Kitty's Korner

by
Kitty Montgomery

We've received several "Letters to Santa." Instead of printing them as they come in, we have decided to save them for our Christmas edition, which will be dated Dec. 25, but will actually hit the streets the day before Christmas. This edition will also have our annual Christmas greetings from merchants, business people and others who want to wish you a Merry Christmas through the pages of the Stockman. Be sure your little one signs his last name when he writes old Santa. Also, you may assure your little writer that as soon as all the letters are copied by the typesetter here, we bundle them up and get them right off to the North Pole.

Perner Elected To ASC Committee

In a recent election, Sam Perner was elected to a 3 year term on the Crockett County ASC Committee. Mr. Perner's term of office begins Jan. 1, 1976.

Johnny Jones was elected as 1st alternate to the Committee for a one year term. Tony Allen was elected as 2nd alternate to the Committee for a one year term.

Each year since 1965, one committeeman is elected for a 3 year term and 2 alternates are elected for a one year term.

Nat Read, who has served on the Committee for a total of 12 years, was not eligible as a candidate for re-election in 1976 as the law provides a county committeeman may not be elected for more than 3 consecutive terms without a break in service of at least one year.

Local law enforcement officers arrested Juan Caldera, 19, inside the Bill Carson home at 1308 Ave. B around 6:45 Sunday evening. The youth was apprehended inside a closet in the house and was attired in a red ladies slip.

After five break-ins of the house since early October, an alarm was installed which alerted the DPS Communications system if the house was entered. The alarm was silent at the place of origination. When the alarm was set off Sunday night, area officers converged on the house and found Caldera in the closet. He was placed under arrest and lodged in the Crockett County Jail.

Abilene Man Is Traffic Fatality

A 24-year-old Abilene man was killed instantly around 2:20 p. m. last Wednesday west of Ozona when the vehicle he was driving was in collision with a motor home on Highway 290.

Joel W. Cox, an employee of Tucker Drilling Co. of San Angelo was pronounced dead at the scene by Peace Justice A. O. Fields of Ozona. Investigating office Highway Patrolman Manuel Hartnett said that the collision apparently occurred as Cox was attempting to make a U turn in the highway some 3.2 miles west of Ozona. The motor home towing a car was being driven east of U. S. 290 by Janie M. Johnson of Grandview.

Neither Mrs. Johnson nor her husband who was a passenger in the mobile home were injured. Cox's body was taken to Janes Funeral Home in Ozona and then transferred to Elliott-Hamil Funeral Home in Abilene where services were held later in the week.

Commissioners Court In Routine Meeting

Crockett County Commissioners Court met in regular session, December 8, 1975, with Jess Marley, Jack Williams, Jesus Castro and Judge Troy Williams present. Regular monthly reports were read and approved. The Road Department reported a clutch was out on the big dozer and a new clutch had been ordered. Rutherford Motor Co. had declined to deliver the Suburban which they had bid in for the County Agent, pleading mistake and the Court, after a discussion, allowed them to increase their bid $327.60 because of the dual air conditioning.

Acting on the Hospital Board's recommendation, the Court agreed to raise the rates at the hospital and the private rooms were raised from $45.00 to $48.00 per day and the semi-private rooms were raised from $40.00 to $43.00 per day. The Court authorized installing electric heat lamps in the ceilings for the two bathrooms at the nursing care center. It was pointed out that the center has 17 patients and another is due next week. Minimum wage requirements will mean that the lowest paid employee in the hospital will receive 20¢ per hour increase in wages in January.

The Judge reported that he had attended a County Judge's Seminar in Austin the past week and that he was one of the faculty members.

Concho Valley COG has written that no Federal Grants are available at this time to provide the new radio system for the Sheriff's automobiles. There had been requests that the County property south of Interstate 10 on State Highway 163 be submitted for bids. The Court, after discussion, deferred action at the same time rejecting San Tex Advertising Company's request to lease space for billboard. The Court discussed moving the deer-proof fence which is now between Lima Cemetery and Cedar Hill Cemetery. No action was taken, however it was agreed that the draw between the cemeteries would be ripped up with rock.

The Court approved specifications for a vehicle to be used by the fire department to transport equipment. Specifications for a new ambulance were discussed and the County Judge was directed to investigate securing a grant to improve health care equipment.

The Court rejected the counter offer of the insurance company for repairing the damages at the County Barns and requested that all damaged tin be replaced.

Sheriff Billy Mills appeared and requested that the Court order lights to mount on top of the Deputy Cars, he also requested that the Court not trade in the used Plymouth. His request was granted.

President Nominates Col. Cannon For Gen.

DULUTH, MN--Colonel George C. Cannon Jr., commander of the 23d Air Division with headquarters here, has been nominated by the President for promotion to brigadier general.

Colonel Cannon is one of 52 Air Force colonels recently selected for promotion. He is the only colonel in the Aerospace Defense Command (ADCOM) selected for advancement to the one star rank.

The promotion still requires confirmation by the U. S. Senate and a firm date for pinning on his new rank has not yet been set.

Colonel Cannon has commanded the 23d Air Division, which includes Duluth International Airport, three air defense interceptor squadrons and seven long-range radar stations in Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan, for about 15 months. The Air Division trains Air Force personnel for a strategic role in the air defense of the 17 midwestern states.

A graduate of the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, he was commissioned into the Air Force in 1950 and in 1952 flew 100 combat missions in F-80s during the Korean Conflict.

He returned to the United States as a tactical fighter pilot and later earned a Master of Science degree in Aeronautical Engineering. During his 25 year career, Colonel Cannon has been an advisor to the Greek and Korean air forces and has been assigned to Air Force headquarters and twice to the headquarters of the Aerospace Defense Command, completing a tour there in 1974 as Assistant Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics.

He is a command pilot with military decorations including the Legion of Merit with oak leaf cluster, Distinguished Flying Cross, Air Medal with two oak leaf clusters and the Air Force Commendation Medal with oak leaf cluster.

Colonel Cannon, many times an Ozona visitor over the years, is a brother-in-law of Mrs. Tom Montgomery. His family resided in Ozona in 1967-68 while he was on a tour of duty in Korea.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir:
I thought you might be interested in a nice thing that happened in your town this past week. My wife and I were returning to Houston from a California vacation on Sunday, Nov. 30. We had heard an unusual noise in our left front tire while traveling for several hours before realizing it might be serious. I stopped in Ozona around 11:30 p.m. at the Phillips 66 station on the main highway where Mr. Lee Wise, the station attendant, examined my wheel and diagnosed burned-out ball bearings. He then called Mr. Jim Strother, a mechanic, who quickly came to the station, examined my wheel, and likewise recommended no further travel, as the bearings were burned out. As I am a physician and was due back in Houston the next day, I requested Mr. Strother to work on the car that night. He then woke up Mr. J. W. Johnigan of the J. W. Parts Co., who got out of bed and drove to his parts store at 12:30 a.m. to sell me the parts. He was very polite and even joked a bit with me. With the parts he needed, Mr. Strother then quickly repaired my car and I was back on the road by 1:30 a.m. Mr. Wise had given my wife some coffee and made her comfortable in the station and also helped with some of the wheel work. Everyone was not only helpful, but cheerful and encouraging.

I am writing you to make special mention of these three individuals, who literally rescued us from the road and got us moving again, safely. I understand this has happened before and I feel most strongly that they exemplify the spirit of love, honesty, and helpfulness which have made Texas and America great. You have three citizens that have made Ozona a place that at least two Houstonians will always consider very special. Thank you again, Mr. Wise, Mr. Strother, and Mr. Johnigan!
Sincerely,
David H. Miller, M.D.

Give 'Em Hell, Pat!

In his time, Harry Truman was much maligned for his sharp tongue and salty language. Today, however, those attributes of the late President are warmly remembered and have even been made the subject of a current stage production, "Give 'Em Hell, Harry!"

The United States now has another colorful and outspoken public figure on its hands — U.N. Ambassador Daniel Patrick Moynihan. Although there are signs the White House and Secretary of State Henry Kissinger are unhappy with Moynihan's undiplomatic ways, we think he should be applauded. Moynihan is a refreshing change to other national figures who are so perennially afraid of hurting feelings that they fail to sound the certain trumpet that could warn the nation and impel it to action.

Moynihan called Uganda's president, Idi Amin, a "racist murderer," which he most certainly is. The quote, incidentally, was taken by the Ambassador from a New York Times editorial. More recently, Moynihan, along with Clarence M. Mitchell, Jr. of the United States, have been embroiled with Cuba and other nations over the General Assembly's vote labeling Zionism "a form of racism and racial discrimination."

Mitchell, an official of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, quoted reliable information listing the number of political prisoners in Cuba at 20,000. The charge came during debate on a U.S. move to have all governments free their political prisoners. Naturally the move is heatedly denounced by the Communist and "third world" blocs who have the temerity to denounce Zionism, yet hold most of the world's political prisoners in contravention of basic human rights.

Following these spats at the U.N. — and the reluctance of the White House and State Department to back him up — Ambassador Moynihan came close to resigning his position, but fortunately hasn't, as of this writing.

Ironically, Kissinger was attracted to Moynihan for the U.N. post after the latter wrote in Commentary magazine last March that America should "ask about conditions and events in many countries of the third world of which almost everyone knows, but few have thought it politic to speak."

Politic or not, we salute Ambassador Moynihan for doing so.

The Belize Problem

A long simmering problem in the Caribbean threatens to boil over into armed conflict if a solution fair to all is not found, and fairly soon.

We refer to the self-governing territory of Belize, or British Honduras as it is more commonly called. It is claimed by Guatemala on the basis of history and geography, but it is still protected by Great Britain, which obtained it originally through a logging concession from Spain in the 18th century.

Now the British propose to grant Belize full independence and, as a result, matters are heating up sharply. Of some 130,000 people inhabiting Belize about 45,000 are black, the remainder being Mayans and Spanish speaking mestizos. To further muddy the waters, Mexico is claiming the northern part of the territory; Jamaica, Barbados, and Trinidad-Tobago are encouraging their surplus blacks to emigrate to Belize and settle there; oil has been discovered just across the border in Guatemala; the British have reinforced their naval and land forces; and the Guatemalans have massed troops on their side of the border. Other Central American states have rallied to support Guatemala's claim. In such a situation there is plenty of tinder for trouble.

AUSTIN — Utility companies got a stern warning from the new Public Utility Commission they are not to pass along to consumers without approval a state assessment on their gross revenues.

The one-sixth of one per cent assessment was ordered by the 1975 Legislature to finance the Commission's regulatory activities. Revenue is estimated at $12 million to $15 million a year.

PUC members said they received a consumer complaint against Southwestern Public Service Co. of Amarillo and voluntary disclosure from Houston Lighting and Power on plans for a pass-through on electric bills.

"This is an assessment and not a tax; therefore, any utility is violating its rate schedule unless it has prior approval from the appropriate regulatory authority for an increase in rates before passing it on," said Commission Chairman W. Garret Morris.

Acknowledging that the Commission yet lacks jurisdiction to act in the matter, Morris said he feels the increase would be "an improper pass-through." He said he thinks individual consumers would be entitled to enjoin a utility from passing along the assessment in the form of a rate hike.

Rates Raised
A 7.1 per cent increase in workmen's compensation coverage rates received approval of the State Board of Insurance effective March 1.

The increase will add about $43 million to the $611.6 million annual cost of workmen's compensation premiums paid by Texas business and industries.

Another hearing will be required on the coverage if the average weekly manufacturing wage goes up as much as $10. State law provides for an automatic $7-a-week hike in maximum payments to those injured on the job if there is a $10 wage jump.

Tax Bond Cut
Better collection methods have made possible a reduction in the sales tax bonding requirement, according to Comptroller Bob Bullock.

Businesses have had to put up three times the amount they expected to pay in taxes each quarter. The new requirement will be twice the average monthly liability for monthly sales tax filers and one and a half times the quarterly liability for those who file quarterly.

Bullock said the new policy will allow smaller businesses to use letters of credit or cash bonds and get away from bonding firms.

Courts Speak
A 3-2 decision of the Court of Criminal Appeals upheld a five-year sentence for burglary in a Dallas case. A dissenting judge accused the majority of going to minute and "embarrassing" lengths to affirm convictions.

The State Supreme Court affirmed a $2.5 million judgment for a cement firm in a condemnation case brought by Coastal Industrial Water Authority on land along San Jacinto River.

The High Court will review a San Antonio case to determine whether an unprovoked homicide is an accidental death covered by a group accidental death insurance policy.

The Supreme Court refused to stop the State Judicial Qualifications Commission from hearing removal charges against 29th District Judge O. P. Carrillo.

Wichita Falls annexation of a strip of land southeast of the city will be reviewed by the Supreme Court.

Third Court of Civil Appeals held a bus company which stopped service to an area temporarily is in no position to object when another company applies to serve the same area.

AG Opinions

College deans' recommendations of merit pay raises for professors is not subject to forced disclosure under the Open Records Act, Atty. Gen. John Hill held.

In another recent opinion, Hill concluded the Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz Memorial Commission is eligible to receive federal funds and use them to purchase or condemn land and other property. Commission power to finance recreational facilities is a fact question.

Race Expands

State Rep. Lane Denton of Waco became the fourth candidate to announce he will run for Texas Railroad Commission next year.

Denton, 34, classed himself as "pro-consumer" and said big interests will be out to defeat him.

Other candidates in the race are State Rep. David Finney of Fort Worth, Terence O'Rourke of Houston and Walter Wendlandt, Austin engineer and attorney.

Short Snorts

State deposits in more than 1,200 banks earned nearly $79 million in interest during the last fiscal year.

Arson for profit is among the fastest-growing crimes in Texas (2,202 cases last year), according to Jerry Johns of Southwestern Insurance Information Services.

Sen. H. Tati Santiesteban of El Paso will be governor-for-a-day December 13 — with ceremonies here and in his home city.

Billy G. Thompson will be the Texas Railroad Commission's new information officer. He has been an oil writer and industrial editor.

Bob Krueger Reports

U. S. Representative
21st District

Sometimes federal regulations become so unnecessarily complicated and outdated that the idea of setting these regulations aside entirely begins to merit consideration. With that recognition in mind, I succeeded this last week in getting a 19-19 tie vote on a bill that would allow a seven-year suspension of federal regulations on the transportation of interstate natural gas, that is, natural gas moving from one state to another.
For about forty years the federal government has regulated at the wellhead the price of natural gas produced in one state and sold in another. At the same time, intrastate gas, or gas produced and consumed within the same state, remained unregulated. For many years, intrastate gas could be purchased more cheaply than interstate gas because supply was abundant and gas was essentially viewed as an unnecessary by-product found in drilling for oil. As the shipment of natural gas became easier, however, and as natural gas began to be used for heating, fertilizer, synthetics and many other purposes, its price began to rise. The availability of large supplies of natural gas in Texas brought one-half of the nation's petrochemical industry to our state. Meanwhile, the federal government set the price of interstate gas at an artificially low level, and consuming states, dependent upon producing states for their supplies of natural gas, began to fall short.
To meet the needs of those states for adequate supplies and to prevent Texans from paying more for our own natural gas than do out of state people who use it, I introduced my bill in the Commerce Committee to suspend federal price controls on gas for seven years. I am convinced that during this time our free enterprise system could produce more gas than under the present system of government regulation; therefore, we would have a chance to meet the shortages in other areas and to bring about fair pricing for this product in both producing and consuming states. As I mentioned before, the bill failed to pass by a 19-19 vote, but I now intend to present it to the entire House of Representatives; there is a good chance that, for the first time in 20 years, a gas deregulation proposal will win favorable consideration on the House floor. If so, those of us who support the concept of deregulation will finally have a chance to show what can be accomplished in the absence of excessive and arbitrary government regulations.

Womans Forum Continue Fire Dept. Bicentennial Theme

by Bonnie Warth

The members of the Forum met in the Civic Center on Tuesday Dec. 2, where Hostesses Mrs. Arthur Phillips and Mrs. George Russell served refreshments before Pres. Mrs. T. J. Bailey called the meeting to order.

It was Benjamin Franklin who said - "Wish not so much to live long as to live well". The program for the afternoon showed the contrast of thinking, action and courage of the "Colonies" against the "Loyalists".

Mrs. J. D. Brown used Benjamin Franklin, The Great Formentor for her study. Benjamin was one of seventeen children, spent one year in grammar school, and one year being tutored in writing and arithmetic before going to work for his brother who ran a newspaper in Boston. At the age of 16 Benjamin signed his own name to a story he wrote for the paper, he was filled with wit and humor. At the age of 23 he had his own newspaper The Penn. Gazette. He lived long before his time, would have been great living in today's world, in his world travels, his writing and his Lightning Rod, he was shrewd, bold and clever. Even in marriage he did so without ceremony. He was aware of Americas need, had knowledge of the World affairs, and a vast expanse of understanding. We shall remember too Poor Richards Almanac. He was alert and loyal to the end of his life.

Mrs. C. O. Walker spoke on "Sgnik Sdnairf" - spelled backward is Kings Friend. It was a young Englishman who visited the Colonies and started uprisings against the Loyalist, going so far as to tar and feather some, beat others, the Churchmen were targets for the abuse. Some of the Colonist split and returned to England, as did the Englishman. Those who stayed help form our Nation.

Mrs. Nicholas On The Go For Cancer Society

Mrs. M. E. Nicholas attended State Committee meetings of the American Cancer Society held in Houston, Wednesday and Thursday of last week. She was also in Brownwood and Dallas on business.

Monday evening she attended a District Public Education committee meeting and later the same evening the District Executive Board meeting in San Angelo.

Thursday evening she will be speaking to a new group of volunteers in Brady.

Mrs. Nicholas is currently serving as District Crusade Chairman and Crockett County Public Education chairman. Any requests for club programs and films, and many new materials are available, should be directed to her at 392-3265.

It has just been revealed that Flip Wilson will be National Crusade Chairman for the Society in 1976, and is already exhibiting much enthusiasm toward the work

Auxiliary

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Ozona Fire Department met December 8 with six members present. Those present were Mrs. James Montgomery, Mrs. Jerry Hill, Mrs. Bob Davee, Mrs. Lonnie Cain, Mrs. Jack Jones, and Mrs. Lowell McCaleb. There was one guest - Mrs. Frank James.

The next meeting will be January 5 at 7:30. --0--

Pandale Study Club Has Bicentennial Program

In keeping with our Bicentennial celebration "The Puritan Spirit" was presented at the meeting of the Pandale Study Club by Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Bailey of Ozona.

A Christmas dinner was served with all the traditional dishes. The buffet table was laid in a red cloth and centered with an antique lantern surrounded by fruit, holly red birds and poinsettias. The Christmas colors were repeated throughout the building.

The Christmas tree was a beautiful decorated fresh-cut cedar tree brought by W. O. Mills. Gifts were exchanged after the program.

The business meeting was held before dinner and Mrs. R. J. Everett received the door prize. Hostesses for the Christmas dinner were Mrs. W. O. Mills and Mrs. Tom Everett. Mrs. Bailey closed the program by saying the Puritans had a great asset, a thankful heart. May everyone be thankful for our freedoms of speech, press and religion and let us never lose the true meaning of Christmas.

Others attending were: W. O. Mills, III, of Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kunkel, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Malone, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Mills, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Tom Everett, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Everett and Mr. Henry Mills.

"I'd rather explain higher gas bills than why you don't have gas."

Your natural gas bill is higher. And, you have every right to know why.

One reason is lower temperatures brought on by winter.

The main reason, however, is simply that you are paying more for natural gas. Because we are paying more. This chart shows how much:

This increase hurts both you and Pioneer. It adds to your bill and to our cost... a cost for which Pioneer is not entirely compensated. It is passed through without mark-up or additional charges.

Why does gas cost more? Competition... particularly from petrochemical and other industries. The competition for gas has never been so fierce.

We will have to pay more for gas than in the past. But by working together, and without outside interference, you'll have the gas you need today and in the future.

Time To Control Cattle Lice

Lice can weaken cattle, stunt their growth and make them more susceptible to other diseases. That's why it's important to check cattle periodically for the tiny pests, says Billy Reagor, county agent for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"It's especially important to check cattle in the fall, winter and spring months because lice are attracted to the cooler skin temperatures of animals," points out the agent.

Both bloodsucking and biting lice are parasites of cattle. Biting lice feed on pieces of hair, scabs and skin excretions of the animal and can cause cattle to scratch and rub off pieces of skin. The loss of blood caused by bloodsucking lice can keep young animals from gaining and can affect meat and milk production in older animals.

Lice are most numerous on the neck and shoulders of an animal and are more common on poorly fed cattle.

Lice can be controlled by spraying, dipping, dusting or a self-treatment rubbing device. The insecticide used depends on the application method and whether it is for dairy or beef cattle, says the agent.

"The most effective way to apply an insecticide is to wet the animal to the skin," says Reagor. "This usually takes from one to two gallons of spray for mature animals with heavy hair coats." The application should be repeated in two or three weeks and cattle should be inspected periodically after that, adds the agent.

Tips For Gardeners

From the Ozona Garden Club by Mrs. Bailey Post

Now that the Christmas season is near, you may be planning a way to make Christmas more meaningful to you and your family.

Everyone has a desire to create festive and sparkling decorations throughout the home to give warmth to holiday hospitality. Many chores can be done early at your leisure, but the last few days, there are the fresh, spontaneous touches that add so much.

Our beautiful evergreens are being used more and more each year to make attractive and durable arrangements and wreaths for any place you want greenery. For table arrangements they may be used with frosted fruits, ornaments, candles, madonnas and other figurines to create an original centerpiece.

To keep evergreens and the Christmas tree fresh, be sure to harden in warm water before using in wreaths, swags and arrangements. Another formula you may be interested in using: 1 gallon of hot water, add 4 tablespoons of micronized iron (available at florist or garden supply) and mix well, 2 cups light corn syrup and 4 teaspoons chlorinated household bleach. Pound stems at end and immerse sprays in this mixture. Stand tree in this mixture for 12 hours at least or until decorated. To preserve holly use 1 quart of hot water, 1 cup syrup, 1 teaspoon cloxox. Let stand in this for 2 days.

Poinsettias will be in full bloom fairly early in the month. When selecting them, consider maturity of the plant. Look for yellow pollen on the true flowers which are at the base of the colorful bracts. If flowers are green and red tipped and fresh looking, the bloom will hold longer than if pollen is covering the flowers. They are generally offered for sale when pollen is just showing around the edges of the flowers. Place the pot in a sunny location and water once or twice daily. Keep out of drafts and not exposed to too high or low temperatures.

CALLING ALL HOMEMAKERS

Brought to you By Lillian Brown

One way to spruce up your decor is to add a table that perhaps has a hexagonal (six-sided) shape, or one that is an octagon (eight-sided), or simply a round table or oval one if your rooms lack anything of that shape now.

The point is that a differently shaped table will bring new interest and vitality to your rooms.

And this goes for anything including coffee tables, dining room tables, end tables, etc.

Don't necessarily limit yourself to the obvious. Perhaps a regular rectangular table is what you want and need in a given spot--that's fine. But all we are saying is that you might want to at least consider something different. If most of your tables have always been four-sided, maybe you'd like to try a six-sided or round one.

Sometimes in a room which has a large sofa, the use of a square or rectangular table at each end of the sofa merely prolongs the straightness of the sofa and makes it look too overpowering, while round tables, for example, will break the line and turn the area into a nicer grouping.

Whatever your preferences and needs, come in and browse here. We'll be happy to help you with good selection, values and ideas.

MRS. ROBERT JAMES HODGES
---NEE CYNTHIA LUCILE HARRELL

Miss Harrell Becomes Bride of Mr. Hodges

Cynthia Lucile Harrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Harrell, became the bride of Robert James Hodges, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Hodges of High Ridge, Missouri, in a double ring, candlelight ceremony at 7:00 p.m., Thursday, December 4 in the Ozona United Methodist Church.

The Reverend John Berkley of the First United Methodist Church, Beeville, and the Reverend Ben Bohmfalk of the Ozona United Methodist Church officiated at the ceremony. Mrs. Billy Reagor sang Grieg's "I Love Thee", "Until", and the "Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Mrs. L. B. Cox, III on the organ. Other pre-nuptial music included two flute numbers played by Mrs. Roy A. Harrell, Jr., accompanied by Mrs. Cox who also played other traditional Christmas numbers.

Candlelighters were Jacinda Marley and Jana Lilly.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white velvet, floor-length gown designed and made by her aunt, Mrs. Bill Littleton of Abilene. The gown was trimmed with white mink and off-white Belgian lace. Lace appliques decorated the train and were enhanced with seed pearls. The bridal ensemble was completed by a white silk illusion, full-length veil trimmed with a white mink bandeau. She carried a bouquet of white rose buds and lilies on a mother-of-pearl Bible.

The attendants were Mrs. Roy A. Harrell, Jr. of Washington, D.C., sister-in-law of the bride, matron of honor; Miss Bonnie Boothe of Lubbock, cousin of the bride, maid of honor; and Miss Rachel Berkley of Beeville, bridesmaid. The attendants were dressed in floor-length, red velvet gowns and carried Colonial bouquets of mums and holly.

David Largent of San Angelo was best man and other groomsmen and ushers were Carl Conklyn of Houston, Roy A. Harrell, Jr., of Washington, D.C., Ray Boothe of Weatherford, Bill Dudley and Byrl Allen, both of Ozona. Elizabeth Harrell, neice of the bride, and Julie Hendrickson, cousin of the bride, were the ring bearer and flower girl respectively.

The mother of the bride wore a floor length forest green dress.

The wedding reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church following the ceremony and Mrs. George Russell furnished background music on the piano. Mrs. David Largent, cousin of the bride, presided at the bride's book. The guests were served bride's cake and bridegroom's cake with cranberry punch and coffee.

Other members of the House Party were Mrs. Bill Littleton of Abilene, Mrs. C. H. Baccus of Kerrville, Mrs. Dudley Ingham of San Angelo, Miss Mary Witherspoon of Chatfield, Mrs. B. B. Ingham, Mrs. J. W. Henderson, III, Mrs. Lowell Littleton, Mrs. P. L. Childress, Mrs. L. B. Cox, III, Mrs. Jim Dudley, Mrs. Lovella Dudley, Mrs. John Berkley, Mrs. Joe Bean, Mrs. W. D. Cooper, Mrs. Al Fields, Mrs. John Childress, Mrs. W. H. Whitaker, Mrs. Ben Bohmfalk, Mrs. Ted White, Mrs. Billy Reagor, Mrs.

Hunnicutt, all of Ozona and Mrs. James Cross, IV, of Leonard and Mrs. Chris Berger of Irving. Gail Hunnicutt, Janna Lilly, Jacinda and Jennifer Marley assisted in passing out rice bags.

After a wedding trip to San Antonio and New Orleans, the couple will be at home in St. Louis, Missouri.

A 1974 graduate of the University of Missouri at Columbia, Missouri, the bride was employed by the Gallup Independent, Gallup, New Mexico, and the San Angelo Standard Times. The bridegroom, a 1973 graduate of the Central Methodist University at Fayette, Missouri, is presently employed by the Rush Island Combustion Engineering Company, near St. Louis.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. T. Embury Jones of Cincinnati, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Short of Honolulu, Hawaii, Dr. and Mrs. Will Mathis Dunn of San Angelo, Dr. and Mrs. Donald E. Dedmond of Austin, Mrs. Roland Hudnall and Miss Mary Witherspoon of Chatfield, Mr. and Mrs. William Thau, Caroline, Billy and Jennifer of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Nesrta, San Angelo, and Mrs. H. B. Tandy, Georgetown.

To honor the bride-to-be a tea in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Henderson III was given on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 30. The house was beautifully decorated with red and white flowers, the bride's chosen colors. Hostesses were: Mrs. Henderson and her daughter, Mrs. Chris Berger, Mrs. George Russell and her daughter, Mrs. James Cross, IV, Mrs. W. H. Whitaker, Mrs. W. D. Cooper, Mrs. Al Fields, Mrs. C. E. Shiny, plump cranberries add sparkle to holiday celebrations as ingredients in punch, turkey stuffing, fruit salads and desserts. Americans have loved cranberries since the first Thanksgiving feast when Indians gave the bright red berries to the Pilgrims. Cranberries, harvested during fall and winter, are readily available all year frozen, canned, in jellies, whole or in juice form with or without added sugar. Recipes for many festive cranberry desserts are available in the "Christmas Time at Home" (B-254) bulletin, for 35 cents, from the local county Extension Office.

HOT'N SPICY CRANBERRY WASSAIL

1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon allspice
3 tablespoons tea
2-1/2 cups boiling water
1 pound can clear cranberry sauce

1-1/2 cups water
3/4 cup sugar
1/2 cup orange juice
1/4 cup lemon juice

Tie nutmeg, cinnamon, allspice and tea in a cloth bag. Put into 2-1/2 cups boiling water. Cover and steep 5 minutes. Beat cranberry sauce with mixer and heat with 1-1/2 cups water. Remove spice bag from steeped tea. Add sugar, hot cranberry liquid, orange and lemon juice. Serve hot. Serves 8 to 10.

LEMONADE-CRANBERRY PUNCH

4 6-ounce cans frozen lemonade concentrate
1/2 teaspoon salt

Combine ingredients and simmer gently for 15 minutes. Pour into punch bowl and serve in mugs with cinnamon sticks. Yield: 1 gallon

3 tablespoons white vinegar plus water to make 2/3 cup

1 teaspoon grated orange rind

Pheasant Hunting In West Texas

Mention pheasant to West Texas hunters and many immediately think of Kansas, Nebraska or the Dakotas. These states have long been recognized as prime pheasant hunting country and, over the years, many a Texan has been attracted here by the opportunity to hunt these gaudy game birds.

While that general area of the United States might still hold the reputation as being the ringneck pheasant capitol, Texans no longer have to travel so far or even purchase an out-of-state hunting license to participate in some pheasant hunting that is reported to be improving every year.

In 33 counties across the top of the Texas Panhandle, pheasant season will be open Dec. 13-28. These counties are still a good distance away for Trans-Pecos hunters, but they aren't nearly so far as Kansas or the Dakotas. And preseason reports indicate prospects are excellent for the coming season.

According to J. D. Peer, information officer for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department in the Panhandle, the latest pheasant counts indicate big increases in pheasant population and point to an excellent season.

Late summer surveys by P&WD personnel showed a 141 percent increase in pheasant population over 1974 figures. Good spring hatches and a mild summer got part of the credit for the big increase, but Peer also credits increased planting of grain and sun flower crops with assisting in the growing number of Panhandle ringnecks.

According to information compiled by Jack K. Parson, regional wildlife director for the Parks and Wildlife Department, the ringneck pheasant is a relative newcomer to the state. Before 1950 only a scattered few were found in the northwestern Panhandle. Those, it is believed, drifted into the state from Oklahoma, Kansas and Colorado. But, in the past 20 to 25 years, these original few have multiplied and spread. About five years ago, only 18 counties were credited with having huntable populations of ringnecks. Numerous pheasant releases by landowners, sportsmen and civic groups in that area are probably responsible for much of the increase and the spread of the pheasant population.

The ringneck is not a native North American bird, but one that was introduced to this country from China in the 1880s, first in Oregon and later in New Jersey. After the first successful introductions, private individuals and various states across the country began the rearing and release of pheasants. Many of these releases failed, but in areas that offered suitable habitat, the pheasant became established, gained a reputation as a highly popular gamebird and is one of this country's most successful game imports.

Pheasant releases in various other parts of Texas have met with limited success, including some releases of Afghanistan white-winged pheasants. Several releases of these birds, reportedly suited to more arid areas, were made in the Trans-Pecos area but, at best, seem to be only holding their own.

According to Peer, hunters can find pheasants in all the Panhandle counties that have open seasons but the best concentrations will be in areas of favorable habitat which include irrigated fields, grain fields, and where cover is provided by weeds and thistles. He reports that many landowners, before the season, were already burning or plowing heavy cover that is necessary for pheasant populations. Elimination of that cover should concentrate the birds even more when the season opens.

Peer points to the Dumas, Hereford-Dimmit-Friona and Plainview areas as three that should provide excellent pheasant hunting this season, but says that hunters should find birds anywhere in the 33-county area where the combined food and cover requirements are present.

Daily bag limit on pheasant this season will be two cocks and possession limit after the second day will be four cocks.

V. A. Ins. Should Be Up to Date

The Veterans Administration reminds five million veterans covered under its government life insurance program to make certain that beneficiaries on their policies are current.

The VA is obligated by law to pay insurance proceeds to the beneficiary of record. Most of the agency's insured are World War II veterans who carry National Service Life Insurance, A. A. Hunter, VA Regional Director, explained.

The problem of insurance benefits going to an unintended recipient generally arises where the veteran simply fails to change his beneficiary.

In a typical case, a veteran named his mother as beneficiary when he obtained his policy. Later the veteran married and overlooked the requirement to notify the VA of intended change in beneficiary. Unwarranted financial hardship often results, Hunter noted.

If in doubt as to current designation, veterans are urged to submit a change of beneficiary. Hunter also emphasized that lump sum payments only may be paid when so designated by the insured veteran.

Policy changes should be sent to the VA insurance center -- in Philadelphia or St. Paul, Minn. -- where the insured's premiums are paid. All requests should include policy number along with full name and address.

CONSERVE AND SAVE ON ELECTRIC COOKING

- ★ For best results, use flat bottom utensils with tight fitting covers. Utensils of medium or heavy weight aluminum conduct heat faster, transfer heat evenly and respond quickly to temperature changes.
- ★ Match the utensil to the size of the unit. Use 8 inch units for large utensils. Use 6 inch units for small to average sized pans.
- ★ Use high setting for a quick start for any surface cooking, or to boil water quickly. When cooking temperature is reached, switch to a lower setting.
- ★ Do not pre-heat the oven for roasting or broiling, but do pre-heat the oven to the temperature given in the recipe for baking.

A short time later the house was entered again and a black poodle was found drowned in the bath tub along with the scattered lingerie. The alarm was installed about two weeks ago, and Sunday night was the first time it alerted the officers and someone was found in the house.
