Some facts as to the conduct of the management of public bathhouses in rope are given in the current monthly bulletin of the department of labor. It shows that the movement to provide bath and washhouse facilities, which originated in England in 1842, has spread widely in Great Britain and on the continent, and has not yet spent its force. It notes that the establishment of public washhouses in connecion with bathbouses of the combined swimming and cleanliness type is not SWUNG THE GAMBLER OVER HIS same man.
