FOOT BALL GAMES TO FURNISH INTEREST IN WEEK'S SPORTS

S. M. U., A. & M. and Texas Meet Strong Teams; Inter-sectional Tilts.

By Brewer Bennett.

A. & M. continued to hammer weaker rivals last week by defeating Southwestern Friday 23 to 6. Southwestern led at the end of the first half, due to a fumble, 6 to 3, but could not hold the Farmer backs in the last half. Lee Lehmborg played center for the Pirates. Carl Reynolds was unable to play.

The Aggies face possible, if not probable, defeat Saturday when she meets Sewanee at the state fair opening. A. & M. triumphed in 1923 by a 14 to 0 score; last season it was 7 to 0. Sewanee improved wonderfully after losing this battle last year and closed her season by defeating Vanderbilt 16 to 0. This year she has what is considered the best in the old south, swamping Tennessee last week 53 to 0. The Tigers have a versatile attack, with great passing. Either team has a chance to win, and a great and colorful battle is assured.

Texas showed up well in beating Mississippi Saturday 25 to 0, Max Saxton featuring the Longhorn play. Texas Saturday faces Vanderbilt at Nashville. The dope favors the Commodores, even though Vandy lost her powerful line and Fullback Tommy Ryan, yet a Longhorn triumph is far from impossible. Stewart has a great young backfield with a good line. Vandy beat Henderson-Brown, a second-rate team, 41 to 0 last week, which gives no comparison. Texas beat Vandy 16 to 0 in 1923, but no game was played last year.

T. C. U. showed nothing Saturday in beating Daniel Baker 12 to 0. The Frogs made no attempt at running up a score. At the same time Baylor was lumbering through a 20 to 6 win over Denton Normal. Neither team takes the field again until they meet at the fair Tuesday in the first conference game of the season. Baylor must show better form if she is to beat the Horned Frogs, who always open strong, and who at least know how they expect to line up. Baylor is due to win by a close score.

Rice beat Sam Houston Saturday by a 7 to 0 margin, scoring in the closing minutes of the game. Whether Sam Houston is stronger, and Rice weaker, than expected, or whether Heisman held back the Owls is unknown. The Owls will have even a tougher T. I. A. A. club to face Saturday in Trinity. The Tigers ran over Arlington Junior A. & M. Friday 55 to 0, and should show an offensive, as well as a strong defensive, against Rice. The Owls, of course, should win on straight football.

Arkansas opened last Saturday by losing to Iowa 26 to 0, but should win from Oklahoma Baptist college Saturday with ease. The Baptists should serve, however, as a good test for the Hogs before they open their conference schedule.

S. M. U. used three teams in beating Abilene Christian 52 to 7, and showed good reserve strength. Their first real test will come Friday at Dallas against the Washington Pikers from St. Louis. The Pikers held the strong Drake squad to one touchdown Saturday, and may desert their place as the doormat of the valley conference. The Mustangs would take a great delight in beating the Pikers by a good score, and doubtlessly they will. Higgins, the Piker mentor, was coach at West Virginia Wesleyan last year, and the Mustangs still remember the game the Mountaineers won New Years day 9 to 7.

Howard Payne fell before Centenary last week 20 to 0, and will probably be off form against San Marcos Teachers Friday at Brownwood. The Bob Cats beat Stephen F. Austin Saturday 12 to 0 at Nacogdoches. Howard Payne won last year 32 to 6 and should be a close winner this season.

Southwestern should win Friday at Georgetown against Dallas university, but Kitts' team may beat the Pirates. The Hill-toppers beat Meridian Saturday 48 to 7.

Canyon Normal plays Abilene Christians at Abilene Saturday and should win, but the game should be close.

Daniel Baker has Sul Ross Normal at Brownwood Saturday and should win.

Austin College beat Commerce Normal 28 to 3 last week. The Kangaroos meet the Texas Tech Matadors at Lubbock Saturday. Tech played a scoreless tie with McMurray last week and will doubtless hold Austin to a close score, though she can hardly hope to beat the Kangaroos.

Stephen F. Austin meets Lon Morris this week. Lon Morris beat the Teachers 3 to 0 last year, but the Lumberjacks are due to win this game.

St. Edwards should win with ease from the Arlington Aggies at Austin Saturday.

Sam Houston meets Commerce Teachers Friday at Huntsville and is due to win. The Bear Kats won last year 13 to 12.

Clarendon plays New Mexico Military Institute this week.

Tulane tied Missouri last Saturday 6 to 6, and will probably beat Mississippi by two or more touchdowns Saturday.

Big Ten teams play this week as follows: Butler at Illinois; Indiana at Michigan; Ohio at Chicago; Grinnell at Minnesota; Depauw at Purdue; S. Dakota U. at Wisconsin.

Missouri valley teams play as follows: Kansas at Ames; Oklahoma A. & M. at Oklahoma U.; Kansas Aggies at Drake; Missouri at Nebraska.

Other games of interest are: Beloit at Notre Dame; Iowa at St. Louis; Alabama at L. S. U.; Georgia Tech vs. Penn State at New York; Georgia at Yale; Pennsylvania at Brown; Pittsburg at W. Virginia; Marquette at Naval Academy.

Results last week included: Lafayette 20, Pittsburg 9. Wabash 13, Purdue 7. Wisconsin 30, Iowa State 0. Michigan 39, Michigan Aggies 0.

Army 31, Detroit 6. Nebraska 14, Illinois 0. Kansas 13, Oklahoma A. & M. 3.

Butler 6, Depauw 6. Minnesota 25, N. Dakota 6. Simmons 16, S. W. Okla. Normal 0.

Georgia Tech 33, V. M. I. 0. Virginia 7, Georgia 6. L. S. U. 38, S. W. La. 0. Kansas A. & M. 16, Oklahoma 0.

Notre Dame 69, Lombard 0. Northwestern 14, S. Dakota 7. Auburn 13, Clemson 6. Chicago 9, Kentucky 0. Tennessee Medics 19, King 14. Sul Ross 16, Randolph 0.

Bumgarner-Culley.

Miss Addie Bumgarner was married to Mr. E. M. Culley of Ratcliff at the bride's home in this city Sunday morning, Rev. A. S. Lee, the Baptist pastor, officiating. The bride has a host of friends here and elsewhere. She was a member of the Grapeland high school faculty last year, and besides attending high school here, was a student for several terms at Sam Houston State Teachers' College. The groom has a host of friends throughout the county. He is cashier of the Ratcliff State bank. They will make their home at Ratcliff. The Courier joins their many friends in wishing them a long and happy married life.

COTTON RECEIPTS AND SHIPMENTS AT CROCKETT STATION

The Crockett warehouse had weighed 13,788 bales of the 1925 cotton crop up to Tuesday noon. The records show that through October 6, 1924, the warehouse had received 11,092 bales. This year is therefore around 2,700 ahead of last season to the same date.

The Crockett railroad station has shipped about 13,600 bales of the 1925 crop. Of this amount about 3,500 bales was shipped direct from the platform, without being weighed at the warehouse. Total cotton brought to Crockett is therefore about 17,250 bales, or about the same amount as was received here during the whole of the 1924 cotton season. It is now estimated that the Houston county cotton crop will exceed 30,000 bales this year.

HOUSTON COUNTY DISTRICT COURT IS TO START MONDAY

The fall term of district court will open on Monday, Judge Ben F. Dent presiding. Civil cases that require no jury will be taken up the first week of court.

The grand jury will meet Monday, also. The list of those drawn for grand jury has been published in previous issues of the Courier. This week the Courier is printing a list of those drawn for petit jury service during the various weeks that court will be held. The docket is expected to be very light during the term.

Model Communications.

The Courier has two more model communications this week—one from Conner Creek and the other from the San Pedro community. We are wondering why we cannot have just such a communication from every community in Houston county. Send 'em in.

TO FILL AMERICAN JUNIOR RED CROSS CHRISTMAS BOXES

No single project financed through the national children's fund has been more far-reaching in its effects, both at home and abroad, than the sending of small gift boxes by the girls and boys of the American Junior Red Cross to be distributed at Christmas to the children of other lands and in our insular territories.

In order to secure the greatest benefit from this enterprise, it should be made a school project in which all the pupils participate under teacher guidance. It is full of educational value. The boxes should be filled in the schoolroom and not be given out to pupils to be filled at home.

The cartons measure only 9x4x3 inches and should be filled at very small expense. Simple toys or other articles made by the children as a part of their daily work in class are greatly desired. If this is not possible or desirable the following articles are suggested as satisfactory: Rag or celluloid doll, hair ribbon, handkerchiefs, sewing outfits, bags, pencils, puzzles, rubber balls, small toys, marbles, tops, games, whistles, crayons and mouth organs.

If desired, a card with no postage attached, addressed to the school filling the carton, may be enclosed as a means of securing acknowledgment from abroad.

No clothing, other than the articles listed above, acceptable. No candy, fruit, nuts, cake or food of any kind, nor perfume, liquids, etc., likely to spill or run, may be put in the box.

Articles too large to go in the cartons furnished cannot be accepted.

There has been some complaint in the past that soiled hair-rib-

Goes to Washington.

Mrs. L. Meriwether will leave this week for Washington to reside with her sons, Elwyn and Yancey, and be near her other son, Lewis, who is in New York. She takes the best wishes of Crockett people with her.

bons and handkerchiefs, torn or dirty books, broken toys and other objectionable articles have been placed in the cartons, causing embarrassment to the Junior Red Cross and marring the spirit and purpose back of the gift boxes. In the light of this, make every effort to provide adequate supervision of the contents of the boxes filled in your schools.

Care should be exercised to see that a box is not packed until it bulges, as this makes packing in shipping cases very difficult.

Cartons should be delivered to local Red Cross chapter so as to reach New York not later than October 25 to insure distribution at Christmas time. The countries and insular chapters to which the gift boxes will be sent are: Albania, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Belgium, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, Roumania, Danzig, Switzerland, Austria, Hungary, Jugo-Slavia, Poland, Greece, Porto Rico, Virgin Islands and Haiti.

Boxes cannot be accepted for specially designated countries, packing and distributing facilities here and abroad making this impossible.

Antoinette Alschier.

MAY BE ONLY TWO IN RACE FOR GOVERNOR

"Ma"—Managed by Jim—and Lynch Davidson Will Be Only Entries.

Austin, September 26.—A two-handed battle royal for the gubernatorial honors in 1926, with Lynch Davidson of Houston and Jim Ferguson, knight errant for Mrs. Ferguson, the two contestants, seems in the offing. With Lee Satterwhite, Whit Davidson, Eugene Blount and half a dozen other possible candidates out of the way and with the announcement of Wizard Evans that the clan will not take part in the race, the field rapidly is being narrowed down to only two candidates.

The County Fair.

The county fair that is in progress this week is being fostered by the extension department, but not primarily for the extension department. The object of its promoters is to encourage better farming in this county and solicit the assistance of those agencies which have in their power the motive force that it takes to make an affair of this nature a real success in that it will reach the unorganized communities as well as the organized. A county fair is excellent in its influence upon the populace of a community only by its religious and educational institutions. It is the opinion of the writer that a project like a county fair commanding the attention and interest of the business resources of a town will in turn be the means of paving a highway to the center of commercial activities and promote a more stable opinion in the minds of the people who are growing the crops to remain where they are and provide for themselves the necessities of life. The vastness of the proposition of conducting a fair by a few has strained their vision and led them into the knowledge of the fact that they are incapacitated to push it forward without the organized forces of the business interests behind it.

H. C. Langrum,
Colored Farm Agent.

Now for Winter Greens.

Turnips, of course, is the leader of the winter greens. It has a more delicate flavor and is better liked than any other. Plant it in October.

A liberal supply of turnips should be planted early.

Some fellows never stray from the straight and narrow path; they just bolt.

GRANDSON OF DAVY CROCKETT ACCEPTS THE INVITATION

Will Meet With Lions' Club and Citizens of Crockett At Early Date.

Granbury, Texas,
October 4, 1925.

Mr. A. A. Aldrich,
Crockett, Texas.

My Dear Mr. Aldrich: I am pleased to acknowledge your kind letter of September 30, conveying an invitation on behalf of the Lions' Club of your city to visit you at some future time. I will be only too glad to meet with your citizens right soon and form the acquaintance of those who feel interested. I am a native-born citizen of this section of Texas, but have never traveled very extensively, and therefore have never visited your section of the state. I will, indeed, be pleased to see that part of Grand Old Texas, whose every foot of soil seems sacred to me.

I will write you again when to expect me.

Very sincerely,
Ashley W. Crockett.

It is hoped by Judge Aldrich, who is president of the Crockett's Lions' Club, that this will be the initial move toward the erection of a memorial statue in honor of the first citizen, patriot and soldier, David Crockett, for whom our city is so fittingly named, Crockett having camped here for several days on his way to San Antonio and the Alamo, where he gave his life in defense of the Texas republic. It is said that his camp was near where the waterworks pumping plant is now located.

DOES NOT EXPECT A CALLED SESSION

Kennard, Texas,
October 5, 1925.

Crockett Courier,
Crockett, Texas.

Mr. Editor:

Please advise the people that I do not anticipate a called session of the legislature to deal with the foot and mouth disease in the coast country. This matter can be attended to at the next regular session of the legislature and save the tax payers approximately two hundred thousand dollars. I have wired Mrs. Ferguson recommending this action which already has her approval. I made no pledge binding myself to appropriate money before I am re-elected to the next legislature because I did not think it right, but of course if the state borrows money to reimburse cattlemen it will be honor bound to meet the obligation when due.

Chas. C. Rice.

Death of Belott Citizen.

Mr. J. S. Cook, a long-time resident of the Belott community, died at the home of his son in this city, Mr. Grady Cook, Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock, following a protracted siege of illness. The deceased is survived by his wife, sons and daughters. Funeral services were held Monday and interment occurred in the cemetery near Augusta. Besides farming, Mr. Cook was engaged in the mercantile business at Belott for a number of years. Whatever the undertaking, he was a hard-worker and always a good citizen.

Buy Filling Station.

Allee & Murray have bought the Leathers Filling Station from Buck Leathers, which they have been operating since October 1. The business will be known as the Texas Service Station.

WOULD EXTEND TEXAS RAILWAY

TRINITY & SABINE WANTS TO BUILD FROM WELDON TO WACO.

Washington, Oct. 1.—In submitting to the Interstate Commerce Commission Tuesday an application for permission to extend the Waco, Beaumont, Trinity & Sabine Railway from Weldon, Houston county, to Waco, a distance of 109 miles, Col. R. C. Duff of Houston, president of the company, called attention to the agreement between the Katy and the State of Texas, that the Waco extension would be made. The obligation to build the line was inherited by Col. Duff when he took over the Beaumont & Great Northern and the Trinity & Sabine Lines, dropped by the Katy in its reorganization. It grew out of the $100,000,000 penalty suit brought by the Attorney General of Texas against the Katy and was stipulated in the Travis county judgment.

Following acquisition of the two properties, now making up the Waco, Beaumont & Sabine, Col. Duff obtained authority from the Texas Legislature to consolidate the railroads on condition that the terms of the Travis County judgment would be carried out. The Texas agreement is not offered in the petition before the Interstate Commerce commission as being of binding force here, but rather to show the good faith of Col. Duff and his associates in carrying his combined line into the heart of Texas.

The road now operates from Livingston to Weldon and from Trinity to Colmesneil, a total distance of 114 miles. Prior authority was granted by the commission for extension of the road from Livingston to Beaumont and construction of a belt line in the latter city. The commission denied Col. Duff authority to build from the southeastern limits of Beaumont to West Port Arthur, and marine facilities line between Port Neches and Port Arthur. The construction of this line was vigorously opposed by the Kansas City Southern.

Col. Duff now asks authority to carry out the judgment of the Texas District Court by building west from Weldon through Houston, Madison, Leon, Limestone, Falls and McLennan Counties to Waco. The company would construct its own mileage unless trackage arrangements into Waco can be obtained from the International-Great Northern beginning at Mart, or from from the Katy and Cotton Belt and use their facilities in Waco.

The importance of a direct line or railroad from the Waco district to Gulf tidewater is outlined in the application, showing that it would penetrate one of the most productive sections of the state, and would comprise a short line from the center of Texas to the Port Arthur district. The growth of Texas traffic will require commerce to use all of the Texas Gulf ports, Col. Duff says in his petition, and points out that the Beaumont-Port Arthur waterway has natural advantages that do not exist with any other Gulf port. The proposed line would serve the public convenience and necessity, being from the Beaumont-Port Arthur district directly to the Texas interior, and over territory not served by lines to any other Gulf port.

About the only thing automobiles now need is a piece of equipment for swearing at pedestrians who get in the way.

TEXAS TALK.

The state highway commission isn't going to strengthen itself in public confidence by such tactics as its chairman employed at Austin Friday.

County Judge Chester H. Bryan, who met the highway commission's challenge by securing an offer from a reputable contractor to do highway maintenance in this county at a saving of nearly 50 per cent over the Sherman & Youmans contract, was ready to witness the signature of the new agreement.

Haden & Austin, with a certified check for $10,000, were ready to sign the contract on the same specifications which appear on the minutes of the highway commission at Austin as having governed the Sherman & Youmans contract.

But Chairman Frank V. Lanham demanded what no sane man would do—he demanded that Haden & Austin sign a contract to which no specifications were attached; and he brought into the limelight a mysterious "supplemental agreement" which he said Sherman & Youmans had signed.

He failed to produce this agreement at Judge Bryan's request, declaring that it had "been sent to Houston." Apparently there were no copies available in Austin and no records on the minutes of the highway commission to show what it was. At any rate, the Houston men's request that they be given copies met with refusal.

The original contract, as shown on the minute books of the commission, provides that one-half gallon of asphalt shall be placed on each square yard of surface and one cubic yard of limestone to every 66 square yards of surface, according to the Associated Press account of the meeting.

The Associated Press quotes Mr. Lanham as follows: "When Sherman & Youmans submitted its proposition to us, I demanded that a supplemental agreement be drawn up after the contract was first awarded.

This supplemental agreement provides Sherman & Youmans shall 'carry out this work in a workmanlike manner, subject to the approval of the highway commission.' In other words, the commission will see to it that first class work is done, and we don't care whether a cubic yard of limestone serves for 10 square yards of surfacing or for 100 square yards."—Houston Post-Dispatch.

50,000-Acre Game Preserve in Dallas County.

Fifty thousand connected acres in one body lying in the northeast corner of Dallas county has been declared a State preserve territory and hunting will be prohibited in the area for a period of five years, declares Turner E. Hubby, state game, fish and oyster commissioner.

Provisions have already been made for the appointment of two deputy game wardens to aid in the protection of quail and other game birds with which the reserve is to be stocked.

Every one of the 194 landowners of the 50,000 acres in Dallas county have signed and filed with the state game commissioner a pledge to prohibit hunting of any character on their lands for five years and to allow planting of quail and other game birds. They also agree to protect the birds and assist in the prosecution of all persons found hunting on the restricted territory.

HOUSTON COUNTY SCHOOL TEACHERS

(Special to Courier.)

Fort Worth, Texas, Oct. 1.—Mrs. Bertie Sallas of Crockett, superintendent of Houston county schools, has reported the enrollment of 122 teachers of that county in the Texas State Teachers' Association. Mrs. Sallas expects within a few days to enroll every teacher of the county. This is one of the largest single groups to be reported this year. Enrollment in the association this year is the largest in the history of the organization, and the total enrollment is expected to run more than 25,000. Mrs. Sallas last year made Houston county 100 per cent in this respect.

Plans for the annual convention of the Texas State Teachers' Association, which will be held in Dallas, November 26, 27 and 28th, are about complete. Attendance is expected to run more than 10,000. Prominent educators from all sections of the United States will discuss outstanding school needs of Texas. Houston county will be largely represented in the association convention.

Conner Creek News.

Editor Courier:

We have had a moderate rain since our last writing, which was very welcome. A number of wells in the community had begun to fail.

The writer has had occasion to think of and enumerate some of the advantages of being a resident of this community. Here we have the advantage of a designated highway, which connects us with the old San Antonio road at Crockett, and which gives us an outlet over the highways to Lufkin, Nacogdoches, Alto, Rusk, Jacksonville, Tyler, Dallas and other points that can be reached from the above named points.

We have a school and church as good as any small community can boast of. Outside of these, we have a society of our own which is unmarred by scandal.

Our resources are good—second to none. We feel that people, who are contemplating a change of locality, would be wise in giving us the once over, and we extend to them a very hearty welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Tatom, their little daughter Artie and Misses Edith and Johnnie Ainsworth were at Nacogdoches Sunday.

Messrs Porter Payne, Henry Dowdy and D. H. Blackmon were at Crockett on business Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Q. Anderson were at Crockett Saturday.

B. B. Anderson marketed another truck load of watermelons in Crockett Saturday.

Mr. Geo. Dowdy marketed cotton in Alto Wednesday.

Mr. Wendal Anderson made several trips to Crockett with cotton this week. Sol.

Practically every ant in the United States enjoyed at least one picnic last summer.

In judging others, we generally condemn ourselves.

HOUSTON COUNTY IN FIFTEENTH PLACE

The department of commerce, through the bureau of the census, has made public the preliminary report of cotton ginned by counties in Texas, prior to September 16, 1925. Prior to September 16, Houston county had ginned 25,225 bales, as compared with 13,150 bales ginned prior to September 16, 1924.

Houston county held fifteenth place among Texas counties, having been passed by five counties since September 1. Of the 251 Texas counties, the report gives the ginning of 163 counties, 88 counties producing little, or no cotton. Fifteen counties had ginned more than 25,000 bales each prior to September 16, as follows:

Hidalgo, 54,312.
Cameron, 43,678.
Hunt, 36,295.
Fort Bend, 34,081.
Navarro, 33,802.
Nueces, 33,697.
Kaufman, 32,495.
Lamar, 31,842.
Smith, 30,617.
Rusk, 29,920.
Wharton, 29,890.
Fannin, 29,721.
Ellis, 29,047.
Collin, 27,697.
Houston, 25,225.

Texas has 246 counties with less cotton than has Houston county and only 14 counties with more cotton.

Good Vegetable Market.

Edmiston Brothers have recently received and distributed to Crockett merchants two solid carloads of mixed vegetables from Colorado. This is in addition to large shipments daily by express and freight, received by local merchants.

The long drouth has prevented growing of summer and fall truck patches, and a large demand is created for shipped-in vegetables. Folks must eat to live, and some people live to eat, so vegetables must be had.

Going to Nacogdoches.

Mr. Peyton Tunstall has sold his farm on the San Antonio highway, 8 or 9 miles southwest of Crockett, and will move to Nacogdoches county. He sold to Strat Richards, who lives on Campbell's hill, 3 miles east of Crockett. We regret to see Mr. Tunstall leave Houston county but wish him good luck wherever he should locate.

HOUSTON COUNTY TAX SEASON OPEN

Tax collections for 1925 began October 1. Several taxpayers were on hand early to settle their tax accounts. R. F. McCrummen, deputy tax collector, informs the Courier that the first week of tax-paying has been unusually active. The taxable values of Houston county are set at $8,100,010 for the year on which taxes are now being paid.

During the year 1925 Houston county people have registered 2161 automobiles and 298 trucks, a total of 2459 motor vehicles.

Tax Collector John L. Dean is collecting taxes at the various towns of the county this week, for the convenience of tax payers.

Saturday evening at the home of Miss Willie Brashers there was given a "forty-two party" in honor of the graduating class of San Pedro high school. Members of the class present were: Messrs Chester Tyer and Earl Hollis and Misses Emma Lou Cutler and Cleavie Belle Tyer and Willie Brashers. The other guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Lonzie Tyer, Mrs. W. HE'S KIDDING HIMSELF ON ADVERTISING VALUE.

The above heading appeared over the following article in one of the papers issued in a Chicago suburb:

"A Berwyn business man approached on the proposition of advertising his store in this paper the other day made the statement that advertising didn't pay and that three-fourths of the money spent on advertising was wasted.

"Efforts to find out how much money he spent on program and other advertising grafts, a number of which are worked in every town in the country every year were futile, but it wasn't difficult to assure the non-advertiser that if he'd spend his money in newspaper advertising and give a little attention to the proper preparation of his copy, the money so spent would not be wasted but would return to him many times in increased sales.

"The same merchant, when asked what kind of a suit he had on said it was a '_____'. He was asked what brand of shoes he wore and immediately said that they were '_____ shoes. He stated without hesitation that his shirt was an '_____ brand and that he always wore a '_____ hat.

"Why does he wear those things and why was he able to tell us the names of the brands so readily? Simply because they're all advertised the length and breadth of the nation.

"Articles on this merchant's shelves were examined and in almost every instance they were from manufacturing concerns who advertise their products constantly in every conceivable way.

"The merchant said that his customers called for this article and for that one, quite frequently. When asked why his customers wanted things made by certain companies, the merchant replied that he supposed they had used them before and found them to be worth the money. All of which is true, but it's a safe bet that the first time they tried an article, they did so because they read the manufacturer's description of it in an advertisement and that after purchasing they found the article exactly as advertised and through truthful advertising became satisfied customers.

"Yet this merchant says he doesn't believe in advertising and that money so spent is wasted.

"He's kidding himself at his own expense and doesn't know it."

Right now every home gardener should put in some lettuce and cabbage. If set now and properly handled, these will mature in time for use during late fall and early winter.

Now is the time to plant seed for producing winter greens. Plant collards.

NEW STATE FAIR AUDITORIUM

Here's the new Fair Park Auditorium, located within the grounds of the State Fair of Texas at Dallas. It will be dedicated at the 1925 State Fair, Oct. 10-25, with the showing of "Sky High," a Broadway musical comedy success, which will come to the State Fair directly from New York. "Sky High" is a Shubert production, and will be given at Dallas under the personal direction of J. J. Shubert, with Willie Howard, the famous comedian, and the original company of 108.

ROAD MATERIAL TESTS ON LINCOLN HIGHWAY.

Three thousand lineal feet of the Lincoln highway immediately west of South Bend, Indiana, is to be used for the first real test of road building materials on this great national thoroughfare. Equal sections each of asphaltic concrete, sheet asphalt, emulsified asphalt, Kentucky rock asphalt, penetration macadam and reinforced concrete will be laid down. Careful check will be made as to wearing quality of the different materials.

Contracts have been awarded as follows: 500 feet each of asphalt concrete and sheet asphalt at $1.43 and $1.57 per square yard respectively; 500 feet of emulsified asphalt at $1.15 a square yard; 500 feet each of Kentucky rock asphalt and penetration macadam at $1.40 and $1.10 per square yard respectively; 500 feet of reinforced concrete at $2.15 a square yard.

Taxpayers demand a road that will give a maximum amount of wear for a reasonable expense, as there are tens of thousands of miles of road awaiting paving in this nation.

No Crawfishing Here.

It is a violation of the city's ordinances to back an automobile out of any parking space on Court House square. The city has, in keeping with its ordinances, had some signs put up at the curbing around the square, the signs containing the words, "Don't Back Out." It was David Crockett's motto to "Be sure you're right and then go ahead." The signs are also in keeping with the motto of the patriot and soldier in whose honor our city was named. Besides, who wants to be a crawfish? "Be sure you are right and then go ahead," but "don't back out!"

Auto Hints.

Good motorists acquire the habit of silent shifting. They have the "feel" that enables them to change quickly and without a dangerous crashing of gears. Practice makes perfect. Slow up for all turns in the road. Blind corners are dangerous. When it is impossible to see what is coming from around the corner, be prepared to stop. Sound horn a short distance before the corner. If a car has a tendency to slow down near the top of the hill, the gasoline pipe may be clogged just enough to cut down the supply when the throttle is wide open. If the pipe is not cleaned out the clogging will get worse, until the engine may not run at all. The filter in the top of the gasoline tank also should be cleaned out.

Several bars in Tia Juana burned. Dry liquor makes good tinder.

Cider improves with age. But the good usually dies young.

45,000 FRENZIED BASEBALL FANS SEE BASEBALL GAME

Pittsburgh, Oct. 7.—The great right arm of Walter Johnson repulsed the Pittsburgh Pirates Wednesday in their first bold bid to board the world's championship baseball craft now manned by Washington's gallant and seasoned battlers.

Before a hometown crowd of 45,000 that filled every nook and cranny of Forbes field, the Pirates fell before the masterful strokes of "old Barney" while his Senator mates pounded out a decisive 4 to 1 triumph in the first clash of the 1925 series conflict.

Striking out 10 of the bold Buccaneers and twirling with superb coolness and effectiveness in every crisis, Johnson held the National league champions to five scattered blows—one of them a booming home run by Traynor—while Joe Harris, Sam Rice and Ossie Bluege led an attack that accomplished the downfall of Lee Meadows, bespectacled veteran, and also found its mark against the curves of "Jughandle" Johnny Morrison, who took the mound in the ninth after Meadows had given way to a pinch hitter.

They once called it the fox trot and now it looks like the fox chase.

True Christian piety does not require the services of a loud speaker.

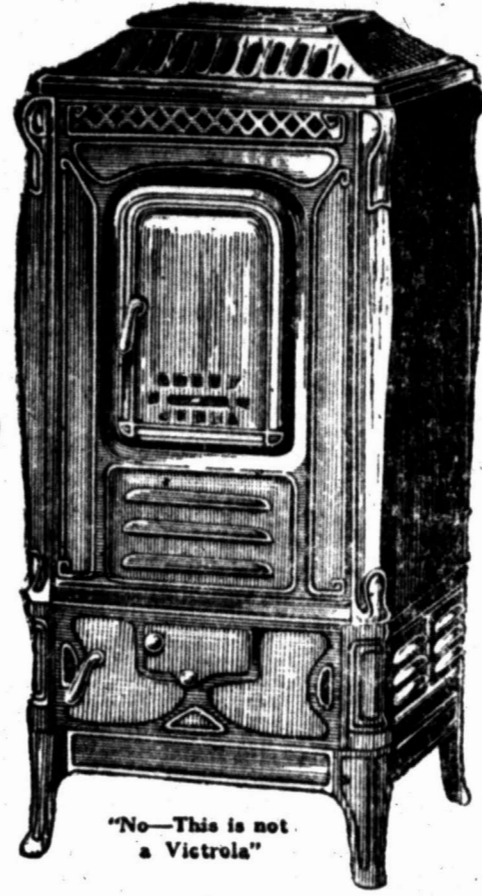

Men who take things seriously generally get away with them.

Youngest Entrant State Fair Rodeo

Fred M. Clancey, Jr., a youngster who is attracting much attention at the Northern rodeos with his clever roping and trick riding, will be one of the entrants in the State Fair of Texas rodeo, Oct. 18 to Oct. 25 inclusive. He is the eldest son of "Fog Horn" Clancey, and a few years ago got his name in the papers because of his mysterious disappearance from home. They found him after a week or so, on an Oklahoma ranch. His love for the great open spaces had been a lure too strong. He had joined up with the cowboys during a big round-up.

SUPPORT THE FAIRS.

The fairs of Texas deserve the support of all the people of the state. The county, the district, and state-wide fairs should be liberally supported. These fairs are conducted for the benefit of Texas by unselfish men and women whose only compensation is the satisfaction of seeing their counties and state grow.

These fairs are primarily educational institutions and thousands of our most progressive farmers and ranchmen should select and prepare attractive and worthwhile exhibits for one or more fairs this fall. The agricultural exhibits must compete with the amusement features of the fairs for public attention and interest, and quality should be the outstanding consideration in selecting and preparing agricultural exhibits for the fairs.

There are 254 counties in Texas, and the diversified soils are capable of producing anything under the sun.

About two years ago a new reporter on the Independent approached the editor with the query: "Since I am a comparative stranger in Grand Island, I am somewhat at sea as to the paper's line up, and you have never told me to what persons and firms and interests the paper is friendly, and what persons and corporations are not to be thus regarded." The news gatherer in question seemed to be somewhat surprised when told that the paper had not, either as to persons, corporations or interests, a single one to favor nor a single one against whom, or which, to discriminate, and that all reporting should be done in a wholly disinterested and absolutely neutral manner, each being treated alike.—Grand Island, Neb., Independent.

Gum-Dipping, the Firestone extra process, impregnates and insulates every fiber of every cord with rubber—insures greater safety and comfort over rough and sandy roads—builds extra strength and flexibility into the sidewalls—an exclusive feature that adds thousands of miles to the life of a tire.

WASHINGTON WINS WORLD SERIES GAME

The Washington Senators made a strong start toward the 1925 world's baseball championship by winning the first game of the series from Pittsburg Wednesday 4 to 1. Walter Johnson had the Pirates helpless, Traynor's home run being the only score made by the Bucs. Joe Harris hit a home run for Washington, while Manager Buckey Harris secured a hit that scored two runs for his club. "Spec" Meadows pitched good ball for Pittsburg until taken out in the eighth for a pinch hitter. Morrison finished. The only error was a wide throw by Peckinpaugh, Senator shortfielder. Outfielders on both sides furnished sensational catches to back up the fine pitching. Batteries: Washington—Johnson and Ruel; Pittsburg—Meadows, Morrison and Smith.

Forbes field was packed with 45,000 raving fans. Hotel accommodations at Pittsburg, where the first two games are played, are taxed to the limit. The same conditions will exist in the capital city Friday and Saturday, when the teams move to Griffith stadium. The team that wins four games will be crowned world's champion. Seven games may be required, as was the case last year. Radio stations are broadcasting play-by-play reports all over the country, games beginning at 1 o'clock, central time.

FOOT BALL SEASON OPENS OCTOBER 16

Crockett High School's foot ball squad is working hard for the opening game of the season, which brings Madisonville here Friday, October 16. Madisonville defeated Normange 6 to 0 last Friday, and the Crockett boys realize that only by hard training will they be able to get in shape for the team from across the Trinity.

Scrimmages have shown the weak spots, and strong ones—if such there be—in the squad, and steps have been taken to remedy the faults and to get some coordination into the action of the players. Coach W. L. Jordan, assisted by Ben Cannon, are working hard to get an understanding of the game into the minds of the new men, and are certain that the team will give a good account of itself in the games played.

Seven games have thus far been scheduled, as follows: October 16, Madisonville at Crockett. October 23, Trinity at Crockett. October 30, Huntsville at Crockett. November 6, Crockett at Madisonville. November 13, Crockett at Trinity. November 20, Groveton at Crockett. November 25, Crockett at Palestine.

Called to Crockett.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Shields of Palestine were called to Crockett Sunday morning by the serious illness and subsequent death of Mr. J. S. Cook, which occurred at his son's home in this city Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Mrs. Shields is a daughter of Mr. Cook. Grady Cook of Crockett, who is a son, recently moved to Crockett. These and others thus bereft by death have the sympathy of our people. Marvin Cook is a younger son.

SUIT FILED TO OUST OFFICIALS

Proceedings Started to Remove Madison County Judge and Others.

Madisonville, Oct. 3.—A petition in quo warranto, intended to oust County Judge T. Ferguson and the other four members of the court of county commissioners of Madison county, was filed in district court here Saturday.

Filing of the petition brought to an actual legal status the county-wide upheaval which resulted here several weeks ago when Judge Ferguson and the commissioners executed a contract condemned by the citizens in two public conventions.

A preliminary term to determine whether or not the district judge will remove the judge and commissioners from office pending the final hearing of the case will be heard by District Judge Harper at Groveton next Friday. The regular term of district court falls in December.

At the time the contracts were executed mass meetings of the citizens were called on two different occasions and demands for the resignations of the judge and commissioners were made. They refused to resign. Saturday's legal action was taken as a consequence.

The contracts in question called for the preparation of a map, plat and survey of Madison county for the purpose of aiding in tax collections. An initial fee of $7500 for the contracting firm was included, together with subsequent percentages.

PAUL BELIEVED GOSPEL MEETS WORLD'S NEEDS

Says Apostle Dared All Because He Had Faith in Christ to Save.

Paul gloried in preaching the gospel because he saw in it something that met the crying need of every soul, Rev. J. C. Bobb, pastor of a Houston Presbyterian church, declared in his sermon Sunday.

The text was found in Romans 1:15, 16, "I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are in Rome also. For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth."

Rome, at the time of Paul's writing this letter, was the great metropolis and proud capital of the world. "In imperial splendor she sat upon her seven hills, and from her throne of beauty ruled the world." Enriched by the spoils of war and the tribute of conquered nations, luxury and ease was the lot of her people who inhabited the marble palaces and gorgeous villas that adorned the sides and summits of her proud hills. Towering above and far outdazzling them all in its glory stood the palace of the cruel, heartless, murderer Nero, the ruler of this world empire.

Luxury and idleness invariably lead to ruin, so we find the city given to the open and flagrant practice of the grossest immoralities.

Proud, haughty, overbearing, the people felt secure behind the barricade of her heathen philosophy and degrading religion and their invincible armies. Christians were despised, butchered, burned at the stake or fed alive to famishing beasts. The cross was ridiculed as the emblem of a deluded weakling, an imposter, a criminal executed for his crimes.

Paul knew and understood all this—he was neither an ignoramus nor a fanatic, but a man of great intellectual powers, polished in the best schools of his day, a man with a definite purpose in life, and one who was always true to that purpose. That purpose was expressed in the words, "I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are in Rome also." This was his all-consuming desire, "to preach the gospel," from city to city and from land to land, and neither trials nor tribulations, suffering nor shame, threat of foes nor pleadings of friends could halt him in this purpose.

The native Esquimaux broadcast their own form of jazz music from the coast of Greenland and it sent a chill up the back of some of our red hot radio fans.

He who paddled his own canoe last summer is still with us.

GREATER LOVE HATH NO MAN THAN THIS

Crockett, in Houston county, is named for that immortal pioneer who died in the Alamo, with dead foes heaped about him as testimony to the prowess which made him famed during his lifetime.

Crockett citizens are talking of building a monument to honor the picturesque woodsman who gave his life in defense of Texas liberty. Ashley Crockett, newspaper publisher of Grandbury, Hood county, and a grandson of David Crockett, has been asked to deliver an address to Houston county citizens, when the monument drive will be launched.

In recent years there has been a tendency in Texas to overlook the major part which David Crockett played in the winning of Texas independence. We can think of no more appropriate memorial movement than that proposed by citizens of the town which bears his name. The movement should receive the support of people in all sections of Texas.

David Crockett personified most of the virtues which reached the zenith of development during the high tide of western immigration in America. He was one of the most lovable and quaint characters which this great pioneer era produced. He was a passionate champion of liberty, an implacable foe of oppression. It was this sympathy for the aspirations of freedom-loving people that led him to champion the struggling Texas colonists in the darkest hour of their clash with Mexican tyranny.

Crockett's services to Texas were inestimable. The glamor of his personality, his fame as a deadly rifleman, his boundless enthusiasm and self-confidence, stirred the imagination of the Texans to a fighting pitch, and attracted many recruits to the Texan standards.

And in that bitter struggle at the old stone mission, Crockett's unquenchable courage was like a guiding star to men whose epic defiance of death has had no parallel in world history.

In the picturesque little East Texas county seat, where Crockett once camped, and where woodlands such as he loved so well have not yielded to the might of axe and saw, a worthy memorial might appropriately be erected in his memory. He was a friend to Texas in the days when it needed friends—in the crucial days of its desperate warfare. And on that memorial the words might be fittingly inscribed, "Greater love hath no man than this—that a man lay down his life for a friend."—Houston Post-Dispatch.

The whole country has just waked up to the magnificent possibilities of Florida, which now bids fair to become "a second California" as a resort for the wealthy and as a commonwealth of fruits, flowers and beautiful cities. Undoubtedly, the Florida "land boom"—one of the greatest sectional land booms of this generation—is going too far, and thousands of fortune-hunters who get caught with new-bought land on their hands when the boom finally bursts will be ruined. Nevertheless, after making all allowances for shrinkage and readjustments, Florida will have taken a tremendous stride forward.

Public Relations

THE Texas Power and Light Company is a public servant operating a public utility, designed to meet a fundamental public need. It is fully aware of the limitations—and the obligations—involving in such a relationship. The Texas Power and Light Company has one thing to sell—service. In payment, it must receive from the people not only their money, but also their good will. The good will of the people of this state and of this city is essential to the Texas Power and Light Company.

It is our business to deserve it and give value received—just as it is our business to give service to patrons in return for their money.

Good will is based on understanding, and we believe it is vitally important to the future of your community that its citizens shall know and understand the policies—and the problems of their public utility organizations.

It is important that, in their treatment of these organizations, the people shall be guided by their best judgment of what will actually promote the welfare of this community.

It is important for them to know that, if the community is to enjoy a future commensurate with its opportunities, money must be spent for development in such amounts as only the investing public of the country can supply.

In its dealings with the public, the Texas Power and Light Company realizes that its service must achieve the highest standards of economy, efficiency, honesty and courtesy.

To that end the Company and its representatives will continue faithfully to address themselves.

In return, it asks that the public, in assessing its qualifications for rendering this service, approach the task in a spirit of calm open-mindedness, remembering that, in the last analysis, we share a common aspiration—the ultimate growth and prosperity of this community.
