LET US ALL REJOICE ON THIS THANKSGIVING DAY

ORDER OF EASTERN STAR HONORS LOCAL MASONIC LODGE 485

Today (Thursday) will be a great day for Masonry in Graham. A special meeting has been called at six o'clock at which time the third degree in Masonry will be conferred. At eight o'clock following the degree the Chapter of the order of the Eastern Star will honor the Masonic lodge with a banquet.

Preparations have been made for a great occasion. The committee mailed cards to every Mason in Graham whose name could be secured. On this card you were requested to notify J. T. Rickman if you would be present. If you did not get a card see C. B. Hockaday or J. T. Rickman and let them know whether you will be present. Every Mason and his wife or sweetheart are expected to be present at the banquet.

A good program has been prepared and every Mason who is not present will miss a rare treat.

HOME TALENT SHOW MAJESTIC THEATRE ON DECEMBER 2ND

Shows come and go but the show that will please everybody in Graham is scheduled to appear in Graham Friday night, December 2. This is one of those famous home talent shows that never fails to please. It is one of those shows where you will get your money back if you are not satisfied. All you have to do is to tell the door-keeper as you leave that you are not satisfied and he will cheerfully refund your money if he is at the door when you leave.

You will laugh and you will cry, and you will laugh until you cry if you attend this great home talent show Friday night, December 2, at the Majestic Theatre. This show is given under the auspices of the American Legion and the boys have secured the Majestic Theatre building for the show.

CONTRACTORS COMPLETE NEW JAIL BUILDING

The new jail is completed and as we go to press the Commissioners' Court is in session to accept it if the conditions of the contract have been fully complied with.

The contractors have worked faithfully and have a beautiful building to present to the court. The first floor has been built for the use of the jailer and is well equipped for a home. The second and third floors are for the use of prisoners exclusively. It is a modern jail. The needs of those so unfortunate as to be locked within its walls will be cared for humanely. Both tub and shower baths are provided. Light heat and all other conveniences have been given the attention of experts.

GOVERNMENT REESTABLISHES POSTOFFICE AT BUNGER

Several months ago the postoffice at Bunger was discontinued but with the finding of oil in that community the business has grown so rapidly that the government has reestablished the office.

The people of Bunger and Oil City are delighted to have the office reestablished as it was very inconvenient to come in over the rough roads for their mail every day. Mrs. Daisy L. Grantham has been appointed as postmistress for the new office.

THANKSGIVING

Let us give thanks to God upon Thanksgiving Day. Nature is beautiful and fellowmen are dear, and duty is close beside us, and God is over us and in us. We want to trust Him with a fuller trust, and so at last to come to that high life where we shall "be careful for nothing, but in everything, by prayer and supplication, with Thanksgiving, let our request be made known unto God," for that and that alone, is peace.—Phillips Brooks.

TEACHERS INSTITUTE CONVENES IN GRAHAM DECEMBER 19 TO 23

County Superintendent H. H. Avants has almost completed plans for a great institute here, December 19 to 23. The teachers of Young and Jack counties will hold a joint institute in Graham and a good program has been arranged. The teachers have employed some of the best educational talent in Texas to come and assist them in the institute.

The teachers will incur considerable expense in coming here for the institute and it is hoped that the people of Graham will take them into their homes at a reasonable rate. The homes of our people would be open without any cost if a religious convention was held here. The teachers are not asking free entertainment but would appreciate a reasonable rate. No one is attempting to set the rate but it is thought by some that $1.50 a day would be reasonable for room and board where two stay in the room.

Any one interested in keeping the teachers should communicate with Superintendent Avants.

FIRE DESTROYS HOME OF M. F. WILLIAMS

The home of M. F. Williams was destroyed by fire about 8 o'clock Tuesday night. There was no one at home, Mr. Williams and his family having gone to town about six o'clock.

The alarm was turned in about 7:45 and the department made a quick run but through misuderstanding went west of the scene of the fire. However the boys were on the scene quickly and had the flames extinguished in a short time.

The alarms from this section of the city are confusing as there is a South street, Southview street and a Southview Addition and unless care is exercised in turning in the alarm the department may go to the wrong place. The person receiving the alarm Tuesday understood that the fire was in the west part of Southview Addition when it was west of the park on Southview. Let's help our excellent fire department by being explicit in turning in alarms.

C. C. HAMPTON LOSES FORD ON SOUTH ELM

C. C. Hampton has joined the list of Ford losers. He joined involuntarily however. Last Friday night he stopped his car in front of Judge Walker's residence on South Elm street and went up into his room. He returned in a few minutes and found his Ford stolen.

Within five minutes after it was taken officers and others were searching for the car but in vain. The car was taken about dark. A week seldom passes that a Ford is not stolen in Graham.

CIRCUS ELEPHANT KILLED AT ORANGE

Beaumont, Nov. 19.—A circus elephant was killed by Sheriff Hilden of Orange this morning after the animal went on a rampage yesterday in Orange, frightening hundreds in the community. The animal was pursued by horsemen and motorists and over a hundred shots were fired before it was brought down.

GRAHAM WINS TWO FOOTBALL GAMES HARD GAME TODAY

The Graham high school football team is maintaining its reputation of playing first class ball. The school has the best team this season that it has ever put on the field. Coach Harrison has proven that he knows the game and the boys have proved that they know how to play. The school and town has supported the team better than in previous years.

The Bridgeport team came over last Friday expecting to take back the scalps of the Graham team but soon found out that the plucky Graham boys were too much for them. At no time during the game was Graham's goal in danger. Toward the last of the game Coach Harrison put in several of his second string men. Graham won the game 57 to 0.

The boys went to Seymour the following day to play the heavy Seymour team. It is not usual that a football team plays two games on successive days, but the Graham team played last Friday and Saturday, winning both games and looking forward to the hardest game of the season today. The Seymour game resulted in the score of 13 to 7 in favor of Graham.

Football fans will have the opportunity today (Thursday) to see the best game of the season. Henrietta will be here for a return game. Our boys went to Henrietta several weeks ago and suffered a defeat of 7 to 0. The Graham boys made a touchdown but on account of some technicality were not permitted to count the score. The boys feel equal to the occasion today and are confident that they will win the game. It will be a good game.

HARP SINGERS CO. HERE FRIDAY 8 P. M. SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

One of the best musical programs ever rendered in Graham will be given at the school auditorium tomorrow (Friday) night under the auspices of the American Legion.

These artists, known as the Harp Singers Company, have a program replete with the choicest music. Each one is an artist in her line. The street songs and scenes of old Italy will be featured as a part of the evenings program. They will perform on various instruments and will bring an enjoyable evening to all who avail themselves of the opportunity to hear these gifted artists.

The program merits a large patronage and the Legion boys will appreciate your presence at the school auditorium tomorrow evening at eight o'clock.

Dr. Box To Bring Big Pictures Here

Dr. W. E. Box, senior member of the National Theatre, is in the city this week looking after his interests here. He has just returned from Mexico where he put in two new shows. He states that he has eight shows in Texas.

Dr. Box is very optimistic over the prospects in this section. He says that his show business here has shown a wonderful increase during the past few weeks. He believes in this section and to show his confidence, he has contracted for several expensive pictures to be brought here in the near future. Among the pictures to be shown are the well known, "Way Down East," "Three Musketeers," "Little Lord Fauntleroy," "Over the Hills," and "The Four Horsemen."

Mr. Larmour, the popular manager of The National, has at all times given Graham people good shows but the news will be gladly received that these great pictures will be seen in Graham at an early date.

The small boy hopes school stops 10 years for this big naval holiday.

CITY COUNCIL LETS CONTRACT TO JANES CONSTRUCTION CO.

The City Council met in a special session Tuesday night to consider bids for the removal of the present disposal plant and the enlargement of the present sewer system and also the extension of the water system. Several contractors from three states were present to submit bids. One strong firm from Kansas City was here. After considering the bids the contract was let to the Janes Construction Company, Eastland, Texas. The contract price is about $133,000.00 and includes vast improvements for the city. The Leader is not in possession at this time of all the items of improvements contemplated by the city.

The city officials have been working for months for these improvements and the citizens are glad to learn that the needed improvements will be made at an early date.

RODEO IN PROGRESS AT BALL PARK; MANY FAMOUS RIDERS HERE

The Graham Rodeo opened Tuesday with a parade headed by several of the world's famous rodeo men. Following the car of these distinguished gentlemen was a long line of riders, ropers, etc.

Fox Horn Clancy, of Fort Worth, is here assisting in putting over the rodeo. He knows the game and will appreciate a large attendance at the Podge this (Thursday) afternoon and tomorrow.

ROBERT JUSTICE RUN DOWN BY FORD SATURDAY

Robert Justice was painfully hurt near Handley on the Ex-Port Worth-Dallas pike last Saturday afternoon. He had gone to Fort Worth with his family for a visit and was on his way to Arlington to see relatives when he received his injuries.

The Leader has not been able to learn the details of the accident but from the information obtainable, a suit case fell off the running board of the car in which he and his family were riding. He stepped out of the car to get the suit case and a car from the rear struck him. One of his legs is badly crushed but he is resting well, according to information received from Fort Worth today. It is hoped that he is not seriously injured.

His father went down Sunday and is with him. He will bring his son home as soon as it is safe to bring him.

J. W. Daws, a leading stockman and pioneer citizen of Throckmorton county, was in the city on business yesterday. The drought is becoming serious in his section. Not a drop of rain has fallen there in months and Mr. Daws says Elm creek, from which thousands of head of stock get water, is lower than he has ever seen it.

Mrs. J. C. Vaughan and daughter, Miss Annie, of Hubbard, Texas, are here visiting Mrs. J. L. Vaughan and other relatives.

HELP MAIL CLERKS

On account of the rush, which usually accompanies the Christmas holidays, the postmasters throughout the country are asking that Christmas packages be mailed early.

Our local postmaster asks that the packages be securely wrapped and plainly and completely addressed. The return address should be written on every package.

KING RESIGNS AS SUPERINTENDENT OF GATESVILLE SCHOOL

Gatesville, Nov. 19.—The resignation of C. E. King as superintendent of the State Juvenile Training School here, was in the hands of the Board of Control today. In a letter to Chairman S. B. Cowell, Mr. King set forth his reasons for resigning and requested that it become effective in 60 days. He declared the public mind has been poisoned and "does not feel the universal confidence in the management" which is necessary if it (the institution) shall continue to grow and be able to meet the ever-growing demands that are made of it.

Mr. King criticized Governor Neff's attitude and course regarding a recent investigation of the school, the inquiry having been an outgrowth of the death of a 14-year-old boy, following alleged cruel treatment at the hands of a school military trainer.

The Board of Control, with one dissenting member, in its report to the Governor, exonerated the management of the school and charges of cruelty to boy inmates and declined to remove Mr. King as head of the institution. Subsequently, there was some public criticism of the Board's report.

H. G. Twyman, former military instructor at the school, is held in Coryell county in connection with death of the 14-year-old boy.

MARGIE COCHRAN MOSES DIES IN EAST GRAHAM

The sad news spread rapidly over the city early Monday morning that Mrs. Margie Cochran Moses was dead. She had been ill several weeks but it was not generally known that her condition was so serious.

She was the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cochran and was reared here. She was a beautiful young woman and had many friends who will learn with sadness of her untimely death. To know her was to love her. She was buried in Oak Grove cemetery Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, her pastor, Rev. T. E. Bowman, conducting the funeral services.

She is survived by her husband, her infant baby, her father and mother, four sisters and two brothers, all of whom were at the funeral, save one brother.

The Leader joins in expressions of sympathy with the loved ones in this hour of sorrow and sadness.

JURY UNABLE TO AGREE IN CASE, MOSELEY VS. CITY

The case of B. G. Moseley vs. City of Graham in which Mr. Moseley is suing the city for damages from the location of the city's disposal plant and enjoining the city from using said plant, occupied the greater part of the last week of court.

A large number of witnesses were put on the stand and the case was fought hard by both sides. Mr. Moseley lives south of Graham and claims that the disposal plant renders the water in Salt creek, which runs through his land, insanitary and unfit for his stock. The jury was out several hours but was unable to reach a decision. The report reaching The Leader office stated that the jury was nine to three in favor of the city.

BURTON WELL FLOWS AT 1835 FEET AND EXTENDS POOL S. W.

The latest development of importance in the Bunger field is the Burton well, located at the northeast corner of the Whittenburg land which went into pay sand unexpectedly at 1835 feet while a bit was being dressed. The well is now making 600 barrels of oil with the prospects of being a better well when drilled deeper, as the sand was only touched. There is considerable gas and every indication points to a big producer. This well extends the field one-half a mile to the southeast from the Sims well No. 1, which came in for 700 barrels in the 1900 foot sand about ten days ago.

The Edgett well located in the southern part of the Grimshaw land and the most southerly production in the field, is still making 450 barrels of oil per day and a little water, as the oil sand was encountered from 2,604 to 2,609 feet. This new sand was found on November 20th and puts an entirely new light on the entire section, with a new sand to be drilled for at each location.

The Browning & Hodges well on the Durham tract is fishing after reaching the oil sand at 2,598 feet. Applegate and Harlan have some oil in the hole at 2,730 feet and are still trying to handle the water encountered above the sand.

Cheney & Miller are on top of the sand on their No. 2 well, which they reached at 1,897 feet and a well is being brought in as we go to press.

The Barnes Production Company has sold forty acres in the southeast part of the J. W. Howard Survey 433 to J. B. Hedrick for a valuable consideration and the terms provide for the drilling of a well on this forty which will be started at once. On the Parsons land Survey 44 the Barnes Production Company has reached a depth of 2,500 feet and expect to strike the new 2,600 foot sand in a few days. They have contracted to supply gas to the Cosden and several other operators in the field.

The Sims Company has a rig up on and are ready to spud in on its 50 acre lease on Survey 33, and this test hole will be begun with a view to making a deep test to the lime if necessary.

The New Domain Oil Company has its derrick completed at the west end of its 21-acre tract in the Lisle Survey and will be drilling in a few days.

The Texas Company has a rig on the west side of the Driver Survey and expects to drill a test there at once. They also have a rig at the north end of the McClelland Survey and has made another location on its Jake Jones acreage.

The Rosell Company is drilling several wells and is 1,250 feet in the 2-B on the Owen lease. The company is also 1100 feet deep in the test going down to the east of the field located on the Orrell Survey. It is trying to drill up the shoe in the hole in the Askew No. 1 at 2100 feet. A location has been made in the southwest part of the Owen Survey near the Burton et al well and are spudding a well at their location in the southeast corner of the Owen lands.

The Simms Company is drilling at 500 feet at the No. 3 location on the Owen and made another location 426 feet west of its No. 1 well.

The Pamona Mutual Oil Syndicate recently purchased 30 acres out of the southwestern part of the R. D. Owen Survey for $9,000.00 and the Burton offset well came in a few days later. It has made a location on the 30 acres and will drill at once.

Spoons-Varble Inc., are 1000 feet deep on their Askew No. 1 and this well will have a great bearing on the territory east of Bunger and is being watched with much interest.

Many new locations have been made in the Bunger field this week as the

SAVE MONEY, SAYS PRESIDENT

In a recent letter to Earl R. Obern, of Chicago, President Harding goes on record as an enthusiastic advocate of the practice of saving money. He declares that saving is the only means to reestablish the world's stores of working capital, and expresses the hope that the public may take this lesson to heart. The President's letter follows:

"You ask me for an expression regarding the subject of saving money.

"I have for many years been pretty well convinced that saving money is largely a matter of habit, and many people who make a good beginning at it presently discover that it is by no means impossible, and is altogether a good thing to do. Just at this juncture in the world's and our country's affairs it is certainly one of the most useful contributions that people could possibly make to putting the world right. I do not believe there is any way to straighten out the tangle of financial and economic concerns into which the world has been precipitated by the war, except to produce a good deal more than we consume, which means to save, and by our savings to reestablish the world's stores of working capital.

"I have no more earnest hope than that the public may take this lesson to heart and learn to save as, in view of our great national good fortune, they could be able to do."

The conference on limitation of armament opened November 12, with the representatives of the most powerful nations assembled in Washington. It is regarded by many as being the occasion of the turning point of the world's history. President Harding, in the opening address of the conference, welcomed the delegates "with unselfish hands. We harbor no fears," he continued, "we have no sordid ends to serve; we suspect no enemy; we contemplate or apprehend no conquest. Content with what we have, we seek nothing that is another's. We only wish to do with you that finer, nobler thing, which no nation can do alone." When the President declared that America "less of armament and more of war," the delegates rose to their feet applauding. The first proposal of Secretary Hughes, who is secretary of the conference, is for the nations to take a ten-year holiday in naval building and that the nations represented agree at once to destroy sixty-six capital battleships. The work of the conference is being watched with keen interest and the prayers of literally thousands of the people of the earth are going up that this conference may serve the practical end of bringing peace to the world.

The cost of one battleship of the United States Navy and its ammunition is enough to build 8,600 homes costing an average of $5,000 each, equal to the number of dwellings in cities the size of Montgomery, Ala., El Paso, or Galveston, Texas. The cost of one battleship would endow four universities like Princeton. These graphic facts are presented in the current issue of the Literary Digest, which comes out this week in a special disarmament conference number. "The five principal naval powers of the world," says the World's Work, "now have about $2,500,000,000 worth of ships of the battleship class alone, about one billion dollars worth of destroyers, one billion dollars worth of submarines, besides hundreds of other vessels ranging in cost from one million to ten million dollars apiece. Broadly speaking, this entire 'investment' has to be replaced every ten years on account of obsolescence." Surely the time has come in the world's history when this vast expenditure on naval armament may stop and the money expended in other channels that will contribute to the progress of civilization.

It has been proposed to erect in Dallas an eighteen-story medical arts building, to be occupied exclusively by doctors and space for medical supply houses and departmental drug stores. The cost of the building would be approximately one million dollars.

"LET US BE THANKFUL"

Today, November 24, has been set apart by the proclamation of the President of the United States and by the governors of the various states as a day of Thanksgiving. In truth, we of America have reason to feel thankful to Almighty God for the many blessings bestowed. While we have, many of us, contracted the habit of complaining about the high cost of living and depressed business conditions, compared with all other nations of the world, we are living in luxury. We have, an abundance of the necessities of life and although some have more than others and here and there we may find suffering, as a nation we are enjoying the blessings of peace and as a people we are free from want. We have no starving millions within our borders; we are at peace with the world and each other. Our problems are few and comparatively simple. So wonderfully have we been blessed that the distinguished visitors from the old world stand amazed at our display of wealth, our volume of business and our abundance of life's necessities.

As Americans, citizens of the United States, and especially of the great Southwest, we all have reason to feel grateful for the manifold blessing bestowed upon us. Let us go forward with our duties and serving God and our fellowmen as becomes good Christians.

The indifference with which many people view the disarmament conference at Washington indicates that they do not fully realize that the future of this country may be swaying in the balance. If the conference accomplishes definite results we probably will enjoy a long period of peace. If they fail, another world war is inevitable in order to adjust the political and commercial differences that are exasperating Europe and Asia with every setting of the sun. In such an event the United States cannot hope to escape. The day is past when we can sit calmly on the fence and watch the other fellows "go to it." Some other nation will be sure to kick the fence from beneath us, as the kaiser did in the last war.

On November 11, Armistice Day, America paid tribute to its soldier by the interment in Arlington Cemetery of an unknown soldier who had paid the supreme sacrifice in far-off France. For several days before the body of the unknown soldier had lain in state in the rotunda of the Capitol building on the catafalque, where in times past the bodies of Lincoln, Garfield, Grant and McKinley had rested. The funeral cortege that accompanied the dead soldier's body to Arlington was made up of the famous men of the nation and other nations.

During impressive ceremonies held for the former Premier of Japan, Hara, who was assassinated, a friend of the Premier said that while Mr. Hara was not known as a religious man, yet in discussing the coming disarmament conference before his death, he burst into a flood of religious emotion and said: "President Harding has been inspired of God to call this conference, and it behooves mankind to accomplish things for the high and lasting good of humanity. If the conference does not succeed I firmly believe it is because human nature has not attained the stage of perfection God expects of it."

Mayor Hylan of New York has been re-elected by a majority that surprised even his most ardent supporters. The election was a complete victory for the Hearst-Tammany forces. One of the outstanding features of the mayor's race was his promise to maintain five-cent car fare, and New York is one of the few cities in America today where the five-cent fare remains.

THE VALUE OF MILK

The National Dairy Council, which is an educational organization, gives some splendid slogans and reasons for every boy and girl to make milk and butter their friends.

"The milk way is the health way"
"Butter is indispensable to growth and health—there is no substitute for butter"

"The first food a family should buy is milk. The last food to be dispensed with is milk."

Dr. Graham Lusk of Cornell says: "No family of five should buy meat until they have bought three quarts of milk."

"The most healthful nation is the one whose children have plenty of milk."

"The people who have achieved the most and have real strong wonderful bodies, that can accomplish what they set out to do, are "The ones that know and love the beauties of nature.

"The ones that have professions later on in life to be proud of.

"The ones that are capable of giving to their fellow man that big thing we call cheerful service.

"They are the ones that have used that liquid energy and its products to make them this way.

"This liquid energy is milk, and the products are butter, cheese and ice cream."

In pre-war days the German embassy in Washington was characterized by great splendor, brass buttons and gold braid, with a great retinue of servants to add to its dignity. The representatives of the new government, however, will live in very simple quarters, the furnishings will be very simple and the servants will be few. Economy is necessary because of the huge sum it will cost to maintain the German embassy when the cheap German mark is translated into American dollars. The workmen are now at work on the German embassy's house, made necessary after a four and a half years' vacancy.

How may one grow old gracefully? Three "girls" each over eighty years of age, gathered in North Wales, Pennsylvania, recently and recalled the happy days of their childhood. When asked the secret of growing old gracefully, among the answers they gave were these: "Forget the modern tendency toward rush and excitement; wear clothing that covers the body and think less of so-called style; become a part of the life of your community and live in the present; forget the years behind."

WE ARE THANKFUL

This, the season of abundance, is the time for giving thanks. The strenuous labors of the year are over at last and bins and warehouses are full against the winter's need. But, after all, the BANK OF THE COMMUNITY is the real storehouse. Here is stored that which is the result of all labor. If you will show true gratitude for an abundant harvest, put aside something for the days to come.

U. S. STARTLES WORLD IN DISARM- MENT PROPOSALS

In the first public session of the disarmament conference, Secretary Hughes, head of the American delegation, surprised everybody by announcing the American proposal for the limitation of armament. These principles were advocated:

1. That all capital ship building programs, either actual or projected, should be abandoned.
 2. That further reduction should be made through the scrapping of certain older ships.
 3. That, in general, regard should be had to the existing naval strength of the powers concerned.
 4. That the capital ship tonnage should be used as a measurement of strength for navies and a proportionate allowance of auxiliary combatant craft presented.
- Then followed technical details of the building programs of the United States, Great Britain and Japan, with suggestions as to exactly what vessel should be scrapped.
- It was a bold and unexpected stroke on the part of the American delegation and fairly took the breath away from the visiting delegates, who have been accustomed to secret conferences before anything so concrete was made known.

Realizing, however, that public opinion is America's greatest pillar of strength in bringing the conference to a successful end, Hughes took the entire world into his confidence and showed how far America was willing to go to achieve a reduction in tax burdens. It was this paragraph in Hughes' address which indicated the extreme to which the United States is willing to go:

"The United States now is completing its program of 1916 calling for ten new battleships and six battle cruisers. One battleship has been completed. The others are in various stages of construction; in some cases, from 60 to more than 80 per cent of the construction has been done. On these fifteen capital ships now being built more than $330,000,000 has been spent. Still the United States is willing, in the interest of an immediate limitation of armament to scrap all these ships."

Hughes pointed out that the United States would not reduce armament unless the other nations agreed but, if the plan was accepted, fully thirty capital ships, aggregating 875,740 tons would be scrapped.

Hughes suggested in his plan that "for a period of not less than ten years, there should be no further construction of capital ships." Tremendous applause greeted this statement.

For Great Britain, Hughes suggested that construction on the four Hood battleships be stopped and that, in addition, all predreadnaughts, second line battleships and first line up to the "King George V" class be scrapped. This would mean, he explained, a total of nineteen capital ships or a total tonnage to be wiped out, including the new Hoods, of 183,371 tons. This is less in tonnage than the United States would lose, thus preserving the idea of "the existing naval strength of the powers concerned."

For Japan, Hughes proposed that all the new battleships and four battle cruisers be abandoned. He remarked that "this does not involve the stopping of construction, as the construction of none of those ships has been begun."

Next Hughes advocated that Japan should scrap the famous "Matsu" and "Kago," the two most powerful battleships ever planned, as well as four battle cruisers authorized, but not laid down. The total number of capital ships scrapped would be eleven and the total tonnage 289,000, together with ten battleships of the second line, would mean a grand total of 448,928 tons.

It will be noted that, under this plan, the United States would agree to give up the most tonnage, 845,740, as compared with Britain's 583,375 and Japan's 448,928.

Replacements always are a vital factor, as nations are accustomed to consider certain ships out of date every few years. Here came Hughes' most radical proposal. He insisted that no replacements should be made in less than ten years and that there should be agreed upon, in advance, a minimum tonnage for replacement of 500,000 tons for the United States, with Great Britain 500,000 tons and Japan 300,000 tons. He also declared that 35,000 tons should be the limit in size of any new battleships.

In concluding, Hughes predicted that enormous sums thus would be released to aid the progress of civilization and, at the same time, the proper demands of national defense

DEATH CLAIMS FORMER YOUNG COUNTY OFFICER

James N. Browning, 71, former Lieutenant Governor of Texas, was found dead in his bed at his home in Amarillo last week.

He formerly lived in Young county. He was commissioner from the Belknap precinct when Uncle Pink Brooks was sheriff of the county about forty-five years ago. At that time there was considerable rivalry between Belknap and Graham over the county seat and as Mr. Browning was favorable to Graham he and Uncle Rowland Johnson and others had stormy times over the county seat.

Governor Browning was well known throughout Texas. He was a member of the Eighteenth, Nineteenth and Twentieth Legislatures and a candidate for speaker of the House in 1890, being defeated by R. T. Milner of Rusk county by only three votes. He was elected Lieutenant Governor in 1898 and served in that capacity during the two terms of Governor Joseph D. Sayers. Governor Lanham appointed him a member of the Board of Regents of the State University and he served four years. From 1907 to 1915 he was judge of the Forty-Seventh Judicial District.

The exports from the port of Galveston for the year ending November 1 amounted to over $330,000,000.

The 1921 Nobel peace prize in literature has been awarded to Anatole French, a noted French author. Last year the prize went to a Norwegian, Knut Hamsun.

will be adequately met and the nations will have complete opportunity during the naval holidays of ten years to consider their future course. Preparations for offensive naval war will stop now."

The delegates showed their surprise, however. The British and Japanese took up their pencils and began to make notes before they learned that copies would be available later. It was a sensational performance and typical of American tactics.

Colonel Alton Owsley has decided, wisely we believe, not to become a candidate for governor next year. Colonel Owsley gives as his reasons for not entering the contest his desire to continue his work as head of the Americanization commission of the American Legion and his fear that his candidacy might engender strife that would be hurtful to Texas. Both are good reasons. Certainly the Americanization work of the American Legion is a duty and privilege that may well call to Colonel Owsley's talents and patriotism, and to be a candidate against a democratic governor in Texas, who has made a good record and who is asking for renomination for a second term would be to invite another heated campaign which Texas does not need and which as Colonel Owsley says, might engender strife hurtful to the state.

Colonel Owsley's announcement of his decision not to make the race follows:

"To the democrats of Texas: "I cannot at this time become a candidate for governor of Texas. A work of supreme importance to the people of the United States in which I am now engaged affords a broad field of activity for all my talents and energies and a sense of duty prompts me to continue that work. The public mind is in a disturbed condition and I am reminded by experienced democrats who are my close friends that a contest between Governor Neff and myself might engender strife hurtful to the democratic party and the people of the state.

"To be governor of this imperial state, in which I was born and have been reared, and to enjoy its extended opportunity for the service of our people would be to gratify my most exalted ambition.

"The generous partiality of many thousands of true men and women from every part of the state who have been urging me to become a candidate for governor have appealed to all the better elements of my manhood and it has been an appeal that was so close to my heart that it is difficult to refuse, but those associated with me in the work of the Americanization commission of the American Legion have reminded me of my obligation to continue that work.

"It has been with me a grave problem, but following the call of duty as I see it and with a heart full of love for my native state and of profound gratitude to those who have shown so much kind interest in me, and of good will to one and all, I must decline to be a candidate and leave to the capable democrats of Texas to do that which is best."

Washington, Nov. 18.—Representative Blanton, democrat, Texas, who was recently censured by the house for inserting objectionable language in the Congressional Record, today challenged the 17 other members of the Texas congressional delegates "singly and collectively" to debate in nine Texas cities after adjournment of the present session.

Mr. Blanton in his formal challenge charged that his colleagues "abetted" in introducing and passing a resolution of censure causing him to be "publicly insulted on the floor—a punishment worse than expulsion." He added: "This was an infamous outrage," which he did not merit and charged that after a resolution to expel him had failed he was not afforded an opportunity to be heard in his own defense.

FIRST PROCLAMATION OF OUR NATIONAL THANKSGIVING DAY

Whereas it is the duty of all nations to acknowledge the providence of Almighty God, to obey His will, to be grateful for His benefits, and humbly to implore His protection and favor; and

Whereas, both Houses of Congress have, by their joint committee, requested me, "to recommend to the people of the United States a day of public thanksgiving and prayer, to be observed by acknowledging, with grateful hearts the many and signal favors of Almighty God, especially by affording them an opportunity to establish a form of government for their safety and happiness;"

Now, therefore, I do recommend and assign Thursday, the 26th day of November next, to be devoted by the people of these States to the service of that great and glorious Being who is the beneficent author of all the good that was, that is, or that will be; that we may then unite in rendering unto Him our sincere and humble thanks for His kind care and protection of the people of this country previous to their becoming a nation; for the signal and manifold mercies and the favorable interpositions of His providence in the course and conclusion of the late war; for the great degree of tranquility, union, and plenty which we have since enjoyed; for the peaceable and rational manner in which we have been enabled to establish constitutions of government for our safety and happiness, and particularly the national one now lately instituted; for the civil and religious liberty with which we are blessed, and the means we have of acquiring and diffusing useful knowledge; and, in general, for all the great and various favors which He has been pleased to confer upon us.

And also that we may then unite in most humbly offering our prayers and supplications to the great Lord and Ruler of Nations, and beseech Him to pardon our national and other transgressions; to enable us all whether in public or private stations, to perform our several and relative duties properly and punctually; to render our National Government a blessing to all the people by constantly being a Government of wise, just, and constitutional laws, discreetly and faithfully executed and obeyed; to protect and guide all sovereigns and nations (especially such as have shown kindness to us); and to bless them with good governments, peace, and concord; to promote the knowledge and practice of true religion and virtue, and the increase of science among them and us; and, generally, to grant unto all mankind such a degree of temporal prosperity as He alone knows to be best.

R. P. RICKER OPENS OFFICE AT WORTHAM

A law partnership was formed at Wortham, Texas, on November 9th which will be of interest to the friends of both parties. Hon. W. J. Bryant, of Wortham, Texas, and Mr. Rupert P. Ricker, of Graham, Texas, formed a partnership for the practice of law at Wortham, Texas, under the firm name of Bryant & Ricker.

Mr. Bryant is well known over the state and particularly throughout Central Texas, in the territory surrounding the Mexia oil district, and has practiced law there since being admitted to the bar. He served in the State Legislature for two terms and was largely responsible for important measures on our statute books today. He is a director and vice president of the First State Bank of Wortham, Texas, and enjoys the confidence and esteem of the people in that section of the state.

Mr. Ricker is favorably known throughout West Texas, having a cattle ranch near Big Spring, to which he moved from Corsicana in 1906. He practiced law in Graham before joining Mr. Bryant, and is a director in the Guaranty State bank of this city. He is a graduate of the Corsicana high school and held the rank of captain in the recent war.

Both Mr. Bryant and Mr. Ricker hold degrees from the University of Texas. Richard Dresser, of Dallas, and William P. Goar, of Johnson City, will be with Bryant & Ricker.

We bespeak for this firm unusual success, and our best wishes go out to them.

Boys Receive Heavy Penalties

The three boys, Wayne Todd, Cecil Jensen and Forest Dawson, charged with the murder of James McNeil, Fort Worth service car driver, near Weatherford several weeks ago, have been tried and all received heavy sentences.

Wayne Todd, the first one tried, received the death penalty; Cecil Jensen received a life sentence in the State penitentiary and Forest Dawson, being only fifteen years old, was tried in the juvenile court and received the heaviest penalty the judge could inflict—six years in the training school at Gatesville.

These boys, the oldest of whom is about twenty-one, killed the service car driver after they had asked to ride with him. He was left some distance from the road and the boys went on to Fort Worth in the car. They stated in their confessions that they wanted a car in which to go to Colorado and killed McNeil in order to get his car.

BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OFFERS PATRONS STOCK

The Southwestern Bell Telephone Company is offering a limited amount of its stock for sale to patrons of the company in Graham and elsewhere throughout its territory on terms that will make it possible for any telephone subscriber to become a stockholder in the company.

Need for a further expansion of its service prompts the company to offer additional stock for sale, and the desire to have every telephone user interested directly in the institution which renders his service has impelled the planning of easy terms of purchase of the securities. This is sensible financing, of the sort that benefits not alone the company, but the whole public.

Time was when public utilities desiring new capital went to Wall Street for it, paying commissions to bankers and brokers and interest besides. It has been shown recently that there is no real need for this and that the public affords patronage to the electric companies, the street railway companies, and the telephone companies, will, if given the opportunity provide for their financial needs.

Telephone stock is good stock. There is nothing speculative about it. It isn't like oil stock. It won't enable anybody to get rich quick. It will pay a reasonable dividend, however, and as security it is as good as any save perhaps government bonds. This is not an advertisement. Rather it is a suggestion for the thrifty citizens who may have a few dollars in hand or who desire, through the avenue of small monthly payments to acquire something which is representative of value, and which can be utilized in time of need—as so much ready cash.

The money that is spent for stock in Graham will be reinvested in additions to the local plant of the company, with patrons of the Southwestern system sharing in the profits earned.

INSCHOLAASTIC MUSIC MEET, BELTON, APR. 1922

An interscholastic music meet, which promises to be in many respects an innovation, will be held early in the spring at Baylor College, Belton, Texas.

The contests will be limited to high school students. The program will include contests for pianists, violinists, sopranos, contraltos, quartets, and choral clubs. Scholarship prizes, ranging in value from $105.00 to $225.00 will be offered to individual contestants, while platinum loving cups will be awarded to the successful quartet and choral club.

The proceeds will be predated among the competitors towards defraying their expenses, and Baylor College will entertain all competitors free of charge during their stay.

All visitors, whether competitors, boosters or rooters will be given a royal welcome, for it is planned to make the occasion a gala day.

The plan of the music meet originated with Dean T. S. Lovette of the Baylor College Conservatory, under whose personal supervision the undertaking will be carried out.

Not only will the music meet afford excellent opportunity for the discovery of youthful talent and for public school students to see the inner workings of a great college, but it is hoped that, as an ultimate result, there will be fostered an added interest in music as a regular part of the curricula of the public schools of Texas.

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE

Death, that which brings to our hearts so much sorrow, and to our eyes so many tears, that which is no respecter of age or sex, has claimed a dear and good mother, a devoted and true wife, an esteemed and sincere friend to call as his own.

Mrs. D. W. McNamara died Thursday night, Nov. 17, 1921, at the family residence after an illness accompanied by great suffering, borne with true patience and fortitude after all that human skill and love could do. The end came gently and peacefully. Her pure spirit left its earthly temple to be with the Redeemer, whom she loved and in whom she trusted. To know her was to love her. She always had a bright smile and a kind word for everyone.

The love and respect for her was shown with a sweet tidal wave of flowers, anchors, wreaths and crescents told with their perfumed beauty of the immortal hope that sustained our hearts as she was laid to rest.

Some sweet day we shall bid her "good morning" amongst the immortals that blossom in the dawn of love's endless day.

May the family circle be comforted by the same God, with whom the loved one now dwells, in holy peace.

WHERE DO WE GET BRISTLES FOR BRUSHES?

Did you ever study or hear where most of the bristles and hair used in the construction of the best brushes on the market come from. Surely everyone of us knows that they came from the hog or horse. But that's as far as we are concerned. I will try and explain just what kind and where the best grade of brush material is obtained.

1. We will take the black bristles for instance. This bristle (the best in black) comes from the wilds of Russia and China. We will take the Chinese first. The Chungking boar is best for bristle. This is located about 1100 miles from Shanghai, China. The bristles are loaded on junks and steamers which leave the city for Chang, 270 miles down the river. This is a very dangerous journey on account of the strong rapids, and about one out of every ten junks is wrecked and its cargo of 200 or 300 cases of bristles lost. At Chang the bristles are loaded on steamers (the small river type) and bound for Shanghai where they are transferred to ocean steamers traveling through the Red Sea, Suez Canal, Mediterranean Sea and across the Atlantic ocean or via the Pacific ocean and Panama Canal and finally New York. Quite a journey from the hog to the brush which adorns our dresser.

Now we will take the white bristles. These come from the wilds of Siberia, where the natives hunt the vicious wild boar for meat as well as bristles.

A large part of the bristles are secured by the inhabitants going into the forests in the spring at the time the hogs shed their bristles and rub their bodies against the rough bark of the trees to remove their winter garments of these long bristles. The peasants collect these one by one from the bark of the trees and take them home where the whole family children and all go over the bristles and sort them out according to lengths and sizes, putting them in bunches, butts down.

Many days work is required to collect enough for one brush and at the rate of wages in this country a brush collected and made in this country

$4,225,000 AVAILABLE FOR FEDERAL HIGHWAY AID.

Austin, Texas, Nov. 19.—The State Highway Commission, at its regular monthly meeting next Monday, will have available $4,225,000 as State and Federal aid for construction of highways in Texas. R. M. Hubbard, chairman of the commission, announced today. Mr. Hubbard arrived today, making preliminary arrangements for putting into effect in Texas the new Federal highway law.

The many friends of Hardy Price will be glad to know that he is making the same enviable record at Baylor College at Dallas that he made last year. He has been elected president of the Senior class. He has also been appointed teacher of chemistry in the junior class.

Thrift is shorthand for "Waste not, want not" would be almost prohibitive in price. Traders visit these isolated peasants and trade merchandise for the bristles which they sell to a buyer. He takes them to Ninji Novgorod, the great market of Russia, where buyers from large houses in England, Japan, and other countries come to buy raw materials. The cleansing and sterilizing is done mostly in England and Japan by expert workmen with a special process. They are then shipped to this country where they are made into brushes and sold to the general public.

Now we come to the horse hair. The white hair we get from China, South America and Russia. These three countries produce a far better hair for two purposes, mainly its ability and its softness.

In normal times large quantities are shipped to this country, but for the past two or three years during war time the hair market has almost been closed to world trade. The best white hair comes from the Russian pony and is nearly as stiff as bristles—wears and costs about the same. Tail and mane hair only being used.

Black horse hair is mostly imported for the fact that our domestic horse hair is not durable and wears out very quickly.

GOV. NEFF PROCLAIMS DAY OF THANKSGIVING

Austin, Nov. 19.—Governor Pat M. Neff has issued the following proclamation for Thanksgiving:

"In Colonial days when the material blessings of life were but a fraction of those with which it now abounds, our forefathers conceived the wisdom of dedicating a day in the fruitful Autumn in which to render praise and thanksgiving to the Giver of all good gifts. At this season of the year, our hearts are intuitively filled with gratitude, and in deference to that long-established custom we lift our voices in expression of devout thankfulness for the manifestations of His generous Providence throughout the passing year.

"While during the seasons now drawing to a close we have experienced financial depression and slight reverses of fortune characteristic of mortal projects, and while harvest yields have not been so abundant as in other years, yet the productiveness of our vast acreage has amply provided for our needs and we are rich in that progressive and hopeful spirit which looks beyond temporary reverses and maintains an abiding faith in the wisdom of Him who guides our destinies. Our people have been permitted to enjoy peace, liberty, health and the companionship of loved ones; they have been privileged to enjoy that security in life, in property and in the pursuit of happiness which is the crowning achievement of our great democracy.

"Therefore, in keeping with the honored custom inaugurated by our Pilgrim fathers, and in response to the desire of our people, I, Pat M. Neff, Governor of the State of Texas, do hereby appoint Thursday, the 24th day of November, A. D. 1921, Thanksgiving Day throughout the State. Let all who dwell within the borders of our commonwealth on that day cease from their wonted occupations and in their homes and customary places of worship render thanks to Almighty God.

"To their sincere and humble thanksgiving, let our people add their earnest prayers that the harvest of the sacrificial services of our sons on the world-wide battlefield may be the blessing of an abiding and earth-encircling peace, and to that end let us beseech divine guidance for those who are now assembled in disarmed conference in our Nation's capital."

RANGER MAN GIVEN TWO YEARS FOR THEFT

In the case of the State of Texas vs. R. M. Todd of Ranger, charged with theft by bailee, the County Attorney's department secured a conviction and defendant was given two years in the state penitentiary. This is the first case prosecuted by the County Attorney's department since Ove E. Overson took charge of the office.

R. M. Todd of Ranger, convicted and given two years in the state penitentiary for theft, was granted a new trial by Judge E. A. Hill, Thursday.—Eastland Chronicle.

Mrs. Yajima, Japanese woman ninety years old noted welfare worker of her country, is in America, bringing to President Harding a petition for peace signed by ten thousand Japanese women, who "are hoping and praying for the success of the conference on limitation of armament."

Baron Takahashi, minister of finance in the Hara cabinet, has been named as Premier of Japan, to succeed Premier Hara, who was assassinated recently. Premier Takahashi speaks English fluently and has been in the United States.

President Harding's home town—Marion, Ohio,—has gone Democratic. The Dallas News remarks that evidently the President's Birmingham speech, in which he deplored sectional solidarity, has already borne fruit.

The world's oil supply, as estimated by the United States Geological Survey, amounts to forty-three billion barrels. Of this, the United States has seven billion barrels, or practically one-sixth of the entire world's supply.

EFFICIENCY
It ain't a senseless hoardin'
Nor stinting of our need,
But efficiency in spendin'
That should become our creed.

It ain't some money set aside
On impulse once in awhile,
But steady savin' day by day
That builds the steady pile.

SUPREME FLOUR--The People's Choice

Time shows development from small things to great. Not but one quarter of a century ago "Supreme" was only a community Flour; today it is used in thousands of homes in Texas as well as in foreign lands. Then—the question—Why its growth? Because of its unfailing uniformity. This Company has worked conscientiously, carefully, and painstakingly to excel in quality. You are due it to yourself to take advantage of an extra quality Flour when offered.
"Supreme" is no longer a chance, but a sure hit.

territory has commanded much interest since a pay sand was found at 2600 feet. This sand is thought by oil men to correspond to the 2500-foot sand found in the South Bend field and similar to that found in the McCluskey discovery well.

Oil City is fast taking on the proportions of an oil town as many new buildings have been erected and much improvement is going on continually.

There is no better proposition known in the oil game than 500-barrel wells that produce from a sand around 2000 feet, as the cost of a well is nominal and development may be quickly done. There are three pipe lines now taking Eunger oil which is of high gravity and tests over 40 degrees. Water and gas have been piped to the field for development purposes so that operators may quickly proceed with the work. These are the prime factors that have stimulated development in this section and will continue to do so. A bonus of 15c over the regular price of $2.25 a barrel is being offered by some of the companies in the field and it all helps Young county.

"We thank thee for our health and strength, for life and its opportunities, for home and its glow, for love and its beauty, for fellowship and fraternity, for the call to duty and civic righteousness.

"We thank thee for this our country and for our part in the realization of its hope and destiny; for the spirit of liberty and good will and for the religious freedom which permits every man to worship thee according to the dictates of his conscience.

"We thank thee for the international peace and brotherhood abroad at this time in the world, which promises the coming of the dawn of thy kingdom on earth. Amen."—Contributed.

Terrell Becomes State Treasurer

Terrell, of Decatur, Wise county, became State Treasurer today, filing his bond for $75,000, and assuming control of $3,912,110 cash and $29,126,891 in bonds or a total of $33,039,001. INDIANS MAY NOT BRING LAND SUIT

Washington, Nov. 21.—The Supreme Court today denied the application of the Texas Cherokee Indians for permission to file an original bill against the State of Texas to recover the value of one and a half million acres of land in East Texas, and damages from the State of Texas for being dispossessed from the property shortly after Texas won its independence from Mexico. Refusal of the court to grant the permission to file the suit was based upon the case 'State of Georgia, decided by the Supreme Court at its January term in 1831.

50 PER CENT OF BIG INCOMES FOR TAXES

Both Senate and House have agreed to a sur-tax maximum of 50 per cent during the coming year. Both bodies voted this percentage in spite of the plea from President Harding "that a maximum surtax of 40 per cent would be agreeable to the administration." It was thought for a time that a 32 per cent maximum, as originally voted by the House, would be adopted. Incomes of $100,000 per year will be forced to pay 48 per cent.

TEACHERS ASSOCIATION MEETS IN DALLAS TODAY

The State Teachers Association convenes in Dallas today. Four or five thousand teachers are expected. This is the greatest gathering of teachers in Texas during the year. There are several district associations in the State but each Thanksgiving day the teachers from over the State gather for a three days session.

Several of our city teachers and a large number from the county went to Dallas today to be present at the session which convenes today.

Chicago has in use within the city limits 2,000,000 miles of telephone wire, sufficient to encompass the earth at the equator 76 times.

Oil Production In Texas Continues to Rise; Mexia Cause

Increase in the output of the North Central Texas oil fields continued during the week which closed Friday, the daily average being 105,785 barrels. Total production for the North Texas and North Central Texas fields amounted to 190,975 barrels a day, or 19,140 barrels a day more than the average for the week before. The increase is due to the rising production of the Mexia field, which is credited with a gain of 2,600 barrels a day.

Slight decreases were reported in every field in the northern half of the State last week.

WHY OIL WENT UP.

To settle arguments, information is given that the average price of Pennsylvania crude, which is the barometer of general oil prices, before the war was around $2.50. The 1920 peak was $6.10.

Advances in crude—four of them in Texas since the last of September—are due to three causes, according to a northern contemporary, as follows: First—A price war has broken out, with big refiners getting ready to squeeze the small ones.

Second—Oil production, under low prices, had fallen so low that a shortage was becoming probable.

Third—The rich oil fields of southern Mexico are giving out—going to salt water.
