How Well Do You Know The Business Men Of Brownfield

Like Crossword Puzzles? Well, You Will Find a Good One In This Issue. Earn Some Money, Study The Rules. Not So Hard When You Get Started.

Starting this week, the Herald has one of the most novel advertising contests that it has been our privilege to see. Most all such contests have been given wide birth by the Herald for the past several years, as most of them cost the individual advertisers too much for the good derived. We put in hours of study before launching this one, finally coming to the conclusion that each advertiser would get 100 cents for every dollar invested and more. This is a copyright plan, and cannot be used by any other paper that does not buy it.

The plan is simply this. The pictures of 93 Brownfield business and professional men and women will appear in the first ad this week with just a number under it—just their faces in a comical pose, but it will be their real faces. In one place you will find a list of prizes offered the person that can solve most of them or all of them. This week we will also give the rules and regulations of the contest. Also, there will be printed a list of the firms represented, but none of the individuals of the firm. It is your problem to tie together the individual of the firm with his picture, telling as much about her or she in a brief way as you can. The last issue will be run Friday, November 28, but the contest will end promptly at 6 P. M., Wednesday, November 26.

Competent and disinterested judges will be selected to judge the contest. We are going to do the best we can to select those who have no relatives or close friends in the contest. We do hope and expect to have quite a lot or work for the judges however. And let us state that you do not have to reside in town to enter this contest; anywhere in the trade area. Providing only that you bring or mail your papers in plenty time to be in our hands when the contest ends. Positively no papers will be delivered to the judges that reach this office after 6 P. M., Wednesday, Nov. 26th.

To the folks who like to work crossword puzzles, here is something that is really interesting, and at the same time you stand to get a prize for your efforts. Many have already told us that they are going to compete, but none can be an employee of the Herald office, or any of his folks.

Mr. L. O. Johnson, of Pampa, who is personally known to several residents of Brownfield, together with the Junior partner in this firm solicited ads. Jackson, jr., whom most of you know personally, and you also know that he's far from being a high pressure salesman, says that Mr. Johnson is not a high pressure salesman either. He just simply laid the proposition before the advertiser and the advertiser was the sole judge. In other words it had to sell itself and did. Whereas, only 70 people were sold in Pampa with 15,000, 93 bought it in Brownfield with some 5,000 people.

Just a tip for prospective contestants: Mr. Johnson informed us that neatness as well as excellence scored points with judges. For instance, some will get a small notebook with 93 pages in it. Here is John Doe, member of the hardware firm of Doe & Doe. Some contestants will not only tell what firm John belongs to, but will give his hobby's the club or lodge and church he belongs to, what part he performs in his firm, and select a picture of some hardware article to set it off. Same with a jeweler, druggist, insurance man, etc. Use your own initiative; be original. Work out your own leads and ideas. True the prizes don't amount to a great deal, but you can work them at odd times, and you'll get a great kick placing old Bill Jones or Tom Smith where they belong. Read the rules and regulations carefully.

It will be more interesting than any puzzle, and you may get a few extra Christmas dollars for your trouble.

Farm Bureau Members Urged To Meet

The Eighth Annual Convention of Texas Farm Bureau Federation will be held in the Texas Hotel at Fort Worth on December 2 and 3. I am calling all members together at the District Court room next Saturday afternoon, November 22 nd. at three o'clock to select delegates to represent Terry county in that Convention. We are expecting Secretary of Agriculture, Claud Wickard, President Edward O'Neil and other national and state leaders to address the convention. Important resolutions will be submitted for the voting delegate to approve or disapprove in making up our 1942 program. So let me urge all members who have recently lapsed from our rolls to pay up and attend this meeting, help select delegates and also go to the convention if possible. And here I would like to extend another invitation to all farmers who have never joined to do so now and help shape our future programs to our best advantage.

The politicians who represent Labor and Industry are trying to pass legislation to put a ceiling on all farm products, and at the same time, let labor and industry go unrestricted. This type of Legislation would be quite unfair to agriculture, and is only one of our many problems to look after. We need your help.

Agriculture is going to play a major roll in whipping Germany. Once more our armies and those of our allies cannot fight with empty bellies and we are only asking for a fair play with Labor and Industry. I am doubly proud our branch of government has never called a strike, refused to plow, nor has caused our Gallant President to gray faster by reason of Agriculture not doing its full share in the National Emergency. So, Brother Farmer, let's pull together to help whip Germany again, and maybe our leaders, and those of our allies will not be so stupid in dealing with Germany as a nation after this war. Hitler and his bunch could not do what has been done without the German people behind him. So, if America is bound to help put those people under control again, America should help to see to it that they are properly looked after to keep them from ever arming again. . . . Wheeler or no Wheeler!

Respectfully yours,

Another Pretty Week For Harvesting

For the third week in succession we have had almost cloudless days. Tuesday of this week looked a bit threatening, and the weather man promised snow flurries, that failed to materialize, but as this is written, Wednesday afternoon, the wind is drifting from southwest to northwest, and perhaps north, and the air is quite a bit cooler than for several days. In fact, we have had a real Indian summer weather for a week or more.

In the meantime, the farmers are sparing no daylight time in getting out every lock of cotton possible, and many tell us that if we can have two more weeks of clear weather, the bulk of the cotton crop will be ginned. In the meantime, most of the maize and other head crops have been dehorned, farmers doing that of mornings before the heavy dews was off cotton. Corn will stand until January or February.

Everyone is thankful for this very fine weather we are having, which by the way is the longest clear spell since early last spring.

Mrs. M. E. Jacobson spent Wednesday in Lubbock.

RECEIVED AT

ASK THAT STRIKES BE STOPPED

The following telegram was sent to Congressman George Mahon and Senator Tom Connally Tuesday:

For Christ sake do something about these labor strikes. It being evident that the President refuses to use his authority to terminate strikes in defense industry we urge you to use yours. We would like to see the repeal of the Wagner act and your refusal to vote further appropriations until action is taken concerning labor strikes.

Reply from Tom Connally:

T. R. Black, Secretary
Terry County Board of Development
Brownfield, Texas

Telegram received. Have repeatedly protested against strikes in national defense production plants on the floor of the Senate and in the press. On June 12th I offered an amendment to the draft act providing for the taking over and operation of such plants where production was delayed by strikes or labor difficulties. This amendment was adopted by the Senate by a vote of 67 to 7 but failed of passage in the House. Monday I introduced a bill in the Senate freezing the status of employer and employees existing prior to the time of taking over. Of course, shall vigorously press passage of bill. Let me call your attention to published reports of introduction of my bill.

Negro Kills Gaines County Man

Considerable excitement was created Saturday night, when it became known that two white men had been stabbed by negroes five miles east of Seagraves, who had tried to stop arguments and drunken fights between the blacks. C. H. McNeal, 32 was stabbed through the heart and died before reaching the hospital at Seagraves. His brother Ordell McNeal, 28, was also badly stabbed but it is reported he will have a chance of recovery.

Three negroes, two men and a woman were said to have been featured in the assault, and officers of Terry and Gaines county immediately formed a posse of 50 armed men to hunt for the blacks. These men were determined to get the murderers dead or alive. The scene of the assault was just a few miles over the Terry-Gaines line in the latter county.

Evidently the negroes fled northward, for they were arrested Sunday morning at the Foster Gin in this county. They were here from Waco picking cotton, and had become drunk and rowdy Saturday afternoon. They are languishing in jail at Seminole awaiting the call of the grand jury which is now subject to the call of the District Judge any time now in this district.

We understand that only one of the negroes wielded the knife, which was on the order of a butcher knife, according to Sheriff Joe Price of this county. But the other negro man is said to have held the other victim while being stabbed, and he will get a long, long trip, himself, to Huntsville.

The negroes were located and arrested by Chick Holmes, Terry County Deputy Sheriff.

Use Of Advertising Urged At Convention

Hot Springs, Va., Nov. 14—American advertisers were advised Friday to use advertising to promote an expanding "dynamic economy" as the best answer to threats to the advertising industry.

James Webb Young, senior consultant of the J. Walter Thompson Company, advised the joint convention of the Association of National Advertisers and the American Association of Advertising Agencies to use the powerful weapon advertising has created for a real consumer education and for a renewal of faith in free enterprise.

Scarlet Fever Warning

Mothers are warned to keep their children home from school if they have a sore throat accompanied by running nose, watery eyes, sneezing or coughing. As you have probably heard we have some cases of Scarlet Fever in the county and in order to stop the spread of this disease extra precautions must be taken.

For your information the contagious or "catching" stage of this disease is similar to that of Measles, chicken pox, Whooping cough, and diphtheria. The first three or four days that a child is ill is the contagious stage. All of these disease are transmitted by secretions from the nose and throat.

If your child has a sore throat please keep him at home, not only from school, but from picture shows, parties and all sort of gatherings, as this is where the contact in these cases takes place and the spreading of the disease is rapid.

Well Baby Conferences At Courthouse

On Wednesday November 25th the first well baby conference will be held at the courthouse from 2 until 5 p. m.

This conference is open to all babies from the time of birth until one year of age, and consists of a general check up of the child. Weighing, heart and lung examinations, and advice on the proper feedings of each individual child will be given.

There will be a local physician presiding at the conference and we hope to see a large number of Brownfield babies present. The Five County Health Unit plans to make this a monthly occurrence and in that way include all the babies in the county.

Some arrangement is being made for the transportation of mothers and babies from the rural district to the conference. These should be completed by the second conference, which is to be held about a week before Christmas. Announcement of the date will be made in the paper.

There is no charge for the service at the conference and all the local physicians will preside in rotation. It will not matter who is your family physician or how long it is since your last visit to him, you are still invited to bring your child to the conference.

Please understand that no ill or sick babies are to be brought to the well baby conference.

W. S. Brumage, Director Five County Health Unit.

Northwest Texas Conference

The Northwest Texas Conference of the Methodist church finished its work at Big Spring Sunday afternoon, and Monday dailies made announcement of the appointments and changes. Brownfield people will be pleased to learn that Rev. H. W. Hanks has been sent back as pastor of the local church for another year. Rev. R. E. Dyess is the pastor of the Brownfield circuit.

Rev. O. P. Clark of Lubbock, was again appointed district superintendent, and other appointments in the Lubbock district in this immediate area are, Meadow, G. H. Bryant; Plains, W. E. Anderson; Ropes, Lloyd Mahew; Seagraves, I. E. Walker; Seminole, J. H. Crawford.

The many old friends of Rev. J. B. McReynolds, who was pastor of the Brownfield church in early days, will be pleased to learn that he has been promoted to district Superintendent of the Perryton district, which corresponds to the office of Presiding Elder under the old Southern Methodist Episcopal setup, before northern and southern Methodists united.

Stafford Still Liking His Job

We had a letter the past week from our good friend J. D. Stafford, from San Diego, Cal., stating that he was well pleased with his job in the airplane factory in that city. He also sent a clipping "Defense Widows" which Mrs. Stafford is requesting that we publish. But the burden of Mr. Stafford's letter was about a Terry county boy that all of us can be proud of.

He referred to Leon Rhyme, a marine. Mr. Stafford stated that there were thousands of marines that had been in the service longer than Leon, but had not advanced so far. He was made private first class a few months ago, and was recently advanced to corporal, and that when you get such promotion in the Marines, you surely have to earn it.

Mr. Stafford says that Leon is a boy that any mother and dad would be proud to claim as son.

Local Man Shot Twice By Gunman Here Last Friday

Man Still At Large Said To Have Done The Shooting. Officers Have Combed This And Adjoining Counties. Must Have Slipped Through Net.

About two o'clock last Friday afternoon, the city was thrown into quite a bit of excitement, when a man alleged to be Woodrow Brown, shot Dean Harold twice in the neck, near the depot. Harold made for the depot, where the doors were locked, and he managed to elude Brown. Some other shots were fired, it is said, two of them lodging in the depot door.

Brown was said to have hurried across the tracks where at the point of his pistol, he took possession of a pickup belonging to Mrs. J. W. Swin, and made his getaway. He abandoned this before getting out of town, taking a light sedan, driving it to a point near Wellman. It was reported that he stole another car, which was wrecked near Seagraves, but officers are not sure Brown was responsible for this wreck.

Both men were employed by the Goodpasture Grain, Co., and are alleged to have had an argument over some tools, when the shooting started. Harold was rushed to the local hospital, where his condition is said to be satisfactory a wound being on each side of the neck. Sheriff Joe Price and deputy Mon Telford, Constable Luther Jones, highway patrolmen, as well as city officers have combed the south and southwest section of the county, but have failed to find any trace of Brown. Apparently he has made good his escape for the time being.

Evidently Brown believed that he had killed Harold, as he told the lady from whom he snatched the pickup that he had killed a man and must get away. One of the most serious of the offenses held against Brown, if caught, will be taking a car at the point of a gun. As serious as was the incident, there is also a funny side—to some—about the matter.

It seems that when Brown was charging after Harold, shooting as he came, the depot doors were locked, and station agent Bob Harriss found himself locked out with a gunman loose. It is stated that Bob threatened to fire the whole personnel if they did not immediately open the door for him to get in.

This may be some jokes on Bob by his friends. Anyway, like it is said of him, so with us, that would have been one time we had rather been in looking out, than out looking in.

Farmers to Vote on Quotas Again

COLLEGE STATION, Nov 15 For the fifth consecutive year, Texas cotton farmers will vote in a cotton marketing quota referendum, Fred Rennels, assistant administrative officer of the AAA in Texas, has announced.

The voting date has been set for Saturday, December 13, and quotas will not be in effect on the 1942 crop unless approved by two-thirds of the eligible producers who vote in the referendum, he said.

If quotas are in effect, farmers planting within acreage allotments may market all cotton grown on their allotments. Regardless of whether quotas are approved, conservation phases of the AAA program will remain the same, he explained.

Cotton is one of the surplus crops for which no increase is asked in the Food-For Freedom campaign, Rennels said in explaining that with restricted world markets the United States has on hand a supply of about twice the size of recent crops.

Approval of marketing quotas to help adjust the surplus will make possible continued use of loans, the AAA official said. Under provisions of the AAA Act of 1938, as amended, loans are prohibited when quotas are rejected by producers.

Collapse of foreign markets and the consequent drop in American exports from 6.2 million bales to 1.1 million bales, together with the fact that there is already enough cotton on hand to fill an extra year's needs, highlights the cotton situation. Since the slump is due primarily to war and naval blockades, cotton exports probably will not increase any great extent during the present season, he pointed out.

New Market For Texas Cotton

College Station, Nov. 17—There is a new, almost untouched market for cotton that will use around 750,000 bales a year if only 10 percent of the potential market is captured.

The field is that of insulation. Use of cotton for this purpose is apparently past the experimental stage.

Most cotton insulation to date has been used in home construction. Tests, however, show that the lightness and cohesiveness of cotton insulation make it a natural where settings by vibration is a factor.

For this reason manufacturers are turning to cotton insulation in refrigerator cars and trucks and in household refrigerators. The product is now being tested for use in marine and airplane construction.

Cotton insulation material is impregnated with a fire resistant agent and houses insulated against cold, heat, and sound with cotton treated in this manner are actually more fire-proof than non-insulated structures.

Levelland Votes To Issue Plant Bonds

The bonds will bear interest not to exceed 3.5 and must be retired by the end of 30 years.

Some of the things that Texas Technological college is burdened to find out, are, a barley that will be well suited to our climate, and (sometimes) shy rainfall; to find a more local building material, such as brick and tile; to investigate the coring of oil wells, and last but not the least, sandstorms and static electricity. Just a word to this department at the college: When and if you find a way that is practical to eliminate static from print paper, you'll have the lasting friendship of the newspapers of west Texas and similar areas who will call you heroes and worship at your shrine. Indeed, they'll be all out for any free publicity about the college that you may send, and like it. If you need any cussers while investigating sandstorms and static, just call in the newspaper fraternity.

This kentry newsman, far removed from the seat of the place in our great nation where coal is removed from the bowels of the earth, is not very familiar with mining. About all the digging we ever did was wells, cisterns, post holes and fish bait. We don't quite understand the term "captive mines". But if that means what we think, we'd suggest that the authorities be, throw enough troops around them to "recapture" them, and put them to production for the defense of our nation. With this humble soul, organized labor has allowed their racketeering leaders to make a plum ass of the whole bunch, and if organized labor wishes to stand any higher with the general public than a jackass at the end of this struggle, they'll refrain from further strike action. But will they?

In a recent speech, Secretary Knox stated that the United States has been patient with Japan to point almost unmatched in the history of international relations, and intimated that "Itchy" the Jap had tried the patience of this nation to the point where the "hour of decision has been reached."

The Herald almost always goes all out with the president, but sometimes we believe that he has been misled, or has not fully considered some propositions. For instance the statement credited to him recently in which he was said to have asked the ways and means committee for additional taxes on the people to absorb the purchasing power in order to "prevent further sharp increases in the cost of living." Authorities, who have apparently studied the matter, state that neither wage increase nor business income advanced as fast as the cost of living. There might be a point reached in which the nations' law makers, by pyramiding taxes, could kill the goose that laid the golden egg. People must live, and they must be able to pay taxes allotted to them. True we must be prepared for sacrifices, but it is not good for morale to make people suffer.

Of course he may not give a rap what we may think of him, but after this affair is over, and it will be over sometime, John L. Lewis and his ilk who have held up defense production when it is needed to keep civilization and freedom alive, will be classified by the average American in the same class that Benedict Arnold was held after the Revolutionary war, and to this day. And there are some others, some holding high positions in this nation, who will not be far behind Lewis on the

PREDICTED FLU EPIDEMIC MAY BE HERE

Austin, Texas Nov. 17—Fulfilling a prediction made several months ago by the State Department of Health, an epidemic of influenza in Texas is represented by the 1392 cases reported for the week just ending, according to Doctor Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. This total is 6 times greater than that shown for the same week in the preceding 7 years.

"Neglecting proper treatment of influenza, or allowing the patient to be up too soon may have disastrous results Doctor Cox warned, since persons suffering from influenza are particularly susceptible to other infections." Doctor Cox emphasized the importance of guarding against the "flu" drinking plenty of water, eating simple, nourishing foods, outdoor exercise, plenty of sleep in a well ventilated room, and sensible dress according to the weather were stressed as best precautions.

"Pneumonia, frequently resulting from influenza, is a very dangerous complication", Doctor Cox stated, and advised that a patient go to bed immediately upon the first appearance of a cold and place himself under competent medical care.

M. G. PHILLIPS PASSES

M. G. Phillips, 71, a native of Mississippi, but a long time West Texan, passed away Wednesday night at the family home near midnight, after a lingering illness of nearly two years. Mr. Phillips was a mighty good man, a devoted father and faithful companion. Funeral services are to be held today, Friday 21, at 2:00 p. m., at the First Baptist Church. Rev. Avery Rogers will officiate.

Burial in the Terry County Memorial Cemetery will follow under the auspices of the Masonic lodge. In his early days, deceased was a printer and publisher of a paper in Mississippi. Since coming to this section, he has been a carpenter, and was rated as a very fine mechanic.

Besides his faithful wife, he leaves four sons, Gib, of Wellman, Bill, Elmer and Norris of this city. Three daughters also survive, Mrs. Charley Clark, Durant, Okla.; Mrs. L. R. Anderson, Sonora, Texas, and Mrs. W. R. Benton, Tokio.

Our god friend, J. M. Young, who always comes up for more with a smile, was in this to offer his dollar for another year of the home county paper.

DOCTOR AND DENTIST TONE UP OFFICES

This great weekly had been hearing of the great transformation taking place in the Dr. John R. Turner suite of offices on the ground floor of the Hotel Brownfield building, and the dental office of Dr. S. H. Parish, adjoining. So we called Tuesday afternoon, and was permitted to inspect the office and laboratory of Dr. Parish and found that while he already sported an average dental office, the remodeling has added at least 100 per cent to it.

A new sound proof ceiling has been added, as well as the newest inlaid flooring. The walls and the fixtures have been painted in the laboratory, and fitted up with the latest approved manner. Both, Dr. Parish and Dr. Turner will use the same waiting room as heretofore, but different plans will be used.

As Dr. Turner has not received his new flooring, and besides was busy with patients, we failed to see the interior of his suite of offices.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe J. McGowan visited Bill McGowan in Austin last week and attended the Texas T. C. U. Game.

A district meeting of the FFA was held here on Wednesday November 19 at 5 o'clock. Teachers and pupils from the following schools attended: Wilson, Plains, Meadow, Brownfield, Tahoka, Wellman, Union, New Home, and Ropes. Mr. Ryan, area supervisor from Lubbock had charge of the meeting.

The local agriculture classes have been studying about contours and how to run contour lines. Any farmers living near town, who want lines run, can notify the agriculture teacher and he and the boys will run them for you if possible.

The boys are feeding about forty calves this year and all of them are doing well.

D. S. Day of Lamesa spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Mon Telford.

November 14th was "Home Food Supply Achievement Day" for the Home Demonstration club which met with Mrs. V. L. Hudson, food demonstrator for the club this year.
There were only nine members present and one visitor, Mrs. Norton of N. M.
Miss Blanton discussed foods and judged canned products.
Mrs. Hudson took the group to her cellar and showed more than 300 containers of food which she had canned this year.
Mrs. Hudson has 25 varieties of canned products which includes, fruits, vegetables and meat, all neatly labeled and arranged conveniently on shelves.
Besides canned food there were pumpkins, green peppers and boxes of green tomatoes, each wrapped separately to be used as they ripen.
While most of her food supply was home grown we saw some elderberries from N. M., and a box of east Texas black walnuts.

ens, hogs, frame garden, dried peas, beans, etc., this family of five have a bountiful supply of food for which Mrs. Hudson gives Home Demonstration work much credit.

Last, but not least, Mrs. Hudson has a row of seed on a shelf in her cellar awaiting 1942.

While its against club rules to serve refreshments except on special occasions after showing so much delicious food Mrs. Hudson hadn't the heart to send us home hungry so she served open faced sandwiches and coffee.

The next meeting is to be with Mrs. J. J. Woodard Nov. 25. Each member is requested to bring a sample of food made from whole wheat flour using any recipe you prefer. Whether you can do this or not please try to be present and have a part in planning the educational exhibit to be displayed soon.

THRIFTY NEEDLE CLUB

The club met Nov. 7 in the home of Mrs. Smith. Eleven members and two visitors were present.

Piecing a quilt was enjoyed by each member.
During the business meeting, Mrs. Newsome was elected President and Marie Carter, Secretary and Reporter.

Delicious refreshments of cookies and hot chocolate were served. The next meeting will be at Mrs. Oliver's Nov. 21.

Mrs. James Bishop of Los Angeles, Cal., is visiting Mrs. Lala Shaw and Miss Minnie Hazel Gore.

BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

Average attendance last Sunday 367 registering in the Bible study period which is little more than 50 per cent of the enrollment. We have room now to accommodate an average attendance of 500 and should have them each Sunday morning. Some who attended the convention at Abilene made reports but reports are very difficult to make on a great gathering and our Texas convention is the largest of any such meeting in the United States. Out standing speakers were Homer Price Rainey, Pat M. Neff, Senator Josh Lee, of Oklahoma, Dr. E. Y. Mullens, Secretary Foreign Mission Board, Dr. J. B. Lawrence, Secretary Home Mission Board, W. W. Melton our own state Secretary and last but far from least our own Geo. W. Truett, without doubt the best loved preacher among us, and many of these addresses will appear from time to time in the Baptist standard and should be read by all who wish to be informed on Baptist work.

We are most concerned right now about the people of Brownfield and surrounding community who do not attend church regularly and are classified as non church going and we wish to extend to them a welcome they cannot afford to ignore. Some of them have been leaders in church work in other fields but have moved here among strangers and have not assumed their former acknowledged obligations but greatly need the influence of the church and the cause of Christ greatly needs their attendance upon the church services, and when they come to know us better they may like us. We have places of responsibility and leadership waiting for them. Visitors are welcome.

Wednesday services, Mid week Bible study 7:30 P. M.

Notice every member of the Church of Christ. The Business Meeting Sunday afternoon at 3:00 will be for the purpose of discussing the building plan. We are greatly in need of a new building, as all know, and we must have the help of every member to put this program over. It will be impossible for the leadership of the congregation to put this over without your help, so be sure and attend this meeting.

MISS BEAN RETURN TO ARTESIA, N. M.

Miss Margaret Bean, who has been employed at the Treadaway-Daniell hospital for the past ten months, resigned recently and returned to Artesia, N. M. Miss Bean was one of the most efficient nurses ever employed by the hospital staff. Always a willing worker wherever needed, cheering the sick and lonely.

Miss Bean made many friends while in Brownfield, and will be greatly missed by all who know her. We wish for this very promising young lady much happiness in her new position and environment in the future.

Bob Stahler, son of Mrs. Bertha Stahler of this city, has recently been transferred from the 38th Reconnaissance Sqd. at Albuquerque N. M., to the Aviation Cadets at Kelly Field, Texas. Mrs. Stahler's other son, Lt. Charles Stahler is now Aide-De-Camp to Brigadier General, Karl S. Bradford, commanding general of 1st Calvary at Fort Bliss.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH NOTES

We had a good attendance last Sunday, with several visitors. The Junior Sunday school class, taught by Mrs. Dennis, put on a splendid opening service. Let everyone be on time next Sunday as we intend to start at exactly 10 o'clock.

The church board met last week and Mr. Crawford Burrow was chosen chairman and Mr. C. S. Schaffer, Secretary. Sunday morning the church congregation offered the office of honorary Elder upon Mr. W. B. Stinson.

Next Sunday's sermon will be on the subject, "Partnership With God". Christianity is not a form or worship—not merely believing certain things—it is a way of living.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Sunday school 10 o'clock Morning worship 11 o'clock - King's Messengers 5 o'clock. No night service.

The subject of the sermon Sunday morning will be "The Christian Belief About God" We invite you and your friends to this service. There is a class for you in our Bible school.

There will be a special Thanksgiving worship service at our church on Thanksgiving morning Nov. 27th. at 10 o'clock. We understand that this is to be the only church service in town on Thanksgiving morning and we invite everyone to come and give thanks to God with us for his goodness to us and to America.

M. C. Duffey of the Tokio section was in this week to get the Herald started to his landlord, Mr. A. S. Joiner of Hamlin, Texas.

W. M. Vernon, principal of the Junior high school was in to renew before we put a red ring around his name.

C. C. Freeman, route 1, Seagraves, was in Wednesday afternoon and subscribed for the Herald and daily and Sunday Morning Avalanche.

The Fidelis Matrons Sunday School class of the Baptist church will meet in the home of Mrs. E. C. Davis Monday at 7:30 P. M. for a covered dish supper. All are urged to be present.

I never visit Laredo but what I remember it as it was when I first saw it, in November of 1920. Upon alighting from the I. & G. N. train, the traveler found out what had happened to a goodly portion of the hacks over the United States that had been displaced by taxis, for a line of 25 frayed carriages drawn by sad eyed nags was in waiting, each with a shouting Mexican driver. The principal streets were not paved but there were stepping stones at the intersections and the drivers of the carriages and of flivvers would stop and let the pedestrian escape being spattered with mud and water.

There were orange trees and exotic blooms and you heard Spanish on all sides—even from the motormen and the policemen. There were more signs in Spanish than in English; and a soda dispenser, after filling your order (which you'd given in English) would resume his conversation with friends in Spanish.

It was all very picturesque—but it made one who was young and far from home feel very lonesome. For three days the weather did its best to add to the feeling of depression for a slow, cold drizzle fell. One who was seeking sunshine in which to build up his strength was bound to think longingly, under such circumstances, of the little town of Cotulla—halfway between San Antonio and Laredo—where the train had stopped and all the passengers hurried over to a long table in the hotel and sat down to a meal of bountiful proportions.

And so it is hardly to be wondered at that I retraced by journey as far as Cotulla and spent a winter there.

Laredo has changed greatly in 21 years. Can it really be that 21 full years have passed since then? Streets are paved; hacks have disappeared; coffee shops and hotel rooms are air-conditioned; stores are modern; but there is still the atmosphere of romance-dark-eyed señoritas, musical Spanish, vendors with trays of queer candy, lovely parks, and just below the city (now twice the population of 1920) rolls the Rio Grande and on the other side is a foreign land.

Coming events cast their shadows a long way before: The first political announcement your columnist has noted has already appeared in the Fort Bend Reporter and it is that of C. D. (Clem) Myers for county clerk, "subject to the action of the Democratic primaries in July 1942, and the endorsement of the Jay-bird association".

The clamor for a special session of the Legislature has died down to a whisper before the press and public throughout the State, united in opposing needless turmoil and expense.

The Post Office Department in Washington was looking up titles in Baton Rouge, La., with the idea of securing a site for a new Postoffice. The favored site looked good but the title was guaranteed only as far back as 1803. That would satisfy most of us; but the Government is particular, so the Department demanded that the title be traced back to the source, regardless. In due course the explanation arrived, signed by the attorney for the owners of the land: "Please be advised that the Government of France, in the year 1803 acquired title from the Government of Spain, which government acquired title by discovery of one Christopher Columbus, traveler and explorer, a resident of Genoa, Italy, who (by agreement concerning the acquisition of title to any land discovered) traveled and explored under the sponsorship of her majesty, the Queen of Spain. The Queen of Spain verified her arrangement and received the sanction of her title by consent of the Pope, a resident of Rome, Italy, an ex-officio representative and vice ica" before they even hear the tune to "The Star Spangled Banner". The reason usually given is that it's easier for the children to learn. And sometimes it is added: "They're thinking of making it the national anthem anyway!"

Take the name of the firm and pick out the party representing the firm as shown on the full page drawing, then number the individual, listing this number along with the name of the individual on a separate sheet of paper. Do this with each one until all have been recorded and numbered.

Who "they" are is a matter of conjecture, but among a large number of people, it all intends and purposes, "God Bless America" already has become the national anthem. People stand when it is played in public gatherings. Many know every word of it by heart yet stumble along when they try to sing "The Star Spangled Banner."

Whether there is a chance that "God Bless America" may some day be our national anthem is not the question today. Our national anthem is "The Star Spangled Banner"—and this is no time to consider a change.

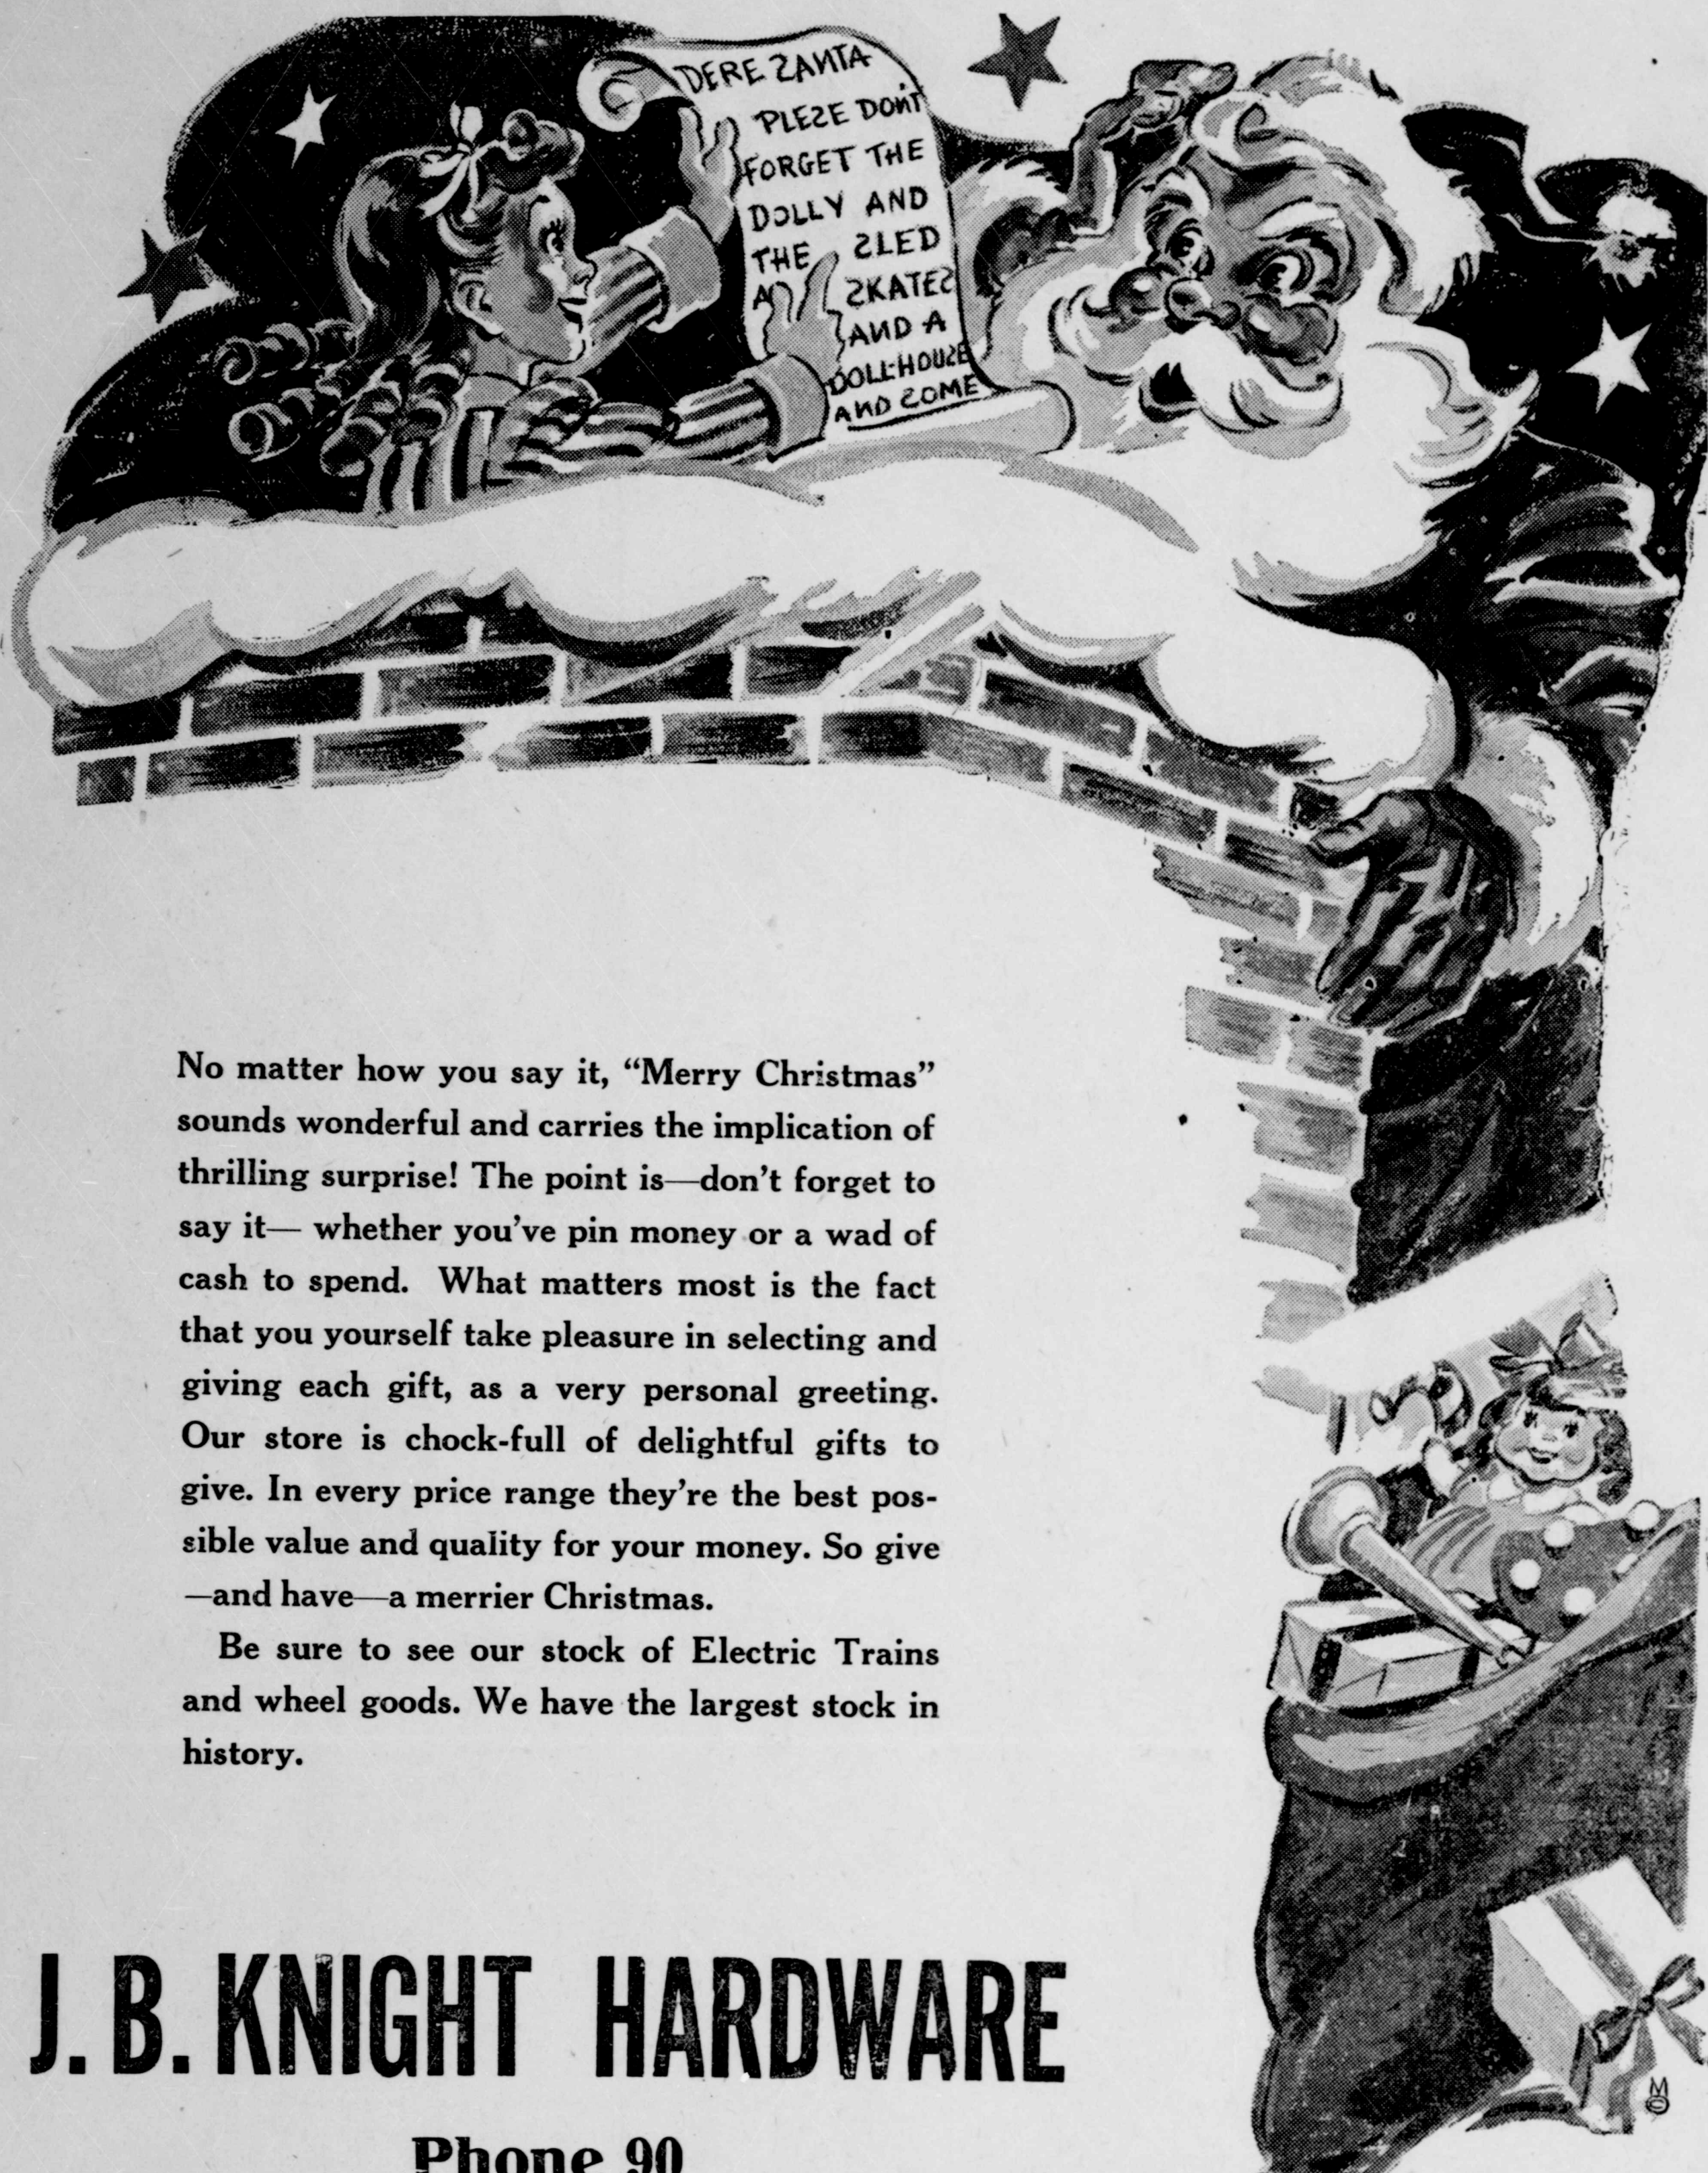

To those who know the words to "The Star Spangled Banner" who have thrilled to those words and that tune all their lives—it is the one song, above all others, which expresses the spirit of America. Let's all learn those words backward and forward.— Littlefield Leader.

Why Communicable Diseases Spread

It has long been admitted by public health authorities that the improper handling of foods at restaurants and soda fountains has been a potent factor in the spread of contagious and communicable diseases. The use of certain simple rules of common sense and personal hygiene, together with the knowledge of the spread of these diseases can do much to combat these diseases and to prevent their spread.

State law requires current health certificates for all food handlers.

Individuals ill with tuberculosis, dysentery or septic sore throat are potentially dangerous, and should not handle food or utensils until they have been cured of the disease. A person may have completely recovered from typhoid fever and still harbor the germs in his body and may spread it to others. "Typhoid Mary", a cook who died a few years ago has been directly responsible for the death of a large number of people, simply through their food. Lacking proper personal hygiene, she spread through her body wastes, the death causing typhoid germs to the food of the people for whom she cooked.

Every establishment where dividual clean towels for the employees (located at toilet rooms) and employees should be instructed to wash their hands thoroughly before returning to work.

There are still a few short-sighted cafe proprietors who persist in violating State Law in the storage of doughnuts, sweet rolls and pies on the counter.

Any thinking consumer will refuse such food having been exposed to filth and flies. This food has been further exposed to coughs and sneezes of other customers, ill possibly with tuberculosis, sore throats or "colds". The practice of submerging bottled beverage in water which is subject to contamination from hands is also to be condemned. Bottles should be so placed and the water level should be so kept that the mouth of the bottle is above the water line.

State law provides that all utensils and dishes used for the serving of foods should be sterilized after thorough cleaning completely submerged in a wire cage in at least 170 degrees F. for three minutes or two minutes at 180 degrees F. The purpose of the wire basket or cage in that these sterilization temperatures, necessary for killing the germs, is too hot for the dish washer's hands.

Proper refrigeration has been a vital factor in the control of the spread of disease and the proper preservation of food from spoilage. Restaurants should assure themselves that partially spoiled foods are never served. Any food about which there is doubt should be discarded immediately.

The practice of carrying glasses and cups so that the fingers do not come in contact with that surface to which the beverage or the customers lips meet, and the proper storage of dishes and foods for protection against flies and other insects, dust should be enforced by the cafe proprietor at all times.

Flies are filthy insects and carry filth-borne diseases. Screening should be maintained at the highest level at all times, and provisions should be made to kill any flies that might manage to gain entrance.

THIS WEEK IN DEFENSE

Congress passed and sent to the White House legislation to repeal three key sections of the Neutrality act—Section 2, banning merchant ship entry into belligerent ports; Section 3, barring combat zone travel; and Section 6, prohibiting arming of ships.

Navy Secretary Knox issued a statement that removal of the Neutrality act shipping restrictions makes it possible to get the defense aid materials authorized by Congress for use in the war against the Axis powers transported to those positions where they can be usefully employed. . . . It also insures . . . that the war efforts of the British Commonwealth, of China, Russia, hold out greatly increased promise of ultimate victory.

In an Armistice Day address President Roosevelt said the United States took up arms in 1917 to make the world habitable for decent, self-respecting men. He said the men who died then did so to prevent the very thing that now . . . has happened from one end of Europe to other. The President said the people of America believe that liberty is worth fighting for, and if they are obliged to fight they will fight eternally to hold it. This duty we owe . . . to the many who died to gain our freedom for us—to make the world a place where freedom can live and grow into the ages.

Labor Uses Guerilla Tactics

Unions in this country are using what can be described only as "guerilla tactics" to block and delay defense production.

That is the astonishing fact produced in an article in Business Week describing what has been going on in Gary, Indiana, one of the nations' major steel centers.

Gary steel plants are working at record levels. Yet steel workers are idle. Steel men, says Business Week, "call it union unemployment". The steel companies, with their vast payrolls, are never sure how many men will be at work on a given day. If, for instance, half a dozen crane-men fail to come on the job, a thousand men in other departments must be sent home because steel cannot be moved. Not long ago, the failure of key workers to report was responsible for a loss of steel production sufficient to have built 2,000 medium tanks or 40 submarines. This is done in such a manner that the government has no precedent for acting under existing laws.

This is all part of the drive of radical labor elements to dominate this country—its industries, its government, its people. It has become almost a commonplace for labor leaders, drunk with power, to defy the highest government officials, including the President of the United States. A few of these leaders are putting their

KEEPING AGRICULTURE GOING

Thousands of farmers, troubled and undecided about the great problems created by war economy, are turning for aid to their marketing cooperatives.

These organizations long ago proved themselves important to farm progress. Today they are proving vital.

Problems of markets, problems of taxation, problems of ever-higher labor and material costs, problems of priorities—these are some of the grave issues the marketing co-ops must meet. They can't be solved overnight. The co-ops can't perform miracles but they are of immense service to their members and to all agriculture.

KEEP THE FOOD IN THE CAN—A SAFE PLACE

AUSTIN, Nov. 12—"Keep it in the can," suggests Dr. O. B. Williams, University of Texas food bacteriologist who recently returned to the campus from six years of research for the National Canners Association.

Out to shatter a superstition grown hoary through the years, Dr. Williams declared there is no reason for taking food from cans except to eat it. The can, when opened, is a perfectly safe place for storing the edibles, but it should be kept in a cool place.

Citing precedent for his stand, Dr. Williams points to a recent U. S. Department of Agriculture publication which declares cans are probably safer for food than kitchen utensils because cans are generally cleaner.

own ruthless ambitions ahead of their country's safety.

Either Congress will pass legislation which will make sabotage of defense impossible or we will have a system of labor dictatorship which will make Hitler chortle with glee.

WALL PLAQUE OF SEN. CONNALLY TO BE GIVEN BAYLOR

A large bronze wall plaque of Senator Tom Connally, one of Baylor University's most distinguished graduates, will be presented to the University by leaders of the State Democratic Committee on Monday, Nov. 17, it was announced by the Baylor public relations office today.

State Chairman E. B. Germany will make the presentation, and President Pat M. Neff of Baylor, former Texas governor who was a classmate of Connally in Baylor, will accept the plaque for the university. Vice-chairman Mrs. H. H. Weinert of Sequin will participate on the program.

Mrs. John J. Kendrick of Seminole visited Mrs. R. M. Kendrick last week.

CAUSE OF ILLITERACY AMONG SLAVES

AUSTIN, Nov. 12 — Illiteracy among slaves in the Old South was principally due to fear of servile insurrections and lack of concern on the Negroes' part because literacy would not improve either their economic status or their value to their owners.

This is the belief brought out in a paper, "The Education of American Plantation Slaves" by Dr. C. F. Arrowood, University of Texas education professor.

Although opportunities to learn to read and write were limited, some of the slaves were literate. Dr. Arrowood tells the story of a Negro man who taught himself to read by following the words in the Bible as his preacher read them. The same Negro learned to write by watching and imitating the man who owned him.

In the early 1800's some free states restrained Negro schools from operating. By 1834 Sunday schools for Negroes limited "their work to oral instruction." Their education was also limited by the extra-legal or illegal activities of mobs and patrols, Dr. Arrowood points out.

"The plantation was the school of citizenship for the American Negro. . . The plantation . . . centered about the Negro. . . Its (plantation's) worst products show how very far short the plantation was of what any agency controlling human destiny should be; its best products prove how creative and rich the human spirit can be. For the weakness of the plantation as a character-forming agency was inherent in the institution. . ."

$10,513,515 PAID TEXAS FARMERS BY COTTON OIL MILLS

Dallas, Oct. 27—$10,513,515 was the amount received by Texas cotton growers from the sale of cottonseed to oil mills during September, it was stated here today by Bennette Wallin, Secretary of the Texas Cottonseed Crushers' Association. This estimate is based upon the reports of two federal agencies, the Bureau of the Census and the Agricultural Marketing Service.

Seed receipts by Texas mills during September were 20,000 tons less than during the same month

PLEDGE AGAINST WASTE

I have taken the pledge which Miss Harriett Elliott is asking all house-holders in the country to take under civilian defense week.

Knowing quite well that, in the White House, it would be impossible for either Mrs. Nesbitt or me to sign this pledge honestly without the co-operation of the whole White House staff, I asked all those who were on duty to meet me.

I explained its meaning, particularly in not wasting anything. I urged them all to sign the pledge individually when it comes out, and to try to live up to it in the White House. I hope, also, that they will persuade their own families to join with us. They were most co-operative and my first suggestion came immediately from Mrs. Nesbitt, who said that we had certain things that were always left over after a big party, which could be sent to the self-help co-operative farm and fed to their animals. So we have found one useful outlet for leftovers which could not be used at all on our own table.

CORRESPONDENCE COURSE

We hope very shortly to have a correspondence course available in the Office of Civilian Defense. It is a fairly simple study on nutrition and the duty of the consumer. Many people who cannot attend classes may be able to read these courses and go to a volunteer bureau or consumer's information bureau once to take a test. This will then make it possible for every household to feel it is part of the civilian defense effort.

COST OF LIVING

I had some quite appalling news on the rise in the cost of living last week. The average housewife must now spend 14 per cent more money for the food she will need for the family dinner than she did a year ago. In some cities, the increase in food costs is even greater, running to over 19 per cent. If you were preparing a meal of ham and eggs, potatoes, white bread, butter, coffee and milk, the following prices show you what you would pay this year in comparison with last year:

	1940	1941	Increase %
Ham (lb.)	25.44	34.44	35
Eggs (doz.)	37.26	46.96	26
White bread (lb.)	8.16	8.56	5
Butter (lb.)	34.36	43.54	27
Potatoes (15 lbs.)	28.84	32.84	14
Coffee (lb.)	20.84	25.76	24
Milk (qt.)	12.34	13.94	13

In other staple products, the prices have gone up very considerably also. For instance, here is a table which may interest you.

last year. Because of much higher prices, however, growers cash the single exception of Maryland income from cottonseed during the month was two and a half times that of a year ago.

TEACHERS BEGIN DRAWING PENSIONS

Texas public school teachers for the first time in history, began participating in a State retirement system in September. John S. Judd, jr., acting director of the system, estimated 500 teachers—the profession is denied pension benefits under Social Security—were mailed monthly payments starting September 30. The benefits became possible due to passage of a multilevel tax law under which the State matched teachers contributions of 5 per cent of their salaries.

SOLDIERS USED CREEK AS BATH TUB

Houston Chronicle: Soldiers camped in Logansport, La., area, just over the Texas border, shut down a sawmill at Logansport when they bathed in a nearby creek. The soldiers, about 1,000 at a time, used Castor creek as a bath tub. So much soap was used that the Logansport Lumber Co., boiler, which is supplied with water from the creek, was full of soap suds and the gauge didn't indicate the true amount of water it contained. To avoid possibility of an explosion, the mill was shut down. The soldiers, from Camp Bowie, were on maneuvers.

COLLEGE DEAN AT 22

Believed the youngest dean of women at any school in the United States. Mrs. George Stewart, age 22, is serving in that capacity at Mary Hardin-Baylor College, Belton.

	1940	1941	Increase %
Sugar (10 lbs.)	51.04	60.04	18
Flour (10 lbs.)	40.14	47.54	18
Lard (lb.)	9.34	14.94	61
Evap. milk (14 1/2-oz. can)	7.04	8.44	20
Cheese (lb.)	25.76	32.76	27
Onions (lb.)	3.64	4.24	17
Salmon, red (16-oz. can)	25.94	33.74	30
Corn (#2 can)	10.54	11.84	12

The greater part of these increases occurred since last February, and in October of this year prices were still rising. Some of these prices should undoubtedly have increased, particularly if the increase reflects itself in the farmer's pocket. I am wondering, however, if, in the case of milk, we will not have to resort to less handling, in order to keep the price on a level where children in cities can have enough.

HYDE PARK VISIT

Miss Thompson and I caught the 4:30 plane one day for New York city. We were joined there by Mrs. Helm, and after dining at the house, drove up to Hyde Park.

It was raining fairly hard, but I liked the sound of it as I sat on my porch and rejoiced in the country quiet. I was sorry, however, to wake to a gray day and steady downpour the next day in spite of the fact that we need rain badly.

At 10 o'clock, I met the prime minister of Canada, Mr. Mackenzie King, and Princess Juliana of the Netherlands, with her two children, at the Poughkeepsie station. They settled down very quickly, and at 12 o'clock, our two small granddaughters, Sara and Kate Roosevelt, who are staying with friends in Rhinebeck, came down to lunch with the two little Princesses.

The rest of us, with the addition of Secretary and Mrs. Morgenthau, and several girls and their friends from Vassar, intended to have an outdoor picnic, but we ended by using the new playroom. It proved a great success and after lunch we sat around the fire and asked the President, the prime minister and the secretary of the treasury, innumerable questions.

We all argued with each other, which always brings out many points of view. Since Vassar is at present having a conference on the post-war world, there was much talk of both present and future defense. The rain was forgotten and I think, perhaps, it even added to the sense of companionship, for a gray outdoor world makes one all the more conscious of a fire and cheerfulness within.

After tea at the big house, the Vassar guests were taken back to college. We had no guests for dinner and the President and the prime minister settled down to a long talk

38 GIRLS GET EDUCATION AT T. U. BY "SNIPPING"

AUSTIN, Nov. 12—Thirty-eight girls who are "snipping" their way through the University of Texas are pretty close to everyday affairs.

They work in the Student's Clipping Bureau, which searches nearly 800 Texas papers for items of outstanding interest to individuals and groups.

Organized 24 years ago, the Bureau staff has grown from one girl who clipped University news only, to a trained corps who read and clip 125 dailies and 650 Texas weekly and semi-weekly newspapers.

The list of nearly 100 subscribers to the Bureau's services includes those interested in such items as all births in Texas, archaeological discoveries, amputations, fires, and city and county financial reports. Many state agencies and state officials and aspirants to state posts subscribe to the service.

Brownfield FRIDAY SATURDAY Texas

DAIRYING AND NATIONAL DEFENSE

Texas dairymen have been asked by Secretary Wickard and the USDA Defense Board to increase their 1942 production four percent over the 1941 production. The increase in Terry county according to R. N. McClain, County Agent, can be met by better management and feeding practices.

Cows must be properly fed to produce up to their capacity. Feed a balanced grain ration at the rate of three pounds per gallon of milk. A concentrate or grain ration when fed with bundles as a roughage should contain at least 20 per cent protein. Make the best possible use of pastures. Plant sudan for summer grazing and barley for winter grazing. Supply needed minerals. Calcium and phosphorus are the two most important minerals. Calcium can be supplied by ground limestone and oyster shell flour; phosphorus by bone meal. Where grain mixtures contain fair quantities of cottonseed meal and bran it is not necessary to feed bone meal. See that cows have plenty of fresh water and are protected from severe weather. Milk at regular hours and give each cow a six weeks dry period.

Improvement in management practices is wise under any situation; it is doubly wise this year when the long time outlook suggests caution in undertaking heavy development expenditures for stepping up production.

There was an account some years ago about a drunk man at banquet who fell asleep during the long winded speech by the toastmaster. His snoring became so loud that it disturbed the speaker, so the man sitting next to the inebriate picked up a cat-sup bottle and tapped him over the head. "Hit me again," said the drunk, "I can still hear him." —The Slaton Slatonite.
