Tudor Sales Company Shows Steady Growth

The past Tuesday, the 7th day of March, a young red muzzled young man and his beautiful young wife opened the first automobile sales and service in Brownfield. That was 20 years ago, and this week, are celebrating the 20th anniversary in Brownfield of a concern that has rocketed upward for 20 long years, and is still going good. True, the male half of the firm, W. B. (Red) Tudor is not quite so handsome as then, but we believe that age has really beautified the modest, gentle speaking girl of 20 springs ago, into par excellent character of Mrs. Tudor. In all that time, they have never practiced high pressure salesmanship on any customer, nor do they allow their employees to do so.

If one is ready to buy, very good; otherwise, they are left free to make up their minds, or become the victim of some one who does presume to use pressure. For a few years before landing in Brownfield, Mr. Tudor had been employed by the old Bradley Ford agency at Lubbock, the oldest Ford agencies so far as we know on the south Plains. His young manhood had been spent with his father and brother as building contractors, locating in Slaton when that town was first laid out and started a rapid growth. Their first building here was a modest affair, being 40x80 frame structure, standing where the storage rooms are now located.

Burned Out

Red had just stocked the building with several thousand dollars worth of parts, when on the night of January 21, 1920, the building and contents went up in smoke, only partially covered by insurance, as insurance here then, with no fire department or water-works was almost prohibitive. Of course some of the parts came through the fire only slightly damaged, but some were warped and ruined. But he also lost his building, which had to be replaced, which was of brick and concrete, now the storage department and wash rooms, only partially shown in the picture accompanying this article. During its construction, they moved into the old tin building on north Sixth. The first unit of the permanent home of Tudor Sales Co., was finished and occupied about Jan. 1, 1921.

Had to Have More Room

Their first mechanics were Curley Gamble and Roy Harris, who each worked until they went into some other business or a business of their own. There has been very little hiring or firing of employees at this plant, for when they get a good man, they keep him, as you will see by the average length of service of their present personnel. But a rapid growth of the business necessitated ed the purchase of the corner 50x140 feet, and a new light brick structure started on it, being completed Feb. 1, 1925. This gave them a building 100x100 feet or 100,000 feet of floor space. The front of the new section is plate glass, as well as some 20 feet on the west side, giving them an ideal show room. Just back of the show room are the offices and parts departments, which are therefore connected with both the front display rooms and the mechanical department in the rear of the building, being easily accessible to each.

A Model Work Shop in Rear

In the rear, of the main building, is a large, light and airy work room, in which is installed all the machinery and devices to test and overhaul and make like new any model Ford car, although little work is now done on Model T's. For instance they have one machine that will accurately test the working of any section of the motor, including ignition, spark plugs, carburetor, clutches, or what have you. Tobe Helm is foreman of the body department and is said to be the best workman on that section of a car in the city. Glen Harris is superb when it comes to finding the engine trouble and correcting it. In this room is located the hydraulic hoist, which gives access to the bottom section of a car for either greasing or working on it. Ervin Rambo is usually given this particular job, although Wayne Brown is excellent in that capacity as well as any other assigned him.

Perhaps there is not another lady in the city that has at her finger tips as complete statistics of their business as Mrs. Tudor. Just ask how many cars of a certain make they sold during a certain year and you get the dope right now. It was interesting to make such quizzes on some points and get a quick and accurate answer. Not a "just about," or "somewhere near that," but the actual number. For instance, we asked who bought the first car of each model, "T," "A," and "V-8" from them. Bob Snodgrass bought the first T model from them. Andrew Copeland and E. A. Graham each bought the first A model from them on the 15th day of March 1928. That was following the long wait of 15 months between the closing out of Model T's and the introduction of the A. And W. L. Bandy bought the last model T from them. Jas. H. Dallas, now postmaster, bought the first V-8 in March 1932.

The Best Business Years

Mrs. Tudor also had the correct dope on the best selling years of each model at her finger tips. For instance, their best year on model T's was in 1924, when they sold 298 units. Feature if you can what a string of cars that would be parked side by side. Some day count the number of cars parked, well spaced in a block, and see how far short they fall of 298. The year 1929 was their best A model year, having sold 180 units, and 1937 was their best V-8 year, 130, although 1935 crowded it with 113. They began selling Zephyrs in 1936, and the Mercury last fall.

Their Salesmen and Mechanic

As stated above, the Tudor Sales Co., has a well organized crew from the office force on

C of C Elects New Officers

The newly elected Board of Directors of the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce held their first meeting on Tuesday, March 7 at 10 a. m., for the purpose of electing officers, appointing committees and for such other business as might be necessary. J. O. Gillham was elected President, J. B. Knight, Vice-President and J. E. Shelton, Secretary. After considerable discussion of the problems that confronted us as it concerned the continued development of Brownfield and of Terry county, the following committees were appointed and others were deferred until a special meeting that will be called within the next few days. A Budget Committee, a Membership Committee, Banquet Committee and a Program Committee, were appointed, the latter two for the purpose of arranging for the Annual Banquet which is to occur Wednesday night, March 15, at 8 o'clock, at the high school gymnasium.

General Robert Lee Bobbitt, Chairman of the Texas Highway Commission will be our honor guest and principal speaker.

The following citizens compose the Board of Directors: J. O. Gillham, J. B. Knight, Tom May, R. A. Simms, I. M. Bailey, Tom Cobb, E. E. Jones, R. L. Bowers, C. J. Smith, H. R. Winston, C. C. Coleman, R. E. Self, E. G. Akers. Several years ago the Directors abandoned the policy of regular meetings, only meeting upon call of the secretary, but a change was decided upon and hereafter, board meetings will be had on the first Tuesday night in each month. It is also possible that membership meetings will be held quarterly. Somewhat upon the Open Forum style, in which members of the organization will be asked to offer suggestions concerning activities that should be sponsored by the organization.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Patterson of Lubbock, parents of Joe Patterson of the Club Cafe were here Sunday visiting the Patterson family.

down to salesmen and mechanic. Each unit works in complete harmony, and are true and loyal to the firm. Supplementing Mrs. Tudor in the office, is Mrs. Jane Copeland as bookkeeper, with two year service. E. A. Rambo, mechanic, with the firm 17 years being senior in point of service. Wayne Brown, mechanic, 13 years; Tobe Helm, mechanic, 14 years; Carl Lewis, used car salesman, 15 years; Clyde Bond, salesman, 12 years; Glen Harris, mechanic, 6 years; Johnny Jones (colored) wash and grease, 2 years. Just where to place Red and Dad, we'll leave that up to the rest of the force.

As conclusive evidence this 20-year old concern is still a live wire, they sold 6 new Fords and a Zephyr last week. Also several used cars.

In conclusion will state that the firm carries a full line of V-8 and A parts, and they still have a fair stock of T parts for customers wishing them, or they will get what they do not have.

City to Accept Water - Sewer Extensions

According to Mayor Clyde C. Coleman, the contractors on the Water and Sewer system extensions including the new tower and reservoir, will in the next few days finish their work, and then await the action of PWA and city to take the work over. To the casual observer, the city has received a fine job from the PWA handle Construction Co.

But of course, the works must meet the critical inspection of PWA inspectors and the city engineer, but Mr. Coleman is of the opinion that there will be no hitch, whatever, and by the middle of next week, it will be accepted by the city.

The big new 150,000 gallon reservoir was filled with water this week, and there was no leaks indicated. Also the big 100,000 gallon concrete settling basin, partly below and partly above the ground surface, apparently holds water like a jug.

With this additional water in reserve, as well as the many additional feet of mains and fire plugs, Brownfield is well held now in case of fire or irrigation during dry weather.

Mayor Coleman informed us that during the hot dry weather last summer that it kept them humping to keep ahead of consumers running pumps almost 24 hours continually.

Local Girl Makes Good As Reporter

Miss Ruby Nell Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Smith, is attending college at Tech, and majoring in journalism. She hit the front page of Sunday's Avalanche-Journal with more than a column devoted to a report pledge meeting of Ko Shari, girls' social club, of which another Brownfield girl, Miss Queenelle Sawyer is president.

Among the fifteen pledged were Miss Vondee Lewis and Miss Doris Lee Gore, both Brownfield girls, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lewis and Sheriff and Mrs. Ches Gore. Members from Brownfield and formerly of this city were Miss Elray Lewis; Miss Mary Louise Tinkler of Lamesa, and Miss Betty Jo Savage of Lubbock, and the writer, Miss Smith of Brownfield.

To use a common expression, and the only one we are capable of using, Ruby Nell did the affair up in a neat package.

Sulphur Springs Man Buys Home Here

Mr. D. E. Walker of Sulphur Springs, Texas, was a visitor at the Herald office early Monday morning, in company with Mr. R. I. Pickett, an old friend, who stated that he liked Brownfield so well that he had purchased a residence in the Santa Fe addition of the city, and might later make this his home.

Mr. Walker, who is in the produce business at Sulphur Springs stated that Brownfield looked good to him, that there was so much improvements with a steady growth, and what was being built looked substantial and permanent, as if those who were building expected the town to amount to something.

He also stated that the new postoffice building costing $75,000 now under construction appeared to him to be sufficient to do justice to almost any small city, and that evidently Uncle Sam thought Brownfield would develop into something better than a cross roads town.

Whoops! Dr. G. S. Webber is really going western, as he has turned out his mustache since moving to the farm. Now if he will get some chin stubble, he might get in at the San Francisco World's fair as a '49er.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Collins left Tuesday afternoon for a vacation in Corpus Christi, Texas. They went by Lamesa and will be accompanied from there by his brother, W. B. and Mrs. Collins.

Meeting Called To Form Cemetery Ass'n.

County Attorney Burton G. Hackney authorized us this week to issue a call for a mass meeting in the District Court room, at 3 p. m., Tuesday, March 21, for the purpose of organizing a cemetery association. For years there has been nothing but a loose organization, no one seeming to be qualified to take the lead in improving our "City of the Dead."

The Herald urges each and every person in this area, whether they now have loved ones buried there, or not, just so they aim to make this their home, not to fail to attend this meeting.

With some needed work done by some one in charge who understands planning and landscaping, the present site can be made beautiful, especially if we can just get city water piped to the site.

But, it is not the assignment of the Herald to tell people what is to happen at the meeting in advance. Attend, help elect the officers, and then do all you can to cooperate with them.

Hyman Leases Service Station

Ira Hyman has leased the Chisholm Service Station in the rear of the Smith & Bost grocery, fronting on Fifth street, taking charge of the station March 1. Mr. Hyman stated that he was undecided about changing the name of the station. Ira has had two years experience as an employee of the station, and worked in the Chisholm Hardware two years before that time.

Three grades of Cosden gas will be carried, as well as a full line of Cosden as well as other brands of tubes and greases. He will also handle kerosene. In the very near future, he will handle a full line of tires and tubes, to be announced later.

Ira is a deserving young man, and will appreciate a share of your business. He has a wife and one child.

NAZIS CALL BIBLE ONE OF 3 POISONS

BERLIN, March 5. — The magazine At the Source of Germany Strength, organ of the neopagan cult organized by the late Gen. Erich Ludendorff, Saturday linked the Bible with tobacco and strong drink as three poisons to be avoided by Germans.

I. D. Leach was in Monday grumbling because we gave him the high sign over the top of a car recently. Well, we thought he belonged to the Order of the Mystic Sea, and classified as a sucker.

Mrs. Savage Made Principal of School

And still the old saying about the small town boy or girl who made good in the city, is more truth than poetry. For some time we have been hearing that Mrs. Ivy Savage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Green of this city, was to be made principal of one of the Lubbock grammar schools, and Sunday, the pictures of the principals came out in the Avalanche-Journal, Mrs. Savage included.

While not definitely stated, it is believed she will be given the charge of a new ward school that is to be built in the northeast section of the city. In fact, we understand that she feels so sure of the one she gets, that she has purchased property near it on which to build.

Mrs. Savage finished high school at Brownfield, and registered in Simmons University before she was fifteen. After teaching several years in the rural schools of this county, she began teaching in the Brownfield school, and was principal of the ward school when she resigned.

Having obtained a contract with the Lubbock schools, she moved there several years ago, in order to put her two children, Bill and Betty Jo through Tech college. Both are now attending Tech.

PASTOR MUFFLED IN AIR ATTACK ON GARNER

FORT WORTH, Texas, Mar. 5. — Radio Station KTAT, one of the key stations in the Texas State Network, Wednesday cut a radio preacher off the air in the middle of an attack on Vice-President John N. Garner and announced it would not tolerate political programs with the false front of religion.

The speaker was the Rev. John Lovell, middle-aged pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church of Ranger, who has been at odds with studio officials for some time for his attacks on certain religious sects in his radio sermons.

Rev. and Mrs. John W. Hendrix accompanied by Mesdames J. H. Carpenter and Herod, went to Lubbock Tuesday to attend the district Missionary Conference at the First Methodist church. Rev. Hendrix informed us that he was merely chauffeur.

Miss Twilla Graham who underwent an appendix operation a few days ago, at the local hospital, was moved home the first of the week.

Jim Graves who has been quite ill of pneumonia, is reported to be some better. Mrs. Graves has also been ill of the flu.

County Judges To Meet In Lubbock

LUBBOCK, March 7. — At least five hundred county judges and commissioners from 124 West Texas counties will meet in Lubbock March 16, 17 and 18 to hold their annual convention, announced Homer T. Bouldin, President of the Association.

Registration will start at 4 p. m. Thursday, March 16, in the lobby of the Hotel Lubbock, convention headquarters. The first evening there will be a dance in the main ballroom of the headquarters hotel.

Starting promptly at 9 a. m. Friday, the first session will begin with Judge E. L. Pitts, of the district court at Lubbock, giving the address of welcome.

Some of the important addresses on the two day program will be "County Highway and Road Bond Indebtedness," by Hon. Harvey Gordon; "The Financial Structure of the State Government," by State Senator Morris Roberts; "Current Legislative Problems," will be the address given by Emmett Morris, Speaker of the House of Representatives; and "Preservation of the County Government" by Hon. John Lee Smith.

The annual banquet will be held the second evening, followed by a dance at the Hotel Lubbock. Saturday morning's session will have a number of important speakers, followed by the annual business session and the selection of the next convention city.

North Carolina Gives Contract to Star Tires

According to McClish & Lowmore of this city, Star Tire dealers, their company has recently landed the contract with the State of North Carolina to furnish tires for all their school buses, trucks and state owned cars. This was a big deal, and naturally this lets The Star people more and more into the big business of the nation. This huge contract calls for an expenditure of $326,000, and the deliveries will be made through the Hicks offices at Waco, Texas, as they are needed. Naturally, Messrs. McClish and Lowmore are proud of the fact that their company has landed this big contract, and the Herald joins the boys in well wishes in their growing sales in the Brownfield section.

The fact that these state contracts are coveted by every major tire company in the nation, and is solicited and bid on by the majority of them makes their award noteworthy.

Twin boys were recently born to a Kansas City couple five days apart, Feb. 5, and Feb. 10.

Wellman School and Gymnasium

The photo shows the new $45,000 school building and gymnasium of the Wellman community in Terry county. It was constructed as a PWA project. Until the time of its consolidation with the Hunter, Sawyer and Wilson school districts in 1936, Wellman was a five-teacher school with 86 pupils and no affiliation. Since that time, it has acquired 22½ units of affiliation, operates four buses, has 12 teachers, two new brick buildings, modern throughout, two new modern teacherages, bus sheds and an enrollment of 386 pupils.

J. B. Bell has been superintendent for the past three years, coming to Wellman from the Harmony school in Terry county.

A Large Crowd Shopping Here Monday

A bit better than an average crowd was here Monday for Tradesday, and in fact, apparently there were more people than on Saturday. It is believed that the bad sandstorm Saturday kept many away, and that they came in Monday as it was a pretty day.

By the way, there is some talk of discontinuing Tradesday, as the State is hitting us up for 20 per cent of the prize money, and some of the merchants say their business is no better than any other Monday.

Mayor Clyde Coleman made a business trip to Tulia, Tuesday.

The Official Paper of Terry County and the City of Brownfield

If a newspaper makes a mistake on a small item, there are any number of people ready to call it down, and offer plenty criticism generally. But if it writes ten thousand good things, possibly some one will mention the fact in a complimentary way. Last week, we wrote quite an article on the value of capital punishment in Texas, and one good lady of the city called in to compliment the article. She remarked that she had read so much sob-sister stuff about the brutality of capital punishment, that she was glad the Herald had the courage and conviction to come out against such a law. Truth of the matter is, all of us are for capital punishment if it is OUR folks that suffers the indignities of the rapist or the kidnapper.

Weather? Well, it has been pretty regular so far this week, gradually leaving the frigid for the softer tones of spring, but we'll hit the wood a wrap with our knuckles on that. But last week—are you asking about that? Three of the worst sandstorms in one week we have ever seen on the Plains, beginning last Monday and ending Sunday night. And many of the old timers say the wind Sunday night for about an hour was the hardest they ever felt here. Several have stated to us that they missed church Sunday to clean up after the one that raged all day Saturday, only to have their houses filled again Sunday afternoon and night. Never again, they say.

The Herald acknowledges receipt of the book recently printed and distributed by Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel on the Development of the Natural Resources of Texas, and while we have not had time to review the book as well as we want to and will do before we are finished with it, we will say this much already. It is the best and most complete statistical statement of facts about Texas that any governor of this state or any other individual that we know of has ever put up to the public. Evidently Gov. O'Daniel was not wasting his time last summer following his nomination, when he was closeted for weeks with some of the biggest industrialists, manufacturers and producers of Texas. They were ferreting out facts about Texas. But more about this book, which is well printed in large clear type on good paper, when we have more time to review it.

Not all young men follow absolutely in the footsteps of dad, despite the old saying that "dad went to mill with corn in one end of the sack and a rock in the other, so will I." Elliott Roosevelt is a fair example of the departure from normal Monday when he everlastingly whaled the national administration and particularly the Interstate Commerce Commission for permitting the gross injustice to the south and west of freight rates, which as he stated started back after the Civil War, when the industrial east and north had the south under its feet, and wished to make it as hard as possible for the overrun south and southwest to recover. Elliott Roosevelt has now been in the south as a citizen of Texas long enough to notice many of the injustices and inequalities that we suffer, and being a Roosevelt, he speaks his mind about the matter, letting the chips fall where they may. If something is not done about the matter, the railroad commissions of each southern state should set a fair and just rate equal to that of other sections, and instruct its citizens to pay that and no more. And we'd like to see some one try to collect any more by law or otherwise.

Another feature that should be considered by the Legislature is that trucks from our neighboring States can enter Texas without paying one penny for the right to use our roads (many times these out of State trucks even carry their own gas to avoid paying that tax) and compete with our local haulers. On the other hand if a truck from this State enters one of our adjoining States they pay and pay. Somehow that sort of set up doesn't make sense. Protection of our trucking industry with fair rates will aid them much more than any amount of load-limit raising can do.—Ralls Banner.

A MENACE TO FREE LABOR

American labor should consider the condition of workers in countries where private industry has been swallowed by government. What would happen to a group of laboring men in Russia or Germany if they called a strike in a government-owned industry? If news reports are correct, their shift would be short, for to strike against the government in those countries is treason.

The politician who advocates public ownership of industry in the United States, on the theory that in some miraculous manner this will give the people some untold blessing, is merely camouflaging a move toward the iron-handled control and limitation of individual rights which is an inescapable part of socialistic, communistic, or fascist government. It's not a pretty picture for free labor in the United States, if it looks ahead to see what its position would be under government ownership of industries. It's one thing for labor, organized or unorganized, to deal with a private employer. It is quite a different thing to deal with government.

You can negotiate on wage matters with a private employer, call a strike against him if you aren't satisfied, and still have the police and court protection of the government. But when you are working for government, and strike against government—particularly when government becomes all powerful through control of production and distribution—you are helpless. A strike then means revolution.

Labor should be the staunchest supporter of private enterprise in its fight against the growing menace of state socialism.

BOB BURNS ON ADVERTISING

Bob Burns, the Hollywood comedian, says: I see there was a place in Texas that was dry needin' rain so a newspaper editor put in an ad statin' "Nice soaking rain wanted;" And I'll be wet to the skin if the sky didn't cloud up and drop an inch and a half of water on the town not more'n two hours after the paper was off the press. This jes' goes to show the power of newspaper advertising! You kin get most anythin' you go after, if you jes' let the world know about it. There's always somebody who's itchin' to get rid of what you'd like to have. A young married couple put an item in the paper under 'Notices,' It read: Dear Mother in law, We know you see this every night, so we're publishing this message to you and we want you to take it in the right spirit. You have been visiting in our home long enough. Your daughter and son-in-law would like to have their home to themselves for awhile. Believe it or not 23 mother-in-laws packed up the very next day and gave their married children a break. Don't tell me it don't pay to advertise.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Woosley and neice, Peggy, of Brady are visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Kendrick. Mr. Woosley is Mrs. Kendrick's brother.

A 'SIT-DOWN' AGAINST TAXES

When a mayor tries to get citizens NOT to pay their taxes—that's news. Yet that is exactly what a Massachusetts mayor suggested, a "sit-down" of taxpayers. He proposed it as a means to enforce budget reduction.

Of course, the mayor did not think up anything new. We've got plenty of those kind of "sit-downers" right here in Big Spring, as has many another city in this country of ours. These sit-downers are the folks who owe delinquent taxes.

Like the few sit-downers in an industrial establishment who throw the hardships of unemployment on all the workers, the tax dodgers throw a heavier burden on those citizens who conscientiously pay their tax bills when they are due.

If these slackers would pay city, county and state agencies what they owe, the load on everyone else would be relieved—and the financial standing of these governments helped greatly. Taking care of tax sit-downers seems to call for "strong arm" methods—a persistent tax collector.—Big Spring Herald.

DICTIONARIES COME HIGH

One of the favorite tricks-of-the-trade of the dictators is to show how they have ended unemployment and want in their countries, and to argue from this that one-man government is the way to human happiness and prosperity. The government-dominated German press for instance, is always publishing articles about want and starvation in America, as 'proof' of their theory that democracy is a degenerate and out-of-date theory of government.

In the light of that, some figures presented by Paul Mallon, representing "months of careful personal investigation, penetrating guarded dictatorial secrets," are of exceptional interest.

In Russia, according to this survey, the average worker gets $11 a week, and in Germany he gets $12 to $15. In the United States, he gets $23.32.

In Russia, the lowest paid class of workers get $3.60 and in Germany $4.25. In this country they get $4.80 (WPA minimum.)

And that doesn't tell half the story. The big thing of interest to the worker anywhere is "real wages"—that is, his pay computed in terms of what it will buy, rather than in terms of dollars, marks or rubles. A pound of steak costs a dollar or more in either Russia or Germany as against 38 cents here. A pound of coffee costs $12 in Russia and $1.25 in Germany as against 23 cents here. A dozen eggs cost $1.26 in Russia and 72 cents in Germany, as against 44 cents here. So it goes, down the list of necessities and luxuries.

What is responsible for our world supremacy in the workers' standard of living? You can answer that in three words—the capitalist system, which encourages private enterprise. You can denounce that system all you please, but what else has brought about the industrial progress that has given us more money for less work—and has given even low paid workers things that only the favored official minority in the dictatorship can buy?—Industrial News Review.

TWO SEMINOLE MEN DIED HERE RECENTLY

Two Seminole, Texas, men have died at the local hospital in the past week with pneumonia, both being brought in with double pneumonia, and practically gone when received.

The first to pass was Mr. W. I. Conway, 50, who died Saturday the 4th. The body was carried to Seminole for burial. Homer B. Long, 43, who we understand was an oil field worker, died Sunday night. The body was shipped to Comanche, Okla.

Mrs. Chas. Limer, (nee Sallie Holden) sister of Mrs. Stricklin, who made her home in Brownfield several years ago, was operated on at a hospital at Long Beach, Calif., last week, and is reported to be doing nicely.

L. A. Greenfield reports that the flu has had his family down for the past two weeks. Even the hired girl they got to take care of the family came down with it.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sawyer left Tuesday for a visit to Hot Spring, Ark., and will return by way of Santa Fe, where they will spend Easter Sunday with Queenelle, who will be there with the Ko Shari club of Tech, that spends each Easter there.

WELLMAN

Mrs. Barns, aged mother of Mrs. Edwards, Sr., who has been ill several months passed away late Saturday evening. He remains were laid to rest in the Forrester cemetery, after the funeral services at 4:00 p. m. Sunday.

Her children, grandchildren and other survivors have the sympathy of their many friends in the Wellman community. May they have the satisfaction of knowing death cannot enter the sphere to which the departed one removed, and look to that future when all are reunited.

There will be a box supper at the Wellman high school auditorium, March 8 at 8:30 p. m., sponsored by the Junior class.

Junior Lawrence has been ill, but is able to be in school again this week.

Miss Jaunita Rex, one of the 1938 graduates from Wellman high school is working in the telephone office at Seagraves. She visited Miss Winaford Christopher one day this week.

Mrs. Wilson Roberts, who underwent a minor operation at Dr. Jacobson's office Saturday is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Eruce Story have been visiting Mr. Story's sister, Mrs. J. C. Little.

Mrs. Dot Oliver entertained a group of friends in her home last Thursday p. m.

BAPTIST CHURCH

The services Sunday morning were well attended however a good number remained at home cleaning from Saturday evening, but they were rewarded for their work by a worse sandstorm Sunday evening and night and the congregation at night was small on account of the storm.

The B. T. U. attendance was affected by this dust storm but the training service is slowly improving under Mr. Newman the new director. There is a department for every age and if you have never had the advantage of studying how to make your Christian life more effective come into one of these departments at 6:45 p. m. each Sunday evening.

The W. M. U. met in circles Monday evening with 27 present and they will meet in circles next Monday at 3 p. m. for Mission study.

Reagan circle meets with Mrs. Cary; Lockett with Mrs. Heath, Lottie Moon with Mrs. Rhyne.

There will be a meeting for all of those who have not finished the book "Go Forward," at Mother Greens at 3 p. m., Monday.

If you sing and have an interest in seeing better music rendered in the church meet for choir practice Tuesday evening at 7:45.

Do not complain at any portion of the services until you have put all into them that you are able to offer and if this rule is followed there will be very little complaining. As Doctor Gambrell would express it, "Givers never kick and kickers never give."

The weather stripping of the basement was not completed any too soon and it makes a very comfortable meeting place in any kind of weather, but the new auditorium is so badly needed on account of additional Sunday school room that the unanimous verdict is to finish raising the money and start the work this Spring. Funds are coming in slowly but much additional cash must be raised before the work can start.

May next Sunday bring good weather and a large attendance at every service. Visitors are welcome.

METHODIST CHURCH

John Witt Hendrix, Pastor
Church school opens at 9:45 a. m. and closes one hour later. It thereby issues to you and yours a most cordial invitation to be present.

The church offers two periods of public worship, 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m.
Morning worship invites you to these privileges: To associate with a cordial group; to worship with them; to join the choir in singing some of the best hymns of the church; and to join with the pastor in the discussion of a timely topic, namely, "SURVEYING NEW FIELDS." This is none other than an honest endeavor to discover what we must do more than the past has done.

EVENING WORSHIP offers a big, free service, your favorite song in the big sing, and to share in the sermon by the pastor. Are you pleased with the happenings in these last few years? Are you highly pleased with the outlook? If not, what are we going to do about it? What is the thing we ought to do? The subject is, "ON WHITTLIN' DOWN." Will we win by saying, if I were some big somebody, a senator, member of congress, a big shot, I'd do so and so; but as I'm not, I'll follow the line of least resistance?

Leagues begin at 6 p. m. And you are invited. This will furnish you a worship period in your exact age group, and will furnish you a way to take part in public expression of your views.

Mrs. Dave Evans is visiting relatives in Denver, Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Oley Stice of Midland, visited Mr. and Mrs. Orb Stice, Sunday.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Fred A. Walker Pastor
Sunday School, 10:00 o'clock.
Morning Worship, 11:00 o'clock.
Senior C. E., 6:30 o'clock.
Evening Worship, 7:30 o'clock.
Last Sunday morning Mr. W. H. Dallas was presented with a gold watch by the Sunday School upon retiring as Superintendent after serving in that position for twenty-two years. Mr. John King made the presentation talk and gave an interesting history of the Church and Sunday School. The occasion was made all the more impressive because J. H. Dallas was elected to follow his father as Superintendent. The largest crowd of the year was present for Sunday School. You are invited to come Sunday and help in the campaign to double attendance at all services.

Sunday morning the pastor will speak on, "What Is My Religion Worth?" as we continue our program of evangelism. Bring a friend with you and come praying for God's blessings. Sunday night you will enjoy the song service and fellowship at the preaching service.

P-T. A. PICK UPS

The regular meeting of West Ward Parent-Teacher Association was called to order Thursday evening, March 2, by Mrs. Baze, acting as president. Those present stood and sang Texas songs, with the celebration of Texas Week. Two of Miss Rasco's pupils, Ted White and Albert Lee Hester, gave musical numbers. Bro. Walker gave a talk on "Character Building on the Playground," and his conclusion was that play influences a child more than any activity in which he participates.

Radios were given to the school by Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Cates. Each grade needs a radio for the programs given each week over KFYO, and if you have one that is not being used it will be appreciated.

The Milk Fund was much larger for the past month and the cooperation in this was grand. Milk is given to some 35 undernourished children each day and it must be cared for.

MRS. TRAVIS BYNUM GETS MONOXIDE POISON

Travis Bynum, old timer, who recently moved to Tatum, N. M. and bought a helpy-help laundry, was through Saturday from Odessa, where he had been to visit his brother, Arnett, who is confined there in a hospital from well night fatal injuries a few weeks ago. While at the Herald office, he informed us that he came near losing his wife from what was supposed to be monoxide poisoning last week.

While he did not so state, we presume the accident happened in the laundry, where there was possibly bad fuel combustion. When she fell, he carried her across the street to a drug store where first aid was rendered, and a doctor was called at Lovington, who informed him that all was done for his wife that he could do if there.

Mrs. Bynum is recovering nicely from her narrow call.

LPCA REDUCES RATES ONE-HALF CENT

The interest rate to members of the Lubbock Production Credit Association was reduced one half of one per cent on all money advanced beginning February 24. Wade Cooper, Secretary-Treasurer announced for the Board of Directors of the Lubbock Production Credit Association.

"This is made possible," said Mr. Cooper, "by the continued ready sale of Federal Intermediate Credit Bank debentures to the investing public bearing low rates of interest and the favorable operating results of the Federal Intermediate Credit Banks and the production credit association during 1938." Mr. Cooper explained that the association discounts the farmers' notes which it takes with the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Houston.

Behind the Scenes in American Business

NEW YORK, MAR. 6 — BUSINESS — It was becoming apparent last week that the threat of a raw silk shortage, coupled with rocketing prices, might cause some mills to shut down in this country before long. Only 17,500 bales of raw silk are in transit from Japan which reports it has sold all the new silk in its stocks. Dealers expect a boost in the retail price of silk stockings after Easter. Aside from the possible crisis in this industry, U. S. businessmen saw nothing in the domestic horizon to alter their prediction that another step upward toward full recovery would begin sometime during the spring. Iron ore movement, depressed last year, is expected to be heavier this spring. This is vital to prosperity in the West and Northwest. One major steel company plans to operate 64 ore steamships out of its fleet of 73; the company last year operated only 29 ships. That retailers of woolen goods expect a good sales improvement is indicated by reports that unfilled orders on hand woolen mills are some 60 per cent higher than a year ago.

WASHINGTON — With a 250,000,000 bushel wheat surplus to dispose of, it is understood the Department of Agriculture is considering the practicality of arranging three-way barter deals with foreign countries. For example, the United States might ship wheat to Germany in exchange for farm machinery and other manufactured goods, which would, in turn, be reshipped by the U. S. to South America in exchange for rubber, coffee and other raw materials this country needs. Foreign trade experts of the department have been consulting with State, Treasury and Commerce Department officials, Congressmen, and representatives of other governments. Barter would be applied first to wheat, it is said, and if successful, then later to cotton and other crops in which farm surpluses exist.

did you ever eat any barbecued turkey? It's Jerry's specialty. The highway a short distance north of Austin is torn up again—or yet. Most of last summer, traffic had to detour for miles because a small bridge was being built. Now there are two "one-way" spots, constituting inconvenience and danger on one of the most heavily-traveled roads in the state. One wonders why all three pieces of work weren't done at the same time.

I Give You Texas

By Boyce House

Critics of Governor O'Daniel have been so severe that they have overplayed their hands. You can criticize a man so bitterly that folks feel he is being persecuted. The Senate's rejection of Truett Smith for Insurance Commissioner because he voted against Coke Stevenson for Lieutenant Governor is rather peculiar grounds, especially in view of the fact that the candidate Smith supported was his old law partner. Nearly half a million people didn't vote for Coke Stevenson. Are they ineligible for state appointment?

Also hounded almost to martyrdom is Bill McDonald. Not satisfied with having defeated him at the polls, his enemies have pursued him even after he returned to private life. Which is the surest way there is to create sympathy for a man.

District Judge Ralph Yarborough took cognizance of lobbying activities when he charged a Travis County grand jury not long ago. While recognizing the "right of petition" of course, Judge Yarborough pointed out that certain lobbying practices are prohibited by law.

First thing Jerry Sadler did when he moved to Austin to become State Railroad Commissioner was to build a barbecue pit in the backyard of his home. When he gives a barbecue, he does the barbecuing himself. Not long ago, he entertained Austin newspapermen and he presented an interesting appearance, wearing boots, jumper, a leather jacket, an apron and a big white hat. By the way,

FARMER'S SHARE SMALLEST

College Station, Mar. 7.—The 'typical workingman' paid $321 for food his family consumed in 1938, and of this the farmer received $130 for his part in raising the products. The rest, $191, went to transportation agencies, processors, and distributors. The farmer's share of the consumer's food dollar in 1938—40 cents—was the smallest in four years, according to C. E. Bowels, specialist in cooperative marketing of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service. The figures were compiled by the USDA Bureau of Agricultural Economics. The calculation was based on a list of 58 foods consumed annually by a typical workingman's family. The 40 cents received by the farmer in 1938 compares unfavorably with 45 cents in 1937. The lowest mark in 26 years was in 1932 when the farmer received only 33 cents of the consumers' food dollar. The highest mark was reached in 1917 when producers received 60 cents of the consumers' food dollar and only 40 cents went for process and distribution costs. Bowels said the long time trend showed that the farmer was getting a smaller part of the consumers' dollar. The average share in the years 1913-20 was 55 cents, the 1921-29 average was 46 cents, and the 1930-36 figure 39 cents.

A ration for fattening a beef calf consists of three things: roughage (hay, cottonseed hulls, corn fodder, etc.); protein supplement (in Texas that means cottonseed meal or cake); and grain, (milo, corn, barley, and so on).

APPLICATION FOR SHELTERBELTS CLOSED MARCH 15

Wichita Falls, Texas, March 6.—Shelterbelt applications made after March 15 will not be accepted for planting this year, stated Mr. W. E. Webb, State Director of the Prairie States Forestry Project. With the planting season drawing to a close towards the end of this month, Mr. Webb declared it is necessary to make the final allocation of trees for these tree belts already approved.

Shelterbelts are recognized for their permanent values in a long time land use planning program. Because of this, land planted to shelterbelts is counted as retired acres by the Agricultural Conservation Administration, and soil is earned by cultivating and maintaining these trees. In the long run, however, the benefits of the trees themselves will bring far greater returns than these payments now amount to.

The trees which are planted are fast growing and drought resistant. They have been tested by time and experience to be suitable for shelterbelt purposes. In addition to reducing wind erosion of the soil, a shelterbelt will protect the soil and crops from rapid evaporation, furnish shelter for quail and other insect eating birds, provide miscellaneous wood products, and generally make the farm home more livable.

A study made of the D. L. Lane farm near Paducah was recently widely broadcast in all the local newspapers. The increased cotton yields and production of better grade of cotton in the field protected by a three year old shelterbelt is merely an indication of what can be expected of older tree belts.

Spring Time Is Clean-Up Time

April showers and May flowers aren't far away. That means spring cleaning time.

And spring cleaning shouldn't mean just shaking out the rugs, washing the curtains and dusting that little-used spare bed room. It should mean a definite, planned program for putting property in apple-pie order, not only to improve its value and appearance, but to help prevent that dread destroyer that strikes when we least expect it—fire.

Trash-filled outbuildings are perfect incubators for fire from a carelessly dropped match or cigarette. Check over fireplaces and chimneys—from now on, such incidental heating units will be used more and central systems less. As warm, sunny days come, be especially careful to keep grass cut and fields clear of debris. Never burn brush when there is a wind and have water handy in case matters get beyond control.

Above all, go through the house from cellar to attic on an inclusive "junk-disposing" program. Those old newspapers and magazines you've put carefully away and will never look at again—that broken furniture that belongs to the worst period of design—those odds and ends of "gay nineties" clothing—that jumble of worthless, inflammable knickknacks in the hall closets: Get rid of them all. Give them to a charitable organization or the junkman. And you'll materially reduce the chance of a fire hitting your home.

A number of progressive communities carry on general spring clean-ups each year as a civic function. Parkings are tended and beautified, fences repaired, and old firetraps are torn down. Fire departments and other municipal bureaus cooperate and direct the drives. The result is a more attractive and safer town—and a town whose residents may feel proud of it. Every community which doesn't do that now should think it over—and start the idea going around. It pays dividends in dollars as well as less tangible values.

YOU DO?

"You say you want a pound of ochre—red ochre—like they use to paint bricks?" "Naw; it's tappy ochre. Mom wants to make a pudding with it."

Alalfa is the king of all hays and is the standard legume roughage, although peanut, soybean, and cowpea hay are good substitutes.

Did you ever stop to think of the parents that who cannot differentiate between parental love and just plain self indulgence. We know of several such parents that are standing in the way of the welfare and future well being of their children in that, they can't stand to think of them going out and making their own way for fear of some great pitfall or bad influence they might come in contact.

Some of our greatest men and women today or any other generation, were the ones that carved a niche for themselves by getting up against it. Let them get out and work, no matter if it isn't a white collared job, that will come later, and you will have men instead of mice.

A little two year old climbed up on a big stack of boxes and papers and called "look out little boy, you will fall and hurt yourself," but he wasn't afraid, if he had he would have tried again, and with the same dominate spirit will, if he sees obstacles he can surmount them and go on. Don't be afraid just because they are out of your sight, they will die, for if they don't know some responsibility now, later on they might as well be dead for this is a do or die generation.

We received a letter this week from Gordon D. Alexander, who is now located in Longview, Texas. He is associated or working with the Retail Merchants Adjustment Department in that city. He and Mrs. Alexander have many friends here that wish them well in their new home. Gordon stated he wished Terry county farmers could get some of the rain they are now having there. We do too, all of ours so far are the "dry kind."

This was a "Safety Program," and Mrs. Baze showed a movie on public safety, made at the local schools, planned and shot by M. L. H. Baze, with students as characters. This action film was so well gotten up that it was shown at A. C. C., McMurry and Simmons colleges, at Abilene, as a lecture on public safety, and created quite a bit of comment.

Other features shown were the local Armistice Day parade in technicolor, scenes at Austin, the State capitol, with one of our beloved members, Mrs. John Randal and her grandchildren and the Bowers children as "stars." Scenes taken in the Big Bend country with Tom May and Bob Bowers; also scenes shot by the Baze family in northern New Mexico, while they were on their vacation last summer and deep fishing in the Gulf showing the Baze family landing huge fish. NOBODY'S BUSINESS

By Julian Capers, Jr.

AUSTIN — All eyes in Austin this week end were turned upon committees of the House revenue and constitutional amendments committees, which were scheduled to report to the two committees jointly some kind of a revenue bill early in the week. The committees have ended weeks of hearings upon a variety of assorted tax bills, including transactions tax, sales tax, gross receipts tax, net income tax, gross income tax, natural resources tax, "use" tax, and various combinations of all these taxes.

Best opinion here was that whatever taxing action is taken by the House will be in the form of a constitutional amendment. The liberal pensions program promulgated by Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel, together with other social security needs, calls for an additional expenditure by the State of somewhere between $30,000,000 and $50,000,000 annually, depending upon just how liberal a pension policy is finally adopted.

ly adopted. This legislature apparently is wholly unwilling to take the responsibility, on its own motion of laying such a terrific financial burden upon the already heavily loaded tax-payers of the State. Whether the solons are willing to pass the responsibility on to the people, by submitting a constitutional amendment levying the tax, remains to be seen. At any rate, few here believe that any taxes will be inflicted unless the people do say so, directly at the ballot box.

Hope Voters Wake Up
Conservatives in the Legislature hope that the wide discussion of taxes which has resulted from the long hearings may have aroused the people to a knowledge that they cannot have several hundred thousand people living off the State without digging down into their own pockets to pay the bill. They hope the "pensions for everybody" sentiment, aroused by demagogues and nurtured by professional pension agitators for profit, involves only a minority of the voting population of Texas, and that, confronted with the serious business of levying thirty to fifty millions of new taxes upon their own backs, the same citizenship may outvote the gimmecrats, reject the tax program, and thereby declare for a sensible social security program of taking care of the actually needy only. With such a mandate directly from the people, the legislature could solve the state's financial problem in 30 days, without crippling business, industry, or other taxpayer groups.

Whiskey Bill Dead
Attorney General Gerald Mann virtually wrote the death warrant for the bill to legalize sale of liquor by the drink, when he handed down an opinion, in response to a House committee request, holding that such traffic is in direct violation of the constitutional provision forbidding open saloons. The best constitutional lawyers in Austin have held this view all along. They hold a similar view on the constitutionality of the bills to legalize race horse gambling under a "local option" scheme. They say there is no authority in the Texas constitution for local option on anything except sales of beer and liquor.

Truck Bill Loses
To E. B. Hamilton, second-term legislator from Hillsboro fell the role of casting the decisive vote in one of the most spectacular battles of the present session. A member of the House highways and motor traffic committee, Hamilton voted against a favorable report of the bills of Homer Leonard, to raise the 7,000-pound truck load limit, after the other 20 committeemen had divided, 10 to 10. Thus the bill failed of a favorable report, 11 to 10, and its only chance now in the House is to get it printed on minority report, which appears unlikely. The battle ended one of the most hotly contested lobbying efforts seen in Austin in recent years. The railroad lobby recruited about 50 active workers, besides the three house members who are railroad employees, and divided the house membership up so that each lobbyist had to check only three House members. They worked night and day, and won, despite a vigorous effort by truckers, Rio Grande valley grapefruit and vegetable interests, and other farmer and shipping interests throughout the State. Those voting for the Leonard bill included, Monkhouse, of Uvalde; Allison of Levelland; Burkett of Cisco; Burney of Evant; Gilmer of Rock-springs; Goodman of Midland; Howington of Comanche; J. J. of Atlanta; Mohrman of Gonzales and Leonard of McAllen. Against it were Rhodes of Hearne; Fuchs of Brenham; Hamilton of Hillsboro, Harper of Jefferson; McAlister of Fort Worth; Reader of San Antonio; Reed of Dallas; Robinson of Galveston; Stroll of Taylor; Turner of Cameron and Wood of Marshall. Reed and Wood are railroad employees.

Fair Trades Bill Reported
The fair trades practice act, sponsored by a group of independent drug stores, which forbids "loss leader" sales and fixes minimum prices at which merchandise may be sold, came out of subcommittees of both house and Senate, sitting jointly, with overwhelmingly favorable reports. It has passed twice in the House before, but was killed in the Senate. This time, endorsed by all the leading candidates for Governor and many legislative candidates in last July's elections, it seems certain of enactment.

Hunter Withdraws
Facing certain defeat of confirmation by the Senate, J. C. Hunter of Abilene nominated two weeks ago by Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel to be Highway Commission chairman, ended the deadlock between O'Daniel and the East Texas Senate group, who are demanding an East Texan as commissioner, by voluntarily asking the Governor to withdraw his name. Repeated canvasses showed the East Texans had sufficient votes to block confirmation, and they held their line against all attacks. Hunter, declaring he had been out of the State before his nomination, and knew nothing of the bitter fight engendered by rejection of Carr P. Collins, told O'Daniel he wouldn't serve, unless the Senate indicated support of his nomination, and that he didn't want to drag the Highway Commission into a political fight. Speculation immediately revived here about the next nominee, with most of the names previously mentioned being brought up again, together with a rumor that John Wood, of East Texas, whose term expired in February, might be renominated by O'Daniel. Wood originally was an appointee of Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson.

J. L. HYMAN PASSES
J. L. Hyman, 67, passed away at the family residence seven miles north of the city last Saturday, following illness for several years, during the last four years of which he was unable to work. Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the Presbyterian church with Rev. Fred Walker officiating. Burial followed in the Brownfield cemetery.

Mr. Hyman was born in Llano county, Texas, where he lived most of his life, coming to Terry county 22 years ago, or in 1916. He bought a fine half section of land where he lives, and in time built some good improvements. Mr. Hyman once told the writer that he went heavily in debt for the land, but when the third crop was made and gathered, he not only had his land paid for, but around $2,000 in the bank. He was a hard worker, and a good provider for his family.

Forty-two years ago he married Miss Zona Phillips of Rusk, Texas, who survives him, together with the following children: Ira Hyman, Mrs. John Chisholm, Willie, Sam, Harry and Randolph, all of Brownfield, Joel Hyman of Stamford; Mrs. Kenneth Kinsey of Clarinda, Iowa; Mrs. Truman Wall, Hobbs, N. M.

Mr. Hyman had been a member of the Presbyterian church for many years, and as long as able to do so, was a frequent attendant to church services. He and wife reared a fine family of children, all honest, hard-working people.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Whitaker of LaVerne, Okla., have been visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McCollough.

Smokey Taylor Opening New Dining Room

Smokey Taylor who until recently operated the Blackstone Cafe in the Hotel Brownfield, has leased the Commerce Hotel on west Broadway, and has fitted up a nice dining room and cafe in the lower floor, retaining the upstairs for bedrooms. That he has transformed this old building into a very neat place to dine, can only be realized by a visit of inspection.

The old plaster board was torn off and ply-board replaced all over the dining and cafe section, and painted in pleasing colors. Booths for some 20, as well as counters are provided for those who wish to dine or call for short orders. A private dining room with three tables has been provided for those who wish privacy. This section is connected with the lobby and kitchen only.

A well equipped kitchen has been installed with all accessories, such as a large frigidaire for meats and perishable vegetables. John Wall and Smokey will alternate as cooks, which means that you will have your meals served as you wish them.

MAY BE NEW CURE FOR RABIES
AUSTIN, Texas, Mar. 7.—"Skull cap tea," a century-old hydrophobia cure, may be on the verge of a comeback if the research project of Dr. C. C. Albers, University of Texas pharmacy professor, is a success.

Thumbing through journals and newspapers of the late eighteenth century, Dr. Albers read glowing accounts of authentic tests of the curative powers of the skull-cap, scutellaria lateriflora, a marsh-grown plant. Suddenly, as far as publicity was concerned, the cure passed into oblivion.

Dr. Albers, in his University laboratory, has begun to make from the plant an extract which he will administer to rabbits and other tests animals to ascertain the plant's possibilities for antirabies effects.

Early stories of the skull-cap said a tea was made from the plant and given the bitten animal every other day.

Asked why the plant's use has seemingly fallen into disrepute, Dr. Albers said it was likely the cure might have been monopolized by a few doctors who died with the secret. Later generations of doctors, naturally, never heard of it.

Mr. and Mrs. Mon Telford and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Herod were visitors to Seagraves, Sunday afternoon.

MRS. MARY BARNES
Mary Jane Taylor was born on March 6th, 1882, and departed this life March 4th, 1939. Had she lived 2 more days she would have reached the age of 77.

She was united in marriage to Thomas Winn on December 14, 1876 and to this union were born 3 children of whom 2 are still living. Mrs. O. M. Edwards of Brownfield, and Mrs. C. H. Edwards of Childress, Texas. She was survived by 14 grandchildren and 8 great grandchildren.

She became a member of the Church of Christ at the age of 16 years and has lived a consecrated life since that time.

She was parted from her husband by death on December 5th, 1905. She was united in marriage to Mr. John Barnes on July 11, 1910. Mr. Barnes died February 10, 1934.

Both of her companions were members of the Church of Christ. After the death of Mr. Barnes she made her home with her daughters.

Funeral services were at Forrester. Bro. Joe Chisholm speaking. Burial in the Forrester cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS
To our friends and neighbors, we wish to thank each, and every one for their many deeds of kindness shown us during the illness and death of our dear husband, father, and grandfather; and also for the beautiful floral offerings. And especially do we appreciate Dr. Turner's untiring efforts. May you have the same blessing bestowed on you in your hour of need.

In order to make beef for home consumption as economically as possible, begin to feed the calf grain as soon as he will eat. A calf makes more efficient use of grain while suckling his mother than later, says Geo. W. Barnes, animal husbandman of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service.

With the possible exception of whole cottonseed, protein supplements for balancing the grain ration in fattening calves for beef must be purchased. Cottonseed cake is the standard protein supplement in Texas.

NEW FAMILIES MOVE TO PLAINS

Quite a number of families have moved into Plains this week. Many of them came to work on the highway between here and the Terry county line. Then it is reported, but we could not verify the report, that a number of oil workers are coming here to live while they are working on locations.

It is even said that two hundred people will move into town in the next few days. But this too could not be confirmed as there is no method as yet by which people can be made to move into any community.

There seems to be a spirit of optimism prevailing the whole business community and it is hoped by the business men that the work on the new road will cause more to become interested in this section of the county. It is a safe investment they think to buy property in the county seat, for it will remain despite the fact that its progress may be fought.

P. G. Stanford thinks the road to the west will be contracted some time within the next month or two. This may not be done, but it is the way of the newspaper to make forecasts and The Review is making this one on the authority of Mr. Stanford.

It is constantly being affirmed that a new grocery store will soon come to Plains, but it has failed to make an appearance to date. —Yoakum County Review.

SEAGRAVES GROWING

We are glad to note that our little sister city, Seagraves, is growing rapidly, as a result of the oil fields nearby. Several blocks of her streets are being paved, quite a few substantial business houses as well as many residences are now under construction.

JIM GRAVES BACK ON THE JOB

The numerous friends of Jim Graves, the popular owner of the Corner Drug store, will be glad to hear he is again able to be on the job a few hours each day, after a seige of flu followed by pneumonia. Mrs. Graves also had the flu during Jim's illness.

INFLUENZA IN TEXAS

AUSTIN, Texas, March 13. — The first week of March showed 1000 cases of influenza in Texas. Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has issued the following statement on the disease.

"In its present form the symptoms may range from a common cold to high fever, back ache and prostration. However, pneumonia as a complication represents a real hazard and it is well known pneumonia is an exceedingly dangerous disease. The remedy is to be bed upon the first appearance of the cold and remain there until advised by a physician before one can safely get out of it.

"Everyone should realize that in its lightest form influenza can very easily become a serious matter. Prevention is far better than cure and the careful observance of a few common sense rules will materially strengthen ones resistance to an attack of influenza. Some of these rules are:

- "(1) So far as possible avoid contact with members of families with colds or influenza.
- "(2) Keep the feet dry.
- "(3) Wash the hands before meals.
- "(4) Avoid unnecessary fatigue.
- "(5) See that your alimentary system is regular in action."

CONNALLY—BRIDGES IN JOINT DISCUSSION

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 13.—United States Senators Tom Connally of Texas and H. Styles Bridges of New Hampshire will participate in a joint discussion on "What Shall be Our National Defense Policy?" featuring America's Town Meeting of the Air to be broadcast from New York by WJZ and the NBC Blue Network from 8:30 to 9:30 p. m. (Texas time) Thursday evening, March 16th.

Senator Connally took a leading part in the recent debate on the National Defense bill on the floor of the Senate and in the forthcoming radio discussion will uphold the Administration's point of view, while Senator Bridges, Republican, will oppose such views.

In the Senate, Senator Connally spoke in behalf of H. R. 3791, a bill to provide more effectively for the national defense by carrying out the recommendations of the President in his message of January 12, 1939, to a joint session of the Senate and the House of Representatives.

Miss Fay Belle Oliver was the guest of Miss Marie Moore, last week.

HARMONY

Our community was made sad last Thursday morning when Mrs. John Hyles passed away at the local hospital. She had been ill for some time.

We extend to loved ones and relatives, our deepest sympathy. In the going of this one, we have lost a devoted mother, a true friend and a loyal christian worker.

Mr. and Mrs. Bagwell of Stephenville, father and mother of Mrs. Hyles, Mr. and Mrs. McAnnally and Mrs. Kennedy of Post, and her daughter and husband were present at the funeral services last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Bradley and little daughter of Plainview spent Sunday with Mrs. Bradley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Smothermann of Gomez visited Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Davis last week.

THE TRUTH

Sitting in a concert hall waiting for the concert to begin, a man, seeing a little boy in front of him looking at his watch, bent forward and asked, "Does it tell time?"

"No," answered the little boy. "You have to look at it."

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for the beautiful flowers, kind deeds and comforting words during the illness and death of our dear wife and mother, Mrs. John Hyles. May God bless each of you. Mr. John Hyles and family. Mrs. Bill Whitney. Mr. and Mrs. Bagwell. Mr. and Mrs. McAnnally. Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy.
