New State Laws Go In Effect In September

To Vote No On The Amendment

After much study about the matter, pro and con, the writer has decided that we'll put a deep black mark right through, "For the Amendment" next Saturday. Not that it falls on our birthday and might interrupt our silent celebration of the day, but we have what we consider saner reasons for blacking the Amendment to build college buildings over a 30 year period.

In the first place, let us set out that the U. of T. and the A. & M., would get their share, and a large share, right off the reel, and that these two institutions are heavily endowed already and west Texas oil lands are making them richer by a million dollars each year. Too, the amendment seems to give these two institutions just a bit firmer grasp on other state educational institutions.

We do not deny that the state colleges need help. They do, but right now, not 10, 20 or 30 years from now. For the next four or five years they will have more GI's trying to get into colleges, as provided by the government than any time. Unless there is another war, and God forbid it, there will be many less GI's in colleges at government expense five years from now than at present. By that time, most of World War II service men will already have completed their courses, or entered some business.

Lastly, we faintly smell a small stink coming from the woodpile. That old "no new taxes" is a hoax; that 5c additional on Confederate pension that has been left off for the past few years will be reinstated. And too, it appears that some of the big boys with an oily odor, have engineered this amendment through to halt taxes they might have to pay while taking Texas' natural resources from under our soil.

Not only are the Texas University and A. & M. rich and growing rich, but the latter is partly supported by federal funds. So, we have made up our mind to give the amendment the ax.

District Court To Begin New Term

Judge Louis B. Reed, convenes a new term of District court here next Monday. Also a new Grand Jury in to be empaneled. The following have been summoned for Grand Jury duty for the next six months:

J. M. Telford, H. B. Thompson, W. R. Tilson, A. L. Tittle, E. G. Akers, G. R. Alexander, Lee O. Allen, Robert W. Winn, L. A. Wingham, L. M. Wingerd, Les Short, Earl Cornett, Frank Sargent, Roy Golden, Kirk Williams and K. C. Preston.

A Petit Jury has also been summoned to report Tuesday, one jury case being set for that date.

Large Crowds Attend Annual Rodeo

The Jaycee sponsored rodeo staged by the Brownfield Rodeo Association, held in their arena here last week end, was attended by large and enthusiastic crowds. There were some excellent performances.

The official list of winners have not been received thus far, but the management reports a fair financial success.

Mahon Spends Day Here Friday

Congressman George Mahon, of Colorado City, and representative of this the 19th district, was in Brownfield all day Friday, spending most of the time at the courthouse, where he met those who had business or just a greeting for him. At noon he made a short address at the Rotary luncheon.

Late afternoon, he called at the Herald office for a half hour pow-wow, mostly fun, banter and bull. Like most public men who have had a grilling war and its responsibilities on his hands for the past several years, together with reconstruction, and all that following a period of depression in the early thirties, it has showed up somewhat on George.

That shock of black hair he grew as a farm boy down in Mitchell county, has a few white ones mixed with the black, we noted, but his face is still pretty smooth, and he has that same old fadeless smile and hearty handshake. George Mahon is very moral and clean in habit, does not drink, smoke or dissipate otherwise, and time does not change him greatly. He looks in the pink of health.

He is not in the least pessimistic about the future, but thinks everything will finally work out OK, but that most of the world will be our burden for a few years at least. He discussed quite freely his and other lawmakers' trip to Europe in the near future, and stated that he hoped that they could help in solving some plan to get that country back on its feet with the least expense and headaches to Uncle Sam. He is against aiding dictator countries wherever they may be and under whatever name they go.

Mrs. Mahon and their 20 year old daughter are returning to Washington with him in about a week. The daughter will resume her studies in Duke University at Winston-Salem, N. C., in September, he stated.

Work Begins On Repaving Streets

Contractor Hoffman arrived here last week and has already begun work extending paving two blocks on East Main, 2 on north 2nd and 2½ on west Lake streets which were started before the war. Also to widen and resurface 8th street from Main to the Seagraves highway, known as the cut off highway; two blocks east from Lubbock Road to Cub Foot Ball field; to resurface and repair paving on all streets other than the brick pavements.

The city council is also considering doing other paving soon, along unpaved street when joined by adjacent land owners.

Two Fires Monday Result In Small Damage

Firemen were called out twice Monday, first to a small residence at 916 South 8th street, where an oil stove had exploded, causing minor damage.

Second was to a dwelling near Camp Western which was out on arrival. In the latter case, the person turning in the alarm, failed to give the street name and number, causing considerable delay to firemen.

Several Remodeling Jobs Being Rushed

In order to be ready for the fall rush, there are three remodeling jobs under way that are making great headway, and are likely to be finished this week or next.

The huge remodeling job at the Cobb Dept. store is going along according to plan, and we feel sure that it will be finished this week or next. The manager, Mr. Paul Campbell is in the St. Louis market this week, purchasing fall goods.

Then there is a lot of work of remodeling and enlarging going on at the Knight Furniture. As stated in these columns some time ago, the over all length of the building has been extended some forty feet, with same enlargement for the balcony. Mr. Cary, manager feels sure the job will be completed this week, allowing him and the personnel to straighten things up again.

Up at the Collins store, they are substituting the old indirect ray electric fixtures with the very latest in fluorescent type lights, that will make the place really beautiful. Their buyers have already returned from market.

Remodeling of West Ward Being Pushed

The reason there is such a rush on at the West Ward school building to finish the repairs and remodeling, is that the opening of all of the Brownfield schools depend on the job being finished for the school to open Sept. 1. As Labor Day is not generally observed in Brownfield, school would convene here in event the building is finished.

We feel sure that the school authorities will have something to announce next week, as by that time they will be able to see whether or not the building can be used. Of course the work is being feverishly rushed, but not at the expense of good workmanship. Many say the building will be quite as good as new when the remodeling is finished, and a lot more convenient, better arranged, and 100 per cent less a fire trap.

Let us state right here that everyone, the trustees, the school heads, and the contractors and workmen are doing the very best they can, and there is absolutely no criticism of their efforts to get the job done in time.

Union Public Schools Open Sept. 1

Registration will begin Monday September 1 at Union School. All teaching positions have been filled and classes will start Tuesday-morning. The new teachers are:

M. G. Gray, high school principal and Hack Mills, mathematics.

It is hoped that school lunches will be served beginning Tuesday September 2nd.

City Prepares To Install Light Engine

The city last week let contract to G. C. Paden, for concrete foundation on which to set the large engine, purchased some time ago, for the Light Plant. They expect the engine to be shipped soon.

The city also admitted into the corporate limits, two blocks along south side of old Lamesa Highway, to be known as the Seth Brown first addition.

Death Claims F. E. Walters Tuesday

Frank E. Walters, a resident of Brownfield for over thirty years, died Tuesday afternoon in a Tahoka clinic, following an illness of three weeks.

Walters, 86 years of age, a native of Iowa, came to this county from Kansas in 1913 and engaged in farming and construction, but retired a few years ago to his home on South 8th street. He and wife observed their 57th wedding anniversary at home two weeks ago, when all of his children were present. He is first to die in this family.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday at 3 o'clock at the Methodist church with Rev. Ed Tharp conducting, assisted by Rev. H. L. Thurston and Rev. P. C. McCord. Burial directed by Brownfield Funeral home, followed in the Terry County Memorial cemetery.

He is survived by his wife, three sons, Chester of Houston; Earl of Cleburne; Lorn of Lubbock and seven daughters, Mrs. H. B. Howell and Mrs. Oran Short of Tahoka; Mrs. C. L. Dixon of Lubbock; Mrs. W. J. Smith of Hereford; Mrs. F. R. Kyle of Ft. Sumner, N. M.; Mrs. G. B. Snodgrass of Odessa and Mrs. Charles Brown of Socorro, N. M. Twenty grandchildren and five great-grand children.

The Gremlins Hit Tom Adams At TAAF Meet

Tom Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Adams of this city, had hard luck at the TAAF state meet at Fort Worth, recently. Misfortune, and not a fist from his opponent marked him for the "has fought bench." He won state championship in light heavy weight last year, and was striving for the heavy weight class this year. He made a good show at Chicago in the National Meet last year.

Just before the semi-finals, he put his opponent on the canvas four times up to the third round, when the referee stopped the fight. But in that mix-up, somehow or other, Tom got a small cut in the forehead, according to the Star-Telegram. So, he was ruled out of semi-finals by the ringside physician. Admittedly he had a fine chance for State heavyweight.

The other boys from here were eliminated right off the reel. Just didn't have any training. A few months before the district meet next year, a bunch of the local boys should, like Tommy, get on the good side of Billie Higdon, and persuade him to teach them a few tricks of the manly art.

Farm-to-Market Road Being Widened

Judge Wnston is in receipt of a letter from the State Highway Engineers, they are ordering hot topping for the road from Johnson community south to the Highway and from the city south to Forrester to be 18 feet wide instead of 16 feet as first designated.

The other roads, both by the county and State, are being pushed to completion, and are expected to be ready for the fall crop rush.

Gets $40 For Less Than Acre of Peas

Here is a story turned in this week by a local pea buyer. This particular buyer purchases black-eyed peas that are dry, and a good price is paid for them. Note ad elsewhere in this paper. Will say that the representative of a large east Texas packer, for whom the local firm buys, says that unless rains comes, the large fields are none to good, but the best peas are coming from the small acreages like that from which the story originated.

This young man, about 18, Severo Garcia, who name indicates that he is of Latin-American extraction, has an acre, in black-eyed peas in the north part of the city, less four houses on the plot. The other day he gathered his peas, threshed them by hand and winnowed the trash out by holding a vessel high and letting the wind do his work.

He carried his peas to the local firm, and received a check for $40.59.

Food Handlers School To Be Taught Here

Starting August 25 and lasting through August 29, a Food Handlers school will be conducted Monday and Tuesday in Fellowship Hall of the Methodist church and the remainder of the time in the District Court room. This school is taught by the State Health Department in collaboration with the South Plains Health Unit under the sponsorship of the Jaycees.

All employees of drug stores, cafes, grocery stores and hotels are especially invited to attend along with the general public, these free lectures every day from 2:00 to 4:00 p. m. It has been requested that the management of food establishments make arrangements so that their employees may attend every lecture. The periods will be augmented with moving pictures and slides and will cover all phases of food handling and related problems in view of community health.

Gen. Wainwright To Be Honored

General Johnathan M. Wainwright, Fourth Army Commander, will be honored at formal ceremonies here August 31, the General's last day of duty on the active list of the Army. The hero of Bataan and Corregidor retires to civilian life after more than forty-five years of service, and will make his home in San Antonio.

Troops from Fort Sam Houston and Camp Hood will stage a parade and review at 3 o'clock the afternoon of August 31 and a contingent of 10th Air Force planes will join in the salute to General Wainwright as they fly low before the reviewing stand on Arthur MacArthur Field. Distinguished military and civilian leaders from the five-state Fourth Army area will participate in the ceremonies.

The public is invited to attend the parade and review and plans are being made to accommodate the record crowd that is expected to assemble to pay their respects to the popular World War II hero.

Tech Sgt. Wayne Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Rogers expects to receive his discharge from the army September fifth and will enter Texas University. He has had eighteen months service and has been stationed at Camp Lee, Va.

The Brownfield Rotary club at their regular meeting Friday, August 15 adopted the following resolution dealing with the repeals of the zoning law in the city.

WHEREAS, the City Commission of the City of Brownfield has heretofore passed what is known as the Zoning Ordinance, and

WHEREAS, the purpose of said Ordinance is to restrict the building of certain types of construction to certain areas of the City of Brownfield, and

WHEREAS, said Ordinance contains adequate provisions for the adjustment of inequities in the Ordinance, and

WHEREAS, due to the fact that the City Commission has passed said Zoning Ordinance, the Federal Housing Administration has been giving extra good evaluation on property in the City of Brownfield, and

WHEREAS, the City Council of the City of Brownfield at a regular meeting on the 8th day of August, 1947, authorized a special election to vote on the following question, to-wit:

"SHALL THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BROWNFIELD, TEXAS, REPEAL ZONING ORDINANCE?" and

WHEREAS, the Federal Housing Administration has let it be known that they will reduce the values in the City of Brownfield if said Ordinance is repealed, and

WHEREAS, the repeal of this Ordinance will bring ruin to values already established in our City and will hurt war veterans and others who are anxious to borrow funds to build homes in our City, and repeal of this Ordinance will set Brownfield back very materially and virtually halt construction of new houses.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Brownfield Rotary Club in a regular meeting on August 15, 1947 go on record as opposing the repeal of the Zoning Ordinance which is to be voted on August 26, 1947, and be it further resolved that a copy of this Resolution be published in both newspapers of our city, namely, the Terry County Herald and the Brownfield News, and that the individual members pledge their support to opposing the repeal of the Zoning Ordinance.

I, C. G. Griffith, secretary of the Brownfield Rotary Club do hereby certify that the above is a true copy of the Resolution passed and adopted by the Brownfield Rotary Club in regular meeting August 15, 1947.

The Lions Club and Junior Chamber of Commerce presented resolutions in almost exact copies of the above, and in order to conserve space only one is being run.

Copies of all resolutions are on file in the Herald office and anyone interested may see them at the Herald office.

School Opening Put Off One Week

In order to give the contractors another week to finish remodeling in the West Ward building, Supt. S. P. Cowan announced that the school opening has been delayed until September 8.

High school seniors will register Sept. 1-2; Juniors, 3-4; Sophomores, Sept. 5 and the Freshmen, Sept. 6.

Children under six years of age after Sept. 1, will not be allowed to attend under any circumstances owing to crowded conditions. Six year olds entering for the first time will be required to have a birth certificate.

Mr. and Mrs. Kerney Scudday and daughters of Garden City were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Orb Stice the latter part of the week.

The second anniversary of V-J day has come and gone, with very few Texas communities celebrating the event, and we feel the same would hold true over the entire nation. Maybe, like some of our Latin American neighbors we are reaching the saturation point in holidays, when stores and shops are closed half the time if there is not some hedging. It seems that the biggest celebrations took place in Japan. Could it be that they are really glad they were whipped? Over here, it seems most of us would like to settle down in some kind of Utopia and forget wars. But if we do, we'll have to stop our daily papers and plug our radios.

Well, to say the least, Editor W. Charles Ratliff of the Avallanche-Journal publications at Lubbock put one over on us last Thursday. Charles came bustling in with a big suitcase, and before we could get our optics trained on him, announced "that he was a brush salesman, and did we wish to buy." Charles is a really big guy in more ways than one. One could almost call him "fleshy," but he is to large and tall that it is hardly noticeable. But every ounce of that more than 200 pounds of bone, flesh and muscle stand four square for fair play. He has learned a great lesson as he goes through life. He seems to like everyone, and can see a lot of good streaks in all faulty flesh.

Sometimes we get a great kick out of reading the speculations of the columnists and radio commentators. Right now one of their pet "speculations" is whether or not Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower will or will not be a candidate for President on the GOP ticket. They fail to take into consideration his own statement some time back that he played around quite some bit in county and municipal politics in Kansas when a young man, "mostly with the Democratic party." Has anyone had anything directly from Ike that he has made any radical change in his views? They remind us of a crack that the "very learned" Drew Pearson made a week or so ago, that Gen. Ike was born in Oklahoma and reared in Kansas. After the war was won in Europe, and he was being given a great ovation after his return to England, the general said in an address that day: "I have always been a small town man, as I was born in Denison, Texas, and reared in a small Kansas town." Evidently Drew does not read the papers. The writer has seen the old residence in Denison that Ike was born in. It is now remodeled into a shrine, and the general dined in the old residence while visiting Denison last year.

There are reports from many towns and cities of critical water shortage this year, what with blistering heat and little rainfall the past few weeks. This calls for extra irrigation of gardens, grass and shrubs. Up at Lubbock they have a unique way of making the water go as far as possible. The odd numbers on a street will water one day, and the even numbers can turn on the hose the next day. If there is any scarcity of H₂O in Brownfield, there has not been a cheep from the city hall. If we are not mistaken in our figures, the four city wells have a pumping capacity of around 3700 gallons per minute.

That figures out something like 220,000 gallons per hour and 7,548,000 each 24 hour period. Brownfield city has two large standpipe reservoirs, as well as about three large reserve surface tanks.

Note to the two banks here: First citizen: "There is a bank in the west each night, but I never hear of any rain."

Second ditto: "Yeah, neither do the banks in Brownfield put out anything."

The battle between the Jews and Arabs of Palestine, stems from hatred of the two races that has been going on almost as long as written history, although the two peoples sprang from a common male ancestry. All Bible students remember that Sarah, wife of Abraham had her husband drive their handmaiden, Hagar and a son, Ishmael, by Abraham, into the desert, and deserted them. It is a well known fact that the Arabic race sprang from Ishmael, while the Jews came from the lineage of Isaac. And kin folks always do more or less fighting.

In certain sections of Brownfield, one of them being ours, the neighbors get together after supper, when the sun has gone for another night, and the breezes are cool and invigorating from the south. We talk about nothing in particular, but some of us pitch a bit of bull, and if our neighbors (not present) are discussed at all, something good is said of them. Nothing. If other neighbors don't have nothing to do except chew the fat with some of the family you see anyway all the time, try getting the chairs all filled out on a convenient, grassy lawn, and even some sprawled on the grass. It is great. You learn all the innocent gossip, and feel rested and refreshed.

The State Department up at Washington, will ask the English commission now over for another loan (gift) at the expense of our tax-payers to lay their cards on the table. Admittedly, the State Department is none too sympathetic to the Socialist regime now in charge of matters in Old England. Nor do we believe the majority of the real substantial English are for socialism much less communism. The British people have been a free people too long to suddenly turn to slavery. Socialism, fascism, nazism and communism have always flourished where people are in what Americans would term slavery. The intelligent English people are not for slavery, but they may have to revise some of their state ownership of everything idea to get more loans from Uncle Sam. Unlike the USA, their increase in production has gone from bad to worse under socialism.

Eighteen of the necessary 36 states have ratified the 22nd Amendment to the U S constitution, and with seven more years to go. This amendment would limit the presidential terms to two only, of four years each. Texas legislature turned the amendment down, many of them perhaps believing that it would be a direct slap at FDR. But it is a proven fact that there are no such things as an indispensable man. President Truman took the reigns right where President Roosevelt laid them down, and carried right on without a hitch. If a person is retained in office too long, he builds up a following that is hard to put down, and from such conditions spring dictatorships. The man, no matter how conscientious, will get to reasoning that he is the master and not the servant of the people. We hope the next legislature of Texas ratifies the amendment. Let us suppose that conditions some time become reversed, and a Republican President gets in power for four terms. You would hear six million squawks from Texas.

STATE PINCHING DOWN ON AUTOMOBILE TRANSFER

Tax Collector Herbert Chesshir has been advised by the State Highway department of new amendments to motor vehicle registration laws, providing for fines and penalties on those failing to file with the Collector bills of sale and Certificate of title, on transfers of ownership of cars, especially used cars, within ten days from date of sale. It has been noticed by the State Department, that many transfers of used cars, are made in blank, kept open to the 2nd and 3rd purchasers, thus avoiding the State sales tax on same. This is now direct violation of law, and penalty automatically fixed. All transactions of sale of used cars should be made with the Tax collector within ten days after the sale.

The Tax Collector will have a full supply of all forms, for such in the next few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Lewis, who have been in Kansas and Dakota during the wheat harvest have returned to Brownfield to make their home for awhile.

Cadenhead, of Lubbock, aunt of the bride-elect; Mrs. J. R. Lindley, grandmother of the bride-elect and Miss Frieda Cadenhead, of Lubbock.

The bride's book of shirred white chiffon, trimmed with a cluster of white satin wedding bells and blue forget-me-nots, was presided over by Mrs. J. H. Rambo, aunt of the bride-elect, and Mrs. Bobby Jones. Other members of the houseparty who assisted in the reception room were Mmes. C. R. Lackey, W. H. Collins, W. B. Downing, Jack Holt, Wayne Brown, Clarence Lewis, A. W. Turner, E. D. Ballard and M. G. Tarpley.

Announcement of the wedding and date was lettered in gold on white satin streamers extending from a yellow and white bow tied to the base of a crystal basket filled with yellow gladioli, which formed the centerpiece for the tea table. Reflected in the wall mirror above the buffet was a beautiful arrangement of a gold foil fan tied with a bow of the same material in which were entwined bronze baby chrysanthemums. White cascade candles flanked the arrangement.

Mmes. M. J. Craig, jr., and J. E. Smith presided at the refreshment table and were assisted in serving by Misses Joyce Dungan and Frances Rambo.

One hundred and twenty-five guests registered.

Coffee Given As Courtesy to Mrs. Lewis

Health Notes From State Health Department

Education of the public to the value of diphtheria immunization has resulted in lowering of the incidence of this dread disease, but Texas still had over 1500 cases of this preventable disease last year according to records in the Texas State Department of Health.

"It is a generally accepted fact among public health authorities" Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer, said, "that any community may control its death rate from diphtheria. Immunization has been proved a safe and effective preventative measure. Wherever immunizing treatment has been extensively used, diphtheria has steadily decreased.

"The most forceful weapon in the control of diphtheria is prevention through immunization, rather than cure of the disease after it has developed.

Children can be protected against diphtheria by the use of what is known as toxoid. Young children are particularly susceptible to the disease. Accordingly, as soon as a baby is six months old, the parents are advised to take it to the family physician and have it immunized—protected, by the use of toxoid. Older

Our Friend Michie Takes Down With It

J. E. Michie, of McAlester, Oklahoma, is all tore up because Brownfield lost best two out of a possible three in golf games. He orders that a lot of these old Brownfield "stiffies" come up there where they have the best golf course this side of any place, and let him give them a few lessons. He also laments that the boys he used to play with have backfired, somewhat.

What J. E. probably does not know is that Denver City, built up since he left here 13 years ago, is a hustling bustling oil field town, and not just a wide place in the road. And too, they came from everywhere, places like Tulsa, Bartlesville and other oil field sections where they have good golf courses and good players. They are not just a few uninitiated scrubs, that took up cow pasture tennis the past year or two.

He closes by saying he hates to see the "small towns" of Tokio, Plains, Denver City and Seagraves swamping a city such as we have in Brownfield.

If it will be any consolation to J. E., we will let him in on a little secret that was not reported in these columns. On the very same Sunday, Aug. 3, that Brownfield golfers were being snowed under by Denver City, a bunch of drug store cowboys from Brownfield went to Plains and swamped a bunch of real McCoy cowboys, riding and roping.

Feel any better, J. E.?

Mrs. S. B. Johnson of Quinlan, Texas, but a former Terryite, wrote in recently and enclosed money for what she stated was the 23rd year of the Herald. She was the second wife of the late Sam B. Johnson, early day county commissioner, and step mother of Wood E. Johnson of this county.

children in the family who have not had the protective treatment, should be immunized also, and this should be attended to now before the school season begins. This immunizing agent is absolutely safe to administer; there is only a slight local reaction, and practically no constitutional or troublesome after effects. It confers a life time immunity in the majority of cases. To be certain that immunization is complete, however, the child should be taken back to the physician six months after the toxoid was administered, and given the Schick Test.

"It is within the power of the parents of this State, cooperating with their physicians and public health departments, to eliminate diphtheria from Texas."

G. I. Question And Answer Department

Q. How does a veteran apply for readjustment allowance?

A. A veteran must present his original service discharge or separation paper, or if that has been lost or destroyed, a certificate in lieu of or a properly authenticated copy of such paper. This claim indicates whether the veteran is unemployed, partially employed or self-employed.

Q. Does Veterans Administration help the disabled veteran get a job after he finishes his training?

A. Yes.

Q. What is the maximum length of training a disabled veteran can get under Public Law 16?

A. The maximum is four years; however, Veterans Administration may extend the time if factors in any case warrant an additional period for rehabilitation.

Q. Must a disabled veteran go to a vocational school or may he go to a liberal arts college, a high school, or similar institution under the Vocational Rehabilitation Act?

A. He may enroll in any VA-approved educational institution

Everything But Democracy Taught

A reporter for the Christian Science Monitor tells of three Chinese who worked for six years in Cuba under the protection of the United States, earning a comparatively fabulous American salary. When asked if they had ever heard of democracy, they looked blank. He then asked them whether they had ever heard of Communism. They answered enthusiastically in the affirmative. "Furthermore," the reporter said, "they all thought they would prefer living under the Communists in Northern China on their return home. They have read about Communism, but never heard or read about the democratic way of life under which they are living so happily. Like the rest of us, they take for granted American democracy."

The government of the United States has functioned through the years for one purpose—to protect the dignity and freedom of its citizens. Individual initiative and endeavor built the economy which makes this type of government possible and keeps it operating effectively. Yet, in the last decade and a half, there has been a clear trend in the direction of government ownership of industry—Communism. Two billion dollars have been spent to establish government in the business of generating and distributing electric power alone, in tax-exempt competition with the investor-owned tax-paying electric industry. A great hydro-electric system is proposed for the Missouri and Mississippi rivers, with no mention of its effect on existing private utilities in the two valleys.

Such proposals by men high in government echo the hollowness of the three Chinese who lived under democracy in Cuba but didn't know what it was.

If this nation is to survive as a land of liberty, the government cannot go on expanding in fields that are the province of the private citizens.

Old Timer Gives Low Down On Comanche

In the past several years we have passed through Comanche county quite a few times, and in the city of Comanche, which by the way is quite some burg, we have noted an old liveoak tree in the southwest corner of the courthouse square. Now down in that section a liveoak tree is no rarity, nor would one be if found on the county courthouse property. But this one is fenced in with a nice substantial fence.

Once while passing through that city we took the trouble to get out of the car and look for some plaque or sign denoting the whys and wherefores. About all we could recall is one of the stories in our old school books by a famous American poet about "Axman Spare That Tree; Tough Not a Single Bow" etc. And we found this old tree bears just about such a history.

John Black, one of our good farmers and landowners came from down DeLeon way, and we knew it. He had business in the office one day last week, and we put the question squarely up to him. John just grins and says: "It's a pretty long story, but boiled down it was a tree behind which some pioneers took refuge from Indians in the early days, and shot it out with the Redskins. After long years and much water flowed under the bridge the then county authorities thought the square would look better with the old liveoak gone, root and branch. But when workmen appeared with ax and pick to do their stuff, there stood a sturdy old pioneer, who told them that the first guy that struck that tree would bite the dust. The tree still stands.

Why There Are No Negroes
Last summer we brought a cousin home with us from Tennessee, and in coming home via Brownwood, passed through Comanche. As we entered the suburbs we made a proposition to the cousin to give him one dollar for each negro he saw. He saw none of course. But briefly here is why. Going way back when the county was being settled with farmers, one young farmer brought a young negro to help on the farm.

One day when he went to town and left the negro plowing, the negro went to the house, got the shotgun and deliberately killed the man's wife for no cause whatever. Since then no negro has ever been allowed in the county. One white family brought an infant negro child with them later, but had to carry it back where negroes were allowed to live.

Didn't Like "Hoss" Thieves
The subject drifted then to early day "hoss" thieves. From what we can gather from old timers down in a group of counties including Comanche, Mills, Bosque, Erath, Eastland, etc., we don't believe there is a group of counties in Texas, perhaps in the whole USA where more horse thieves have been hung to limbs and their horse driven from under them. We have heard of some old trees with long level limbs, having supported as many as a half dozen horse thieves at one hanging, illegal of course.

Just why the early Texan hated a horse thief so religiously has never quite been made clear. But they hated them with an aversion like we of today hate the proverbial rattlesnake, and the courts were just too slow to suit the average pioneer of that time. Oh, they had a trial in a way, and pretty good evidence was pinned on them before the last mile walk, but it was usually out on some creek, with the stars and perhaps the moon for a roof.

But they put the fear of God in the hearts of all who coveted the other fellow's pony. And we presume, in conclusion, that fact was the reason the Texas pioneers were such haters of the Comanche Indian tribe. They were natural horse thieves.

Winter Family Moving To Graham

Mr. R. O. Winter, who came to Brownfield June 1 from Storm Lake, Iowa, to work for the Herald as advertising manager, left Monday for Graham. He liked Texas so well that he purchased one of the papers there. The family will leave as soon as he can rent or buy a residence.

We found Mr. Winter a very faithful worker, and he did a real job while here building lineage. We hope he has great success in his new undertaking. Until we can get a new advertising man, the crew will have to do the best it can in that department.

Soil Conservation District News

Dr. R. A. Young, Agronomy Department of Texas Technological College, Lubbock, was accompanied by W. J. Davis, Abilene, N. B. Hancock, Lubbock, Judd Morrow, Lubbock, John Lee, Lubbock, W. B. Hill, Lubbock, Charles Murphy, Waco, and James W. Patrick, Lubbock, all students in soil conservation, paid a visit to the C.Y.T. District Wednesday, August 13, to study various farms under the district program. Accompanying this group in these visits were Judge Homer Winston, Jay Barret, Chairman Board of Supervisors for C.Y.T. District, Looie Miller, Executive Officer, Production Marketing Administration, Hugh G. Porterfield, Project Supervisor for Sub-Experiment Station, Riley W. Carlton, Work Unit Conservationist, E. S. Hall and A. J. Malouf of Lubbock, together with County Commissioners McNeil and Fox. This group looked at several farms down through the Foster Community. A stop was made at Roy Golden's farm and Homer Winston's farm to study results of deep breaking. The group, on returning to Brownfield, stopped to see the sprinkler irrigation system on the Judge Starnes farm east of the Union Gin.

An official visit and inspection was made at the local District S.C.S. office Thursday, August 14th, by P. C. Bennett, Assistant State Conservationist, John A. Perrin, District Conservationist, Littlefield, Texas, and Zone Technician, Rechinthin of the Regional S.C.S. office, Fort Worth, Texas. From comments made by these visitors, they were well impressed with the progress being made.

W. T. Perkins is about ready to start several small patches near his farmstead for an improved pasture.

Walter Fulton has 40 acres of nice Weeping lovegrass about to head out. This grass was planted in 40-inch rows and cultivated and irrigated. Mr. Fulton will soon prepare a large field for alfalfa and a grass mixture.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Purtell and children left Thursday of last week for Colorado. Mrs. Purtell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dellenbaugh, of Edmon, Okla., will meet them there and all will enjoy several days of fishing.

YOUR STATE TAXES DOUBLED

The State Tax Rate This Year Is 72c On $100 Valuation

Last Year the Rate Was 37c

Who Said, "No New Taxes"?

VOTE! VOTE! VOTE!

Saturday, August 23rd

AGAINST

An Additional 5c Tax

On Saturday, August 23, an amendment to the constitution of the State of Texas will be voted on to allocate 5c of the authorized 7c Confederate pension tax to finance a building program for State owned colleges other than the University of Texas and Texas A. & M.

An Additional Tax
"They" say this is not a new tax, but you have not been paying it for many years. It certainly will be an additional tax you have not been paying. If voted by the people of Texas on August 23, it will be added to your 72c State tax, making a total of 77c on the $100 valuation.

Small Taxpayers Pay
The veteran, the farmer, the small home owner, the laborer, the small business man, everybody will have to pay this 5c tax in addition to the 72c State tax, if this amendment carries. This State tax is in addition to local taxes—County taxes—School taxes—City taxes—and perhaps others.

Will Not Provide Buildings
If passed, this 5c additional tax will not provide adequate and sufficient buildings at today's cost of construction. In the next 10 years West Texas State Teachers College at Canyon MIGHT get $487,200. The College of Mines at El Paso MIGHT get $423,000. Sul Ross at Alpine MIGHT get $189,000. Texas Technological College at Lubbock MIGHT get $1,500,000 in these 10 years.

An Unnecessary Tax
This is an unnecessary tax. By a division of the so-called Permanent University Fund more buildings can be built at all the State owned colleges than this tax will provide. They also can be built much sooner. And the State University and Texas A. & M. still can get more buildings than they can use.

42 Counties Exempt
42 of the State's richest counties pay no ad valorem taxes for State purposes. None of these counties are in West Texas.

W H Y?
Should you pay another unnecessary 5c tax when 42 of the State's 254 counties will not be paying to help our State colleges.

Help Colleges—Vote Against
You will actually be helping all 14 of our State colleges if you vote against this amendment. All these colleges can and will get more money by regular appropriations if this amendment is defeated than they could get by the passage of this 5c tax amendment. Your vote against the amendment will help instead of hurt these 14 State colleges.

DON'T BE LED ASTRAY

Do not be led astray by this proposed amendment which levies a 5c tax on your property for 30 years and saddles a $45,000,000 debt on you and all other taxpayers. If passed, this amendment will open the flood gates of the State treasury to dozens of new colleges and you again will pay the bill.

Go Vote Saturday, August 23rd

Veterans' News

Automatic increases will be paid effective Sept. 1 in minimum allowances received by the more seriously disabled veterans enrolled in educational and training courses under Government sponsorship, Veterans Administration announced today.

The increased rates, which will be reflected in September checks received on or after Oct. 1, were voted by the last session of Congress and signed into law by the President.

VA said the law requires no action by disabled trainees entitled to the higher rate because of the automatic nature of the increases.

The new law provides that a veteran enrolled in a course under the Vocational Rehabilitation Act (Public Law 16), whose disability is rated at 30 per cent or higher, will receive $115 a month if he has no dependents, and $135 if he has one dependent.

The old law allowed $105 and $115 for the same two categories; but, while these rates are superseded by the new schedules for the more seriously disabled, they will continue to apply to veterans with disabilities rated at less than 30 per cent.

The new law also raises the amounts authorized for additional dependents of veterans with disabilities of 30 per cent or more. The additional allowance for one child is increased from $10 a month to $20, and the previous allowance of $7 a month for each additional child is raised to $15. No change is made in the $14 monthly allowance for a dependent parent.

The new law does not change the basic provisions for awarding payments to disabled veterans pursuing a course of training under the Vocational Rehabilitation Act. These provisions are:

While a veteran is in training, and for two months after his employability is determined, he receives a subsistence allowance of $65 a month if he has no dependents, or $90 a month if he has one or more dependents, in addition to his disability compensation. In case the compensation plus the allowance do not total $105 or $115 for those with disabilities of less than 30 per cent, or $115 or $135 for those with disabilities of 30 per cent or more, an additional sum is paid to make up the difference. The sum is further increased if there is more than one dependent.

The veteran in job training may retain whatever wages are paid him, but if his salary plus his subsistence allowance exceeds the wage of a beginning trained journeyman, VA will reduce his subsistence allowance proportionately.

If the veteran-trainee is enrolled in school, his tuition and fees are paid by VA, and his books

CHICKEN DINNERS MORE PLENTIFUL NOW

Chicken dinners can be on the family menu often now. They're plentiful and priced reasonably, says Myrtle Murray, home marketing specialist of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service.

The wholesale prices of fryers are now below the last OPA ceiling. In fact, says the specialist, they are back to 1926 price levels.

Fryers are popular because they are adaptable. Served hot or cold, "country fried" or French fried, the plentiful young birds fill the menu bill.

Very plump fryers weighing not over 2 1-2 pounds are tops for broiling, and the heavier fryers, weighing around 3 1-2 pounds lend themselves best to roasting, braising or fricasseeing.

However the housewife prepares them, fryers are excellent eating and they are a good buy, says the marketing specialist.

Mr. and Mrs. James Massey had as their week end guests her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Gibson of Dallas. Mr. Gibson is now owner of an auto parts shop in Dallas but many years ago was employed on the J Cross ranch near Tokio. He and Mr. Brit Clare worked together on the ranch and during Mr. Gibson's visit here spent several hours retelling their experiences while working together.

and supplies are provided by VA. If he is enrolled in on-the-job training, VA provides the necessary tools.

IN THE STILL OF THE NIGHT
A MAN DIED -

He had worked late—he was tired—thoughtlessly he walked to the right along the darkened highway. Beyond the turn of the road were the lights of home.

Speeding through the early darkness, a driver urged his car along, hugging the edge of the road. A dim shape, a sudden sickening jolt — and the terrorized driver, his car careening, sped on — around the curve, past the lighted cottage beside the road. And in the still of the night, a man died.

These are the ingredients of accidents and death at night. Often the victim contributes to his own death by not walking to the left, facing traffic. But far too many pay with their lives for the reckless driving of the hit-and-run car coward. To him self-preservation is more urgent than the saving of a life.

To his kind let this be a warning. Of all highway and traffic violators, the hit-and-run driver fares worst. Sooner or later, his crime leads to prison and disgrace.

The highways shall be cleared of these auto highwaymen.
