in San Antonio. Their first home was on the ranch near Juno, an entirely new situation for the young bride.

On April 11, 1894 their first son, Kenneth, was born in San Antonio and on May 30, 1896 a second son, Vernon, was born in San Angelo. In 1897 Mr. Cox sold his ranch holdings and moved to Ozona where he established a mercantile business which played a large part in the development of this community. On April 29, 1898 a third son, Lemuel Bascomb, Jr. was born in Ozona and still lives here. In 1899 they built a home and soon after a native stone building for the business which still stands and is now occupied by Jack's Grocery Store.

On Sept. 1, 1900 their only daughter, Ona Mae, was born. She died during an influenza epidemic while a student at Southern Methodist University at Dallas.

Until the Ozona National Bank was organized in 1905, the Cox store served as a bank and checks were issued on it. The bank was organized in the rear of the Cox store and Mr. Cox was elected its first vice president and was cashier in 1907.

In 1917 with Mr. Pat Lee he bought land in western Crockett County and in 1918 bought out Mr. Lee's interest. The ranch is still owned by L. B. Cox, Jr. and operated by his son and grandson.

Mr. Cox also built the first store in Barnhart. In 1915 they built another home in Ozona where they lived until their deaths. In 1925 Mr. Cox disposed of his business interests and retired.

History Meet.— Jr. Varsity Wins First in District Track

Mr. and Mrs. Cox were always interested and active in their community, their church and their family. Mr. Cox signed the first bond to build the first Methodist Church in Ozona. At his death he was Chairman Emeritus of the Official Board. Mrs. Cox was the first president of the Methodist Women's Missionary Society and was active in musical events. Mr. Cox befriended many ranchmen, never pushing for accounts due, some for as long as three years. He was a master carver of wood and shared the intricate pieces with his friends, especially children.

Mr. Cox died May 3, 1927 while visiting in Clovis, New Mexico. Mrs. Cox remained in her home until her death on January 8, 1932. The heritage they left has enriched Crockett County.

Cox family members present for the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Cox, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Cox, III and George Cox.

CALLING ALL HOMEMAKERS

Brought to you By Lillian Brown

A common problem in many homes is how to decorate a narrow room and make it look better. Actually, there are many ways you can use furniture and other furnishings to solve this problem.

One idea is to place an attractive table or desk at right angles to one of the long walls. This can make a strong line across the room end and help end that feeling of a long, narrow room.

A mirror or a scenic wall covering can make the room seem wider. You can also try a horizontal arrangement of pictures on the short wall to minimize the narrow appearance.

Another idea is to use a love seat or a chair grouping away from the walls. This kind of grouping coming out from the wall can move the eye in such a way as to make a person feel the room is not as narrow as it is.

Remember that good arrangement of furniture is still possible in any room that has a so-called shape problem, and as a matter of fact, the right furniture arrangement can tend to overcome any construction problems a room may have.

We stand ready to help you with suggestions and a fine selection of furniture to make your home more beautiful. Maybe just one specific piece can help one of your rooms. Come in and look around.

Annual Lions Club Broom Sale Saturday

The Ozona Lions Club will conduct an all out drive on Saturday April 26, to sell quality blind-made products to residents and local businesses.

There will be two locations for the sale. The truck will be parked in the Village Shopping Center parking lot and a stand will be set up in front of Watson's Department Store. The sale will run from 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

The articles are all manufactured by blind workers in the Lighthouse For The Blind which are located throughout the state of Texas. The Lions Club's earnings from this sale will be used to buy eyeglasses for needy children in the community. Every household can use some type of household cleaning aid and every item sold helps some blind person to help himself.

All Ozonans are urged to continue their support to the Lions Club and this worthwhile project.
