THE SOUTH BEND NOW PROVEN GREAT OIL FIELD

Since the coming in of the McCluskey well a few weeks ago the oil men have been busy. There have been many deals made, many rigs have gone and many more locations have been made. There are now nineteen drilling wells in the South Bend field and about thirty locations. The best information we can get is that there are at least twenty-five drilling wells besides the South Bend. In less than sixty days we are sure there will be one hundred or more drilling wells in Young county. The large companies are rushing lines from Breckenridge this way. A six-inch line has reached Eliasville and a three-inch line has already been built to the South Bend field. The other lines are being rushed to the well with the bringing in of the well now being drilled. There are six producing wells in the South Bend field and more than that number around Eliasville. The rapidity with which the wells are being drilled is encouraging. Some of the wells have been drilled in less than thirty days. The Panhandle on the Scott land is now drilling at 1700 feet. The Roxana on the Boosler well has reached 800 feet. The Roxana-Payne is at 1700 feet. The Oklahoma Petroleum will start up two rigs this week for the survey, south of Graham syndicate. The Roxana is moving in tools to the Braddock land. The reporter has learned unofficially that the Colcord Company closed a deal last week for five rigs for the South Bend field. The Goode No. 2, at South Bend, and about one-half mile east of Goode No. 1, and being drilled by the Roxana Petroleum Co., has a splendid showing for a good well at 2155 feet, and some reports state it will now make around 100 barrels on top of the sand. They are now setting their casing preparatory to drilling in and in a few days we will know about this well. It extends the territory at least one-half mile and makes things very brighter in the South Bend field, which is fast becoming an extensive oil field. This is the same sand as found in the Goode No. 1, also J. J. Scott No. 1, which has been producing for some months. The Goode No. 2 was shot Tuesday with 2500 feet but did not make any more and they intend to plug back and deep the first sand. None of these wells have been drilled to the McCluskey sand. They have now encountered the Scott sand at a little better than 2100 feet and have moved the boiler back and may drill in today. From present prospects this well looks very good as this makes the fourth sand already struck and some think in the present sand a big well will be found and it is being watched closely. The well is about one mile southeast of the McCluskey and still is proving an extensive oil territory. It is reported the McCluskey is still being drilled with the drill only about 10 feet in the sand. We have not been able to learn if they intend to drill deeper or shoot the well as we understand the Panhandle people are busy on a drilling proposition at Amarillo which has been consuming their attention at present, but they will probably decide in a short time if it is their intention using these wells on the McCluskey No. 2, which is now in course of construction. This well is 300 feet southwest of the Goode No. 1 and near the river, and about 900 feet of the Graham Oil Syndicate. It is reported another well will be drilled in northwest of No. 1, making the wells for McCluskey. The Graham Oil Syndicate well on M. K. Graham land and just west of the McCluskey, is drilling around 900 feet and we understand formations are practically the same as in the McCluskey well and if nothing happens should reach the McCluskey sand in fifteen days at the outside or by the first of September. They have been somewhat slow in making the hole but the management wants to keep the hole in good shape and promises to go after the McCluskey sand as the oil is what is going to make dollars for the stockholders. We understand this stock is firm at $1.30. Graham Oil Syndicate is a contract job and is being drilled by Kuntz & Erwin. One well is to go on the 37 acres just north of the Graham Oil Syndicate well on Graham's land and another on Block 19 of the Stovall land, and some two others south of Graham's land and more if the first wells are paying. The Colcord river bed well at South Bend is making rapid time and is now drilling at around 1500 feet and will reach the Scott sand by next week. This well commenced drilling on July 12th or just a month ago. The best drilling record to date is held by the Goode No. 2, which was drilling less than 30 days. Snowden & McSweeney has a location on Block 41, Stovall Plantation, just across the river from the river bed well, also has rig up on Block 37, Stovall Plantation, and will be drilling next week. This is one of the most substantial derricks built in this section. Chas. Denny has his steel derrick up on Block 43 of the Stovall Plantation and will be drilling in a few days. Mr. Denny has recently acquired more acreage in the Tobin Survey and is very enthusiastic over a big oil field. Charlie Clark, a big operator of Wichita Falls, has a location on Block 19, just north of the McCluskey well, on the Stovall land and will be ready to drill as soon as a derrick can be rushed up and material arrives. Some four other locations are being made north of the river but we have been unable to get definite blocks. The McKee-Miami Development Co., is going slow but sure and at present are underreaming and carrying casing on down at around 2500 feet and should reach the McCluskey sand during the coming week. Formations are fine and everything looking good. This well is on the Wm. Fullerton Survey and some two miles north of South Bend. This well has had a showing of oil and gas and we hope to have something favorable to report in our next issue. This well, the Graham Oil Syndicate well, river bed well, the Ford well, the Payne well, and the Scott No. 3, making six wells in the South Bend section due in during the next ten days and we look for things to hum and productions to greatly increase as the depths of these wells range from 1800 to 2550 and the independent operator can drill these wells quick at a small expense. When you can take $25,000 and drill a million-dollar well in 30 days in practically proven territory you are going to see things developed and it will only be a course of a short time until there will be many and better wells brought in at South Bend. At present there is a number of close in acreages that can be secured at reasonable figures, and we hope to have more independent people enter this territory as there is no more inviting field than the South Bend territory. The opening up of this shallow field is going to boom Graham and things have already begun to take on new appearances and as our people begin to return from their vacations new life is going to be in every line of business. The only thing about it is the people of Graham and this territory don't realize the resources we have at our very door and the development that is going on. So take a drive through the field as you can run out to South Bend in 30 or 40 minutes. Take a dip in the Clear Fork and not miss the time from your business. There are a number of business men right here in Graham who have not seen this development and it will do you good and put new life in you to make a run out and see what is going on. Roxana Petroleum Co. have secured offices here and we are glad to welcome part of their forces from Mineral Wells to our midst and we understand some of the other companies contemplate opening offices at an early date. From reports the other wells of the county are drilling it is no telling when a well will come in from some other section. Up at Eliasville they are bringing in most every week a big well and we hope to get more complete reports from this section.

ELIASVILLE FAST MAKING OIL CITY OF IMPORTANCE

The Hill well, drilled by the Sinclair Oil and Gas Company, is expected in within the next two weeks. The tools were lost in this well, and drilling operations were delayed for several weeks. The casing was removed and tools taken out and drilling operations will be resumed in a few days. This well is in the town. The Stinson well, drilled by the Texas Company about one-half mile northeast of town, is also expected to make a showing in a few days. The same formations were found in this hole as the Ed McCluskey well and oil is expected at the same depth as the McCluskey. There are from fifteen to twenty good producers in the Eliasville field, fifty drilling wells and the writer has been reliably informed that one hundred new locations have been made. Two good wells came in last week. Developments and building activity continues in the town of Eliasville. The block of stone buildings has just been completed and will be occupied by the postoffice, Sam Lothen's Gent's Furnishing, the First State Bank, and C. L. Young's Drug Store. An electric light plant for the town will be installed within the next few days. Mr. Andrews will run the plant in connection with his mill and run by water power. Mrs. Helene M. Shanklin is putting in a line of ladies furnishings next door to Faw & Wright gent's furnishings store. Messrs. Hamm, Marts and Havery have leased the building recently occupied by the First State Bank and are now putting in first class cafe fixtures. They promise to give satisfactory service and run a strictly first class cafe. F. B. Souter will run a confectionery at C. L. Young's old stand. TEXAS FARM BOYS START LONG TRIP About 125 Texas farm boys, coming from fifty-one counties in the State, left A. & M. College at noon yesterday in the Texas Farm Boys' Special train for a tour of twenty States on a trip that lasts until August 23, and all of the boys included held records for superiority in agricultural and live stock club work. The trip was planned by the extension service of the Agricultural and Mechanical College, with the assistance of the Texas Chamber of Commerce, and was financed by bankers and merchants throughout the State. Its purpose is to furnish agricultural knowledge to those attending and the route of the special train lies through the heart of agricultural United States. H. H. Williamson, State boys' club agent, and Walton Petest, agricultural agent of the Texas Chamber of Commerce, are in charge of the trip, and county and district agricultural agents as well as representatives of the daily press and farm papers are attending. A physician and trained nurse were furnished by the American Red Cross, and these, with the wives and daughters of some of the men attending, comprise the personnel of the party. The special train will take the party north and northwest to Lincoln, Nebraska, and then east, through Chicago, Detroit and part of Canada to Washington, D. C. From there the route lies through Roanoke, Virginia, Nashville, Tennessee, and south through Birmingham, and Montgomery, Alabama, New Orleans, Louisiana, and then to Waco, Texas, where the party disbanded.—Dallas News. TEACHERS EXAMINATION There will be a special examination for teachers' certificates at the court house in Graham August 23 and 24. There is such a shortage of teachers in the State that the State Superintendent of Public Instruction is giving several special examinations this year in order to give as many as possible the opportunity to take the examinations. It is a violation of the school laws of Texas for any one to teach in the public schools without a valid certificate. FOR SALE—Fordson Tractor, good as new, been run less than 100 miles. For quick sale, $650.00. See W. L. YANCEY, Graham Barber Shop, 50-1c

GRAHAM SCHOOLS TO OPEN ON SEPTEMBER 6TH

According to the plans of the local school board, the Graham public schools will open Monday, September 6th. The janitor has been employed, and he has begun to clean the building, oil the floors, and to get everything in readiness for the opening of school. All the teachers, with the exception of two, have been selected and Superintendent Cogdell states that those places will be filled the last of this week. The faculty in the Graham schools will consist of twenty-one well selected, capable teachers. Much time has been taken and care exercised in the selection of the teachers and it is fair to assume that no mistakes were made. In fact the teaching force has been selected from among the choice teachers of Texas. With the excellent, well equipped corps of teachers, and the Graham citizens assisting and co-operating in their usual way, this year bids fair to be one of the best in the history of the school. We are proud that so much has been accomplished, and are pleased with the prospects of the future. The increased enrollment will no doubt be great, but this has been met in a measure, by placing the compulsory attendance period so that it will begin the first of January, or at the opening of school after the Christmas holidays. GOVERNOR APPROVES ACQUITTAL OF TYLER Austin, Aug. 5.—Governor Hobby today approved the findings of the court martial acquitting Private J. C. Tyler, Texas National Guardsman, of the charge of killing Captain H. A. Robertson, Seventh Texas Cavalry, at Galveston on July 30, and, according to Adjutant General W. D. Cope, the release of Tyler from custody will be ordered at once. The findings of the court martial, which tried Tyler at Galveston last Monday, were received by the Governor today. After a review of the findings the Governor approved the verdict of acquittal. Captain Robertson was shot and killed while driving alone in an automobile, and the testimony presented at the court martial trial was that Private Tyler, who was on sentry duty, had challenged Robertson four times to halt before the fatal shot was fired. The evidence was to the effect that Tyler fired the shot in line of duty and had followed instructions as to sentry duty. No statement was given out by the Governor in connection with the announcement of the approval of the findings of the court martial. JAMES ALLEN BRYAN DEAD James Bryan died at the home of his brother in East Graham on Friday, August 6th, after a lingering illness. He had been confined to his room several months and his death was not unexpected. He was born November 20, 1880, in Lawrence, county, Tennessee, and at the age of nine came to Young county with his parents, where he has lived except at intervals now and then. He was converted in August, 1902, and joined the Methodist church. He was baptized by Rev. Tom Barcus. He was married in 1908 to Miss Rosie Lee Glover and to this union was born one child. He has been at the home of his brother, Wiley Bryan, for something like two years. Wiley has shown him every pleasure possible and exercised every effort to make his brother's last days pleasant. BAILEY SPEAKER HERE LAST SATURDAY Mr. Penry, a lawyer of Fort Worth, of the firm of Penry & Penry, spoke to a small crowd on the courtyard lawn last Saturday afternoon. His speech followed closely along the line of the speeches made by Mr. Bailey and other speakers, who are assisting him in his campaign. "Principles rather than men" was his subject, but he spoke more about men than about principles. Special 6 o'clock Sunday Dinner at Metropolitan Cafe; special music by orchestra. 50c

KAWANA OIL & GAS COMPANY ORGANIZES IN GRAHAM

The new wells this week in the South Bend oil field has proven this to be a paying field. The experienced oil men have been watching with interest the development around South Bend and are now satisfied and are putting their money liberally into acreage in that section. The Kawana Oil & Gas Company has been organized with a capital stock of $100,000.00. D. E. Stinson is the promoter of the Company and has associated with him Homer Thompson, a live wire in the oil game, and several other successful oil men of Graham. These men have faith in Young county and especially the South Bend field. They have 204 acres in this field, near producing wells. It is the purpose of the company to drill a well soon just north of the McCluskey now producing from 700 to 800 barrels. The company is composed of Young county men who have been successful in their endeavors and they are very optimistic over the prospects of the new company. Our readers will find their ad in this issue of The Leader. ## NEW BUILDINGS ARE NOW NEARING COMPLETION

All the new buildings on the east side of the square are nearing completion. The large two-story brick being built by Robinson and Owen is practically completed. A part of the second floor is in use now and it is expected to have the entire building completed and ready for occupancy before the first of September. This is the largest of the many new business houses being constructed on the square. It is 58x150 feet and is built of solid brick. The building is practically fire-proof. The lower floor is concrete and the ceiling is metal. The walls and ceiling of the second floor are made of metal lath and plaster. The lower floor is built for a business house and is large enough for any kind of a large department store. It is so large that it could be easily arranged to accommodate three business establishments. It is planned, however, for one large business enterprise and the citizens of Graham would be glad to see the entire lower floor occupied by some progressive business. The second floor has been built for a hotel and has been named Hotel Robown. It has forty-three rooms. Every room has hot and cold water and the building has been piped for gas. It is hoped that in the near future the gas that is going to waste in the South Bend field will be piped to Graham. The hotel has a commodious lobby that will be appreciated by the patrons. Mrs. Barnes will have charge of the hotel. She is a woman of successful experience in this line of work. She came here from Mineral Wells. She has been here several weeks looking after the new occupied and before the first of September the entire building will be complete. This magnificent building, together with the other beautiful buildings on the east side of the square, is modern in every respect. Graham is proud of this row of new building. COTTRELL-PENNINGTON will At the First Baptist church at Mexico, Missouri, on Tuesday evening salesing, July 20, 1920, at 8:30 o'clock, Miss Lily Pennington, of Ladonia, Texas, and Mr. Frank R. Cottrell, of Brookston, Indiana, were quietly married by Rev. J. H. Hughes, the pastor. Immediately after the ring ceremony a six course dinner was served in the dining room of the Hotel Hexey for the bridal party and guests. The bride is the lovely and accomplished daughter of Mrs. C. F. Pennington, of Ladonia, Texas, and a niece of United States Congressman R. J. Wilson, of Louisiana. She is a graduate of the Ladonia High School and the North Texas State College, Denton, Texas, and also attended Burleson College and Baylor University. For the past several years she has been associated with the public schools of Texas, and will be long and favorably remembered as both pupil and teacher. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Cottrell, of Brookston, Indiana. He is a graduate of the Brookston High School and Valparaiso University, Valparaiso, Indiana, also a registered pharmacist of the State of Illinois, and is a member of the Monolith Builders, Inc., of Chicago. Mr. Cottrell is a veteran of the World War and was a member of the famous Battery C 150th Field Artillery of Indiana, of the 42nd (Rainbow) Division. Mr. and Mrs. Cottrell left for Chicago, the Great Lakes, and other northern points on their wedding tour and shall be at home after August 15th, Brookston, Indiana. Among the guests present were: F. M. Davis, Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur O. Stockton, Lafayette, (Mrs. Stockton being a sister of the groom) and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Byers. Automobile accidents are taking the lives of a large number of people daily. A glance at the daily papers will convince the most skeptical of the heavy toll exacted by these accidents, most of which are preventable. Automobiles are useful machines and if drivers will exercise good judgment there will be few accidents. The time to think and exercise judgment is before the accident happens. "Safety First" can not be urged too strongly upon everyone who drives a car.

Mrs. Nonie B. Manoney, of Dallas, had the pleasure and distinction of being the only Texan present on the notification committee to notify Governor Cox of his nomination. Mr. Merritt, of McKinney, was also on the committee but he was not present. Several Texans were in Dayton during the notification ceremonies but they were not on the committee. There were more women than men present from Texas. Governor Cox, who is an ardent suffragist, was pleased when told that there were more women than men from Texas. He believes the progressive Democratic platform will appeal strongly to the women voters, and is delighted to have the women of the banner Democratic State with him.

We are employing young, inexperienced, unprepared school teachers to teach our children for seven or eight hours a day for from six to nine months each year. We would not for one moment consider engaging such incompetent young people to train a bird dog or young colt. We value our dogs and colts highly and we are very careful as to who trains them. Our children will have charge of this country in a few short years and their training should be a matter of great concern to us. We should demand well qualified teachers and be willing to pay the necessary salaries to retain the services of able, experienced teachers. We must pay enough to justify teachers in preparing themselves for teaching and to enable them to live well while teaching.—Progressive Farmer.

COX TALKS STRAIGHT

The Republican nominees, party managers and organs have what they have claimed to be wanting, a definite, unequivocal and unmistakable statement of the Democratic standard-bearer's position on the treaty and the League of Nations. That statement, as made in the acceptance speech at Dayton, leaves the opponent ground for further question should clear their minds at any doubt that they have a real fight on their hands.

Democrats, however, have never doubted what Governor Cox's attitude on that issue would be. Long before he was even being considered as a nomination possibility he declared himself on the question, and has said nothing since the date of his nomination to warrant the belief that he had suffered any change of opinion or heart. His declaration of Saturday, formally accepting the party's standard, was positive and emphatic. The treaty and league constitute the paramount issue of this campaign, as they should. The Republicans have said that they wanted it to be, and having it, the only realization left them is that they have a campaign on their hands.

While the greater part of Governor Cox's speech was devoted to this issue, he treated other questions of domestic importance. The one reference to the prohibition issue was an unqualified declaration for law enforcement. And that covers all of the existing field, in spite of anything the Republicans or Mr. Bryan may say to the contrary. On the whole, the acceptance address was a well-weighted, well-shaped, well-made deliverance, couched in language so clear and simple as to fulfill the speaker's promise that even the school children would be able to understand it. Free of that near-pompousness which marked the studied deliverance of Mr. Harding, it gives evidence of the purpose and the ability of the Democratic nominee to keep to the level of popular understanding. That proves him to be a wise and formidable standard-bearer, one who must measurably weaken Republican confidence of victory next November. For the candidate who wins the popular mind is certain to win the popular favor. Mr. Cox seems to be altogether capable of that double accomplishment. — Dallas Evening Journal.

THE COURT YARD PARK

The citizens have always been proud of our beautiful court yard park. Some few years ago the Daughters of the Confederacy erected a beautiful monument to the heroes of the civil war at the north entrance. They have also from time to time planted flowers and worked hard to improve the appearance of the park. Judge Stinson has taken great pride in the yard and the north side of the park presents a pleasing appearance. There are our beautiful flower beds that Judge Stinson looks after personally and he is to be congratulated on the beautiful appearance of the beds.

TO GET RID OF RATS KITCHEN RULES

Keep all supplies in rat-proof bins. Keep meats in safes or in refrigerators. Keep uncooked vegetables in crates on shelves. Never on the floor. If cooking is done with a coal or wood fire burn in your kitchen fire all refuse; trimmings of meat, bones, parings or vegetables, egg shells, all platter and plate scrapings, and all waste food. This means the putting into the fire small amounts at a time, when they will readily burn. This is known to be a practical method. By it there is no garbage. If cooking is done with a gas fire. Keep all garbage in covered metal cans. Keep the cans closely covered. Have the garbage removed at least twice a week. Have the scavenger carry your garbage can to his wagon. Report all scavengers who do not do so. Don't put garbage in slop hoppers. Always clean up your own premises. Throw no garbage into the streets nor on vacant lots. Admit authorized Health Inspectors to your premises. They are there for your benefit. Tell your neighbors to do all the above—and see that they do. For further information address State Board of Health, Bureau of Sanitary Engineering, Austin, Texas.

WHO AM I?

I am more powerful than the combined armies of the world.
I am more deadly than bullets, and I have wrecked more homes than the mightiest of siege guns.
I steal in the United States alone over $300,000,000 each year.
I spare no one, and find my victims among the rich and poor alike; the young and the old; the strong and the weak; widows and orphans know me.
I massacre thousands upon thousands of wage earners a year.
I lurk in unseen places, and do most of my work silently. You are warned against me, but you heed not.
I am relentless. I am everywhere; in the home, on the street, in the factory, at railroad crossings and on the sea.
I bring sickness, degradation and death, and yet few seek to avoid me.
I destroy, crush and maim; I give nothing but take all.
I am your worst enemy.

DOES IT PAY TO ADVERTISE?

Does it pay to advertise? Bryant Washburn, Paramount-Artcraft star says it does. Mr. Washburn is at the National Theatre Thursday, August 19th, in a picturization of the recent Broadway stage success "It Pays to Advertise," by Meguire and Hackett. He portrays the role of a young man who makes a fortune on advertising by building up a trade-mark and then selling it to his father, a millionaire soap manufacturer. It will be of the spoken drama and the motion picture, to learn that "It Pays to Advertise" the biggest recent Broadway comedy drama successes has been picturized by Paramount-Artcraft. This is said to be one of the most delightful light comedy vehicles in which Mr. Washburn has yet appeared. The action is filled with sparkling comedy and the climax is a triumph for the truth of the well known slogan. A delightful romance runs throughout the story.

HARDLY KNEW HER

AT FIRST SIGHT

Mrs. White's Neighbors Are All Talking About Her Wonderful Recovery

"When my wife began taking Tanlac she weighed only ninety-five pounds; now she weighs one hundred and forty-three, and her wonderful recovery is the talk of our neighborhood," said Ben White, of 111 Crescent Ave., Peoria, Ill.

"Mrs. White had been suffering from stomach trouble and nervousness eighteen years," he continued, "and for a long time had been unable to leave the place. We spent all the money I could get for treatments and medicines but she never got any better. She was a complete nervous and physical wreck and I have seen her nearly die with cramps in her stomach and after eating she could hardly breathe for the gas. Headaches drove her nearly distracted and I have stayed home with her for weeks at a time, fearing she would never pull through, for she was getting worse all the time.

"After hearing so much talk about Tanlac I bought some for my wife and in just a few days she could eat and sleep better. She has now taken about twelve bottles and is the very picture of health. Why some of her friends hardly know her at first sight now. She is as well and happy as a person can be."

Tanlac is sold in Graham by Sloan Drug Co. and in Newcastle by Leon Slaughter & Co.

OFFICER OF ROYAL MOUNTED MAKES COMPACT WITH MAN

Dying Man Urges Fugitive to Return to Civilization Under His Name—Results in Queer 'Entanglement'

An unusual and quaint form of plotting is one of the more intensely interesting features of Marshall Neilan's first independent production, "The River's End," from the story by James Oliver Curwood, which will be shown here at the National Theatre Friday and Saturday August 20, and 21st.

The introductory scenes of the film find John Keith, haunted for years by the murder of Judge Kirkstone, captured by Derwent Conniston of the Canadian Mounted Police. A striking resemblance between the two men in build and facial characteristics leads the officer, when suddenly stricken with a fatal disease, to urge Keith to personate him and return to the Post with an account of Keith's death.

Shan Tung, a crafty Chinaman at the Post, alone suspects Keith of the impersonation and threatens to divulge the secret unless Keith influences Miriam Kirkstone, the murdered man's daughter to marry him. A terrific mob-fight follows in which the Chinaman is killed.

A younger sister of the dead officer arrives at the Post and unaware of Keith's impersonation, shows a sisterly affection for him. Keith finally makes a clean breast of the affair and departs and journeys down the Saskatchewan. The climax of the picture is summed up in the surprise that awaits Keith—"At the River's End."

The roles of both John Keith and Derwent Conniston are portrayed by Lewis Stone, who reaches heights seldom attained in dual-role depiction. He is supported by such popular stars as Marjorie Daw, J. Barney Sherry, Jane Novak, Charles West and Togo Yamamoto.

WATER TOO HOT AND MINERS QUIT WORK; PEACE RESTORED

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 7.—Four hundred miners of the Woodside mine of the Springfield Coal Mining Company struck yesterday morning because the water in their wash house was too hot Thursday night.

W. B. Jess, president of the company, said he had ordered the water cooled off for them but that the men themselves might have done it by turning a valve.

DEMOCRATS TO SEEK

$20,000 FROM TEXAS
Dayton, Ohio, Aug. 7.—In view of the happenings in late Republican primaries in this and other States where so much money was used, the Democrats are already worrying over how to get money enough to meet the Republican profligacy matter. They do not hope to raise as much as the Republicans for the campaign, but they must raise more than they would have to do if the Republicans were not free with their cash in their campaign. The Democratic Campaign Committee has met and realized that it must have money at once and has calculated how much will be called for from the party in each State.

It was announced that $20,000 would be required from Texas, and Mr. Wroe of Austin, being here, promptly subscribed $1,000 himself and agreed to underwrite the balance. This was talked about on the streets and was most encouraging to the leaders of the party.

MASONS PLAN NEW DORMITORY

Austin, Aug. 1.—In addition to the Presbyterian Theological Seminary property, recently acquired by the Masonic order of the State, negotiations are under way for securing Driskill Hall, situated two blocks from the seminary building. All of this property will be used as dormitories for the daughters of Master Masons attending the University of Texas. It is stated that Driskill Hall will accommodate 30 girl students and that the Theological Seminary property will accommodate 71. Up to this time about 80 applications have been made for the coming year. It is stated that rooms and board may be obtained at these dormitories for $25 per month.

It is planned by the Masonic bodies of Texas to erect other permanent buildings to provide accommodation for 500 to 600 young women students. Desirable sites are now being investigated with this end in view. In addition to the dormitory plans it is proposed to set aside a revolving fund of $100,000 or more to loan to worthy students as a means of assisting them in obtaining an education at the University of Texas. It is also the purpose of the Masonic bodies to establish dormitories at the University for the accommodation of the sons of Master Masons.

APPLY FOR LOAN

Austin, Aug. 12.—John A. Lomax, secretary of the Ex-Teachers Association of the University of Texas, states that he is now receiving applications for loans from the Students Loan Fund. During the session of 1919-20 about 65 students received financial aid from this fund. Consideration was given last year to ex-service men exclusively but applications are now being accepted from young women also. The committee on awards is composed of John A. Lomax, Dr. Frederick Dunclaf, and Miss Clara Mae Parker.

DRILLING OIL WELL

Austin, Aug. 12.—It is expected that the oil sand will soon be struck in the well that is being drilled on the University of Texas lands in Culberson county by the Hueco Basin Oil Company. The drill is now in the red bed formation at a depth of 1700 feet. According to geologists, the lime formation underlies this red bed and below the lime should be found the oil sand. It is stated that contracts have been let for the drilling of six oil wells upon University lands in Crane County.

POULTRY PROFITS DEPEND ON HEALTHY CHICKS

Mr. Williams, a very successful Oklahoma Poultry Raiser, recently said to Dr. LeGear: "Since I have been using your Poultry Prescription, not only have I cut down Chick loss, but I find my pullets lay a month or two earlier." A few pennies wisely spent in feeding Dr. LeGear's Poultry Prescription to Baby Chicks insures rapid development and early fall and winter laying. Get a package from your dealer. Milam, and Walter Long are Defendants and said petition alleging That on the 2nd day of July, 1907, Plaintiffs and Defendants by the articles of Association formed a joint stock company for the purpose of ginning cotton and the operating and maintaining of the cotton seed oil mill at Eliasville, Texas, in Young County, under the name of the Union Gin Company of Eliasville, Texas. That it was the original purpose of Plaintiff and Defendants that said Association would remain in force and effect only a sufficient length of time to bring about a merger of said Association into a corporation under the laws of the State of Texas; That is to say that a corporate charter would be applied for by the Plaintiff and Defendants for the purpose of carrying on said gin and oil business and that Plaintiff and Defendants would become financially interested in said corporation in proportion to their financial interest in said Association. That said charter has not been secured and that Defendants have failed and refused to bring about the incorporation of said Union Gin and Oil Company of Eliasville, Texas. That there are now outstanding large debts, for which said Association is liable and that said Association is unable to pay same. That said Association is indebted to Plaintiff in the sum of Twelve Hundred and no 100 Dollars for Sixty-five tons of cotton seed at $20.00 per ton, together with interest in amount of $720.00 on said amount from March 1910, to date at rate of 6 per cent per annum. That the only manner of making a division of said partnership assets is by sale of the whole and division of proceeds. That the said B. E. Ward has transferred stock held by him to the Defendants C. A. Keating and H. A. Keating of Dallas county; and that they are now the owners thereof; that the stock of O. O. Walker has been transferred to S. R. Crawford who is the owner thereof; that the Defendants be cited to appear and answer herein and for a dissolution of said Association, for an order of sale of the assets of same for the purpose of paying the outstanding and unpaid indebtedness and for a division of the remaining proceeds among the parties hereto according to their respective interests, all of which is fully set out in Plaintiff's

Development

Drilling operation to be under the direction of G. B. Wanamaker, who has had charge of drilling for various large oil companies in the various fields of the United States. We guarantee to drill three wells on our holdings and expect to have a rig up on the 120 acre tract in the Denison survey near the Panhandle-McClusky well within the next fifteen days.

QUICK ACTION FOR THE MONEY

Our stock is now on the market to sell at par $10.00 per share. We confidently expect this stock to be selling for a premium within thirty days. We expect to be drilling on our first well within that time. The Colcord & Son well in the river bed at South Bend should be a producer within thirty days and this is just across the river from our twenty-two acre lease. This well coming in good will enhance the value of our stock. The Graham Oil Syndicate well, about one half mile of our 120 acre lease, should be in within the next thirty days. All these wells coming in will certainly make our stock sell higher and we do not guarantee that our stock will sell at par for more than ten days. The Company will put a premium on this stock every time a new well comes in near our leases. Our Stephens County acreage lies between two drilling wells not more than one thousand feet from the lease. Another well being drilled by the Humble Oil and Refining Company within one-half mile. There never has been offered the public the opportunity to buy stock at par that has the chance that this has. If you have not made any money in oil now is your opportunity. Our acreage, all in proven territory, a guarantee of three wells, managed by men of experience and unquestioned ability in the oil business, offers you the opportunity of a lifetime. Fill out the above subscription for as many shares as you can buy, you will never be sorry. Call at the office in the Dolman Hotel and let us explain this unparalleled opportunity to you.

TEACHERS MUST BE PAID MORE MONEY

Austin, Aug. 3.—Miss Annie Webb, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, has given out the following statement on the prospective teacher shortage in Texas:

The United States Bureau of Education reports a probable teacher shortage for next session of about 80,000 elementary and 20,000 high school teachers. This is based on the number of teachers that will be needed, on the probable number that will be retained from last session, and on the number ascertained to be training themselves for the teaching profession in the various high schools and colleges of the United States.

Salaries of teachers in Texas, even counting the increase possible from $14.50 per capita, are considerable below the average paid in many other States of the Union. Salaries in the northern and middle States are, in some cases, 100 per cent higher than in Texas. In many States near Texas, the average is from 20 to 50 per cent above our State. We shall not be able to attract a fairly large proportion of teachers whose loyalty and ability are of the highest quality unless we offer a lower salary than that offered in other States. We may count on the fact that Texas, and those States and territories which must work where the highest remuneration is offered, are the only ones that have not done so.

The actual teacher salary in Texas was about 2,000 in 1917, which meant that more than 400,000 children had no teacher at all. About 400,000 children are taught by teachers whose preparation was not beyond that of the eighth grade. In some schools teachers are not certified at all were accepted, in open violation of the law. In many of our city schools all of the grades were overcrowded, some reports as many as ninety children to a room. In a number of schools two shifts of children were taught.

It is true that the summer normals are a summer large enrollment normal. But that increased enrollment does not mean a very large number of new recruits to the teaching profession. A considerable proportion of the number of teachers now attending summer normals are doing this work because of a provision in the rural aid law which permits them to receive an increase of salary from the rural aid appropriation, provided that their own district will furnish one-half of this increase in salary. This provision of the law requires the teacher to attend a summer normal, to pass examinations on a majority of the courses taken and to return to the same teaching position occupied the previous year. The purpose of this provision of the rural aid law is to secure for country children teachers of experience and teachers who are ambitious to improve their qualifications. If it contained no other provision, this alone would accomplish untold good for the country schools.

There is only one remedy for the teacher shortage in the United States and in Texas, and that is, to make teaching worth while and to do this before further losses to the profession occur. Higher salaries alone will not make good teachers, but higher salaries will attract the capable to the teaching profession and when the capable throng into this work, the inefficient will be crowded out. The public should demand a schedule of teachers' salaries which will fix certain remuneration for certain qualifications. Additional rewards should be offered for each year of experience and for improvement in professional training. The schools should be so managed that merit and ability in teachers will invariably be recognized and rewarded. The teacher should be made secure in tenure of position during efficiency, and the teacher should be required to do regular work leading to improved scholarship. The reward for this should be made such as to enable the capable and thrifty to comply with the requirements. If the teaching profession is to be sought by the capable, it must be raised in the estimation of the public. One of the most serious problems in any district is the housing of the teachers. The public must recognize the duty by providing suitable living quarters for teachers; furthermore, teachers must be secured against being made the victims of tyranny, and of autocratic school discipline, such as sometimes prevails in parts of our country. The predominant idea discussed at the last two meetings of the National Educational Association was this of more democracy in the teaching profession, of fair treatment of the teachers, of preserving the high ideals of the teacher's work and of raising the dignity of the profession in the eyes of the public, that the work of the teachers may become more attractive to the kind of people who ought to train the future citizens of the United States.

HERM... Following are the spots of Governor Cox's speech of acceptance: "I thank God I take up the standard of Democracy a free man, unfettered by promises and happy in the consciousness of untrammelled opportunity to rend a servile."

"Senator Harding's pledge of 'formal and effective peace so soon as a Republican Congress can pass its declaration' means but one thing—a separate peace with Germany."

"This would be the most disheartening event in civilization since the Russians made their separate peace with Germany and infinitely more unworthy."

"No less an authority than Senator Lodge said that to make peace except in company with the Allies 'would brand us everlastingly with dishonor and bring ruin to us.'"

"To attempt, after peace is declared with Germany, to approach Europe with the view to entering 'a new relationship,' as Harding proposed, would either be regarded as arrant madness or attempted international bossism."

"The Monroe Doctrine is the very essence of the Versailles covenant. Skeptics viewed Monroe's mandate with alarm * * * yet not a shot has been fired in almost a hundred years in preserving sovereign rights on this hemisphere."

"Every high school youngster in the land knows that no treaty can override our Constitution, which reserves to Congress alone the power to declare war."

"Senator Harding, as the Republican candidate, proposes in plain words that we remain out of it (the league). As the Democratic nominee, I favor going in. The matter should be approached without thought of the bitterness of the past. We hear it said that interpretations are unnecessary * * * but they will at least be reassuring to many of our citizens."

"Agreement without injury of the new administration clearly will be the ratification of the treaty."

"Federal taxation must be heavily reduced and this will be done at once if a Democratic administration is chosen. Annoying consumption taxes, now unjustified should be repealed."

"As a possible substitute for the excess profits tax, I suggest a small tax, probably 1 to 1 1/2 per cent on the total business of every going concern."

"The public official who fails to enforce the law is an enemy both to the Constitution and to the American principle of majority rule."

"Morals cannot easily be produced by statute. The writ of injunction should not be abused. We need a definite and precise statement of policy as to what business men and working men may do and may not do by way of combination and collective action. Neither labor or capital should at any time take action that would put in jeopardy the public welfare."

IRENE CASTLE HAS FINE ROLE IN "THE INVISIBLE BOND" Sophie Kerr's popular novel, "The See-Saw," which ran serially in a prominent magazine and was later published in book form, has been adapted for the screen under the title of "The Invisible Bond" and is Irene Castle's latest picture. It will be shown at the National Theatre Wednesday, August 18.

The story is about a husband and wife who are still in love after four years of married life. The husband, however, believes that marriage should not curtail his personal liberty and prevent him from carrying on an affair with a dashing young coquette. After the wife has endured much humiliation through her husband's action, she divorces him and he speedily marries the other woman. The second wife holds the same theories about marriage as her husband, and the tables are turned on him when she soon begins courting the company of other men. A rich New Yorker becomes infatuated with her and, furious because she will not respond to his attentions, plunges them both over a high cliff in a motor car and kills himself and her. The husband, getting the report of her death, thinks it is his first wife who has been killed and rushes to her home, where they are reconciled.

"The Invisible Bond" was directed by Charlie Maigne and is said to furnish Mrs. Castle with an opportunity to show quite remarkable talents as an emotional actress and also to wear some attractive new gowns.

DANDRUFF IS DANGEROUS

It Causes Loss of Hair and Leads to Serious Scalp Troubles.

Dandruff is more than an annoyance—it is a menace. Serious infections are sometimes the result of the itching of the scalp that accompanies most cases of dandruff. Germ-laden finger nails are liable to infect the blood and start a dangerous scalp trouble. Don't run this risk. Use SPLENLOX, the GUARANTEED DANDRUFF REMEDY.

The following letter from Philadelphia's oldest barber, shows what has been the experience of others who have used SPLENLOX:

"I have been engaged in the barber business in Philadelphia since 1872, and since that time I have seen thousands of so-called dandruff cures and hair tonics of more or less merit come and go, but I have never in all my experience seen or used any preparation that in any way approaches SPLENLOX in merit. I tried it on one of my customers who had been going to various hair specialists for over three years for the treatment of dandruff with little or no relief, but after I applied only two treatments of SPLENLOX to his scalp the dandruff completely disappeared. I can unhesitatingly recommend SPLENLOX to the barber trade and hair-dressers everywhere. It not only meets the claims of the manufacturers, but does even more than they claim for it where directions are closely followed."

THOUSANDS ATTEND LOCKLEAR FUNERAL

Fort Worth, Aug. 8.—While all Fort Worth paid silent tribute to her native son, former Lieutenant Ormer Locklear, who was killed with his friend, Milton Elliott, in a fall at Los Angeles Monday night, the body was buried with military honors in this city this afternoon.

The funeral procession left Robertson's undertaking parlors shortly after 2 o'clock this afternoon and wended its way to the Mulkey Memorial Church, where Mr. and Mrs. Locklear were married five years ago.

Hundreds of Fort Worth citizens lined the streets with uncovered heads as the procession passed to the church, where thousands thronged the approaches for several blocks in every direction.

Heading the procession were three mounted policemen. Next came a brass band, then followed the American standard and the emblem of the American Legion, side by side borne by sailors in uniform. Behind the standards was the guard of honor formed of American Legion members, the majority of whom had seen service in the aviation corps. Then the hearse, "preceded" by an automobile bearing a miniature air-automobile, followed by relatives and friends in a long line of automobiles.

The church patrolmen held the dustin back, while the guard of honor formed a narrow lane and stood in front of the church as the body was carried to the church.

The church was too small to hold the people, and after the guard of honor, the pallbearers, a number of nurses and others were seated, there was room for few more. Services were conducted by the Rev. W. M. Matthews, presiding elder of the Methodist church of this district. The service for the occasion was furnished by the church choir.

Following the services, the funeral procession wended its way to Greenwood Cemetery, where an enormous crowd was waiting it. So large was the crowd that notice was received at the police station, prior to the funeral of the procession, that unless adequate force was sent in handling the funeral of cars which were parked in the vicinity the hearse would be unable to get within a half mile of the cemetery.

On the way from the church to the cemetery several large planes of the American Legion were seen at intervals along the procession. The American Legion took charge of the funeral.

From
$7.50 to $137.50

In the wonderful selection of coats that it has been to our good fortune to receive at this seasonable time, we have covered every need that will confront Madame in the way of a coat, whether it is a wrap for cool weather or the heavier coats for late Fall and Winter wear.

In the model pictured here the cape motif is shown. This motif predominates in most models. Short coats graduating to three-quarter lengths also will be most favored.

Materials consist of plushes trimmed with genuine furs and broadcloths, with plush collars and cuffs.

Dresses
$15.00 to $70.00

Charming Coat Suits in the New Modes

Note the smartness of the suit to the left. The coat is of a favored length, while a most becoming effect has been added by superior tailoring of the sides and collar.

We have the model on the left in navy blue Tricotine and Reindeer broadcloth trimmed in the collar with fur.

And the best part of it comes in the fact that these suits are attractively priced being only—

In the model on the extreme right we find Parisian touches that are sure to find favor with the most exacting. It is designed to draw away from the severe lines demanded by coats of the length to be worn this fall.
