BROWNFIELD, TERRY COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY

NUMBER 40

FLAG WEEK PROCLAMATION

TO THE CITIZENS OF BROWNFIELD,
GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, our Country is engaged in Mortal Combat with the murderous enemies of Democracy who seek to annihilate the freedoms symbolized by the Flag of the United States, and the citizens of Terry county, in common with patriotic Americans everywhere, are determined to preserve the American way of life, and to that end are fighting, sacrificing, and laboring in distant lands and here at home, and,

WHEREAS, the period June 8-14 has been designated as FLAG WEEK by the United States Flag Association, during which patriotic exercises will be conducted by loyal Americans throughout the land to emphasize our National Unity and determined efforts in the cause of those liberties of which our flag is the glorious and inspiring symbol,

NOW THEREFORE, as Mayor of Brownfield, I do proclaim June 8-14 as FLAG WEEK and direct that during this period the Flag of the United States be displayed on all municipal buildings.

FURTHERMORE, I do urge the people of Brownfield to display the Stars and Stripes at our homes and places of business, and to hold patriotic ceremonies as a public expression of our love of Country, unity, and allegiance to our National Emblem, the symbol of our civic faith and the beacon of hope to liberty-loving people throughout the world.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Brownfield be affixed this Fourth day of May in the year of our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Forty-two.

JESSE D. COX,
Mayor of the City of Brownfield,
Terry County, Texas.

STRAW HAT DAY PROCLAIMED

WHEREAS the grass is now green, the flowers are beginning to bloom, the balmy winds are blowing and Mother Nature has donned her Springtime garb, and

WHEREAS it is generally accepted that seasonal changes help man enjoy better living and inspire him to greater achievement and a better humor to face a world that is sorely troubled, and

WHEREAS it is probably true that most of the old winter time felts are about worn out any way, and

WHEREAS we are fortunate enough to live in a locality where prosperity is fairly prevalent and the cost involved in this undertaking is not prohibitive for anyone,

I hereby proclaim Friday, May 8 at Official Straw Hat Day in Brownfield.

JESSE D. COX, Mayor.

Where Are The Dead? His Car Was Not Stolen After All

EVANGELIST DICK EASTER

Evangelist Dick Easter, who is in a revival at the Brownfield Poursquare Church will be explaining this question on Sunday evening. His subject being "Hell Fire and Damnation," and having other subjects through the week.

Friday, "V for Victory"; Saturday, "Seven Dips in Muddy Jordan"; Sunday evening "Hell Fire and Damnation"; Tuesday, "Three Steps to Possible Hell"; Wednesday, "Seven New Things," "Heaven"; Thursday, "And They Died With Their Boots On."

The Pastor, Rev. Viola Hunt speaks Sunday morning, her subject being "Behold Thy Mother," in keeping with the occasion of Mothers Day. Also, she is holding a memorial service for Mrs. Eva Jones, lately deceased. A special invitation is extended to relatives and friends of Mrs. Jones.

COME to this heart stirring revival. Church on Lubbock Road and Ripply Street.

Miss Maude Bailey is visiting relatives in Frederick, Oklahoma.

There was a rather laughable mixup here Wednesday night, after it was all straightened out, and mistakes explained. But for while it was everything but laughable to L. A. Rhyne, Conoco distribution man.

It so happened that his car was parked next to that of a New Mexico car in front of the hospital. The New Mexico man had sick folks in the hospital, and Rhyne had called to see some one in the hospital, Presumably Odell Quante.

While Rhyne was indoors, a brother-in-law of the New Mexico man wanted to use his car for a short drive. It was the same make, model and paint job of Rhyne's car. A key was in it and the man drove off.

Rhyne soon came out to get his car to find it gone, but, the one left looked so much like his, he had a suspicion, and perhaps a wishful think, that there was an honest mistake somewhere.

Anyway, Rhyne called the Sheriff's department, and the car was soon recovered, and all were happy again.

Emmitt Smith Resigns As School Supt.

In conversation with C. E. Ross, President of the Brownfield Consolidated Independent School District, late Thursday, we learned that Supt. Emmitt Smith, of the schools, had resigned, and that his resignation had been accepted.

We understand that Mr. Smith had been offered another place and was leaving today to take the job. We failed to learn the place Mr. Smith will go.

Mr. Ross stated that he thought Mr. Smith a good man for the Official U. S. Treasury War Bond Quotas For May

The above map of Texas shows the War Bond quotas, by counties, for the month of May, 1942. Total War Bond quota for the State is $18,594,500. Every income earner in the State is expected to step up War Bond purchases on a basis of ten per cent or more of income. This is necessary to help America's armed forces take the offensive against the Axis powers. The American voluntary method of War Bond purchases must be successful in reaching the quotas set by the Treasury Department for every county in the nation. The job of every American now is to stop spending and save dollars to help win the War.

Terry's May Bond, Stamp Quota $12,300

Chairman J. O. Gillham, heading the committee working for the sale of War Bonds and Stamps, phoned us this week that it was very necessary that Terry county make its quota every month from this on, and to exceed it if possible.

Slowness in purchasing these bonds and stamps voluntarily may cause the same conditions that existed during the other World War—they may tell us how many to buy and make us like it. Today, the leaders are recommending ten percent of your income. You may use more if you like to buy bonds.

You are not asked to give your money. You are merely asked to make an investment that pays a reasonable interest in the best securities in the world. We at home must KEEP 'EM ROLLING, KEEP 'EM FLYING, AND KEEP 'EM RIDING THE WAVES.

And don't refer to them now as DEFENSE Bonds and Stamps. They are now officially WAR BONDS AND STAMPS

Our old friend W. H. Harris is ill and in bed most of the time, but he remembered it was time to renew, and sent up his dollar. He has been on the list longer than the 33 years we have owned the paper.

Saw The Buchanan Prize Winning Herd

The writer and Don Herborn of Long Beach, Calif., called Sunday afternoon at the A. B. Buchanan farm four miles west of the city on highway 380. This was the first time we had ever inspected his Guernseys at close range. As it was milking time, A. B. seemed to be somewhere else, but the boys took pleasure in showing us about.

The front offices of the dairy house is lined with ribbons of all kinds, some taken before the herd was brought to Terry county a few years ago, and some since. This herd is never entered in shows but that they get a full share of the prizes offered. Indeed, they brought home a bunch of them from the Panhandle-Plains Dairy Show, at Plainview, last week.

Among them were the grand champion bull that went to Radisson's St. Nicholas, also grand champions in two other entries, junior bull and grand champion female. Mr. Buchanan was awarded a number of other prizes in different classes of cattle. He has his cattle and dairy well housed, and every department as clean as water can make it, and with all other paraphernalia needed in conducting a first class dairy. We enjoyed the half hour or more spent at this well organized milk production plant.

O. J. Daniell Killed In Truck Collision

O. J. Daniell, Seminole, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. (Shade) Daniell of this city, was killed almost instantly when the truck he was driving near Denver City, had a collision with another, on which a house was loaded and was being moved. O. J. drives a truck between Seminole and Roswell, N. M. We learn the truck fell on top of O. J.

Deceased leaves a wife, and brothers and sisters are: Dr. A. H. Daniell, Mrs. M. E. Brewer and Mrs. H. B. Parks, all of Brownfield; C. B. Daniell, of Galveston, where he is attending Texas University Medical Department; Dale Daniell of Abilene, where he is attending college; and Miss Lois Daniell, who has a government position at Lubbock.

County Agent Loading Up On Poison

Every now and then we note in an area daily that R. N. McClain, Terry County agricultural agent, has purchased some kind of insect poison. As there has been some grasshopper talk in portions of the county, we presume that Mack is laying in supplies to be used if and when.

Well, he is to be commended for this. No use to shut the stable door after the horse is stolen, and to wait for poison with doubt of getting it if badly needed is not a good policy.

Melvin Fitzgerald Winner In Judging Contest

The Herald is always pleased to have some part in the encouragement of youth of this area, whether it be this or that trade or calling, but especially the farm and ranch youths, as that is the basis of our potential wealth. One of these is Melvin Fitzgerald, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Fitzgerald, of Plains. By hard work in and out of the school room, Melvin is making a place for himself, and is perhaps encouraging other youths of his neighborhood to go forward. His likeness is shown herewith.

Melvin is a high school senior of the Plains schools, and with his younger brother, Johnnie, 15, will graduate this year, and both are to enter Texas Technological college this fall. So you see these boys are looking to the future. Recently a stock judging contest was held at Plains, sponsored by Mr. C. C. Brookshire, agricultural teacher in the Plains schools, which included of course the boys who belong to FFA. County Agent R. N. McClain, of Brownfield was the referee of the judging contest. Melvin was high point boy.

It might be of interest to our readers to know that Melvin received the only State award given in Texas this year. This was a beautiful gold watch fob. He likewise received another medal for being winner over the three classes.

Melvin and Johnnie come by stock raising and judging as a heritage, for their grandfather as well as father have been successful ranchmen, they becoming so the hard way—personal experience—but the boys are making it both by personal contact, as well as the proven theories taught in agricultural classes.

Present Cubs Whip Tar Out Of Exes

There was a very exciting football game out at Cub Field Friday night, and the crowd that saw it reminded one of the fall attendance when the winning or loss of a game really counted. And both side had their full quota of rooters, including pep squad. One trouble, however, with the exes, they didn't have too many reserves.

But there was some hard hitting, and from the sidelines, the players showed to be fairly evenly matched. However, the Cubs that will carry war into AA competition this season, seemed to hold some advantages, and the final score was 21 to 7 in favor of the regulars.

Some real stalling appeared in both teams, and the fans got some real thrills at times, that reminded one of some close quarter decisions of the regular season.

Mrs. Flem McSpadden recently renewed for the Herald going to her daughter, Mrs. Jim Slavin, at Austin.

Marine's Next Japan Visit Won't Be Errand Of Mercy

By Pat Hennessy

The next time the United States Marines march in the streets of Tokyo it won't be on any errand of mercy as was the occasion of their last visit.

Following the earthquake of September, 1923, U. S. Marines aboard the USS Huron were ordered to proceed to Japan and set up a hospital camp and other quarters for Americans in the area.

Upon arrival in Japan the Marine detachment found it would not be allowed ashore to perform its rescue mission. Japanese authorities objected.

A short time later, at the request of the American Embassy in Tokyo, a detail of Marines was sent ashore to establish a camp on the embassy grounds.

This detail was composed of a sergeant and two squads of Marines. All were carefully chosen and thoroughly instructed as to the attitude and bearing toward the Japanese with whom they would come in contact.

They established the camp and served as couriers and guards for the American colony in that city.

Later an order was received by the commanding officer of the Huron detachment calling for the erection of a complete camp on the grounds of the American consulate at Yokohama.

During their stay in the island kingdom, the Marines extended every courtesy and consideration to the natives.

Tokyo newspapers praised the Leathernecks as "ambassadors of good will and amity from America to Japan. They were upholding the traditions of the United States Marine Corps splendidly, while their chivalry, expressed in kindness to everyone and readiness to do everything possible for those seeking assistance, has already made the firm friends of many Japanese."

After their relief mission had been completed, all the Marines were withdrawn with the exception of a sergeant and eight men who remained behind to act as an embassy guard.

Since that time many Marines have visited Japanese ports with ships of the Navy, but now they are grimly determined that the next time they visit the island, it will definitely not bring any relief to the Japanese.

The earthquake of 1923 will fade to insignificance before the wrath of the fighting Leathernecks.

Service Men's Mothers To See Free Show

Always in the forefront to make things as pleasant as possible for mothers in this area who have boys in the service, Mrs. Ethel Jones, proprietor of the Jones Theatres, is giving a show Sunday for the benefit of such ladies, and the show will be very appropriate for the occasion.

The title of the show is "Always in My Heart" a fitting feature for Mothers Day. Inasmuch as your boy cannot be with you that day perhaps, this show, given you absolutely free including the war tax, will in a way give just the kind of entertainment these good mothers need.

If you are a war mother, we advise you to be sure and see this show Sunday as the special guest of Mrs. Jones.

There is a radical editor of a radical sheet that is printed in Fort Worth or thereabouts, that actually thinks he can beat Coke

Stevenson for governor, or he nearly thinks so. He is awaiting the draft call of his "gimmie" friends in Texas.

Yep, we are going to have plenty high winds until the storm season subsides in the middle west. When this storm period is over, our farmers can settle down to planting.

Senator W. Lee O'Daniel is not to be allowed to hit the stride single handed for election for Junior Senator from Texas for the six year term. Wednesday, Jimmy Allred and Dan Moody, both former governors, announced for that office, and this is a warning. Both are hot campaigners, and Pappy is going to have to pass the biscuits fast if he keeps the inside track. Allred has resigned as a Federal Judge in order to make the race.

Right now, folks, there is no such animal as FREE labor, except on the farms and the shops of small towns. Recently a young man left Brownfield for Hobbs to see if he might get employment in the construction of the big airfield at that point, being built by the government. He got as far as Seagraves and was told that he "might" get a job over there if he had $50 to "jine up" with the labor unions. This thing may last until after this war is settled, and if Hitler & Co., win, the unions will be so dead they will not be resurrected in a thousand years. If the United Nations win, there will be a reconciling between some 100 million freedom loving Americans and the unions and this one will be fought out at the polls. Congressmen and Senators will be elected who will represent a majority of their constituents. If not, we just as well have some foreign dictator as their racketeering labor leaders. The ball has started rolling already. A labor union congressman in Indiana trailed his opponent, who is not so hot for labor unions.

Following reasonably close in the heels of the fall of Bataan, Corregidor, the last stronghold of

U. S. Marines on Duty in London

United States Marines are on duty at the American Embassy in London, England. Here three Privates First Class are shown during a drill with a stirrup pump, used for extinguishing incendiary bombs. the US-Philippinos, defending Manila Bay, has been surrendered to the hordes of Japs that have sacrificed thousands and thousands of lives in gaining their objective. Again, we thank our isolationists and fifth columnists for the blocking of all legislation offered early in 1941 for the fortifying of this island as well as Guam. Some of these isolationists in congress, thank goodness, will not be able to return to congress, even though they are howling war like wildcats now. One democrat in South Dakota, who soft pedaled up to Pearl Harbor, has been beaten by another Democrat that promises to support President Roosevelt in the war effort, by a vote of 2 to 1. Of course it now remains to be seen whether or not this Roosevelt Democrat can beat his Republican adversary this fall, but the GOP, as a whole, has not been very hot for war preparedness. As a consequence of this stalling of congress by these men, we were not half as well prepared as we might have been if they had supported instead of opposed the war effort a year or two ago. We don't know what will happen to Wheeler of Montana, but we know what would happen to him if he had to face Texas voters.

A report was being circulated this morning that a 60-year old man has a new tooth, but it may be false.

Walkie-Talkie

Far in advance of the main body of troops, or off on a crest to the flank, is the observer and his "walkie-talkie" operator. Although separated by distance, he is in constant communication with his commander, reporting activities from his vantage point. Separated battalions and companies are coordinated by the same means. Although the field artilleryman's guns may be thousands of yards to the rear, the forward observer with the walkie-talkie radio can climb a tree near the front and direct fire accurately on the enemy. Better than the sniper is the radio operator who can hide in a hollow tree and bring a barrage of high-explosive shells to any target he can see.

No wonder so many editors die rich!

(Found in the Sanger Courier). Interviewed my good friend, Homer Leonard of McAllen on the radio recently. The Speaker of the House tells some amusing stories about the Missouri Ozarks, his native heath. Says Mr. Speaker:

"I was walking across the hills one morning and came to a cabin. I stopped to get a drink of water. A woman was sweeping the floor—sweeping it out into the yard. She was bare-footed. I said 'Mawnin', mum.' She said, 'Mawnin', stranger.' I looked down and said, 'I see you had a fish fry here last night.' She said, 'No, stranger, we ain't had no fish fry here, leastwise in quite a spell now; them ain't fish scales you see—their toe-nails; we had a square dance here last night.' Here-and-there: Harry Benge Crozier appoints your columnist on the USO State publicity committee and Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau sends a handsome document certifying that this chronicler is a Minute Man to make talks in the War Bond campaign. "Coke Stevenson is making Texas a truly great governor", says the Sulphur Springs News-Telegram, editorially.

230 Deaths Result From Drunk Drivers

CHICAGO—Two hundred and thirty traffic deaths in Texas during 1941 were caused directly by drunken driving, according to Charles R. Jones Executive Vice President of the American Business Men's Research Foundation, in a review of the statistical summary for the year just issued. In ALL, Mr. Jones declared, 2,313 motorists who had been drinking were involved in accidents. Besides those having fatal endings, 874 were non-fatal and there were 1,209 property damage accidents.

The year's report, according to Mr. Jones, shows that 1,323 motorists involved in accidents were classified by state police as obviously drunk. Also, the year's review shows that out of the 174 drunken pedestrians who were struck by cars, 51 met their death and 124 suffered non-fatal injuries. Of the pedestrians included in the state report 131 were obviously drunk. Summaries for February, according to Mr. Jones, reveals that 20 out of 86 traffic deaths in Texas were caused by drunken drivers. Figures for the first two months of this year show 338 drunken drivers involved in accidents, with 33 deaths and 151 non-

"The almost forgotten pleasure of visiting will be re-discovered and the lost art of conversation will be revived."

These are the philosophic observations of Bruce Melvin, regional consumer regulations executive of the Office of Price Administration in the Southwest. His eyes twinkle as he reels off the long title, for the former professor of sociology in Cornell University has a sense of humor. Friendly, mild-mannered, soft-voiced, Dr. Melvin has studied housing and racial youth problems over the nation.

Aims of his department are to assist the consumer to adjust himself to the restrictions on the quantity of goods, (due, of course, to the heavy demands of war); to aid the consumer to buy wisely, to conserve and to find substitutes for goods which are becoming scarce.

Lon Boynton of Paris is editor of the Echo. When asked the name of his paper, he says, "A second-hand noise."

fatal injury cases reported. Texas authorities are uniting with other states in a year's moratorium against drunken drivers as a major step to bring about a marked reduction in the nation's traffic toll. The moratorium was suggested by Mr. Jones when preliminary figures last year indicated the highest accident toll in history with 45,000 person killed by automobiles.

In the last issue of the Ropes Plainsman, Troy Morris paid a beautiful tribute to his brother, Nyles, publisher of the Tatum Valley News, who recently died in a Lovington hospital. Too much cannot be said of deceased, for he was truly a friend of every human, and seemed to love everybody. Few men have as many real friends as did Nyles Morris.

Class Prophecy

Brownfield, Deep in the Heart of Texas April 23, 1952

Dear Mary: Little we dreamed, ten years ago tonight, when the Juniors were giving the Seniors of '42 a feed, that:

Erma Jean Baggett would still be interested in a place called "Shorty's Mechanic Shop"—Not forgetting his car.

Professor Foy Barrett is having trouble with a blonde school teacher. Woo-woo.

I have just read in the paper that Juanita Cranford is to sing with Robert Heath's Orchestra, which is playing at the "Silver Spur Gaities", in Fort Worth.

Would you believe that Juanita Brown is now the world's most famous bronc rider?

"Speedy", or rather, Harold Jones is still wondering who the little Miss in the motor is.

David Hanks is the outstanding photographer for Metro-Goldwyn Mayer.

Remember that sweet blonde—well Emma Gene Coleman is now public librarian at the courthouse, and Bill Redford has just been re-elected constable, so you can guess they are still seeing a lot of each other.

You've probably been wondering who took Bob's place as janitor—it was Wayne Ramsey.

Did you know that Ramona Carver was modelling western style clothes in New York?

The famous Miller Vitamin pills were concocted by none other than Stanley Miller himself.

But you would like to take Home Economics. Lois Nettles is Home Ec. instructor at Brownfield.

Reverend James Howard Hanks is holding services Sunday morning at 10:00 o'clock on the courthouse lawn.

Horace and Norris Kissinger's act isn't bad, is it?

Jeanne Goin is running a very profitable business these days. To save material for National Defense she's invented a sarong that takes 1-ss material.

Thirsty? Just call on Billy Hinson for the best cherry coke you ever drank.

We see Larry Miller playing in one of the duckiest bands in New York.

Mildred Rankin and husband are touring Europe this time.

Docia Mae Littlefield is writing "Tips on Manners" for the Household Magazine.

You might have guessed that J. W. Proctor is only guy who could have returned from Africa after visiting relatives.

We find Jacqueline Thompson holding a high position in Congress. She's a representative from Texas.

Who beside Esther Smith would be the owner of a ritzy open theater in Missouri.

Pat Ramseur is doorman at the White House. Guess that's one way of being famous.

Frances Schmidt is head nurse at Treadaway-Daniell Hospital. Not bad I'd say.

If you have any sick stock just see Jiggs Tankersley he's the best known veterinarian in these here parts.

Surely you haven't forgotten that bee-utiful red hair of Wau-rene Denton's Well now, she is showing how Drene Shampoo can remove that dull film and reveal the natural lustre.

Did you see "Beauty and the Beast"? If you did you will remember the splendid performance of Eldora Lewis. She has returned home after the completion of her latest picture.

Mildred Mather is the most famous play director in Hollywood. Guess you remember the "Tell Tale Heart".

Remember the OOMPH girl of '42? Well, Earlene Guest is now Society Editor of a local newspaper.

Viralyrn Patrick is voice teacher at Denton.

No doubt Flossy is still fresh on your mind; but Flaurine Sherman has traded Flossy for the name of Mrs. ——— sorry he name slipped my mind.

M. J. Craig is with his uncle in Chicago—partners in the manufacture of cheese, I think.

Jack Mitchell is a real estate agent in Austin.

Sarah Ann Morwood is the Dean of Women at Tech.

Louise Foster has just been voted the Model Wife of '52. By the way she's suing hubby for divorce.

Geraldine Pyeatt is Foreign Correspondent to England.

Lucille Greathouse is still that contented wife.

If possible go to Madison Square Garden Monday night and see Elijah Henderson box for Heavy-weight championship.

Did you know that Joy Lee Gordon simply adores that State of Kansas. She and Eugene Blevins recently moved to "That Vine Covered Shack in the Mountains."

If you are looking for the ideal wife, boys just see what Forrest Steen has recently printed; you'll probably want her phone number.

Have you seen the latest edition of "Vogue"? Recognize Janice Dry in those adorable clothes?

Deverle Lewis, the ladies man, is playing football at Notre Dame.

After ten years of married life Vyrnell Lewis is still able to face the world with a winning smile.

What would be more surprising than to see S. A. Hodges as coach of the Brownfield Cubs?

Straw Hat Day Designated For Today

Along with his proclamation for Flag Week, Mayor Cox also added another making today official Straw Hat day in Brownfield. In most sections, straw hat day comes a bit earlier, mostly May 1st, but sometimes that day would be crowding the season a bit here.

Next week, we hope that all the business houses put out their flags, and most of them have one. Even if you do not have a large one, display the best you can the small ones, both at your place of business and your home. Let's show the world where our heart is.

Gov. Stevenson Says Too Much Chicken And Ham

AUSTIN, April—Gov. Coke Stevenson, who raises cattle and goats for a living, bemoaned today the fact that the last five banquets he has attended, they've served chicken and ham... Because those who arranged the banquets said, beef and mutton costs too much.

The governor isn't concerned about selling this year's beef and mutton crop, because the government will provide a market; but he fears that high prices will get civilian customers out of the habit of eating those meats.

"It proves what I have been saying, that when prices go too high, the people are going to buy a substitute," he said. "Then when the war's over, we'll have to launch education campaigns to get the people to eating them again."

A Jimdandy Yard Man Wants Work

When a man looks for work or even advertises for work, as is the case of that good old one-eyed Irishman, J. D. McCullough, you may feel sure that you will get a good job, or they will keep on and on till you say you are satisfied. Generally the man you have to run down to get him to work, just won't give you satisfaction.

This writer has had Mack to work for him on several occasions, or up until he sold his team, and we always got a good job. He knows how from experience, and doesn't mind giving his muscles some exercise. He has a team again. Look him up. Clay Newberry was in looking for a job this week. Clay was raised on a farm, and knows his yard and garden work.

EAGLES BATTLED IN OWN ELEMENT

A red-winged monoplane, hedgehopping the cactus and rugged hills of the Big Bend country along the Rio Grande, is carrying the fight in their own element to various eagles preying on lambs and goats in the ranch lands.

J. O. Casparis of Alpine, who pioneered in rounding up antelope for the Game Department by plane, has taken to the air with expert marksmen as passengers to rid the ranges of unusual devastation by eagles. Casparis was employed by ranchers who became alarmed at their losses. Thus far the flying marksmen have brought down 25 eagles.

State Game Warden Ray Williams is one of the marksmen.

PRIVATE KERRICK GRADUATES FROM AIR SCHOOL

Sheppard Field, Texas—Pvt Chester L. Kerrick, 22 son of Mrs. Ora Kerrick of RFD 1, Tokio, Tex., has been graduated from the world's largest Air Corps Technical School at Sheppard Field, Texas, where he has been attending classes for the past several months.

Attached to the 312th Technical School Squadron while in the school here, he was graduated April 25. Prior to enlistment he attended Gomez high school.

Having undergone intensive training designed to give him a complete working knowledge of the battle birds, he is now qualified as one of the eight specialists necessary to keep one plane in the air. Graduates of this technical course are eligible to be shipped to any tactical unit maintained by the Air Corps.

Darlene Tankersley, Merle Warren and Redford Warren of El Paso spent the weekend here.

Fair Crowd Out To Citizenship Meeting

A fair crowd was on hand last Friday night to honor the first voters of Terry county, under auspices of Senior Maids and Matrons. One trouble was that there was a football game scheduled at Cub Field, and most of the young people took the jitters for fear they would miss some of the ball game and they did, if they stayed until after the speaking.

Mrs. Roy Wingerd was master of ceremonies, which consisted of several band selections, some patriotic and sentimental songs, well rendered for an open air meet.

Dr. D. S. McKay of Texas Tech college, chose a very appropriate subject for the evening—"Texas, Its Enormous Size and Productiveness. While he stretched the blanket somewhat, his speech caught well with the audience.

He announced that he was a Texan by birth, but had taught in colleges of four other states, but he always liked to come back home—to Texas.

Six young men and ladies who will cast their first vote this year, were given certificates.

13,204 NEWSPAPERS

The Terry County Herald is one of 13,204 newspapers published in the United States. From the smallest weekly to the largest metropolitan daily, these newspapers have but one aim, to bring the news to their readers, and each has its own particular niche to fill.

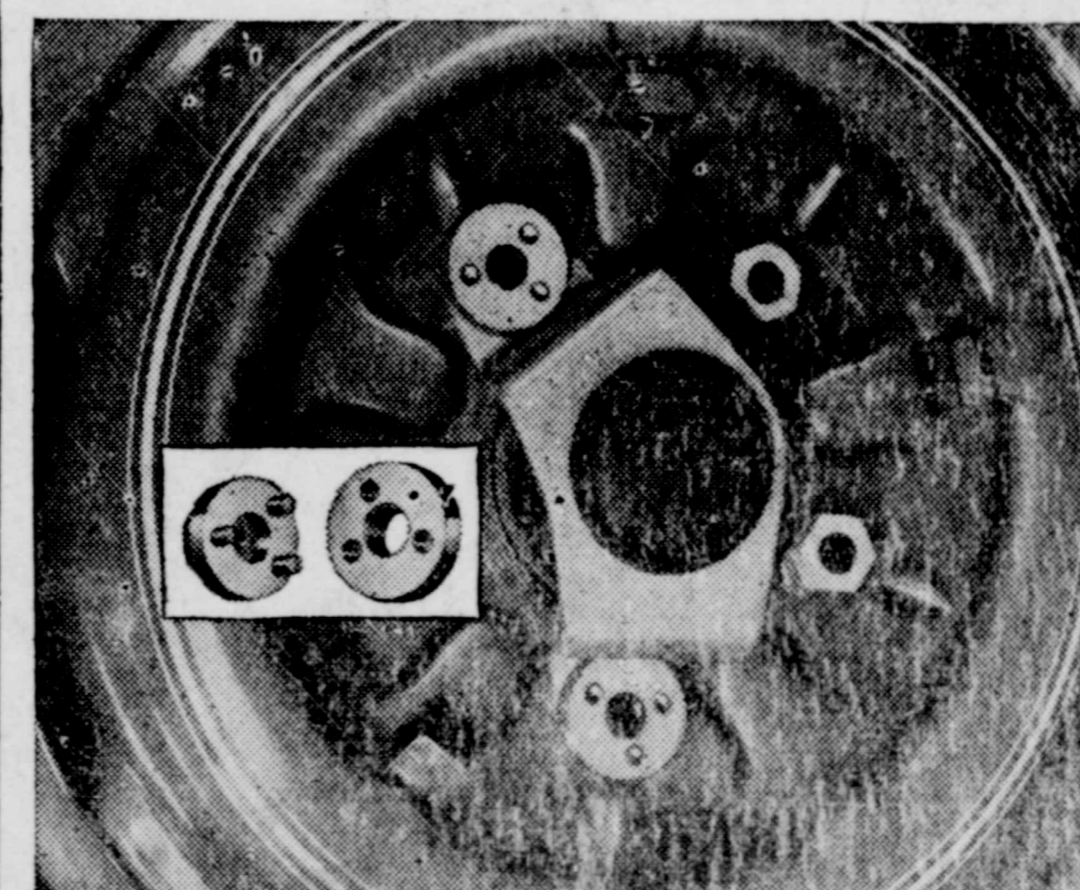

The field of news varies widely, of course. The big dailies cover news of national and international significance, gathered by vast organizations from the ends of the earth. But you will also find in the big publications many pages daily devoted to news of interest only to the people of their own cities. A resident of Lubbock will find more to interest him in the Lubbock Avalanche than in, for instance, the Fort Worth Star Telegram.

The Herald, along with 10,000 other weekly and semi-weekly newspapers, strive to fulfill the demand for local news. Of all the thousands of publications throughout the nation, only local papers are concerned with local activities. So, in spite of the multiplicity of publications our readers could read each week, we feel that the Herald gives them something they want which they could not obtain in any other way.

This local reader interest is what makes this newspaper the ideal advertising medium for Brownfield business firms. In no other way can they reach as large a number of potential buyers as effectively.

Miss Juanita Tankersley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Tankersley of this city, and R. D. Newsom, son of Mrs. R. C. Newsom, also of this city, were married in a double ring ceremony at 9:30 o'clock Saturday night at the Methodist parsonage. Rev. H. W. Hanks read the vows.

The bride wore a dusty rose suit and carried bridal blue accessories.

Mrs. Mary Kaiser and Mrs. Ruth Patterson were the only attendants.

The couple will make their home in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Tarpley spent the weekend in Abilene with Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Tarpley and Grace Tarpley.

MISS ROWE IS HONORED AT MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

Mrs. M. E. Jacobson and Mrs. Fred Lowe honored Miss Iva Rowe, bride-to-be, with a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Jacobson from 8 to 10 o'clock Wednesday night.

A pink and green color scheme was carried out in the living and dining room. Pink carnations and green fern made up the beautiful centerpiece, and pink candles burned at each end of the table and buffet.

The honoree and hostesses were in the receiving line, and Miss Rena Alsop presided at the bride's book.

Lime punch and cake squares were served to about thirty-five guests who called during the evening.

Miss Rowe is the bride elect of Armond Logan of Lubbock.

GARDEN CLUB SPONSORS INTERESTING PROGRAM AT COURTHOUSE

The Brownfield Garden Club met Thursday afternoon in the courtroom and enjoyed very helpful lectures on gardening. Mr. John King talked on victory gardens, care and control of pests, the planting and care of shrubs and trees, and plants suitable for this part of the country. Miss Dorothy Blanton gave a very interesting talk on nutrition.

The program was open to the public and was well attended.

REBEKAH MEMBERS ATTEND LUBBOCK MEETING

Ten members of the local chapter of the Rebekah Lodge attended the meeting of the Rebekah Lodge at Lubbock Thursday night. The Lubbock chapter initiated a local candidate for the Brownfield chapter.

Those attending were Messrs. and Mesdames R. A. Turner, C. D. Moore, T. V. Seaton, and Mesdames Julia Grayson, Ida Bruton, Mary Ellen Brown and Miss Eura Seaton.

Mrs. Tom May was a Lubbock visitor Monday.

LAS AMIGAS CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. NOEL

Mrs. Troy Noel was hostess to the Las Amigas Club at her home Thursday afternoon.

A salad plate, strawberry short cake and ice cream was served to the following members and guests: Mesdames Wilson Collins, Spencer Kendrick, Dick McDuffie, Clovis Kendrick, Orb Stice, Everett Latham, F. A. Scott, R. N. McClain, Grady Terry, J. M. Welborn, Ray Christopher and Pete Tiernan.

Defense Stamps were awarded Mrs. Spencer Kendrick for high score and Mrs. Scott for second high.

"JUG STATION" MILK

REPRINTED FROM THE JOURNAL OF THE AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, VOL. 115, NO. 20, NOVEMBER 16, 1940, BEING AN EDITORIAL IN WHICH THE AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION AGAIN RECOMMENDS PASTEURIZED MILK.

In 1932 the Journal condemned the sale and use of bootleg milk, namely milk offered for sale outside municipal limits and therefore not subject to the regulations governing the sale of milk within the municipality. Several Health officers at that time were confronted with the health hazard developed by the sale of milk at roadside stands to residents of nearby cities. Such milk was cheaper than milk sold in the city. Often it came from farms of such insanitary condition that their products could not be offered for sale within the city limits.

Studies by the United States Public Health Service and the former American Child Health Association have demonstrated again and again that milk borne epidemics are due almost exclusively to raw milk supplies. In many parts of this country, especially the smaller cities, raw milk still constitutes an appreciable percentage of the daily milk distribution. Raw Milk unless certified is frequently produced under conditions not conducive to safety. The danger of contamination of raw milk has been recognized even to the extent that producers of certified milk and the American Association of Medical Milk Commissions, which supervises certified milk production, are agreed that pasteurization would be an additional safeguard even for certified milk.

The sale of raw milk continues in spite of the fact that pasteurized milk is safer. Certainly there is no established evidence to indicate that raw milk is any more desirable nutritionally than pasteurized milk. The Council on foods and Nutrition of the American Medical Association has published the relative nutritional values of raw and of pasteurized milk.

"Milk is an excellent medium for many dangerous bacteria as well as an excellent food for men. Disease germs may enter the milk directly from an ailing cow, be introduced by insects, or be transferred to the milk by the fingers or mouth-spray of persons having to do with the collection or transportation of milk."

"The pasteurization of milk is a public health measure. The public should demand pasteurized milk for drinking and the use of pasteurized milk in milk products. The dairy trade should universally adopt pasteurization in the interest of public health.

"There is no cogent evidence that pasteurized milk is significantly inferior nutritionally to raw milk."

Even today bootleg milk stations, also called "jug stations" still operate outside the corporate limits and consequently outside the jurisdiction of some cities in which only pasteurized milk other than certified is legal. When every possible legal precaution has been taken to protect a community against potential dangers in raw milk, and milk consumers persist in circumventing the local regulations by buying milk from unsupervised sources, the occurrence of milk-borne outbreaks of communicable disease cannot be attributed to any failure on the part of the health authorities.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wells, of Alamosa, Colo., left last Friday after a visit here with his brother-in-law, W. O. Mills and family. Mills accompanied them to Artesia, N. M., where they visited Mills' brother.

Pat Patterson, manager of Piggy Wiggly, says we gave him a bit too much publicity as a farmer last week. Crede Gore is his partner in the venture.

R. L. Stallings returned last week from Dallas, where he went for a major operation on his sister. R. L. says it is so wet down in that section of Texas, that nothing less than a bullfrog can be happy there.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Sawyer and Mrs. M. B. Sawyer left Monday on a business trip to Dallas. Mrs. M. B. Sawyer remained for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Raymond Barrier.

This Sergeant Acts Dual Role With Carrier Pigeons and Bayonets

A worker of miracles is Master Sergeant Max Bronkhorst. At Fort Sam Houston, Texas, he is engaged in the dual capacity of training homing pigeons for the Signal Corps and in teaching New York clerks, Pennsylvania steel workers and young farmers from half a dozen states in the dexterous use of the bayonet.

He has been breeding carrier pigeons since his boyhood in Rotterdam, Holland, nearly half a century ago. He brought a basketful of his Dutch birds to America long before the first World War and with him they entered the United States Army. Both made good. Nearly everybody knows how pigeons are used in modern warfare for auxiliary communications and for pilots of airplanes whose radios go wrong. Parachute troops and military intelligence agents also need the courageous feathered messengers.

Very few are downed by gunfire, the sergeant says, but a good many are killed by hawks and cats. He declares that with the best of food and care a pigeon will serve the Army and the nation for as long as 10 years.

Bronkhorst is equally enthusiastic in his work as an instructor in bayonet practice. He acquired his skill with the steel weapon while serving in the Dutch army and majored in its use in the A. E. F. He is especially proud of his bayoneteers in the squads at Fort Sam Houston.

Sergt. Max Bronkhorst

I have never seen anything like them, he says. These men are just superior, and that's all there is to it. I've seen bayonet fighters of all races but none will be able to stand up against these American boys.

Soldiers from the farms, adept in handling the pitchfork, are handy with the bayonet but he singles out the Pennsylvanians for the highest praise. "Especially these Polish boys from the steel mills," the sergeant grins. "The Poles have a perpetual resentment of the wrongs suffered by their native land. They can come to grips."

Baptist Church News

It will be revealing to many to stop and look over the list of men from the families represented in the membership of this church, just inside the auditorium door. The war has been brought very close to these families while many others have been living very complacent lives thinking very little of the sacrifices being made by some in behalf of the country. While some are in the Army fighting for the right to exist as a nation of free men and the right to religious worship others ignore the matter of religious worship as of no importance in their lives, but it will no doubt become important to them before this war is over, as this is without doubt the most serious time in the history of our country and will mean privation and hardship for many before it is over.

The recently selected deacons had their first meeting last Sunday with eight of the nine present and elected W. H. Patrick chairman and C. E. Ross secretary. Three of the membership will retire in one year and the church will elect three others to take their places, the members being elected to serve three years each thus changing three members of the board this year. The office of deacon carries with it no authority in a Baptist church but recommendations can be made to the church whose voice is final. A good deacon is only a useful servant of the church and when they cease to be useful another should be elected.

Next Sunday is Mothers Day and we should honor our mothers who have departed and those who remain with us by attending church on a Bible study.

The Baccalaureate service will be held in this church Sunday evening with brother H. W. Hanks, pastor of the Methodist church preaching the sermon.

The Southern Baptist Convention will convene in San Antonio, next week and many should use this opportunity to attend this great meeting as it will no doubt be a long time before it meets in Texas again.

Visitors are always welcome.

Methodist Church

Next Sunday is Mother's Day. Let us all make a special effort to attend church services somewhere at that particular time. We welcome strangers and visitors. S. S. at 9:45.

Subject for the morning service: "The Christian Home." We invite all parents who wish to have their children dedicated in Holy Baptism to be present promptly at eleven o'clock.

There will be no preaching service in the evening. We shall attend the Annual High School Baccalaureate Service at the First Baptist Church.

Yep, that sandstorm last Thursday was a dinger. Some said it equalled the famous Thanksgiving storm back in the twenties. Anyway, we hope this satisfies Jess Smith, as he wanted to see a writeup about it.

THIS IS THE STORY OF CARBOLOY

How a Most Strategic Material of the War—Invented in Germany—Was Made Available to the United Nations

More Precious Than Diamonds in War Production . . . Carboloy is an American trademark for cemented tungsten-carbide, an alloy second only to diamonds in hardness, more precious than diamonds as a vital material in America's war program. It is used for the tips of cutting tools, and for wear-resistant dies. Carboloy is used in small quantities; it is difficult to make and difficult to use—but it has never been scarce in modern times. There is no scarcity now.

Invented in Germany—Krupp Protected by U. S. Patents . . . Cemented carbide was invented in Germany—it belonged to Krupp of Germany, and this made all the rest of the world Krupp's customer. In this country, Krupp was protected by patent grants from the United States.

General Electric Creates Independent Production . . . The General Electric Company two years before this had begun research on tungsten-carbide and foresaw its importance in industrial production. For immediate use in its own plants and for easier availability to others, General Electric undertook the long and arduous negotiations for the American rights. Limited rights were obtained in 1928, with Krupp continuing to export the material to its United States customers—a business which languished, however, as General Electric painstakingly developed its own Carboloy technique. This paved the way for General Electric to make the United States entirely independent of Germany for its cemented tungsten-carbide supply as early as 1936.

American Tool Costs Half That of German . . . From the start, two totally different businesses were involved. Krupp originally exported cemented carbides in chunks—and was unsuccessful. General Electric—and its subsidiary, Carboloy Co., Inc.—found it necessary to develop a complete engineering and manufacturing service, making various types of Carboloy equipped tools, training men in their use, and offering to its customers a specialized and successful production technique. For purposes of fair comparison, a typical German cemented carbide tool in 1928 cost $22.26 in the United States, while a comparable American Carboloy tool cost $11.11.

Loss to General Electric for Many Years—Art Taught to Industry . . . In times of peace—and 1928 was such a time—the measure of success of industrial adventure is to be found in profit to the adventurer. By such a measure, Carboloy could not be called successful. Initial expenses were great. For a time the Company lost at the rate of $1000 a day, and once had an operating deficit of more than a million dollars. One of the major contributing reasons was the continuing high cost of development, standardization, and training. In 1936-37 alone, training courses were given to 10,000 men in industry. Moreover, six major price reductions were made in the face of operating losses, until the standard tool blank had been reduced in price 90 per cent.

Faith and Perseverance . . . Depression was still another reason—labor-saving tools could not be sold to industry or labor at any price. But General Electric, with determination that now seems providential, kept on—increasing its capacity, granting new licenses, condoning instances of unlicensed production, staying ahead of its market.

Production Multiplied Forty-five Times in Four Years . . . Cemented tungsten-carbide could easily have been a source of weakness here, as it was in England, had it not been for General Electric's policy of continued expansion. In 1939, the production of the Carboloy Company was less than 20,000 lbs.; in 1940, it was 55,000 lbs.; in 1941, it was 163,000—and in December came Pearl Harbor. Now, in 1942, the Company's production is going at a rate that is 45 times that of only four years ago.

Britain Dependent upon Us . . . By contrast, British companies, which had been content to continue as customers of Krupp, found themselves cut off from the vital material when Poland was invaded. But the General Electric Company was able to supply substantial quantities to British industry immediately and since then has continuously filled British orders. It has, in like manner, filled Canada's requirements since 1936. It is currently supplying Canada, Russia, and other United Nations. All this in addition to supplying the greatly expanded needs of American industry.

An Inspirational Story of American Industry . . . Thus, the story of Carboloy does not end in "too little and too late." Like many previously untold stories of American industry, it continues, a sturdy and inspiring example of public service born of private enterprise, and characterized by hard work, ingenuity, investment, research, risk, and courage—a familiar pattern on this side of the Atlantic. DANGER LINGERS IN BLASTING CAPS

AUSTIN—With recent months bringing to Texas a great number of defense construction projects, the danger resulting from the careless handling of blasting caps has been greatly magnified, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"Due to occasional carelessness on the part of workmen, live caps sometimes are left in the neighborhood of construction jobs and thus get into the hands of children or others ignorant of their character," Dr. Cox said. "Curiosity often leads to tampering with these blasting caps with resulting serious injury."

Parents and school teachers should stress that it is perilous to hit blasting caps with a hammer or other instrument, and that it is equally hazardous to throw them into fires, Dr. Cox stated. Children should be warned not to touch blasting caps. If they come upon a stray one they should report the fact promptly to some one in authority or to their parents, so that proper steps can be taken to remove this potential danger to life and limb.

With the dangerous character of blasting caps sufficiently emphasized, and children trained not to touch them, the hazards now associated with them can be practically eliminated, Dr. Cox said.

TOKIO QUILTING CLUB

The Tokio Quilting club met with Mrs. J. R. Trout Thursday afternoon, April 30th.

Two Friendship Quilts were quilted.

There were 24 members present. Mrs. Charles Trout joined the club.

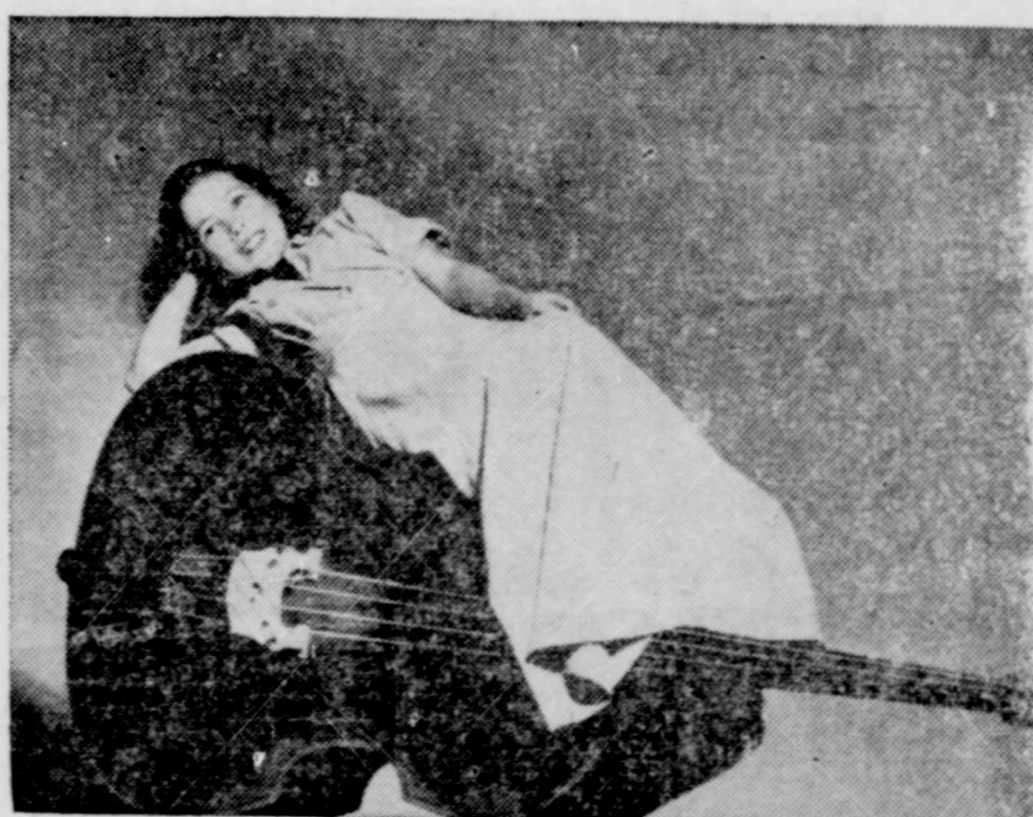

The hostess served cookies and punch.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Phillips May 14.

Walter Luker was in the past week to advertise some cottonseed for sale. But Walter says he's going to keep plenty for his own use providing he has to plant over.

Ten-Year-Old Sings With TSCW Band

Sally Maxwell, 10-year-old mascot of the Campus Serenaders, Texas State College for Women dance band, may be small enough to fit into the curves of a bass fiddle but she's a big attraction when she travels with the band as a featured singer. Sally loves music of any kind, has been singing since she was 2, plays the violin and piano, and wants to learn to play the bass just like her two big sisters, TSCW students. Her parents are Major and Mrs. F. W. Maxwell of Denton and San Antonio.

GOMEZ SCHOOL TO PRESENT PLAY

On Friday, May 8th, at 8:45, "Goldilock's Adventure" will be presented in the Gomez school auditorium. This 3 act musical playlet is a modern version of the old favorite story "The Three Bears" and is a very effective and spectacular evening's entertainment. The cast is made up of pupils through the first five grades. The directors are the primary teachers, Mrs. Paul Blackstock, Mrs. Troy Wright and Miss Attye Sledge.

There will be no admission charges.

The Herald received two copies of the Hamilton, (Ga.) Journal last week, one announcing the death of Mrs. Clarence O. Finch, and the next issue containing an obituary by her husband. Many will remember that they put on a subscription campaign for the Herald in 1937.

Mrs. Ches. Gore reports that she recently visited her mother, Mrs. Lee Walker, who is at present staying with another daughter, Mrs. Hyatt at Hamlin. She reports that a lower altitude seems to be agreeing with her mother, who is regaining her health.

Retail Price Freezing Order Explained Tonight

LUBBOCK, May 4—Recent government orders controlling retail and wholesale prices for the duration of the war in order to halt swiftly mounting cost of living will be explained in detail at a meeting in Lubbock at 8 P. M., Friday, May 8.

Especially invited to the meeting are all retailers and others of the merchandising trade—owners of large and small stores alike—from eighteen counties surrounding this city. Those counties include Yoakum, Terry and Gaines.

The meeting will be in the Senior High School Auditorium, 18th Street and Avenue T. J. D. Hassell, member of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce Committee on National Defense will be the chairman of the affair.

Odell Quante Accidentally Shot Last Sunday

Odell Quante, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Quante, is resting nicely at the local hospital, after an accident Sunday that could have been fatal. He had gone with Clyde Bond and his boys out at the Patterson farm east of town Sunday afternoon. They carried rifles to shoot rabbits, which were in the back of the pickup, and at least one of them was loaded.

It was stated to us that Clyde Jr. Bond was handling one of the guns, when it fired. Odell was standing almost directly in front of the gun, but not quite, so the bullet passed through the wood sideboard of the pickup, struck him in the left side of the stomach, and lodged against a rib. It is not believed that any intestines were cut by the bullet, and with no infection, Odell should be up and about in a few weeks.

Again, just a word of caution about firearms. They are good things in their place, but they must be handled with care; they are dangerous out of place. Be cautious, even if you are positive they are not loaded. There used to be an old yarn when the writer was a boy and lots of the guns had ramrods, "that guns are dangerous without lock, stock or barrel." It seems that Esra Hoskins had had worn out his wife with the ramrod.

Avoid Last Minute Drivers License Rush

AUSTIN, May 4—Nine hundred thousand Texas drivers' licenses have been issued under the new drivers' license law since last October 1, State Police Director Homer Garrison announced today. This is considerably less than half the 2,500,000 licenses which are expected to be issued by the end of September, Garrison said, warning that an unmanageable rush will occur late in the summer unless that rate of applications is speeded up immediately.

The Drivers License Division is issuing only 160,000 licenses a month now and is prepared to give rapid service," Garrison said. "If the applications each month continue to come in at their present rate, the number of applications each month will have to jump to 250,000 or 300,000 in July, August and September to meet the deadline."

Applications are now being accepted from any holder of an operator's license regardless of its serial number.

Terry County Gets Another Oil Well

Of six completions this week of producers in the Slaughter pool, three were in Cochran, two in Hockley and one in Terry. This is the first producer to be brought in on the Terry county side of the pool in some time.

Most of the new wells have been on the Hockley and Cochran side for the last few months, as the known production area is mostly in those counties, only a narrow proven strip extends into Terry county. We did not learn what the potential production of any of the wells was.

Uncle Jack Blankenship thought he lost his billfold with more than $20 in it this week. He was so darn sure that he never put it in any other than his lift hip pocket, he was too contrary even to try any other. But finally found it in his inside coat pocket, and had to make the rounds of all the newspapers to stop this ad.

Mrs. Dudley Repp and Sonny Repp spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McDuffie and family.

Gets License To Practice Law Early

Billie Joe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe J. McGowan received word this week from the president of the Board of Examiners, Dallas, to the effect that he had successfully passed the examination for admission to the bar of Texas, and to practice law.

The card was more in the form of congratulations, as the board member stated that he would get his diploma in due time. Billie Joe, or just Bill to most of us, is not 23 yet, his mother stated. Mrs. McGowan is thrilled, so is Joe, if he'd admit it.

Bill Hardin Graduates, Goes To West Coast

Bill Hardin, son of Mr and Mrs. W. G. Hardin of this city, received his diploma as an airplane mechanic at Shepherd Field, Texas, near Wichita Falls, recently.

He has already left for Tacoma, Wash., where he will be assigned to duties at some assembly plant, perhaps.

Bill Benton Gets His Hand Badly Crushed

Bill Benton of the Tokio community, had his hand badly mashed, especially the large fingers one day last week. He had the wheel of his car jacked up and was taking it off to repair a tire, when it slipped off the jack and hit his hand.

Bill stated that his wife rolled the car off his hand, and he came in immediately, thinking that at least two fingers would be lost but at the local hospital they had hopes of saving all his fingers.

Mr. and Mrs. Dell Smith of Seagraves spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Smith.

Paratroops Boast First Jumping Chaplain

Daniell Davis of Lubbock Flying School spent the weekend here with Mrs. Davis.

Mrs. Orb Stice and children spent several days this week with Mrs. M. M. Hines in Forsan.

CHAPLAIN RAYMOND S. HALL

Parachute troops at the Infantry School, Fort Benning, Georgia, boast of a literal "sky pilot." He is Chaplain Raymond S. Hall, former rector of St. John's Protestant Episcopal church, Lowell, Mass., and the Army's first jumping chaplain.

Chaplain Hall is a quiet, husky young man inclined to regard his present assignment as the happy working of fate. When he was first assigned to Benning, there was no regulation requiring chaplains to jump. Chaplain Hall soon fixed that. After a week of talking to the men he applied for permission to take the gruelling five-week training course. He found it rough going. It had been more than ten years since Chaplain Hall was captain of Brown University swimming team and a member of the All-American swimmers, and life in the rectory had not prepared him for the enthusiastic body-bending a parachutist must perform in training.

Today, as a qualified parachutist, he looks forward to each jump with zest. He also speaks with modest satisfaction of the men's reaction to his jumping. "It inspired attendance at church," he says.
