BROWNFIELD MAKING EFFORT TO LOCATE AIRPLANE TRAINING SCHOOL HERE WHY NOT HELP THE HELPLESS?

Sites Have Been Offered and Leaders Believe We Have Excellent Chance For It. Ten Weeks Training For 150 Cadets. Payroll of Some $60,000 Monthly.

With Homer Winston in charge, a meeting composed of men representing practically every business in town, was held in the District Courtroom last Monday afternoon.

At this time, a description of the proposed Air School which is to be located somewhere in this area, was given and a site secured and submitted for approval. It is understood that Lubbock, Lamesa, and Plainview are also trying to locate this school.

Land required for the school is a full section for the main base and two half sections located about twelve miles from the main base. Ten buildings, consisting of shops, hangars and barracks, would be constructed in the event of the school being located here.

The cadets would receive a course of ten weeks and one hundred and fifty cadets would arrive every five weeks. Instructors, office personnel and mechanics would consist of more than one hundred persons. It is estimated that the monthly payroll of the school would be around $62,000.

Site submitted by Brownfield is about four miles east of town.

Decision as to location of the school is expected to be arrived at in the very immediate future as the school is supposed to be open by the first of June.

Easter Seals are being offered to the public at this time, to raise funds to carry forward the great humanitarian work of the Texas Society for Crippled Children with headquarters at Corner Drug Store or L. Nicholson's office.

The Society's program is best expressed in Article X of the Crippled Child's "Bill of Rights": "In brief, not only for its own sake, but for the benefit of society as a whole, every crippled child has the right to the best body which modern science can help to secure; the best mind which modern education can provide; the best position in life which physical condition, perfected as best it may, will permit and the best opportunity for spiritual development which its environment affords." Sale of seals in Brownfield is sponsored by Rotary Club.

field for eleven years. He has recently resigned the Ft. Worth church and previous to that pastored the First Church of Wichita, Kansas. He presents the gospel message in a unique manner and his songs are well received.

Services are being held every night at 7:45 and the pastors, Rev. and Mrs. Lee Rogers, extend a cordial invitation to everyone to come out and hear this young evangelist.

Farmers To Benefit In Two Ways

College Station, Mar. 24—Texas cotton farmers will receive indirect as well as direct benefits from the new $25,000,000 supplementary cotton program of the Department of Agriculture, John Weatherly, state AAA committee man and Nacogdoches County cotton farmer, points out.

"In the first place, cotton farmers who voluntarily reduce their acreage below 1941 allotments or 1940 acreages whichever is smaller, will receive cotton stamps exchangeable for cotton goods at cooperating retail stores," Weatherly said. "In the second place, this buying power represented by $25,000,000 worth of stamps, will be spread widely throughout the business community, circulating among all trade groups. Men and women employed in cities will thus become better customers for the product of the cotton farm as the result of this new business.

"In addition," the committee man added, "employees all along the producer to consumer line—mill workers, manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers—all will share in the beneficial effects of this purchase order, a portion of which will soon be placed in retail stores throughout Texas."

Terry Fifth in South Plains Cotton Ginnings

Lamb county tops the South Plains area in cotton ginning for the 1940-41 season, with Hockley second, Lubbock third, Lynn fourth and Terry fifth, an unofficial final report indicated Tuesday. A total of 449,438 bales had been ginned up to March 1.

Comparative figures for the corresponding date for the 1939-40 season showed 395,706 bales had been ginned, an increase of 53,742 bales or 13.6 per cent.

Texas Total Higher

Texas totals showed 3,107,956 bales ginned this season and 2,736,764 bales last season.

Lamb county ranks seventh in the state in ginnings and Hockley eighth. Other South Plains counties in the first 26 counties that ginned above 35,000 bales were: Lubbock 13th, Lynn 21st, Terry 25th and Dawson 26th.

Next report, probably to be issued in the summer, is not expected to show material changes in the totals. Gins have closed for the season, except in a few places where late packing is being done.

Marriage After Oct. 16 Does Not Change Classification

The Terry County Selective Service Board discussed among other things at their regular meeting of March 21, 1941, the question of registrants who become married on or after Oct. 16th, 1940.

In this discussion it was decided that the marriage of any registrant on or after October 16, 1940 would not in any way change his classification but that such registration would be considered in the same way as if they were single persons.

This opinion is given to the press so that there might be a full understanding by the people of Terry County as to the views of your Local Board on this very important matter. The reason for taking this view on this matter is as you will understand very important from a number of different angles and we feel it is the only just and fair thing to do.

By Order of the Board,
R. A. Simms, Clerk.

Want Scrap Iron For Britain

An appeal has been made to the Herald by R. G. Soper of Dallas, to give some publicity on the accumulation of scrap iron for Britain, which is to be made into tanks, bullets, machine guns and other war paraphernalia. The Herald is glad to assist in every way possible, but believes that the Rotary and Lion Clubs, or some other organization should take the lead in the movement.

Of course that would be a good way to clean up a lot of unsightly iron heaps, both in town and in the country, if some organization would take the lead, find a place to pile it until a car load was assembled, and then ship it to some mill to be designated by Mr. Soper. It is said that 110 pounds of scrap iron will make a machine gun that will toss 300 shots per minute.

This iron upon being shipped to a mill in the United States, will be reduced to billets, and re-shipped to England, where it will be transferred into war material.

Of course this scrap iron is to be donated. Will some of the clubs take this matter up at their next meeting, and see what can be done about the matter? Maybe there are a lot of people with scrap iron in the county, who would be glad to aid that much in whipping the dictators. So let some one take the lead.

The Herald stands ready to give any reasonable amount of publicity about the matter when and if some organization takes the lead.

Charles Boyce Rambo Sent To Alaska

Charles Boyce Rambo, who has been stationed at March Field in Riverside, California for the past six months notified his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Rambo Monday that he was being transferred to the 329th Signal Headquarters in Anchorage, Alaska.

Mrs. Rambo said he seemed pleased with the transfer and thought his chances for advancement would be greater at the new post.

Unionize The Sulphite Plant Near Town

It is our understanding that the employees of the Chemical Works or most of them have recently joined the labor union, which is believed to be the A. F. of L. instead of the CIO, which if true, will be somewhat more reasonable no doubt when they start to "demanding."

Our information is that most of these men were picked up locally here, mostly without a job, were taught the trade at the plant, and are now drawing wages ranging from 55c per hour to more than one dollar per hour. This is also true of the plant near O'Donnel. They also are observing the 40 hour week at the plant, by using three shifts.

But evidently some organizer came along and persuaded the men that they were not getting their just dues, thus the organization. And about the first question in town when the business men hear of the unionizing, is, "when are they going to strike?"

We have it on first hand authority that the company has no objections to their men unionizing, but in case there are unreasonable demands, the plant will be locked up until such time as the company wants to operate it. In the meantime, a good payroll that is very beneficial to the town will be knocked into a cocked hat.

However, the Herald hopes that the men will elect leaders with some reason about them, and run the union themselves without the aid of some "imported" labor racketeer, who wishes to benefit himself no matter what comes.

New Market Man At Piggly Wiggly

Doyle Shillingburg of Lubbock has moved here with his family from Lubbock and is now in charge of the meat department of the Piggly Wiggly Grocery.

Mr. Shillingburg is an experienced market man and has been connected with the Piggly Wiggly stores for many years. He succeeds R. Q. Reed who is now traveling for the Keeton Packing Co. out of Big Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Heard were Lubbock visitors Saturday.

Baptists Entertain District 9 Workers

The meeting of District 9 with our church this week was of outstanding importance coming as they did from eight associations, 185 churches with a consistency of forty thousand members, and the church felt honored to be their host. Such gatherings bring the best people of the district into our community and exert a great influence for good.

It is impossible in this column to bring to the reader the subjects discussed or the speakers but they were here from Herford to Snyder and from Quitaque to Seagraves, and met in different groups, the W. M. S., Laymen, Sunday School and Training Union.

The district secretary of the women announced they had contributed forty three thousand dollars last year to the work.

Special music was featured by Wayland College and the president, Dr. McDonald, was in attendance.

Deacon Lyman Wren of Snyder brought two great messages for the men. Mrs. W. B. Howell, State Recording Secretary, brought the inspirational address for the women. The women in attendance were about double that of the men.

The outstanding report on young peoples work was brought by Mrs. Vernon Shaw of Floydada.

Strong resolutions were adopted by all groups in the convention against the use of magazines and publications carrying advertising of intoxicants.

It was easy to discern in this meeting that these people are a strong missionary force from churches that believe in and practice what the Bible teaches about carrying the Gospel to all the world.

Our regular services as usual next Sunday and we extend to all an urgent invitation to attend our services.

Borden County Celebration Rained Out

Two south Plains counties, Borden and Lubbock are celebrating their Golden Anniversaries this year, Borden having become an organized county in March, 1891, and Lubbock a few months later. Anyway, last Saturday, the 22nd, was the date set for the Borden county affair at the little city of Gail. Gail, the county seat and the county were named for Gail Borden of condensed milk fame. The county has about 1400 people and the little city around 250.

To enjoy the affair, and to make visitors feel at home, 6000 pounds of beef was prepared for barbecuing, but the rain came down in torrents, making the county's unpaved roads impassable, and even put out the fires in the barbecue pits before the meat was hardly warm. A pioneer lady, who was there at organization had been elected queen and a parade and gala time was expected.

There was to also be a fat stock show; a 300 pound birthday cake was prepared and all things in readiness. But J. Pluvius had willed otherwise.

Anyway, Terry county, organized some 13 years later, offers congratulations to good old Borden, and hopes it many happy returns of the day.

Bert Elliott Seems To Enjoy Marine Corps

The Herald had a letter this week from Bert Elliott, who was practically reared here. He is stationed at Honolulu, Hawaii, with the U. S. Marines. Reading between the lines, we believe Bert is enjoying his berth in that bunch of fighters.

Bert proposes to write a column or part of one every few weeks for the Herald, as he wishes other Brownfield boys to become acquainted with Uncle Sam's sea soldiers. Watch for it.

Mrs. R. E. Johnson of Wheeler visited her sister, Mrs. Cotter, here this week.

TERRY COUNTY BELIEVED TO HAVE BEST SEASON FOR TIME OF YEAR IN HISTORY

Since Tuesday of Last Week, In the Neighborhood of Four Inches of Rain and Snow Moisture Has Fallen. Most All Ground Ready for Planting When Warmer.

Well, a million dollar rain is quite a rain, we'll have to admit, but when one comes just right and covers enough territory, it can be said to be worth that much to the section it covers. Rain beneficiaries are not confined altogether to the financial side of the deal, for that matter. The morale effect it has on the people of the area is worth quite a bit. With wars and rumors of war, and all the trouble of mind they bring, a good rain is refreshing.

To begin the wide spread of moisture, J. Pluvius decided last Tuesday to play his trump card with a good snow, that was really full of moisture. It was gauged at one inch moisture, and the south part of the county the measurement ran from ten to twelve inches, the best snow in many years, perhaps the best even in March.

This was followed by rains Friday and Saturday and again Monday and Monday night of this week, and still looks like we may have some rain or snow. Judge Oliver at the courthouse has gauged the rain at a bit over four inches since Tuesday of last week.

Thus, Terry county, and the Brownfield trade area has the best season for the time of year since perhaps 1914, if not better than that year. In 1914, Terry county received nearly 30 inches of rain, all told, which we believe is a record.

Must Get Your License Plates Monday

Calling all car owners! Last call before a fine and penalty will be imposed. Monday is positively the last day that those old white and black lettered tags will answer the purpose on the old bus. Tuesday you MUST have the black and gold lettered tags on the jalopy or you may be stopped by a county officer or highway patrolman.

Virgil Burnett, assessor-collector and his crew have worked like wildfire this week part of the time, putting out the new plates, and they will be especially rushed Saturday and Monday. Therefore you that live in town had better get yours today, Friday, and have it out of the way of the rush.

Tuesday morning next, when you run your car down town and park it along the sidewalks, it will be lined up for a good inspection by the officers. There is no excuse to be offered. You are supposed to know the law. If you are unable to buy the tags, better leave the jitney in the garage.

Mrs. R. E. Thompson who has been here visiting her mother, Mrs. Rosa B. Norris, left Wednesday for Monahan, where her husband is employed. Mrs. Thompson is the former Miss Jewel Norris.

We note that our old friend and former employee, E. L. Whitaker, of the Abilene Times, is a candidate for mayor of that city. But he has changed his name from Emmett to Lane, which was a bit confusing until we saw the very small initials E. L. between the words of Lane and Whitaker in a display ad. Emmett held the office of State Representative from this district one time, being the youngest legislator during that session.

We see by the papers that our old friend with the small goatee and the resounding radio voice, Dr. John R. Brinkley, of goat grand fame, is in the throes of a bankrupt court at Del Rio. Indeed, the doctor states that financially he is about down and out, having had to sell his three yachts and now has only four automobiles, and has lost the big Mexican radio station at Del Rio. If we know our dice, the good doctor certainly rolled his high, wide and handsome for awhile, but they seemed to have finally rolled into a rat hole.

Those who had their full heads last week to write things for this old sheet neglected telling the people that the Old He was flat of his back, running some fever, and in pain up to our neck and past. Even had to go down to Lester and Alfred's hospital for several days, where they succeeded in bringing a semblance of order out of chaos. The trouble folks was an abscessed jaw tooth. We don't have many left, but what few there are seem to be a head full when they start aching. Along about Tuesday of last week our jaw looked like a cow with the "big jaw," if you've been around ranches enough to know what we mean. Therefore, you, the readers, missed our classical editorials last week, and we know how you felt about that. What burned us up was that everybody else that had a tonsil or appendix removed, or a baby, got their names in this sheet, but not a scratch about us.

SUFFERS BROKEN LEG

Edna May Oliver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Oliver of the Pleasant Valley community, suffered a broken leg Monday afternoon, when she fell while playing baseball on the school ground. The injury was just above the ankle. Edna May is a freshman pupil. Her condition is satisfactory, her physician reported.

We read an article in a paper recently that seemed to us to be the most inconsistent thing we have seen printed in some time. There was rather two articles in the same issue. In the first article, an editorial commentator was trying to explain why so and so's house was allowed to burn to the ground a few days before. It seems that this man had built just outside the city limits, and "the fire boys were not allowed to cross that line to save property." In the same issue, a news item stated that one of the fire trucks was sent to a nearby town to help quell a disastrous fire. Now then, you are a better logician than this humble writer if you can see the consistency in not crossing the incorporation line to save the property of a non-taxpayer, who does not help keep the city fire wagons going, and moving the same wagons over to the next town to save the property of people who also do not pay taxes in that city. Maybe we are just plain dumb.

Evidently our governor is not a very firm believer in the "hot check" law, or is he? Back in January when he was being inaugurated for his second term, he had much to say about the overdraft of some 25 million dollars in the general fund, and intimated that there ought to be a law compelling a governor to veto any appropriation, in which there were no funds to cover, or where additional revenue was not provided to take care of it. Recently however, he asked the legislature to appropriate $26,500,000 out of that fund for pensions, for social security, the blind, and needy children and to match the school teacher funds. This the legislature refused to do, and last Sunday the governor put the legislators who voted against the measure, on the spot over the radio. Which all leaves the thinking people who live in Texas to wonder just where Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel stands on the hot check law. Does the State have any more right to overdraw its account than private individuals.

EARLY AMERICAN FLAG

Rattlesnakes bedecked the drums of the American Marines who were rallying recruits to fight in the Revolution. Sometimes these snakes were shown undulating across the striped flags of the period. Occasionally they appeared coiled on a yellow banner or encircling the trunk of a pine tree. Beneath the coiled serpent was lettered the ominous warning, "Don't tread on me!" Startled citizens of Philadelphia noted the odd device as the sea soldiers paraded the streets. Even Benjamin Franklin admitted he was puzzled by the insignia as the marine drummers thumped a staccato tattoo to the shrill accompaniment of fifes.

Just when and where the rattlesnake motif first won favor during the Revolution is somewhat of a mystery. The fact that the device appeared on early continental flags used in Virginia and on vessels of the South Carolina Navy indicates that it was of southern origin.

Colonel Gadsden, of South Carolina, was appointed a delegate to the Continental Congress late in 1775 at just about the same time the rattlesnake device appeared on the drums of the Marines. Colonel Gadsden presented a flag of this type to Commodore Esek Hopkins, commanding the Continental Fleet. The rattlesnake flag, or one of similar design, was carried ashore by Marines and sailors who landed at New Providence in the Bahamas in March, 1776, on one of our Navy's first expeditions. The flag's popularity was waning even before the Stars and Stripes was adopted in 1777.

Opinions as to the symbolism of the rattlesnake differed. Apparently it pointed to the union of the thirteen original colonies. A writer of the time remarked: "One of the rattles, singly, is incapable of producing a sound, but the ringing of thirteen together is sufficient to alarm the boldest man living."

NEW TYPE NAVAL BOATS PASS THRU LITTLEFIELD

Hardly a day goes by but that you are able to see big new boats, measuring 36 to 40 feet in length, and about eight feet wide, loaded on freight cars, passing through here each day on the Santa Fe lines.

They are a new type, and are said to be being built at Orange, Texas. Some days only one will be seen on the westbound freight train passing through here; other days there will be several of them.

A close inspection of the new craft is hardly possible, but they have the appearance of being equipped with two or more torpedo tubes.

They are consigned, it is reported, to Pacific coast points, but whether for use of the U. S. Navy or for other nations is not known.—County Wide News

A REPORT to America

The Ford Motor Company's business has always been to serve the needs of the American people. In providing them with low-cost transportation for the past 38 years, we have developed one of the country's largest and most useful industrial units. During a national emergency, we feel that these facilities should be devoted without reserve to our country's needs. Toward that end we started rolling months ago, with these results:

- 1 A $21,000,000 Ford airplane engine factory, started only 6 months ago, is nearly completed. Production will start with an initial order for 4,236 eighteen cylinder, air-cooled, double-row, radial engines.
- 2 We are building a new $800,000 Ford magnesium alloy foundry, one of the few in the country. It is already producing lightweight airplane engine castings.
- 3 Army reconnaissance cars — military vehicles of an entirely new type — are rolling off special Ford assembly lines at the rate of more than 600 a month. We have produced Army staff cars and bomber service trucks.
- 4 The government has given the "go-ahead" and work is now under way for the fast construction of an $11,000,000 Ford plant to produce bomber airframe assemblies by mass production methods.

5 Several months ago work was started, on our own initiative, on an entirely new 1500 horsepower airplane engine especially designed for mass production. This engine is now in the test stage and plans are being developed for producing it in large quantities when and if needed.

6 A Ford aircraft apprentice school has been established, to train 2000 students at a time.

That is a report of progress to date.

The experience and facilities of this company can be used to do much of the job which America now needs to get done in a hurry.

Our way of working, which avoids all possible red tape, enables us to get results and get them fast. This benefits users of our products and workers who produce them.

We are ready to make anything we know how to make, to make it to the limit of our capacity if need be, to make it as fast as we can go, and to start the next job whenever our country asks us to. And to this end, we know we have the full confidence and loyal support of the workmen throughout our plants.

Behind The Scenes In American Business

By John Craddock

NEW YORK, Mar. 24—BUSINESS — Americans, with their fondness for alliterative phrases, now find that the defense situation and all it embraces in affecting business and industry, can be encompassed by three main categories—Production, Priorities and Prices. No important change in the pell-mell pace of general activity. A report on one of the prime keys in the production picture is encouraging. It shows Uncle Sam's machine tool industry well on the way to the "impossible" levels OPM Chief Bell Knudsen asked for. The industry set an all-time high in 1939 at $200,000,000 worth of machine tools. In 1940 they more than doubled their output, to $450,000,000. Now in the first two and a half months of 1941, they have hit a pace of 80 per cent faster than a year ago, making the estimate for whole year of 1941 around $750,000,000 worth. These are the "machines that make machines," consequently their success bids fair to make possible, in turn, the "on-schedule" performance by producers of planes, tanks, shells and countless other defense items.

RAINBOW—What looked for a short time like gloomy skies for the aluminum cooking utensil manufacturers affected by priorities cleared a little. A report got out that after their present supplies were exhausted they would get no more of the metal. Manufacturers conferring with defense officials in Washington said they had received no notice of the reported ban, while defense chiefs privately described reports that the cooking utensil people would be "out of business" as "unauthorized and unwarranted." While aluminum supplies for this purpose would be temporarily curtailed until they may "at times come to zero" nothing like a total ban was contemplated. It was made clear that officials are reluctant to take any extreme action that would threaten any considerable number of jobs. It was further felt that expanded production facilities would ease the situation within a few months.

PRICES — Cost of living has been, all things considered, pretty stable despite "war economy." The Department of Labor's index for same is now only about 2 per cent higher than in August, 1939, the month before outbreak of war. Yet officials in Washington fear that as production begins to roll, shortages in materials will cause sharper rises in prices of consumer goods, setting off cycle of higher living costs, more wage increase demands to meet them and consequent increase in labor trouble.

MAY BE FABLED UNICORN

Austin, Tex., Mar. 24—Shades of the fairy-tale makers. University of Texas scientists have found fossilized bones of what appears to be at least a cousin of that odd critter, the legendary unicorn.

They discovered the skull and other bones of synthetoceros, which had giraffe-like horns at the back of its head and a single long horn near the tip of its nose—forked at the top—which corresponds as nearly as geologists here can figure out to the fabled unicorn.

The bones, turned up by a University-WPA geological field crew in Polk County, are now being processed in University laboratories here for exhibit in Texas Memorial Museum on the campus.

Said in mythology to have had the head and body of a horse, the hind legs of an antelope and the tail of a lion, the unicorn's strangest feature was a long, sharp, twisted horn set in the middle of its forehead. The royal coat of arms of Great Britain today is supported by two unicorns, and this strange animal—real or imaginary—has been a favorite device in heraldry.

Texas Producing Most Everything You Need

Austin, Tex., Mar. 24—From the cradle to the grave, in business, industry, the home, the school, the office—you can find Texas-made products to fill your need.

A check-list of products turned out by Texas factories compiled by the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research—the fourth Directory of Texas Manufacturers, just off the press—reveals 5,326 types of articles, produced by more than 9,000 firms.

Your children can play with Texas-made toys, use Texas-manufactured school supplies—and at the life span, when your loved ones die, you can obtain Texas-made caskets, undertakers' supplies and, unknown to most Texans, monuments made from Texas granites and marbles.

You can live in a house built from Texas lumber, cement and stone—or even in a portable or a ready-cut house. You can furnish it with Texas-made furniture from nursery to kitchen, in "antiques" or the latest streamlined chromium designs. You can sleep on a Texas-made mattress, eat from a Texas-made table cloth, and even wash your Texas-made pottery dishes in a Texas-made mechanical dishwasher.

Your table can be supplied with Texas-processed foods—from soup to nuts, from Mexican food to spaghetti, cereal to wine, and including cheese, honey, potato chips, mushrooms, syrup, all kinds of fruit, vegetables, meats and seafood.

You can wear dresses, shirts, trousers, hats, hose, gloves, ties, and lingerie made in Texas, and can "glamorize" yourself with

WOULD YOU SAY THIS WAS ACCIDENTAL?

Dear Editor: True stories do happen in Redfield, Iowa. A friend of ours has a farm near the edge of the city and the other night thought he heard a noise where his turkeys roost, but, after pausing for a few moments, he decided it was out in the hen house. He was getting ready for bed, yet still had on his long underwear, so he slips on his house shoes, gets out his shotgun and flash light, and goes out to investigate. He throws open the hen house

Animal 'Motor' Needs Winter Weight Ration

Wise Cattlemen Follow Motorists' Example in Cold Weather.

(Editor's Note: This is the ninth article of a series, "Blending Livestock With Cotton," published as a service to farmers and stockmen.)

Cold weather, even in the South, calls for livestock raisers to change to "winter weight" rations in their feeding program, just as wise motorists change to winter-weight oil in their automobiles.

"In the range country of the Southwest and in Southern States," the U. S. Department of Agriculture "Yearbook" points out, "thousands of cattle have always had to depend upon range the year round; as a result death losses are quite heavy, and while the majority come through, the ill effects of undernutrition are usually clearly revealed in their poor condition and small size."

Throughout most of the range area of the West and Southwest, and to an increasing extent in the South, cottonseed cake, meal, cubes and pellets are the standard protein supplements for wintering beef cattle.

Breeding cows on the range can be wintered in thrifty condition, experience has proved, on a daily ration of 1 to 2 pounds of cottonseed cake, per head; except in severe weather, when 2 to 3 pounds are needed.

STORAGE PLANTS

AUSTIN, March 27.—Development of locker storage plants throughout the State of Texas is being encouraged under the Texas Industrialization Program, Governor W. Lee O'Daniel announced here today.

A manual on locker storage is now being compiled and will be ready within a few weeks for distribution to industrialization committees in 237 Texas towns and to others interested in the matter.

This manual is being prepared in collaboration with the research bureaus of Texas A. & M. College, The University of Texas, and Texas Technological College, and other agencies of the State.

orous herd bulls, authorities recommend the feeding of 1 1-2 to 3 pounds of cottonseed cake, daily per head. When range is short, bulls need both cake and supplemental roughage.

Calves, after weaning, need the protein and phosphorus furnished by 1 to 1 1-2 pounds of cottonseed cake, daily per head. As calves or yearlings, heifers kept for herd replacements should receive 1 to 2 pounds of cake, daily, during the winter.

Yearlings and two-year-old cattle make good gains and growth, and are better hustlers on winter range, when fed 1 to 3 pounds of cottonseed cake, daily per head.

On farms, silage, grass hays, cottonseed hulls and other available roughages, as well as available grains, can be utilized efficiently in wintering rations by the addition of cottonseed meal, or cake, to the ration.

A practical ration for breeding cows consists of: 25 pounds of silage, 7 to 10 pounds of grass hay or cottonseed hulls, and 1 to 2 pounds of cottonseed meal.

Yearlings or two-year-olds winter well on a daily ration of 20 pounds of silage, 10 pounds of grass hay or cottonseed hulls, and 2 pounds of cottonseed meal. Calves may be wintered on 20 pounds of silage, 5 pounds of hulls, grass hay, or sorghum fodder, and 1 1-2 pounds of cottonseed meal, daily per head.

Views of Texas Press On State Safety Needs

"The Senate of Texas has an opportunity to promote the safety of every person using Texas roads and highways, and to cut down materially the frightful loss of life and the terrible toll of property damage occurring annually from motor traffic accidents."

"If the Texas Senate will just follow through now that the House has passed the more stringent driver's license law, and if both houses will do something about giving the Highway Patrol enough men and money to do its gigantic job properly, then this state will be getting somewhere at long last in the matter of traffic safety."

"One of this state's primary safety needs is enlargement of the Texas highway patrol. In recent years, accidents on Texas roads have shown a close relationship with the size of this force."

"A number of reasons can be given for this tremendous casualty list in Texas but the underlying cause is the antiquity of our traffic regulations. Texas are paying for the refusal of its legislature to correct this situation with broken bodies and caskets."

"Some of the members of the Legislature apparently believe that the protection of the reckless, careless, incompetent and drunken drivers from punishment for their acts is more important than the protection of the careful, capable and sober drivers from death and injury at the hands of the other kinds."

"Unless the people themselves take a hand in the matter and demand of their Representatives and Senators the enactment of a traffic law that has teeth in it, it begins to appear that for at least another biennium we shall be struggling along with the old law under which in 936 any moron could obtain a driver's license"

EVERY SCHOOL AND EVERY BUSINESS HAS ONE OR TWO

In a school full of bright, self-respecting students, there are very likely to be one or two completely lacking in good common sense. And that goes for business, too... particularly the beer retailing business.

Out of thousands of beer retailers who conduct respectable, law-abiding businesses, there may be a few "dunce" retailers who disobey the law or permit anti-social conditions.

These few unwanted retailers are a menace to the future of the beer industry... and also of the benefits beer has made possible. Right here in Texas, beer provides employment for 31,165 persons, supports an annual payroll of $22,076,182 and contributed $2,273,968.64 last year in state taxes.

It is the brewers' responsibility to make good beer—the retailers' responsibility to sell beer in wholesome surroundings—and the legally constituted authorities' responsibility to enforce the laws. All of these, working together with the public, are needed to protect the future of beer.

You, too, can help the cause of moderation by (1) patronizing only reputable places where beer is sold; (2) and reporting any violation you may observe to the duly constituted authorities.

WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT BUICK WILL BUILD THEM

Fine Herd Guerneys Near Brownfield

A. B. Buchanan, who recently moved his registered Guernsey Herd from Silverton, Texas, to 5 miles West of Brownfield, has been a member of the old Central Dairy Herd Improvement Ass'n. and the Lubbock D. H. I. A. for four years, and has had many outstanding individuals and herd records. He was a charter member and continuous director of the association.

His present herd is built around his great old foundation brood cow, Lassie's Ivy of Elmwood 281323. He bought Ivy at the Plainview Show in 1930 for $200 from Edward Cleek, a 4-H Club boy who had first won junior champion and $40.00 in prizes with the one year old Ivy.

Ivy now has 17 female and 2 male descendants in the herd. Her oldest daughter, Ivy's Queen of Briscoe 426015, has six daughters and 2 grand daughters in the herd, and she, Queen, made the highest record in the Lubbock Association in February 1941 with 1042 lbs. milk and 70.9 lbs. of butterfat. She has two lactation or yearly records of over 500 lbs. butterfat. Another daughter, Ivy's Lady of Briscoe 518865, made a record of 461.2 lbs. of fat with her first calf and has two daughters in the herd.

The cream from Ivy has brought a gross return of $130.00 per year for the past four years, which would indicate that she has returned approximately $1300.00 during her 10 years of production in addition to the $515.00 received from sale of her bull calves.

Ivy has been grand champion at the Plainview Show several times. In June 1939 Buchanan, accompanied by the fieldman, D. M. Carrell, and E. E. Prosser, another Guernsey Breeder of Plainview, Texas, went to the million dollar Meadow Lodge Farm of Oklahoma City and selected a Junior herd sire, Meadow Lodge Premier 262728, whose 15 nearest dams averaged 14,076.98 lbs. of milk and his dam's side was Junior Champion at several Oklahoma Shows in 1938.

Thomas Jefferson once remarked that no system will work of itself—that its efficiency depends upon the individuals who administer it. With this observation of the founder of the Democratic Party in mind, an independent oil man comments on the proposal for a separate oil and gas commission: "How could you expect to get three appointive commissioners better qualified by experience than the three members of the State Railroad Commission? Leaders of the move do not deny that Col. Ernest O. Thompson is one of the best-informed men on oil in the world nor can they deny that Jerry Sadler learned the industry 'the hard way,' as a worker on the derrick floor, in laying pipelines and as a refinery worker before becoming a successful independent operator. And Judge Olin Culberson, admittedly an authority on gas, is also fully conversant with oil. So here you have three men, who know the oil industry up one side and down the other, and they are working in harmony for the good Texas. It's an old baseball maxim. Don't break up a winning team."—Boyce House.

Several of this bull's ancestors sold for -16 to 25 thousand dollars and have demonstrated their worth down thru the years.

Mr. Buchanan is duely proud of Ivy and her offspring and the fine crop of calves he has from Premier, his young herd sire.

"THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER"

I have heard arguments pro and con on the subject of whether our national anthem should be changed from "The Star Spangled Banner" to "God Bless America." I think there is not even room for argument. "God Bless America" is all right in its place, but as a national anthem, no. "The Star Spangled Banner" has a certain "something" about it that makes every true American feel extra proud of this land in which we live. It has no "swinging" tune, but it has a certain military tune that makes all Americans stand on their feet and hold their chins just a little higher. Then take the words. There is no "just on the surface" feeling. The words especially in the crucial times we are facing now, seem to exactly fit the situation. The word hold a real patriotism for everyone.

There is, of course, the argument that hardly anyone knows the words. This is no fault of the songs; rather, it's the American people's fault. True, it is hard to sing, but almost anyone could do it, if he would only try. So, after thoughtful consideration, I think there should be no more talk about changing the national anthem. The very name gives the symbol of America, "the land of the free and the home of the brave."—Jayton Chronicle.

Behind The Scenes In American Business

By John Craddock

NEW YORK, Mar. —In World War I, England adopted "business as usual" slogan, mainly to symbolize traditional British imperturbability. We fell in with that idea, too, over here. The present war, by its very nature, puts a lot more obstacles in the way of "business as usual," for the bomb-rocked British. Yet so far as the symbolism and mental attitude are concerned, the philosophy is again dominant there. And over here, too, we have tried to cling to that idea, mostly expressed in the phrase saying that we could "super-impose our defense program on our normal production program." For months it was felt we could do it—could take on any unforeseeable task in the way of defense production, and turn it out, without having to cut down on ordinary peacetime goods and services. Our business has not been "usual," it's been unusually good, for many months, because to a large extent the defense drive was set right on top of our normal schedule.

But in recent weeks it has become increasingly clear that the defense drive is going to require some men, materials and machines that otherwise would be producing consumer goods. Already adoption of mandatory priorities has brought home this fact to many manufacturers, and to some customers. On the whole, though, the general prediction is that the most "unusual" thing about Uncle Sam's business—for many months to come—will be its "unusually upwardness." Although individual lines may be set back by the rationing system, the continued growth of defense production will more than offset those declines in non-defense lines caused by rationing of materials. The Federal Reserve Board's index of industrial production stood at 139 in January, and is expected to hit 150 before the end of the year. In that index, the activity rate of 1935-39 is rated as "100."

A STATE PENSION TO ALL PERSONS OVER 65

Texas citizens more than 65 years of age will all be eligible for the state's portion of the old age pension, and all will receive the same grant under a bill passed out of the Senate Finance Committee and sponsored by State Senators Lovelady of Meridian and Marshall Formby of McAdoo.

Under the bill, now pending before the Texas Senate, the state's investigation will be eliminated. All persons over 65, who have lived in Texas 15 of the past 25 years and who have lived in Texas the last five preceding years will be eligible for the State's part of the pension not to exceed $15 per month, or a pro rata part. Under this bill every aged person applying for the pension will be granted the same amount from the State after proof of age and there will be no State investigations. The Federal Government will then make its own investigation and will match the State's part to persons qualifying under the Federal laws as being needy.

The two Senators, both former County Judges, explained that unwould be saved which has heretofore been spent for investigation and that the problem of one aged person receiving a smaller amount than his neighbor would be eliminated so far as the State's part is concerned.

Senator Lovelady indicated that the bill would be brought up for consideration as soon as possible in the Senate. Many Senators believe this bill will be the answer to many of the pension problems as it clarifies the State's obligations, and the State is without control of the Federal matching of the grants anyway.

Although Attorney General Gerald Mann has ruled that the so-called Fair Trade Act will repeal a most important section of the sacred Texas anti-trust laws, sponsors of the misnamed retail price-fixing act have not yet withdrawn their bill and reports are they will push it if it strips the consumers of Texas of every bit of protection they now have against price-raising exploitation. If one section of a dam is blasted, the flood rushes through. If one section of Texas' carefully conceived anti-trust laws is invalidated, who knows how much price-rigging and exploitation will ensue?

Article No. Two Farm Program

Moving to help improve living standards through increased production and storage of food for home use, the supplementary cotton program provides for a payment of three dollars which the cotton farmer cooperating with the supplementary program can earn.

The three dollar payment will be paid to those producers who meet certain food production and storage requirements as listed by the agricultural adjustment Administration, Looe Miller, Administrative Officer in the AAA in Terry County, points out in the second of three question and answer articles on the supplementary cotton program.

This additional payment is available only to cotton producers whose farms qualify for a cotton order stamp payment, the AAA official said, and is made in addition to all other payments under the farm program.

How Supplementary Program Aids Home Living

18. Q. Can the acreage not planted to cotton under this Supplementary Program be used for other crops?

A. Yes. This acreage can be used to produce food and feed crops for home consumption, or for any other crop or land use, except that the sum of the 1941 acreages of wheat, corn, (in this commercial corn area), peanuts, potatoes, commercial vegetable rice and tobacco for the farm cannot exceed the sum of its allotments or permitted acreages for such crops under the 1941 Agricultural Conservation Program.

19. Q. What additional assistance is offered for encouraging increased food production and storage for home use, and who is eligible for this assistance?

A. Any owner, landlord, tenant, or sharecropper on a farm which qualifies for a cotton order stamp payment, may also earn a cash payment of $3 by carrying out a designated practice designated to improve and increase food production and storage for home use.

20. Q. What practice can be carried out in order to earn this special $3 cash payment?

A. (This practice may vary by areas and this question will be answered by State A. A. Offices).

21. Q. Will the $3 payment be divided among tenants and landlords?

A. No. Each producer who carries out a food production and storage practice will receive the entire payment of $3.

22. Q. Must the food referred to in this practice be grown on the farm?

A. Yes. The food which qualified the producer for the $3 payment must be grown on the farm for consumption by the producer and his family.

23. Q. May a producer receive credit for more than one such practice during 1941?

A. No.

24. Q. Must the food requirements under this practice be in addition to the practices customarily carried out by the farm family?

A. Yes. No payment will be made unless performance under this practice is in addition to the producer's usual production of food crops, as indicated by his certificate on the application for payment.

25. Q. Will the $3 special payment be included in the farm's regular soil-building allowance?

A. No. The $3 payment is an added payment for a special practice, and will not be included in the soil-building allowance.

SANTA FE CARLOADINGS

The Santa Fe Railway System carloadings for the week March 22, 1941, were 18,585 compared with 17,570 for the same week in 1940. Received from connections were 7,352 compared with 5,191 for the same week in 1940. The total cars moved were 25,937 compared with 22,761 for the same week in 1940. Dad and Mother May Visit Camp Bowie

Camp Bowie, March 24—Relatives and friends of men quartered in Camp Bowie who feel that they may never get the opportunity to see just how the young men of the Thirty-Sixth Division live are provided with a very comfortable quarters under just such conditions.

The Guest House, equipped with the same type of cots, mattresses, blankets, sheets and other bedding, is open to visitors. The only difference between the quarters there and those of the men is that the guest house is a frame building whereas the soldiers are quartered in walled tents. Mother and Dad may now come down, spend the night in Camp Bowie and know they have occupied the same type beds as their sons.

Reservations are made by addressing the Senior Hostess, Camp Bowie, Texas. Rates are $1 per night for one person or $1.50 for two. Each room is equipped with two cots.

Guests are allowed to stay two nights on week ends and one night through the week. This rule, however, is altered in the case of a person who has a relative seriously ill in the hospital.

A guard is maintained at all times. The reading room is open but the cafeteria is not functioning yet due to lack of equipment. Guests may be informed of bus or train schedules from hostess, may find and get word to soldiers they wish to visit and arrange to meet them at the Guest House.

Rules of the Guest House are the same as those governing the remainder of the camp. Guests must return to camp by taps each evening.

I DON'T THINK I CARE TO GO OUT WITH YOU AGAIN!

"Dear Bill: "I don't think I care to go out with you again.

"Most of last evening was wonderful, Bill. But the drive home spoiled everything.

"You behaved so nicely and acted so considerably up till the minute you got your hands on the wheel and we headed home. Then you suddenly were transformed into what seemed to me a bad-mannered and irresponsible gorrilla.

"You yelled at people who had just as much right on the road as you. You disregarded white lines and signs put there for your safety. You scared my wits out by going at an absurd speed.

"That might have been considered smart once upon a time, but I assure you it's silly and childish today. Call me stuffy and prudish if you like. But I don't relish dying quiet yet.

"Nor do I want to get in one of those accidents where I am just hurt. I have sense enough to realize that you and the rest of the boys wouldn't be ringing my phone if my face and body were inexpertly rearranged by a smash-up in your automobile.

"So I don't think I'll go out with you again, Bill. At least not until you've grown up enough to behave decently as a driver, and not until you realize that you owe a certain responsibility to the person you ask to share your car with you."

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Paschall, Jr., and boys, Phil and Danny Kay of Lubbock, visited in the home of Chas. Leonard Sunday. Mrs. Paschall, Sr., of Breckenridge, sister of Mrs. Leonard, was also a week end guest.

Texas Producing Quality Turkeys

College Station, March 10—Many Texas turkey growers have taken a page from the book of experience of cattle raisers and are improving the quality of their turkeys, says Geo. P. McCarthy, Extension Service poultry husbandman for Texas A. and M. College.

A few years ago very little selection was practiced and production of turkeys was comparable to the hit-and-miss methods of the beef cattle business of 25 years ago. Four years ago, however, growers adopted the example of the cattlemen in breeding up their herds and introduced the broad breasted turkey. Only three farms experimented with the new type at the outset, but other producers since have found that the broad breasted specimen not only improved the quality of their stock, but also are good feeders, mature early and increase the vitality of ordinary turkeys.

Mainly as the result of educational work by the Extension Service, McCarthy says, 8,000 flocks today contain broad breasted breeders. This figure is based upon the 1941 breeding season, and represents approximately ten percent of the turkey population in Texas.

"The result of the turkey improvement work sponsored by the Extension Service," McCarthy says, "was clearly reflected during the 1940 turkey marketing season. Texas produce dealers said that the quality of turkeys in the state was the best they ever had handled. Market demands have been studied carefully and turkey producers today are more interested in producing the kind of turkey the American housewife, hotels, restaurants and the retail trade as a whole want. Turkey production in Texas today is maturing fast and many of the growing pains eased."

Lupino, Bogart In "High Sierra"

"High Sierra," the film which opens today at the Rialto Theatre, brings with it all the thrills, suspense and dramatic action which movie audiences hope for in their screen fare. With Humphrey Bogart as "the last of the Dillinger mob," Ida Lupino as his sweetheart, and made under the direction of Raoul Walsh, whose most recent success was "They Drive By Night," "High Sierra" was produced by Warner Bros., with Mark Hellinger as associate producer.

Supported by a cast which includes Alan Curtis, Arthur Kenedy, Henry Hull, Henry Travers, Joan Leslie, Bogart and Miss Lupino are said to triumph in the two top roles. Bogart plays Roy Earl, a strange sort of criminal to whom crime is an unpleasant, but nevertheless necessary, business. It is a role somewhat reminiscent of the one he played so brilliantly in his first motion picture, "The Petrified Forest." Miss Lupino is seen as the girl who loves him so much that she eventually proves his downfall. Another member of the cast whose love helps to lead to his eventual undoing is a small, loyal and lovable wire-haired terrier, named "Pard." Making her first film appearance in "High Sierra" is Joan Leslie, a lovely sixteen-year-old who figures prominently in a brief but important episode that helps to set up the human side of the characted Bogart plays.
