BROWNFIELD, TERRY COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1942

NUMBER 7

Why So Much Expected Of Publishers?

Some time last year when the boys began to be called into the service, some of the papers, to show their patriotism perhaps, and without taking foresight into consideration, agreed to send all service men of their county, or in case of smaller papers, men from their community, their paper free of charge. This was a bit embarrassing to the Herald who did not jump at the idea. In fact, we have believed ever since the first squad of men were sent to reception centers from Terry county, that there would be a long and ever increasing string of them.

Indeed, R. A. Simms, secretary of the Terry County Draft Board, is our authority that more than 600 men from Terry county, volunteers and draftees, are already in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, Air Corps and other departments of the armed service. So you see, if the Herald had jumped into the matter and stayed hitched, it would be costing us already to the tune of $900 per year to carry out the agreement. This is something that few country papers are able to do, and no other business man would be asked to do. In some places, however, newspaper men are sometimes embarrassed by the unthinking by being asked why they are not sending their papers to the boys free.

And we still had another angle this week. A good lady called and wanted a writeup about their son in the navy, with his picture. It costs a weekly with no engraving plant $1.25 each to get cuts made in Dallas, in Lubbock, around $2.00. We offered to get a cut for them at cost, and give the boy a writeup free of charge, of course. The lady was mighty nice about the matter, but friend husband got pretty sore, and talked pretty sarcastic about the matter. We explained that if we made and paid for a cut for their son, we would feel obligated to have cuts made of the other 600 sons of Terry county people, should they demand it, and you can see where such a bill would end. In fact, it would break most country weeklies to send the paper free and make cuts of all in the service from their counties. Many country weeklies don't net more than $2000 per year after expenses are paid, for their owners to live on.

We are glad, however, that practically all our people take a different view of the matter. Indeed, we have some 50 or 75 of the home boys on our mailing list now, being paid for by their parents, or in some cases by the boys themselves. These people are glad to pay for the paper going to their boys, and wish to put no burden on the Herald.

What are the newspapers doing in the war effort? Well, sir, according to their income, they are doing more than any other one business aside from those who are actually furnishing boys to the service, and some of them now have as many as three boys in the service. Each week the Herald gives from $25 to $40 worth of free space in selling War Bonds and Stamps, in scrap metal and rubber and Red Cross Drives and what have you. Just check up on our columns some week of the number of inches of such matter, and multiply the number of column inches by 30c per inch and see what you have. No other business is doing so much nor are expected to do so.

In other words, no man would go to a groceryman and ask them to send $2.75 worth of merchandise to their son. We are always glad to get letters from the boys and will try to print them. But remember that even that costs us money when you get down to brass tacks and toenails, as linotype operators, makeup men and pressmen do not work for nothing, nor is print paper free. Letters from the boys, or news about them is real NEWS to our readers, and we want all of it we can get.

We know that few will ask us to do the impossible.

Pvt. D. L. Richards In Louisiana Maneuvers

The parents of Pvt. D. L. Richards, who live in the stucco house on the draw of the old Lamesa road, recently received the following letter from their son:

"Sat. Morn. (don't know the date.) Well I'm in Louisiana in the maneuvers, and I mean on the out side. You go to bed in the dark; get up the same way; sleep in your clothes. I have two blankets and a raincoat and mosquito bar to sleep on the bare ground. You may be called to move any moment; keep a gas mask on you all the time. I am in the anti-aircraft dept., with guns mounted on trucks, so don't have to walk. It is just like regular war except we don't use live ammunition.

"You may get 'captured or killed,' we being the Reds fighting the Blues, and pretty interesting; you eat when you get a chance, and never know what next. I have n't heard a word from anyone yet, but have written several, but I guess this is caused by us moving so much. Guess we will get mail out here. Trees 100 feet high and hot as can be here in Central La. I hear we will be here until Nov. 7. Time has passed fast, so far.

No time for anything, can't write at night as we have blacked out all the time. Wish I had one of those big Terry county melons. My vaccination didn't hurt me; had only two. I guess I will be stationed here in La. after the maneuvers, as many of us have had no training. Write when you can. Guess I'll get your letter sometime, so 'bye, with love."

Terry County Gins In Splendid Condition

Last week and this, the Terry county gin owners and managers, or at least some of them, have been telling you in ads that they are well prepared to handle your ginning efficiently, quickly and to your entire advantage. Weeks ago, it appeared that there would be a banner crop in the county, and this still holds despite the fact that hundreds of acres have been destroyed or partially so by hail.

So, in view of the fact that a good crop was anticipated, the ginmen have spared no expense and labor in the past months in putting their gin properly in A-1 condition. They are experienced in the business, and during the cleaning and repairing period, every piece of machinery was minutely inspected for any flaws that might stop them at the height of the gin season.

All the old trash and rubbish that accumulated during the past season, or during the winds of spring have been moved or burned, so there would remain little fire hazards to their property or your cotton. The owners and managers realize that it is a hard matter to replace gin property destroyed by fire, so they have removed every fire hazard possible to assure no halting of the season's run by that very destructive element, fire.

Most of your gin men have been here for years. They are your personal friend, and you perhaps know most of them and their crews by their first names, and you have no uneasiness whatever that these men will lay down on you. You know they will serve you to the best of their ability.

So where ever or whoever gins your cotton this fall, you have the fine assurance that you are going to get the very best service that is possible for them to give you. This fine bunch of men are ready for your first, your last bale of cotton.

Meadow Boy Given Military Burial

Alvis B. Clemmer, 28, technician, fourth class at Camp Bowie, was fatally injured in an automobile mishap early last Wednesday near the camp. Miss Ruth Smith of Brownwood, was also fatally injured at the same time. Clemmer was the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Clemmer of Meadow.

Funeral was held at the Meadow Baptist Church, with both Methodist and Baptist ministers in charge of services. Burial followed in the Meadow cemetery with a Lubbock funeral home in charge.

Some eighteen Defense Guardsmen and American Legion men attended the funeral from Brownfield, and took charge at the grave, giving deceased a military funeral. Prior to the sounding of taps, a salute was fired over his grave.

Survivors, other than the parents, include four brothers: Jim Clemmer, Silvertown; Alton of Hamlin; Boon, of Meadow; and Buford, at a California Army post; three sisters, Mrs. Austin White and Miss Rowena Clemmer, both of Meadow; and Mrs. M. D. Luman of California.

Knight Obtains Supply Of Baling Wire

Men who have planted thousands of acres of peanuts this year were farseeing that they would be unable to obtain wire for baling their peanuts for some time, as there was a heavy priority on metals. Fortunately the J. B. Knight Hardware was able to get a supply.

Therefore peanut raisers are assured that when ready to harvest and bale their peanuts, they will have access to a good supply of wire for the purpose, at the implement dept.

We have made no inquiry on the matter, but suppose only those in need of the wire may obtain it. Farmers only, can now buy binding twine.

Dr. Alfred H. Daniell Called To Service

Dr. Alfred H. Daniell of this city, one of the owners of the Treadaway-Daniell hospital, has received a telegram from the War Department, ordering him to report at Riverside, Calif., next Saturday, the 26th, where he will be based.

Dr. Daniell will leave about Monday in order to find quarters to stay before the time limit, he stating, "I don't want to be court-martialed right on the jump go for being AWOL."

Dr. Daniell attended grade school in Brownfield, but his parents moved to Seminole, where he finished high school. He then attended Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene, then transferred to the U. of Texas medical department at Galveston, where he finished 4 years later, and interned in a hospital one year.

About 1934 he perfected a partnership with Dr. T. L. Treadaway, who had already opened a hospital in the Brownfield building over Kyle grocery. About 1937 they built and occupied their present new and modern hospital building on south Sixth.

Being almost reared here, and having spent all his professional years in Brownfield, many friends and acquaintances will regret to see him go. But they will also be happy to know that some mother's sons who are ill, will have skilled medical service.

It has not been decided yet whether or not Mrs. Daniell and the children will later join him. He will automatically have rank of Captain, as we understand it. Having a home and hospital interests in Brownfield, he will of course return here after the duration.

A. V. Taylor In Critical Condition

A. V. Taylor, one of the real old timers of Terry county, a man highly respected by all who know him, has been in a helpless condition of paralysis for the past four years, and was before that time badly afflicted many years with what is generally termed palsy.

His faithful wife brought him to the local hospital several weeks ago, where she would have more help in managing to make him more comfortable. His condition is such now that he is unable to talk, but he seems to recognize old friends.

If you are acquainted with this family, call at the hospital and encourage Mrs. Taylor in her sore trial.

Chisholm And Harris Stores Remodeling

Joe Chisholm is moving his hatchery section, as well as electrical and other refrigerators, radios and other appliances to the western 50 feet front of the Chisholm building on the south side of the square. He is taking in all that portion of the building originally occupied by Chisholm Hardware.

This will release a small section of the original Chisholm building on the southeast corner to Harris Food store, giving them full 50 foot frontage of their grocery and market on the corner.

This is a convenient arrangement for both firms.

Fourteen Terry Boys Volunteer In Service

R. A. Simms, secretary of the Terry County Draft Board, has certified the following fourteen names of young men of Terry county, who have volunteered their services to the Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard:

Ralph P. Gordon, Ervin Ray Miller, Charles T. Hamilton, Stewart B. Collier, Lester Ulee McPherson, Charles R. Stevens, all of Brownfield and routes; William H. King, Loys Smith Tilger, J. A. Benson, Hilliard Fuller, Joseph Bailey Smith, Harvey Gatewood, William Ray Overman, all of Meadow and routes; and Len Baker, of Wellman.

Thirty-five young men were sent to Lubbock Monday for examination, but up to this time we have not heard how many made the grade. Will say that up to now, a high percentage of Terry county men have passed.

RED CROSS SEWERS NEEDED

Sewers and cutters for the Red Cross are needed at the Red Cross sewing rooms in the old Legion building, east entrance. The works are as essential as any other work the Army needs that civilians can do; don't you want a part?

Work rooms are open Monday through Friday, from 1:30 to 5:00 P. M. Don't wait for a special invitation. You are welcome at any time.

We also need ladies to come and bring their press boards and irons and press blouses. If you don't sew or cut, there will be something you can do.

Stanolind Oil Men In Meeting Here

Fourteen managers and employees of the production division of Stanolind Oil & Gas Corp., were in a 3 day session this week. Office men here in the Brownfield building informed us that it was more of a get together and idea exchange meeting than a training school.

The Production as well as the Siesmograph department operate in the Cedar Lake as well as perhaps other nearby oil pools.

Hartzog Becomes New County Agent

Terryites in general will welcome A. L. Hartzog to Brownfield, as he is already quite well known, having spent six years as Ag. teacher and FFA leader at Meadow, at which time he really had those boys on their toes, and they went places. For some time he has been assistant agent in Lubbock county.

Mr. Hartzog is taking the place of R. N. McClain, who has been here some eight years, but who is now leaving for army service at Camp Tyson, near Nashville, Tenn. Mrs. McClain will remain in Brownfield, having accepted a position in the Brownfield schools as teacher. "Mack" was a very popular county agent, and always seemed to be in a good humor.

Mrs. Hartzog and two children will join their husband and father here some time this week.

Capt. Edwards Returns From Bullis

Capt. C. T. Edwards and Lieutenants Howze and Turner, of the local Texas Defense Guard, have returned home after several days of maneuvers at Camp Bullis, Texas, where officers of the guardsmen underwent intensive training in modern fighting methods. Capt. Edwards expects to be called into regular army service soon.

Company D will miss the patient and tireless instructor, and many civic endeavors of the city will just as greatly miss his ever ready help. He was always in the forefront of any civic movement for the betterment of the community in general.

He is a natural leader, and seems to have the happy facilities to get the most out of helpers with the least friction.

Supt Hancock Still Short Two Teachers

In conversation this week with Supt. E. E. Hancock of the Brownfield Consolidated district, he reports that the schools are just moving along fine with the third week of school going on. The only unhappy thing is that he is still two teachers short; a physical education and science teacher. Mr. Hancock stated that if there were any teachers in the area qualified to take these places, he would appreciate their getting in touch with him.

There has been some shifting of teachers of late, Mrs. Eunice Jones and Mrs. W. A. Bynum being sent to the Gomez Ward. Mr. U. C. Foote and daughter, Miss Dorothy, who have been teaching in the Gomez ward, have been shifted to the Tokio ward. Mrs. George Alexander has also been added to the staff as primary teacher at Tokio.

The enrollment is somewhat under the first semester enrollment last year. No figures were available by weeks, so we cannot compare figures with same date last year. The January enrollment last year, however, was 1647, compared to 1468 at present, a difference of only 179, which will likely be almost the same by January, 1943, perhaps more this year.

Handicapped as all schools are, perhaps for the duration, for lack of qualified teachers, who have gone into other work that pay better wages, we believe that our teachers over the country are made of the same metal as others, and will sacrifice time and pleasure to keep our wartime schools rolling along.

Remember, the Cubs play Midland in the Cub Field tonight.

No District Court News This Week

District Court convened again yesterday, as there were some cases on the docket, according to Mrs. Eldora A. White, district clerk.

Two indictments have been returned of late, one being a forgery case. Another man was indicted for bigamy, the first case of the kind in Terry county's history. He is reported to have married a Ropesville woman, when he already had an undivorced wife in Lamesa. The man, 24, was an asphalt worker.

The Allen Studio is now owned by the Southwest Portrait Co., of Amarillo, but will go under the old name for the time being at least.

Coyt Norwood Returns Home

Coyt Norwood, of the U. S. navy, and son of Mrs. Bert Norwood of this city, has returned home. We reported last week that he was wounded in the fighting somewhere in the Pacific between August 13 and 29th.

Those who have seen him say he is pretty well bungled up, but is able to be about.

Gomez Gin Installs New Machinery

Kenneth Furr, manager of the Furr-McNabb Ginn at Gomez, announced this week that they had through the summer installed a new Mitchell Cotton Conditioner machine. This machine as we understand it, takes care of the humidity in cotton, reducing it if cotton become too damp.

They are using the new pattern cotton bagging which makes the bales look mighty pretty. They had ginned 13 bales up to Wed. morning.

Winston Says Better Poison Worms

Homer Winston returned this week from Jones county, and says that the farmers down there that failed to poison their worms are losing one-fourth bale of cotton to the acre. In other words all young bolls and square are just Homer is spending some of his own money this week with the Herald to tell farmers to poison. And this is not all advice; he's poisoning himself.

Gosden To Have Charge of Alexander's

Mr. Clarence Gosden, will have charge of Alexander Drug store as manager as soon as Jimmie German is inducted into the service. Mr. Gosden is no stranger to Brownfield people, as he has been employed at the Corner Drug store for some time.

Mr. German is to leave soon for training in the air corps training school. He is a son-in-law of Mr. E. G. Alexander, owner of the store, of Plainview.

We lowly guys that have wiggled, twisted and switched our tails like a light yoke of oxen, stalled in a mudhole with 30 crosses on the wagon, to pay taxes are going to wiggle, tist and switch worse than that when we get our next income tax quota, as well as state, county, school and city taxes. Our city fathers have had some mercy, however, reducing both the budget and rate. The budget was reduced from $132,665.48 to $118,207.42, and the rate from 60c on the $100 valuation of 50c, which is quite some difference.

Homer Steen, publisher and editor of the Floydada Hesperian has stuck his neck out again. He is telling Floyd countains not to pay any attention to weather prophets, but to listen to him. Homer says there ain't going to be any killing frost or freeze till the first of November. But don't cut any notches on your sticks yet.

Got two bunches of pamphlets from the A. and M. this week, one being the annual report, and contained interesting data for all Texas. The other two, one on "propagation of a rapid-growing semi-evergreen hybrid oak," and the other "dried citrus pulp in the fattening ration," are duds so far as this section is concerned, and a waste of postage and paper to send them to west Texas.

That old joke about the city editor telling the cub reporter that if a dog bit a man that was no news, but if a man bit a dog, that was news. In other words, something unusual. The newspapers got a double break on something like that recently when a boy bit his dog and the dog returned the compliment.

The proposed gas rationing is going to hit a knot in Texas, if we are given the same size doses as they get in the east where there is a town every five miles with railroads and bus lines at frequent intervals in every direction. The big shots at Washington just can't get it into their noodles that the southwest in particular, like Texas, New Mexico, Arizona and a few others, are places of magnificent distances from one place to another, and that our products, cotton, wheat, cattle, oil, citrus and other stuff must be moved many times further than back east to get them to market. Rationing that would be quite all right for the thickly populated east would ruin this section of Texas.

We have heard a few express themselves that they intend to vote against all constitutional amendments, just because some people think all amendments are worthless, and they black all of them on general principles. But there is one this year that relates to getting all funds of Texas Treasury out of debt and keep them out. In other words, put the state treasury on a cash basis, and not thereafter appropriate money unless there is money in the treasury to pay spot cash. Texas people should vote for this amendment almost unanimously. The general fund is now in debt more than 30 million dollars, and every warrant Texas gives on this fund has to be discounted by the holder. And, while we are at it, counties, schools and cities might amend their charters to go on a cash basis as far as possible. There is no more sense in the state or county giving a "cold" check than for individuals or firms.

Like other institutions, newspapers are feeling the results of the war like everyone else. The Clarendon News came to us this past week with four pages, instead of the usual 8 or more. It was not a lack of news or ads. The US had called their linotype operator in to the service, and to that time they were unable to locate another. Folks, it's going to get rough.

An amusing incident went the rounds of the press during the last few weeks. It went like this; Major Doolittle, after returning to the U. S. went into a drug store and wanted to buy a tube of shaving cream. The clerk asked him where his old tube was. Doolittle replied that he did not know that he had to have one. The clerk demanded to know where he had been and if war on, (not knowing the identity of his customer.) The famous Major, stated that he had been away from home and had not heard that an old tube was required. But it was stated that he didn't know that there was a he got the shaving cream, anyway.—Anton News.

Why don't shoe manufacturers cut the toes out of mens shoes as they do the ladies? asks a Miami woman. "We would like to see a man walk a block and have to stop and pull his shoes off and shake out the dirt, sand and gravel, before he could walk any further, as ladies are required to do. We would like to know who started the style of toeless shoes for women anyway. It surely does not improve the style or comfort and most surely it does not conserve leather."—Miami Chief.

Did you know that they don't hang men with wooden legs in China? No, sir; they use rope.

And did you hear about the Indian chief that ordered a ham sandwich at a soda fountain? He lifted the slices of bread and then said to the attendant, "Ugh! You slice 'em ham." The other replied, "Yes, I sliced the ham." The chief grunted, "Ugh! You darn near miss 'em."

You might think that editing a newspaper in a small town would be devoid of excitement. But back in the days when this writer was a small town editor, it was a favorite pastime in many communities to "give the editor a licking."

I recall one very tense occasion when two men walked into the newspaper office. What made the occasion tense was that one of the men, just the day before, had been acquitted for murder. He was a big fellow, with a temper so fiery that once during the trial he started from his seat with the intention of taking a swing at the special prosecutor but was dissuaded by his own attorney. Of course I had written a full account of these, and other, events in connection with the trial for our little paper each day.

And now here he was, one killing out of the way, entering my office. Bringing along a friend, too—(always a bad sign as that means the trouble-seeker wants a witness so there will be fair play). He asked if I was the editor, which, I acknowledged. He then called for a copy of the day before paper. (Another bad sign—because the preliminary to giving the editor a whipping is to confront him with the offending writup).

The visitors read the account through—it was the main article in the paper—and then the recent defendant said:

"That was a mighty fine speech my lawyer made to the jury and you've got a real good writup of it, too. Let me have six copies please—and how much are they?"

"Not a cent, not a cent," said a very relieved newspaperman. "Take them with our compliments."

Texas Could Become Great Dairy State

AUSTIN—Natural resources of Texas favor a substantial expansion of the dairy industry of the state, and could make the industry a major factor in increasing farm income, declared Dr. F. A. Buechel, assistant director of the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research, in a bulletin, just off the press.

Natural factors favoring a large dairy industry are the capacity of Texas land to produce an abundance of forage crops at low prices, ample supplies of water, and mild weather making winter grazing possible, Dr. Buechel reported. Unfortunately, development of this potential source of farm income has been hampered by traditional one-crop system of Texas, he wrote.

"The fact that Texas consumes more dairy products than are produced within the state is also significant," Dr. Buechel asserted. "It means that a substantial local market for dairy products already exists—a market that Texas farmers could supply if they would develop dairy resources."

Statistics on the Texas dairy industry today show the state lags behind the rest of the dairy states and so far below its own potentialities. Figures quoted in the bulletin show Texas to rank fifth in the nation in the number of milk cows, but forty-fourth in volume of milk production per cow. The state ranks first in the nation in the making of "farm butter," that is, butter made on the farm

TO OUR FARMER FRIENDS

Time Must Not Be Wasted THIS YEAR

This year all of us are operating under handicaps occasioned by the difficulties of war. Your banks have lost and will continue to lose many of their trained employees to the armed services and we will find it practically impossible to replace these people. Also, we have assumed the very necessary responsibility of selling large quantities of War Bonds and of handling government loan cotton. We are glad to perform these services, but with a smaller staff, these things make it increasingly important that every moment of our time be put to the very best advantage. The hours we may remain open for business are limited by government regulation, therefore we find it impossible to expand our service to include remaining open Saturday afternoon.

We are informed, too, that farmers and their families are going to have to do more than usual of the work of harvesting their crops. Transportation is also going to be a problem, so unnecessary trips to town will not be practical.

Our Saturday morning work is of necessity in a large manner paying out of money for merchants to use for operation until Monday. During the fall, when this amounts to the paying out of a hundred thousand dollars or more during our three hour Saturday morning, it is readily evident that the handling of other business is impractical if not virtually impossible. We are unable to give our customers the type of personal service we like to give under these conditions.

In view of this situation on our part, and in the interest of saving valuable time for you farmer friends, we want to respectfully urge that you transact all of your banking business possible on days other than Saturday, preferably on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. We know and we believe you will find, that this will work very much to your advantage as well as to our own.

Members and guests were Mesdames Jimmy German, Jack Hamilton, Roy Ballard, Bruce Zorns, Joe Coursey, Jack Surges, C. C. Primm, Mike Barrett, Kendall, Ruth Huckabee, Bedford Caldwell and Miss Sue Jones.

HARMONY H. D. CLUB

The Harmony H. D. Club met Tuesday, Sept. 3. The president presiding. There was no old business. We voted to start the first of the year to meet once a month in the homes to save tires, having two meetings a day, and inviting the men to help each other if they have any kind of work to do around the place that needs to be done. We are going to try to help each other more than ever before.

Mrs. Long gave a very interesting talk on the State Convention. The members who were absent surely missed a lot.

There were several cooks tested at the meeting. There were nine members present. Our next meeting will be the 28th. Miss Blanton will be with us. Let's all make a special effort to be present.

We are more convinced than ever about the sincerity and qualifications of Gov. Coke Stevenson since learning of his desire for a simple and unostentatious inauguration. We as Texans are proud of the highest official in our great state who is wise enough to see the folly of such display as has been shown on such occasions, in such a time of retrenchment and loyalty, weighing the responsibilities that have been entrusted to him by the people of Texas and showing by his own example the need of giving attention to the more needful things concerning our ship of state. It convinces us that he is the right man in the right place and he will not fail in his duty as governor of the greatest state in the world.—Rochester Reporter.

Stalingrad, Unique City Of Soviets Battling For Life

Stalingrad, popularly called the "Detroit of Russia," is a city about which much is not generally known. In fact, until it became one of the focal points in Hitler's drive to the east, it is a safe prediction that perhaps not one in a hundred could tell where it was. Yet today it constitutes one of the most important defense areas in all of the vast Russian territory. It is the heart of the tank industry of the Soviet Government. Because it is located with reference to the use of the Volga for both incoming and out going freight, its wharves are often stacked with timber and grain, heavy duty machinery of all kinds and firearms, rolled steel, refined oil, canned goods and boots.

Stalingrad used to be known as Tsaritsyn. One house in the city bears a memorial tablet stating that in 1918, Joseph Stalin worked there. In those days Stalingrad was being held against the white guard troops.

This city is full of revolutionary traditions, but its citizens are not basking in the light of reflected glory of past decades. They are proud of the fact that they are realistic and are living in the present and planning for the future, for themselves and for their children. They have built block on block of buildings. They have laid out and paved broad thoroughfares and public squares. Modern new theatres have been built and museums opened to the public. Up to the time that Stalingrad was forced to fight for its very life, thousands of Russians from every section of the Soviet Union streamed through its streets and boulevards. Stalingrad to many Russians is more than just another factory town. It is their home city, their industrial center, a beacon light to the rest of the world as to how a vast manufacturing and trading metropolis can be planned and built so as to banish ugliness and filth, to make it combine the utmost in utility with artistic attractiveness.

FARMERS GET THE LITTLE END

College Station—Farmers are getting the little end of recent advances in food prices. In fact, farmers' prices are responsible for less than one-fourth of the hike in retail food cost to the consumer.

C. E. Bowles, organization and cooperative marketing specialist for the A. and M. College Extension Service, explains that the cost of a year's food supply for the average working man's family advanced $34 during the first six months following Pearl Harbor, according to figures issued by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Fifty-eight items of food which cost consumers $364 at the time the U. S. enter the war cost $398 in June.

Widening market margins absorbed $26 of this $34 increase, and only $8 reached farmers in the form of higher prices for their produce.

Most of the rise in food prices on items not covered by General Maximum Price Regulations, Mr. Bowles says. Prices of foods not regulated advanced nearly five per cent from May to June, while the retail price of foods under the ceilings dropped about one per cent.

Among the uncontrolled food, commodities registering substantial price advances during this period were lamb 11 per cent, potatoes 11 per cent, sweet potatoes nine percent, hens nine per cent, hen eggs four percent. While the rises in retail prices were taking place the farm price of lamb increased two per cent and hogs and beef cattle one per cent. Dairy prices and grain prices actually were lower in June than in May.

Increased costs of farm labor are not proportionate to the amounts farmers receive. Wages for hired labor rose approximately 20 per cent during the first half of 1942.

Texas is the leading turkey-raising state in the nation.

Must Be License To Write Fire Insurance

AUSTIN—The insurance business in Texas is one of major importance to the commercial life of every city and town, is the opinion of Marvin Hall, State Fire Insurance Commissioner.

"A person writing fire, wind-storm and kindred lines of insurance," he added, "is engaged in one of our leading professions. Today's requirements make it mandatory for an insuranceman or woman to be licensed in order to do business.

"To secure a license from the Board of Insurance Commissioners a person wanting to engage in the insurance business must pass a written examination before he is granted a license.

"Changes during recent years in insurance matters have in practically every instance resulted to the benefit of insurance buyers. Today our insurance is handled by persons who are specialists in this line. With any of our problems requiring the services of a professional person we find it advisable to consult with them. This is applicable in matters of individual insurance problems. Insurance agents are in the best position to advise us on securing adequate protection to meet our needs."

Hall praised the insurance agents for the hearty cooperation they have extended the Board of Insurance Commissioners. Insurance men and women, he said, have done everything possible to aid in promoting fire prevention in Texas.

"An insurance man or woman," Hall continued, "occupies a unique position. By his familiarity with insurance coverage he can render invaluable aid to his clients."

As an example of the patriotic service being rendered by insurance agents at this time Hall said: "Those in the insurance business have accepted the responsibility of handling war risk insurance for the government's War Damage Corporation by writing such policies. This service is handled at a minimum cost, and in a large number of instances the expense involved exceeds the compensation received."

Mr. and Mrs. Aut Graham and Miss Twilla Graham, spent last week-end in San Antonio, the guest of Warren (Skillet) Noble, who is stationed at Kelly Field.

Baptist Church News

The 35th annual session of the Brownfield Baptist Association was called to order at 10:00 A. M. Tuesday and remained over Wednesday evening. There were 250 registrations Tuesday and this church furnished meals for noon and evening for all who remained over night. There were 28 churches reporting with baptisms for the past year as 326 and total additions to the churches, 881, showing a total present enrollment of 5930, which is a very substantial gain for the last year. This association of churches has contributed for outside causes the past year $7,499.85 beside their budget for the year of $1,700 and closed the year with money in the treasury and the spirit of victory in their hearts. They voted unanimously to join the campaign to retire the debt of the Texas Convention which has been reduced yearly for a long time and now is $397,500.

We regret exceedingly that many of our own church were not present at this meeting and missed the many good discussions and reports of committees and especially the speech of Mr. Springer of Dallas, who brought us the report that our State has contributed through the churches

HARKINS FAMILY THANKS COMMUNITIES

We take this means of thanking the good people of Brownfield and other communities that offered their help and sympathy during the last illness and death of our dear daughter and sister, Billie Gene. We also wish to thank the people of Pool and Brownfield who gave us $39.58 to help out on expenses. May God bless each of you.
Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Harkins and family.

for the past ten months of the present convention year $1,010,748.10, which exceeds by far any year in our history excepting the year of the seventy-five million campaign.

Our women served these visitors in a very hospitable manner and have shown us that they are equal to any task where our reputation for taking care of visitors is at stake and they have our thanks.

Our own church has had a worthy part in all of this work and have paid every dollar promised and expects to have a worthy part in the payment of the debt mentioned which has been hampering our progress for several years.

There are now more than 3,000 churches in our convention and with an enrollment of more than 800,000 members and what is not possible if we will keep humble and cooperate with our churches in this great State?

FORMER RESIDENT ELECTED COMMISSIONER

Ulysses Sawyer, well known rancher of eastern New Mexico, and a native son of Terry county, was elected commissioner of Lea county, New Mexico in their primary election last week. We understand he beat all three of his opponents.

He is the son of the late M. B. Sawyer and Mrs. Sawyer and we believe Lea county hasn't gone wrong in electing him.

The war production board has requisitioned 155 miles of Santa Fe tracks that has been abandoned in Oklahoma and Kansas. Rails and fastenings and metal bridges will be torn up to ship to steel mills.

W. U. To Discontinue Special Messages

H. G. Brenneman, local Western Union manager, has announced that they have discontinued for the duration such special messages, as sing-o-grams, birthday and holiday messages at special rates, as it has been decided that they are or will interfere somewhat with the rapid transmission of private business messages, and war department messages.

The WU informed the war department as early as March their willingness to do this, but until recently no steps were taken to this end. The company fully recognizes that these special messages from one civilian to another, or from parents to soldier or sailor gave great pleasure, and were in fact a good morale builder, and they feel that the general public will understand why it became necessary to discontinue them for the present.

Mr. Brenneman added that it was not a question of lack of instruments and facilities, but that a lot of trained personnel had been inducted into the armed service.

RELATIVE OF LOCAL MAN KILLED IN ACTION

E. M. McBee of the Terry County Creamery, received word this week that his brother-in-law, E. L. Martin, has been killed in action. He was a warrant officer on the same ship as Charles Limer, whose death was reported in the Herald last week.

GIN MAN BUYS PLANE

Among the many buying planes in Terry county is H. C. Barton, of Barton's gin at Forrester. He came in Sunday evening from Terrell, Texas, where he purchased a Taylor Craft plane. Not being able to fly alone, he was piloted home by Freddie McClain, instructor in the R. A. F. school.

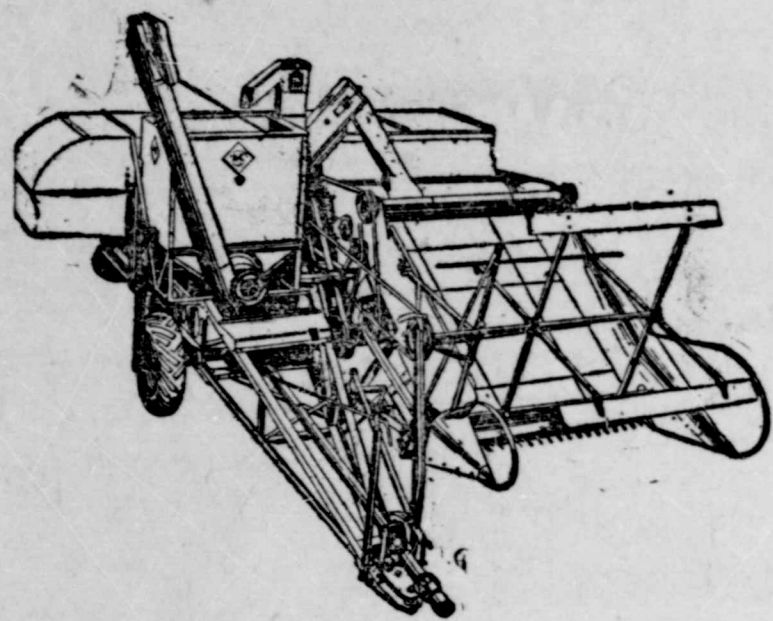

SOME OF OUR BOYS IN NEW CALENDIA

Fifteen of our Terry County boys who enlisted in the 112th Cavalry have landed in New Caledonia, so we were informed by a petite young Miss who corresponds with one of them.

Mrs. F. M. Cox and two sons Bob and John Sam, of near Lovington were here Tuesday. Bob is attending Tech college and Sgt. John Sam is home on a furlough from an Army camp in Oregon. They formerly lived at Plains.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Belfanz and small son of Monahans, spent the week-end with Mrs. Lee Balfanz. Mrs. Jackson returned Monday from Big Spring, where she visited her daughter, Miss Vera Jackson.

WATCH OUT FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN

AUSTIN—Watch out for those school kids. You'd forgotten about that during the summer, hadn't you? The kids are coming back now, and you'll have to watch out for them.

"Let's be thankful," State Police Director Homer Garrison said today, "that we still have schools to send our children to. Even with the benefit of education, which now is denied many peoples of the world, our kids are growing up into a world that's going to be pretty rough on them. Let's give them a break by not breaking their arms and legs and heads with our automobiles."

Oil is the most widely distributed Texas mineral. by mail from Colonel Garrison at Austin.

The reports that come from the Jap-infested portions of the Southwest Pacific of the destruction of Jap detachments must mean something. Either the Nips have been taught that their death is better than capture by the Americans or the Americans and Australians under General McArthur are taking a very practical view of the situation and deciding that dead Japs are good Japs. At any rate we hereby endorse the idea of killing all the Japs that can be found with uniform on. For the duration—Rolls Banter.
