TANNERY GETS JOB IN RHODE ISLAND

AUSTIN, Texas, April 18 — Fladger F. Tannery, assistant professor of business administration at The University of Texas, has been granted a leave of absence to assist in a public administration survey in Rhode Island. He will return to the campus September 1. Mr. Tannery will be associated with the Public Administration Service of Chicago, Ill., and will be stationed in Providence, R. I. He will assist in preparing a budget for the current session of the Rhode Island Legislature, in making a survey of the fiscal records, and in installing a revised system of accounting for the state government of Rhode Island.

Mr. Tannery, who teaches accounting and auditing at the University, served for two years as first assistant auditor of the State of Texas. He holds a bachelor of business administration and a master of business administration degree from the University of Texas and is a certified public accountant.

From September, 1925, to June 1928, Mr. Tannery served as principal of the grade school in Brownfield; and from September 1928, to February, 1935, he was principal of Reagan County High School at Big Lake.

Chamber of Commerce News

By J. E. Shelton, Secretary

The Directors of the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce, held their second regular meeting Thursday night and the principal business that was attended to was the appointment of the various committees that will serve for the year. However discussion of the immediate needs of the town and the construction of a modern hotel came up and it was agreed that was one of the crying needs, if we were to be in a position to undertake to procure such industries as most of us agree are necessary if we are to continue our present rate of growth and development.

The hotel and industrial committees are already at work on their division and it is hoped that we will soon be ready to report some definite results within a short time, at least so far as the hotel is concerned and a little later on the industrial division.

The following committees were appointed to serve in the various divisions: Industrial Committee, M. R. Hemphill, R. L. Bowers, Tom Cobb, I. M. Bailey. Highway Committee: C. C. Coleman, R. A. Simms, W. B. Tudor. Agricultural and Immigration Committee: H. R. Winston, Fred Smith, Dr. M. E. Jacobson. Rural Relations Committee: Lee Fulton, W. R. McDuffie, R. N. McClain. Freight Rate Equality Committee: Tom May, C. J. Smith, J. B. Knight. Permanent Membership Committee: E. G. Akers, H. W. Nelson, R. E. Self. Advertising and Publicity Committee: Charles Dial, R. L. Headstream. Hotel Committee: C. C. Coleman, Tom May, H. R. Winston, J. O. Gillham, J. E. Shelton.

Since the meeting, some of us have agreed that we should have a Convention Committee, but no appointments have been made to it, but President Gillham will attend to this part within the next few days. Our organization and the recently formed Junior Chamber of Commerce are going to work closely together toward the development of our town and county and their committees will conform to ours. In fact our offices will be in the same building, but the location of our offices have not been decided upon. Since 1928 the Chamber of Commerce office has been in the court house, in several different places and always in the office of some county official, but the building has become so crowded upon account of increased work of county officials, our organization is going to have to make room for them. The regular meetings of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce will be held on the second Friday night of each month, but the next meeting will be a combined meeting of the directors and the membership of the organization.

A GREAT OLD MAN PASSES ON TO HIS REWARD

While his death was not unexpected, as he had been in feeble health for some time, yet the death of Uncle Ike Newberry, early Tuesday, came as a great shock to the entire county. This aged citizen was a friend of everyone, and everyone loved and respected him. There was nothing of the grouch at any time about him. But he liked to joke his friends or for them to joke him. He was a tireless church worker, as long as he was physically able, as well as a booster for his community, schools, and the moral tone of the community in general. Uncle Ike will be missed greatly not only in the Union community, but by the entire county.

I. N. Newberry was born in East Tennessee on June 26, 1845, therefore lacked from April to June being 94 years of age. In young manhood, he joined the Federal army, and served the last two and one-half years of the civil war, around Nashville, Tenn., and Virginia. He was the last surviving Federal soldier of Terry county, so far as we know. Shortly after the bloody sectional strife, Uncle Ike became a member of the Methodist church, and has been a Mason more than 60 years. In the summer of 1924, he and wife celebrated their Golden Wedding day, on the farm, at which were gathered hundreds of people from this and other sections of Texas and Oklahoma. Grandma Newberry passed away in 1929.

The funeral services were conducted Tuesday at 4:30 p. m. at the Union Baptist church by Rev. Jesse Young, of the Brownfield Methodist circuit. The funeral procession was about a mile long, and the floral offerings were profuse. Following the funeral sermon, the Brownfield Masonic body took charge, and he was given the ritual burial of that order. Brownfield Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements. We might state here that Uncle Ike helped to organize the Union Cemetery Association, and helped to plot the grounds.

Surviving immediate members of the family are five sons, and a man he and wife raised along with their own sons, as follows: C. S. of Greenville, Tenn.; T. A. of Hollis, Okla.; H. C. of this county; M. B. of Morton; I. E. of Childress; and C. S. Burgner of Boulder, Colo. There were no daughters.

All of the above along with relatives from five states attended the funeral.

After attending the Panhandle Press Association in Amarillo and hearing and meeting newspaper women that edit and get out dailies we have decided it is not just a man's world after all. Some of the best speakers there were women, however there were not as many women in attendance as we expected.

The first day was a tribute to the founders and old in the service of newspaper work, and hearing of the trials and tribulations of the men in their pioneer efforts in getting out a paper we wondered why there was not some tribute paid the said editors' wives as most editors' wives, especially is this true on small weeklies, help with all the work in the shop, and in most cases raise a family too, and had it not been for this help and cooperation some papers would have ceased to exist long ago as the income would not allow for outside help.

After twenty-nine years helping with a paper we really enjoyed this, our first association meeting, everyone was so friendly and congenial, so many people from the start seemed to be old time friends. It was a great get-together and we hope to be able to go back again to Amarillo when the Panhandle Press meets in April, 1940.

"Behind the Scenes In American Business"

By John Craddock
NEW YORK, Apr. 10—BUSINESS—Hopes of a spring rise in business seem to be fading, with unrelieved European tension considered chiefly responsible. On the other hand there appears no reason for great alarm because industry and trade, by merely holding to present levels from now to July 1, still will be 30 per cent better than during the second quarter last year. Government spending will not reach a peak for 1939 until mid-summer. This means expanding buying power for millions of consumers in the next three months and could be a powerful recovery influence if the fate of Europe can be settled peaceably soon. Arrival of better weather is expected to stimulate retail auto sales since rain and cold in recent weeks have delayed inquiries of many prospective purchasers. Pre-Easter promotions on the retail front have been reasonably satisfying, with sales of Easter and Spring clothing approximating $500,000,000, a gain of seven per cent over last year.

A letter from J. E. Michie, McAlester, Okla., states that he missed last's week Herald. Mrs. Michie may steer Everett by a meal once in awhile, but when he misses a copy of the Herald he raises Old Billie till we send another. Expressed regrets at the passing of Earl Jones.

RECENT BRIDE HONORED

One of the most delightful affairs of the season was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Troy Noel on last Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Herod with other hosts and hostesses being Messrs. and Mesdames Glen Webster, Ray Christopher, Lee O. Allen and Jack Bailey.

The receiving rooms were lovely with baskets of baby's breath and bowls of tulips and snapdragons. The registration table was presided over by Mrs. Webster and about 50 guests signed. Mrs. Lee Allen served punch and cookies from the beautiful table which held a small replica of the bride and groom on a gold reflector surrounded by sweet peas and lace fern. Tall tapers burned throughout the evening having been lighted by the honoree.

Mr. and Mrs. Noel received a lovely assortment of gifts including a complete set of hob-nail fustoria and a chest of silver in the new Rendezvous pattern with service for eight.

WOODMEN CIRCLE NEWS

Brownfield Woodmen Circle No. 462 initiated five candidates for Seagraves and one for Brownfield Grove, Friday afternoon. The team was handicapped by not having music as the Circle's piano was lost in the fire when the hall burned.

But the good soldiers they are, marched as best they could without music.

Mrs. Earl Jones went to Dallas this week on business.

KAPRALIK — CHAMBLISS

Woodrow Chambliss, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Chambliss of Brownfield, was married to Miss Erika Kapralik on Easter Sunday, April 9th. The wedding ceremony took place in a little Episcopal church in Ridgefield, Connecticut. The bride was given away by Mr. Micheal Chekhov, head instructor of the Chekhov Theatre Studio, which both young people attend. Mr. Paul Baker, former Dramatic Instructor at Baylor University was best man.

Immediately after the ceremony the young couple motored up to New York and Long Island, where they spent several days on the estate of Mrs. Elmhert, owner of the school.

Mrs. Chambliss was born in Austria. She joined the Chekhov Theatre Studio, two years ago in Totnes Devon, England, where she studied for about sixteen months. She made her first trip to America last January, when the Theatre moved to Connecticut.

Mr. and Mrs. Chambliss will continue their work in the Chekhov Theatre Studio.

WOODMEN CIRCLE BENEFIT PARTY

The Woodmen Circle sponsored a benefit party at the Little Theatre Guild, Friday night, April 14. "42" and Chinker Checkers were played. Refreshments were served to fifty guests.

The Woodmen Circle wish to thank all who bought tickets and contributed in any way to make our party a success.

MAIDS AND MATRONS HEAR BOOK REVIEWS

Members of the Maids and Matrons Club, with Mrs. E. C. Davis hostess, had as guests artists Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Ivy Savage and Miss Margaret Bell of Lubbock, who gave very interesting book reviews of "With Malice Toward Some," by Margaret Halsey, and "Leonardo De Vinci," by Antonina Vallentin.

Both Mrs. Savage and Miss Bell were former members of the Club and are now teachers in the school system at Lubbock, Mrs. Savage being principal of one of the grade schools.

The hostess served fruit salad, cheese wafers, ripe olives, macaroons and iced tea.

Members and guests were: Mesdames Bailey, Bell, Horton, Perry, Vernon, Winger, McGowan, Fulton, Randal, Price, Moore, Tarpley, Turner, Coleman, Hendrix, Savage, Smith, Brownfield, and Misses Bell, Rasco, Edwards, Sloan and Fitzgerald.

ATTENDS LUNCHEON

Mrs. M. E. Jacobson went to Lubbock Tuesday where she attended a luncheon given in honor of District officers in the 7th District Federation of Women's Clubs. She left for Dallas Tuesday night and heard Paderewski play Wednesday night and then on to Austin as a delegate to the State Federation of Music Clubs. Mrs. Jacobson is a member of the State Board.

Mrs. J. W. Elmore was in this week shopping.

CEN-TEX HARMONY CLUB

Mrs. M. E. Jacobson, representing the Cen-Tex Harmony club of Brownfield, left Tuesday for the State Convention, Austin, Texas where she will attend the Texas Federation of Music clubs, April 19-22 inclusive.

Mrs. Jacobson will also hear the world's most famous pianist, Ignace Paderewski at Dallas, Tuesday night.

Mrs. W. H. Dalias, member of the State Board of Music Clubs was unable to attend on account of recent illness, as was Mrs. E. D. Jones, Past President of South Plains Federated Music club.

MISS VONDEE LEWIS QUALIFIED FOR SOCIETY

LUBBOCK, Texas, April 12 — Vondee Lewis, arts and sciences student at Texas Technological College, has qualified for membership in the Freshman Honor Society. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lewis of Brownfield.

Sponsored by Forum, honorary organization, and the Association of Women Students, the Freshman Honor Society requires a B-average.

Miss Tommie Brittain, teacher in the Plains school system was here Tuesday making final preparations for the Junior-Senior banquet of that school, to be held Friday night at Terry's White Kitchen.

Tom May went to El Paso on business this week.

BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

The dirt storm which came Sunday morning greatly reduced the attendance but people with cars had little excuse for staying away, as many came, walking several blocks but the wind was disagreeable, but would not have kept men from their business. The Lord's business should come first with people calling themselves Christians.

Good services through the day with three coming into the fellowship of the church.

There were thirty present Monday evening in the circle meetings of the W. M. U. All of this organization meets at the church next Monday at 2:30 p. m. for Missionary study and business meeting and all of the women of the church are asked to bring any used clothing they may have that is suitable to put in the box being packed for Buckner's Orphan Home. Do not overlook this charitable act but make use of all good used clothing you do not need as seven hundred children are depending on us for their food and clothing.

That every family of the church may have the news of Baptist happenings over Texas especially for the next three months the church voted to put the Baptist Standard in the budget for three months at least and if it is coming to your home read it and it is paid for. If your family has been overlooked call the attention of Nathan Evans to that fact as he handles it and wants to correct any mistake. This is a special evangelistic effort being promoted by the Southern Baptist Convention which calls for meetings in all churches, school houses or places where the people come together. Give it your support by attendance and prayer, that thousands who have never considered Christ may come to accept him by repentance and faith.

Attention! Every man of the church from 17 to 100 years of age are especially invited to be present at 8 p. m. Monday, April 24th. Rev. A. C. Huff of Plainview will be present to speak and the purpose of the meeting is the organization of a Brotherhood in this church. There is much that men can do which too long has been left to the good women. They have accomplished great things for the Kingdom of God in their work but men are useful and every man is wanted for his own usefulness. This is your invitation, brother, to be present and assist in the election of officers. Refreshments will be served.

May next Sunday bring better weather and more loyal attendance at all of the services. —Church Reporter

METHODIST CHURCH

John Witt Hendrix, Pastor
Church school at 9:45 a. m. It is your privilege to attend this institution, to share in its opportunity and take part of its obligation.

Public worship both morning and evening, 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. At each hour the pastor will deliver a sermon. The subject of the morning will be: "JESUS AS A BUSINESSMAN." Was Jesus so completely heavenly in his estimates and attitude a sto solely overlook the business side? Is Christianity a sort of smooth escape out of a bad situation, trouble and grief, maybe out of a worse underworld, into a heavenly bliss? Let's think through these questions and others Sunday morning. "SONGS AT MID-NIGHT," will be the subject of the evening sermon. At each of these services the choir will do her share in furnishing good music. Then we will do our best to furnish good fellowship.

Leagues will meet, one at 6 p. m., another at 6:45 p. m. And these young people mostly make up the evening choir in a Big Sing.

FOURSQUARE CHURCH REVIVAL BEGINS SUNDAY

The Foursquare Church revival begins April 23rd, with Rev. Martin preaching. Bro. Martin is of Los Angeles, Calif., and has been in the Evangelistic work for several years, he will also be leaving this year for South America, as a Missionary.

He will be here twelve days and we want to invite one and all to attend these services nightly. Friday, 8 a. m. regular service.

Subject, "How to Have a Revival." Saturday 2:30 p. m. Childrens church.

Sunday 10 a. m., Sunday school. Sunday 11 a. m. Morning worship, Sister Lee will be speaker, with Bro. Martin taking part. Sunday 6:45, Young peoples service.

Sunday 8 p. m. Revival starts, with Bro. Martin in charge. Subject: "Live as You Please."

Monday 8 p. m. Subject, "Is the Anti-Christ at Hand?" Tuesday 8 p. m. "March On."

Wednesday 8 p. m., "Watchman What of the Night?" Thursday 8 p. m. "The Christ of the Jerecho Road."

Friday 8 p. m. "Conquering the Promised Land."

Every one welcome.—Irene Lee, Pastor.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

The sermon subject for Sunday morning, April 23rd, will be: "THE KNOT IN THE DEVIL'S TAIL."

My friends, do you know what the Bible teaches concerning the KNOT in the devil's TAIL? There is no other thing that has been so effective in dragging man into perdition as the KNOT in the devil's TAIL. Apparently most people are not informed about this great DANGER. In fact, many do not know in what book of the Bible you find this plain teaching concerning the devil's most effective weapon—the KNOT in his TAIL.

The Bible also describes a weapon (only one weapon) that man may use to cut the KNOT out of the devil's TAIL.

Ask your friends if they know all about the KNOT in the devil's TAIL. Ask them if they know the kind of weapon to use in cutting the KNOT out of the devil's TAIL. If they are un-informed; explain it to them. If you are not posted on the matter—then, bring your friends to church Sunday morning where you will be given the chapter and verse describing and instructing this hazard to the soul of man.

In order that all may arrive at a complete knowledge of the subject we will give an object lesson, or demonstration as follows: The devil's TAIL will be placed in the southwest corner of the building on a rack about four feet above the rostrum where nothing will obstruct clear vision. Then the weapon authorized in the Lord's word will be used to cut the KNOT out of the devil's TAIL. The lesson will be absolutely scriptural. The minister will give you the chapter and verse authorizing the entire procedure.

Meet me at the church of Christ next Sunday morning. Preaching service begins at 10:50 a. m. —J. H. Killion

THE METHODIST W. M. S.

Circle No. 1 of the Woman's Missionary society met last Monday afternoon in the parsonage and began their study, "The Church Takes Root in India," written by Basil Matthews, one of the greatest analysts and interpreters of Christianity in modern times. Mrs. Carpenter was leader. An interesting group attended.

Circle No. 2 met in the home of Mrs. M. E. Jacobson and was led in their study, "The World Outlook" by their president, Mrs. Crump. This study was a survey of the Wesley and Bethlehem settlements of the industrial area of the South. This group bears the same as the manifest endeavor of the group number one to interest what the Chamber of Commerce calls the Junior Chamber of Commerce, those ladies who are not in the other group. They have a great field of endeavor. Group No. 2 meets next Monday in the home of Mrs. N. T. House.

Mrs. Queenie King of Parsons, Kansas is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Arthur Sawyer.

Mrs. Joe J. McGowan spent last week in Quanah, Texas, visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Parks of the west part of the county, were over Tuesday shopping.

How the plus of OIL-PLATING brings you more than an oil-change

YOU know right off that the fresh oil needed in your crankcase today, isn't to lubricate the crankcase. Either your oil is in the bearings and up to the cylinder head every turn of your engine, or your lubrication isn't 100%.

Now what's the chance for any of the general run of oils to stay up while you've parked the car, for instance? Just about as much chance as there is for a geyser to stay up all by itself! Then every time you start, don't pistons get up to the top before oil gets up from the crankcase? You kill that risk by changing now to OIL-PLATING.

The "magnetic action" of Conoco Germ Processed oil—patented—makes OIL-PLATING stay on inner engine surfaces throughout all your stops, starts and runs this Summer. Your Germ Processed oil keeps a steady hold on the "Full" mark, too, as you'll see—by changing today to Your Mileage Merchant. Continental Oil Company

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

By Julian Capers, Jr.

AUSTIN — The time for a definite decision by the regular session of the 46th Legislature on what it will do about social security, and how it will finance whatever action it may take on the question, was almost at hand this week. But three weeks of the regular session remained at the end of another hectic seven days of battling, which saw the Senate reverse its previous decision, and adopt a sales tax constitutional amendment. The House promptly countered with a bill imposing a gross receipts tax upon business. Gov. O'Daniel took the air Sunday morning, backed the Senate bill and condemned the House measure as inadequate, and threw the last of his strength into the battle in favor of a $40,000,000 sales tax on property. The Governor offered the same specious arguments which he and the special interest lobby which fathered the sales tax have used all along—contending that to freeze a $40,000,000 sales tax burden on the lower income group into the Constitution would "take pensions out of politics, and prevent "demagogic officials" from using pensions for political purposes. He did not state why a demagogue, running for office next year, couldn't advocate a more liberal constitutional pension and garner the "sucker" votes as easily as O'Daniel himself did last summer by promising $30 a month by statute. He also voiced a veiled threat toward the legislators, when he declared that he "had no word of criticism for any member—at this time," but declared he would "wait for completion of the record." He also sought to justify his own political record, by reminding the voters he had done his best and that final decision rests with the Legislature. This situation, apparently, is one of the many things the Governor has learned since he toured the State last summer, promising everybody $30 a month. Best opinion here was that the Senate will not take the House gross receipts bill, which would tax retailers of tangible personal property 1 per cent, one fourth of one per cent on wholesalers gross receipts, and one tenth of one per cent on gross receipts of money lenders and transactors of credit business. It expects firms having a gross annual income of less than $45,000. It also would increase natural resources taxes about 33 per cent, and its sponsors, G. C. Morris of Greenville and Ross Hardin, of Limestone, estimated it would raise about $34,000,000, of which a fourth would have to go to the school fund, the remainder to social security purposes. Hearing on the bill was set by the Senate for Tuesday night. The Senate plan involves a 2 per cent sales tax, and increased levies on natural resources approximating those in the House bill. It would be submitted to the voters this year and would expire in 1942, unless readopted by the voters before January 1, 1943. Some observers believed the Senate might amend the House bill by substituting a sales tax provision for the gross receipts section, since the belief here is still prevalent that a sales tax constitutional amendment cannot get through the House. Otherwise, if the Senate rejects the House plan, there remains only the possibility of an omnibus tax bill that will add $10,000,000 or $12,000,000 to the present levies on natural resources, which might get through, or a deadlocked session. Already, there is considerable talk of a special session, in anticipating that no tax legislation at all will get through the regular session.

West Stock Rises
Following a personal appearance by Jim West, Houston oil multi-millionaire, before the Senate subcommittee on governor's nominations, in which West bluntly told the committee that he opposed Franklin D. Roosevelt and he expected to continue to do so, the committee reported favorably on West's nomination as Highway Commission Chairman. Corridor talk at the capitol indicated the opposition which West's activity on behalf of Alf Landon, 1936 Republican presidential nominee aroused last week, had died down considerably, and best informed Senators believed West would be confirmed, possibly before this column is printed.
County Judges Seek Compromise
Strong opposition to the so-called County Judges' Road Bond Bill which has developed since details of the scheme to put the State's credit behind $200,000,000 of "dead horse" county lateral road bonds have been revealed, had the faction of County Judges supporting the measure, headed by Jake Loy of Grayson county, seeking a compromise here this week end. The Texas Good Roads Association, opponents of the bill, insisted that any compromise plan for disposing of the surplus occurring in the present Bond Retirement Fund, financed by one-cent of the gasoline tax, should call for the construction of new roads with the money, instead of using it to pay off the "dead horse" bonds, and they also demanded a better method of distributing the benefits to the counties than that of the Judges, which would reward the extravagant counties, and penalize the thrifty which have issued few bonds. The bond speculators who sponsored the County Judges Bill are opposed to building new roads with the money, as that will not increase the value of depreciated county bonds they are holding for a rise, which will come, of course, if the State assumes payment of the county bonds.

Austin Notes
Railroad Commissioner Ernest Thompson won another round in his eight year battle to reduce gas rates in nearly 200 towns served by the Lone Star Gas Co., when the Austin Court of Civil Appeals for the second time upheld the ruling of the Rail Commission, cutting the gate rate to these cities from 40 to 32 cents a thousand cubic feet. The first decision was reversed by the Supreme Court on technical grounds which some lawyers think are satisfied by the new opinion, written by Associate Justice M. B. Blair, author of the first opinion. An appeal will be taken by the gas company, and the case probably will be in court several years yet. This session of the legislature will cost about $675,000, Senator Morris Roberts estimated, as he offered another "pay check" bill for the legislature, adding $150,000 to the $525,000 already appropriated. Last regular session cost $650,000.

SERVEL Electrolux is different from all others . . . because a tiny gas burner does the work of circulating the refrigerant in its freezing system . . . taking the place of moving, wearing parts. As a result, Servel Electrolux is permanently silent. In addition, its different, simple freezing system offers other advantages which you cannot get in any other type of automatic refrigeration . . . continued low operating cost, for instance, and freedom from wear that means more years of dependable, carefree service. More than a million Servel Electrolux refrigerators are serving silently and economically—many of them as long as 12 years . . . and users say a newly-installed Servel can quickly pay for itself in the savings it effects on food alone. Before you buy any automatic refrigerator—whether it be your first, or to replace your present one—learn why more and more people every year are changing to Servel Electrolux, the silent gas refrigerator. ## HARMONY

On last Saturday the fifth, sixth and seventh grades of our school made a trip to Lubbock, accompanied by their teachers Mr. C. A. Wilhite and Miss McManis. Others who went were Mrs. C. A. Wilhite, Mr. Dean Luker, Mrs. L. M. Lang, Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Davis and Harvey Davis the bus driver. After a sumptuous lunch in one of the parks, the children played for a time in the park. Then all went to the Tech grounds where they explored most of the great buildings there. All came home greatly thrilled after enjoying the afternoon at Tech.

We wish to congratulate our school board for having re-elected our three capable teachers, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wilhite and Miss Velma McManis. This will be their fourth year here.

The Harmony P.-T. A. will meet next Friday night, April 21, at eight o'clock.

The program will be sponsored by the family of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Fore, and will be an old time spelling bee. Everybody is invited to come and spell with us. The new officers for another year for the P.-T. A. are: Mrs. Joe A. Davis, president; Mrs. T. G. Sexton, vice-president; and Mrs. John Garner, secretary.

Miss Velma McManis had as her guests last Sunday her parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McManis and Miss Alma Lee of Lakeview.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin McClarin of Lubbock visited Mr. and Mrs. Herman Fore last Saturday.

Mrs. T. G. Sexton accompanied by Misses Barbara Garrett and Arline Fore were visitors in Lubbock last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Hobbs and Mr. Joe Merrett visited Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Brenson one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Garner are visiting in Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Smith and little daughter Dolores and Barbara Shannon were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wilhite last Sunday. All visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Davis in the afternoon.

Rev. Curtis Jackson local Baptist pastor filled his regular appointment last Sunday. He was a dinner guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Fore.

The attendance at Sunday school and church was excellent, considering the bad weather last Sunday. Spring time is coming, let's all go to Sunday school.

Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Hargrove visited her sister, Miss Annie Lou Hobbs in Seminole last Sunday.

Statement of Senator Tom Connally of Tex.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Apr. 13.—Senator Tom Connally of Texas introduced an amendment to the Agricultural Appropriation Bill to provide an additional appropriation of $60,000,000 for use of the Secretary of Agriculture under Section 32 of An Act to Amend the AAA, approved August 24, 1935. Section 32 was originally adopted through an amendment offered by Senator Connally in 1935. "To secure provision toward parity payments I strongly favor the adoption of an amendment in the Senate for $250,000,000 for such parity payments. "I have also offered an amendment to increase the funds available under Section 32 in the amount of $60,000,000. Section 32 is that provision which allows the Secretary of Agriculture to employ 30 per cent of all customs revenues for farm benefits and for handling surplus agricultural products. "It is believed that with the adoption of the $250,000,000 parity payments and the $60,000,000 increase under Section 32, substantial provision will be made for carrying out the agricultural program for 1939." W. B. Nunley of route four was in town this week.

Rambling Around In New Country To Us

Texas is so huge that there still remains much of it that we have never seen, but we did see a bit of the monster Sunday that we had never seen before, the extreme northeast section of the Texas Panhandle. We had seen Corpus Christi and the lower Valley. We had passed through the gateways of Texarkana and Marshall, as well as El Paso, and of course in our neighbor state, New Mexico via Bronco. So, Sunday, we decided to burn a bit of Mr. Rockefeller's gas and see a bit more. So we started from Pampa not too early Sunday morning, and this included the old he, the little woman, and our son-in-law, Herman Trigg and wife.

First, we crossed the county of Gray from northwest to southeast, going via old Lefors, near the center of Gray county, which was perhaps one of the last county seat towns that sat out in the middle of a big ranch. However, there is quite a village there now, with refineries and carbon black plants, and if the nickel had fallen heads instead of tails, perhaps it would still be the thriving county seat instead of Pampa in the extreme northwest section of the county. But the dice were loaded, and the black gold—oil and gas—began to spurt and flow in the Pampa section first, and soon there was near 20,000 people at that place, and by the next year or so they had accumulated enough poll tax that they had the necessary two-thirds majority to move the capitol. Suppose oil had been struck at Lefors first, then another page of history might have been written. But Pampa seems to have a cinch on the county government now.

Now, brother, if you are tired of this stuff, just quit reading it, but we'll bet our other two readers will finish it, even if they have been over the same road. You know one gets a jolt about a section before visiting it. Our imagination had told us that the McLean section was flat like this section, or like the Pampa section, and that the land was black and hard. But we were to be undeceived. In fact, much of that section is more sandy than Terry and Yoakum counties, and the topography of the section very rolling. And during the trip from Pampa to McLean you cross several creeks, some with running water as well as the north fork of the Red River with great long bridges. Of course we drove slow through the towns in order to see just where Editor printing offices were. Saw none at Lefors, but saw where Editor Landers puts out the McLean News. You know we always wanted to pronounce that part of the city following Mc as if it was lean meat, not Clain. Of course Bro. Landers being a very moral and religious man, we felt sure he was in church, and didn't try to interrupt his worshipping with a stop for shop talk. That is a fine little city however, and no wonder that Mr. Landers likes to live there.

At that point we turned east, and soon ran into Wheeler county, and over the fine paved highway 66, soon ran in Shamrock. Now most of the Wheeler county has about the same nature of soil as southern Gray, sandy and rolling. We begin to notice a lot of orchards, grape vineyards and berry patches, and discovered on arriving at Shamrock, the Irish town of Texas, that it was much lower than this section r even northern Gray county. It was below the cap, and had an elevation about like Big Spring, about 2300 feet. And we had the props knocked from under our geography about Wheeler county. We thought sure Shamrock was the county seat, but it is Wheeler.

Going straight on east of Shamrock for 15 miles, we came to the Oklahoma line, and like Texas, that good old Sooner state does not search your baggage for contraband or dip you for ticks. So we stopped at the first little town, Texola, Okla., and went into a cafe for tokens for souvenirs, and the good lady gave us two of each kind and would have nothing for them. We announced to the lady and her husband and one customer that it was the first time we, the old he, not the other members of the party, was ever in the state of Oklahoma. They gave us a stare and asked us where in the Sam Hill we lived. But then we explained we had gone through the Indian Territory part of the state during the fall of 1902, therefore we were correct as to State.

Returned to Shamrock, a fine little city, with fine stores and buildings for late lunch. Thence south 28 miles to Wellington, county seat of Collingsworth county, for the main intent of seeing our old friend, Ben Hurst.

Just as we expected, he was at the lumber yard, and acted like he was tickled pink to see us. That red muzzled Irishman don't look a day older than when he left Brownfield in 1931 to go to Wellington to take charge of the Cicero Smith lumber yard at that place. There was plenty talk done in the course of an hour, and he begged us to stay all night so we could better review the past, but Herman and Sallie were expecting some young couples (friends) to drop in, supposedly to see us Brownfieldites. Collingsworth is seemingly a bit less rolling than Wheeler, a bit harder land, but lots of orchards, vineyards and berry patches, good dairy herds, etc. Wellington is a fine little city about the size of Brownfield, with one of the prettiest court-houses we ever saw.

Returning north to Shamrock, we kept the northern course through the city of Wheeler, a fine old town, but has not kept pace with its oil competitor, Shamrock. We begin to note corn fields along and remembered that at one time Wheeler and Dallham counties were close competitors to Terry county as west Texas corn producers. But from the looks of the stalks, they surely had a bad year last year, for lack of rain, borers or both. And borers are going to get our goats too, some day if we don't watch out. At Wheeler, we turned a northwest course toward Pampa, and soon ran into old Mobeetie said to be the oldest town in the Panhandle. That old burg has certainly had its ups and downs. First the railroad missed it about two miles, then after most of the town moved to the railroad, the highway split right in between the two towns, and some stores and filling stations are now on the highway, making three towns.

Here's a tip to the Tech journalistic and historical department: That section is a fine place to collect some folklore about the long dead past. Near Mobeetie was situated old Fort Elliott, established in 1874, and abandoned in 1889, fifty years ago. A simple shaft erected by Texas marks the site near a creek, but upon a rise. Near the filling station operated by O. E. Sims, on the highway, still stands the old plank buildings used as the postoffice during the fort days. There is an old lady, slightly hard of hearing, but still active for her age (101) that lived at the Fort, and an old German, which the filling station man was unretain about the spelling of the name of Fentaso, who was one of the soldiers who helped to man the fort, and still living nearby. These two old people could give a bunch an ear full. And not so far away is the Old Adobe Wall Fort, where the last battle with Comanches was fought. Both places could be made on the same trip to the north Panhandle. You two readers may now have recess.
