NUMBER 27

"FOUNDERS DAY" TO BE CELEBRATED HERE ON FEB. 17

"MOTHER'S CLUB" ORGANIZED IN 1913, FORERUNNER OF P. T. A.

Pioneer P. T. A. Officers and Members, Early Day Teachers and Others To Be Honored February 17 in Elaborate Program at School Auditorium.

The local Parent-Teacher Association, along with hundreds of other such organizations in the State of Texas, and perhaps other states, are preparing to celebrate Founders Day in an elaborate manner. The forerunner of PTA was "The Mothers Club," and seemingly came into existence as an organization in Brownfield on the 11th day of October, 1913, making the local organization 29 years old, this coming October.

The good livewire ladies of this city has asked the Herald to help them in every way possible to get as good crowd as possible out on Monday night, February 17th, 7:30 P. M. at the High School Auditorium. It has been suggested that we not only print the program for that date, but also reprint the first program from the files of the Herald found in our issue of October 17th, 1913, which we are glad to do.

Some have also asked that we reprint an editorial in support of the movement that was written and printed in our issue of Sept. 26 of the same year. We are doing so, but you will note from that editorial that the Old He has softened up a bit with age, and lack of a lot of the fire of other days; but here is the first program:

MOTHERS CLUB

A number of ladies of Brownfield met at the school house (located in the rear of where the Griffin Gin now stands) Saturday, October 11th, 1913 for the purpose of organizing a Mothers Club or Parent-Teacher Association. An interesting paper on the "Aims of a Mothers Club," was read by Mrs. W. A. Bell, after which the following officers were elected:

Mrs. W. A. Bell, president; Mrs. R. H. Banowsky, Vice-President; Miss Bertha Lowe, Secretary; Mrs. Esther Harris, Treasurer.

A committee on by-laws and constitution were appointed, and afterwards submitted a constitution, which was voted on and approved by the club. Committee on by-laws and constitution composed of the following: Mrs. Banowsky and Mrs. J. T. King and Esther Harris. Committee on entertainment, Mrs. R. H. Banowsky and Mrs. J. W. Welch.

And here is the editorial reprinted from our issue of September 26, 1913:

A MOTHERS CLUB

What do you think of a Mothers Club in Brownfield? Really, don't you think that one would prove more beneficial in a small town like Brownfield than a larger city that already shines with attractiveness, and employs landscape artists? We do, and the Herald will not rest or be satisfied until a Mother's Club is organized and at work in Brownfield. There is no use in going into details of what a Mother's Club has done for this or that city; you who have read—and all ladies read—know what they have transformed into beauty hundreds of times over. We all know that a Mothers Club does their best work where children have to spend most of their time.

It is also a well known fact that beauty attracts children even more than grownups, and in beautifying any locality one naturally cleans and sanitates. For instance it is a hard matter to get children to go to school, but if you will at least make their surroundings at the school house as neat and beautiful as the home, there is less likelihood that you will have a job each morning getting the children off to school. In this article, we propose to confine ourselves to the school alone, as that is the place all of us aim to send our children before long, and keep them there for several months.

In the first place, our school building is like some abandoned shack in a mining town; that it needs paint can be seen a thousand yards distance, but as we are short of funds, and the anti-school people will not let us have any more, the public spirited people of Brownfield will have to put up the cash, and a Mothers Club shall lead us. Let us at least put one coat of paint on. Again, a Mothers Club will begin early preparations to put out trees, and beautify the school playgrounds. Above all, the windows need shades, and the floors need scrubbing once in a decade at least. It takes cooperation and money to do these things. It is a damnable shame for our parents to permit our school grounds to grow up into a patch of goat-heads and sandbars that make our school children walk like high wire performers. Such people ought to have to walk barefooted over them for about three months, and we believe they would consider some plan to get rid of them, at least on the school playgrounds.

One mother has had a talk with the editor this week about the Mothers Club, and we informed her that it would be a blessing to the town. It is a pity that men cannot get enough heathenism out of themselves to form a Fathers Club, but we have no hopes. Let the mothers of Brownfield talk this over every time two or three of them get together. But by all means, get together.

Below, we are printing the program for the meeting of Monday, February 17th. Let's turn out the biggest crowd that ever attended a PTA meeting in the history of Brownfield.

Talking of High Taxes, They Had Them In 1872

Our good friend, Attorney P. G. Stanford, of Plains, was a caller at the Herald office last week, and showed us a yellowed tax receipt that was issued to a relative in Van Zandt county in 1872. D. E. Riley, of Canton, was the sheriff and collector, and the receipt was issued to Mrs. Nancy Reuter, grandmother of Mrs. J. W. Moss of Meadow.

Mrs. Moss is a cousin of Mr. Stanford, and he had spent the night in the Moss home, and was allowed to carry the receipt home to show to others. The best we could make of the receipt, Mrs. Reuter had around 1000 acres of land and paid a total of $1497 in taxes on this property.

The State rate was $5.02, and the County rate seemed to have been $8.77. There was also a territorial bond tax of 24c on the $100 valuation. Now, the county and state rate in Texas averages somewhere around $1.50 on the $100 valuation, and we think we are being swindled.

Chisholm Hardware Entertains Many Farmers Of Area

Last Friday was John Deere day in Brownfield, and the John Deere dealer, Chisholm Hardware, together with their employees entertained a great many farmers of the area, who came in to see the demonstration of the John Deere tractors, as well as the movie show at the Rialto in the afternoon.

A light lunch of sandwiches and coffee was enjoyed at the store at the noon hour, taking some 40 loaves of bread to feed the guests. John Chisholm stated to the Herald that the Rialto was well filled with his farmer guests in the afternoon, and all expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the show.

Wanted Herald For The News of Area

One of the new business men dropped into the Herald office recently, introduced himself, stated what business he was in and then announced that he wished to become a reader of the Herald, "as he wished to find out some of the news that was going on in this section, and become acquainted."

The gentleman went at it in the right way, and while he did not say that in so many words, he nevertheless verbally admitted that there are some papers printed

Ginnings On South Plains Show Gain

(From the Lubbock Journal)

South Plains counties show a ginning gain of approximately 27,000 bales for the 1940 season up to Jan. 16 over corresponding ginnings for the 1939 crop, according to latest figures of the U. S. bureau of the census, issued from Washington.

The semi-final figures show 422,003 bales, compared with 395,019 bales a year ago, an increase of 26,984 bales or 6.8 per cent. State totals for the same dates were, 3,015,748 bales for 1940 and 2,715,166 bales for 1939, or 300,580 bales gain.

Seven Show Losses

Seven counties out of the 19 showed losses, Castro, Crosby, Dawson, Garza, Lubbock, Lynn, Parmer. Heaviest loss was in Garza, which dropped more than 50 per cent. Lynn was second. Several other counties had minor decreases.

Cochran made the greatest gain, nearly 300 per cent. Terry made a substantial gain, advancing to 26th place in the state. Hockley was another county making a substantial increase. Bailey likewise made a good gain, nearly 50 per cent.

Lamb Leads In Area

State figures show Lamb led the Plains in rank, taking seventh in the state; Hockley was next with ninth place; Lubbock placed 14th; Lynn, 22nd; Dawson, 25th and Terry 26th. Bailey county was 36th.

Final Report In March

Final ginning report will not come until in March, but it is not expected there will be many changes in positions, except probably in counties in this section, because ginnings down state are practically over with for the season, and gins are closed. Only a few gins are now in operation over the South Plains and there may not be any material changes in totals.

Following are South Plains counties with their Jan. 16 ginnings, compared with totals for 1939 crop:

County	1940	1939
Bailey	24,881	13,609
Briscoe	4,879	3,064

that have no news of the city, county or communities. Their whole space is taken an advertising. If all the papers of the town were like that, what real benefit would they be to Brownfield and area?

Therefore, the Herald has some right to claim to be beneficial to our splendid town and area. While it is a superior advertising medium—not the cheapest, it also carries along with that news of the town, county and communities, that benefit all the people. In other words, it has some excuse for existing, and has some reason in asking the support of merchants in the way of advertising, and the people of the area as readers.

Lubbock Man Killed In Highway Accident

Highway 51 between Brownfield and Seagraves, seemingly the Jonah of this section, registered another death Sunday night, to boost the deaths from auto accidents in this county, and on this particular stretch of road. The victim was James Arthur Pickett, 22, of Lubbock, who was almost decapitated when he was thrown through the rough jagged edges that were torn by the heavy oil truck which figured in the collision.

Others injured and treated at the Treadaway-Daniell hospital here were, Mary Frances Rogers, 18, Lubbock, treated for lacerations and dismissed, Arthur Casey, Lubbock, 20; nose fracture and lacerations, dismissed Monday. Hardy E. Lynn, Seminole, driver of the truck, uninjured, but truck badly damaged. The car was a total wreck, and burned. However Pickett was extracted from the wreckage.

The truck driver, stated that evidently Pickett failed to see the curve just the other side of Wellman that the highway makes to cross the Santa Fe tracks, and pulled too far to the right. The truck after the collision turned into the guide posts along the highway, tearing up several of them. More people have been killed and injured at this curve and the reverse curve in the draw this side of Wellman, than on all other sections of highways in Terry county. But just what can be done to eliminate the danger is too much for us.

The Herald likes to print the news, but the above is one kind of news that we wish we never would have to print.

Yoakum Well Spraying Oil

FORT WORTH, Feb. 5.—Texas' first oil pool discovery of 1941 today was indicated when a Yoakum wildcat began spraying oil estimated at 300 to 500 barrels daily and showed 1,000,000 feet of gas.

The well was drilled by George Livermore of Fort Worth in the Ernest Ownby lands of section 502, three miles northeast of the two-well Waples-Platter pool. The oil formation was found at 5230-40 feet. Gas was picked up at 5153.

Operators may take a few more feet of pay after which they will acidize in an attempt to bring the well in.

The well is located about 8 miles southwest of Tokio.

Highway Body Formed To Urge Bond Assumption

LUBBOCK, Jan. 31.—A Texas State Highway Improvement Association was formed here Friday afternoon and passed a resolution to petition the Legislature to amend and re-enact the bond assumption law to include all road bonds voted prior to Jan. 2, 1941.

More than 125 men representing 27 counties attended the meeting, which was called by the county judges and commissioners of Terry, Gaines, Hockley and Lamb Counties, which have voted more than $3,000,000 in bonds since Jan. 2, 1939. Under a proposed constitutional amendment by the Texas County Judges and Commissioners Association, bonds voted since Jan. 2, 1939, would be ineligible.

Resolutions Adopted

Strong resolutions were drawn up, memorializing the legislature that the additional highways were badly needed in Texas, to care for defense measures to the best of our ability. The fact that the Texas State Highway Department says that they will be unable to build more than 200 or 300 miles of highways in 1941, and that there are some 1500 miles needed, most of which bonds have been voted for, in the counties through which they pass.

That because of the fact that the legislature has set a precedent in bond assumption in other sections of the state that were financed by counties with bond issues, and later taken over for operation by the State Highway Department, that it is only fair and just that bonds voted in 1939-40 be also carried in the same way. The above is the burden of the rather long set of resolutions submitted by the committee and adopted.

W. Coffee Jr. of Silverton, Briscoe County Judge, was elected president; W. R. McDuffie, Brownfield Banker, vice president, and A. J. Schroeter of Hereford, Deaf Smith County judge, secretary.

Each county in the organization will be asked to contribute $100 toward financing a campaign to obtain the highway association's objectives.

Claud Lang Guilty In Traffic Mishap

A jury in 106th district court here Monday found Claud Lang guilty of murder without malice and recommended suspension of a two-year penitentiary sentence.

The jury reported, to Judge Louis B. Reed, presiding in 106th court, an hour and a half after it received the charge at 8 o'clock.

Lang was charged on indictment with murder growing out of the death Jan. 12 of A. J. Jordan, 19. The defendant was driver of a car that was in collision with the machine in which Jordan was riding.

The accident happened at 1:30 o'clock in the morning five miles south of Brownfield. The victim died three hours later in a Brownfield hospital.

A capacity crowd listened closely to testimony throughout the trial, which opened Monday morning. Not in recent months has there been more interest in a criminal case in Terry county, court officials said.

Mrs. R. L. Bandy and son are visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. L. Flippin and Mr. Flippin in Breckenridge. Mr. Bandy plans to join them for the week end.

Are Fairs Worth The Time, Effort And Money?

T. L. Patterson, Secretary Chamber of Commerce

This question has been asked many times, and if you will take the time to read this article we will try to point out a few reasons why we think that fairs are worth the time, effort and money.

First, what are fairs for? The real purpose of a fair is to educate and entertain. By educating we mean that it gives the farmers a chance to study what his neighbor or some one across the county is doing and why he is doing it better than any one else. It might be some particular brand of cotton seed or some new development in grain sorghums, or methods of feeding cattle, hogs or chickens to secure better results. When Farmer Jones sees that Farmer Smith is producing better cotton than he is, the first thing he wants to know is how. And after he has found the reason then he will start trying the same thing and may improve on it, so you see production is helped which in turn helps the pocket book. By entertaining we mean that fairs give the farmers, their wives and children an excellent opportunity to visit, get better acquainted and to relieve their minds of every day worries for a while.

Through the commercial exhibits the farmer is given an opportunity to see the newest developments in farming equipment and how it is operated.

Fairs have been in active existence since the 13th century, thus proving that they have stood the test of time, and if they are not worth the time, effort and money, then why are they still being conducted. Last year over 60,000,000 people visited some 22,000 fairs in the United States and Canada. This proves conclusively that they are still very popular.

Through the medium of the fairs, competition is automatically set up to improve the products that are produced on the farms and the result is that the standard of living is improved. Blue ribbon winners at fairs find ready buyers, and the producer finds that he has been well rewarded for his time and efforts in producing the product that won the blue ribbon.

Fairs do cost lots of time, effort and money, but when you stop and sum up the benefits that are gained through fairs, we feel sure that they are worth while and that you could spare a little of all three to see that our fair is successful.

Oil Means Much To West Texans

In the 48 counties of west Texas that produce oil in any large amounts, 50,000 of her citizens are dependent entirely for wages, and this does not include thousands of other indirectly dependent on oil one way, then another. You would be surprised at the amount of money paid to Terry county people in the way of lease and royalties.

These 50,000 people are paid around 16 million dollars in wages, which supports many families and dependants. Farmers and ranchmen get another 27 million leases and royalty. Oil pays 10 million of local taxes annually, or around 86 million dollars annually in taxes for all purposes.

In these 48 counties, as assessed valuation totals 486 million dollars, of which 174 million represents oil valuations, or around one-third of all valuations.

Mrs. F. E. Calvery and Mrs. Ervin Stewart of Tahoka visited with the former's sisters, Mrs. Spencer Kendrick and Mrs. Daniel Davis, Sunday.

This week the city of Lamesa entertained the volunteer firemen of "the north Permian Basin," but Lamesa seemed to have been the furthest north town of the basin, the others ranging on down to the T. & P. railroad and below. Which makes us wonder just where Seminole, Seagraves, Denver City, Plains, Morton, Levelland and Brownfield stand as regards the north Permian basin.

Hop Halsey of Lubbock, represents the 119th or "Jumbo" representative district of Texas, the nine counties having a total population of around 130,000 people. The Texas average is some 40,000 to the district. Ellis county, with 47,000 has 2. Therefore, the "Jumbo" has about three times the population of the average. While Hop is rather reticent, he is going after redistricting in the right way by keeping somewhat in the background as becomes a new member, and working with older and more experienced men who live "down in Texas". In this undertaking, we don't know a great deal that the Herald or any other citizen in the stepson section of Texas can do, but all should be willing and ready to help in any capacity that Hop might suggest. Being a baby member, Hop has landed in several important committees other than the powerful appropriations committee. Hop will have a lot of friends in the legislature soon. He always makes friends.

Behind The Scenes In American Business

Behind The Scenes In American Business

By John Craddock
NEW YORK, Feb. 3 — BUSINESS — It seems as though that prosperity phrase, "cash jingling in their jeans," is more than a mere figure of speech. For Nellie Tayloe Ross, director of the U. S. mint, reports that in 1940 the mints—located in Philadelphia, Denver and San Francisco—had to work 24 hours a day most of the year to keep up with the demand for new coins. In fact they set a new all-time record, both in numbers and value of "hard money." The new record is 1,478,982 coins—compared with the previous high mark of 738,742, a record set way back in 1919. Incidentally, the breakdown on the coin-count shows that only half-dollars, quarters, dimes, nickels and pennies were minted—no "wagon-wheels" at all. Maybe they've quit making the good old iron men; anyway, they didn't grind out any in 1940.

WHY—Of course, what causes this is the increase in the above-mentioned cash jingling in jeans, and the crescendo of clanging cash tills, stemming from the defensive drive and its upsurging of industrial activity all over the country, with consequent upturns in retail trade. Officially and particularly, though, Mrs. Ross attributes the demand to "increased volume of retail business; the new defense taxes; increase in state sales taxes, and the increasing use of slot-machine devices." That rising stream of jitneys pouring into juke-boxes seems to be backwashing clear to the U. S. mint.

Many Added For Income Tax Collection

Due to the lowering of the personal exemptions of single individuals from $1,000 to $800 and for married couples from $2,500 to $2,000, the Deputy Collectors of Internal Revenue for the Second District of Texas will be required to assist a much greater number of individuals in the preparation of 1940 income tax returns than ever before.

Under existing regulations set forth by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, no Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue is required to prepare any income tax returns. He is only required to advise with any taxpayer relative to items of income and deductions to be included on the returns.

In order that the deputy collectors of the Second District of Texas shall be able to assist as many people as possible during the coming income tax filing period, it has become necessary that their assistance be limited as follows:

1. No corporation, estate or gift tax returns will be prepared. Only advice will be given relative to the filing of these classes of returns.
2. No complicated individual tax returns disclosing income from various sources in excess of $10,000 will be prepared.
3. No return will be prepared for any individual who does not have available all complete information.
4. No individual return will be prepared which requires additional schedules (such as stock market transactions). In no instance will any schedules be prepared.

2,000 Texans To Be Drafted

Texas State Selective Service headquarters last week issued the fourth call for draftees to fill out Texas' quota of 2,000 men for the period February 6 to 13.

The call was on all of Texas' 351 local boards.

With 159 draftees asked, Harris County will furnish the most men of any single county in the state, Dallas County next with 117.

Other counties and their quotas include: Bexar, 93; Tarrant, 66; Nueces, 44; Jefferson, 40; El Paso, 35; Travis, 30; Wichita, 24; McLennan, 21; and Potter, 16.

A huge steel mill is being built just outside of the city of Longview, Texas, that will use the Madaras natural gas method of processing steel from iron ore, instead of the old coke and lime process. Promoters claim that the process is done out of the experimental stage, as it was tried out in Pittsburgh and Detroit by scientists. There are twenty-four counties in Texas that have rich deposits of iron ore, it is stated. At present all the iron and steel used in Texas, has to come from Alabama, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Michigan.

Balanced Farm Makes Balanced Feeding Easier

(Editor's Note: This is the fifth of a series, "Blending Livestock With Cotton," published as a service to farmers and stockmen.)

From California to Tennessee, in Alabama, Texas and Louisiana, livestock authorities agree that there is increasing recognition throughout the Cotton Belt of the importance of cotton as a source of feed for livestock. Typical of their comments are these quotations:

"Cottonseed meal is easily obtainable in the South, and is a wonderful supplement and concentrate to use with silage."

"Probably the most widely-used supplement is cottonseed cake, which supplies protein lacking in dry grass."

"With knowledge of these deficiencies of grain sorghums, it was a simple matter to supply lime in the form of pulverized oyster shell or limestone, and to supply protein in the form of cottonseed meal."

"Cottonseed products are necessary for our feeding, and can be bought cheaper by cotton farmers than by anyone else."

"There is little need of a protein supplement other than cottonseed meal when sufficient pasture and silage are supplied to average dairy cows."

Such comments as these quotations from livestock authorities show their appreciation of the value of cotton as a source of feed needed for the efficient balancing of rations that is essential for the successful production of livestock.

Larger production of grains, hays, silages and pastures in cotton-growing regions are contributing to a better-balanced, diversified farming program; and, in turn, the efficient use of these products, as pointed out by these livestock leaders, calls for greater use of feed products from cotton acres.

Without cotton acreage to supply efficient, economical protein in the form of cottonseed meal, or cake, the South would obtain far less value from its grains, hays, silages and pastures, in accordance with recommendations of Experiment Station, College and Extension feeding authorities, farmers increase the value and efficiency of their farm grains and roughages.

By raising cotton along with grain, hay and silage crops, the South is "growing" balanced rations that are the foundation for efficient livestock feeding. By using these products in balanced rations, the blending of cotton and livestock production becomes practical and profitable in a diversified, permanent agricultural and livestock program. With balanced farming, balanced feeding is simple.

Rations and feeding methods that have proved their practical efficiency in this blending of livestock and cotton in the South will be discussed in future articles of this series.

WE ALL NEED THIS PATROLMAN

Safety experts declare the standard driver's license law now before the Legislature will protect farmers and rural motorists who suffered a 31 per cent increase in traffic deaths last year. Automobile accidents during 1939 and 1940 killed 3,300 Texans and injured 70,000 others—considerably more than the casualties of England since the air bombing began last September.

The Birthday Ball Nets Around $100

Jack Bailey, who was local chairman of the President's Birthday celebration, informed a representative of the Herald that he was ill during the dance at the Venetian Auditorium last Thursday night, but that he had been informed that around 181, one dollar tickets had been sold.

He understood that a few dollars had been turned in by some that were unable to attend the dance, or who did not dance, and that he believed the celebration would net around $100 after all expenses were paid. Half of this remains in Terry county, to be used as heads of charities think best.

BROWNFIELD MILK ORDINANCE

AMENDMENT TO AN ORDINANCE MAKING MANDATORY THE GRADING AND LABELING OF MILK AND CERTAIN MILK PRODUCTS SOLD OR OFFERED FOR SALE WITHIN THE CORPORATE LIMITS OF THE CITY OF BROWNFIELD, TEXAS: PROHIBITING THE SALE OF ADULTERATED, MISBRANDED OR UNGRADED MILK, AND MILK PRODUCTS; REQUIRING AND PROVIDING FOR THE ISSUING AND REVOKING OF PERMITS FOR THE SALE OF MILK AND MILK PRODUCTS; AUTHORIZING AND DIRECTING THE CITY HEALTH OFFICER TO RECEIVE APPLICATIONS FOR, INSPECT DAIRIES AND MILK PLANTS AND GRANT OR REVOKE PERMITS TO PERSONS, FIRMS OR CORPORATIONS TO SELL OR OFFER FOR SALE GRADED MILK AND MILK PRODUCTS WITHIN THE CITY; PROVIDING FOR THE CONSTRUCTION OF FUTURE DAIRIES AND MILK PLANTS; ADOPTING THE PROVISIONS OF SENATE BILL 83 PASSED BY THE REGULAR SESSION OF THE 45th LEGISLATURE, REVISED CIVIL STATUTES 1937 SUPPLEMENT; PROVIDING FOR THE ENFORCEMENT OF THIS ORDINANCE, AND THE FIXING OF PENALTIES.

WHEREAS, the City Council of the City of Brownfield, Texas did on the 3rd day of April, 1940 pass, adopt and approve the above captioned ordinance, and

WHEREAS, in order to properly regulate the sale of milk and Milk Products within the City of Brownfield, Texas, the governing body of said City desires to adopt the following amendment defining Homogenized Milk, now therefore, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF BROWNFIELD, TEXAS:

That the above captioned ordinance is hereby amended and Section 7 shall henceforth read as follows:

Section 7. That hereafter "Homogenized Milk" shall be included and added to the definition of "milk products" in the Act of the Legislature specified in Section 2 of this Ordinance and is hereby defined as follows: "Homogenized Milk is milk which has been treated in such a manner as to insure the breakup of the fat globules to such an extent that after 48 hours storage no visible cream separation occurs on the milk and the fat percentage of the top 100 c. c. of milk in a quart bottle, or of proportionate volumes in containers of other sizes, does not differ by more than five per cent of itself from the fat percentage of the remaining milk as determined after thorough mixing."

That hereafter the section of this ordinance which was numbered 7 shall bear the number 8; that each succeeding section shall bear a number one denomination higher than its original number.

The fact that there does not now exist any or ordinance regulating and defining the nature of homogenized milk within the city limits of the City of Brownfield, and that such rule and definition is necessary for the protection of the public creates an emergency and imperative public necessity for the immediate preservation of the public welfare and health which necessitates the suspension of the rule requiring ordinances to be read on three separate days before final passage thereof; wherefore, such rules are hereby suspended and this amendment shall be effective from and after its final passage, approval and publication and it is so ordained.

Passed and approved this 27 day of January, 1941.
CLYDE C. COLEMAN, Mayor of the City of Brownfield.

A Cable From Leslie Howard

(The following cable was received from Leslie Howard from London in connection with the showing of "Gone with the Wind" for a limited engagement at the Rialto Theatre. The picture will be shown in its complete, full-length version—nothing cut but the price.)

I've been asked to give an account of myself since the completion of "Gone With The Wind." It is sixteen months since I left the States, meaning to make one film in England and then to return to Hollywood and the new house I'd just bought in Beverly Hills.

But the war came about a week after I landed. Naturally, I couldn't leave England then — could you have done it in my place?—although the film I was going to make, "The Man Who Lost Himself," got lost itself in the confusion of those early days.

I looked around for some kind of contribution I could make — some kind of war work I could do. For a long time it was very difficult. There were millions of fellows about my age all looking for the same thing.

Saw Duff Cooper

Desperate, I went to see Duff Cooper and asked him if I should go back in the army. I was in the Northamptonshire Yeomanry in the last war. It's mechanized now, but I daresay I could polish a tank as well as groom a horse.

He said, "I should stick to your own job. I think you can be more useful at that."

And gradually I have, so to speak, fallen on my wartime feet — particularly, perhaps, in broad-casting—but only after several disappointments. For example, I was over in France a couple of times at British GHQ, planning to make a big film about our army over there. That project fell by the way in May of this year.

However, I have just finished a short film for the Ministry of Information called "Heart of Empire." A large part of it takes place on the dome of St. Paul's where three Dominion soldiers, a Canadian, an Australian, a New Zealander and myself (just as myself) look around London and beyond to the Empire.

Now I'm just starting with my own little unit, a full-length frankly commercial film, although it has its propaganda side, tentatively called "Professor Pimpnel Smith." It's my own story about an eccentric professor of archeology at Cambridge who finds himself greatly disturbed by what is happening (in the years immediately before the war) to the great minds of Europe, the scientists and men of letters. With six members of his class, one an American, he takes an archeological tour through Central Europe in the course of which a number of the aforesaid great minds are mysteriously removed from the Hitlerian sphere of influence. Just an adventure story with a philosophic side.

My most fascinating work for several months past has been on the air.

One day J. B. Priestley asked me to go along to Broadcasting-House and share with him a short wave broadcast to America. Since then I have been talking every Monday to the United States and the Empire. The reaction is amazingly interesting. I get letters from the four continents, from India, South America and, of course, the States and Canada.

March of Time Will Show How Soldiers Live

"Arms and the Men" Reveals Details of Nation's Defense Program; Starts Run Here Tomorrow.

Virtually every family in the nation is today deeply affected by the U. S. Selective Service Law, under which sixteen million young American men have already placed themselves at the service of their country. The full story of this first peacetime conscription in U. S. history, and many other phases of the nation's huge defense program are pictured for the first time on the screen in March of Time's latest absorbing film release, "Arms and the Men—U.S.A.," which will be shown at the Rialto Theatre Tuesday and Wednesday.

This newest March of Time shows, step by step, how U. S. industry is concentrating on orders for Uncle Sam's gigantic defense program which, within a few years, will give the nation an army of five million active and reserve troops, including ten full divisions of mechanized and motorized units; a two-ocean Navy totaling more than three million tons of fighting ships; and an air force of 30,000 planes that will be superior to that of any other nation in the world.

In "Arms and the Men—U.S.A.," the March of Time also takes movie-goers inside U.S. training camps and shows how the young men in the nation's rapidly-expanding citizen Army live, what they learn, what they do for amusement, and particularly how they are being welded into a well-disciplined and well-trained defensive fighting force.

All important to this new Army, the March of Time film shows, is the housing and equipment which will enable it to carry out most effectively the vital task of defending the nation against any potential aggressor. The film shows what has been done to provide comfortable living quarters for the nation's young soldiers, and how American industry has already begun capacity production of the weapons, machines and munitions which the new U. S. Army must have.

In announcing the showings of this latest March of Time at the Rialto Theatre, Mrs. Jones today said: "Arms and the Men" is an impressive and thrilling introduction to the new kind of life which many thousands of young American men will experience during their year of service. Draft eligibles, their families, and their friends will certainly want to see this revealing film."

KILL THE SONGS

We read how much trouble the song singers are having with the copyright owners. It is claimed they are killing some of the new songs.

It is a great deed to kill them and it would be a relief to kill some of the singers who sing them.

A man buys a new radio and is greeted with "Oh Johnnie" from every station.

Such singing is about as musical as a tom cat with someone standing on his neck and I imagine the singers have about the same expression as a tom cat with a goiter.

Talk about the "Gay Nineties," forty years from now, judging by these songs, this age will be called the "Gay Sillies."

If Hitler picks up these songs over the radio, it will give him great encouragement; people that can be hooked with such songs will swallow any kind of bait.

I know what caused the war—it was the new songs.—J. E. Fitzgerald in Fort Worth Press.

BALLISTIC EXPERTS HELPS WARDEN

AUSTIN, Jan. 27.—At least four hunters paid fines for illegally shooting doe deer in the Hill Country of Texas during the season which just closed despite the fact no game warden saw the actual kills, it has been reported to the executive secretary of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission here.

Bullets taken from does were sent the ballistic experts in the state department of public safety and were compared with bullets fired from guns of hunters wardens knew were in the vicinity of the illegal kills. The matching of bullets by scientific means proved the downfall of the quartet of hunters arrested in various sections of the Hill Country. Three of the game law violators entered pleas of guilty and the fourth was convicted when he stood trial.

With the Stamp Plan in full operation this winter and serving five million persons it provides new markets for more than $10,000,000 monthly for producers of surplus farm crops.

FIGHTING DIPHTHERIA BY IMMUNIZATION

Austin, Texas, Jan. 27 — The public health value of immunization against diphtheria has been remarkably demonstrated in Texas in the last eight years, information collected by the State Health Department reveals.

The diphtheria death rate has steadily diminished during the period from 14.3 deaths per 100,000 population in 1932 to a tentative rate of 1.9 per 100,000 for the first ten months of 1940, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

The 1939 cumulative deaths from diphtheria—1939 statistics are the latest on which final tabulations are obtainable—are 78 per cent lower than the 1932 total of 850 deaths.

The 14.3 rate per 100,000 in 1932 was high for the decade, and each succeeding year saw diminishing rates to the decade low, 1940's tentative 1.9 per 100,000.

Dr. Cox attributed the very significant decrease in diphtheria deaths and prevalence to the increasingly positive effects of public health and greater appreciation by the parent of the child's well-being. Dr. Cox pointed out that "the increased attention to the well child, using periods when the child is well to protect against future illness, represents an intelligent approach by parents to the health needs of their children."

In the many areas of Texas served by full-time health services, the past four years have seen the immunizations of pre-school children against diphtheria more than double in number.

FREEPORT SULPHUR AIDS PRICE EFFORT OF U. S. DEFENSE

As a voluntary contribution to the Government's effort to prevent an upward spiraling of prices that would hamper the national defense program, a Texas company has just pledged no price increase on one of the essential raw materials, the Texas State Manufacturers Association reports this week.

After conferences with members of the National Defense Advisory Commission, the Freeport Sulphur Company promised that there would be no increase in the base price of an amount of sulphur sufficient to meet the demands of its customers for one year at the current rate of sales.

Sulphur, of which Texas is the leading producer, is widely used by industry and agriculture, both for peace and defence. In one or another form, it takes part in the production of explosives for shells, steel for armor plate and tanks, rubber tires for mechanized war machines, fertilizers to help grow food for civilians and soldiers, and countless other things.

McKinney Examiner: "Caddo Lake in East Texas, the largest natural lake in Texas, is said to be the most mysterious body of water in the State. The lake proper is 20 miles long and 16 miles wide. More than 400 oil derricks dot the surface of the lake with a network of pipelines underlying its surface. The greater part of Caddo Lake lies in Marion county, Texas, with the remainder in Harrison county, Texas, and Caddo Parish, La. When the first settlers came to this locality, the Indians told them that the lake was formed overnight in 1812 by some kind of volcanic eruption. Many Indians were said to have lost their lives in the upheaval."

Since the 1935-36 fall planting season, 1849 3-8 miles of shelter-belt have been planted in north-west Texas. Wheeler county has the largest concentration of belts with 334 miles.

HUDSON TO BUILD AND OPERATE ORDNANCE PLANT

Hudson Motor Car Company announced this week that it has contracted to build and operate for the United States Navy a $13,000,000 Ordnance Plant to be erected on a site near Detroit.

The land for the new plant, which has been purchased by the Navy, comprises a tract of 114 acres, located at Mound Road and Nine Mile Road. This site is about five miles from the present Hudson plant.

Construction work will be started immediately under the supervision of Hudson engineers. The purchase of machinery and tools and other items needed for the plant is already underway.

The plant will consist of about 400,000 square feet of machine shop and assembling space, as well as an office building and buildings for storage and other services. About four thousand men will be employed.

When finished the new plant will be operated by the Hudson Motor Car Company. It will be devoted, among other things, to the manufacture of parts for guns and torpedoes.

According to present plans the plant will be operated at least until 1944.

At a special meeting held Saturday, January 11th, the stockholders of the Company approved a proposal to broaden the Company's charter so as to enable Hudson to engage more fully in production of defense materials.

THE ART OF LIVING

Serene, he stands beside the fence,
Our little man in white
And shows his rare uncommon sense
By worrying not a mite.

The sunshine threatens him by day
When his choice is wintry blasts,
Our little man shows us the way
To enjoy life while it lasts.

He keeps an unperturbed repose,
And that's a lot to do;
Considering that this fellow knows
When the snow goes, he goes too.

MORE AND MORE TAXES

Governor W. Lee O'Daniel in his message to the State Legislature last Friday asked for additional State Taxes to the amount of SIXTY ONE MILLION DOLLARS. Now folks that's a lot of money. To get it down to where we can understand it, it means simply this: Additional taxes to the amount of ten dollars for every man, woman and child in the state of Texas. Or to make it plainer still, if you are a married man and your family consists of yourself and wife and three children your part of this tax bill if placed equally on you as your family stands in proportion to the number of people within the state, you will pay $50.00 more taxes when the bill becomes a law than you do now. This is not literally true, because it will not be a head tax but a property tax, but after all Taxes are in the long run paid by the consumer, and a poor man as a rule eats just about as much as a rich one.

It looks now as if the time will soon be here when—
The cradle will be taxed,
And the baby that in it,
The skillett and the lid,
And the frog-eyed gravy to,
The bacon on the rind,
The pumpkin on the vine,
The dog and his whine,
The step-ins on the line,
The hoe and the handle
Electric juice and the candle,
And everything that used,
By me or by YOU
—Jayton Cronicle

CONTINUES HEAVY

The slaughter of game on Texas roads continues at an appalling rate. The most recent report received by the Game Department's executive secretary reveals that at least fifty-seven deer were killed by motorists in Gillespie County in 1940. The game warden at Fredericksburg also reports four wild turkeys killed during the same period.

Motorists who do not use care in driving through country which has a heavy population of deer not only needlessly kill game birds and animals, but usually the experience costs them from $20 to $30 for motor car repairs.

WANTS GUARANTEE U. S. WILL NOT FIGHT

The attitude of some prominent Catholics in the present world struggle between Britain and the Axis is shown in recent news dispatches. A report carried in large daily newspapers quoted a Roman Catholic Archbishop as saying that a minority comprising only 10 per cent of the population of the United States "is forcing America subtly and cleverly into the world conflict," and at the same time the "majority of 90 per cent favoring peace is standing by, silent and helpless."

The Archbishop called upon those who were against war to elect leaders in every state who would promise to keep out of war in both Europe and the Far East.

This is a strange statement, for recent Gallup polls show that a majority of the people of the United States favor an aid to Britain even at the risk of becoming involved in the conflict. The Archbishop also failed to mention that to tie the hands of the Government with commitments against war, regardless of the provocation, would be interpreted as a "green light" signal to totalitarian powers in their efforts at world domination.

At almost the same time, the Irish people were assured through Italian sources that Italy would support Ireland in case of what it called British aggression. In a radio dispatch designed for Irish consumption, the Catholic world would be insympathy with Ireland. This despite the fact that Britain's navy, though forbidden the use of Irish ports, is the sole guarantee of Irish independence and the only guardian of Irish supply lines during the present European war.

BIRTH AND DEATH RATE

Texas' birth rate in 1939 was 19 per 1,000 of population, compared with the national average of 17.3, the Census Bureau reported. This was a slight decline from the rate of 19.2 for the State in 1938, but a substantial gain over the rate of 18.6 for 1937.

Texas' death rate in 1939 was 9.4 per 1,000 population, compared with the national average of 10.6. This was slightly lower than the 1938 rate of 9.5 but well below the 1937 rate of 10.5 per 1,000.

In Texas there were 121,049 births in 1939 and 60,218 deaths.

LOT OF FIRES ARE STILL "UNKNOWN"

AUSTIN, Jan. 27.—Fifty per cent of the insured fire loss in Texas over a 10-year period, 1930-39, was of unknown origin, Marvin Hall, state fire insurance commissioner, reported today.

The report released by Commissioner Hall revealed that insured losses for the 10-year period totaled $107,412,711.00. However, insured losses for 1939 amounted to only $10,018,029.00 as compared with $17,225,417.00 for 1930. The lowest insured loss was $6,003,363.00 in 1935.

Exposure, where a building is destroyed by a fire originating in an adjoining structure, led all causes for a 10-year total of $7,730,399.00. A marked reduction in the amount of loss from exposure was noted during this period, the 1939 loss of $612,925.00 being almost one-third of the 1930 figure.

Incendiarism, while on the decline, was the second leading cause. Losses from incendiarism amounting to $6,833,437.00 during the 10 years.

Forty-three per cent of the annual fire loss is determined by the following causes: exposure, incendiarism, matches and smoking, gasoline and kerosene, spontaneous combustion, electricity and defective wiring, stoves and furnaces, chimneys and flues, gas, and lightning.

People of Gilmer and Upsher County have already donated a site of 26 acres for construction of a REA generating plant which would energize lines in approximately 35 East Texas counties.

GERMAN REFUGEE PREDICTS DEFEAT FOR NATIVE LAND

Dr. Josef Dunner, foreign correspondent and lecturer and a refugee from Germany since 1933, predicted, in an address before the Civitan Club of Washington, D. C., on January 7th, that Germany would lose this war, but in ten years after peace is restored would start another. He said the only way to maintain peace between Germany and the democratic world after this war would be to wipe out German militarism and the Junker class.

Doctor Dunner declared that the instigators of the world wars since the start of the century were Prussian militarists led by such men as Thyssen, Stinnes and Krupp. He ridiculed the idea that the Treaty of Versailles, was directly responsible for the present war. What of the first World War started by the Kaiser? he asked.

He expressed the opinion that the United States may yet save the world by becoming an arsenal for world democracy. He added that the Germans are sending agents to the Western Hemisphere to sabotage moral and military preparations before they can become effective as now outlined by the Administration.

We may look for another attempt to pass a so-called "fair trades" law during the session of the legislature. With the federal government trying to prohibit profiteering and keep prices down, it seems strange that Texas should be asked to pass a price-fixing, price-raising law.

FIRE DEATH FOR 1940 INCREASED OVER 1939

AUSTIN, Jan. 28 — The 1940 Texas fire death record skyrocketed five and a half per cent over the previous year, 469 persons losing their lives. This was an increase of 86 over 1939, according to information made available to Marvin Hall, State Fire Insurance Commissioner.

After reaching an all-time high of 567 in 1936, the number of deaths dropped off until the latter part of 1940 when a large number of persons lost their lives by being trapped in burning dwellings.

Heaviest toll of life was taken during November and December, 137 deaths being reported during those two months. Standing too close to open fires accounted for one-third of the deaths during December.

Irene Duke Writes Of Life in Washington

The following excerpts are taken from a letter to Mrs. A. J. Stricklin, written by Mrs. Irene Duke, formerly of Brownfield but now employed as a stenographer in the Navy Department in Washington, D. C. Mrs. Duke and her daughter, Beverly Ann, have many friends here that we feel will be interested in hearing about their new life in Washington:

I could hardly make my mind up as to whether to accept the appointment here or not. It was quite a thing for me to decide as I liked Lubbock and my work so much and I disliked having to leave my friends too.

The fact that I don't like cities makes me surprised at myself because I believe that I'm beginning to like Washington very much, but I didn't feel that I would when I first came.

I was called here for work in the War Department, but I was transferred to the Navy Department as the need for stenographic help was more urgent here than there.

We are in a very desirable neighborhood, and within a stone's throw of two grade schools and the Roosevelt High School is just across the street.

We haven't been sightseeing very much since the first week or so that we were here. We saw one of the Smithsonian Institutes which consisted of animals of all kinds, different races of peoples, paintings, precious stones, and so many various things that I can't remember. From there we went to Washington's Monument. It is the tallest piece of masonry in the world measuring 555 feet and the top can be reached in a minute and a half by elevator; from the observation room one gets a very good bird's eye view of the city and the Potomac. Lincoln's Memorial was only a few blocks away so we walked over there. It is a massive structure, I believe it is made of marble, and is very attractive architecture. It is just a huge room with a massive statue of Abraham Lincoln seated in an enormously large chair. On the east and west walls are written two addresses that were delivered by Lincoln.

Haven't seen Mr. Roosevelt yet, but probably will at the inaugural. I pass by the White House every day to work. A friend and I walked to the door and she asked one of the guards if he thought the President would receive us. He grinned and told us that the President was out of town. The White House and grounds cover about two blocks and is quite an attractive place.

We went out to Union Station the other night and it is a beautiful building and so immense. We were near the Capitol and lights were turned on the dome and it loomed out so pretty in the night; made an impressive picture.

There are some lovely shops here. We have lots of fun prowling around in them.

Rent is extortionate, but everything else seems reasonable enough.

We haven't done very much sightseeing as I've been waiting for Bev, because I knew I'd have the whole business to see again if I didn't.

Mount Vernon is 16 miles from Washington and we plan to go out there some time on a sightseeing

STAMP OUT VENEREAL DISEASES FOR DEFENSE

AUSTIN, Jan. 20—An appeal for the immediate mobilization of Texas citizens in a united health front against venereal disease, the most serious threat to the health and morale of the armed forces and defense industrial workers, was made today by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

The need for intensified civilian activity to stamp out venereal diseases during peace-time preparedness will be emphasized on Fifth National Social Hygiene Day, February 5, 1941, throughout America. Over five thousand communities will stage observances of Social Hygiene Day, the 1941 theme of which is "Social Hygiene and National Defense. Cooperating groups include federal, state, and local health authorities, religious, educational, and welfare organizations.

"We must realize that the nation's defense is of necessity based on a healthy population," Dr. Cox emphasized. "America's armed forces can be fully effective if protected against syphilis, Public Health Enemy Number 1, and its partner plague, gonorrhea. This same health protection is needed by civilians, especially those in key defense industrial work."

Dr. Cox stressed the fact that vigilant control measures kept venereal infections low and made the American Army the "cleanest in the world" during World War I. In spite of these precautions, however, a total of 6,804,818 man-days were lost on account of syphilis and gonorrhea.

"The State Health Department feels that National Social Hygiene Day focusses attention on the many problems attendant to venereal disease control in Texas. For this reason we are pleased to cooperate with the other national, state, and local organizations sponsoring the programs over Texas.

"The concentration of troops in many areas of Texas makes National Social Hygiene Day of even greater import to certain of our communities. We strongly urge that interested citizens of these towns consider legal, medical, educational, and protective measures which can be enlisted to protect the military population from the hazards of venereal disease, together with plans for providing healthful recreation for members of the armed forces when on leave in their vicinity," Dr. Cox concluded.

TEXAS IS READY!

Give that valve a quarter turn, Old Man Texas, when Uncle Sam needs the oil for national defense

With the pioneer spirit typical of Texans, our oil men have found and developed petroleum reserves far beyond all civilian and military needs now indicated.

Even if defense requirements total 150 million barrels more a year, Texas can supply them without waste by a quarter turn of valves on wells already drilled. This can be done at a moment's notice without depriving anyone of a single gallon of gasoline or quart of motor oil. Surplus pipe line capacity is ready to carry all this oil from the fields. Surplus refinery capacity exists to turn it into essential products.

Texas goes ahead in the search for more petroleum reserves. New fields are being found... more efficient producing, refining and transportation methods are constantly being perfected... TEXAS IS READY!

Happenings That Affect the Dinner Pails, Dividend Checks and Tax Bills of Every Individual. National and International Problems Inseparable from Local Welfare.

A senator or representative of half a century ago, would shake his head in amazement at the congresses of recent years. Party lines, which once were almost impregnable, have cracked time and again. And now, with the introduction of the President's "all out for England" bill, they seem to have broken wide open.

Interesting commentary on this is found in the fact that the bill has been endorsed by Republican standard-bearer Wendell Willkie, with certain reservations — and that the principal Senate opposition to it is being led by a Democrat, Senator Wheeler of Montana.

Congressional reception of the bill ran the gamut of extremes. On one side, for instance, doughty Senator Johnson of California, veteran of many an historic debate, described it as "monstrous," and that "it's up to Congress now to determine whether our government shall be as ordained or become a member of the totalitarian states." And on the other side, Senator Thomas of Utah, strongly interventionist, complained that the bill "is not as far-reaching as world events warrant. The President should have the power to send American ships with supplies into the combat zones."

It is obvious that the real fight on this bill will take place in the Senate—opposition in the House is now almost at its all-time low in effectiveness. A number of senators who have followed the President's foreign policy so far, were rather stunned by the sweeping terms in which the measure is framed. First shock was the provision whereby this country, by executive order, could repair British warships in our naval yards. That, according to lawyers, would amount to utter disregard of international law as it applies to neutrals, and would amount to an act of war. Even so, many congressmen now regard that as merely a detail—as just one more step in a program based on the belief that the survival and ultimate victory of England, and the little countries which are aiding her, is absolutely vital to this country's security. Bigger fight may come over the clause which authorizes the President to "promulgate such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this act." That is obviously blanket authority.

The debate over this bill, and other aid-England measures, is not between those who are for Britain on the one hand, and those who are opposed to or cool to England's cause, on the other. The Congress, like the American people, is close to 100 per cent pro-English. But there are many who feel it unwise to give any man unlimited powers, on the grounds that this might lead to one-man government, which is another word for dictatorship. There are others who feel that this is a lesser risk than having Congress carry on long debates every time some new step to help England seems necessary or advisable.

The bill will apparently be fought to a finish, with neither side disposed to give quarter. Intimations came from the White House a few days after its introduction to the effect that the Administration would not oppose some modifications. But Senator Wheeler and his group said that they were out to defeat the measure in entirety.

Even so, prospects now seem highly favorable to its passing, with perhaps, some stipulations to make it less of a "blank check" measure. Wendell Willkie suggested that a time clause be inserted, under which the powers would be granted for a fixed and limited term so that on some definite future date Congress would automatically review the bill again, and either continue or revoke it. Many favor this.

No one need wonder any longer about this country's neutrality. It doesn't exist. We are a non-belligerent participant in the war. Our relationship to England is about like that of Italy to Germany before Mussolini decided to go all the way. Recent polls indicate that the American public is in favor of our role as we are playing it now.

In military circles, the feeling that Hitler will soon make his supreme effort to defeat England is almost unanimous. Time is working with Britain. Hitler, the

FBI PAYS DIVIDENDS

In these days when the safety of our country is dependent on preventing sabotage and subversive activities, it is heartening to see some of the results disclosed in the report which J. Edgar Hoover, director of the FBI for the past sixteen years, submits annually to the Attorney General.

The current report has just been released and discloses 5,605 convictions in FBI cases during the year, or 96.46 per cent of the cases investigated. Of the 182 kidnapping since they were made Federal violations, 180 have been solved, while the other two are under active investigation. These are but examples taken from the wide field of activity of the FBI, which should be strong deterrents to crime.

On the national defense angle, the report says: "Since the outbreak of war in Europe, there have been no acts of sabotage in our country attributable to foreign agents."

While operating on the amazingly small sum, as government expenditures go, of $7,300,000 annually, the FBI returned to the government last year $58,390,180.64 in actual fines, savings and recoveries, or $8 for every dollar spent.

officers think, must win this year or certainly lose.

American correspondents in Germany report a feeling of complete and apparently sincere confidence on the part of Reich officials. England, some of them say, will be finished inside six months. Hitler is supposed to be perfecting his plans and organization now. The Germans think England can be broken by destroying her shipping, by greater air raids, and finally, by invasion when British morale has been weakened.

The British are convinced that, with unstinted American aid, they can't lose. They say they have some new weapons which will prove highly unpleasant surprises for invaders. The Germans still talk about new weapons too. So far, however, despite all such talk, this war hasn't produced anything but improvements on old weapons.

Britain has just adopted tighter food rationing. German diet is reported still on downgrade. Europe will be a mighty hungry place when the war ends.

AMERICAN DOCTORS SCORE AGAIN

Paul de Kruif, noted bacteriologist, in an article in Reader's Digest, draws attention to the efforts of Dr. Tom Spies in fighting pellagra and other deficiency diseases, at the Hillman Hospital in Birmingham, Alabama. Ten years ago, Dr. Spies, shocked by the high rate of chronic famine victims, began his work. Quietly he set out to find why "recommended diets" were not enough to save the lives of persons dying of starvation. What he found was a new gateway to a better civilization! Out of 1,729 victims of various forms of starvation famine killed nearly 50 per cent of those hospitalized.

Through chemistry, Dr. Spies has done more than discover quick, positive cures for pellagra and other forms of chronic famine. He has clearly established the fact that laziness, nervous disorders, skin diseases, intestinal ailments, etc., are also often due to chemical deficiency, and in the course of his work he has identified those deficiencies and learned how to restore the required chemicals to the system.

Research is in progress to discover whether chemistry may solve the riddle of why one person is old at forty and another hale and hearty at seventy. Other investigators are grappling with the problem of supplying a solution through chemistry to the famine afflicted populations that will overrun post-war Europe.

Unbelievable as the work of Dr. Spies and his colleagues may appear, it is there for all to see. Countless thousands are alive today, and countless millions will live longer in the future, thanks to the men of medical science. It is a great tragedy that their work throughout the world is periodically halted by social strife, wars and bitter political differences.

The outstanding achievements of American medicine have been made possible under a governmental philosophy which allows full play to the talents of each individual. In return for these privileges inherent in what we like to call the free enterprise system, American medicine gives prodigiously to all the people, regardless of class, color or creed. We should consider well and long before making any fundamental change either in this system or in

SCARLET FEVER

AUSTIN, Feb. 4—The prevalence of scarlet fever in Texas during January has been noticeably less than during the same month of recent years, according to a statement issued today by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

Scarlet fever cases reported to the State Health Department by 275 city and county health officers are 50 per cent less than the normal expectancy of 107 cases this week on the basis of a seven-year median.

Dr. Cox pointed out that the total cases of scarlet fever in 1940 were 59 per cent less than the peak year of the past decade, 1938's 4,445 cases, and 57 per cent less than the 4,378 cases reported in 1937.

Scarlet fever is always a dangerous disease. It is noteworthy that children between the ages of five and ten years are the most susceptible to scarlet fever, and cases are more virulent among this age group. Hence, it is vitally important that immunity be developed against scarlet fever early in a child's life.

Scarlet fever may be the forerunner, moreover, of serious complications. Scarlet fever is one of the most frequent causes of deafness in children, and its secondary infection may spread to the throat or throughout the body.

Business To See Boom, Says U. of T.

AUSTIN, Feb. — As 1941 gets well under way, Texas business is experiencing a boom that, a University of Texas economist predicts, will take it to an all-time peak before many months.

Dr. F. A. Buechel, statistician for the University's Bureau of Business Research, computes the index of general business activity for December at 106.3, or 5.6 points above December a year ago.

This level places business 6.2 points above the average month of 1930.

Factors contributing to this composite index are employment, up 55 points; payroll, up 6 points; runs of crude oil to refinery stills, up 14 points; department store sales, down 2 points; electric power consumption, up 8 points.

Dr. Buechel said rising payrolls and increasing farm cash income were largely responsible for the high business tone, and these coupled with defense expenditures of the federal government in Texas would soon push business activity to a new high level.

Other business factors tabulated by the Bureau revealed 1940 was much more prosperous than 1939: Charters, 1,282, capitalized at $25,138,000, compared to 1,419 capitalized $22,445,000 in 1939.

Failures: 287, with liabilities of $6,952,000, compared to 299 with liabilities of $4,675,000.

Building permits: up 10.3 per cent over 1939. For December, permits were up 77.9 per cent over December, 1939.

Purchases of savings bonds; up 11.5 per cent over 1939.

Electric power consumption; up 2 per cent over 1939.

Cement production up 1.3 per cent over 1939.

Automobile sales: up 19.7 per cent over 1939.

TRAGEDY OF THE MAINE IN HAVANA HARBOR

Twinkling lights flashed fitfully over the waters of Havana Harbor where the U. S. S. Maine lay peacefully at anchor on the night of February 15, 1898.

Over the quiet reaches of the harbor came the musical notes of "Taps," destined never again to be sounded by the young marine who was performing one of his last official duties for the day.

Suddenly a terrific explosion all but disintegrated the vessel. Death, agony, horror, flames, smoke, gas and water took their toll as the forward part of the ship catapulted upward in a searing flame. More than 250 men lost their lives.

In the moments that followed, discipline was superb. Every able-bodied member of the crew did his part in rescuing those not fatally injured, even though threatening flames and minor explosions still harassed the warship.

Private William Anthony, of the Marine Detachment, at the time of the explosion was the orderly of Captain Charles D. Sigsbee, who was in his cabin. The lights were instantly obscured and the compartment filled with smoke. There was immediate and intense darkness.

Although he knew that the ship was about to sink, Anthony groped his way through the darkened passage of the doomed vessel to find his captain. Instinct urged him to seek his own safety. The call to duty proved stronger.

Eventually he stumbled into Captain Sigsbee in the darkness and said: "Sir, I have to report that the ship has been blown up and is sinking." He remained at the captain's side until the ship was abandoned.

Small wonder that Captain Sigsbee wrote later that Anthony's action was a noble one that he considered an honor to call to the attention of the Navy Department.

BAPTISTS TO RAISE $50,000 FOR SOLDIERS CHAPELS

DALLAS, Feb. 4—"Soldier Day" will be observed Sunday, February 9, by the 3,100 Texas Baptist Churches and their 750,000 members, in the effort to raise $50,000 for soldier work in Texas, it was announced today by Dr. A. C. Miller, newly appointed state supervisor of soldier work for the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

Declaring that "we cannot ignore our responsibility as Baptists to the vast army of young Americans being brought into the 22 military camps, posts and stations in Texas," Dr. Miller said the funds given by the Baptists on "Soldier Day" will be used largely in the erection of suitable chapels near some of the major encampments and in employment of men to work with military officials in providing religious life for the soldiers.

A NEW PROFESSION

"Are you a pharmacist?" she asked the young man at the soda fountain.

"No, ma'am," he replied, "I'm a fizician."

The biggest grocery business in Floyd county is not being done by your favorite grocery. Leastwise we think that is right. The biggest food volume is being done out of a room about 14x20 in the basement of the court house. Around 45,000 pounds of hams and flour, beans, potatoes, oranges, apples and whatnot are being distributed monthly from that place. If you are a customer all you do is to wait until an attendant gets ready to wait on you, present your slip and walk out with the best country affords. A lot of folks who milk cows at 5 o'clock in the morning and again that night come rain or shine or snow won't believe this. Your groceryman knows it though.—Floydada Hesperian.

HOUSEWIVES DEMAND NATURAL RESOURCE TAX

Pointing with pride to an "Honorable Roll" of 82 Representatives and 16 Senators who have pledged Texas home-makers their support for a natural resources tax, Mrs. Jud Collier, chairman of the Women's Committee on Economic Policy for Texas, today released the outlines of what the embattled housewives are asking of the present Legislature in regard to a Natural Resources Tax. As was forecast, the women demand substantial increases in taxes on oil, gas and sulphur.

"Texas housewives will listen to no more nonsense about taxing the homes of Texas," Mrs. Collier herself an energetic rural housewife, declared. "We know that businesses prospering in Texas are able to pay those needed taxes—from profits on Texas riches which they get under the protection of Texas laws.

"This tax on oil production is a bargain-counter price for the protection of proration," she stated. "The difference between ten cents and a dollar and ten cents for a barrel of crude oil is the protection given by our Texas proration law. A decent sense of gratitude demands return the favor by protecting Texas homes from a tax on the hearthside.

"It may be that some of our-of-ate millionaires may be mean enough to fight this tax to protect the homes of Texas from sales taxes," Mrs. Collier states, "but I don't see how they can hold their heads up in public if they do.

"If a sick millionaire from New York came to our door in distress and we took him in and nursed him back to health and we fed him back to strength on flapjacks and fried chicken from our kitchen stove, it would be only natural for him to be grateful. It would take a mighty mean man to accept such hospitality and then turn around and walk off with a full pocket-book while the tax collector put our home under the hammer at a sheriff's sale."

HOGG'S TALES

"Are you fond of Hogg's tales?" asked a lady of an old farmer, the other evening.

"Yes, I like 'em roasted, with salt on 'em," was the response.

"No; but I mean have you read Hogg's tales?"

"No, indeed," said he. "Our hogs are all black and white. I don't think there is a red one among them."

EASTERBNS CONSUME MANY TEXAS TURKEYS

AUSTIN, Feb. 4—Texas-grown turkeys appeared on the nation's dinner tables to the tune of 570 carloads—with more New Yorkers eating the Lone Star birds than any other state.

The University of Texas Bureau of Business Research estimates this total "export" of turkeys during December was 4.9 per cent smaller than in December, 1939.

Other states where demand for Texas turkeys was large were Massachusetts, 69 cars; Pennsylvania, 67; Ohio, 34; Florida, 30; Michigan, 28; and New Jersey, 25.

BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

Good congregation last Sunday with 364 registering in time to be counted for the Bible study. Two candidates were baptized at the evening service. The regular workers meeting of this association met Tuesday of this week with the church at Tahoka, the planning of the Sunday school enlargement campaign being up for consideration.

This campaign will be held in all the churches of the Brownfield association and is especially designed to bring the people in large numbers into the Bible study.

We recognize the fact that many people of this country pay no more attention to the study of God's Word than the people of what we term darkest Africa or China and we desire to bring to their attention this opportunity for its study under the best conditions. Many people do not know that the greater portion of the people in penal institutions never attended a Bible school and grew up without any conscience on the violation of its teachings.

We have 38 class rooms here and five assembly rooms beside the main auditorium and a large number of the most consecrated teachers we can secure to read and teach the Bible to you and your children and with these facilities if you neglect them and allow your family to grow up in ignorance of God's Word it is your responsibility and not this church. Do not wait for the campaign but come right into the Bible study. Free lesson helps for every one.

Visitors are always welcome.

Texas Social Welfare Association To Hold Regional Conference

The following letter was received this week by Lee Fulton, chairman of the Terry County chapter of the Red Cross, and we feel that it will be of interest to most of the Herald readers:

My Dear Mr. Fulton: The Texas Conference of Social Work is holding a Regional Conference in Lubbock on February 6, 7, 1941.

One of the features of this Regional Conference is a Red Cross Luncheon meeting at the Hilton Hotel on Friday 7, 12:15, at which Mr. William M. Baxter, Jr., Manager of the Midwestern Branch, American Red Cross, St. Louis, Missouri will be the guest speaker.

This is the first time in recent years that Texas has had the privilege of hearing Mr. Baxter whose leadership has meant so much in Red Cross and whose name is so familiar to all those interested in Social Work. The Texas Conference of Social Work is indeed fortunate in being able to secure so outstanding a speaker and we wish to extend to the Red Cross Chapters in this vicinity the opportunity of attending our Conference and hearing Mr. Baxter.

We believe that Board Members and Volunteer Workers of Red Cross Chapters will find our sessions interesting.

On Friday afternoon, the subject "How the Volunteer Can Serve in Organized Social Work" will be discussed. We should like to have as many of your volunteers as possible attend this session.

It would be helpful to the Committee on Arrangements if you would drop a postcard in the mail indicating the number from your Chapter who will attend.

Yours very truly, F. M. Bailey, Chairman Region 9

The call for the 28th day of February is still open and if we do not have volunteers the same will be filled by selection by the Board.

P. T. A. Sponsors Alcott Story At Rialto, Feb. 11 and 12

Bringing to life the characters that for seventy years, through the power of the written word, have been cherished in the memory of millions of readers, RKO Radio's picturization of Louisa M. Alcott's celebrated classic, "Little Men," is said to be the most delightful screen offering of the season.

Of unusual interest to film-goers as well as readers of the immortal tale of boyhood is that it has been modernized in captivating fashion by the introduction of two brand new characters whose presence provides many hilarious moments.

The well-remembered characters are the sympathetic Aunt Jo, played by Kay Francis; her husband and co-guardian of Plumfield School, Professor Bhaer, portrayed by Charles Esmond; Orphan Dan, the hard-bitten youngster whom the couple eventually reform through kindness, played by Jimmy Lydon; tomboy Nan, essayed by Ann Gillis, and many others such as Daisy, Asia, Old

Silas and even Buttercup, the cow, played by "Elsie," the famous acting bovine.

The two new characters created by producers Gene Towne and Graham Baker are Willie the Fox, and Major Burdell—two slick gentlemen of questionable activities who suddenly find themselves foster-fathers of an orphan boy, a circumstance which disrupts the even tenor of their easy lives. Jack Oakie and George Bancroft interpret these colorful roles and their characterizations, are said to inject an highly amusing note into this charming drama of youth.

Norman Z. McLeod directed "Little Men," which boasts a cast of more than twenty-five players and many picturesque settings.

The current issue of "March of Time" will also be presented on the same program.

This picture is being sponsored by West Ward and High School Parent-Teacher Association.

BROWNFIELD FRIDAY — SATURDAY TEXAS

County To Have Mattress And Comforter Program

By Mareta Holloway

Applications for mattresses and comforters will be taken in the office of the county agricultural agent and county home demonstration agent beginning Monday, February 3, for mattresses and comforters to be made under the government's 1941 program, by the family applying.

Questions and Answers on the Colton-Mattress Program:

Who is sponsoring the program? The cotton-mattress program is sponsored jointly by three agencies of the U. S. Department of Agriculture: Extension Service, the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, and the Surplus Marketing Administration who provides the county with 50 pounds cotton and 10 yards ticking for each mattress, and 10 yards percale and 4 pounds cotton for each comforter, applications for which must be made in local mattress-making centers under the supervision of the Extension Service representatives.

Who are eligible for mattresses? Families are eligible if they live in a village or town and received at least half of their total income during the previous calendar year from agricultural occupations, providing, of course, the total income was not more than $500.00.

Families are eligible if they live in the country and had a total income of not more than $500.00 for the previous calendar year. For each member of the family in excess of four, this figure may be raised $50.00.

Who are eligible for comforters?

Each family qualifying for making a mattress is eligible to receive the material necessary (10 yards of percale and 4 pounds of cotton) to make one comforter for each mattress which IT HAS MADE UNDER THE MATTRESS PROGRAM. The application filed by a family in connection with the mattress program may likewise serve as an application under the comforter program, and it will only be necessary for the applicant to make written statement indicating that it desires material for making comforter.
