Bond Election Carries By 33 to 1 Majority

A thoroughly modern, complete system of school buildings was assured for Brownfield consolidated school Monday when voters favored issuance of $125,000 in bonds by a vote of 111 to three.

"We have never seen a school program that has carried so emphatically as this one," said Emmitt Smith, superintendent of schools.

The election was the last of a series required for consolidation of the school district. Consolidation was voted in April and shortly afterwards voters decided to approve bond assumption of the consolidated districts.

The program calls for five principal projects: a new 16-room primary school, remodeling of a large elementary school, a new vocational building, partly financed by National Youth Administration funds and intended to house agriculture, industrial arts, and band departments; a bus barn to house 14 school buses recently purchased; and general repair and modernization of the existing buildings.

The school board is expected to ask for bids soon on the remodeling of the project. M. C. Butler of Lubbock, member of the firm of Butler-Huseman, is architect.

Supt. Smith Deserves Credit In Program Of Consolidation

As will be found elsewhere in this paper, the school bond election held last Monday, carried by an overwhelming majority. As most of us already know, this is one of the last steps to be taken in the commencement of our ambitious School Consolidation Program. It may well be said that we are now standing on the threshold of a new and, it is our prediction, a far greater era of schooling for Brownfield and the area contained in the newly created district.

Let us look back and once again go over the steps that were taken to bring all this about: first, there was the consolidation election itself, going over in each original district by nice majorities; second, the bond assumption election to place the indebtedness of each district under one head, also agreed upon by a great majority of the voters; and third, the successful school bond election. Seems rather simple on paper, doesn't it?

While we must remember that a number of individuals gave freely of their time and effort and should have the wholehearted thanks of the entire district, the work of one man, Supt. Emmitt Smith, must not be allowed to be passed by without due recognition. To him these steps so easily recounted above were no easy ones. To him they meant hours of research on more things than we care to mention, meetings with school patrons, meetings with civic organizations, booklets to prepare, columns of newspaper copy to write and countless other things.

The writer of this article knows that Emmitt did not do this work to have the praises of the public heaped upon him, rather, he would have preferred to remain quietly in the background. The writer knows he did not do this work for any selfish gain. We know that he started out on this work with only reward in view—that at the completion of his task, he could pause briefly and contemplate a job well done. We know he rejoices in the realization of his dream and we rejoice with him.

An Appeal To The Voters

By Geo. W. Neill

Another election is in the offing. The music has already started. Election day is the people's day, the day they take over the Government, with more power than those they elect. How will you handle that day? What motive or purpose will prompt your vote? Do you expect those elected to follow the same course you use in the election?

Government is an earthly institution. It is a man-made organization. Its sole purpose is to adjudicate the earthly affairs between man and man. The Church is a heavenly ordained institution. They revolve in different orbits, and never the twain should mix. Everytime either meddles with the other, it makes a mess of both. A man can be a patriotic citizen at the polls, and a devout Christian in church. He can be either, and not the other. It is error to presume that, if he is one, he is also the other. That mistake has been made many times in Texas. Experience and observation, in the last several years has shown us in box-car dimensions, that when a man runs for State office on a religious platform, you better look out. It is hypocrisy per se. When a candidate injects religion or other extraneous matters into his campaign, it is omitted admission, that he is lacking in Statesmanship. Of course it is obvious that it's a political sop, to the sobbers. The people are really to blame. So many groups and elements are clamoring for special favors unto themselves, exacting selfish promises that they lay themselves wide open to a lot of hullabaloney, and virtually invite hypocrisy. And then they'll cry, and in reply, get an alibi. When a voter sticks his "gimme" chin into a political campaign, he can expect to get it tickled. I, for one, am tired of being a repeating soppee.

It is questioned by many that we haven't the statesmanship in our National or State halls, as of 25 years ago. Some ask is there a dearth of Statesman? No. We have lots of Government timber. Old and seasoned, young and growing. The old real competent, honorable statesman has learned that he cannot be elected in modern elections. He just simply does not offer. We'll have to pick up unspoiled young men who are worthy and competent statesmen in the making, treat them right and train them right.

A few years ago, Russia, by bullets, purged its country of thousands and thousands of its best statesmen, army experts, and professional technicians, to its latter sorrow and embarrassment. Shall America by ballots, purge this country of its statesmanship? We are sending our physical best to the army, why not our mental best to the civil department? Over there it was the Dictators' whim. Over here it is the people's—(what?) We'll never have statesmanship in Government till we vote a statesman-like vote. If you don't want a joke in office, don't drop one in the ballot box. Nothing will stop Government "by the people," or necessitate dictatorship sooner, than the folly of the voters at the polls.

Modern elections, because of the lethargy and acquiescence of the people, have gotten to where it takes as much skill and strategy to get elected, as it does ability (Continued on Back Page)

TO TEACH IN ILLINOIS

Bill Savage, former resident of Brownfield, will teach in Illinois Technological college this summer. It was learned recently. Savage graduated from Texas Technological college with a major in engineering in 1939. Last year he attended Northwestern University in Chicago.

Savage plans to do some work toward his Master's degree while teaching this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Virgil Crawford are starting a new home just west of the Gladys Green home in the southeast part of town.

Community Dinner At Foster, June 25th

The Third Community - Farm Dinner will be held at the Foster school house on Wednesday, June 25th, at 8 P. M.

The Foster Home Demonstration Club is planning a good party and has reported that about 40 farmers from their community will be present. There should be at least that many or more merchants out for this party.

These affairs are proving to be very valuable in the building of good-will between Brownfield and the outlying communities and it behooves every merchant to go or send a representative.

We have plenty of time to make plans for this party, so start planning today to attend this dinner.

Please report to T. R. Black or T. L. Patterson that you plan to go. Farmers in the Foster community should report to Mrs. J. G. Cabe.

Playground Project Creating Interest

The supervised playground which is sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, ended its second week Friday, June 13, with an average daily attendance of 66 children. The main activities of the week were softball, croquet, tumbling, woodwork, dramatics, ping-pong and checkers.

A checker tournament was conducted for all children over eight years of age. Jane Wier was winner for the girls, and Bobby Mason was the winner of the boys. The ball throwing contest which was conducted for all children under eight years of age was won by Joyce Ann Eubanks and Geary Dale Roberts.

For the weekly attendance awards, Joyce Ann Eubanks and Donald Wayne Andress received picture show passes for having the most points.

Every school-age child is invited to play five days a week from 9 to 11 in the morning and from 2 to 4 in the afternoon at the high school gymnasium.

WPA Workers Available For Private Employment

WPA District Manager J. O. Jones today reiterated his reminder to farmers and other private employers that all WPA workers are listed with the Texas State Employment Service and are available for private employment.

WPA workers will be released from projects wherever needed to make farm help available. Mr. Jones declared. "Prospective employers should consult local representatives of the Texas State Employment Service," he explained, "as this is the duly-constituted agency for referring WPA workers and other persons seeking private jobs to employers."

Rolls of the WPA are constantly open to private employers and no worker who refuses a bona fide offer of employment will be retained by WPA. This regulation is based on the following section of the WPA appropriation act:

"No person in need who refuses a bona fide offer of private or other public employment under reasonable working conditions which pays the prevailing wage for such work in the community where he resides and who is capable of performing such work shall be employed or retained in employment on work projects under the funds appropriated in this joint resolution for the period such private or other public employment would be available."

Currently employed on WPA projects in this district are 1819 men and women and an additional 751 persons are certified as eligible for WPA employment and are awaiting assignment whenever jobs are available. All of these persons are registered with the Texas State Employment Service and are immediately available to private employers, the District Manager stated.

Company D Bulletin Board

The drill period originally scheduled for tonight at Plains has been indefinitely postponed. This activity will probably take place on a Sunday afternoon in the very near future.

Sixty-two from the local unit were present at Lubbock last Sunday when this Company and units from Lubbock and nearby towns paraded. Occasion for the parade was conventions of the 19th district and 5th Division of the American Legion, American Legion Auxiliary and 40/8 organization. The 5th Division is made up of Legion Posts from the 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th and 21st Congressional Districts. A number of men who are prominent in Legion activities were in the reviewing section. Parade was led by Sons of the American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps.

The Company, due to its excellent rating in the recent induction inspection, was placed immediately behind the band in the Lubbock parade.

Company D meets tonight at the Legion Hall and at the usual time. Instruction in Interior Guard Duty will be taken up at this time and a full explanation and demonstration of the General Orders, a copy of which every guardsman has, will be given.

Discharges: Pvt., 1CL, T. L. Patterson, Privates Cherry Foster and George M. Cartwright. Patterson is moving to Littlefield; Foster to Lubbock, and Cartwright has been inducted into the Service.

Twenty-six supernumeraries were out for drill last Friday night.

Captain Edwards gave a talk at the close of the drill period last Friday night on work expected to be done in the future. Encouraging words for the Company were spoken by several of our local citizens at this time.

Pvt. A. J. Stricklin, Jr., has been promoted to Pvt., 1CL, and placed in charge of publicity for Company D.

Sons of American Legion To Organize

An organization of the Sons of American Legionnaires will be perfected at the Legion Hall Sunday afternoon at 3:45 P. M. All sons of Legionnaires and mothers of the boys, and ladies of the Auxiliary are invited to attend. Refreshments will be served.

This is a popular move throughout the country. It will be an organized remembrance of their patriotic fathers, and encourage them to take up the torch made famous by the poem of Flanders Field. A. C. Jackson of Lubbock, prominent in such work, is expected to be present.

Bill and Fisher Eason spent the week-end in San Antonio.

We thank Hayden Griffin for his renewal, recently.

Handsome John Payne is Alice Faye's romantic interest in the latest 20th Century-Fox musical extravaganza, "The Great American Broadcast."

Legionnaires Attend Convention

25 members of the local Legion attended the annual convention of the 5th and 19th district American Legion Convention, held at Lubbock last Saturday and Sunday, where they took a leading part in the proceedings. They carried with them Company D, of the Brownfield Home Guard, who because of their rank and rating, was awarded the lead in the grand parade Sunday afternoon.

EQUALIZATION BOARD IN SESSION

The Commissioners' Court, in session, are sitting as a board of equalization this week and will likely extend into next week. At this time they check over and approve the tax rolls for the year 1941, and to equalize the renditions of different owners as to values. There will be considerable increase in the total valuation of the county due to new property and developments over the last few years.

This Week In National Defense

President Roosevelt, declaring a strike at the North American Aviation plant in Inglewood, Calif., was impeding the defense program, ordered the Army to operate the plant after workers rejected Mediation Board terms for settlement. Two days after taking over, the Army reported "100 percent efficiency" with all employees returned to work. The President said plants which he might be forced to place under Federal control will be returned to private management as soon as possible.

The House voted for an amendment to the 1942 Army appropriation bill to prohibit the payment of funds to any individual or company failing within 10 days to abide by Mediation Board recommendations for settlement of disputes. The Senate approved a declaration that strikes or lockouts in defense industries are "contrary to sound public policy."

The Mediation Board announced settlement of three labor disputes, including the dispute of the soft coal industry. The U. S. Conciliation Service announced settlement of 34 additional disputes.

Selective Service

Selective Service Headquarters ordered reclassification of all registrants "impeding the defense program." The order said "the citizen who has been deferred because of the job he is performing in the national defense program cannot expect to retain the status of deferment when he ceases to work on the job for which he was deferred."

The Senate approved a bill to defer men who reach their 28th birthday by July 1 of this year, except those already in the Service.

Impressive Ceremonies Mark Rotary Opening

Denver Colo., June 15 — With approximately 9,000 Rotarians and their families present from more than a score of countries, the 1941 convention of Rotary International got under way in Denver at sundown today with special ceremonies which not only marked the opening of the convention, but also the dedication of magnificent Red Rocks Park Amphitheatre. Under construction for more than four years, work on the Amphitheatre was rushed to completion in time for the Rotary convention. The Amphitheatre, hewn out of the solid red rock of the foothills of the Colorado Rockies, has been judged by engineers and acousticians as the finest amphitheatre of its type in the world.

The colorful and picturesque dedication and convention inauguration ceremonies featured an 80-piece symphony orchestra, conducted by Henry Everett Sachs, and a chorus of 100 voices under the direction of John Kendel. Miss Helen Jepson, leading soprano of the Metropolitan Opera company, thrilled the 9,000 assembled guests with her beautiful voice. The entire musical program was enhanced to an unbelievable degree by the magnificence of the setting. The dedication address was delivered by Rotarian Benjamin F. Stapleton, Mayor of Denver, and a message of welcome, broadcast over a coast-to-coast, Canadian, and Latin American hook-up, was delivered by Armado de Arruda Pereira of Sao Paulo, Brazil, President of Rotary International and presiding officer of the convention.

Prior to the convention it had been thought that the international fellowship, which has always been the keynote of Rotary conventions, would be limited this year because of the difficulties of ocean travel. However, with others expected to arrive later during the week, Rotarians already in attendance at the convention represent Rotary clubs in Argentina, Australia, Bolivia, Brazil, Canada, Chile, China, Colombia, Cuba, Ecuador, England, Hungary, India, Lebanon, Mexico, Morocco, Peru, Philippines, Puerto Rico, South Africa, Straits Settlements, Switzerland, the United States, Uruguay, and Venezuela.

There Is No "Trip" Article This Week

In view of the fact that we had to make a sad trip back to Tennessee the first of the week with the body of our nephew, there will be no article this week on our recent trip through the old South. This is the young man that came home with us three weeks ago. He passed away Monday morning at 4:45 at the Treadaway-Daniell Hospital, after being a patient there about nine hours.

We are not saying this because Neal Stricklin, aged 33 years, was our nephew, but we believe he was one of the finest specimens of young manhood we ever had about us. He was clean, honest, congenial and intelligent. In fact, he had all the attributes so desirable in men and women. Eleven years ago, our eldest brother and Neal's father passed on, leaving this boy and his widowed mother at home, all the rest of the family being married. He has sheltered and cared for that aged mother through all these years.

He has deprived himself of a wife and family, a desire of every normal man to have in order to care for and protect his mother. Could you picture to yourself any greater thing to be desired in a man? A few months ago, his doctor ordered that he quit work, as he had a bad heart, which probably started with arthritis seven years ago. A physician here stated to us that Neal, or O'Neal as he is more generally called in Tennessee; not only had an enlarged heart, but a leaky one.

We are glad for one thing. Although it was sad to pass far away from mother, he had thoroughly enjoyed his last days. He had seen many things he had never seen before, and seemed to get a great kick from it. The first night out from Tennessee he wanted to be sure to cross from Arkansas to Texas, as he wanted to put his feet on Texas soil. We stayed in Texarkana, Texas. He had always desired to see Texas, and admire its broad stretches, different topography, altitudes, etc. He had tried hard to remember names of places he had visited, studied the map of Texas, and planned to tell the folks back home where he had been and what he had seen. What a great tragedy that he was not permitted to do so.

The last intelligent word that he ever uttered was "Mamma." But who on earth is nearer than mother? Who other than she can soothe the pain racked body? Whose prayers can come nearer heaven? Neal almost passed in his sleep, according to his nurse. There was hardly a struggle. But had he not suffered enough already?

Of an intensely friendly nature, he had met and made many friends here, who were shocked at his death, as he appeared to be making headway toward health. In fact his physician here remarked Saturday that he appeared to be 100 percent better than when he came. But, if he had friends here, feature what he has to go back to in the red hills of Tennessee—men and women who have known him from birth, children and youths whom he has encouraged.

Can't say at this time just what the funeral arrangements will be, but he will be buried at old New Hope cemetery near his home, where his ancestors have been buried for more than 100 years. Will try to be back with you on the trip next week.

MANN'S THE MAN

Now that the race for the U. S. Senate is coming into the home stretch, how are the candidates showing up and what claims do they offer the sovereign voters to obtain their votes?

W. Lee O'Daniel, governor of Texas is probably the leading candidate, although he will fall far short of his usual majority. He has lost much of his popularity from one cause or another, many of his strong supporters have quit him because of his inability to get along with the legislature and other State officials.

The Governor's attitude that everybody but himself is a crooked politician has filled lots of people with disgust. His recent threat to call the roll when he gets to Washington and defeat everybody who refuses to take his leadership and have them all defeated, was utterly foolish, it cost him many votes. His strongest appeal is his personality. You can pay no attention to his promises. He'd promise to move the moon if he thought it good campaign tactics to do so. But the thing that is going to cost O'Daniel most votes is the fact that the old people of the state will have $9 per month cut from their pension checks all thru the summer. O'Daniel and the legislature can't agree (the same old story); the old people have to pay, as usual.

Martin Dies has a strong following over the state. His popularity lies about his fight against perverse groups and un-Americanism. Texas has never produced a more conscientious or a cleaner public official than Martin Dies. He is too honest to take money from the plunderbund to make his race with and is therefore handicapped. His one issue is not sufficient appeal to elect him. Many of his friends feel that he, as a member of the powerful Rules Committee, can do more good there than he could in the Senate.

Sam Morris will be among the big five when the votes are counted. He is running on Morris Sheppard's old platform—prohibition. He is asking for the right to take up where Sheppard left off. But again a one-plank platform is not broad enough to go to the Senate on. Texas wants more than a one-idea senator.

Lyndon Johnson is making more noise than any man in the race except O'Daniel, (who is spending thousands of dollars). Johnson is a progressive young congressman, but after all has been said for him, of his "Roosevelt and Unity" plank, based on a vague endorsement from the President, and he'd get no where. Personally, we would have felt much better to tell us how to vote. We want a senator to represent US.

The next candidate on the list is Attorney General Gerald Mann. Mann is just the type of man for whom Texans like to vote, and as it happens he is just the type of man to make Texas a senator who would rank with the great men who have represented Texas in the past. He worked his way through college and law school. He sprang into prominence in politics when he defeated one of the state's most popular men who have served the state in the past.

MARINES' NEW BASE HAS SIMILAR NAME

Washington, June 16—Much of Uncle Sam's mail has been going to the U. S. Marines at Marines. By mere coincidence the names of these military men and that of a post office, which lies within their newly acquired base along the New River in North Carolina, are identical.

Named after two brothers who settled there more than fifty years ago, the village has a number of other namesakes elsewhere in the United States. There is a Marine in Illinois, another Marine in Kentucky and a Marine City in Michigan.

Adding to the seagoing nomenclature of the nation one may find a Mariner in Maine, a Mariners Harbor in New York and a Sailor Springs in Illinois, not to mention a Bluejacket far from the sea in Oklahoma.

Naval branches of the service, however, have no monopoly in the postal directory. Towns named Soldier flourish in Iowa, Kansas, and Pennsylvania and there is a Warrior in Alabama.

Further evidence that Uncle Sam is not especially pacifistic is shown by the fact that there are at least three Fives, two Drums, a Rifle and two Cannon in the United States.

CARD OF THANKS

Words fail to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to the good people who so generously helped us, since the recent loss of our home and its contents by fire.

May the Lord richly bless each of you in our prayer.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wright and Family.

But Mann was too great a statesman to hold a grudge. He fell right in and worked with the governor. Forty-five times the governor went to him for advice on the constitutionality of laws; forty-five times Mann gave that advice. Not once did he dodge the issue. Forty-five times his advice was taken. He has stood like a stone wall of defense for the people and if all the bogus laws that Mann has ruled out were compiled they would make a text book of tyranny. In his office is a motto which says "I sacrificed no principle to gain this office—I shall sacrifice none to keep it." So great was his record as attorney general, that when the office of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court became vacant, Governor O'Daniel offered the appointment to Mann. It looks like "Man's the man."—Anton News

A CALL FOR A SWORD

"And I will call for a sword against him throughout all my mountains, saith the Lord God: every man's sword shall be against his brother" Ezekiel 38:21.

This is God's answer to a military dictator invading the homeland of Israel described in the 38th chapter of Ezekiel. The invasion is by combined nations of the north and, if modern meanings of the ancient names are correct, includes Germany, Russia, Persia, Italy and perhaps Turkey. This is the first time in all history conditions in the Middle East have been as described by the prophet Ezekiel.

At present around a million and a half Germans and no one knows how many Russians are posed in Southern Europe in position to strike at British-held Palestine by air, land and sea, "all of them clothed with all sorts of armour."

And this is what Jehovah says to these armies from the north: "Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel, thou and all thy bands, and the people that is with thee; I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field to be devoured."

As we would say it in West Texas, when the northern armies crash into Palestine, they will be fed to the buzzards.

Jerusalem is a very busy city this week. People of all races opposed to the German conquests are walking, or marching in its streets. And this paragraph was in a press dispatch. The merchants have more demands for Bibles than they can supply. They may be reading Ezekiel 38 and 39.

Perhaps God is calling for a sword, even now, in the mountains of Israel. Certainly brother is against brother in Syria now. And as Jerusalem buys Bibles, there is much in the prophecy of Ezekiel to comfort them, nothing that could comfort Adolf Hitler in this campaign.—Abilene Times.

1 FILL LASTED 13,398 MILES—Certified

Then how long is a quart of this great New Motor Oil?

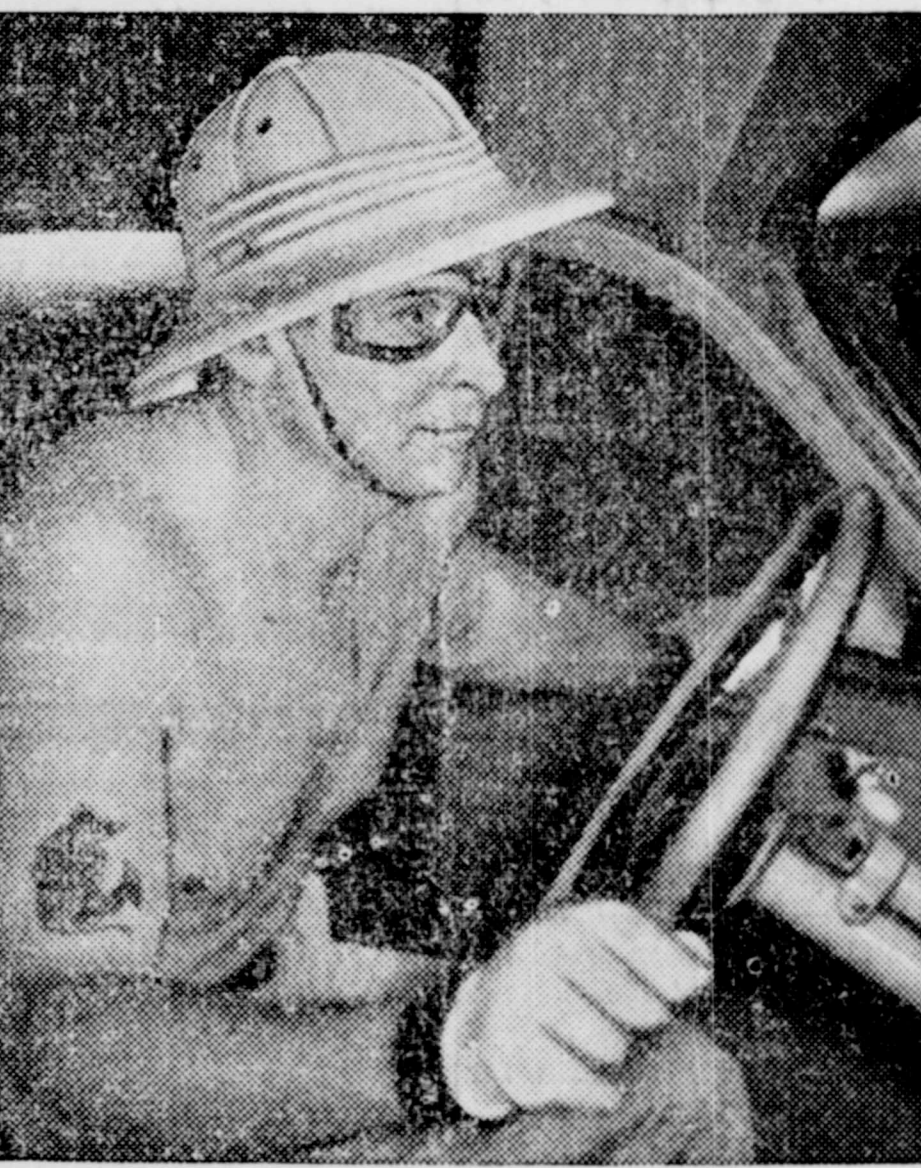

STRAIGHT FROM SIZZLING DEATH VALLEY COMES YOUR ANSWER...

The lock-guarded engines of 6 coupes faced the Death Valley desert with oil exactly up to "Full!" Not a drop could be added. The destination of all 6 identical everyday engines was... Death!

Here were 6 high quality motor oils getting the same strictly fair opportunity to show how long they'd let an engine live on one exact fill and no more.

Down in Death Valley—hotspot of the U. S. A.—every car sped at 57 miles an hour, till its oil gave out and the engine smashed. The brand of oil that used up quickest was outlasted 8,268 miles by a revolutionary new oil in this impartial, certified test. This new oil exceeded the average mileage of the other 5 oils by all of 7,057 miles! Certified. This longest-lasting oil in the test, which your car can have today—at popular price—is new

IMPARTIAL
Latest available products of 5 leading competitors bought retail by Referee.
New everyday coupes used—identical. Broken-in alike. Engines taken apart for Referee—to assure uniformity.
Cars tuned alike. Same Death Valley route for all. Drivers rotated to even up on skill.
One fill per car. None added. Engines under lock—under scrutiny—every mile.

when the worst of this "festering" attack is nipped in the bud—inhibited—by the life-giving Thialkene inhibitor in new Conoco Nth motor oil.

Now you'll never rashly exceed the proper oil-change period for your car and driving conditions—any more than you ignore traffic rules just to "get away with it." But Certified Proof from the desert that new Conoco Nth could outlast the other oils in the test by as much as 161%, gives you more than mere hopes of long Summer mileage between quarts. Change to Conoco Nth—at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station... today. Continental Oil Company—Pioneers in Bettering America's oil with Synthetics

AND CONOCO Nth OIL OIL-PLATES YOUR ENGINE!

Long the keystone of Conoco success, OIL-PLATING comes from another great Conoco synthetic... man-made under the famed Germ Processed oil patent. By magnet-like action, OIL-PLATING is bonded to inner engine parts. Then it can't all drain down—not even overnight—not while you're using Conoco Nth. So OIL-PLATING is on guard against wear in advance!... and helps mileage, as it did in Death Valley. An OIL-PLATED engine is one more economy you get from a change to popular-priced new Conoco Nth oil.

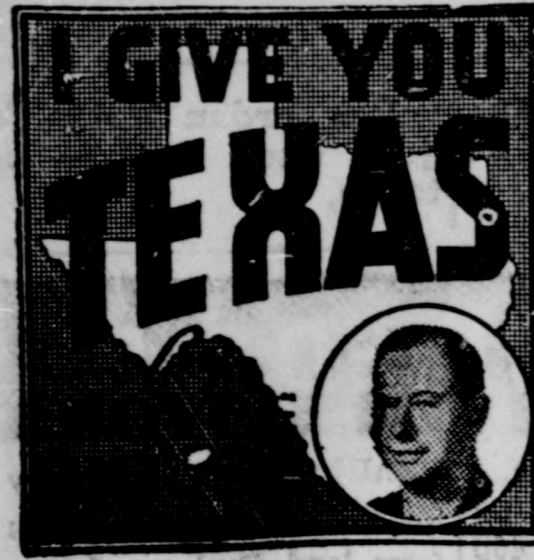

CERTIFIED I hereby certify that the Death Valley Test and related work were thoroughly and fairly conducted. Engine Destruction occurred in each case at the mileage stated.

"Names make news."
When praised for his generosity in accepting an invitation to speak, District Judge Bascom Gist of Tyler replied: "There are two classes of people—those that make speeches and those that listen to them. I would rather make a speech than have to listen to one."
One of the most faithful readers of this column each week is former District Judge Ralph Yarbrough of Austin. Recently, he told me, "Your column two weeks ago was the best you've ever written." To which your columnist replied, "Thanks very much; by the way, all things in that particular column were clipped from other papers and credited to them; I didn't write a line of it." And then you should have seen the judge turn a delicate shade of pink and try to explain away his remark.

A young man (according to a story I hear) stepped out of a taxicab in front of a hotel in Lubbock and remarked to the driver, "I'll have to get a check cashed; I'll be right back; my name is Marvin Brown and I'm the district attorney from Fort Worth." The taxidriver drawled, "Yeah, and my name is Thomas E. Dewey, and I'm the district attorney from New York and I'll just go along with you." The "fare" grinned and they went in together and the hotel cashier cashed the check because the chap really was District Attorney Marvin Brown!

Few years back, your columnist wrote a book, "Were You in Ranger?" and because Amon Carter had made it possible for me to eat regularly during the depression by providing me with a job on the news staff, the first copy of the press was presented to him. Recently when my newest, "Oil Boom," came out, the publisher of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram received a book with this inscription, "The No. 1 copy of the press is presented to the No. 1 Texan."

An Oklahoma editor published two pictures, one of a dilapidated house and the other of an eroded field, and invited his readers to take part in a "You Write the Story" contest. Here is the prize-winning letter, written by an Indian:

Both pictures show white man crazy. Make big teepee. Plow hill. Water wash; wind blow soil. Grass gone, land gone, door gone, window gone; whole place gone to—Buck gone. Squaw, too. Papoose gone. No pig, no corn, no cow, no hay, no pony.

Indian no plow land. Keep grass. Buffalo eat. Indian eat buffalo. Hide make teepee, make moccasin. Indian no make terrace, no build dam, no give d—. All time eat. No hunt job, no hitch-hike, no ask relief. No shoot pig. Great Spirit make grass. Indian no waste anything. Indian no work. White man heap loco.

Ain't civilization wonderful?
(Quoted from L. F. Wade's Jay-ton Chronicle.)

Set Up That Front Line Defense Against Garden Pests
County Home Dem. Agent

Important it is that each of the county's gardeners give some thought to summer gardening, and set up his or her front line defense against vegetable insects. For proper ammunition with which to blow them up, Cameron Siddall, the Bug Man for the Extension Service, says to:

Poison the Cutworms — Cutworms hide under plants or in the soil during the day and feed on the stems or lower leaves at night. Poison bran mash is effective in controlling cutworms and is relatively cheap. Begin control measures when the worms are first found doing damage. The directions for preparing the mash are as follows: Mix 1 tablespoon of paris green or sodium arsenite with 5 lbs. of dry wheat bran. Add 1/2 pint cheap molasses and enough water to moisten. Broadcast at rate of 5 lbs. wet weight per 1/4 acre late in the evening. Broadcast if infestation is general or apply as a thin line along row crops, or 1/2 teaspoonful at the base of plants in hills.

Kill Nematode in hotbeds or frame gardens: Take a broom handle and make holes 10 inches deep and 15 inches apart. Into each pour 1/2 or 1 ounce of carbon disulphide. Step on each hole immediately after the hotbed is poured. Twenty-four ounces of carbon disulphide will treat a hotbed 6x6 ft. in size. As soon as the carbon disulphide is applied, cover the soil with heavy paper. Keep the soil covered with paper for three days, then stir the soil by spading. Two days later the soil is ready for planting the seed, or if a coldframe, the young plants may be set.

Dust for tomato suckfly: The tomato suckfly is a small insect which resembles a mosquito in size and shape. The young are green while the adults are dark in color. This insect feeds on the leaves, causing them to turn a pale yellow and have many black spots about the size of a pinhead. This insect is most active in the spring and summer. Control may be accomplished by sulphur dusted on the plants at the rate of 2 1/2 lbs. per 1/4 acre applied at intervals of 7 to 10 days.

NATIONAL DEFENSE TRAINING COURSES

Austin, Texas, June 16—National defense training courses in water and sewage plant operation are now being offered as part of the curricula in the University of Texas, A. & M. College, and Texas Technological College, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Department as a national defense measure and are tuition free.

The courses provide three months of full-time training for water treatment and sewage plant operators. The courses were designed to meet the need of additional trained water workers and sewage operators to serve in municipal plants and in the plants of military and naval establishments.

The courses include instruction in general principles of sanitation, principles of water treatment, sanitary water analysis, water treatment, plant operation, principles of sewage treatment, sewage analysis, and sewage treatment plant operation. Practical application of sanitary problems is being stressed, and much of the courses has been designated as laboratory work in the water and sewage plants of nearby municipalities.

That each student may obtain the maximum benefits from the defense course, enrollment has been limited to fifteen students per school.

"The State Health Department wishes to commend the University of Texas, Texas A. & M. College, and Texas Technological College for their cooperation in making these courses possible, thus supplying trained professional water and sewage plant operators at a time of national emergency when the need for such personnel in Texas is particularly great," Dr. Cox concluded.

Texas business, steadily gaining, will hit the highest peak in its history during the next year, University of Texas business experts declare.

ISSUES WARNING AGAINST INFERIOR SUN GLASSES

A timely warning against "cheap sun glasses" is issued by John M. Roche of the National Safety Council. It is just good common sense, he says, "to buy the best sun glasses. Usually the cheap ones have lenses of wavy structure, since they are made by casting. This type of glass gives objects a grotesque, distorted appearance and causes the wearer to suffer eyestrain, nervousness and undue fatigue.

"Well-designed and properly built and approved sun glasses go through many manufacturing processes, among which are two dozen inspections," continues Mr. Roche. "Naturally they cannot be purchased for a few cents. Such glasses are made from ophthalmic glass and are free from defects. The surface of the glass does not have scratches, waves or grayness. The very best grade of lenses for sun glasses is ground and polished."

Mrs. Cye Tankersley and Mrs. M. B. Sawyer left Wednesday for Oklahoma.

My Week

by Eleanor Roosevelt

A CHRISTENING

Our drive to Hyde Park one day was very pleasant and we stopped in Saratoga, N. Y., long enough to assist at the christening of a very sweet baby girl. She never cried at all when the water was poured over her head, which I am sure means that some day she is going to give her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Al William Kresse, a very hectic time. You see, I was brought up on the old superstition that babies must cry the "devil" out of them at their christening, and if they don't it will surely come out later on!

We spent the night with a friend and arrived home to face the usual mountains of mail which greet one after two days without any contact with the postman.

SAD LETTER

I found a rather sad letter from an old friend of the President's, who has always been very fond of the sea. Like many other people, this friend adopted an orphan during the last World War. But I think he must have taken it more seriously than the rest of us, for he has kept in touch with him and really helped him and known him well.

The other day, the Daily Mail in London carried the story of this boy, now grown to manhood and following the sea, meeting his death, as have so many other gallant English officers, on his ship, the HMS Patria. He was a first lieutenant and, when someone had to go below to free a hundred or more men who were trapped, instead of ordering a junior officer to do the job, he went himself and was never seen again, but nearly all the men on board were saved.

The story in itself will be one more tradition told on British ships on the seven seas to educate the young. It is the quotation in a letter from his wife to my husband's old friend which I want to give you. She writes:

"I am convinced that when he met this last trial, he maintained that quiet confidence, that unbreakable courage, and that smile of his that indicated peace of mind and soul. Danger at sea, he had always met without flinching, and this is as we must remember him. For my part, I am proud to have been his wife, even if for only eight years, and if his sons (there are two, five and two years old) grow up as straight and as fine and clean as daddy, I shall be satisfied."

DELEGATES TO LEGION AUXILIARY CONVENTION

Mrs. Jim Miller and Mrs. Ches Gore were in Lubbock Saturday and Sunday as delegates from the local American Legion Auxiliary to the Annual 19th District Legion and Auxiliary convention.

BOY SCOUTS RETURN

Troop No. 74 of the Boy Scouts, a local troop sponsored by the American Legion of this place, returned Sunday from a week's encampment at Post, Texas, where during examinations most of them received promotions in the work and achievements.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. French left Monday morning for Abilene and Bell County to visit their son, H. P., Jr., and Mr. French's brother, E. D. French of Killeen.

Miss Lennis Hooelman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Hooelman of Pumpkin Center, Dawson County, and Arnold Burnett, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Burnett of this city were married last Saturday evening at 8:30 at the Methodist parsonage with Rev. Hanks performing the ceremony.

The couple will make their home in Brownfield.

This is a courageous attitude to take, but it must be hard to attain such fortitude of soul. It is the spirit, however, in which the British face all defeats and still keep such high courage then we may be sure that in the end, right must triumph over might. If our own courage and determination can be at the same level, perhaps, before long, might will be on the side of right.

As I write we are having our second day of steady rain. It is the kind of June weather when a fire on the hearth is pleasant. Yesterday I discovered that last year's robins, or their progeny, have returned, not to the same bathroom window, but to the one next to it. Two blue eggs lie in the nest, from which the mother flies away whenever she hears a noise. I really wonder whether they are wet and miserable when the rain beats upon the window and all the protection they have is the ivy vine which grows thick around them.

CHIEF JUSTICE HUGHES

The news that Chief Justice Hughes is retiring on July 1 comes as a shock. He always seemed to be such a vigorous person that I do not associate him with any particular age. It must be a great satisfaction, however, to reach the point where you feel you can lay aside your work and do only the things you want to do the rest of your life.

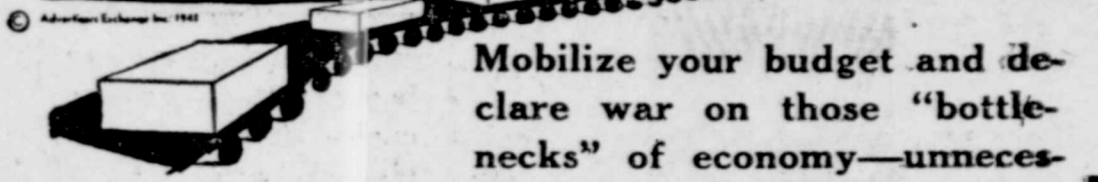

To be able to look back, as Justice Hughes can, on a successful professional career, a good name achieved professionally, a happy home in which children have grown to maturity and started out on their own lives with a satisfactory background, a public life which has brought posts of honor as recognition of his high ability and integrity, all this must give the Chief Justice happiness. His countrymen will rejoice with him and do him honor, both in the present and the future.

I cannot close these few words about him without saying how much I have always admired Mrs. Hughes. It seems to me, she has contributed greatly to the success of his career and that some honor and affection from her countrymen are due her as well.

VALUABLE LIFE

Several days ago I noticed the report in the papers of the death of a woman I have known for a long while. Miss Julia K. Jaffray was associated with the National Committee on Prisons and Prison Labor for 33 years. She came to the United States from Galt, Canada, as stenographer to Miss Helen Varick Boswell, who was secretary of that committee. Miss Jaffray, herself, served as secretary for 25 years. This Canadian woman became a leader and wielded great influence here.

BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

Attendance was somewhat reduced at the Bible study period and preaching hour due to the parade at Lubbock which was attended by many, but the day was well observed.

The meeting of the Brotherhood at the church Monday evening with their wives or girl friends was much enjoyed and the address of the evening by layman Lyman Wren was a great privilege for those who were present and we hope that Mr. Wren may be able to come this way again.

The orchestra under Mr. Horn was present Sunday morning and this being their first attendance they received many compliments on their music and they meet for practice Tuesday evening and meet with the choir for practice Friday evening of each week. The auditorium is well suited for the orchestra with the choir and all lovers of good music are invited to lend their support to the music program.

The pastor by request is leading in Bible study the Young Peoples department each Tuesday evening as they desire a more intensive study than the Bible School affords and any interested are welcome to be present and study with them.

The pastor has been calling personally on many homes in and near town and taking a religious census and presenting a personal appeal that these people align themselves with the church and have their children attend Bible study and we commend this work as very worthy and while each member of the church should take a part in it to make it more effective it is well for the pastor to set the good example.

It is indeed remarkable that here in our own city there are those who live without any regard for God or the church which he personally organized and some give more honor to secret societies organized by men.

Visitors always welcome in all services.

Mrs. Treadaway Requests More Helpers

Work for the local Red Cross unit is progressing better this month, Mrs. T. L. Treadaway, chairman of war relief production, announced this week.

"Our May quota was shipped last week. In it we had 20 layettes, 60 boy's shirts, 42 pairs of men's hospital pajamas, 30 women's dresses and 58 assorted sweaters," explained Mrs. Treadaway.

Mrs. Treadaway also commented on the work done through the officers of the day. These are Mrs. Ike Bailey, Monday; Mrs. Looe Miller, Tuesday; Mrs. R. L. Harris, Wednesday; Mrs. L. R. Rhyne, Thursday; and Mrs. Homer Winston, Friday.

"As this work is very simple, there's really no excuse for the women of Brownfield not making more than our quota for June," said Mrs. Treadaway.

She urged that more women help with this work.

THE METHODIST CHURCH

Our usual Sunday services will be held at the high school building. The pastor's morning subject will be "Paying Our Vows Unto God" and the evening topic "The Proper Motive."

The building committee, at a recent meeting, voted enthusiastically to finish our church both inside and out. They are anxious for every one who possibly can to pay their pledges so the ensuing debt will not be so high. The Methodist people are fortunate indeed to have a pastor and a building committee with so much building knowledge and experience. They have saved us many dollars, so let us in turn cooperate with them. The saying "A chain is as strong as its weakest link" is true in our case as well as in all others.

It is hoped by the officials that the plan of letting individuals and families pay for the pews will be met enthusiastically by the members of our church and by any others who might want one.

The present plan is to have the special opening services in the new building the first Sunday in August when we hope to have our Bishop Ivan Lee Holt of Dallas. For these plans to materialize the support of every member and well wisher must be had.

The union meeting of the young people will be held in the church lawn June 25. After their program home made ice cream and cake will be served.

Mrs. Flem McSpadden spent Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week in Austin with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Slavin. Cheese, who has been visiting her sister, returned to Brownfield with Mrs. McSpadden.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernal Rentfro and Mrs. Elmore Carver of Amarillo spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. John Kendrick. Mrs. Kendrick returned to Amarillo with them for a short visit.

Glamorous Alice Faye has an ideal role in the latest musical from 20th Century-Fox, "The Great American Broadcast," which stars Jack Oakie, John Payne, and Cesar Romero with her. Alice has plenty of opportunity to give out with some new numbers especially written for the picture by Harry Warren and Mack Gordon.

The Omaha meeting will be one of the largest gatherings ever held in history of American fraternalism. More than 2,500 women from the 45 states in which Woodmen Circles have members will attend. Marked by colorful pageantry, a marching parade of more than 1500 costumed members of societies, drill teams, bands, and drum and bugle corps, and an evening pageant in the Omaha City auditorium, the meeting will present a striking spectacle for the residents of the convention city.

These ladies going will take part in drill pageant and marching parade. Meeting will close on Thursday, June 26 and Brownfield delegation is expected to return home the 28th or 29th.

Baptist Women Study Missions

The W. M. S. of the First Baptist Church continued their Mission Study at the church with an interesting Discussion of Present, Past and Future conditions in Europe. Twenty-seven women were present and the topics discussed were both enjoyable and informing.

Including what we can do today to better world conditions, aside from giving to missions, and praying for our work in this war torn country is sewing and knitting for the refugee women and children. Thursday is Baptist day at the Red Cross headquarters, three doors east of the National Bank. Come and do your bit to help with the work for this is our part in this war.

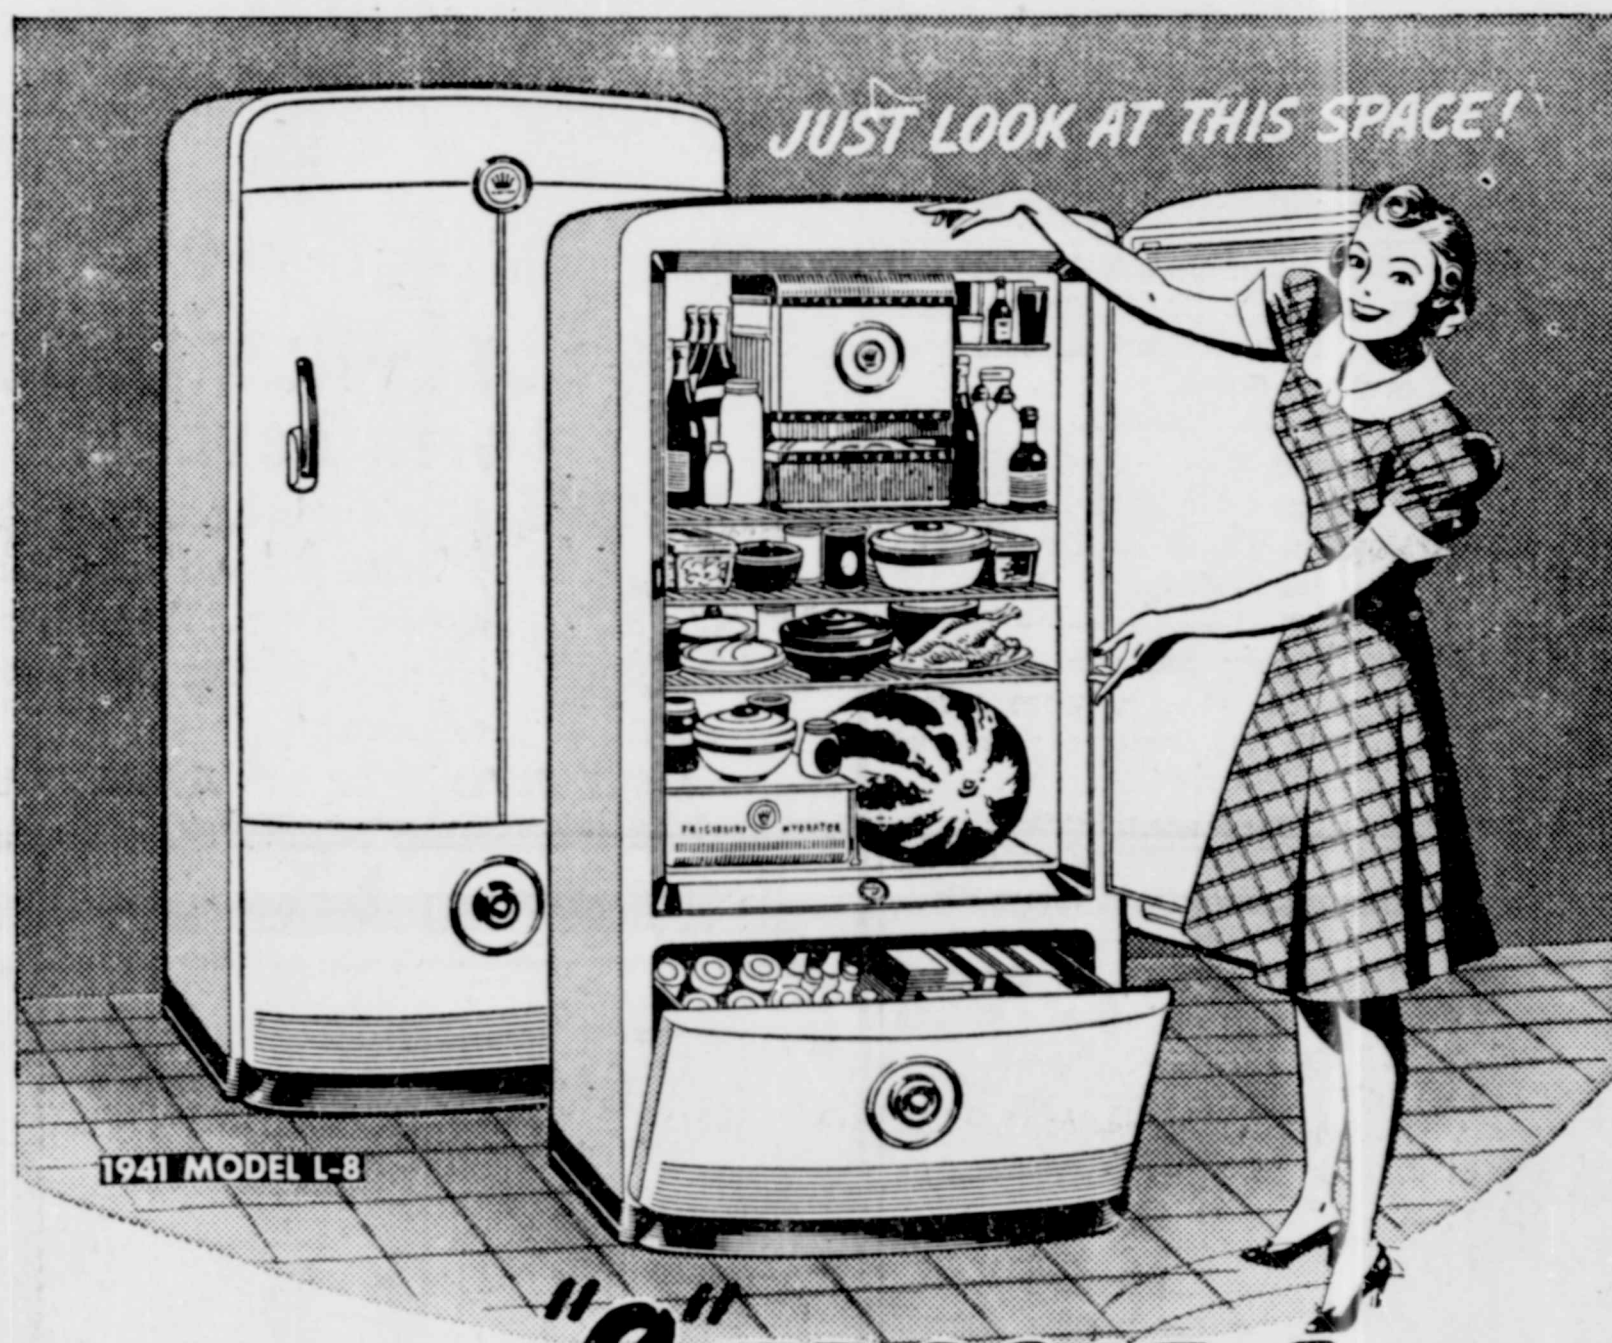

Next Monday will be Regular Business and Planning Day, for the third quarter's work. Be sure to have your quarterly reports ready to give at that time. The executive committee will meet at 2 o'clock for their planning, and making out of the reports. Be sure to be there. Only a Frigidaire offers
performance
THERE'S NOTHING ELSE LIKE IT!

"Cold Wall" means perfect refrigeration

- Foods do not dry out
- They need not be covered
- Food odors do not pass from one food to another
- "Cold Wall" costs no more than ordinary refrigerators
- Only Frigidaire has it!

IMPORTANT NOTICE:

Many people still think that all electrical refrigerators are alike, one as good as another. Nothing could be further from the facts. There is a vast difference in refrigerators (just as there is a difference in automobiles or houses)—not only in appearance, but in first cost and in upkeep as well. Some cost more to operate; some freeze more ice cubes at one time; some freeze faster than others; some simply don't "stand up" during hottest weather when you need them most. Yes, there is a difference in refrigerators!

Frigidaire has built and sold more than six million electrical refrigerators! No other manufacturer can approach this record. And—Frigidaire has pioneered and developed practically every major improvement that has been made during the last quarter century. Now comes COLD WALL—the greatest advancement yet. It is truly "tomorrow's refrigerator today!" Years ahead in performance, there's nothing else like it. That's why we say—See Cold Wall before you buy any refrigerator. It costs no more to buy—or own!

BROWNFIELD FRIDAY — SATURDAY TEXAS

AN APPEAL TO VOTERS

to fill the office. But few men are endowed with both talents. Will you vote for the man with only the wit to win, or for the one with ability to fill. I beseech you to look beyond the election.

Texas is soon to elect a United States Senator, a Federal officer. He will be this State's contribution to the Statesmanship of the Nation, a member of the greatest body in the nation, perhaps the world. What will we send them? The Senate deals with the weal or the woe of the entire nation. They sit on the safety valve of National legislation, we think sometimes too tight. They indeed are the upper house, supposed to be composed of conservative reasonable men well versed in Statecraft. They are lawmakers of the Nation. The original plan was that the Representatives (Congressmen) represented the people of their districts, the Senators represent the State and the Nation. Think of the many and varied important problems confronting them. And new ones arising all the time. In recent years our Government has become very complicated. It is composed of such a variety of multiplicities, and such multiplicity of varieties, that no one-ideaed man can fit in. No one voter, in fairness to his fellow citizen ought to exact predominance of his one hobby. Though elected by Texas, a Senator is a National officer.

In the United States Senate, a warhorse (to match the one we have), not a songbird. We need a man with reason, not with resin. A man of vision, not verse. One who can wade through briars, thorns and rocky obstacles, as well as through flower beds, and one with a ceiling high enough to climb the mountain problems, ever emerging in our National affairs.

We've had our myth and music, fun and fables, in the last several years, now let's get down to business. This is a serious matter. This office is a great trust and National service. It isn't a sports-trophy to be handed to a mere winner. We can get good music, every hour, day and night over radios (north of the border). We can read our Bible every night, go to the Church of our choice every Sunday, where able ministers, well versed in the scriptures, can feed the hungry soul, but we can get Statesmanship, only at the polls, ever so seldom.

How Much Do Farm Families Spend For Cotton Goods?

County Home Dem. Agent

"Two-thirds of the families of the U. S. live on less than $1500.00 per year and are dressing their families on less than $160.00 per year," quoting from The Outlook for Farm Family Living 1941, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture.

Average over a period of eight years with data from records of 8,500 families consisting of 3.5 persons per family show an average expenditure for clothing per family $83.75, or $24.30 per person. The average expenditure for family for cotton goods was $23.53.

Looks like the $25.00 worth of cotton stamps farm families are qualifying for will meet the family's needs for cotton goods according to the above figure. In areas where the cotton stamp plan is now operating, specific items most popular among stamp-users under the cotton stamp plan are: men's shirts, men's pants, men's underwear, ladies' dresses and housecoats, children's clothing, sheets, curtains, towels, piece goods, overalls, men's stocking.

Studies show that an estimated 37 percent of cotton stamps were used to buy household goods, 27 percent for men's wear, 17 percent for ladies' wear, 10 percent for boy's wear, 5 percent for girl's wear, and 4 percent for infants wear.

To get the most benefit from the cotton stamps, the family should begin to plan now for their cotton needs.
