Your Home Owned and Home Managed County Paper — Where Farming, Ranching and Oil Fields Bring Prosperity to Terry County People

VOLUME THIRTY-SEVEN

BROWNFIELD, TERRY COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, May 15, 1942

NUMBER 41

National Cotton Week May 15 to 23

WHAT COTTON MEANS TO TERRY COUNTY

Aside from the farmers' share in an average of around 35,000 bales of cotton annually, we have several more ways to extract wealth and wages from the product. There are many sides to the business and many dependent on it for a livelihood. For instance, we have sixteen gins in Terry county, distributed as follows: Five at Brownfield, three at Meadow, two at Wellman, and one each at Union, Foster, Needmore, Gomez, Johnson and Tokio.

In addition, we have the Texas Compress and Warehouse Co., that has a high density press that will service bales right here to be shipped all over the World without further pressing. In addition, they have storage for more than 40,000 bales of cotton.

We also have the West Texas Cottonoil Mill that is capable of extracting the oil from thousands of tons of cottonseed. This oil is shipped to various places where it is transformed into pure, white cooking compound, that many cooks prefer to lard. Some is made into a fair substitute for butter. In addition, after the oil is extracted, there remains some mighty fine feed for cattle and sheep, such as hulls and meal or cake.

These 16 gins together with the compress and oil mill employ hundreds of men at good wages several months of the year. Together, they represent a tremendous payroll in which all of us share indirectly.

FROM MAY 15 to 23, INCLUSIVE, IS NATIONAL COTTON WEEK

Mayor Cox Proclaims Observance of Day in Our City, As Cotton is One of South's Greatest Assets. Income From Both the Lint and Seed.

The story of cotton in the South is many-sided, ranging from the romantic to the ridiculous, from poverty to wealth, and from peace to war. On the strength of its fine fabric, old southern mansions began to rise from the wilderness from the Carolinas and Georgia to Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas, Louisiana and the prairies of Texas. On the outskirts of these large land holdings, with their teeming negro slaves, lived the poorer classes of white people, known as Georgia Crackers, or by the slaves as "poor white trash."

Cotton did not take hold of the south to any great extent until about 1790, when a New England teacher and inventor by the name of Eli Whitney came down to Georgia to teach. He had finished Yale college, and of course found the negroes laboriously picking the seed from the cotton locks by hand. "Why not a machine to do that," he thought, and thus the first crude cotton gin, turned by hand was the result. That machine, however, was a far cry from the modern gin plant with some five or more stands, cutting out a bale of 500 pounds in some 40 minutes, day and night during the busy season.

Then it was seen that cotton was a great commercial possibility, and that not only our north, particularly New England, but old England, France, Germany and Italy, and other nations were in the market for the product. And thereby hangs a tale. Soon it was found that the seasons were too short in the north for its growth, and that the south had a corner on its production so far as America was concerned. Then it developed that most of the slave holders dwelt below the Mason and Dixon line, and that the holders thereof were getting rich. Talk then developed in the north to free the slaves.

Of course the owners of slaves, rich and powerful, socially and politically, resented this, and the strangest part of the matter to the present day person is why the poorer classes of the south should join the slave masters in a war against the north. They had no slaves. Another argument, that old, old question of "state rights" was used on them, and they furnished the south just as many or more troops, hard, seasoned fellows, as the plantation owners. Thus the Civil War, so-called.

The growth and expansion of cotton, however, was not to be downed, even halted, by the little matter of a four year bloody war.

It was too deeply entrenched, and its expanded production was inevitable. Not only was the ginning method improved and speeded up, but on the plantations after the war, improved farm machinery made the cultivation of more acres per man possible. As time went on, better seed, producing a better and longer lint and staple appeared. Experimental farms dotted the land, and all the southern states had their A. & M. colleges. Swarming from these insti-

Terry Co. 4-H Boys Pool For $6000 At K.C.

After the Plainview Show week before last, the owners of 47 Terry county 4-H calves pooled them and shipped to Kansas City where the total sum of $6,000 was realized for these fine calves. Prices ranged from $12.50 to $14.70 per hundred.

Boys who made the trip to Kansas City were Calvin Bartlett, Billy Joe Tilger, Bert Smith, Ben Kennedy, Harold Taylor, Robert Edwards, Dean Alexander, Carl Hogue, O'Dell Sears, Ernest Sears, Bonard Stice, David E. Stevens, Roach Perry, Paul Tapp and Glen Hart.

All the boys, whether or not they got to make the trip to the big Missouri cattle market, got a great kick out of fattening and showing their calves. And these boys are going to make their mark in feeding and fattening cattle for market in the future.

Moreman Candidate For City Marshal

Roy Moreman, present police chief this week authorized the Herald to state that he would be a candidate for the office of City Marshal at the election to be held on the 23rd day of June, 1942. Roy has made a fine police chief, and informed us he would have a statement in the Herald next week.

Mrs. Grady Terry and son left this week to join Mr. Terry in Pennsylvania. They will remain there several weeks before returning home.

tutions were young and enthusiastic men, not only trained in the finer points of raising more and better cotton on fewer acres, but they were trained to teach the farmers how to care for their soil, and raise other things than cotton, feed out livestock and raise more edibles for their tables. Thus we had our county agents, to be followed up by our Home Demonstration agents.

And so once again, the south, layed low and poverty stricken following the war between the states, became prosperous. Banks showed increasing deposits, more and better mercantile methods came into being, and a happy people, both black and white, lived peacefully together in the south. Our Texas alone, now perhaps raises as much cotton as all the old South prior to Civil War times. Cotton mills began to dot the south, many of them moving in from New England, as they would be nearer the cotton fields, with cheaper power, living expenses and labor at hand. And just a few years ago, North and South Carolina, Georgia and perhaps Alabama, manufactured more cotton goods than they produced in raw material. Texas nor none of the states further west are so fortunate yet, but with our cheap fuel in natural gas, we should be considered soon.

Our closest mill is at Post in Garza county, 52 miles due east of Brownfield. It makes the nationally famous Garza sheets and pillow cases, that are sold all over the nation in competition with the best. But with this section of some 20 counties raising toward a half million bales of cotton annually, the Post mills, making up perhaps 10,000 bales of cotton annually, hardly touches our vast production.

In the memory of men and women from 50 to 60, perhaps younger, percales was the finest of cotton goods then on sale. Not only has that been improved but others added, until some of the prettiest of ladies wearing apparel now appears in cotton fabrics. No longer is any lady ashamed to appear in cotton clothing. The merchants of Brownfield are usually well stocked in cotton goods. You are invited to buy wisely for your family needs, but there is no use in buying to hoard, as it is not anticipated that there will be a cotton goods shortage in our nation.

Stewardesses In Cottons

Cottons For Play

White, tubbable, scrubable cotton broadcloth was used to make this sunsuit worn by Maureen O'Hara, well-known film star. The halter design was borrowed direct from grandmother's pinafore with its so-flattering ruffles. The shorts are of the new longer length.

Cotton Gabardine

For play or work, city or country, this modern miss is ready in cotton gabardine. Cap, jerkin and skirt are made of durable, washable cotton gabardine in the patriotic colors of red and navy blue. The skirt has well-spaced pleats affording greater freedom of action.

Jack Bailey Opens Up Chevrolet Garage

The Herald is pleased to announce this week that Jack Bailey and Lee Jackson have opened the new Chevrolet building corner Broadway and Fourth, after being closed several weeks, when Teague-Bailey Chevrolet Co., sold their new cars and parts to a Lubbock concern.

Mr. Jackson is a good mechanic himself, and together with J. M. Beck and others, will have a full crew of good repair men, who will put in genuine parts, if needed. However, it is our understanding that any car will be serviced brought to them, together with a washing and greasing service.

As soon as the war is over, Bailey and Jackson hope to go back into the new car business, when they begin making them again. In the meantime, some used cars will be sold, but Bailey informed us that even used cars were getting hard to get.

The new firm will go under the name of Bailey Chevrolet Co.

Loyd Pickett Visits Home Folks

W. I. Pickett informed us this week that his grandson, Loyd Pickett, in the service on the west coast, was recently a visitor in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pickett. Loyd drives a car for his lieutenant, and is now earning $46 per month.

Mr. Pickett also stated that his son, Mack, was now stationed somewhere in Florida, with a field artillery unit, and had recently been promoted and was getting $66 per month.

Mr. Pickett informed us that he had sold seven of his trucks and now had only one, and didn't need it badly. They have been loading grain here and carrying it to east Texas, and returning with lumber, but since freezing of lumber, that is all out now.

Com. Bill Settles Undergoes Operation

Com. Bill Steeles of Meadow, and commissioner of Precinct 2, underwent an operation this week at the Treadaway-Daniell hospital for appendicitis. He was resting well Monday.

His mother, Mrs. J. W. Settles of Tahoka, and other relatives are here looking after Bill's comfort.

The district meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce will be held in Brownfield May 25th. Program and announcements will be printed in these columns next week.

Old Duke Passes On To Good Dog Heaven

There was an attendant at the Brownfield schools, we are told, that never missed a day, or was he tardy, until this week, when old age, probably, laid to rest that great friend of childhood, Old Duke, the school mascot. Duke was just a dog, but he loved young people, and was always ready to romp and play. If he had any certain home other than the school grounds, few knew it, and he lived well, as any student would divide the last crumb with Duke.

Many's the time we have seen a bunch of boys on the campus of the school grounds pat on a tree, when old Duke would jump as high as he could, and do his very best to climb the tree. He may have had many other tricks that we never saw, but anyone could tell that Duke knew his way about.

Duke did not pass from this vale of tears unhalloved and un-sung. His old body was placed in a box, and his remains now rest on the High School campus, to await the final summons to the home of faithful dumb brutes, if there be such place.

Wayne Casson Makes Trip On Famous Marblehead

Mrs. G. W. Hicks of the Pleasant Valley section is rather proud of the fact that her grandson, Wayne Casson, of San Angelo, was one of the hundreds of officers and sailors of the USS Marblehead, that but recently completed a limping voyage half around the world. This vessel was in the brush with the Japs at Macassar Straits, the Japs having a very superior force of battlewagons and planes.

The United Nations' few vessels had to scatter, and the Marblehead was repeatedly attacked for miles and miles by as high as 37 Jap planes, according to a story given the press by Capt. Arthur G. Robinson, when the vessel with gaping holes in it finally reach New York, May 8th.

Mrs. Hicks stated to the Herald that Wayne phoned his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Casson of San Angelo after reaching New York. Wayne, a member of the Bobcat football squad, has been gone a year. He was feeling OK despite the grilling fight against heavy seas in a wounded vessel.

The Japs have repeatedly reported having sunk the Marblehead. Wayne has visited here several times, and many of our citizens know him.

11,359 Register For Sugar Ration Cards

Supt. Lee Fulton, of Terry county schools informed us this week that a total of 11,359 people received rationing cards, and that there was 75 others who appeared, but having more than 6 pounds of sugar on hand, could not receive cards until later.

Mr. Fulton stated that some were still coming in asking when they could register. Some admitted that they took no papers, or at least some in the southwest part of Terry county, did not take a Terry county paper.

Mr. Fulton has turned over all papers and data to the rationing board, and they will pass on all cards issued henceforth.

Grady Goin Candidate For City Secretary

In these columns next week, Grady Goin will have a statement to make to the voters of the city of Brownfield, concerning his candidacy for the office of City Secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Kendrick spent Sunday with Mrs. John Kendrick in Seminole.

PROCLAMATION FOR NATIONAL COTTON WEEK

WHEREAS, the American cotton industry is making great and valuable contributions to the nation's total victory program by supplying numerous military and civilian needs for fiber and food, and line with the national program for the conservation of resources make their use by the civilian population directly in line with the national program for the conservation of materials, and

WHEREAS, the wearing of fresh clean, washable cottons is an acknowledged and important stimulant to personal morale,

NOW THEREFORE, as Mayor of the city of Brownfield, I do hereby proclaim the period from May 15 to May 23, inclusive, to be NATIONAL COTTON WEEK, and urge my fellow citizens to join me in buying wisely from the stocks of durable washable cottons of our local merchants, thereby making this Cotton Week another step in our Victory Program.

The price control act sure had a lot of our businessmen scratching their heads for a few days last week, but they seem to be leveling off as they learn just what they have to do and how to do it. Some who have investigated say that prices on many articles are down from a few weeks ago. We do not know, as we seldom ask the price of an article, preferring to yell, "charge it," over our shoulder as we walk out of the store.

It seems to us that the word "blast" is being overworked these days. The word is used many times when a ship, airplane or fort is merely damaged or disabled for the time being. To our mind, and we could be wrong, the word "blast" means to wreck, tear asunder, put out of commission altogether. It is also a convenient word for headline writers to use when a longer word or words would not fit the space. But if all things said to have been blasted was really blasted since this war started, there would be little war material left.

The Herald believes the farmer has justice on his side when he says that if his products are frozen at parity, that a ceiling should be placed on the wages of organized labor. While the farmers are not raising a big roar about the matter, they nevertheless have a powerful farm bloc in congress that might give some trouble to congressmen from labor controlled districts later on. But whatever happens, we'll bet our last pair of socks that the American farmer will be found at the forefront trying to produce every ounce, every ton of products for victory that his land and labor will bring forth.

Today begins National Cotton Week. We of the south particularly who owe most of our income to cotton and its by-products, should be really sure that we share in the cotton effort to the fullest extent, not only for this week, but all the time. While Texas is a great wool growing state, it is said that the Army, Navy, etc., will take all surpluses now stored, or to be clipped perhaps for the next few years. There is, however, such a surplus of cotton, that the only question is, can it be made into cloth and goods. We that are privileged to stay at home can wear cotton and use cotton blankets for the duration, in order that our armed forces have good warm clothing and blankets. It is our patriotic duty.

There is one item your government is advising you to hoard. If you expect to use coal for fuel this winter, you are advised to buy as soon this spring as possible, by mid-summer at the outside. This in order that there be no tie-up in needed freight cars just when you should need coal the worst, and perhaps you and the family have to suffer cold. It is our understanding that the government has authorized loans to dealers to handle the coal in large quantities this summer. Just whether the dealer is prepared to pass the credit on to the customer we imagine will depend a lot on whether or not the customer heretofore has been prompt in the discharge of his obligations to the dealer.

The dailies and magazines are getting the government ads, while the weeklies continue to be flooded with FREE propaganda, enough each week from the various governmental departments to fill several papers the size of the Herald. And if you will examine your weekly, you'll find several dollars worth of space each week devoted to the war effort in one form and another. But you don't see but little of it in the dailies and none in the magazines. They just don't give anything free. But the weeklies are run by individuals in most cases that live and have their home in the town where it is published. They are patriotic and can take it. Most of us will not make a dollar above actual expenses for the duration with car, oil and tire advertising out, but most of us will do our duty to our country in its time of need.

Notice Of Special Election

TO ELECT A CITY MARSHAL AND A CITY SECRETARY FOR THE CITY OF BROWNFIELD, TEXAS.

THE STATE OF TEXAS
COUNTY OF TERRY
CITY OF BROWNFIELD

Notice is hereby given that a Special Election will be held on the 23rd day of June, A. D., 1942, at the City Hall in the City of Brownfield, Texas, for the purpose of electing a City Marshal and a City Secretary for the City of Brownfield, Texas.

Those desiring their names to appear upon the official ballot shall file their names with the City Secretary of the City of Brownfield, not less than 15 days before the date of said election.

The persons receiving a plurality of votes in said election shall be declared elected for the offices respectively.

J. D. Miller has been appointed presiding officer for said election and he shall select two judges to assist him in holding the same, and he shall, within five days after said election has been held, make due return thereof to the City Council of said City, as is required by law for holding general elections.

All persons who are legally qualified voters of this State and who have resided within the City of Brownfield for at least 6 months preceding the date of said election shall be entitled to vote at said election.

Said election was ordered by the City Council of the city of Brownfield by order made on the 12th day of May, A. D., 1942, and this notice is given in pursuance of said order.

An Ordinance

PROVIDING FOR THE ELECTION OF A CITY SECRETARY AND A CITY MARSHAL FOR THE CITY OF BROWNFIELD, TEXAS, DEFINING THE DUTIES OF SAID OFFICIALS, SETTING THE DATE FOR SAID ELECTION AND PROVIDING FOR THE DATE OF THEIR TAKING OFFICE, PROVIDING THE LENGTH OF TENURE OF SAID OFFICIALS AND THE SALARIES THEREOF.

WHEREAS, a special election has been heretofore held to determine whether or not the qualified voters of the city of Brownfield, Texas, desired the election of a City Secretary and a City Marshal, and

WHEREAS, at said election, a majority of the voters voted in favor of the election of a City Secretary and a City Marshal for the City of Brownfield;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BROWNFIELD, TEXAS:

1. That an election be called to be held on the 23rd day of June, A. D., 1942, for the purpose of electing a City Secretary and a City Marshal for the City of Brownfield.

2. That said election shall be held in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas, and no person shall be eligible to the office of City Secretary or City Marshal unless he be a qualified elector and has resided twelve months next preceding the election, within the city limits of the City of Brownfield, Texas.

3. That said persons, elected and qualified, for said offices shall assume the duties thereof on the 1st day of August, A. D., 1942, and shall hold same until the regular election on the 1st Tuesday in April, 1944, or until their successors are elected and qualified.

4. That the salary for the office of City Secretary is hereby set at the sum of $170.00 per month.

5. That the salary for the office of City Marshal is hereby set at the sum of $150.00 per month.

6. That the duties of the City Marshal of the City of Brownfield are hereby defined by the City Council as follows:

A. The City Marshal of the City of Brownfield shall be the Tax Assessor of all property within said City; he shall assess said taxes according to and within the time provided by law; he shall be ex-officio Chief of Police, and may appoint one or more deputies which appointment shall only be valid upon the approval of the City Council. Said Marshal shall in person or by deputy, attend upon the corporation court while in session, and shall promptly and faithfully execute all writs and processes issued from said court. He shall have like power, with the sheriff of the county, to execute warrants; he shall be active in quelling riots, disorders and disturbances of the peace within the city limits and shall take into custody all persons so offending against the peace of the city and shall have authority to take suitable and sufficient bail for the appearance before the corporation court of any person charged with an offense against the ordinances or laws of the city. It shall be his duty to arrest, without warrant, all violators of the public peace, and all who obstruct or interfere with him in the execution of the duties of his office or who shall be guilty of any disorderly conduct or disturbance whatever; to prevent a breach of the peace or preserve the quiet and good order, he shall have the authority to close any ballroom or other place or building of public resort. In the prevention and suppression of crime and arrest of offenders, he shall have, possess and execute like power, authority, and jurisdiction as the sheriff. He shall perform such other and further powers and duties and authority as the City Council of Brownfield, Texas, may by ordinance require and confer, not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of this State.

7. The City Marshal shall give bond in the sum of $2,500.00 for the faithful performance of his duties, said bond payable to the City of Brownfield.

8. The duties of the City Secretary of the City of Brownfield are hereby defined by the City Council as follows:
A. The City Secretary shall attend every meeting of the city council, and keep accurate minutes of the proceedings hereof in a book provided for that purpose, and engross and enroll all laws, resolutions and ordinances of the city council, keep the corporate seal, take charge of and preserve and keep in order all the books, records, papers, documents and files of said council, countersign all commissions issued to city officers, and licenses issued by the mayor, and keep a record or register thereof, and make out all notices required under any regulation or ordinance of the city. He shall draw all warrants on the treasurer and countersign and keep same and an accurate record thereof in a book provided for the purpose. He shall be the general accountant of the corporation and shall keep in books regular accounts of the receipts and disbursements for the city, and separately, under proper heads, each cause for receipt and disbursement, and also accounts with each person including officers who have money transactions with the city, crediting accounts allowed by proper authority and specifying the particular transaction to which such entries apply. He shall keep a register of bonds and bills issued by the city, and all evidence of debt due and payable to it, noting the particulars thereof, and all facts connected therewith, as they occur. He shall carefully keep all contracts made by the city council; and he shall perform all such other duties as may be required of him by law, ordinance, resolution or order: by the City Council.

B. He shall be the City Treasurer and as such he shall receive and keep all monies belonging to the city, and making all payments for the same upon order of the Mayor, properly attested to under the seal of the corporation. No order shall be paid unless the said order shall show upon its face that the city council has directed its issuance, and for what purpose. He shall render a full and correct statement of his receipts and payments to the city council, at their regular meeting in every quarter and whenever, at other times, he may be required by them to do so. At the end of every half year he shall cause to be published, at the expense of the city, a statement showing the amount of receipts and expenditures for the six months next preceding, and the general condition of the treasury. He shall do and perform such other acts and duties as the city council may require.

C. He shall be the Tax Collector for the city and keep proper records thereof.

D. He shall collect all paving assessments of the city and keep proper records thereof.

E. He shall prepare, mail and collect all utility bills of the city of every kind and nature.

F. He shall keep a record and inventory of all supplies purchased and used by the city utilities and other departments of the city.

G. He shall issue all building permits under the proper authority.

9. The City Secretary shall give bond in favor of the City of Brownfield in the sum of $20,000.00, and in such form as the city council may require, with sufficient security to be approved by the city council, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties.

10. The City Council shall have the power from time to time to require other and further duties of said officers whose duties are herein prescribed, and to define and prescribe the powers and duties not herein specifically mentioned, and fix their compensation.

11. The City Council shall have the power to remove any officer for incompetency, corruption, misconduct or malfeasance in office, after due notice and an opportunity to be heard in his defense.

Passed this 12th day of May, A. D., 1942.

GOMEZ NEWS

There will be a clinic conducted on Tuesday, May 19, at the County Health office in the court house at Brownfield, to check up on the health of your pre-school child, and to give whatever vaccinations are necessary. This not only takes in the child who will start to school next term, but any child under school age. But they cannot check them unless they are brought in. You owe it to your child to see that he starts to school with a clean bill of health. So be sure and take them in on Tuesday, May 19. If you can do so, come to the Gomez school building at 3 o'clock p. m., and a group will go together from there.

to 80 pounds of feed annually, while general purpose breeds consume 80 to 95 pounds. Feed consumption is greater in months of heaviest production.

Average value of eggs sold per hen was $2.58, with a feed cost of $1.04, giving a profit above feed cost of $1.54 per year.

NET PROFIT OF $1.54 PER HEN FOUND

LUBBOCK — The higher the egg production, the greater the profit per hen, a recent survey of 23 poultry farms in West Texas reveals. The study on production costs for one year, made by J. D. Strickland, assistant professor of animal husbandry at Texas Technological College, showed an annual consumption per hen of 34.7 pounds of mash and 40.5 pounds of scratch grain. The highest producing flock, averaging 251 eggs per hen, consumed 87.6 pounds of feed.

"Feed cost, which normally represents 50 to 60 per cent of the total cost of production, varies in sections and changes from year to year," Strickland says. "The most important factors affecting cost are feed, labor, and the average number of eggs laid by each hen."

"Light breeds consume from 70

Texas Fire Departments Have Plenty Equipment

Equipment of Texas fire departments includes enough heavy hose, if placed in one line, it would extend from Dallas to within a few miles of San Antonio.

This is revealed by Marvin Hall, State Fire Insurance Commissioner and State Fire Defense Coordinator, following a state-wide inventory of equipment of fire departments in the state. The inventory covered equipment of 510 departments.

Footage of all types of hose for fighting fires, if placed in one continuous line would extend for a distance of 337 miles.

Personnel of all fire departments totals 13,652 men. Of these, 2,916 are paid and 10,736 are volunteer firemen. Hall said these figures do not include the thousands of persons who have been trained, or now being trained, as auxiliary firemen in local Civilian Defense organizations.

Equipment for use in reviving persons overcome by smoke, heat and other causes, includes 99 inhalators owned by fire departments. Other information gleaned from the inventory shows Texas firemen have 573 gas masks; more than 3,000 fire extinguishers of various types; 2,963 nozzles for 2 1/2 inch hose, and 65,829 feet of ladders.

There are almost three thousand fire trucks of all types. More than a fourth of these are pumpers.

Hall added that further information revealed 841 ambulances are located in the 510 towns and cities included in the inventory.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR MRS. MARKINS

Funeral Services were held at the Presbyterian Church May 12 at 2:30 o'clock for Mrs. Nancy Markins, sister of John B. King of this city, with Rev. Fred A. Walker officiating.

Active pallbearers were Joe Chisholm, Dick Chisholm, James King, Donald King, James H. Dallas, and Larry Miller.

Mrs. Markins is survived by her husband, Raymond W. Markins, and two brothers.

Mrs. Markins had resided in Fresno, Calif., but passed away in Artesia, N. M.

Interment was in the Terry County Memorial Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Smith of Lubbock spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith.

COTTON QUIZ

WHAT WAS THE "LAMB-TREE" OF ANCIENT TARTARY?

ANS. ANCIENT MYTHS DESCRIBED COTTON BOLLS AS "LAMBS"; THE MYTHICAL "LAMBS" REACHED DOWN AND GRAZED UNTIL THE STALKS GREW TOO HIGH, THEN STARVED AND THEIR BODIES TURNED TO FLEECE.

The House That Cotton Built

Almost overnight scores of concrete defense homes are rising at Falls Church, Va. The rapidity of construction of these houses can be attributed largely to the ingenious use of cotton and rubber, the National Cotton Council and Cotton-Textile Institute report. Room-sized rubberized cotton balloon sections are inflated and sprayed with concrete. When the concrete hardens the balloon is removed and the concrete shell is covered with insulating material and an outer layer of concrete. Defense housing officials say that using four balloon sections, they can erect 100 houses in 60 days and 200 in 90 days. Above, workmen dust balloon with a compound to prevent concrete from sticking to it, and below, is shown a finished house. The house has two bedrooms, living room, kitchen, bath, entrance hall and ample closet space.

From An American Dad To His Sailor Son

"Dear Son:
"I am sending you the papers which give my consent for you to join the Navy. I wish you the best of luck, and I want you to write your mother as often as you can. We both hate to see you go, but you go with our best wishes. We want you to try and be one of the best men in the Navy.

"Son, I would like for you to try and qualify as a gunner, then maybe you will have the privilege of firing a broadside right where it will do the most good—into a Jap Ship.

"You are passing out of our hands now and will be under the care of the U. S. Navy. Always remember to obey your superior officers.

Be honest, apply yourself one hundred percent to your job—and do that job well. It will be a long hard fight. We are counting on you and several million like you to do the job.

"Answer right back, we will be wanting to hear from you.

"Love,

Dad."

NOTE: The above was written by a West Texas father to his son who joined the Navy at Dallas.

From where I sit...

by Joe Marsh

RUMMAGING through my desk the other day, I came across some snapshots of friends of mine made back in 1933.

If you don't think time flies... if you don't think this world ever changes... you ought to look at the women's hats and dresses in those pictures taken 9 years ago! Wow!

It gave me quite a start... and then it set me to thinking... and rememberin'! Lots of things sure happened in 1933. A new administration in Washington... the turning point of the depression... and the coming of Repeal.

I remember the re-legalization of beer. It came before Repeal, when Congress amended the old Volstead Act to allow legal sale of "3.2" beer.

What talk and arguments they had in those days! One argument I remember well... was that beer would do a lot to help bring back prosperity. I wondered at the time whether that argument could be proved.

I thought about that again, the other day. I decided to check up and find out.

Well, I found out plenty. I found out that legal beer has paid more than 3 billion dollars in taxes since 1933. It has made more than a million new jobs.

According to one of the reports I've seen, beer has put more than 15 billion dollars into general business circulation. Goodness me, that's a lot of money.

Beer is sold today in every state in the Union. Every state benefits from beer's jobs and taxes. And I guess there's no denying that beer did do its share in bringing back better times.

I'm glad it did, too, because beer is such a pleasant, appetizing beverage. And it stands for moderation and moderate people... it's not likely to get you in trouble.

Next Sunday's sermon will be on the subject, "Finish The Job." There are many starters, but few finishers. Which are you? "He that endureth to the end shall be saved."

WOODMEN CIRCLE DISTRICT CONVENTION THE 21ST

We are authorized to announce that the Woodman Circle district convention will be held here Thursday, May 21. The state manager as well as the district manager will be in attendance.

Mrs. Chas. Moore stated that they were not notified until late this week that the convention was to be held here, thus too short time to get up a program and get it in the paper.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Rambo, Francis Joyce Rambo, Beverly Balfanz, Jean Knight and De Verle Lewis accompanied Buddy Rambo to Lubbock Saturday where he left on the train for San Antonio where he will train in the Air Corps.

Cotton Mesh Hose

Linda Darnell, shown here in her dressing room, slips on a pair of cotton mesh hose as a part of her rehearsal costume. Cotton hose today have more "give and twist" than the old type of cotton yarn.

MRS. STICE IS HOSTESS TO LAS AMIGAS

Those attending the Las Amigas Club at the home of Mrs. Orb Stice Thursday afternoon were Mesdames W. R. McDuffie, Wilson Collins, Spencer Kendrick, Clovis Kendrick, Jack Bailey, Troy Noel, Jack Hamilton, R. N. McClain, and J. M. Welborn. Mrs. Richard Kendrick was a tea guest. The hostess served a delicious salad plate and ice to members and guests.

Defense Stamps were awarded those with high scores.

LOCAL O. E. S. MEMBERS ATTEND SCHOOL OF INSTRUCTION

Those attending the Lubbock O. E. S. School of Instruction May 7th were Ida Bruton, Ione Turner, Molly Goodpasture, Jean Brownfield, Mary Ellen Brown, Cornelia Moore, Allie Cox, Margaret Sue Wilhite, Ona Gore, Della Thompson, Viola Barrett, Mattie Lou Graves, Dorene Criswell, Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Howe.

Those taking part in the program were Jean Brownfield, Molly Goodpasture, Ione Turner, Mary Ellen Brown, Allie Cox and Ida Bruton.

Dick McDuffie, O. L. Peterman and Homer Winston were Vernon visitors Tuesday.

If the newspaper articles were written the same way that radio programs are given, how would they sound? The Trinity Standard in effect—inquires and then proceeds to demonstrate by publishing an article entitled "The Radio":

Don't give Him a chance to forget you! Send your picture to be his constant companion! We give you a choice of three prints.

ALLEN STUDIO

radio and who says that he almost regrets having made it possible. But now for just a word from our sponsor.

(Do you get the Trinity Standard regularly? If you do not get the Trinity Standard rush down to the news stand and buy a copy of the Trinity Standard and then rush to the Trinity Standard office and subscribe to the Trinity Standard and you will receive the Trinity Standard once each week, and you will be able to keep informed and amaze your friends with your knowledge of local affairs. Now some more about the radio.)

The first messages carried electrically through the air were telegraphed, and the system then was known as wireless. Marconi was one of those who helped perfect this great invention. But before we tell you more about Marconi just a word from our sponsor.

(Make the count test. Take an ordinary newspaper and crumple it in your hands while you count five: one, two, three, four, five; then take the Trinity Standard and crumple it in your hands while you count five, and notice the difference. Now some more about the radio.)

The first wireless signals were sent across the ocean by Marconi in 1901. However, it was a long time from that date until there was a radio set in nearly every home. And here is a brief message for you, while we check the latest information regarding this wonderful invention.

(When you buy the Trinity Standard you buy the best. The paper, on which the Trinity Standard is printed, is carefully selected, and in order to get the very best we pay 27 per cent more than the average market price. The ink, too, is selected with the greatest care, and is mixed with vitamins so that when you get the Trinity Standard you not only get vitamins A, B, and C, but the lower case vitamins, a, b, and c, as well. No other newspaper can make that claim. Now more about the radio.)

In the early twenties the first radio sets were marketed. At that time it was customary to sell parts, and in many instances amateurs built their own sets, using ear-phones, for the loud speakers had not been perfected at that time. In just a moment we will be back with more about the radio.

(Are your hands beautiful, or do they look like misshapen carrots? Does your husband thrill when he sees your hands or does he shudder? Your hands, too, may be beautiful and seductive. Every morning and night just wrap your hands in copies of the Trinity Standard, just as the movie stars do, and then you too will have beautiful hands, and you will exude glamour like an automobile exudes gas fumes. And now some more about this interesting subject, the radio.)

Ladies and gentlemen, we interrupt our program to bring you a special bulletin. Hitler has just surrendered, the Berlin radio states. Mussolini has denounced the axis and a peace party in Japan has driven out the militarists and is asking for peace. But now we have some important news from our sponsor.

(The Trinity Standard is only $1.50 per year, slightly more when sent a distance. Save the wrappers from the Trinity Standard, and when you have accumulated a dozen, send them in to the Trinity Standard, and you will receive a lovely bridge pad free; enclose 10 cents for wrapping and mailing.)

Short words are always strong words; they explode like bullets. Do you know that the average word in the English Bible, including even the proper names, is composed of less than five letters? Leave out the proper names and the average word wouldn't even have four.

In the 23rd Psalm there are 110 words of one syllable. In the Sermon on the Mount, more than 80 percent are words of one syllable. In the Ten Commandments, on which are based all of the laws of the world, there are 319 words; 259 are words of one syllable; and only 60 of two or more syllables. In Lincoln's Address at Gettysburg, perhaps the greatest in the world, there are 266 words.

Maid Of Cotton In Hollywood

Hollywood's movie stars welcome King Cotton's ace fashion emissary when Camille Anderson of Memphis, 1942 Maid of Cotton, meets Ann Ayars and Lloyd Nolan in the film capital. Appearing as featured model in all-cotton fashion shows throughout the nation, the pretty blue-eyed lass is showing the latest styles in cottons for spring and summer. The National Cotton Council and Cotton-Textile Institute, the Memphis Cotton Carnival Association, and the Cotton Exchanges of Memphis, New York and New Orleans are sponsors of the Maid of Cotton tour.

Of these, 194 words are of one syllable; 53 of two syllables; and only 19 of three or more.

There is food for thought in these figures. What an improvement in our writers and speakers, if, like Lincoln, they would give study to the English of the Bible.

And help the USO, won't you? The campaign is now on in Texas to raise funds to supply recreation and comforts for our Army, Navy and Marine Corps. Let's all do our part!

Baptist Church News

The morning preaching service was well attended but some are quite irregular in attendance at Bible study period especially since the change to war time and seem to be able to be on time everywhere except for the study of God's Word. If being up late Saturday morning and fail to attend the worship a self examination is in order as the Bible clearly states "forsake not the assembling of yourselves together" and while this was written before the days of radio; it is God's word and would include those who listen to the radio sermon which is no substitute for assembling together.

All of the services of this church will be held as usual Sunday morning and while the pastor with others are attending Southern Baptist Convention this week, if he does not return by Sunday another preacher will be present. Matters of world interest regarding missionary work of this convention will be considered at San Antonio, especially affecting our work after the war is over and they will no doubt make recommendations to the churches concerning the same and it behooves all of our people to be much in prayer that wise counsel may be heeded and that the churches of this convention composed of a membership of about five million members may see the wisdom of cooperating together in order that a great work may be accomplished.

The Southern Convention was organized in 1845 while the question of differences existing between the North and the South no doubt caused this organization, no one thinks of covering the United States with one working body for the entire Baptist population preferring to own and operate our own institutions in the south as we have done now for 97 years.

The public schools have closed and all of the people have leisure to study the Bible in their respective churches and they should not neglect to do so, especially forming this good habit in youth. Visitors always welcome.

Preparing For Large "Rubber" Acreage In 1943

SALINAS, Calif.—Over 100 districts in the United States will have trial plantings of guayule, sometimes called "Salinas Rubber," according to word received from Fred S. McGarger, secretary of the Salinas Chamber of Commerce.

These small acreages are to be located at 56 places in Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, and California. These plantings are under the direction of Dr. W. G. McGinnis of the Southwest Forest District. 750 acres at Salinas, California are being devoted to nurseries where five hundred million seedlings will be grown to be transplanted to from 45,000 to 50,000 field acres in 1943.

In addition, various experimental plantings are being tried under the Dr. Spence plan of sowing the seed thin and harvesting this fall and also under the Lee plan of sowing the seed and thinning the young plants just as is done with lettuce.

The seed collecting system is being completely revised and it is hoped to have sufficient seed to plant several hundred thousand acres under the Spence plan in 1943, if that plan proves feasible.

Every retailer automatically becomes licensed by the OPA under the Price Control Act of May 18, 1942.

"JOIN OR STARVE"—NEW UNION LABEL

What would you think if a law were passed making it possible for a private organization to legally force you to buy its product and pay it initiation fees and dues?

Don't say, "That's impossible!" For that is what powerful labor unions are seeking under closed shop contracts. In some industries, such as soft coal, they have succeeded.

The demands now made by the Steel Workers Organization Committee on the the companies known as "Little Steel" are typical. The committee would make it a condition of employment that all employees of the company become and remain members of the union in good standing within 30 days of their time of employment. They demand further that the companies "check off" (deduct from all employees' pay checks) the union dues and initiation fees and turn them over to the union. And finally, they demand that the union itself be regarded as sole judge of what is meant by the term "in good standing," and that the employer be absolutely bound by the decisions of the union on the matter.

What does this all mean? It means that no man could hold a job unless he joined a union, paid tribute to a union, and kept in the good graces of union officials. It means that the employer would be forced to act as a collection agency in the matter of dues, irrespective of the wishes of the employees. It means that union officials would be given vast sums of money to spend in any way they saw fit—money over which there is no governmental regulation or control of any kind. And it means, lastly, that these union officials would have czar-like authority over the jobs, the op-

The Herald family received notice this week of the birth of Douglas Wade, weight, 7½ lbs., to Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Hilyard, April 16. The Hilyards live in Dallas, but both formerly lived here. Ben was assistant cashier of the Brownfield State Bank a number of years, while Mrs. Hilyard held a position as linotype operator for the Herald almost ten years.

Mrs. Jack Ward, of San Diego, Calif., is here for a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Chisholm. Her husband has a job in an airplane factory, and she reports they are liking their new home.

COTTON QUIZ

WHAT IS THE ASSOCIATION BETWEEN COTTON AND NUMBER "158"?

ANS: AN OPAQUE BLUE COTTON CAPSULE CONTAINED 1940'S HISTORIC DRAFT NUMBER "158". THE CAPSULES IN THE "GOLDFISH BOWL" WERE MADE TO ORDER FROM COTTON "INTER"

Union News

Ed Evans, our efficient Mayor, says he has decided not to build any street car line in our town until after the duration.

Miss Ethel Montgomery has been seriously ill for the past few days. She is at the Treadaway-Daniell hospital.

Some of our farmerettes have some of their cotton crops planted.

Chick Holmes, our big law, says his V-8 will make 90, but even at that he says there is at least one car that can outrun him.

A certain soldier boy, whose name is unknown to us was driving down one of our highways a few days ago. We know that he believes in brotherly protection, as there was a member of the fair sex with him, and he had his arm around her, like he was afraid she might fall out of the car, and she, true to the American Tradition, must have had confidence in the American soldier, as there was a pleasant smile on her face like she knew he would not let her fall. We hope she will always have this kind of brotherly protection, yet we are still wondering if he were really her brother.

The small son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Benton was painfully, though not seriously burned a few days ago.

We read with interest that our statesman and patriot, Judge Allred, has resigned as Federal Judge and is now a candidate for United States Senator. Two years ago, one candidate and his supporters told us that a candidate should not hold on to one office, and at the same time run for another office, even though the rules of the game permitted him to do so. However, during the campaign for U. S. Senator in 1941, this did not seem so bad to some of those who had condemned the practice the year before. They said a candidate should play the game according to the rules of the game until the rules could be changed. The fact is the rules did not prohibit anyone from resigning from one office in order to run for another office, and anything that was wrong during the 1940 campaign must have been wrong during the other campaign. Judge Allred proved his love for his country during World War No.1, and this is a time we should elect men to office who will help fight our enemies, instead of fighting our Commander-In-Chief right when he asked for an extension of time for the boys in the service before Pearl Harbor?

And if in the right, those who voted against this measure were in the wrong.

If this measure should have been defeated, then Pearl Harbor, the Philippines and other places in the Pacific would have been weakened from a military standpoint, and at a time when it should have been made stronger. Are we going to reject a worthy man who has had military service, and elect one who has not, and in that say to our unselfish, patriotic, God-fearing sons who are now in the service, that we expect you to make good soldiers, but after the bloody struggle is over, there will be no place for you in Congress as long as the man who has no military record wants the job.

In my opinion, we need to elect men to office, who will strive to have the people have confidence in the government. We have a government that is not only worth fighting for but worth dying for. I cannot believe that there is a bunch of grafters in several of the departments at Austin any more than there is a bunch of grafters around our courthouse, and no one believes that to be the case. If I am in the wrong, please tell me so.

You may have guessed that my name is . . .
Jacob Sandage,

MAY 15 to 23

Terry is a land of cotton and livestock. The two are closely woven together. Cottonseed products are used extensively in feeding both beef and dairy cattle. Cotton is the foundation of our wealth

In these times when the National watchword is Conservation, cottons are most suitable fabrics for civilian consumption. Cotton fabrics will stand more washings and more strain than any other fiber. Their use by civilians is fully in line with the government conservation program.

It is equally true that cotton freshness and fighting trim go hand in hand. With the whole country geared to hard work as never before,

MAY 15 to 23

The cotton industry assumes a three-point responsibility—to the nation, to the consumer, and to our armed forces—this year. With National Cotton Week dated May 15th to 23rd, all of us in this area should be intensely interested in cotton and its by-products. We are.

there is no better way to start the day's work with a bath and fresh, clean cotton clothes. There is a freshness about clean cotton that helps build the high morale which will end the battle of production.

The undersigned gins are proud to lend their aid to the observation of National Cotton Week. We are directly in the cotton business as ginmen, and are proud of it. At all times we stand ready as gin plants and individuals to help promote a better cotton fabric, and more of it on fewer acres.

We are proud to serve the cotton farmers of Terry County. Many of them are our personal friends, as well as friends of the plants. We have enjoyed your patronage, and at all times we have striven to give you the very best of gin service. That, too, shall be our watchword of the future.

Cotton Week Supporters In Rural Texas

College Station—Rural people of Texas will be among the most enthusiastic to celebrate National Cotton Week, May 15-23, because they know the importance of cotton in the economic life of their state and nation, says Mildred Horton, vice director of the A. and M. College Extension Service and a member of the Texas National Cotton Week Committee.

Through the state 217 county home demonstration and assistant agents, Texas farm families are being urged to emphasize "conservation" of cotton during the observance.

Care of clothing and household cottons is in line with the Victory Demonstrator's war-time pledge which thousands of farm families are making with the Extension Service, Miss Horton says. One part of the pledge is to "take good care of everything I use—food, clothes, furnishings, equipment," etc.

Mrs. Dora R. Barnes, extension clothing specialist, points out that most cotton materials give long life. During National Cotton Week she will emphasize materials which require little pressing or ironing such as woven "crinkled" materials and woven seersucker... materials which are sanforized shrunk and will not shrink out of shape with laundering.

Cotton work clothing which is safe, comfortable, and attractive is being recommended to women and girls who are taking the place of men and boys on the farm or in war industries. Some of the crease-resistant fabrics excellent for work clothes are light-weight denims, seersuckers, and gaberdine.

With paper and linen scarce, Mrs. Bernice Clayton, Specialist in home improvement, says cottons are being used more widely in the home. She urges homemakers to use unbleached muslin for household purposes, since this will save bleaching and dyes.

In addition, home makers will soon be asked to limit their bedding supply to four sheets and four pillow cases per bed, so it is important that their bed linens be given the best of care. One sheet contains enough material to make four pairs of shorts for a man in the army.

Waterworks Ass'n. Meets In Odessa

Dr. Patterson of the Five County Health Unit informed us this week that the Permian Basin Waterworks Association will meet in Odessa, May 19th. A barbecue will be one of the features.

Dr. Patterson stated that the association was training men to watch city water supplies for possible contamination, and in case of emergency chlorinate water supplies if infected, without waiting for someone else to get there.

In this day of war and possible sabotage, with unknown fifth columnists in our midst, no chance can be taken with our water supplies, the doctor stated.

American Legion Holds Get Together Meet

The local American Legion, or some of them at least, felt they were not quite doing all they might do in aid to the country in a second crisis in their lifetime, so a meeting was called to the Hall on Seagraves highway, last night.

Knowing most of these men as we do, we feel sure that they as a whole have done a share equal with the average citizen in helping Uncle Sam win the World War II. We will try to give the reader an account of the actions of the meeting in the next issue.

VICTOR E. POLLARD TRAINING IN OKLAHOMA

WILL ROGERS FIELD, OKLA.—Pvt. Victor E. Pollard, formerly of Brownfield, Tex., is one of the soldiers stationed at this Army Air Force bombardment base.

Pvt. Pollard is assigned to a bombardment squadron here for training. He is the son of Gus Pollard of Brownfield. Before entering the Army in April of this year, Pvt. Pollard resided at Brownfield.

Before reporting to Will Rogers Field on April 18, 1942, he was on duty at Fort Sill, Okla.
