COOPER-POSEY SALE BREAKS ALL RECORDS

Hundreds of People Visit the Store on Opening Day of the Big Sale.

Cooper-Posey Company's mammoth fire sale, a two-page announcement of which appeared in the Courier last week, proved the biggest event of its kind happening in Crockett in many years; in fact, we cannot recall any sale held here in recent years, or ever held here, that created as much interest as was shown at the opening of this sale last Saturday.

This big sale was advertised to open at 8 o'clock Saturday morning, but an immense throng had assembled in front of the building long before that hour, and so eager were these people to secure some of the wonderful bargains offered that a special officer was stationed at the door, and when the opening time arrived only a sufficient number of bargain-seekers were admitted to fill the store, when the doors were again closed and the remainder of the crowd held on the outside until some of those within completed their purchases and departed, and then the doors were reopened and other purchasers admitted to take the places of those departing. Departing customers carried bundles and wore the happy smiles of satisfied holiday shoppers.

This procedure of letting some in while others passed out was kept up all day, and it was not until 5 o'clock in the afternoon that the doors could be opened and allowed to remain open. Although thirty extra sales people were employed to assist the regular sales force of the company, many prospective customers were compelled to go away without being waited on. A number of ladies who came in to buy, seeing so many others waiting to be served, volunteered their services and became sellers instead of buyers.

This great sale event was made possible by the speedy adjustment by the insurance companies of losses caused by the recent fire in the store of the Cooper-Posey Company which enabled them to place on the market damaged and slightly damaged articles at ridiculously low prices, and at the same time to take advantage of the opportunity to close out many other lines of merchandise, not damaged at all, at bargain prices.

An amusing incident of the day's business was related to a Courier representative by Mr. Posey as follows: A great number of damaged shoes had been placed in a heap on a table, and a price card erected in the center of the pile, informing the prospective buyer that those shoes could be obtained at the ridiculously low price of 10 cents a pair. A customer came upon this scene, and after viewing the immense heap of shoes and noting the price, meandered to the rear of the store, sought out the manager and accosted him as follows: "Say, boss, ain't you gwine ter gimme three for a quarter?"

This wonderful sale is still in progress, and numberless people are taking advantage of the hitherto unheard-of bargains being offered. The Cooper-Posey Company is to be congratulated on its success, as this promises to be the most outstanding sale event promoted in Crockett within the memory of the town's oldest citizens.

The season of holiday shopping is now on, and the Cooper-

BIG BROTHERS' CLUB ORGANIZED

In keeping with the spirit of the season and furthering a custom began last year at this time, a Big Brothers' Club was organized Wednesday at the Lions' Club with J. R. Herrin as its chairman and Rev. A. S. Lee and Dr. W. A. Beatty as the assisting committee. The organization is not confined to the Lions' Club, but is an independent organization started by some members of that club. The entire public is asked to become members. The initiation fee to membership in the Big Brothers' Club is whatever you wish to make as your contribution. Contributions will be received now by the committee, and as very little if any personal soliciting will be done, you are asked to give your contribution immediately to some member of the committee. The funds thus received by the Big Brothers' Club will be used in assisting the worthy needy at Christmas time and in making happy such children as would not otherwise perhaps be remembered. Make your contribution and if you know of any worthy needy, report them to the committee. Following is Knocked Down by Automobile.

Monday being show day, the town was full of people and automobiles, and it looked as if many accidents would happen. But only one accident was reported for the whole day. A negro boy dodged out from behind some standing cars and was knocked down by the fender of a passing car, only slight wounds being received. The boy was taken to a doctor's office where his wounds were examined and dressed, after which he was turned loose to enjoy the rest of the day. No blame was attached to any one for the accident.

Fat people may fib about their weight, but scales never do.

MAD DOG KILLED IN CROCKETT FRIDAY

A strange bird dog, believed to have hydrophobia, was killed in northeast Crockett Friday afternoon. The dog had acted suspiciously, first coming into the eastern part of town and fighting all the dogs on its way through the town. Passing through to the west side many more dogs were bitten, the mad dog leaving by the Huntsville road, but returning by another road. Passing back through town, it was finally killed in northeast Crockett. The head was taken from the dog and sent to the Pasteur institute at Austin for examination. Monday a telegram from the institute announced that the dog had hydrophobia. Some dogs bitten have been killed, others are under surveillance and some more will be killed. Valuable dogs and cattle may be sent to A. & M. College for Pasteur treatment by crating and expressing. The mad dog killed in Crockett came in over the east San Antonio road. It is said that the dog jumped into a man's automobile, but made no effort to bite him on being driven out.

You may come out on top, but bear in mind that the froth on a glass of beer does the same thing.

 As chairman of the Christmas sale of tuberculosis seals, Mrs. Pence, assisted by the teachers and pupils of the Crockett school, has sold in one week $41.15.

Mrs. Pence graciously offered her services and just as graciously, I am sure, the other teachers agreed to help her. Under the leadership of their teachers, the children have been enthusiastic salesmen. Our teachers assumed this, not that any glory might be theirs, but that they might help our children to become true citizens by being helpful to others less fortunate than themselves.

As county chairman, I thank the teachers and their pupils for helping to make it possible for Crockett to "go over the top."

ATTACKS BRING ARRESTS OF EIGHT

WOMEN ARE ASSAULTED AND ESCORTS SLUGGED TO DEATH.

Chicago, December 3.—Eight youths, ranging in age from 16 to 27, were held Wednesday in connection with a series of attacks on women on the South Side during recent months. Partial confessions were obtained, the police said.

In each case the women were kidnaped after their escorts were slugged. One of the victims, Mrs. Frances Palermo, married by her finance the next day, died three weeks later, supposedly from the effects of the attack.

Richard Fitzgerald, 16, one of the youths, was identified by one of the victims, the police said. Others who were attacked partially identified some of the rest, who were, Benjamin Canes, 18; Thomas McLaughlin, 18; Dennis Slater, 18; Harold Hawkins, 17; Peter Meegan, 19; George McMahon, 22; and Thomas Shields, 27. The band was responsible for more than 100 robberies since July. Joseph Savage, assistant prosecutor, said.

No Gold Is Found At Rainbow's End by Kids.

Wichita, Kan., Dec. 3.—No present of gold waited at the end of the rainbow path of adventure for Lewis Hoffman, Dorothy Leonhart and Hazel Hull, Wichita school children, who embarked on an argosy of their own in a small automobile stolen from their school teacher.

Rather, the rainbow path merely served to set the feet of the trio, none of whom is over 15 years old, on the cold rocky path of retribution.

The boy, Lewis Hoffman, faces probable prosecution for stealing the automobile which the trio drove to Kansas City on a joy ride. The girls are to undergo strict surveillance for the remainder of their schooling, education officials said.

The three drove the car to Kansas City. There, without money, and suffering from hunger, they decided to come back to Wichita for more money. Then they planned to set out for Kentucky.

Officers here, however, nipped their plans and the car was returned to its owner.

Missionary Notes.

The business of missions is said to be the greatest business in the world.

When one stops to think that the women of Southern Methodism alone support 153 missionaries in eight foreign fields; own more than three millions of dollars worth of property in foreign lands; that 174 deaconesses and home missionaries are being supported by the Methodist women, and a property value in the home land amounting to more than two million dollars; that mission schools both in the home and foreign fields are owned by the Southern Methodist missionary women, is it not conceded by everybody that the business of missions is indeed the greatest business in the world.

Following is a report of the Woman's Missionary Society of Crockett Methodist church for the year 1924 as sent to conference:

Sues for Divorce on Grounds His Wife Has Negro Blood.

New Rochelle, N. Y., Nov. 26.—Leonard Kip Rhinelander, scion of one of New York's wealthiest families, who married Miss Alice Jones of New Rochelle on Oct. 14, today filed suit in the Westchester County supreme court to annul the marriage. Rhinelander alleged that his wife concealed from him the fact that she had negro blood in her veins.

The papers were supported by an affidavit made by Rhinelander before a Kings County notary public.

The complaint declares that the "consent" of the plaintiff, Rhinelander, to the marriage "was obtained by fraud" and that the defendant, formerly Miss Jones, told Rhinelander "she was white and had no colored blood." Rhinelander, the complaint states, entered into marriage on the basis of such representations, which he has since discovered to be wholly untrue.

Rhinelander is 22 years old. He is the son of Philip Rhinelander, heir to a fortune of $100,000,000 in Manhattan real estate and a member of one of Manhattan's most exclusive families. His Huguenot ancestors settled in New Rochelle in the seventeenth century.

The marriage of Rhinelander did not become public until a month or so after it was performed by Mayor Harry Scott of New Rochelle.

ANCESTRY OF CHRIST.

Some may wonder why we have so many hard names in the first chapter of Matthew and in the third chapter of Luke and in the book of Chronicles. We keep our family record in our family Bibles. So the family record of Christ is kept in the genealogies in the Bible. God had promised that the Christ should be descended from Abraham (see Genesis 17th chapter) and from David (see II Samuel 7th chapter). The first chapter of Matthew shows God fulfilled his promise to Abraham and to David. The third chapter of Luke traces the ancestry of Jesus back to Adam. In some respects the genealogies of Matthew and Luke do not agree. One traces the ancestry of Jesus back from Joseph, the husband of Mary, and the other probably traces back from Mary herself. Where these genealogies do not agree the variance is not sufficient to throw doubt upon the truth of the Bible record. If these differences had been of a character to invalidate the record, the enemies of Christianity in the early days would have used that difference as an argument against Christ. The fact that the enemies of Jesus did not do this makes it evident that these differences were not vital to the truth of the inspired record. Matthew's genealogy shows the humiliation of Jesus as to his ancestors. One of these was Tamar. The record in Genesis shows that her son, Phares, was born of corruption. Another ancestor was Rahab who, before joining the Jews, was of the wicked Canaanites and of bad character. Another ancestor was Ruth. Her ancestor was Moab, a man born with a stain upon his character. See Genesis 19th chapter.

Another ancestor was Bath-Sheba, who was involved in David's crime. Rehoboam's mother (see I Kings, 14:31) was Naamah, an Ammonitess. Again see the stain handed down from Ammon, Genesis 19th chapter. Besides these ancestors of Jesus with blots on their families, note the fact that the ancestors of Jesus were not all pure Jews, but some drawn from Gentile nations. It was a humiliation to our Savior to be identified in his birth in his human nature with Adam's sinful race, and especially with such wicked characters as King Ahaz, and King Manasseh. Yet for our sakes, that he might take us from the pit of sin and exalt us to heaven, if we believe in him, he was willing to pass through the valley of humiliation, and in the lowest depths, by being put to death as a criminal on the shameful cross. What a debt of gratitude we owe him for what he endured for our sakes!

PUBLISHER'S NOTICE.

Obituaries, resolutions, cards of thanks and other matter not "news" will be charged for at the rate of 10c per line.

Parties ordering advertising or printing for societies, churches, committees or organizations of any kind will, in all cases, be held personally responsible for the payment of the bills.

In case of errors or omissions in legal or other advertisements, the publishers do not hold themselves liable for damage further than the amount received by them for such advertisement.

Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporation which may appear in the columns of the Courier will be gladly corrected upon its being brought to the attention of the management.

SUBSCRIPTION EXPIRATIONS.

Q.—Is there a U. S. Postal Department regulation which prohibits the publisher of a newspaper from sending papers to delinquent subscribers at second class mail rates? If so, will you please quote the rules which govern?

Ans.—Under "Subscription Expirations" on page 176 of "Newspaper Law," by W. W. Loomis, appears the following:

"Under the Postal Laws and Regulations, Section 419, paragraph 4, publishers may extend credit on subscriptions in order to give an opportunity of securing renewals for a period of one year from the date of expiration, but copies sent to persons after one year from the date of the expiration of their subscription, unless such subscriptions be expressly renewed for a definite time, together with an actual payment of subscription or a bona fide promise of payment, will not be accepted at the pound rate, but will be accepted at the transient second-class rate of one cent for each four ounces or fraction thereof, prepaid by stamps affixed."

It is evident this particular regulation of the post office is not very generally understood, due largely to the fact that postmasters are too busy to check up the publishers' lists, and they seldom want to make trouble for the local newspaper men. In this connection it is interesting to note that the government has brought suit against the publishers of the Taylorsville (Ill.) Daily Courier for $6,500 alleged to be due the post office for back postage. This suit was started following an audit of the publisher's books. He had paid

Christmas Will Be Merry

If You Give the Right Kind of Things

¶ In a modern hardware store, such as this one, you have an endless array of articles to select from. To describe them all would require an entire newspaper. But seeing is different, and likewise very easy. They are displayed so that they will be easy to inspect and we have clerks who will be more than willing to show you.

¶ We guarantee the quality and feel sure you will be satisfied with the price, because it is the lowest possible consistent with the value of the merchandise. There is always a rush at this store and a word to the wise should be sufficient.

Come Early!

Useful Gifts

There are so many useful gifts of practical value in this store that you can not afford to pass it by when you are on a Christmas shopping tour.

Kitchen utensils of various kinds that any housewife will take great pride in if she receives any one of them for Christmas. Handy tools for men that they will find of great value about the house

FOR BOYS, TOO

We have skates, bicycles, air rifles, basketballs, wagons, footballs, and other things that will delight the boys' hearts on Christmas morning.

postage at the second class rate instead of at the rate of one cent each paper as provided for when subscribers are in arrears. This is the first case of the kind that has ever been brought as far as can be learned, and if it goes against the publisher, it will be a lesson to other newspaper men who are careless in watching their subscription expiration dates. The case is set for trial at Springfield in January, 1925.

WHAT DO YOU WANT FOR CHRISTMAS?

The ever present problem at this time of the year is—What shall I give? It is to help you find a solution to this problem that the merchants of Crockett have taken more than ordinary care in choosing the offerings presented in their advertisements this week.

Christmas buying can be accomplished with so much greater ease and satisfaction by shopping early, and the merchants are displaying their holiday goods now that you may have ample time to make the selections you have in mind for Christmas before the shopping rush begins.

If possible make an early visit to the stores whose advertisements appear in this newspaper and let the many suggestions contained in this week's issue guide you in making your purchases.

Crockett merchants have made special preparations for the Christmas trade and they are more than anxious to satisfy your holiday wants in every particular.

The motto of the flapper appears to be, "First come, first kissed."

Recommendations Are Presented to the Lawmakers.

Washington, Dec. 3.—President Coolidge advised congress in his annual message Wednesday that perhaps the most important work it could do at its present session would be to practice such economy as to make possible a reduction of taxes for the next fiscal year.

"The government can do more to remedy the economic ills of the people by a system of rigid economy in public expenditure," he said, "than can be accomplished through any other action."

Although stressing economy, Mr. Coolidge presented a wide range of other recommendations, some new and others reiterations of proposals made a year ago in his first annual message.

Most of these related to domestic affairs, but the president went into the field of international relations to renew his plea for American adherence to the permanent court of international justice; to declare the United States not to be disposed to join the league of nations; to appeal for support by public authorities and private citizens for the European reparations settlement plan, and to repeat his declaration of opposition to cancellation by the United States of the debts owed the country by foreign nations.

Asks to Know How a Justice of the Peace Acts.

Austin, Tex., Dec. 7.—"How to Be a Justice of the Peace" will be the title of a ruling by Attorney General W. A. Keeling to an East Texas man who has just been elected to that office. "I want your advice," this new justice wrote Keeling. "I asked the lawyers how much bond I should give.

"Two or three farmers will do," they told me. I asked them what books I should get. "Don't get any," they said, explaining that the lawyers will furnish the books and the state will furnish a docket and the constitution. So please give all the information you can."

Music a Feature.

The feature of entertainment at the Lions' Club luncheon Wednesday was the singing by two members of Mrs. Robert D. Allen's voice class. Miss Eva Mae Satterwhite and Miss Bessie Louise Patton each sang a solo, with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Allen. A duet was then sung by Misses Satterwhite and Patton, Mrs. Allen accompanying. Appreciative encoring was given following each rendition. Lions cannot eat without good music, and they did justice to their feed Wednesday, notwithstanding they were threatened with a song by Harry Trube and only saved by his forgetfulness in not bringing a lemon. He had also left his notes locked in his safe, and could not sing without them.

In order to have a past you can be proud of, you have to go out and make it in the present.

Music a Feature.

The feature of entertainment at the Lions' Club luncheon Wednesday was the singing by two members of Mrs. Robert D. Allen's voice class. Miss Eva Mae

Satterwhite and Miss Bessie Louise Patton each sang a solo, with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Allen. A duet was then sung by Misses Satterwhite and Patton, Mrs. Allen accompanying. Appreciative encoring was given following each rendition. Lions cannot eat without good music, and they did justice to their feed Wednesday, notwithstanding they were threatened with a song by Harry Trube and only saved by his forgetfulness in not bringing a lemon. He had also left his notes locked in his safe, and could not sing without them.

In order to have a past you can be proud of, you have to go out and make it in the present.

The older a man gets, the younger the young people seem to be.

Football is brutal to everyone who doesn't enjoy seeing it played.

Anyway, balloon tires are an easier target for prohibition agents to hit.

Blessed is the man who invented interest, but most people like it served without taxes.
