Single copies of the paper went up to 15¢ last week and the first person to purchase one of the expensive copies was Johnny Hohertz. That might be a historical fact when the paper goes up to 20¢ or comes down to a dime again, whichever.

The opening of the care center seems to be the event most talked about around town these days.

There seems to be some foot-dragging by the contractor and the Commissioner's Court is trying to get him moving and get the facility finished.

The projected "open date" is now July 1, and July 1, it may be August 1.

However, they all but accepted the building as complete when they paid the bulk of the money. I think the moral of this story might be "don't shell out the cash until the key is turned in the door," or something along those lines. You'd think that politicians, of all people, would be aware of this homily. Right?

MACO Sets Open Meeting Friday Night

There will be a meeting of the Mexican-American Community Organization Friday, June 13, at 8:30 p.m. in the Catholic Parish Hall for the general public.

The purpose of the meeting is to inform the public of the projects and the purpose of MACO. The entire community is invited. Refreshments will be served following the meeting.

Summer Hours Told For Adult Library

Mrs. Earlene Jones, county and school librarian, announced summer hours for the adult library today. The library will be open each Wednesday, beginning June 18, from 9 a.m. until 7 p.m. weekly.

This schedule will be used until the end of July and possibly longer. Many new books are on the shelves, and Mrs. Jones said several cartons of new books would be unpacked by next Wednesday's opening date.

Local Women Appear On TV For Celebration

Mrs. P.L. Childress and Mrs. R.A. Harrell, representing the Crockett County Bicentennial Committee, were guests on the Pat Atterbury show, station KCTV, channel 8, in San Angelo on Tuesday evening.

Featured was the Crockett County History Book being published by the Crockett County Historical Society as its Bicentennial project. Mrs. Atterbury and station KCTV have been most generous in helping to tell all interested persons in this West Texas area of the publication and the Committee is deeply grateful to them.

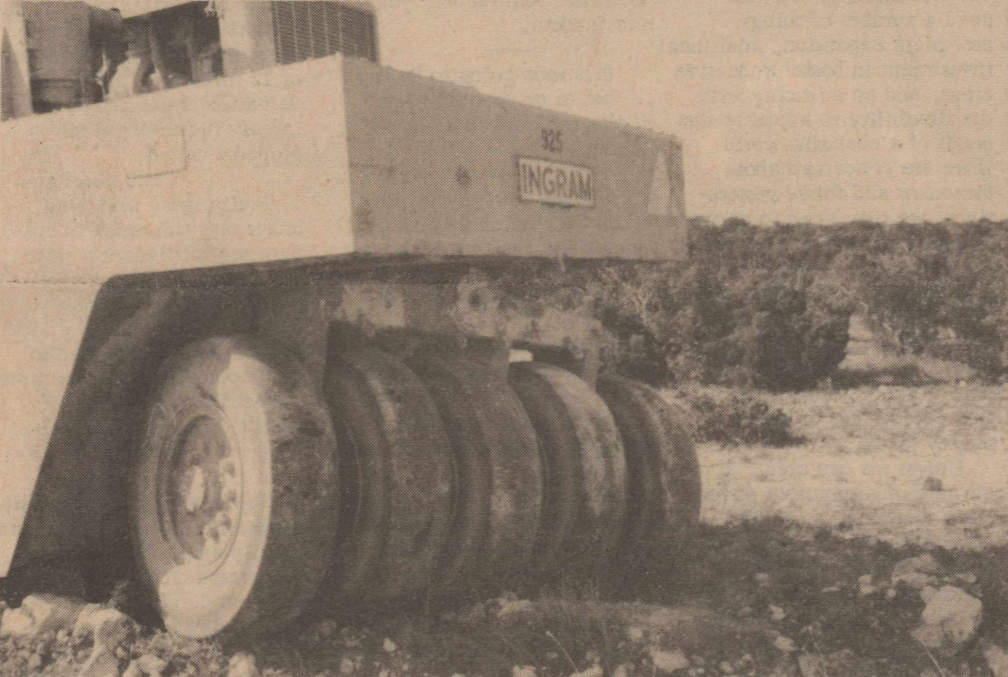

Citizens are again urged to get in their stories for the book as soon as possible. Even though the stated deadline for purchasing copies has passed, orders are still being accepted and widespread interest is manifest through orders from many former Ozonans as well as by history enthusiasts from many areas.

Individual family stories will furnish the majority of the material and it is hoped that every Crockett County family will be included when the book goes to press next year.

IT WASN'T A TORNADO, just a mishap with a piece of run-away equipment at the highway construction site about 20 miles west of Ozona last Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pearce of Magnolia were driving along Hwy. 290 in their late model van, pulling this trailer house when the driver of the road equipment, below, lost control, hit a culvert, ran across the highway and hit the van just behind the rear wheels. The collision knocked the trailer house loose from the vehicle and the roller smashed into it, completely demolishing the trailer. Fortunately, no one in the van was injured, although the back end sustained heavy damage.

STATE 4-H WINNER--

Regina Everett Takes Top Honors In State 4-H Food Show

A sophomore at Ozona High School, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R.J. Everett, Jr. She has been a 4-H club member seven years.

State 4-H Food Show, held in conjunction with the annual State 4-H Roundup, is sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, and Morrison Milling Co. of Denton, Tex., makers of Biskits.

Miss Everett won first place in the Crockett County Food Show in the breads and desserts division and first place in district competition before entering the state contest.

L. B. Taylor Received Hiway Award

Texas Highway Department District 7 Engineer D.R. Watson of San Angelo has announced the award of a 25 year Certificate of Service and a lapel emblem to Engineering Technician V. L.B. Taylor of Ozona. L.B. is with the office of Resident Engineer William F. Dixon, and is currently serving as Chief Inspector for State forces on two I.H. 10 projects under construction in Crockett County. These two projects total $10,209,334.

L.B. began work with the Department July 18, 1950 in Burnet County, transferring to Resident Engineer Dixon's office April 1, 1965. He has risen through several classification levels and areas of responsibility to his present title.

L.B. and his wife Ora Belle, have two married daughters. He is a member of the Masonic Lodge, and likes to fish and hunt, although the current pace of highway construction leaves little time for hobbies.

District Engineer Watson expressed his appreciation for the years of faithful service to the Highway Department, and wished L.B. many more years of pleasant and productive service.

Commissioners Court Pushes Care Center Opening July 1

Crockett County Commissioners Court met Monday and for the most part attended to routine business. Much discussion centered around the fact that the Crockett County Care Center, which was scheduled to open June 1, is behind schedule.

John Chiles Allen, architect, met with the court and the discussion centered around the fact that J.D. Burk Construction Company, contractor for the project, is not moving toward completing the deficiencies pointed out to him at a meeting last week when the court accepted the facility with some reservation of final payment until several minor items were put in order.

At the request of the court, Allen called Burk and reported that he agreed to expedite completion of the building. Hopefully, the facility will be complete and ready for occupancy by July 1.

Jim Leech brought the Auditorium-Coliseum report in the absence of Garland Young who is spending the week with some 20-22 boy scouts at Camp Sol Meyer. The Court authorized the purchase of 10 additional banquet tables, accepting the low bid of West Supply Co.

The resignation of Foy Moody as Juvenile and Misdemeanor Probation Officer was read and accepted. The Court voted to appoint high school counselor, Jack Probst as new Probation Officer, to take office on July 1.

Jack Baggett had written the County Judge that the new housing sub-divisions of the town were not included in the yearly rating and that it would require a resolution of the Court to include them. It was passed that all new housing developments be included in the new map or plat of the town.

Sheriff Billy Mills appeared and requested two cars be replaced. It was agreed that the county would advertise for bids and they will be opened at the July meeting. He also requested a raise for his deputies. After a discussion it was agreed that present deputies will receive $750.00 per month and the Chief Deputy will be paid a total of $810.00 per month. The Court also agreed to pay the $2.50 per day board on prisoners. It had been $1.75 per day. Purchase of tape recorders were authorized for each deputy.

Jim Bausch appeared and talked about the Community Action Council of Tom Green County and his proposal that they have a Social Services worker in Ozona. The County Judge expressed his feelings that there is a need for such a worker to assist elderly people in seeking and finding help from government agencies. Commissioner Jesus Castro moved that the Court invite the Community Action Council for a 6-month trial period. The motion died for lack of a second.

The Court considered the proposal of Tom Ed Montgomery, agent for American National Insurance Company, to furnish hospitalization insurance for county employees. The proposal of Blue Cross representatives to upgrade existing coverage was also discussed. It was voted to continue the Blue Cross coverage, adopting a major medical amendment and also a term-life policy clause.

The Court moved the meeting to the Nursing Home and heard Keith Peters, Hospital Administrator, give his report. Peters had just returned from a stay in the Brewster County Hospital where he had an emergency appendectomy.

Crockett Co. Gains New Gas Confirmer

The Howards Creek, East (Pennsylvania gas) field gained its second producer and a 5/8 mile east-southeast extension with the completion of Texas Oil & Gas Corp., Midland, No. 1-7 University, 16 miles west-southwest of Ozona, for a calculated absolute open flow of 5,100,000 cubic feet of dry gas daily.

Production was through perforations at 8,560-9,263 which had been acidized with 3,000 gallons.

Location is 1,414 feet from south and 2,145 feet from west lines of 7-32-University.

The discovery, the firm's No. 1-6 University, was finalized May 31, 1974, for a calculated absolute open flow of 3.5 million cubic feet of dry gas daily through perforations at 8,776-84 feet.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Lewis are touring Hawaii this week.

HAPPY STATE 4-H FOOD SHOW WINNER Regina Everett is shown here with her prize-winning Pumpkin Bread. Regina has participated in 4-H in all phases for several years. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Everett and a sophomore at Ozona High School. Her winnings consisted of a $500 scholarship.

"Detente" and National Defense

Shortly before their recent meeting at Vienna, Soviet Foreign Minister Gromyko took the unusual step of criticizing U.S. Secretary of State Kissinger by name on the grounds that he, Kissinger, favors detente, but also a high level of U.S. defense spending. Gromyko claimed indignantly that this was a contradiction.

The Russians, in other words, insist that detente implies a situation under which they grow stronger while we grow ever weaker. We think far too many Americans give detente this same kind of Russian interpretation.

To them we would cite the words of Eugene V. Rostow, former Under Secretary of State for Political Affairs and now chairman of the Foreign Policy Task Force of the Coalition For A Democratic Majority. Summarizing the Task Force's report, he writes: "Mr. Nixon did not end the 'Cold War,' achieve 'detente,' and substitute 'negotiation for confrontation.' A condition of 'detente' with the Soviet Union has been an unremitting goal of our foreign policy since President Roosevelt's time. It has not been achieved. There has been no improvement in our relations with the Soviet Union, save in the realm of public relations and wishful thinking. Soviet policy is exactly what it has been since 1944 or 1945, except that its pressures are greater and more diverse than ever, and more difficult to deal with, because they are backed by more force."

The Rostow Task Force, analyzing the U.S. defense posture in the face of the Soviet military build-up, does not recommend a crash program, seeking to catch up to the Soviets in every category, overnight. But it does recommend an increase in expenditures, particularly for the Navy, for ready forces, and for certain critical weapons and weapon systems designed to "maintain a prudent deterrent against aggression."

We agree with Mr. Rostow and his associates on the Task Force. We don't know what Kissinger said to Gromyko in Vienna, but we believe that the Task Force program is the only kind of answer we can give the Russians that will offer any hope of the real detente that has so far eluded us.

Mayaguez Aftermath

President Ford and Secretary of State Kissinger have both moved swiftly to try and capitalize on the political fallout of the Mayaguez affair. The President rejected a new isolationism and has again proclaimed that the U.S. will honor its pledge to defend South Korea. Meanwhile Kissinger, in Europe, was reaffirming the U.S. commitment to West Berlin specifically and to Western Europe generally.

This is all to the good. The world must believe that the U.S. will to act has not been shattered by the trauma of our southeast Asia defeats and that we are not in fact turning toward a new isolationism. This is so self-evidently important that we are sure it must have been the major, and not the minor, consideration as the administration debated its response to the Cambodian seizure of the ship. At that psychological moment we desperately needed something that would give some credence to our international word. The President certainly made this point when he said in an interview with European correspondents that his handling of the Mayaguez incident "should be a firm assurance that the United States is capable and has the will to act in emergencies and challenges." The same satisfaction came through in Dr. Kissinger's reply to reporter Marvin Kalb, who asked for his comment on criticism that the U.S. had used force against Cambodia too quickly: "Come on, Marvin, break down. Maybe we did something right. Statistically we are bound to do something right once in a while."

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights
by Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — A threatened slowdown of some doctors in major cities in protest to rising medical malpractice insurance costs was eased with signing of two new legislative acts.

Texas Medical Association's House of Delegates went on record against the work stoppage and said the short-term laws should be given a chance to work.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe urged immediate start of a study of the overall problem by a blue-ribbon panel of 18.

Former University of Texas Law School Dean W. Page Keeton was designated chairman of the Medical Professional Liability Study Commission established by one of the new acts.

The bill would also create a pool or joint underwriting association to issue policies up to $300,000.

Another would authorize the State Board of Insurance to set malpractice liability rates and cut the statute of limitation on filing of suits to two years.

Both acts will expire in 1977. A bill pushed by doctors and hospitals to place a $500,000 limit on claims in malpractice actions failed to clear the House of Representatives.

The Commission will report its findings and long range recommendations by Dec. 1, 1976.

Legislature Closes

Texas has a new $654 million public school finance act and authorization for a Public Utilities Commission to regulate telephone rates and services and to control other utilities (except gas) in rural areas.

Cities may elect to come under the Commission after two years with utilities other than telephones. Gas will be regulated by the state Railroad Commission.

Both the school finance and utilities acts were among the last major pieces of legislation approved by the 64th Legislature which ended its session at midnight June 2.

A record $12.1 billion appropriations bill passed by lawmakers on final night of the session has been certified by Comptroller Bob Bullock as within anticipated income.

Briscoe has until June 22 to decide which of the legislature's acts he will sign and which he will veto.

Hearing Recessed

A Railroad Commission hearing on phasing out natural gas as a boiler fuel has been recessed for 30 days after three days of testimony and opening statements.

Some spokesmen said converting plants to other fuels would be extremely costly.

Others urged that any phase-out should be "orderly" and with attention to what effect the changeover might have on rising consumer rates.

Courts Speak

The State Supreme Court suspended the Southwestern Bell $45 million intrastate long-distance rate increase and set a hearing June 18 on the attorney general's suit to block the increase.

The Supreme Court will hear arguments in a McAllen city and school district appeal from lower court rulings that a nursing home operated as a public charity is exempt from property taxes. The local officials disputed the home is a true charity.

The Court of Criminal Appeals reversed the life sentence given a Dallas man in a murder case due to an inadequate definition of circumstantial evidence by the trial judge.

An Austin district court jury sentenced Robert Kleasen to death in the butcher-murder of a young Mormon missionary.

AG Opinions

Public school teachers with contracts for the following school year cannot collect special unemployment assistance benefits, after all, on signing of the new school finance bill, Atty. Gen. John Hill held.

Before passage of the bill, with its prohibition on the benefits, Hill had held the teachers eligible.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

The House speaker can set reasonable and expeditious procedures for release of information concerning representatives' records.

College faculty members are entitled to information and recommendations in their personnel files on tenure and performance evaluations.

A missing page out of a budget received by the comptroller does not prevent its being certified where meaning is clear.

A Dallas college district must obtain a permit from the Antiquities Committee for demolition of three historic buildings, regardless of destruction contracts.

Bob Krueger Reports

U. S. Representative 21st District

Two key problems that face us today are: (1) how to stimulate our economy; and, (2) how to develop the productive capacity through capital formation that will provide for a healthy growing economy and future. The first problem is short-term; the second is long-term, and sometimes these two needs can be in conflict.

This past week, I supported the President's veto of a summer public employment jobs program. The cost would have been nearly $5 billion to be spent on a variety of public works jobs which the government would create. The intent of this bill was good, and had it not added so much to our deficit, I might have supported it, but this bill would have put us into an even larger deficit than has been forecast. It seemed to me that it would take capital needed for long-term economic development and put it into short-term jobs. Consumers would have more money to spend for goods without a corresponding rise in our capacity to produce the goods wanted by consumers; therefore, prices would rise.

Currently, federal, state, and local governments already spend about one out of every three dollars in this country and I would like to leave more of the choices about spending up to the individual.

This past year was the first year since the end of the Second World War in which the actual productivity per American worker has declined rather than increased. If our productivity declines, we will be unable to produce sufficiently for our own needs and will be unable to compete in world markets with other countries. To increase our productivity, we will need a number of things:

First, we need more investment in basic productive areas, and an economy with the flexibility to adjust to the needs of a changing world.

If we are concerned about tomorrow and future generations, we may need to consume less now and invest more in the productive capacity for tomorrow. Money will not be available for future expansion through private enterprise if the government insists on too many programs that decide how to spend money for us.

Unless we can create a climate of responsible government spending, and have enough money available for private individuals and businesses to borrow in order to invest in future productive enterprises, we will face crippling inflation and we will not have the atmosphere of confidence in the future of our country that is needed for economic recovery.

THE NEWS REEL

A re-run of "The Ozona Story" as gleaned from the files of "THE OZONA STOCKMAN"

June 13, 1946

While prices on almost every other commodity are going up, customers of the West Texas Utilities Company may be amazed at the company's announcement this week of a general reduction in rates for an electric current dispensed by the company.

The illness of an Ozona child, hospitalized in San Angelo, has been positively diagnosed as poliomyelitis. A second child is under observation as a suspected victim of polio. The two are brothers.

The Ozona Church of Christ has "adopted" Herman Van Den Hyden, 11 year old Dutch boy in Holland, through the Foster Parents' Plan for War Children.

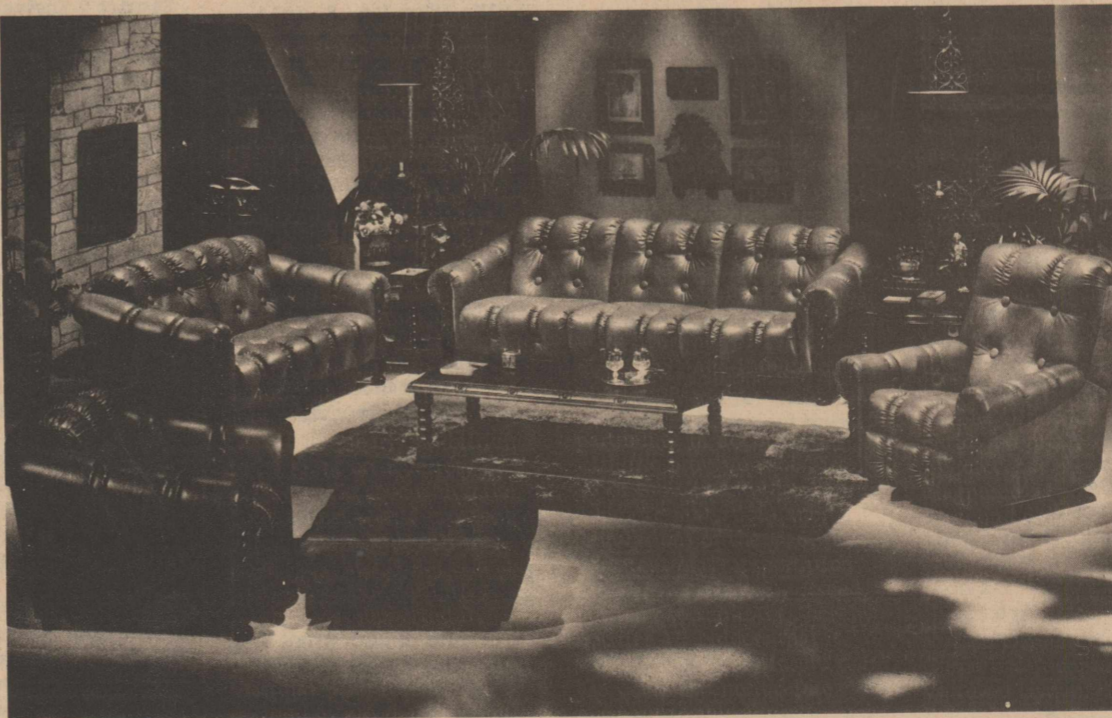

Nine local boys and their leader are encamped this week at Camp Fawcett on the Nueces River. Ozona Scouts attending include Charles Cunningham, Ben Burl Conklin, Ray Piner, Jr., Allen Haire, Tommy Laxson, William Meinecke, Kerry Tandy, Bobby Halydier and Alton Smith. Vernon Ratliff and Lee Wilson will share the duties as Scoutmaster.

Mrs. L. B. Cox, Jr., entertained with a tea from 4 to 6 o'clock Friday afternoon to honor her daughter-in-law, Mrs. L. B. Cox, III. Bouquets of white daisies, gladioli and carnations were used in the house decorations.

Crockett County's total property valuations for tax purposes in 1946 will show a rise of approximately one and a quarter million dollars to an estimated total valuation of 12 million. The rise in valuation is accounted for largely in increased oil property values.

Preliminary work was under way this week in preparation for the early start on paving of the last unpaved section of Highway 163 between Ozona and Del Rio. The process is expected to take approximately one month and will be done by the state's maintenance crews.

Tips For Gardeners

From the Ozona Garden Club by Mrs. Bailey Post

It has been my pleasure to visit several beautifully landscaped gardens the past week, and to see the colorful plantings of so many varieties and kinds of perennials, annuals, bulbs, shrubs, trees and plants. With a little extra care most any plant you really want will grow in Ozona, except perhaps the most exotic ones.

The Ozona Garden Club made their annual garden tour to the hillside garden of the J. W. Howell's last week. The flower beds around the entire landscape featured at this time many varieties of day lilies, geraniums, daisies, caladiums and potted plants. The spacious and well groomed lawn with the large native live oaks and fruit trees to give shade and beauty, make the patio a perfect area to relax and enjoy the out of doors for the summer.

June is an excellent time to plant caladium tubers, since the soil is warm enough for rapid growth. There are many varieties to choose from to plant in beds, planters and pots to be placed in groups. Among the most popular include candidum (white), blaze (red) and pink cloud. Plant the tubers 12 to 18 inches apart and 2 inches deep in soil with organic matter added. Keep soil moist, but not wet. After they come up they may need water everyday if no rain.

Now is the time to make notes of the varieties of roses you may want to add to your planting. Many will be in bloom all summer in yards and at the nurseries. Floribundas are better adapted to hot weather conditions than hybrid teas. They provide colorful garden displays and make good cut flowers. To conserve growth energy, always snip off flower clusters as soon as they fade. Give plenty of

COUNTRY CLUB BRIDGE

Mrs. Buddy Phillips was hostess for bridge at the Country Club last week. Winning high was Mrs. Evert White. Second high was won by Mrs. Hugh Childress. Low went to Mrs. John Childress and bingo was won by Mrs. Jack Williams.

Others attending were Mrs. Clay Adams, Mrs. Tommy Harris, Mrs. Beecher Montgomery, Mrs. Kirby Moore, Mrs. J. B. Parker, Mrs. Frank Tillman, Mrs. Byron Williams, Mrs. Gene Williams, Mrs. Tommy Wilson, Mrs. Buster Deaton and Mrs. L. T. Sewell.

Come in and see the mugs at Brown Furniture Company—you'll enjoy being mugged at Brown's.

water during dry spells, and feed every six to eight weeks with a complete fertilizer. Some good varieties include Summer Snow (white), Betty Prior (pink) and Europeans (red), Little Darling (yellow blend), and the 1975 All American Floribunda, Rose Parade.

The beautiful as well as useful vegetable gardens are beyond imagination almost, until you actually see the many kinds of vegetables that are being grown in Ozona. There may be others using the new drip irrigation system demonstrated by Mr. Peavy, Area Horticulturist of Fort Stockton earlier in the year, but the garden of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Montgomery is really something to see. Others are reaping a great harvest of fine vegetables too. Some of you that didn't have spring gardens may want to prepare space for one this fall, and it isn't too early to start.

Vegetables planted in pots are very popular too and you can watch them grow right on your patio.

INSIGHT INTO CHILD ABUSE

How would it feel to be physically abused by an angry parent for something you didn't do and don't understand? Every day hundreds of young children are abused by parents or guardians who are unaware of the seriousness of their actions.

Most of the reported cases of abuse occur to children under 3 years of age, who are unable to defend themselves. Child abuse happens in all economic levels and cultural groups in our society. Usually one parent inflicts the injuries and the other parent passively accepts the situation.

Once a child is abused, chances are he may be again. Lashing, bashing, scolding, burning, shaking, kicking, biting or suffocating a child are some of the kinds of physical abuses which cause serious injury or death.

But parents can also abuse a child emotionally by failing to provide the love and affection the child needs or by restricting his social experiences outside the home. And it's difficult for a person who has sustained continual abuse as a child to become a good parent once he's grown.

Incidences of abuse often occur during a time of crisis when parents are under a great deal of stress. If the parent is unable to talk about or deal effectively with his emotions, the child may become the scapegoat. Although the incident is often short lived, the damage is permanent.

Abuse also happens when parents hold unrealistic expectations for the child. Harsh punishment becomes the way they teach the child to behave in a desired manner, even if he is too immature to act as expected. And in some situations, an immature and inexperienced mother may injure the child because he can't provide the affection she seeks.

DILLED OKRA
3 lbs. uncut and washed young okra pods
celery leaves

Make brine of water, vinegar and salt; heat to boiling. Pour over okra. Close jars. Process in boiling water bath 20 minutes. Start to count processing time as soon as hot jars are placed in actively boiling water. Makes 6 pints.

There are times when you just know you'll get a hit—until you swing and miss that third strike!
Success is never certain in this world—even to the fellow with confidence written all over his face.
Frequently, achievement comes with giving your best when you're not convinced your best will be enough.
Religion cannot guarantee success to any man.
It promises all men the spiritual impetus to realize their best.
When you come to church next Sunday, you'll gain a deeper understanding of your virtues and of your faults.
Such understanding—with God's help and God's forgiveness—inspires us to give our best to every challenging opportunity.

Texas Oil & Gas Reserves Low

Texas crude oil and natural gas reserves are at the lowest point since the end of World War II, Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association reports in its new reference leaflet, 75 Facts About Texas Oil and Gas.

Distributed free to the public each year, 75 Facts is the latest in the series that highlights principal facts and figures on Texas' major industry.

But, if fact-seekers aren't happy with the current status of reserves, there are some pleasant facts, too. For instance, 75 Facts points out, oil or gas is produced in 211 of the state's 254 counties and Texas royalty owners received $1.4 billion last year as their share of the production. Value of the 1974 production of crude oil, natural gas, and natural gas liquids was $13.1 billion.

In addition, 75 Facts says, "Production, refining, and processing of Texas oil and gas generate jobs, economic vitality, and nearly $1 billion a year in taxes to support state and local government and education in Texas."

And another fact: some 247,000 Texans are directly employed in the petroleum industry (one out of every 18 Texas workers) and draw wages of $2.7 billion annually.

The new 75 Facts covers eight major categories of industry operations and lists key facts and figures for each--general, offshore, drilling production, refining-processing, employment, economics, and taxation. Distributed as a public service, the leaflet is a reference for students, researchers, government officials, industry employees, or just the mildly curious.

CALLING ALL HOMEMAKERS

Brought to you By Lillian Brown

Every home should have a place from which you can serve refreshments easily--and it's amazing how many different pieces of furniture can be used to do the job for you.

Her are some ideas: You might use a table in a corner to hold snacks, bottles, plates, etc., and then use hanging shelves on the wall above the table to hold glasses.

Your buffet or credenza, especially if it has the proper top, can make an excellent place to serve from.

There are many portable tea or snack wagons or carts on the market today that you can use, and they fit every decor and budget.

Many commode type occasional tables can double as servers.

Whatever furniture you decide to use can actually go anywhere (especially if it's nice looking furniture), but probably the best idea is to place it in your living room or family room or nearest to wherever you do your most entertaining.

The important thing is to have a prepared spot from which to serve. It'll make you a better hostess and make your life easier. If you'd like to see some furniture that can be used to help you, stop in and we'll be glad to show you some ideas for any of your furnishing needs.
