BROWNFIELD, TERRY COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY JANUARY 9, 1942

NUMBER 23.

Off On Last Ramble On Old Tires

Instead of buying new tires back in the fall like we should perhaps, we just put it off till next spring, when hot weather began to come on. Now we don't have the least idea when "next spring" will ever be here. We had about decided that we had worn out our legs walking over the hills of Tennessee when a youth. But maybe there is still some walking left in them yet, the "game" one as well as the bestun.

We Ramble Off To The Sticks

We had heard that a cousin, Mrs. Ellen Rogers and her husband, Will, were visiting in Waxahachie, Texas, at the home of our nephew and their son-in-law, Benton Stricklin. He, too, is an old friend, and we just took a fool notion that we wanted to see them some place other than among the tall timber of west Tennessee. So, the wife and the Old He filled 'er up, looked at the tires that had already made 29,000 miles, hit on wood for good luck and hit the road for Johnson county, as we were to meet the couples at the home of our brother near Grandview.

By the way, we took a pretty nearly new route, to us, at least, to get there. Six miles this side of Jayton, instead of turning nearly south to Rotan and Roby and on by Anson, we took the eight mile cut off now paved over to Jayton, on to Aspermont and Stamford and hit the other road via Anson over in Shackelford county this side of Albany. Then at Weatherford, instead of hitting the heavy traffic to Fort Worth and through it to Grandview, we turned off on 171 direct to Cleburne, which is now well paved all the way, and we met less than two dozen cars, as it was near sundown.

Found 'Em All Shivering

When we left here, we didn't think it so cold. Seeing some 500 wild geese on a large lake near the Terry-Lynn line, we watched the lakes pretty carefully for geese and duck from there on to Post but didn't see a great deal of ice until we got way down off the caprock. So we decided that the blizzard had kinder edged us, sliding off the cap this side of Amarillo.

Why Do They Mention Amarillo?

By the way, we have never understood why the Fort Worth and Dallas paper always refer to Amarillo for the maximum cold. If it was any colder at Amarillo than down there last week end, Amarillo was colder than the seat of a well digger's pants. They ought to let poor Amarillo alone for awhile, and begin to talk about Weatherford, and other burghs thereabouts. Monday morning when we passed through there, they reported that it had been 6 above on that high hill where 80 seperated from 80-A and a lady where we got our gas, was sitting between two gas stoves trying to keep warm. All the rest room fixtures were froze up. Amarillo owes us a setup for this defense article.

But We Had A Swell Time

While the weather was as cold as raw kraut, and we had to hug the stoves to keep the marrow of our backbone from case hardening with ice, there was lots of good conversation, and a whale of a lot to eat. The noon meal was held at Meeks Stricklin's Saturday and at the home of Grandma J. Y. Benton's Sunday. Cold weather gave the bunch a sharp appetite, and lots of good grub went the way of all flesh—and bread. Some complaints of colds, but no serious illness mentioned. And when we left our brother's, we had several cans of good old blackberries from his own orchard, as well as a big old washboard variety pumpkin that will make 40 some odd pies. Meeks said eight big ones grew on that one vine.

Spent Sunday Night In Ft. Worth

Sunday afternoon, we drove up to Fort Worth to visit another brother, Tom Stricklin and family. Found them all pretty well except Tom, who was complaining some, but doing his usual work, and talking about fishing as strong

Postal Receipts Show Big Gain In 1941

Postmaster James H. Dallas is our authority for the following information about the postal and money order and defense bond sales for the years 1940 and 1941, for comparison. First mentioned is postal receipts.

For 1941	28,245.01
For 1940	23,120.85

Gain	5,124.16
------	----------

The money order for the two years was as follows:

For 1941	313,753.01
For 1940	219,991.92

------	-----------

The sale of Defense Bonds and Stamps was as follows:

For 1941	3,712.50
For 1940	450.00

Speaking of Defense Bonds, they have been out here since Christmas Eve, but of course orders for them can be taken, to be delivered when they arrive. The Maids & Matrons Club are investing the $1,000 they have saved for their building fund in Defense Bonds. Our old friend, J. J. Gaston, prominent west side farmer, was in Saturday and stated that he was putting $2,000 in defense bonds.

Sudan Bank Robbed Early Monday

When the cashier of the First National Bank of Sudan opened the doors of that institution Monday morning, he was confronted by two robbers with bandanas over their faces, and pistols clutched in gloved hands. When the time lock opened the vault at 8:30, the bandits took $5,489.16, and escaped in a waiting automobile.

Lamb county officials believe that a third man was possibly awaiting in a car, keeping it running. They locked the cashier in the vault, and left. It is believed they went west toward the New Mexico line.

At the time this is written, search is being made for the bandits all over west Texas and eastern New Mexico, but so far as we have learned no clues have been reported, or arrests made.

Rotarians Sponsor Penny-A-Plane Club

At their regular meeting last Friday, the Brownfield Rotary Club voted to sponsor a local Chapter of the Penny-A-Plane Club. Plans for these clubs originated in South America. First club in this country was founded at Marshall, Texas. Idea of the club is for each member to contribute a penny for each enemy plane the American Air Forces bring down. Willingness to contribute is the only requirement for membership. The plan is not government sponsored.

Jim Graves was appointed local chairman of the club. Graves has already placed cans in many of the local business houses, where those who wish to do so may make their contributions.

as ever. He is a retired minister, but we think he still ministers to a loaf and three little fishes, which perhaps is in keeping with Biblical injunction. Even so, we found they still had an abundance to eat, despite the passing holidays, which often empty the larder to some extent. So bad only one of the girls and her husband got over for the bedtime chat.

Snaw Plays Out At Cisco

Aimed to have gotten off about nine, but finally had to be pushed off to get the Chevy started, the first time since we have owned it. Took No. 80 at Weatherford and found no snow out at Cisco, but began to strike it again between Abilene and Sweetwater. Found daughter Sallie T. awaiting us at Snyder to come home with us for a stay. Met Herman just beyond Sweetwater with a trailer load of household furnishings on his way home to Brownwood.

So to home and to bed, and started the old grind Tuesday morning as usual.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

J. R. (Dugan) Thomas Announces For Commissioner Pct. 4

To the citizens and voters of precinct 4 I wish to announce my desire to serve as Commissioner for this precinct for the next term.

For the few who do not know me; I am 36 years old, have a family of three children and have lived in Terry County most of my life, as we settled in the Southwest part of the county in 1919, among the first farmers in that district. I now live at Wellman. I will try to see and acquaint myself with all of you before the coming primary.

Our war effort calls for and must have, our best tires. We must depend on inferior tires and better roads to get our needed farm products to market. I have had about eleven years experience in building better roads and have acquainted myself on numerous occasions with the duties of our Commissioners.

As I am stuck on the home front with my family and farm, I would like to serve my country and fellowmen in some way that I am capable of. I think I am qualified for this particular job, and if the citizens and voters of this precinct see fit to elect me I will do my very best to be a fair and competent commissioner in showing my appreciation for their trust.

Mayor Coleman Announces For Re-election

At the solicitation of many of my friends I wish to announce my candidacy for re-election as Mayor of the city of Brownfield, subject to the city election to be held on the 7th day of April, 1942.

During my tenure in office as Mayor in the past I have, with the cooperation of the City Council, caused many civic improvements to be made which were very much needed to make Brownfield a better place to live and to make it a more progressive city.

I wish to assure the people of Brownfield that if I am elected I will continue to put forth my best efforts for all civic improvements possible and the better welfare of the city. I also wish to thank each and every citizen for the co-operation you have given me in the past for without that cooperation the City Administration could not accomplish much.

Your support and influence will be greatly appreciated.
Sincerely Yours,
Clyde C. Coleman

To My Friends Of Precinct 4

I take this means of announcing my candidacy for the office of Commissioner of Precinct 4. I am an old timer of Terry County, having lived here some 36 or 37 years and most of that time in Precinct 4. This is my first time to ask the people for a public office but feel sure that I am qualified to hold the office of Commissioner, and if elected will do my best to make you a good Commissioner. Your vote and influence will be appreciated.

Your friend,
W. H. (Hosey) Key

Judge Louis B. Reed Announces This Week

Hon. Louis B. Reed, of Lamesa present District Judge, came in this week and handed us his announcement, and stated that owing to a press of duties, he would be unable to make his statement to the voters this week; maybe next.

Judge Reed has had unusually good success in this county, as well as in the district as a whole. Very few cases have been reversed or remanded on him.

He also stated that was liable to be called to the army if he passed physical examination, as he is a reserve officer.

To Farm Bureau Members

Again the time has rolled around for the election of new officers for the ensuing year. Let's meet Saturday, January 10, 2 o'clock in the District Court room for that purpose together with other business for your consideration.

Mr. Non-member, below is a clipping from our Bureau paper of what Senator Bankhead thinks of our organization and what you should do to help make it stronger. Through the untiring efforts of our Terry county members, I'm proud to report Terry County got her part of that $700,000 last year. A year ago this time we had 6000 members in Texas. We now have 16,000 or better, but it should be 116,000 or better, if all who are benefitted by our efforts would lend a helping hand. I got a new member last week who said the reason he had not joined sooner was because he got stung in a farm organization a few years back. So did I. If President Lincoln had given up the first time he got stung, we would have never known the fine qualities he possessed.

I'll be retiring to the sideline Saturday, to the newspapers and businessmen of Brownfield I want to especially thank each of you for your splendid cooperation the last two years.
Respectfully
L. L. Brock.

SENATOR BANKHEAD LAUDS FARM BUREAU

"If anyone asks me what the American Farm Bureau Federation has done for agriculture this year, I would answer that through its very active support of the 85 per cent loan bill this splendid organization of farmers operating at the grass roots has materially aided in adding more than $700,000,000 to the income farmers will receive this year.

"I hope that this victory for organized agriculture will give farmers everywhere a new faith in the value of organization and will convince non-members of the need for united action and membership on their part"—Senator Bankhead of Alabama.

Our Gentle Hint Got The Hog Meat

Last week in speaking of hog killing weather, we mentioned the fact that we were kinder 'hungry' for some spare ribs and backbone, and intimated that we would not get sore if some of our farmer friends proffered them.

This week, Ed Thompson same wagging in a package and announcing there was something to eat in it. We found that it contained a generous amount of backbone, spare-ribs and good old country sausage, that would have cost us $3 or $4 at a market.

Blow high, blow low, you wintry winds. There's something to eat in the pantry, and Herman Heath promises to keep our gas line in shape to keep the house warm.

Repair Farm Machinery Early

College Station, Jan. 8.—Repairing of farm machinery considerably ahead of the time it will be needed this year will be necessary especially if new parts are needed says M. R. Bentley, agricultural engineer of the A. and M. College Extension Service.

Repairing farm machinery and equipment has a direct relation to the possible seasonal or sectional shortage of labor. Consequently all labor-saving equipment should be considered in the program of repair, from the milking machine to the combine.

It is reasonable to assume, Bentley explains, that machinery manufacturers considered that they had sufficient repair parts for 1942 needs. But during the last couple of months orders to manufacturers for parts have been unusually heavy. Moreover it takes an estimated 90 days to get new part made and delivered even when the raw material is on hand.

Taking conditions as they are, it would seem that every one who will need machinery parts this year should in self protection order them at once. Delay in doing so presents a serious hazard, especially in the face of the national program to keep as much steel as possible out of unused equipment or repair parts.

The program, then, is to get needed repair parts, put them in place, and tune up the machine early to run, Bentley continues. And when the present supply is exhausted give manufacturers time to make more before the machine needing repairs is wanted for use.

Bentley suggests that farm equipment known as orphans because of discontinuance of manufacture could, perhaps, be made usable by a local welder of blacksmith, adding that "we are told that existing manufacturers can furnish parts for machines they made 40 years ago. He emphasizes that protective maintenance of farm equipment never should be overlooked. This means doing those things which will reduce the wear, corrosion or decay of equipment, such as providing proper lubrication, protection against rusting, and protecting equipment against weather damage as far as possible.

Our Governor Loses
His Wife

Sympathy from every corner of Texas goes to our big hearted governor, Hon. Coke Stevenson in the loss of his beloved wife last Saturday morning about seven o'clock. She was suffering from cancer.

The body was carried back to Junction, in the heart of the ranching country of southwest Texas for burial.

It is stated by those who know, that Fay Wright Stevenson was the most gracious and beloved first lady of Texas to grace the governor's mansion. Few ladies in Texas had more friends than the governor's wife.

Brownfield Building Permits Top Quarter Million

Demand by defense areas including barracks for soldiers etc, probably kept Brownfield several thousands dollars lower in building permits than it was. Permits for buildings the last six months of the year was no harder than the first six, but permits for the materials was much harder to get.

According to Roy M. Herod, city secretary, the building permits for the incorporated area of Brownfield was $280,150.98 for the year 1941. Not bad, not bad.

Terry County Sing Song To Meet At Harmony

Serious Collision On Levelland Highway

A serious collision took place 12 miles north of town on the Levelland highway Monday night, when a car driven by Gilbert Cole, white, was in a collision with one driven by Morris Warwick, colored. The negroes were coming toward town on the highway, and the other car was going west on a neighborhood road. The crash came at the intersection.

Two others besides Mr. Cole were in his car, we understand, and were hurt so badly that they were brought to the local hospital. The negroes were also pretty badly cut and bruised. Both cars were badly wrecked. Before wreckers could get out there from town, both cars were stripped of tires, tubes and batteries by thieves, we understand.

And that reminds us. Sheriff Joe Price cautioned you last week about leaving your car out in front or in the driveway. Put it in the garage if you have one, and lock the garage. Make it as hard as possible for thieves to get your tires.

Also, a tip to the juries. Dry your weeping eyes, and deal out misery to tire thieves, as well as all other undesirables. This is no time to weep over the erring ones.

230 Miles Of REA Lines Ok'ed

Mr. Garland Pennington, Manager of Lyntegar Electric Cooperative, Inc. of Tahoka, Texas, has announced receiving an A-10 Preference Rating from Donald M. Nelson, Director of Priorities of the Office of Production Management, to secure the necessary materials for the construction of 230 miles of electric lines to serve approximately 550 new members in Borden, Dawson, Garza, Hockley, Lubbock, Lynn, Martin, Terry and Yoakum Counties. These lines will be of inestimable value to the farmers, and rural communities of this district in securing electrical energy to the many uses to which this service can be employed in increasing the productivity of the farm and in processing, preserving, and conserving perishable and valuable farm products. Mr. Pennington states that electricity on the farm means mors to the farmer, and to the nation, than ever before as a tremendous burden will be placed in the American Farmer to provide food and clothing to the people of the United States and our Allies during the coming years of the conflict that lie ahead. Since farm labor is becoming very difficult to obtain, and since the cost of this labor is becoming prohibitive for the average farmer, the value of electricity to the farm is reaching the proportions of an absolute necessity.

Assisting Majors here in the future will be Patrolman Bobo who is moving here.

Several new patrolmen are coming to West Texas beginning this month and new sub-stations, similar to the one here at Plainview, are being established at Brownfield, Lamesa, Dickens, and Littlefield.—Plainview Tribune.

FOR MAYOR

Clyde C. Coleman

The Herald is not going to burden the reader with a lot of hot off the ice editorials this week. We believe the world will continue to spin around on its hind axle until next week, without too much say from us. In fact we spun the force of our tirades about our trip, and got home too late to take the cake away from Clark Howell, Henry Waterman, Henry W. Grady, Chas. Guy and such, this week. Perhaps we'll be going strong next week. Doggoned if we didn't kill at least two inches of space after all.

We want to dispose of most of our efforts this week on editors of the Kinty variety. Now there is Tom Rambo, instance over at Petersburg in Hale County, editor of the Petersburg Journal, has folded up his apron, drew the cover over his typewriter, laid aside his makeup rule and joined Uncle's fighting forces. The last issue was a large Christmas edition, one page being sponsored by his friends who were wishing him a happy farewell. Every firm in his town had an ad in his last issue. Slap the Japs, Tom.

And then, there is our old friend Jay See Estlack, editor of the Donley County Leader over at Clarendon. He has also "joined" up with Uncle Sam, but in a different capacity. Congressman Gene Worley of that district has notified Jay See that he is the next postmaster of Clarendon, and congratulations are in order. While all the other papers in that district were supporting a Wellington editor, by the way a good man, for Congress, Jay See laid his coin on Gene Worley, a Shamrock lawyer, in both primaries. Worley won. In the examination, Editor Estlack stood second of the high three and got the job. As quick as we are allowed some new tires, we are going to send ourself a letter to Clarendon, drive over there and personally make Jay See hand it out to us. We'd like to see how a kinty editor looks behind a post office window.

While the American Press, official organ of the American Press Association, has official figures to show what is termed "foreign" advertising, which simply means advertising coming from New York and Detroit automobile, oil gas, tire and tube advertising agencies that order and pay for the advertising of these firms, increased several hundred per cent from 1918 to 1920, yet we can't see the increase this time. In fact, we believe that while we will all get by, as it were we of the interior, far removed from the manufacturing centers, are going to feel the effects of the war most. One redeeming feature, however, is the fact that farmers are going to have better prices, and that will mean a great deal to the small town communities. On the other hand, General Motors and perhaps others have stated that they are not anticipating any cuts in their advertising appropriations. While they will have but few cars to sell for the duration, their ads, will be mostly good will, and not promotional. In other words, GM is a big enough firm that they do not wish to have to remind people after the war that they make Buicks, Oldsmobiles, Pontiacs, Frigidaires, etc. And if they run good ads, so will Ford Motor Co., and perhaps many others. But all that remains to be seen. We hope the American Press is right in its conclusion that country weekly will not be greatly hurt, or that small town business men will have an average business.

Renewals

Since last week, the following have renewed for their Herald:
D. S. Neal, Willie Clements, H. O. Longbrake, Money Price, G. C. Perry, Jim Causineaux, K. Sears, Mrs. O. L. Jones, W. P. Forbes, J. J. Gaston, W. M. Coor, E. C. Willis, J. D. Williamson and Joe Shelton, city and routes.

PLAINS

Brother J. A. Dennis filled his regular appointment at the Christian church Sunday morning. The crowd was small on account of the snow and cold weather. There is service each first Sunday at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

Brother J. A. Dennis and wife had dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McClellan Sunday.

Mrs. W. L. McClellan received quite a shock Saturday evening as she sat listening to the radio while awaiting the arrival of her cousin, Mrs. Gussie Ward and family of San Antonio, who had spent the holidays in California and were returning by the way of Plains and planned to spend the week end there. The radio stated that Mrs. Ward had been killed and her husband and two children injured in a car crash on the road from California.

Explosion Kills 1 Injures 1, At Lamesa

Our neighboring county seat to the southeast, Lamesa, had a very trying tragedy to start off their New Year last Thursday, when a building under construction and almost finished was blown to ruins, catching two men under the roof. When taken from the ruins, Allen Blake, carpenter was already dead, and Suttle Purcell, building contractor was seriously injured, but it is believed that he will recover.

The 25 foot front building was being erected for a cafe by the owner, and it is believed that when the two victims entered the building to rush the finishing, that gas had accumulated from a leaky pipe under the floor, and when one of them struck a match the explosion followed.

Not only was this building ruined, but adjoining and nearby buildings badly damaged, none in the area escaping great damage from broken plate glass. Some described the scene as not unlike havoc wrought by bombs in England. Total damage was estimated from $10,000 to $15,000.

Speaking of political publicity men (which we were some months ago—recollect?)

Press agenting is just a part of the duties of the press agent.

There was one candidate who, when he visited a county where he knew no one and therefore had no friend to introduce him, would have his publicity man do so in this fashion:

"Fellow Citizens of Buncombe County: As you know I have lived among you for many years and have held myself aloof from active participation in politics but I have decided to make an exception in the case of our great and good friend who is here today"—and each listener figured that the introducer must live in a corner of the county where he himself was not acquainted.

Another candidate would use his press agent as a heckler. Standing on the fringe of the crowd, the publicity man would ask a question in a hostile tone about some matter that the candidate didn't want to bring up on his own motion but really was anxious to discuss and the candidate would then deliver a blistering answer and the heckler would slink away.

Maybe a candidate and his press agent happen to catch sight of an opponents placard in a window and they would engage in conversation in a loud tone, enough to be heard by all the sidewalk loungers:

"Bill Perkins' picture, huh? Say, that was a nice looking blonde that was traveling around with him Monday".

"Blonde? He had a red-head with him last week."

"And that negro chauffeur he has driving his car". "Yeah, it does look like, with all the white men there are out o' work he could at least hire a white man to drive him around."

Adventures—you have plenty of them as a political press agent. I remember one time some years ago when we ran out of gas out on the plains and a motorist pushed our car along the level highway until we overtook a truck which we managed to get around safely while we were being shoved at 50 miles an hour and another time when our car was nearly blown off the road by a gale close to the Gulf—that jalopy rocked like a ship at sea and the rain came down in blinding sheets; and still another occasion when we were dashing along thru the night and almost ran right on past the ferry stop and into the Houston ship channel.

Tom Carter, of the Avalanche-Journal, Lubbock, was a pleasant caller at the Herald office, Tuesday. He is a brother of D. P. Carter of this city. Tom holds a high official position with Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Increased Demands For Farm Records

College Station, Jan. 5.—Need of adequate farm business tools resulted in the purchase during the first six months of 1941 of more Texas Farm Record books than in the 12 months of any previous year, says Tyrus R. Timm, economist in farm management of the A. and M. College Extension Service.

In addition to the Texas Farm Record book for keeping systematically the records during 1942, the Extension Service now has available two companion tools. These are a budget form, "Farm or ranch and home production plan", of value in planning farm operations for 1942, and a summary form, "farm business analysis sheet", for summarizing and analyzing the farm business at the end of the coming year.

Timm finds reasons for the increased demand for the Texas Farm Record book in the fact that 12 times the number of farmers now ask the county agricultural agents for guidance in keeping farm records than in 1930, and that county agents are emphasizing farm records more than heretofore.

"Farmers need additional facts regarding regular and new government programs, more leasing arrangements now are used, budget statements are being requested in connection with loans, greater distribution of crop and livestock on many farms, lower income tax brackets and, not the least important, the higher cost of living demands closer attention by everyone to the details of their business," Timm adds.

The economist believes that the Farm Record book and the record forms are a real help to farmers and ranchmen desiring to know more about their business. "When you know more you have to guess less".

Do You Know Texas?

OPINION "I sincerely believe that every school child in Texas should be given an opportunity to see "Cavalcade of Texas". It has entertainment, value but it is primarily educational. The commentary recites the history and tradition of our State, and emphasizes the opportunities offered by the Texas of today. I know of no other medium through which the student could get the composite picture of Texas which is presented in this film" Karl Hobbittelle, Chairman of Executive Committee, Texas Centennial of Statehood Commission. To secure the picture for your community write to the State Department or to the Centennial Commission.

Marine Lauded For Heroism At Wake

Another name was added Thursday to the honor roll of navy heroes—Maj. Paul A. Putnam who commanded the marine air unit of 12 planes which, despite numerical superiority of the Japs, stayed in the air "with telling effectiveness until its last plane was downed", in the heroic defense of Wake Island.

Eight of the 12 planes under the Putnam's command were destroyed on the ground during the first two days of the Jap attack on Wake. Against tremendous odds the remaining four planes accounted for at least one submarine, one heavy seaplane, and 11 other planes before their guns were finally silenced.

Mr. and Mrs. Orb Stice and children spent Thursday with relatives in Midland.

OIL FOR CHEMICAL PURPOSES INVESTIGATED

Texas has hardly scratched the surface in utilizing the oil for chemical purposes, Dr. Lewis F. Hatch, University of Texas chemist, told a symposium of the oil industry held in connection with the American Association for the Advancement of Science at Dallas.

Dr. Hatch listed toluene, glycerol, synthetic rubber and ethylene glycol as four important chemicals awaiting fuller Texas development.

All of these but toluene—used mainly for explosives—have important peace-time as well as war time uses, he pointed out. Glycerol, for instance, may be used in the making of resins and cellophane, and in cigarettes, besides as an explosive base.

Ethylene glycol is anti freeze. Another great new derivative from crude oil is vitamin E, the anti-sterility vitamin, Dr. Hatch said.

My Week
by Eleanor Roosevelt

ACTIVE ASSIGNMENT

In the paper, a few days ago, I read that our second son, Elliott, was assigned to an aviation unit and will be off on active duty again. This time it will not be, I am sure, over the wilds of Iceland, Greenland and Newfoundland that he will fly, as he did all last summer. I thought he was still taking a training course and secretly rejoiced with his wife in the comparative security of routine flying. Shortly, apparently, there will be three boys whose whereabouts for us are wrapped in mystery.

I left Washington one night on the night train and found my cousin, Mrs. Kermit Roosevelt, waiting for me in New York at a very late hour to talk over certain changes in the organization for which she has done so much work. "Young America Wants to Help" has been a part of the British War Relief. Nov. 1, I imagine, they will double their efforts to help not only young people in England, but young people anywhere in our country who need it.

I love the photograph which recently appeared in some papers of young Colin Kelly and his mother. I think many people will be touched as I was, by the letter addressed to the "President of the United States in 1956" by my husband. He asked that this little boy be given an appointment to West Point because of the services which his father had rendered to his country.

Colin Kelly has a proud heritage and though pride can never remove the sense of loss which Mrs. Kelly and this little boy have suffered, still, in the future, it will mean much to both of them. Perhaps a child brought up in the shadow of heroism may find it always a motivating force in his young life.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS

In stopping at the headquarters for the celebration of the President's birthday for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, I found that Mr. Kieth Morgan was pleased and deeply stirred by the telegrams which he has been receiving from his chairmen throughout the country.

Apparently, being at war has not in any way lessened their interest in the war against this dread disease. They feel more intensely than ever that they must save the children by finding out how to prevent epidemics and how to care for those who are stricken. The strength of our children is the strength of our nation.

The heavy epidemics of infantile paralysis during the past three years have brought us 26,000 casualties in this particular war. We can ill afford such losses as these, and so, no matter what we give in other ways this fight must go on.

EEDS TO ENGLAND

It seems queer, in winter, to be thinking about shipping seeds to England, but England can think about gardens earlier than we. I received a notice today that the New York Home Bureaus had sent more than $2,000 for the purchase of vegetable seeds to Mr. Donald Neville-Willing, who allows his home at 18 East 70th street, New York city, to be used as headquarters for the committee working for American Seeds for British Soil.

Mrs. A. W. Smith, the state leader of the Home Demonstration Agents in New York, writes me that one dollar's worth of seed will provide enough vegetables for a family of five. I can only believe that the English are better gardeners than we, for I am sure that the vegetable seeds that I buy for my own use cost me far more. I am not, however, a very good gardener, even by proxy.

COUSINS APLENTY

One night we had a rather large gathering of various family groups at Christmas dinner. The number of cousins was really quite amusing. I think the complications of family relationships, as regards my husband and myself, became completely baffling to our English guests.

When you tell some one, that the lovely lady sitting opposite him is your husband's half-niece, that she married your first cousin, and that he was her sixth cousin, whereas you are married to your fifth cousin once removed, and are also her sixth cousin and that her children, in order to simplify life, say "Uncle Franklin and Aunt Eleanor," when the relationship is really only that of a half great-uncle, you may well imagine that you have led anyone, no matter how great his interest in genealogy, through a maze from which there is no emerging!

A few old friends were here with us as usual, and we drank the usual toasts to absent family and friends, adding one toast in tribute to our British guests. After dinner, we had newsreels, featuring both the prime minister and the President, and then sang together for a while.

It will be quite impossible for me, of course, to thank the many people who have sent the President and me Christmas cards and telegrams, but I want to say here how grateful we are for their thoughts and the confidence and affection which so many of them expressed. E. R.

War To Increase T B Says McKnight

Sanatorium, Jan 1.—Dr. J. B. McKnight today observed his twenty-eighth anniversary as superintendent of the State Tuberculosis Sanatorium with the statement that although tuberculosis was nearer control today than ever before in the United States the great war against Japan, Germany and Italy undoubtedly would bring about a considerable increase in the disease in the future.

A few years ago optimistic anti-tuberculosis authorities who did not foresee the present war were predicting that tuberculosis would be eradicated within twenty-five or thirty years, Dr. McKnight said. The conflict that has been thrust upon the United States unquestionably will change the entire tuberculosis picture.

"That tuberculosis thrives on the strain of war is clearly shown by the recent mortality statistics from warring nations of Europe," declared Dr. McKnight. "The inevitable let-down as an aftermath of the war will further complicate the tuberculosis problem.

"Thousands of our soldiers died from tuberculosis during and following World War No. 1, while our government has since paid millions of dollars to tuberculosis veterans in pensions and treatment. We are now mobilizing a greater Army and Navy than in 1917-18.

It's Your Life!

Are your feet killing you? Maybe they aren't yet—but one out of every four persons killed in traffic accidents this year have walked to their deaths.

Among the objectives of the December Traffic Safety Emergency Campaign is the prevention of 52 pedestrian deaths which are expected under the present accident trend.

Thirty-one of the pedestrian fatalities are expected to occur on city streets. Twenty-one are due along the rural highways.

The main reason for these deaths will be that the pedestrian forgot to be careful. Unless in extreme cases such as drunken driving, the machine isn't going to seek out the pedestrian. The latter, through carelessness, usually puts himself into a hazardous position.

At night when the majority of rural pedestrian fatalities occur, the victim might have avoided the accident had he worn something white that would reflect the beams of the approaching headlights.

A good rule to follow for any highway walker is to use the left side of the highway, facing the traffic.

The best rule for the city pedestrian is to "watch while you walk."

Never depend on the driver. Play it safe.

And then, maybe, your feet won't kill you!

PRE-WAR BOND SALES ARE HIGH

Texas got the jump on the war with increased interest in defense bond and stamp purchasing programs, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports.

November sales of defense bonds and stamps were 46.2 per cent above November totals for 1940, and that was before the war began.

For the current year, however, sales during the first eleven months were 12 per cent under 1940 totals for the corresponding period, probably due to the fact that the issues moved more rapidly when first offered. Impetus of war, will likely make 1941 sales far surpass 1940 totals, however, trends indicate.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Kendrick visited Mrs. J. J. Kendrick in Seminole Tuesday night.

LINDY WANTS TO HELP—WHO?

Former Col. Charles A. Lindberg said in a letter Tuesday to Henry H. Arnold, chief of the Army Air Corp, that he had a deep desire to help the country along the lines that he has trained himself for many years.

There has been no indication, however what action would be taken on Lindberg's offer—and no doubt Henry Arnold, chief of the Army Air Corp will be plenty careful before accepting Lindberg into the service.

We all know Lindberg has trained himself along some line or other in the past few years, but we don't as yet know what kind of line he has trained himself along, and at the same time he spent a little too much time around Berlin and other well-known places in Germany to be

PROPER CARE DOUBLES LIFE OF TIRES

Sing a song of tires and tubes, tires and tubes, tires and tubes! The time may come when you can go on from there and keep it up all day. For as sure as Hitler made this war, there's going to be a great shortage for rubber for automobile requirements. You can't complain, either, because that would be unpatriotic; it would seem like grudging the rubber to the army.

What to do then? There are some simple rules which most motorists know but few practice in normal times. These are not normal times, and the sooner we all use our common sense about driving, the better it will be for everybody.

Good care of tires, experts say, will nearly double the life or mileage. Good care means not starting or stopping suddenly so that the tire grinds on the pavement. It means keeping tires properly inflated—the gas station fellows know that. It means driving 40 to 50 miles an hour at most, instead of 50 to 60 or 60 to 70. In rate of speed alone a sensible driver can get two to four times as much mileage out of a tire as a fellow with an eager and restless foot. It saves a lot of gas too, and that's going to be more important from now on.—Amarillo Times.

The Well Baby Conference will be held in the basement of the courthouse Wednesday, January 14 from 2 until 4 o'clock. Dr. Daniell will be the attending physician, and parents with children between the ages of one month and 6 years are welcome to bring them.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Breedlove have returned home after spending the holidays in Fort Worth.

Every member of the family will fond course after course of enjoyment on our menu. From soup to dessert—everything's good quality and good tasting. Service? None but the best!

MISTAKE IN MARRIAGE ANNOUNCEMENT

There was plenty mistakes in recording the marriage of John Black, prominent Terry county farmer last week, as pointed out to us this week by Mrs. Black, however, the report came to this office late, and we had to take the word of other people for what information we had.

Truth of the matter is, that John did not marry Mrs. Maude King as stated, but Jean Emmaury Thompson, not of this city but Mountain Park, N. M., and they spent the holidays at DeLeon at the home of his brother, S. E. Black, and not his parents.

Baptist Church News

Last Sunday was about the worst weather we have had but it did not keep 256 people from registering for Bible Study in this church but nearly five hundred of those enrolled failed to be there.

The campaign to pay off some portion of the building notes succeeded in paying two installments of one thousand each and $450 accumulated interest but if the support had been 100 per cent a much larger payment could have been made. This reduces the obligation from twenty to sixteen thousand dollars and it is hoped that those who did not participate in this payment will plan now to help reduce this building obligation.

Already there are 22 young men out of families of this church at the camps or on the front lines and we should remember them with those yet at home who will be called and while we take care of our church obligations we also have obligations to our country which we would not shirk, and are made to realize how little our property is worth to us in comparison with these human values and with the price of liberty.

We would urge upon all who read these lines regular attendance upon the services of the churches as it is worth little to have freedom of worship and never use it as is the case with many people living almost within the shadow of our church.

Much history will be made in this new year of 1942 and it means much to live in these perilous times and our posterity will be interested to know that we were equal to such responsibilities.

There will never be a better time in your life to begin the study of God's Word and put your family under the influence of the church than now and we urge you to use the facilities of this church which stands because of the faith of men and women in God and his written Word.

We have no time to argue with men who do not recognize God in their lives, we are only sorry for them for their lack of faith, and appeal to all men who recognize religion to make it an active principle and see what their families have the benefit of Christ teachings.

METHODIST CHURCH

We wish for all a happy new year, and, in spite of the threatening war clouds, we're hoping that 1942 shall bring many happy returns. It will be a year of sternness, calling for many sacrifices. May God give us strength, fortitude, endurance, wisdom and the will to win. Let us remember to pray for those in authority that they may lead us wisely, righteously, and successfully.

The churches have a grave responsibility—that of maintaining the morals of our people. This war is the clash of two ways of life. For us to neglect the spiritual values that have made America great is to blunder fatefully.

Start the new year right by coming to church with your family. Our Sunday school has a place for each member. We invite you to worship with us.

Let us keep in mind that the young people of this district will have their fellowship meeting here Saturday night and Sunday. We are expecting seventy-five or one hundred to spend the night. The noon meal Sunday will be served at the church.

Afternoon services will close at three o'clock. The theme for the entire meeting will be, "The Abundant Life".

At the eleven o'clock hour Brother Hanks shall use this theme as his subject.

The young people here will have their regular Sunday evening service at 6:30.

Subject for the evening preaching service: "Making Life Worthwhile."
