Tom May Has Had A Varied Career; Much Help To Growing Of Town

Has Held Positions of Trust With Big Corporations for Years.
Spent Much Time on School
Board and City Council

This week we are getting off the main streets for our chosen victim of a writeup story in these columns, and we don't think we could have chosen a man of more varied experience, or one who has devoted more time to the upbuilding of the schools, the city and community in general than Tom May. The first time we met the subject of our story this week, he was just a lad, and clerking for the Western Windmill Co., in an old wooden building on the south side of the square at Lubbock.

Along in 1910 the McAdams Lumber Co. decided to put in a branch here with a small stock. It was managed for about a year by a Mr. Young, but as railroads came in to Tahoka, 30 miles away, those wanting lumber preferred to go to the railroad where better stocks were carried, less the additional cost of wagon freight to Brownfield. So Young moved back to Slaton and Tom May was sent down as manager in 1911.

There was not enough business to justify officing at the yard, so he formed a partnership with his father, the late J. T. May, in the dry goods and grocery business, only going to the lumber yard when there was a cal for material. Tom was really a drawing card to the May & Son business, as he had helped drive herds, generally from this section to Bovina, and could speak the language of the cattleman and cowboy. Tom was married in the Spring of 1913 to Miss Ida Mae Sawyer. To this union has been born six children, a son and five daughters, Rebecca, Murphy, Virginia, Ethelda, Jo Pete and Ida Mae, a fine bunch of offsprings.

In 1914, Tom decided to try sheep ranching near Buchanan, N. M., taking several sections of land and stocked it with a good grade of sheep. By 1917, the World War was on and sheep and wool soared, wool bringing 25c a pound and some of his sheep were worth $13.00 per head. It looked like a good time to sell, which he did, and he moved back to Brownfield.

About that time the Magnolia Petroleum Co. opened their wholesale station here, and Tom was made agent. He has continued in that capacity since that time with the exception of a period of 8 months in 1920, when he went into the Independent Oil business with Will Adams. In 1923 the C. D. Shamburger Lumber Co put in their yard here, and Tom was made manager. Most of the office business, sales and loadings of the Magnolia Co. was turned over to an assistant, and Tom officed at the Shamburger yard. This double responsibility became quite burdensome in 1936, so, C. L. Aven, Jr. was made new manager of the Shamburger yard. T. C. Hogue is the assistant of Tom in Magnolia distribution and warehouse management. Tom was manager of Shamburger Lumber Co. for 13 years.

Since taking the management agency of Magnolia, he has been in two districts, the Fort Worth and Amarillo, and has been under five division managers. In point of service only one other man has exceeded Tom's record in this division as agent, a period of 22 years.

The profits from his sheep industry in New Mexico has been judiciously invested in property in this city and lands in this and Yoakum county, and while Tom is not considered wealthy, he is a good liver and can easily get off on trips and vacations and attend Masonic gatherings, of which he participates to a great extent. Tom is just about as high as one can go in Masonry, having received one of the honorary degrees, having obtained one degree above the 32nd.

Tom took both routes, the York and Scottish Rite and is a K. C. C. H., being a member of the Scottish Rite Consistory at El Paso, and the Khiva Shrine at Amarillo. Tom has also been a member in good standing of the local Odd Fellow lodge since 1920.

Tom is a charter member of the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce and the Rotary club, and has been president of both. He has also been active in the local school management, having served some 12 years as trustee at different times. He was one of the first city councilmen and of course helped to pass the first city ordinance.

Just a bit about his hobbies: Tom likes to fish, and is a golf enthusiast, and if there is a man in town that likes a joke better than he, we've never met him, his closest rival being County Attorney Burton G. Hackney. Tom gets all the new ones that come to town, first, it seems, and he can tell them with a flavor hard to excel.

Last, but to us not least by any means, he has been a constant reader of the Herald ever since he and wife began keeping house in 1913, 26 years ago. Also, with the exception of the time he spent in New Mexico, the Herald has never gone to press that we can remember without his ad, and he has always confined his advertising to the Herald.

Tom May is a very useful citizen to our city and community.

Out of the Hospital And Home Again

Well, yes it seems fine to be home again, although by ourself part of the time. Left the hospital last Friday afternoon, with many cheering words for our swift recovery but plenty cautions of being careful until we grow stronger, from the hospital staff. Most anyone had rather be home than anywhere but for a sick person, whose family has to keep them going, and at the same time possibly not able physically to care for one, a good hospital with a good corps of physicians backed by a staff of real accommodating and kind hearted nurses, is the place for a sick man.

Sometimes a patient wonders why nurses don't lose patience and a real smile for sick folks. All of us become rather unreasonable when we have been ill a couple of weeks, and perhaps some of our mands on them are uncalled for and unreasonable. But for the almost three weeks we spent in the Treadaway-Daniell Hospital, we never made a request that was not instantly granted, providing the physicians thought it would not be injurious to us. And a smile and a prompt ok, it's coming up, was the answer. Even when part of the time when the hospital was filled to capacity and taxed the nurses to care for all their wants, your demands were met promptly and courteously.

Of all the patients in there while we were a patient, only one passed away, so far as we know, but several little fellows were born into this world to bless some home. About the biggest operation day was three major and two or three minor cases, and all doing well when we left.

Again we say, if you are ailing, and your folks at home are not physically able to care for you as you should be, a good hospital is the place for you, and perhaps the cheapest in the long run.

We are now making fair progress toward recovery, and hope to soon be down town and at our old desk again. But if you get in a hospital don't become too pettish for you will have to settle down at home.

Edwards Assumes Place In Farmers Implement Co.

After being out almost a year, that ever smiling, optimistic fellow, C. T. Edwards is back again as manager of Farmers Implement Co. Mr. Edwards built up a fine business handling International Implements and machinery in the two or three years he had charge.

As we understand it, Mr. Borden Davis is retiring from the business and has sold his residence here and will possibly move back to Tahoka. However this has not been confirmed—just a rumor.

Personnel of the establishment other than Mr. Edwards are, Bedford Caldwell, inside man; W. C. McKinzie, salesman and Wallace Roundtree, James Cooper and Van Beck, mechanics.

When in need of farm implements and tractors or any parts of International Harvester Co. products, call on them.

Special Notice From County Agent

The County Agents office has just been notified that any producer may give up any of his cotton allotment for 1939, but in doing so he is going to lose a portion of his 1939 benefit payments.

If a producer gives up any of his Cotton Allotment the number of acres returned to the reserve may be planted in general crops and his Soil Conserving acreage will not be decreased.

Anyone wishing to give up any or all of his 1939 Cotton acreage allotment must call at the County Agent's office not later than April 15, 1939.

Mrs. C. C. Cothes of Seminole was here Tuesday.

City Buys 32-Acre Site For A Park

In conversation this week with Mayor Clyde C. Coleman, he informed us that the city had purchased 32 acres known as the Jim Lindley tract in the south part of the city, which lays partly in the draw, but some of the tract is out of or includes the banks of the draw. Mr. Coleman stated that the site had been purchased at a figure entirely satisfactory to the city.

Mayor Coleman stated that not a great deal can be done this year, but that a landscape artist would be employed to plat the property so that any work done would count something, as the city is able to put through the program. But in the next few years the city hopes to have a park that every citizen will be proud of—a real recreation center.

There will be trees, shrubs and grass set out as soon as possible, and as fast as possible swings and slides for children and place for games like tennis. Possibly a swimming and wading pool will be added later. Places will also be provided to barbecue meat or roast weiners.

As the park borders the highway, the highway department may spend some money building a roadside park, but this is entirely problematical.

The city council is to be congratulated. There is no earthly reason for us to let our people drive 40 to 100 miles for picnic facilities.

Jr. C. of C. to Be Organized Tuesday Night, April 11th

On Tuesday night, April 11th, at the Venetian Auditorium, there will be held a banquet at which time the organization of the Brownfield Junior Chamber of Commerce will be completed. A board of directors of fifteen members have already been decided upon consisting of the following: For one year, Clovis Kendrick, Emmett Smith, Ray Christopher, Leo Holmes, Bruce Zorns; for two years, Clyde Cave, C. C. Primm, Arlie Lowrimore, Raymond Taylor, Everett Latham; for three years, Mon Telford, Speck Kendrick, Troy Noel, Burton Hackney and James H. Dallas.

Out of town speakers who know the workings of the Junior Chamber of Commerce work will be present. An attempt will be made to have "Tanlac" Strange, who is recognized to be the best after dinner speaker on the South Plains.

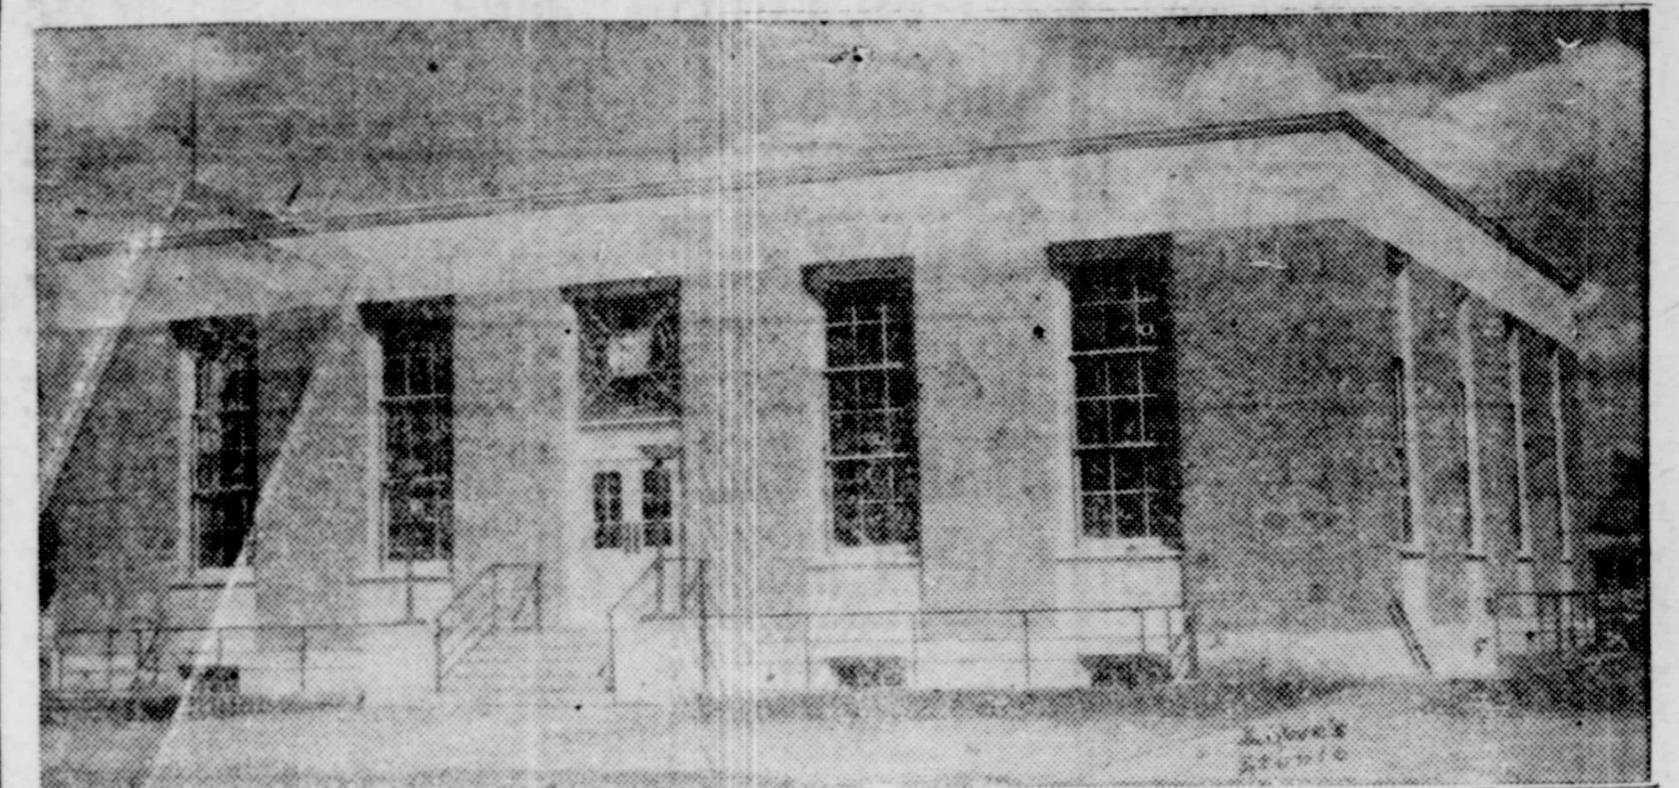

All men between the ages of 18 and 45 who are interested in their town and community and willing to make it a better place in which to live are requested to be there whether you have been contacted or not.

When A Newspaper Man Is Interviewed —That's News

Like the man who bit the dog being news; also when a newspaper man is interviewed, that it seems to place the cart before the horse. Anyway, we can remember back several years ago when one of the jokes of the newspaper fraternity was "William Randolph Hearst being interviewed by W. R. Hearst" in his own newspaper. Of course it wasn't hardly that personal, yet some special writer of the Hearst syndicate would really interview Mr. Hearst for his own papers. That was back when Mr. Hearst was a periodical candidate for President.

Last Sunday the table was turned on us and we submitted meekly to about an hour's quiz from Prof. Cecil Horne, head of the journalistic department of Tech college, or rather most of the quizzing came from his charming daughter, Miss Cecil, prompted occasionally by her dad. Now that young lady will bring up things in your life that you perhaps have

Will Receive Our Mail At New Post Office Building After Saturday

P. O. Crew to Move Saturday. According to James H. Dallas, P. M. Boxes to Have Keys Instead of Combination. City Very Proud of New Building.

What is believed to be one of the most beautiful Federal Post Office buildings in a small town, according to the government engineer in charge as well as the contractor, will be the new P. O. building which is just being finished and will be occupied this week end. From every view point architecturally and pleasing outline and symmetry, the new post office here takes the cake, and to say that Brownfield people are proud of it is stating it mildly.

Briefly stated, $75,000 was allotted for the building and site, and Sen. Tom Connally and Congressman George Mahon wired Brownfield of the fact on Sept. 9, 1937. The site was accepted by the Postal authorities in February, 1938. Digging for foundation was begun the last week in August 1938, and the cornerstone was laid Saturday, November 19, 1938. Despite a lot of inclement weather, the building has almost been finished on schedule time.

The size of the building is 60x60 with a full basement, and roofed-in loading and unloading platform in the rear. W. H. Martin Construction Co., of Kansas City, Mo., received the contract with Lloyd Miller, Construction foreman, Mr. Richard W. Prendergast is the Construction Engineer representing the Treasury Dept. The County Agent and corps will occupy half the basement, and Miss Ola Belle Brown will have a concession in the lobby.

There are 785 boxes provided for the opening, and we understand most of them are already taken. However, the supposition is that more sections will be provided as needed. These boxes all have keys, instead of combination locks. Rents are to be about the same as old site boxes, but there is to be a slight charge for keys, and one can obtain as many of them as they wish.

The regular force aside from Postmaster Jas. H. Dallas, are L. A. Greenfield, L. A. Jett, Will Brown and James King. These will be supplemented by a plant engineer and a caretaker.

No time has been set for the dedication of the building, but that will be announced later.

Rural carriers on the five star and rural routes, are, J. H. Carpenter, Jesse Ferguson, J. O. Johnson, J. H. Eubanks, Chas. Leonard.

Sanitary Barber Shop Has Good Re-Opening

Mr. G. Z. Sherman of the Sanitary barber shop, which burned early in February, along with a cafe, a beauty shop and the Odd Fellows and Woodmen lodges on the second floor, was re-opened for business again late last week.

According to Mr. Sherman, they had a splendid day Saturday. Really the shop shows a superior look to the old shop, and Mr. Sherman certainly has a splendid location.

Aside from himself he has his old front chair barber, Gay Price, and a new man, Mr. Creed Smith, who recently came here from Hamlin. However Mr. Smith worked in the Dee Elliott shop on the west side of the square several years ago, and is not an entire stranger here.

C. C. Primm has purchased the Borden C. Davis home on east Tate street.

Miss Horne kept up a running fire of conversation and questions about days that are past and gone, while Dr. Horne with the Junior member of the Herald were out getting pictures of our home and the Herald office.

Reason for the interview as stated to us was in view of the fact that we were the oldest or so called Dean of editors with the same paper on the South Plains. They also stated that the interview was called for by the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, as well as perhaps The Matador, official publication of Tech college.

As Sunday was only one day removed from April Fool's Day, we would not swear that the matter was just a Sunday afternoon outing for Dr. and Miss Horne. But why did they spend good money phoning us an appointment when we were too ill for an interview? Then ask the wife to stand an interview the following Sunday.

Believe it or not Dr. Horne insisted that we come up sometime and address his class in Journalism. We know this last crack is going to get the razzberries from our old friends here who know what a capable speaker (?) we are, but laugh, darn you and make everyone hate you.

Two Old and One New Councilman Elected

Two old councilmen were retained Tuesday when 171 voters took the trouble to cast ballots in the city election. Also a new face will appear in the lineup, all mighty fine men. In fact any one of those defeated would have been a credit to the city council of Brownfield. Of course no one really ran, as no one is hankering for the job.

Of the old ones retained, M. J. Craig has served some 14 years, while Cecil Smith has put in some 10 years.

Herman Chesshir, the new member came here from Meadow about three years ago. He is manager of the West Texas Gin Co.

The following is the way the vote stood according to the election Judge. Three men with highest vote elected:

M. J. Craig, 110; Cecil Smith, 101; Herman Chesshir, 116; Graham Smith 16; Clyde Cave, 25; J. H. Riffin, 80; C. C. Primm, 62.

Earl Jones, Local Theatre Man Passes

As we prepare for press our hearts are saddened by the announcement that Earl E. Jones, proprietor of the three Brownfield theatres passed away Thursday morning at 4:15. Earl had been ailing for some time, but was able to be in town Wednesday. Direct cause was heart trouble, it is believed. Funeral services will be held this morning, Friday, at 10:00 o'clock at the Church of Christ with Elder Robert C. Jones, of Wichita Falls, Texas officiating. Life sketch of this very popular citizen will appear in these columns next week.

Cris Quante Ready To Serve Brownfield Ice

In fact Cris serves ice all during the winter as well as summer, ing or fall closing. If you are ready for regular deliveries, call on one of his men for an ice book, which really saves you money.

And while we are about it, let us say that Cris sells ice made in Brownfield. What is made in Brownfield makes Brownfield. The Texas Utilities plant here has a considerable local payroll the year around, and this should be taken into consideration when buying ice.

We don't say there is no other good ice. There is, but in buying Brownfield ice, you keep several men on a local payroll and that keeps all of us.

Ches Gore Returns From Peace Of- ficers School

Ches Gore, local sheriff was among the sixty-four peace officers of Texas enrolled in the second Texas Peace Officers School, held under the direction of the Department of Public Safety at Camp Mabry, Austin, March 13 to 24 inclusive. A keener interest in the course was manifest and some of the outstanding officers in the State were included in the large group of instructors during the course. These included city, precinct, county, State and Federal men from practically every nook and corner of Texas. More than twenty subjects were included in the curricula, touching on practically every phase of law enforcement. These ranged from criminal law and procedure, nomenclature and care of firearms to the importance of cooperation between various branches of law enforcement, whether city, precinct, county, State or Federal. All in all, the course was a well rounded one that should add greatly to the efficiency of those fortunate enough to be among the enrollees.

The school was practically self-sustaining. Students were charged the nominal sum of $20 which included their board, room and linen to the duration of the school.

Roy Collier went to Fort Worth, Friday on business, returning home by Montague, to visit his parents, Sunday, it being his mother's 73rd birthday.

Had You Noticed That Bath Room Display

Doubtless you have passed and repassed that model bath room display at the Cicero Smith Lumber Co., offices time and time again, at night, and admired its beauty and contrast, as well as its utility. It is really pretty at night, and perhaps you have promised yourself to visit the display during daylight hours, when the company offices are open.

The Official Paper of Terry County and the City of Brownfield

Both houses of the State Legislature, last week, by a decisive vote, defeated the proposed 2 per cent sales tax, for payment of pensions. The enthusiasts opposed to the measure in the House, staged a kind of celebration, in the manner of a funeral, and with sarcastic and humorous remarks, buried the sales tax plan at least for this term, when another member who had supported it, came forward with the suggestion that they place in inscription on the tomb, "Here lies the hopes of the old folks of Texas". It was a peculiar situation, after a large majority of the people voted, by a constitutional amendment, to pay a pension, and last election a vast majority of the legislators, were elected on a promise to pay it, and while we think Gov. O'Daniel's election by such a big majority, was a result of several other ideals, and causes, mostly musical, it is held out that it was because of his promises to pay full pension to all eligibles, and yet the Legislative regular term is three-fourths expired and nothing done about it. However it seems their delay is result of such divergence in opinion over the method and means of raising the money. Many of them are still imbued with the idea: "Pappy, pass the tax onto the other fellow."

CHEESE OUTPUT IN TEXAS IS OFF FROM LAST YEAR

Production of cheese in Texas dropped 32 per cent in comparison with February of last year, reports to The University of Texas Bureau of Business Research for last month indicate. Production lacked only 1.4 per cent of equalling January's output, however. Other dairy products likewise slumped, but not as drastically. Creamery butter production fell 25.9 per cent from last February but increased 9 per cent over January, 1939, while ice cream was down 12.6 per cent from February 1938, but 12.2 per cent above January.

A Dozen Pertinent Questions

Q. What does the county bond assumption plan pending in the Legislature propose?
A. It proposes that the State assume $198,000,000 outstanding indebtedness on county local roads which are not a part of the state highway system.
Q. Has the State ever assumed any county road debts?
A. No, but the State is compensating the counties to the amount of approximately $122,000,000 on roads that were taken into the state highway system.
Q. Where does the State get the money to provide this compensation?
A. From 1c to 4c per gallon state gasoline tax.
Q. How much of the gasoline tax now is being used for the construction and maintenance of the State road system?
A. Less than 2c of the 4c tax paid by motorists.
Q. Is more money needed for State road construction?
A. Yes, it will require approximately $397,000,000 to complete the present state system, forgetting obsolescence and need extension.
Q. Do the counties now contribute to state highways?
A. Only the right-of-way.
Q. How much do the counties get from state motor vehicle registration fees?
A. About $12,000,000 per year.
Q. Would the passage of the county bond assumption bill relieve the average ad valorem taxpayer?

A. No. The average ad valorem tax payer also is the average gasoline tax payer. Therefore, only the large property owner stands a chance to benefit and then only if the counties vote no more bonds.
Q. Who would benefit from state assumption of these debts from the counties?
A. The smart bond manipulators and a few over-bonded counties.
Q. Would the passage of this legislation establish a dangerous precedent?
A. Yes. It would be the opening wedge to saddle all local debts on the State.
Q. If the State does not assume the counties' debts could State road construction be speeded up?
A. Yes, because 1c of the state gasoline tax now produces more than enough to pay the indebtedness on state highways and the balance would speed road construction.
Q. Would that benefit the counties as well as the State?
A. Yes, the State could build some of the roads the counties are clamoring for more quickly and thus create employment as well as increased property values.

TOO CROWDED

Early in the year some publishers broke their necks giving free publicity to the Fort Worth Stock Show. Then just before the opening date, John Davis, president of the affair, notified Sam Harben, secretary of the State Press Association that no passes would be issued the publishers because "we do not have the room." To avoid spoiling the whole thing for the publishers, Davis suggested that passes could be given the publishers admitting them to the grounds where, as any one knows, goobers and popcorn may be bought at a fair price. "A purchasing privilege thus becomes a publisher's concession at the stock show." The city where the West (doesn't) begin will start a shindig of some sort soon, and gullible publishers will fall for the racket again and again.—Clarendon Leader.

Mr. Neill, on his return from a business trip early this week to Midland and Odessa, the chief oil centers of West Texas, stated he found a flurry of anxiety among the people there and other places over the Railroad Commission's recent drastic ruling greatly curtailing the oil production in West Texas. Even the office forces were threatened with loss of their positions, as well as thousands of oil field workers, together with havoc of the towns, in their varied other businesses, dependent on oil activities. Many of the Oil Companies went into action, special meetings with the Commission, and threats of legal action in courts, when they raised the allowable considerably and it is now thought and hoped the matter will be adjusted, so that the many West Texas fields can continue, at least on a living basis.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH MEETS AND ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

For some few months, the First Christian Church has been without a pastor, the membership of the church being in tact, met on the night of the third of April, 1939 for the purpose of preserving and keeping in tact its membership, that in the near future a new pastor might be called to take over the work. The following members of the church were present: Barney Holgate and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Hamm, Mrs. Ed Ballard, Mr. Crawford Burroughs, Mrs. S. H. Holgate, and Mrs. Ben Lee and Dayton Couchman.

Among other business transacted by the membership was to grant T. M. Flippin a letter of dismissal, from the church here that he might join the church where he is now living.

Among things discussed by the church membership was the general welfare of the organization, the insurance on the building, and the general up keep, care and custody of the church property. And in this connection, the church only having two Trustees, the church in conference assembled unanimously elected the following Trustees, to-wit: Barney Holgate, Crawford Burroughs and Dayton Couchman to serve with Austin Storie and B. W. Stinson, the trustees heretofore named by the church.

There being no further business the conference adjourned, subject to call of the Board of Elders, and Trustees, whereby the church might enter the call of a pastor, and institute and perpetuate the work of the church.

That a copy of this be spread on the minutes of the church.

—Dayton Couchman Clerk Pro Tem.

Gilham Graham, Local Boy, Making Name At Texas University, Throwing Javelin

By Texas Capitol News Service
AUSTIN — Gilham Graham, University of Texas senior from Brownfield, is shown here as he tossed the javelin 205 feet 9 inches Saturday to win first place in the Texas Relays for this event. Last year he threw the spear 218 feet 5 inches and won the championship of Texas, Kansas and Drake relays. He once held the Texas high school record in the javelin throw.

Before the present season ends Texas sport fans are looking for Graham to break the Texas record of 219 feet 8 inches, made by Terry of Hardin-Simmons in 1937. Gillham is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Graham of this city. He was born here and received his education in the Brownfield schools. His many friends and classmates are pulling for him in his try at breaking the present javelin throw record.

State Chairman To Aid Cripples

Ernest R. Tennant, president of the Dallas National Bank, this year heads the sixth annual Easter Seal sale campaign in Texas. Announcement of Mr. Tennant's acceptance of this work in behalf of Texas crippled children was made today by Chas. F. Ashcroft of Sulphur Springs, president of the Texas Society for Crippled Children.

The sale of Easter Seals will commence March 25 and continue until April 15. All receipts from the sale of Easter Seals will be devoted to the hospitalization of crippled children otherwise unable to help themselves.

The Harmony Parent Teachers Association will meet Friday night April 7 at eight o'clock. Come hear the report of the conference.

The reason we don't abbreviate the above important name of our Association is this: The teacher of one of our schools told the children to tell their parents there would be a P.-T. A. meeting at the school house that night, for the purpose of organizing a local unit of this association. When the delegation arrived they were surprised to find the crowd were mostly men, one woman besides a teacher. Well they all looked perplexed. As they went into the organization of this Parent Teacher Association, arose to apologize for the crowd, stating the children came home and told us there was to be a PWA meeting at the school house, so let's always be careful to get the correct initials. The organization was perfected however.

—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bates were in from the farm Tuesday making repairs and cleaning up the premises of their residence occupied by Supt. and Mrs. M. L. H. Baze.

Mickey Rooney in "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn"
Rooney Plays "Juliet" Shakespeare Would Turn In His Grave

What is undoubtedly the most absurd scene ever played on a Hollywood sound stage resulted from the collaboration of William Shakespeare and Mark Twain, filmed as a comedy highlight of "The Adventures of HUCKLEBERRY FINN," opening Sunday at the Rialto Theatre.

The scene was the balcony scene in "Romeo and Juliet," presented with Mickey Rooney as Juliet and Walter Connolly as Romeo. In the Mississippi River story the boy falls into the clutches of two mountebanks who invade a village, advertise themselves as "David Gavick and Mrs. Siddons," and dress "Huck" as a girl in an attempt to present Shakespeare's heroine.

Connolly, as Romeo, frisked in. His costume was a suit of woollen underwear with a belt and wooden sword and a piece of black burlap wrapped under his arm and draped over his shoulder like a Roman toga. His cap consisted of a derby hat with the brim cut away, surmounted by a feather.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Haynes and daughter, John Ora, of the Dixi-Star bakery, went to Lubbock, Sunday to spend the day with his father, Y. A. Haynes, it being the elder Haynes' birthday. Johnnie carried up a large, decorated cake. John Ora remained up for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Kendrick returned last Friday from an extended trip to the Texas coast.

Mrs. J. O. Wheatley of the Johnson community was in town Saturday.

Behind the Scenes in American Business

NEW YORK, April 3 — BUSINESS — Though still overshadowed by European developments, business news last week for the most part was encouraging. Production in the steel industry made a new 1939 high at 56.1 per cent of capacity. Booming along was the electric refrigerator business, its first quarter output being close to the 1937 peak. Noting the improved trend of construction and heavier output of rubber, leather, and paper companies, the chemical industry believes a 20 per cent higher demand over a year ago will prevail for its myriad line of products in April. Near-record production is currently keeping shoe manufacturers busy. Bank loans to business have shown a small but steady rise in recent weeks, sure sign that retailers and manufacturers are expanding inventories in anticipation of greater demand for their merchandise and products.

WASHINGTON — Though adopted last June, the increased spending program of the Public Works Administration is only now reaching its full force. To this arm of the federal government therefore business may look for more orders and workers for more jobs in the months ahead. From $63,200,000 spent by PWA last January, monthly expenditures have been climbing gradually to $110,500,000 in March and will reach a peak of $184,500,000 in July. At this time about 600,000 men will be employed. Thereafter expenditures will taper off to $82,300,000 projected for December. PWA activity effects chiefly the producers of basic construction materials—steel, glass, cement, paint, bricks and the like.

Visitors in the A. J. Stricklin home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Archie Thompson and daughter Miss Lucille and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Roberts of Coahoma, Texas, and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Roberts of Seagraves.

Dr. A. H. Daniell informed us this week that they were thinning out in the hospital from their capacity crowd of a week ago. Good news, folks are getting well.

Judge Simms with several of our leading citizens made extensive trip through Yoakum county's oil fields a few days ago, prospecting with intention to extending more of our roads to the fields. With the road now paved to Tokio and down to Seagraves, and some new State highways in the making, just a few short cuts and extensions and connections will reach nearly all of them to the mutual benefit of the operators, workers, as well as our city.

Heroine Re-Enacts Rescue

BIG SPRING, Tex.—Mary Elizabeth Davis, 13-year-old heroine, re-enacts the rescue of her brother, Yyrion, which won her the President's Medal and the Life Saving Certificate of the American Red Cross. Gas fumes overcame her brother while rabbit hunting and killed his dog. Mary dragged the boy from the gassed area, applied first aid learned from the safety manual of her father's employers, the Continental Oil Company. Publicly commended and honored, Mary here shows photographers of Look Magazine how she did it.

When A Fellow Needs A Friend

When a fellow is well and hearty, you think nothing of your business associates yelling a breezy greeting half across the street, or even pounding you in the back emphasize their greeting. But when disease crumples you up in a hospital for a few weeks, then you really find that the yells and slams when you are well is not just a show off politeness. Those fellows really care.

In the hospital your banker, merchant, lawyer, farmer and other business and professional men call on you to cheer you up. Some come to see you several times, not to tell you with a sad face that they had a friend afflicted like you that kicked the bucket. No sir! Those fellows tell you to buck up, and that they expect to see you back on the job before long.

Then there were fresh flowers for your table almost every day from people in every walk of life and in some instances from people you least expect them. In one case three young ladies in one store combined to send us a bouquet. God bless them and all others who sent us cigarettes or other remembrances. We got two cartons of cigarettes, more than we ever bought at one time for ourself. Then there was the cheer cards from as far east as Hillsboro, Texas and as far west as Glendale, Arizona, and California.

With all this in mind, it takes a great part of the sting out of being sick. Even after being brought home, the calls and flowers have not ceased. Just this afternoon, Tuesday, a merchant friend sent us a beautiful Easter lilly. It makes a fellow know he has some good friends and well wishers.

Oil Field Supply Houses

Mr. M. R. Hemphill, local oil operator, has drawn a large and interesting map, showing locations of all oil fields and probable pools in this immediate territory. Showing the road connections therewith into Brownfield and with considerable other data, necessary to show the builders of oil field supply houses, that Brownfield is a logical and feasible place for such. Mr. Hemphill believes with his long time connections and acquaintance with these people, they can be induced to locate here, if our people will just meet half way. Members of the Chamber of Commerce are negotiating for trackage property and the city authorities state they will immediately grade streets to it, and install water and lights and of course all other utilities are anxious to connect their service. If several such houses could be located here, it would be worth much to the upbuilding and permanency of our city. And right here is a matter that should not be overlooked or treated lightly. From what we pick up on the side we believe the Chamber of Commerce was not "bulling" when they announced their 1939 goals, we may not achieve all of it, but with a little more effort a great part of it can be had and in fact a part of it is just around the corner.

Half Inch Rain Here Wednesday Noon

A hard shower fell here Wednesday about noon that farmers believe will make the moisture meet on all well cultivated soil. It is also believed that it will be sufficient that those who had to quit sod beaking, may resume their work.

The government gauge here registered one-half inch, according to J. E. Shelton. It is believed the rain will greatly benefit pastures.

Later: Snow on the ground this (Thursday) morning and still coming down. Uneasy about fruit crop.

Paving Progress—ing Nicely

Paving work on Broadway, east from the courthouse to the highway is progressing nicely, having installed the curbs and excavations and leveling of the surface. This paving will be sixty feet wide, being one of the widest streets in town, and connecting from Seagraves highway, near the school house, on by the south side of the square, to a connection with the highway cutoff, two blocks west of courthouse, will divide and alleviate the congestion of traffic through the business section.

The city has leveled down and graded the ground under and around the new water tower and building adjacent, and dolled it all up nicely. We understand they will set it to grass and otherwise beautify the grounds. We are glad to see this done. It is due the residents of that vicinity who felt a little aggrieved at first, by the proximity of the tower to their homes, and this spot could just as easily be made a place of beauty instead of an eye-sore. It certainly needn't suffer from drought.

MORE TRENCH SILOS TO BE MADE IN 1939

College Station, Texas, April 4.—Texas farmers and ranchmen will dig and fill around 10,000 new trench silos during 1939, E. R. Eudaly, dairyman of the A. and M. College Extension Service, and Texas No. 1 trench silo apostle, has predicted.

"We filled 7,536 new trenches in 1938, and we'll do that much or better again this year. The AAA sweet sorghum ruling will be a big factor," Eudaly said. Under the 1939 AAA program, sweet sorghum can be planted on neutral acres for use as silage. This has not been the case in programs of the past.

If the dairyman's prediction comes true, Texas may see upwards to 30,000 trench silos filled this year as compared with 1938's 17,019. There were only 12 trench silos in the state in 1932.

On the basis of value per ton of silage, Eudaly lists corn, grain sorghums, sweet sorghums, and sudan and johnson grass, in that order, as the best silage crops. He points out, however, that the farmer is interested in the per acre return, and that on this basis sweet sorghum, because of its tonnage, is frequently the crop to plant.

With the AAA sweet sorghum ruling, which does not apply to corn and grain sorghums, as an extra inducement, Eudaly expects thousands of farmers and ranchmen to turn to sudan and other sweet sorghums for their silage crop in 1939.

Austin observers note that, when Bill McDonald was Land Commissioner and a bill was before the legislature to deprive the state school fund of millions of dollars by giving vacancies to oil companies, he fought the bill and had a big part in defeating it—which probably was one of the reasons he didn't get re-elected. The present Land Commissioner has said nothing against a similar bill introduced at this session.

BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

Last Sunday was a good day in the church with the largest attendance for the year. The goal of four hundred was attained with 408 present in the teaching service and with a total of 605 registering in all the services of the day. Forty two men registered in the Down Town Bible Class at the Rialto Theatre which was the best record for the year.

It is much desired to have as great attendance at all services next Sunday and all who will come and stay for the preaching hour. Sunday morning will be in the photograph which will be taken of the basement and all group attendance which will be the last picture made of the basement before the new improvement will be made, which is scheduled to start in another thirty days. This will be a historic picture and will be held and cherished by many for the remainder of their lives and be left to their children.

All of the classes in the school teaching hour at 9:45. The W. M. invite you to be present for the U. meets in circles next Monday at 3 p. m. for mission study. The Annie Long circle with Mrs. Gladys Green; Lottie Moon with Mrs. Grady Goodpasture and Lock ett with Mrs. D. P. Carter, and the Reagan will probably not meet as a number of them are expecting to attend the Sunday school convention meeting at Waco.

The revival meeting has stirred the church and if you have not been attending you may not realize what you have been missing, as the young flaming evangelist and pastor, Hugh Bumpas has been magnifying Jesus Christ as the only hope for sinning humanity.

He holds the acceptance of the Christ by faith in his name as a personal redeemer the only hope here and hereafter.

The meeting will close Sunday night as this is all the time that he can remain here, and his texts or themes are as follows: Friday night "He Said Tomorrow." Saturday night, "Is Your Religion a Bore or a Delight." Sunday morning, "Does One have to Make a Public Decision to be Saved." Sunday night, "A Real He Daddy's Decision."

May every Christian of the community pray that Christ may be honored and the lost find him as the meeting comes to a close Sunday night. A Christian welcome awaits you in all of the services.

MRS. F. E. WALTERS HOSTESS TO 1937 QUILTING CLUB

METHODIST CHURCH

John Witt Hendrix, Pastor

Here comes the announcements for another Sabbath. Last Sunday—Go to Church—was a big success. It would be mighty fine to have each service just like that. We'd just as well have it that way.

Church school comes on at 9:45 a. m. and goes off at 10:40 a. m. Morning worship comes on at 10:45 and is over at 12 noon. The Leagues will be at their usual time, 6 and 6:45 in the evening.

Evening public worship will dismiss out of regard for the revival now in progress at the Baptist church. We hope our people will attend this meeting.

At the morning hour, this time, 10:45, the choir will present their program of Easter music. It will consist of appropriate hymns of the Resurrection. Also they will present excerpts from the Cantata "Hosanna." Then the pastor will deliver a sermon using as subject: "Achieving Immortality." This subject may sound strange, but that is as close as we can come to it. But you might like it.

Friday evening the Methodist church will have their Easter communion, instead of Easter morning. The fact is Holy Communion was first instituted on Thursday evening. The church cordially invites those of other communions.

The Methodist church desires to take this method of thanking all who co-operated in the Go to Church closing hours. Especially do we thank the drug stores. They were all kind enough to agree to close and we heartily thank them for keeping that promise. It'd be nothing but proper and right, also according to the desires of those in that business, to have such closing each Sunday.

Pharmacy and Medicine

Pharmacy is the practice of preparing and compounding medicines. Medicine is the science of dealing with the prevention, cure, or alleviation of disease.

Note the difference!

The pharmacist spends years in the study of drugs—their origin, characteristics, and methods of compounding.

The physician spends years in the study of the human body—also, the prevention, cure, or alleviation of the diseases to which it is subject.

If you are ill, a physician is the proper person to consult.

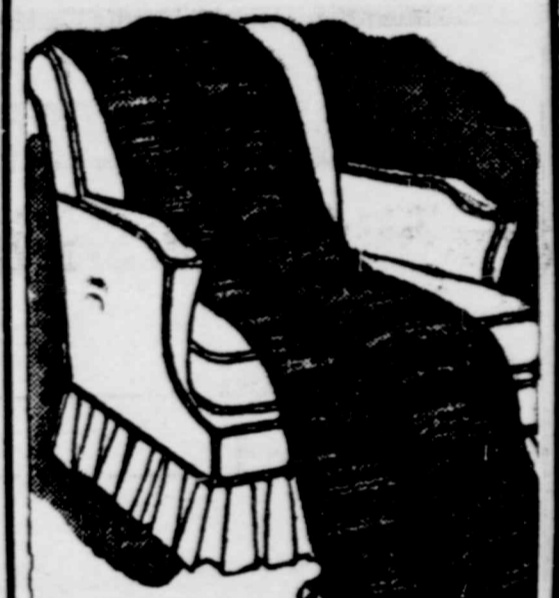

If you have your prescription compounded here, you can be assured the work will be done in a scientific manner.

More than "changing the number" when you change to OIL-PLATING

MAYBE any station would have oil that's at least of the right Summer grade ... let's say No. 20, No. 30, or No. 40.

And possibly anyone would know your right amount—5 or 6 or more quarts.

But it takes the Conoco station—it takes Your Mileage Merchant—to give your engine the oil-change that brings you the plus of OIL-PLATING ... at an everyday price.

You must choose patented Conoco Germ Processed oil to know that the engine parts—as if "magnetized"—will attract and hold a shield of OIL-PLATING. This shields and smooths the bearings, piston rings and cylinder walls—bottom to top of your engine. Like the chromium-plating that shields and smooths the bumpers, OIL-PLATING holds ever-fast ... it's drain-proof ... never leaves a precious part naked to friction, during all your thousands of starts and thousands of miles this Summer. You'll see your heat indicator staying down safely; you'll see your Conoco Germ Processed oil staying up economically. Then see Your Mileage Merchant today for the plus of OIL-PLATING. NOBODY'S BUSINESS

By Julian Capers, Jr.

AUSTIN — The special interest lobby's highly-touted "program" to freeze a $40,000,000 sales tax constitutional amendment into the Constitution of Texas went down to overwhelming defeat in the House of Representatives this week end, after failing to muster even a majority vote, much less the two-thirds necessary to submit it to the people. The Petsch amendment thus is dead beyond recall, unless a two-thirds majority of the House can be recruited to revive it, and that seems highly unlikely. In the Senate, another sales tax amendment met rough going, and the consensus of observers here was that there will be no sales tax written into the Constitution by this session. Thoughtful men in both houses were looking toward a plan to raise some pension money by means of an omnibus tax bill, but in both houses there was such a wide divergence of opinion that a deadlock with no tax hike at all was still regarded as a strong probability.

O'Daniel Threatens

Gov. Lee O'Daniel in his Sunday morning broadcast, largely offset the plea for harmony voiced by Lt. Gov. Coke Stevenson in the Senate Friday, when the Governor, abandoning the singing of "That Old-Fashioned Love In My Heart" sent out into the peaceful atmosphere of a gorgeous Palm Sunday morning a truculent, fighting talk that bristled with the threat that unless the citizens got behind the lobby-supported scheme of a Constitutional sales tax sponsored by the Governor, they "will be sorry that they didn't." O'Daniel, whipped and sore, left off the hill-billy music and the sticky songs, and "poured it on" opponents of his tax scheme. Then he became Lawyer O'Daniel, and quoted a section of the pension act passed by the 5th Legislature, placing a ceiling of $30 a month from State and Federal sources for pensioners, and tried to prove this law was the same as his "$30 total income for everybody" plan. His speech was regarded by listeners as unlikely to compose the divergent opinions in either house, and its immediate reaction was unfavorable in both Houses. Meanwhile, the sales tax is so unpopular in both branches, that many observers here do not believe that even a bare majority could be mustered to pass it as a simple statute. Although the Weinert constitutional amendment was still pending in the Senate, it has been so butchered by amendments that even its author asked the Senate to kill it, and disclaimed further responsibility for it. Oil Row Threatened Of intense interest to all oil-producing areas in Texas this week was a strong indication that disruption of the industry might grow out of an apparent alliance between Lon Smith, commission chairman, and Jerry Sadler, new commissioner. The pair "got together" and issued a proration order abolishing Saturday shut-downs for April, and drastically hiking allowables in the Panhandle, North Texas, and East Texas fields, and slashing production by thousands of barrels in West Texas, Southwest Texas and the Gulf coast area. Total allowable was kept well within the Bureau of Mines estimate. Austin was full of talk, in the wake of the order, of a possible court attack upon the order.

Ernest O. Thompson, the Commissioner whose expert knowledge of the oil business as well as whose legal knowledge, has been the guiding force on the Commission for the past three years, with the result that the industry has been brought out of a chaotic condition and kept on a profitable even keel, was not consulted by his colleagues in writing the order. No oil order written by Thompson has been successfully attacked in court in years, and he enjoys the confidence of every lawful element of the industry. If Sadler and Smith have decided to "take over" regulation of the industry, many oil men feel that a reversal of policy which may disrupt all business in Texas, and bring on another siege of turmoil and court battles, may be in the making. Smith, facing re-election in 1940, has bitterly opposed Thompson, who with the support of Terrel, defeated last August by Sadler, held the balance of power in directing the Commission's proration policies.

Names and News

Another effort to obtain an investigation of the Prison system by a committee on which "business men" will be represented, as well as the Legislature, was started in the House this week, after veto of an investigation by a legislative committee by Gov. O'Daniel, and the veto was upheld in the House. Rep. J. Ed Winfree, of Houston, who passionately contends the prison system is in need of a "cleanup," argues that a fair investigation cannot be obtained unless outsiders are on the probing body. . . . Argument over the social security tax raising program has built a log-jam, behind which is banked a flood of legislation, including much that is meritorious. Awaiting action are bills providing for control of venereal disease, renewal of drivers' licenses, permitting the Public Safety Department to lift the truck load limit in emergencies, to move perishable crops, such as Valley citrus, and numerous others. . . . Death in Dallas last week of Former Chief Justice Nelson Phillips of the State Supreme Court, opposition to the so-called Judges Band Bill, which would force removed one of the State's most brilliant legal minds from the current picture . . . Jim Goodman, House member from Midland, has organized a strong bloc of House gasoline tax-payers of the State to take over nearly $200,000,000 worth of "dead horse" county lateral road bonds, in order to obtain some small relief for ad valorem property tax payers. The bill is sponsored in the Senate by Sen. Will Pace, of Tyler. Smith county, under its terms, would receive $433,350 of ad valorem tax relief and gasoline tax payers of that county would have to put nearly three times that sum into the pot to retire the bonds of other counties. . . . Quick confirmation of Jim West, Houston oil magnate, as Chairman of the State Highway Commission, was expected this week by the Senate. West was praised as an able and successful businessman by most of the group of East Texas Senators, whose opposition blocked appointment of Carr P. Collins of Dallas, and J. C. Hunter of Abilene, to the Highway post. Lobby gossip that West was a contributor to Alf Landon's presidential campaign (because of anti-new deal sentiment), and that the bathroom fixtures in his Houston home "cost over $20,000" apparently didn't have much influence with the Senators who must pass on his qualifications.

SEN. CONNALLY WOULD EXCLUDE ALIENS

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 4. —Senator Tom Connally of Texas today introduced a bill in the Senate to provide for the exclusion from immigration to this country and for the deportation of aliens already in this country who are advocating the making of changes in the American form of government. "Under existing laws, aliens residing in the United States can be deported on certain grounds," Senator Connally said, "and the effect of my bill is to add to these grounds the advocacy by such aliens of changes in the American form of government."

Continuing, Senator Connally asserted: "Subversive and un-American influences being fomented and agitated by aliens residing in the United States are a constant threat to American institutions. These hostile and un-American activities ought to be stamped out and suppressed. This result can best be accomplished by deporting all those who take part in such un-American activities. These foreign and alien agents and incendiaries, whether advocating the establishment of Fascism or Totalitarianism or other foreign 'isms' in the United States, or whether advocating that the principles of Communism be substituted for our constitutional Democratic system are both dangerous to our domestic peace and to our representative form of government. Such aliens ought to be deported and returned to the country of their origin," Senator Connally declared, adding:

"The Constitution of the United States protects every American citizen in the enjoyment of free speech, free press and free assembly and all of the other personal guaranties in our bill of rights. I would in no wise restrict or abridge the exercise of these rights by American citizens. Under these constitutional guaranties, any American citizen has the right to advocate any change in the form of government of the United States according to legal and constitutional methods. However, I do not believe that aliens who spend their time in agitating and preaching for the overthrow of this government of the United States and the changing of our fundamental, constitutional system should be allowed to remain in the United States and freely ply their nefarious practices, seeking to destroy the government whose protection they claim," Senator Connally concluded.

The Home Is Half The Farm

"Last call for breakfast in the dining car" sings the porter as he goes the belated passengers into activity. They have only to weave their way to the tables and pay the price, to regale themselves on the fat of the land gathered from far and near and served by others — and what a price! Only farm folk can breakfast, dine and sup on the delectables of a daily menu without paying the pyramided cost of production, transportation, processing, preparation and service which compel the high prices on hotel and dining car bills of fare.

Do we need a gong to arouse us to our opportunities of high living at a low cost? Then let's "play like" (as children say) the gong is ringing for the last call — not only for breakfast, but for dinner and supper as well! It's that time of year when the good eats of summer, fall and winter are assured by planning and planting; or else are left to the uncertainties of accident and "cash income" from salable farm commodities. Too often we do without the best things of life on the mistaken theory that "we can buy them cheaper than we can produce" them.

All the elements of a first-class diet are farm-grown, and most of them are ready to use without going to town for processing. Here's what every member of the family needs for a year's wholesome and satisfying diet. Multiply these figures by the number in the family and you have the requirements for which planning and planting must be done early in the year:

Milk, 91 gallons; eggs, 30 dozen; meat, 175 pounds (including fat for cooking); potatoes, 200 pounds green and yellow vegetables 200 pounds; other vegetables 200 pounds; citrus or tomatoes, 100 pounds; other fruits, 200 pounds; grain products (flour, meal cereals) 170 pounds; butter, 20 pounds; sweets (sugar, syrup, preserves, etc.) 70 pounds; dried peas and beans, 15 pounds.

There is not a farm in the Southwest which cannot produce every item in this list except the sugar and grain products. Fresh meat (chicken, turkey, beef, veal, lamb or mutton, fresh pork) should be served at least once a day for a wholesome, healthful and strength-giving diet, and dry beans or peas three times a week. They grow on the farm and go to the table without paying tribute to handlers and processors.

The United States as a whole eats nearly 70 pounds of beef, veal, lamb and mutton per capita, per year. Ironically enough the people who have to buy it eat more than those who grow it. Texas is a producer of great surpluses of all these fresh meats, yet her people consume only 15.5 pounds per capita or less than one-fifth the average for the whole United States. Arkansas farm people consume only about 8 pounds of beef per capita, though every pound of beef must grow on some farm or ranch, and there is enough waste on the average farm to produce all the meat the family can eat. It is no longer necessary to eat fresh meat only at killing time, for either canning or freezing (or both) is within the reach of every family, making possible the daily meat service throughout the year.

There is no reason why we should buy navy beans from Michigan, limas and black-eyed peas from California, pinto beans from Colorado, when a few rows of each will provide a variety of these nourishing foods. The recommended menu calls for them three times a week, but a little forethought in planting will prevent the necessity of eating the same kind all the time.

To say nothing of the fact that garden vegetables are best when they go from garden direct to table, and preserving the home supply of foods, will buy something else which can't be raised on the farm — say a refrigerator, a washing machine, a radio, and a thousand other manufactures.

Brownfield School Trustees Elected

A light vote was cast in last Saturday's regular school election and resulted in the re-election of H. R. Winston, and election of A. E. Cary, succeeding G. M. Green. The new board, including the above two, will be composed of the following holdovers: J. M. Telford, C. E. Ross, W. R. McDuffie, W. B. White and D. B. Gordon, the latter appointed heretofore by the board to fill the unexpired term of R. L. Adams, resigned. While this is more or less a thankless job, it is a very important one for our ever growing school, and we bespeak the patient cooperation of the patrons with the Board.

This is a continuation of the upward trend notable since new model introduction, making the month's sales to date 36.3 per cent higher than they were a year ago. Used car sales for March this year are also running ahead of those for the same period in 1938.

EDWARD J. ENGLE NEW HEAD OF SANTA FE SYSTEM

From stenographer to railroad president in forty years was the storybook climb today completed by Edward J. Engle, newly-named head of the Atchenson Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company. Announcement of Mr. Engle's appointment to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Samuel T. Bledsoe, President and Chairman of the Executive Committee of the 13,000 mile Santa Fe System since 1933, was made following Tuesday's meeting of the Company's Board of Directors.

He went to work for the Santa Fe in 1899 as a stenographer in the office of E. P. Riley, President of the Santa Fe from 1895 to 1920.

His next move was in May, 1903 from the secretary's desk to the position of Chief Clerk in the Presidents office. In recognition of services well done, Mr. Engle was made Assistant to the President in September, 1910, and appointed vice-president in July 1918.

Tom May, Mon Telford, Bob Bowers and Chas. Gordon left for San Angelo on a few days fishing with Simon Holgate who now lives there.

We are glad to report that Mrs. Clovis Kendrick is on the mend following a severe case of flu.
