Sailor Derrington Gets A Bur Under His Tail

Terry County Herald, Dear Sir: "Received your most unpatriotic letter, and old boy, if you have been needing a scoop for that louse-ridden paper of yours, just keep your ears open and your mouth shut, and I will give you a real scoop. We boys of the navy feel that you, a 4-F figure in an A-1 suit, should feel proud enough of the boys from your home town to send them a six years subscription free of charge, instead of griping about a man owing you two week's dues for a two-cent paper.

"In the first place, I don't know that I have acquired much knowledge by reading your paper, and in the second place, you can use your own judgement about discontinuing it to me. Have you ever stopped to think what it would be like to try to get blood out of a turnip? My dear fellow, do you remember putting a piece in the paper about Private Jack Derrington being home on a furlough? Well, I would like to have you understand that I am a sailor, and that you are all wet about me being home, for it has been one and one-half years since I was home last.

You are right about everyone having some money, but every time we go to town, there is someone waiting to take it, too. We realize materials are very hard to get, but if you have any troubles, please see your priest and tell them to him, for we are not a lonely hearts club, and we have troubles of our own.

Drizzling without respect, Jack R. Derrington, CM3/c Navy No. 311, Fleet PO, San Francisco, California.

We wonder if all the rest of the sailors from Terry county, or other service men, soldiers, marines, coast guardsmen, WAAC's and WAVES have delegated to Sailor Derrington to write such an epistle as he penned above? We think not. What Derrington got his tail over his back about, was just simply a statement of his account like hundreds of others, servicemen and civilians receive when their papers expire, and it is not a dun for the few weeks they may owe, but to see if they wish to take the paper any longer. He's the first to take exception.

So, we feel that Seaman Derrington got up on the wrong side of the bed, sat on a nettle, or didn't find a girl in the last port. We wonder if Derrington expects Collins Dry Goods company to send him a $1.50 tie annually, or Latham to donate three pairs of socks to his wardrobe? Wonder if he thinks the Terry county farmer is unpatriotic that does not sell enough grain to amount to a dollar fifty and donate it to him? Well, that is just about what he is expecting of us. There is not a penny made on any subscription that goes to a man in the service, as we spend hours each week making changes in their address. But we like it—if we think our effort to get the paper to them is appreciated. Unlike Derrington, most service men, or their families, don't expect us to donate the Herald to the more than 1,000 men that have left this county. It would break a small county paper to do so, and we aim to stay in business as we can.

He also refers sneeringly to our association. That is a matter for the local board, Derrington. Not us. We believe your parents ought you to have courtesy and respect for people, but evidently navy or someone has re-taught instead of being mad and hating the Japs, you seem to have home folks. Yes, it's hard to get blood out of a turnip—or a peachhead. Your paper was

Sgt. Finley Visits Herald Office

A pleasant caller Tuesday was Staff Sgt. Thomas F. Finley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Finley of Meadow. He wanted the Herald to visit him weekly at his Army Air Field at Moody Field, Ga. Sgt. Finley almost set a record for a short address for a man in the service, as it was just in care of the post office there. Reason: He happens to be the postmaster.

During the conversation, Sgt. Finley related that south Georgia, where he is stationed, produced tobacco as the money crop. "And," he stated, "I attended one of the auctions not so long ago, and that funny sing-song that the auctioneer puts on in a cigarette radio program, is not overdrawn, but the buyers seem to understand it, and instead of bidding in language others might understand, the buyer makes a sign for his bid.

We had also supposed that just a small sample of the tobacco was piled before the auctioneer and buyers. Others in the crowd were supposed to stand back some distance, and only the buyers and auctioneer crowded around the pile of tobacco.

Pfc. Malcolm Scales Back In Texas

Pfc. Malcolm Scales wrote us this week to change his Herald from Laurel, Miss., to Gainesville. He sure was happy to be back in Texas, even if it is just north and not west Texas.

He hopes that we will soon have a rain to report. He also added that the sure gave his copies of the Herald close attention. He's in the army air force.

Well, Here She Comes Again, Seaman Smith

By some hook or crook never understood by anybody, S 1/c Jesse Edwin Smith's name absolutely disappeared from our list, although paid up in advance several months. He's on one of Uncle Sam's mighty battleships, but we are forbidden to say which one.

A week or so ago his dad was in and we made a stab of trying to get at the bottom of the matter, but we gave up in despair as his dad did not have J. E. Jr.'s address along. So, this week, our pal who calls herself "the Old Maid School Marm," Miss Ruby Nell Smith, sister of Sailor Smith, came in, and we dug up the trouble, and gave the boy two months extra that he has missed, and along with it goes our apology.

Anyway, Seaman Smith is not like another sailor we know. He wrote his sister to see Jack, and for gosh sakes get his Herald started up again.

Sea And Land Based Sailors Hold A Bull Fest

Wouldn't it have been worth a long trip and some inconvenience to have been privileged to have had a look in on a bull session held somewhere in the Aleutian Islands recently? The sextette was composed of Charles Boyce Rambo, in signal aviation; Jim Cousineau, land based navy man; and Lejeune Lincoln, Jesse E. Smith, Sonny Walls and Fred Nicholson, all sailors on one of Uncle Sam's battle wagons.

They called it "Brownfield Day," and it was the first time some of those boys had been privileged to see anyone else from Brownfield and Terry county since they left the states, about year ago.

Well, we hope the six boys from Brownfield had the time of their young lives, and we know they did.

Seaman 1st class B. W. (Dub) Branch, who has seen active service in the south Pacific for more than a year, came in Tuesday night for several days' visit with parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Branch.

He already stopped, before you bristled up to write that insulting letter, and will remain stopped for all time so far as you are concerned.

Lt. Thornton Visits His Wife Here

Mrs. Thornton, who is making her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Tittle, while her husband, Lt. Aggie M. Thornton serves in the army air force, was pleased to have a visit from her husband just for the weekend.

Lt. Thornton is based for the present at Grenada, Miss., but flew to Lubbock, where he was met by his wife.

Congratulations To Lt.-Colonel Banks

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Banks of the Gomez community, have recently been informed that their son, Major Wilson H. Banks, had been promoted to Lieutenant-Colonel, August 13. And it all happened on Friday, as well as the 13th. Well, anyway he's lucky.

Wilson has fast risen from the ranks since he entered the army air force some four years ago. So far as we know, he is the highest ranking service man from Terry county. We understand that Major A. R. (Little Ray) Brownfield has been recommended to promotion to Lt. Col., but so far as we can learn, it has not been given out here, yet. Ray is a West Point graduate.

Bradley Brothers Home On Furlough

Pfc. Loran Bradley of the medical corps, stationed at A. P. Hill Res., Va., and Cpl. Elbert Bradley, of the air corps, Sheppard Field, Texas, were home on furlough this week, visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Bradley and family.

A reunion was held at the Bradley home Sunday, in honor of the two service boys, with about 44 relatives and friends present.

Elbert left for Camp Tuesday, and Loran will leave today. The folks enjoyed their visit very much and look forward to the next.

Horace E. Huddleston, who is stationed at the naval training base in San Diego, Cal., spent a five-day furlough in Brownfield last week, visiting his wife and friends.

Pfc. C. O. Brown, jr., who is stationed at the army air base of Alliance, Nebr., came in by plane to spend a 15-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Brown, sr., of Rt. 3.

Pfc. Adolphus Smith of Bryan, Texas, spent the weekend visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Smith.

H. C. Jones had a card from his nephew, Sgt. Leon Jones, this week, who is a prisoner in the Philippines, stating he was well and uninjured.

Harold Dalton and Spencer Murphy, both stationed at the marine base in San Diego, Cal., are here on furlough visiting their parents.

CORREGIDOR VETERAN IN JAP PRISON CAMP

Mrs. A. W. Balfanz, and other Abilene relatives of 2nd-Lt. A. W. (Dub) Balfanz, today were cheered by the first message from the A.A.C.F. pursuit pilot, since the fall of Corregidor.

A card to Mrs. Balfanz came from Japanese military prison camp No. 3, in the Philippines, and bore his signature.

Other information on the card was typewritten and most of it was in the form of answers to a fixed form.

He said his health was good, that he was under treatment, and was improving.

"My love to all. I pray to see you soon. Please give my best regards to all my friends at home," he wrote.

His mother lived in Brownfield at the time Lt. Balfanz enlisted in the air force.

Reincarnation

G. W. N.

In ancient times there was a considerable sect, who believed in the doctrine of re-incarnation. That is, the body may die, but the soul, spirit, or life, or whatever that going thing in us may be, never dies, but passes into a new born animal, fowl, or vice versa. Then came Christianity and pictured the beauties and bliss of Heaven, with its golden streets and pearly gates, eternal life with no sorrows, death, nor gas rationing. And too, the people, becoming more democratic, wanted a say in their post-death destination, with no way to enforce it, and in wistful-hoping, embraced the latter. But there is so much physical evidence about us, we wonder, if after all, the former was more than mere belief.

Witness the birds in the forest, in varied size, sex and colors, that chirp and sing so sweetly all day, as they lightly flit from bough to bough, bringing joy to their realm. These birdies die, their spirit passes on, maybe into humans, at least we see those who come downtown, with the smile in the morning, whistling, humming, speaking nice and pretty words, brightening the corner where they may be, a joy to their fellows. Reincarnated song birds.

There is the buzzard who sails way high, far and above all others, with keen long distance scent for carrion. He eats not berries, grain nor any living thing. He hunts for the dead of the land. The more putrid the morsel, the sweeter it tastes—to him. He carps at the presence of humans. A carcass is his banquet. But in time his body becomes carrion; his life passes into some other form, maybe some human, as we see those who sail high, far above others (they think) with a keen scent for gossip, or libel and slander. They speak not of refinement and culture, but huff for the carrion of society. The more slanderous it is; the sweeter it tastes—to them. Reincarnated buzzards.

There is the jaybird. A big, beautiful bird. The loud speaker of the forest. An alarmist. Let a squirrel crack a nut, or a rabbit break a twig, or a leaf fall heavily, and he starts to broadcasting, screaming and squawking, dashing from tree to tree, warning the denizens that death and destruction is just around the bend. But he too squawks his last, and his spirit passes on, into some human, with like mouth size and lung power, who gets alarmed at some little noise in the press, or Government action and starts to yelling, shrieking and squawking, jumping from mike to mike and press to platform, warning us that Capital is pressing us down. Labor is eating us up. Democracy is being frozen. Bureaucracy has seized the Government and fleeing over the hill, a Dictator is coming around the mountain. Inflation about to invade us. Rationing pinching him. They are just reincarnated jaybirds.

So many hogs are dying artificially so much faster than humans are born, we may have to set up a rationing plan in reverse gear. But you can make a few business deals and soon tell from whence came their ancestral traits.

There is such a variety in so many dogs as humans, that it is hard to tell which one got the inheritance. But some will bark and never bite. Some bark at the moon and howl all the time, some good and smart, good watch dogs; some too lazy to earn their living; just lay around the porch for the missus to feed, human like. Some are faithful friends, some will bite the hand that feeds them. Some will fight and some will tuck their tail and run. At times they go in bunches with the same purpose in view. A few may be an improvement over their former containers, while those seemingly shame faced may subconsciously realize they once had a better abode. They are not beyond the scope of this creed. Yes, a little touch of nature makes the whole world akin.

Pvt. Billy Redford of Sheppard Field visited in Brownfield over the weekend.

American Red Cross Receives Donation

A cash donation of $83.50, was received this week from the Tokio Methodist Church, their part of the proceeds when the Community Hall was sold some months back. They divided their part among other benevolent organizations.

Mr. W. W. Price acknowledges this gift with many thanks for the Red Cross. Gifts of this kind are very acceptable as many calls are made and answered, for help through the Red Cross. It knows no color or creed, its services are for all worthy needed causes. Support your local Red Cross.

Special Venire Ordered In Williams Case

Acting Judge J. E. Garland was here last Saturday, transacting Court business, closing last term of court, and ordered a special venire of 100 men to be summoned, for Sept. 6th, in the case of H. H. Williams, charged with the murder of R. E. Hodges in this county.

Insects In Spots Says Kenneth Furr

In conversation this week with Kenneth Furr, Gomez gin man, he stated that he had installed new saws and ribs on his five-80 plant, and was ready for the season to open. He stated that there was some leaf worms in spots, but not in general. Some poisoning.

Mr. D. H. Griffin, manager of the Farmer's Gin at Wellman, has his plant in tip top shape, he stated, and was ready for the season run when the time came. Both men stated that hot, dry weather was hurting the crop.

Since we last saw Mr. Griffin, he had lost a son in the Air Corps in England. Seemed to have been a ground accident, instead of in combat with the enemy, and quite unavoidable. Mr. and Mrs. Griffin have two other sons in the service.

Came home via the Barton Gin at Foster, but Mr. Barton was in Dallas at the time. However, the gin appeared to be ready for the season run.

Gene Gunn Takes Larger Quarters

In order to give his meen more room and in cooler quarters, Gene Gunn has leased the building long known as the Carter Chevrolet building, across the alley east of his present location, and has moved the workshop into the rear of this 50x100 building.

As soon as possible Gene will move his large stock of tires, tubes and auto accessories into the front of the new location, which was the offices, display room and stock-rooms of the building when used as a car agency building.

Mr. Gunn retains the building he moves out of and will use the rear part for storage and has rented the front to a Seagraves party for a second hand clothing store.

S/3c Clifton Lunsford has returned to his base in San Pedro, California, after spending a 20-day furlough here visiting his parents near Seminole, and relatives of Brownfield and Meadow. He was on a ship that was torpedoed and was given a furlough, while the ship was being repaired for active duty again.

S. P. French of Tokio was in Wednesday morning and stated that their son, Sgt. S. P. French, jr., of the Fort Bliss reception center, had been home on a nine-day furlough. He left Wednesday for his camp. Getting along fine, his dad said.

B. H. Denton, who is on submarine duty somewhere in the arctic circle, is here this week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Denton, and brothers, Earl and Harold Denton. He had an emergency operation for appendicitis in New York and after his release, was given a 15-day furlough. He has spent 10 months in England.

Quotas For New Slaughter Licensing Program

College Station—Texas Farmers will continue to operate under the slaughter permit system which went into effect August 15.

Explaining the program this week the state USDA War Board said that farmers, who are Class 3 slaughterers under the licensing program, will operate as before and in September will have a quota basis of 100 per cent of the September 1941 quota.

Other classifications of slaughterers under the new slaughter licensing program are Class 1, or Federally-inspected, and Class 2, non-Federal, inspected slaughterers.

The new order provides, the board explained, that if a farmer did not slaughter in 1941, he may deliver meat derived from livestock which he slaughtered primarily for home consumption but that quotas for these deliveries would not exceed 400 pounds of meat per farm family in one calendar year. Farmers falling in this classification must obtain slaughtering permits from county USDA War Boards.

Previously, the farm slaughterer was allowed to take his choice between killing three animals for sale, of which only one could be bovine, and 300 pounds of meat. Under the new order, farm slaughterers whose quotas are more than 400 pounds will be issued permits by Food Distribution Area Meat Marketing Supervisors or the FDA Regional Director.

E. L. Upshaw, state representative of the Food Distribution Administration and a member of the state USDA War Board, Austin, recently was appointed Texas Meat Marketing Supervisor. Assisting him are area supervisors, located in various parts of the state, and local war meat committees in all Texas counties.

Arrange To Supply Needed Truck Tires

Eligible truck operators who hold tire rationing certificates but who are unable to locate within their county the proper tires may apply to their nearest Motor Transport District Office of the Office of Defense Transportation for assistance, the ODT announced today.

This information will in turn be transmitted to the Office of the Rubber Director, who will endeavor to arrange for the proper redistribution of tires so that all the certificates can be honored as quickly as possible after issuance.

This procedure was decided upon the ODT stated, after some truck operators reported they were unable to obtain critically needed tires and as a result had to keep vehicles out of operation.

In some cases, it was reported, important war freight was delayed for this reason.

It is hoped that the new arrangement will help essential operators to obtain prompt relief, the ODT stated.

Roy Herod Family In Car Wreck

Roy M. Herod, former City clerk of Brownfield, and wife, Elizabeth, suffered severe injuries, when their car careened off the road and rolled 250 feet down a hill, 23 miles beyond Roswell, last Wednesday morning from Ruidoso, last Wednesday evening. The car is reported a total wreck.

Herod and family were picked up immediately by a passing motorist, who witnessed the plunge, and were taken to a Roswell hospital, where they received treatment. Their son Billie Mack, was only slightly injured. Real cause of the wreck is unknown, but it was learned several other wrecks have occurred at the same place.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Herod was brought to Brownfield Monday night, from Roswell in a Brownfield Funeral Home ambulance, Mrs. Herod is in a local hospital, but Mr. Herod is up and about.

Waxahachian Heads Membership Drive

WACO—Appointment of Judge C. C. Randle of Waxahachie to head a state committee on membership of the Texas Farm Bureau.

Judge C. C. Randle

reau Federation has been announced by J. Walter Hammond, president of the farmers organization.

"We feel ourselves fortunate in securing the services of such a forceful leader as C. C. Randle to head our organization campaign," Hammond said. "An active leader in the affairs of his section, he is also the operator of a 420 acre central Texas farm and knows agricultural problems first hand."

Randle served Ellis county for three terms as county judge, and during his tenure was secretary and later president of the North Texas County Judges and Commissioners Association. At the time he voluntarily retired as judge to enter the race for district attorney, he was vice-president of the state association of county judges and commissioners.

He is now serving as criminal district attorney or the 40th judicial district of Texas.

Judge Randle is also past vice-president of the Ellis County Farm Bureau, and alternate state director for District 4.

Third Bond Drive Will Start Sept. 9th

The fifteen billion dollar war loan drive will start in earnest on Sept. 9th, according to J. O. Gillham, War Finance Chairman for Terry County. Mr. Gillham is anxious that every person in Terry County realize the magnitude of raising the Terry County quota.

"We have not been advised of what our quota will be but we have every reason to believe that it will be larger than our April quota, due to the fact that the Treasury wants to raise most of the fifteen billion from sources other than banks.

"I hope to be able to announce next week what our quota will be for this drive. We know that it will be necessary for every one of us to do our very best in order to put over our quota and I know that Terry County will come through with flying colors."

Short Change Artist In Toils Of Law

Thanks to the quick action of Mr. Wilgus of the Wilgus Corner Drug store, a couple of short changers were stopped with their first victim, perhaps, Wed. afternoon. He noted that one of them was maneuvering to short change Mrs. Wilgus. He stepped in and took the money.

He then started for the telephone to call the law, when one of the men tried to follow him. He picked up a rifle and told the man to stand right where he was hitched until he phoned the sheriff. He stood.

Deputy Mon Telford landed the two in jail, and they are now being checked for probable crimes at other places.

Despite war and resultant labor shortage, Britain has increased its food production from 38 per cent to 68 per cent of the demands of their people for food. In other words, the British people were importing 62 per cent of their food before the war, and only 32 per cent now. Most of the food going to England is not lend-lease, but for our own army, navy and air force. We are showing a poor increase in comparison, but we have not had bombs dropped on the USA.

American Life Insurance companies paid beneficiaries more than 560 million dollars the first six months of this year, according to the Institute of Life Insurance. The American people believe implicitly in life as well as accident and property insurance, and a fat check from an insurance company when calamity befalls, has saved many an American family from want and embarrassment.

A year ago, pigs were as high as a cat's back, but it seems the old sows of Terry have had an unusual run of good luck, and with a short feed crop in prospect, the little piggies seem to be losing their high value. In fact, we heard a farmer say this week that he had been offered 61 pigs for $60. Why didn't he buy them? Well, he already had around 140 himself.

The Old He had another birthday Monday, our 63rd. Some say it should be our 64th, counting the one day we were born. Just as it is, it has been a whale of a long time since August 23, 1880. Yes, we grew to manhood in the gay nineties, but they lacked a lot of being gay to us. In fact, we were left an orphan at 8, and our father passed on when we were eleven, and had it not been for an elder brother and his wife, who were like parents to us, we would have had an uphill go. Yes, the folks remembered us with some nice presents, but we have got to the point that we try to forget the day, but they remember. And now, we lack only two years being ready for a pension. Hip! hip! hurrah!

Our old friend and contemporary for the past 34 years, Col. I. Heardt Dow, of the Hockley County Herald, Levelland, says that a lot of us are just imagining that the heat is worse this summer than common, and that the Plains are still an ideal summer resort, or words to that effect. But the thermometer does not bear out the Colonel's contention. In fact for 17 days in August, mercury climbed to and above the 100 mark on 14 of them, and 99 the other three, which seems to be a heat record, according to reports from USWB records. The writer kept the records in Brownfield from 1914 to 1921, which included the famous 1917 dry spell, and there were no such long series of above 100 even that year. While a lot of us are not Christian Scientists, Colonel, we are not just imagining about the weather. Neither do the records of other years show as many still, sultry nights, that causes the people here to sleep with just a little clothing on, as decency will permit, and no cover all night. Let the records speak.

A fellow asked me yesterday if people still gave their children sulphur and molasses "to thin their blood" and make them healthy. I didn't know. I wondered if the old custom was still in use, and also when the potion was passed out to the kids, if parents ever ate some of the concoction. Back in his callow youth he was fed sulphur and molasses in the early spring, he said, to tone up the blood and keep off bilis and carbuncles. Do you remember those little bags of asafodita they used to hang around the kids' necks to keep disease away? The stuff had a terrible smell and I guess it did the work for it helps to avoid communicable diseases by keeping folks at a distance from you. The old customs were laughable, even if it did work a hardship on the kids. But, after all, kids had more fun than now. Take for instance hog killin' time, when the boys got the hog bladders and blew them up with a pipe stem. They took 'em to school and had oodles of fun until some ape of a boy punctured 'em with a pin. —O'Donnell Index-Press.

WTS COLLEGE TO MEET WAR TIME NEEDS

CANYON—The fall semester at West Texas State College opens September 21. The work has been planned especially for war-time needs. Dr. J. A. Hill, the president, said every effort had been made to plan the year's work to meet the needs of Panhandle students. "So many families are divided and conditions are so disturbed everywhere, we felt that boys and girls going to college this fall would want to attend the home school so they can be near their families and avoid the difficulties of war-time travel," Dr. Hill said. "Consequently we have done everything possible at West Texas State to be prepared to care for all the Panhandle students."

"The war has emphasized the need and desire for college education, and I am convinced that college training will be a very great asset in the post-war world. It has been the ambition of the faculty to make West Texas State the Panhandle school; now we're ready to serve in that capacity." West Texas State will offer a full schedule of regular and many special courses.

County Superintendent Lee Fulton and wife, returned Sunday from Hot Springs, New Mexico, where they took treatments in the mineral waters of that resort, and state they were feeling much better.

James White field and Geraldine Cunningham, both of Lockney visited Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Stutts this week.

Annie Mae Gryder of Meadow visited Mrs. Horace Huddleston last week, while Mr. Huddleston was here on furlough.

Mrs. Harold Hansen and Miss Myrlene Cannon of the F.S.A. office have returned from their vacations and are back at work.

Mrs. Viola Huddleston, mother of Horace Huddleston, and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Huddleston and children, all of Lehman, were here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Horace Huddleston last week.

We figure Marshal Badoglio has dropped his candy and stepped on it. He could have led his country toward peace. He has led them further on the road to ruin. A few weeks ago he was considered one of the great men of Italy. Within a few weeks more he will just be another has been like Mussolo the toad. He is doubtless a great military man, but apparently he did not understand that the Italian people want peace. He could not see that Mussolini was overthrown because of the great ruin he had wrought on Italy and the Italian people. He could not see that Fascism was repudiated because it had brought war and all its suffering. And so he has failed. And what a failure it is.—Jimmie Rankin in the Ralls Banner.

my, he did not want to kill his own brothers. The military refused to grant his request. But a federal judge over-ruled the military and granted his request. In his decision, the judge stated that he would not, under the same circumstances, want to risk killing his own brother. Thank God that we still have men who hold to the grand old American ideals.—Anton News.

'Rubber Rancho' Gets Under Way At Port Neches

BEAUMONT, Tex. Aug. 23—Opening of "Rubber Rancho Grande" — the world's largest "plantation" for man-made rubber and the biggest plant scheduled in the nation's synthetic rubber program—was celebrated as a major victory in the battle of rubber by festive Texans here today. Production of the giant plant, situated at nearby Port Neches, began last week.

With an annual capacity of 120,000 tons, "Rubber Rancho Grande" will account for nearly half of Texas' share in America's far-flung efforts to replace tree rubber with synthetic, George W. Vaught, vice-president of the tire manufacturing company, which built the plant and will operate the first two of its four 30,000 ton units for the government told civic and industrial leaders at a dinner held to mark the start of production.

The Lone Star State, Vaught said, will be the source of more than one-third of the total scheduled production of "government" rubber—with a total production capacity of 255,000 tons of "GR-S." He noted that this is nearly half as much as the entire nation's annual consumption of rubber in normal pre-war years, "and as far as our best staticians can figure, is approximately as much synthetic rubber as all of Germany has turned out in any single year, though making synthetic rubber has been a leading national enterprise of that country since even before World War I."

Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Jacobson and children of Amarillo visited in Brownfield over the weekend.

Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Davis and children left Saturday for a business trip to Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kershner are visiting their new granddaughter in Oklahoma City, this week. The parents are Lt. and Mrs. Jerome Kershner.

Mrs. Paul Lee and son, Bennett Lee, of Lubbock, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bennett.

KEEP "DIGGING" IS ICKES' ANSWER

Harold L. Ickes, Petroleum Administrator for War, has said that: "We must keep digging to find as near a billion and a quarter barrels of new oil as possible." But the plain fact is that we are not "digging" and this nation which is geared to the use of huge quantities of oil, faces a dangerous crude oil shortage. Main reason for new well shortage can be found within the government. Restrictions on material and equipment, together with inadequate crude oil prices set by government officials, are threatening our oil supply. John M. Lovejoy, president of the Seaboard Oil Company alarmed at the complacency of authorities, shows that "wildcat" drilling, far from being sufficient, should be immediately more than tripled. He warns that: "If new discoveries are to keep pace with withdrawals, which is a reasonable desatum, and assuming a continuation of the percentages of hits and average size of new fields as shown for the years 1941 and 1942 . . . more than 10,000 wildcat wells should be drilled in 1943 . . . Any statement carrying the implication that currently equaling 1942 exploratory activity is sufficient, is misleading and will not bear even causal analysis." Oil men know the facts about oil resources. Their advice should be heeded.

I been trying to get it through my noggin how we gotta stamp out the foreign types of Govt. that trample people. And the type they have been trying under Adolph is National Socialism, where the Govt. runs everything and says you can have one glass of beer or 2 glasses—and without or with a baloney sandwich. We gotta lick Adolph's outfit—where just the Top Boys do the saying. It is okay to put the skids under such an outfit. Everybody says so. That is why everybody is 100 per cent in buying bonds, and joining in the fray. But it is hard to savvy about throwing National Socialism off our front door-step while we are letting the same kind of varmint sneak in at our back door. If German socialism is bad medicine and we gotta spend 10,000 million to quarantine it, I am up a stump about the U. S. A. pouring more billions into things like TVA, and 100 other foreign-type ventures. I gotta search more into what is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander or vic versa. I am perplexed.

Yours with the low down,

BOMBERS UNFITTED FOR FREIGHT CARRIERS

AUSTIN - Bombers can't be converted into freight carriers when the war is over, a University of Texas transportation authority points out.

Both because of their construction design and their high cost of operations, bombers are unsuitable for carrying cargo, Dr. J. H. Frederick, University professor of transportation and industry explains.

In a bomber, the ship is fitted around the load, carried in the center of the plane, and it is designed to release that load in flight.

A cargo plane, on the other hand, must be able to carry many kinds of freight of varying sizes and weights.

Heavy bombers contain much more expensive material than goes into cargo planes and have a high cost of operation, so that their commercial use would be impracticable, Dr. Frederick said.

Most of the bombers in use during the war, he predicted, will be either worn out or kept in use by the government, with the few remaining ones scrapped and turned back into metal trades.

CORPORAL AND MRS. JAMES BRYAN ARRIVE ON FURLOUGH TODAY

Cpl. and Mrs. James E. Bryan, who are both in the service at Fort Knox, Ky., came in today on a 12-day furlough. They are the only couple that we know of from Terry county, that are both in the service.

CORPORAL AND MRS. JAMES BRYAN

Brownfield High school. He was president of his class for the four years in high school; president of the student council; editor of the annual, and chosen best all-around boy in his senior year. He was football captain in 1939, and was listed in "Who's Who" in Texas high schools in 1941. After entering the service in February of this year, Cpl. Bryan was sent to the Armored Force Replacement Training Center, Ft. Knox, Ky. After finishing his basic training, he was chosen to remain at Fort Knox, on cadre, as instructor in rifling at that school. She was "Band Sweetheart" of that organization for 1940-41, and was Duchess in the football court in 1938-39. She was secretary of her class for the four years in high school. In 1941, she was selected Miss Brownfield by the Jaycees and business clubs. Prior to her departure for Fort Knox, she was bookkeeper for Collins Dry Goods Co. She is now in the American Red Cross, office of field director, stationed at Fort Knox. Corporal Bryan, son of E. E. Bryan of Brownfield, was also a 1941 high school graduate of the

MISS JANE BETH SPECK BECOMES BRIDE OF SGT. CHAMBLISS

Miss Jane Beth Speck, daughter of Mrs. Pearl Speck of Amarillo, and T/Sgt. John W. Chambliss, son of Mrs. L. D. Chambliss of Brownfield, were married in the bride's home in Amarillo in a single ring ceremony at eight-thirty, Saturday evening, August 14. Rev. Jim Sharp, pastor of the Amarillo Methodist church, read the ceremony with the couple standing in front of an altar of gladioli, carnations and ferns.

The bride wore her mother's wedding gown of white lace blouse and marquisette skirt. Her corsage was pink rosebuds.

Miss Roma Dell Speck of Amarillo, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Sgt. Phil Foch, of the Amarillo air field, was best man.

Mrs. Chambliss graduated from the Amarillo school in 1940. She was employed as a telegraph operator at the time of her marriage. Sgt. Chambliss graduated from the Brownfield school in 1938, and was employed in the local triple A office before volunteering for military service in October 1941.

He received his basic training at Sheppard Field and his technical training at Scott Field, Ill., and Peterson Field, Colorado, as radio operator.

They spent a few days visiting Mrs. L. D. Chambliss and other relatives at Brownfield, and the bride's mother and other relatives at Amarillo, before going to Colorado Springs, Colo., where they will make their home at long as Sgt. Chambliss is stationed there.

Plant A Small Grain Pasture

College Station—A wheat, oat or barley pasture will stretch the available supply of protein feeds, but for the best results this small grain grazing should be planted in September.

E. R. Eudaly of the A. and M. College Extension Service says that more protein in the roughage which cattle eat—pasture, silage and hay—means that less will be required in the grain mixture. Small grain planted in September usually furnishes more grazing and withstands more cold than when planted later. But if September is too dry, by all means plant in October. October planted grain will often provide good grazing.

Cotton fields are ideal for small grain for pasture because there usually is about three inches of loose top dirt, which makes preparation unnecessary. If picking isn't finished follow the pickers with the drill. The drill will not hurt unopened cotton nor will the wheat, oats or barley interfere with later picking, or late picking injure the grain, Eudaly says.

Plant three-fourth of a bushel of wheat on good land and one bushel an acre on land not so good. The ratio of oats on good and not so good land is two and two and one-half bushels, and for barley one and one and one-half bushels an acre. It is a good idea, he suggests, to have one acre of small grain pasture per cow on good land and one and one-half acres on the other type.

If it is desired to harvest these crops for grain livestock should be taken off about the first of March in the southern half of the state, and about March 15 in the northern half. Otherwise they may be grazed until about the middle of May.

Cancer Continues Its Death Toll

AUSTIN—A steady increase of death in Texas from all forms of cancer is disclosed by the fact that over 45,000 persons have died from this dreaded disease within the last 10 years, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"The public should be warned against cancer 'quacks' and so-called cancer cures," Dr. Cox said. "Advertising of medicines and so-called cancer doctors put dangerous misinformation before the public. Undoubtedly," Dr. Cox declared, "there are many persons who being thus delayed in seeking proper medical advice, unnecessarily lose their lives to this disease."

According to the state health officer there are two recognized scientific ways of treating cancer; namely, surgery and the use of radium and X-ray. Treatment must be started early and must be carried out by a competent surgeon. In almost two-thirds of the cases, surgery is relied upon to remove cancerous growths, while X-ray or radium is used to good advantage in approximately one-third of the cases successfully treated. Frequently the two methods are combined.

"The greatest defense against death by cancer is early diagnosis," Dr. Cox stated. "Every case is an acute emergency demanding instant attention, and it is unfortunate that so many persons suffering from cancer do not seek medical advice until beyond possibility of cure."

Dr. Cox pointed out that any unusual bleeding from any body cavity, any lump in the breast, or any surface sores, especially on the face and mouth, changed appearance of any wart or mole, and even chronic indigestion may be symptoms denoting the presence of cancer.

"Where cancer is suspected, do not delay but consult your physician at once," Dr. Cox advised. "Self-medication, serums, colored lights, pastes, salves, and diets are absolutely worthless in the treatment of cancer."

The schools at Brownfield, Meadow and Union whose districts take in the entire county, will begin next Monday, Aug. 30th. Wellman is short two teachers at this time, and Brownfield 4, but prospects are they will be filled during the next week.

Surgical Dressing Workers Needed

Mrs. Mary Ellen Brown, Surgical Dressing Chairman at the Red Cross Rooms in old Legion Hall, says she is in need of a good number of workers at the room, not near enough women are helping in this very necessary war effort. This work must be done and DONE NOW.

The home front must be carried on so the boys can be kept on the war front—let us not let one of our boys die for the lack of something we can so easily do—without danger of shot and shell and in comfortable surroundings. Call Mrs. Brown at 396-J and tell her when to expect you or just drop into the hall any afternoon except Saturday, from 1 to 5, there is always work to do, won't you help do it?

Notice Of Importance

The city council of Brownfield met in the council room, Monday afternoon, and voted to rigidly enforce the city ordinance forbidding skating and bicycling on the sidewalks, downtown in the business section.

This is being done for the safety of the children as well as the pedestrians, as several accidents have been reported from this cause.

MORE CAESARS TO FOLD UP

The comparison is odious but Mussolini, the big Italian Fascist, and Jo McWilliams, the little Chicago Fascist, both abdicated on the same day!

In spite of the absurdity of their relative importance there is an affinity between Mussolini and McWilliams, as there is between all Fascists great and small. Both had squeezed all there was out of a political racket. Both were abject failures in the end. Neither had contributed anything to the human scene but misery.

As time goes on more and more Caesars will fold up. The big ones will go because of an inherent inadequacy in their makeup. The little ones will go because their sources of revenues, which stem indirectly from the big one, will dry up.

When the war ends it will serve a useful purpose if a United Nations commission is set to the task of learning how much money was put to work by Hitler and Mussolini in subversive activities. It is estimated that Hitler's anti-non-aryan campaign cost the neat sum of $300,000,000.00—most of which went abroad to subsidize and organize copperhead movements. Notable proof is the lessened activities of subversive groups since the war embargo of enemy funds.—Littlefield Leader.

New Term Of District Court Convenes

A new regular term of District court of Terry County, convened here Monday. In the absence of the elected Judge, Louis B. Reid, now in Military Service, it became necessary for the attorneys present to elect a special judge.

Atty. J. E. Garland of Lamesa, who has been acting judge heretofore, was chosen to serve through the ensuing term of court. He immediately empaneled the Jury, naming F. M. Ellington, former Sheriff, as foreman.

Several civil cases were disposed of.

Getting "First Years" Ready For School

Austin, Texas, July 29—Be sure that your pre-school child will be ready to go to school in September, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer, urges the parents of all children who will respond to the school bells for the first time next fall. "If you have not already done so, start now to prepare your children for the added strain of school life.

"First and foremost is the need of vaccination against smallpox. Parents and physicians should see that children are vaccinated before they are one year of age; the matter is entirely in the hands of parents and their doctors during the earliest years of life. At school age, however, vaccination becomes absolutely necessary. If your child has not been vaccinated, have it done immediately, so that the scar will be completely healed before school begins".

Immunization against diphtheria is also highly desirable, Dr. Cox believes. This disease, which causes serious illness and deaths among young children, can be prevented with toxoid. The child who has never been protected should be given this safeguard against a dreaded disease. Even though he may have been immunized as a baby, doctors and health officers usually recommend an additional dose of toxoid to strengthen immunity before entrance into school.

"In addition, before you send your child to school you are urged to take him to your physician or to the nearest clinic for a complete physical examination," Dr. Cox adds. "You'll want to know that he is in good physical condition and can compete with the other children on equal terms. If the check-up reveals any weakness or defect there will be time to build up his general health and correct defects before September. Don't let your child start his life with any avoidable handicap."

School Opening

It was announced Thursday by Supt. Hancock, that next Monday, opening day of Brownfield school, will be taken up by a teachers meeting. No buses will be run that day. Primary and intermediate grades will register Tuesday.

Freshmen and Sophomores will register Wednesday and Thursday the juniors and seniors. He further stated that he had a full complement of teachers except two, an English teacher here and one at Tokio.

The first game of football will be with Midland. The date was not announced. The team is encountering a problem in transportation.

BAPTIST REVIVAL TO CLOSE SUNDAY NIGHT

The revival at the First Baptist church is still in progress with large crowds attending. There has been over 30 additions to this meeting. Dr. Yearby is doing great Bible preaching, and Rev. Cohen is bringing wonderful messages in song.

The meeting will close Sunday evening with a baptismal service, following the preaching hour. If you have not attended these meetings, be sure and get in on the remaining services.

Everyone is welcome.

LUBBOCK PIONEER PASSES

W. W. Royalty, a pioneer business man of Lubbock, died suddenly late Wed. evening, in the yard of his home there. He was a brother-in-law of Tom May and Mrs. W. B. Downing, of this city, by marriage to their sister, Lida May, some 30 years ago.

He was well known among the old timers of Terry county, and the south Plains. Funeral will be held at Lubbock at 10 o'clock today.

S. H. Parris happened to the misfortune of getting the calf of his leg pretty badly bruised this week, when he got his leg caught in machinery while poisoning worms in his cotton. His physician advised him to stay in bed a few days.

we are going to make all of them equal to us following the war. Some of these nations actually believe this fairy tale. As a matter of cold fact on a hot day, we are getting ourselves in an uncomfortable position as to the balance of the world in the glib promises which are being made by many Washington officials. Realistic Winston Churchill is allowing our administration to do all the talking and all the promising. Churchill knows that when the fighting is over, Britain will be seated at the peace table to hold her empire, and allow us to do all the freehanding that we want. Our freehanding to Indians and others here at home has not raised their standards a whale of a lot. We are fearful that the same will be true of our proposed freehanding in scores of other countries where the status of civilization is not any higher than among some who expect to be recipients of our gifts. A lot of freehanders will not be doing business in Washington when the shooting stops—we hope. —Canyon News
