

Visiting With The Brownfield Merchants This Week

By The Old He

Jack Griggs swings a mean ice hook. Almost everyday one of the help takes the headache, belly-ache, or goes to see the wife's kinfolks. In that case, Jack loads the truck and sews the town down in wet ice.

Had a tall gab session with J. B. Ricketts up at the Cosden wholesale and retail one day last week. J. B. is really enthused with the new Terry county oil field in south part of the county. Says we ought to drive down there sometime, as there is some real action going on down that way. At that time there were 14 producers, one or two since, and several drilling. And another company, the Tidewater has joined the discovering company, the Amereda in punching holes down there. Been thinking of going down and trying to borrow some money from W. C. Collins.

Had a run in with Marion Craig and the two sons of the M. J. Craig Motor Co., this week. As he had no Plymouths of Chryslers to sell, and not many in prospect, conversation drifted to war—a very unpleasant subject. Well, anyway, they are to start their own building corner Broadway and Eighth soon after 1948 gets here.

And Paul Campbell is back from market for Cobb's Dept. Store, and he is none too well pleased. Found many items scarce, and especially piece goods. Hopes to connect later.

Up at Collins Dry Goods and Palace Drug, they were attacked by a brigade of traveling salesmen Monday, and almost had to dig in. Well, these salesmen kept the boys and girls so busy, we knew there was not one chance in a million for a poor old ad solicitor to insert his periscope. Called later.

Mrs. Joe Shelton keeps a little smile on all the while, that ranges from the Madonna suggestion to a real broad one. Ane she was doing just that this week despite the fact that her father-in-law and mother-in-law were visiting. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Shelton of Cisco, Well, they are pretty good in-laws after all. Mrs. S. is getting in some new stuff, she allowed.

No soap at the Gift Shop, but Mrs. Emilu Betty assured the Old He that she was off to market soon, and then she would be "at home" to an advertising solicitor. She's a fine lady and we know she will succeed.

Lynn Nelson of the jewelry business is hoping and trusting that he can get Lee Brownfield, his landlord to run back his store several feet this fall, as he needs the room. And Lee is a bit favorably inclined. In case he does, he will likely also extend the two buildings adjoining, now occupied by A. W. Turner Insurance and the Go're Style Shop.

Got to see one of those Philco portables over at Lal Copeland Hardware this week, and it does just as advertised. It will "jest sot thar" and play, or you can take it by the handle like your suit case, and it plays and talks while you take it for a walk.

That woman that permits Les Short to make his home with her, owner and manager of the Music Mart, says she is still getting in a bunch of records, as well as Victor phonographs and RCA-Victor radios.

Grand Jury Returns One Indictment

The new grand jury empaneled here last Monday, returned one indictment against a local man charged with driving while drunk after having been previously convicted of the same offense more than once, thus making this charge a felony. He promptly gave bond, and trial has not been set yet.

The grand jury also reported they had inspected the jail and courthouse and finding same clean and property in good condition.

But having some unfinished business they will return in two months.

World Alliance Prexy Midland Speaker

Dr. C. Oscar Johnson

Recently elected president of the Baptist World Alliance, Dr. C. Oscar Johnson of St. Louis will be principal speaker for an all-day stewardship rally at the First Baptist church of Midland Tuesday, September 2.

One thousand church officers representing 34,285 Baptists in this area will attend the meeting to hear reports on the World Alliance meeting in Copenhagen and to plan their church financial programs to meet increasing world needs.

One of the most popular speakers for club and civic meetings as well as for the pulpits of the nation, Dr. Johnson has been termed "The Will Rogers of Baptist Circles." He is pastor of the Third Baptist Church of St. Louis.

Saturday Was A Wild And Woolly Day

Some of these days, we are going to create and envoke a new family law that no one is to mention our birthday, either months before or months after one happens. They have already stacked up so high that any idea of supplying our cake with candles has long since been "disremembered." Anyway Saturday was another, and now that we are within 3 of that great ambition of the elderly, three score and ten. Well we are still going rather brisk, except when we have to walk any great distance, and we have long since sworn to never rust out. We may however, wear out. We still laugh quite a bit and get some joy out of life.

Just where Mrs. S. (we are afraid to call her the Old She) gets the stuff to "throw" a dinner like she had at noon, is not quite clear. We think the speckle-eyed peas came from neighbor Griffin's patch. The chicken was managed for, and somehow Johnny Haynes was talked into making a suitably engraved cake. The above was the main features, but there were others, among them our old standbys, buttermilk and Arbuckle.

And we had a whole raft of presents from those present, which included all the immediate family, Jack Jr., and family; Mr. and Mrs. H. Trigg of Brownwood. Also Mrs. Hartwell Davis and daughter, Mary Ann of Redlands, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Mumford Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Adolphus Smith of Glendale, Ariz.

And at the combination affair on the back lawn at night not in our honor, but by the three sisters, Stricklin, Smith and Davis, Mrs. Dessie Lewis Sawyer of Cross Roads, N. M., hijacked the men present for a wad of bills, which she presented us. But that affair will be reported in the see-syety collyum.

Dessie found out somehow that it was the Old He's birthday.

Mrs. Claude Merritt, store keeper at Johnson, was in Wednesday and reported that her father, Mr. Fred Pair, was pretty ill at the local hospital. He had an operation for appendicitis some time ago, but inflammation set up, and he had to have another incision made to remove that cause.

VOLUME 43

BROWNFIELD, TERRY COUNTY, TEXAS,

FRIDAY, AUGUST 29, 1947

NUMBER 5

T-4 James L. Terry Buried Here Sunday

Funeral services for T-4 James L. Terry, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Terry, of northwest part of this county, were conducted in the Meadow school auditorium, by Rev. J. W. Rhodes, evangelist of the Church of Christ, of Nashville, Tenn., assisted by J. B. Mackay of Meadow, last Sunday afternoon at 4:30. Farley Funeral home, which met the body at Lubbock, conducted the burial in the Terry County Memorial cemetery here.

The young soldier is survived by his parents, two sisters, Wanda Nell Terry at home, and Mrs. Betty Brown of Ackerly. Three brothers, Coy of Meadow, Fred of Hot Springs, N. M. and R. T. of Ackerly.

Pall bearers were Jimmy Mackay, Noel D. Flowers, Jack Barnes, Alton West, Paul Nettles, Joe Ray Locke, Robert Brooks and Truitt Babb, all of Meadow. An honor guard from the Howard-Hinson Legion post of this city, attended the burial. The body was accompanied here by the boy's Platoon Sgt. Scott Miller, of Fort Sam Houston.

Terry, who was soon to get terminal leave, and another soldier, were found shot to death in the mail room of a Fort Sam Housen barracks, San Antonio Thursday of last week. Details of the tragedy have not been released by army headquarters there.

Zoning Law Lost By 50 Votes

In a hotly contested election here Tuesday anti-zoners seem to have defeated the pro-zoners by a margin of 50 votes. Thus we find that sentiment here pro and con zoning is pretty well equally divided. Many of those who voted against zoning say there is provision or ordinances that will protect a property owner against encroachment of businesses and conditions he does not want about his place.

There was a total of 678 votes cast, of which 314 was for zoning and 364 against the measure. The city council had not met to count the votes, so the above is not official, but we presume pretty accurate. The Herald is glad that an almost record vote turned out.

This is still a free country, otherwise we had as well turn it over to Stalin-Molotoff et al, and time only can tell whether the zoning law should have been defeated or sustained.

While the Councilmen have made no comment, it was conceded they will abide by the majority wish, as the election was held for that purpose, and repeal the ordinance, or at least most of its objectionable features.

Spokesmen for the anti-zoners state they will join with the council in working out ample safeguards, against unhealthy, unsanitary and offensive buildings or uses, only desiring more liberty and latitude in their buildings. They assert the city will go right on living and growing.

F F A Boys To Be Honored At Banquet

The Annual Area FFA Banquet honoring members that received the State Farmer Degree will be held Sept. 5 in the Lubbock Hotel at 7:30 P. M. All members and their fathers are invited, especially those receiving the State Farmer Key. Plates will be $1.50 each. Those planning to attend are to notify Mr. Buford either in person or by mail by Sept. 2.

The regular FFA meeting of Sept. 1 has been postponed until after the opening of school. A special meeting will be called before the next regular meeting. The program for the next meeting will include the election of officers for the school year 1947-48, and the distribution of Club gifts to selected members.

Rotary Club To Welcome District Governor

J. F. McCulloch

The Rotary club of Brownfield today will welcome J. F. (Jim) McCulloch, Governor of the 127 District of Rotary International, which includes 64 Rotary Clubs in northwest Texas. Mr. McCulloch is a farmer in Stamford and is a member of the Rotary Club of Stamford.

Mr. McCulloch will visit the Rotary Club of Brownfield to advise and assist President Kyle Graves, Secretary Clarence Griffith and other officers of the Club on matters pertaining to Club administration and Rotary service activities. He is one of the 173 District Governors of Rotary International who are supervising the activities of some 6,200 Rotary Clubs which have a membership of 305,000 business and professional executives in 78 countries and geographical regions throughout the world.

Wherever Rotary Clubs are located, their activities are similar to those of the Rotary Club of Brownfield, because they are based on the same general objectives—developing better understanding and fellowship among business and professional men, promoting community-betterment undertakings, raising the standards and peace among all the peoples throughout the world.

Fair Committees Hard At Work

The several committees working on the County Fair to be held here October 23, 24 and 25 report satisfactory progress thus far. They have sold enough booths for commercial exhibits to pay a large premium list.

Arrangements are taking shape for agricultural and livestock exhibits, and much encouragement is being received from various exhibitors. The management are elated over the prospects of the largest and most successful fair ever held in the county.

Dr. Parrish Returns From Minnesota

Dr. R. B. Parrish, dentist of Hobbs, N. M., but formerly of Brownfield, stopped over here Friday for a rest and visit before proceeding home. He had just returned from Houston, Minn., where he went on business. His mother died some six weeks ago, but he was unable to go at that time. His dad passed on some two years ago.

His father, J. E. Parrish was game warden for many years in the Houston section of Minnesota, or until his health failed. Mr. and Mrs. Parrish visited their son here in former years, and as the Elder Parrish dabbled somewhat in the newspaper business when a younger man, he always visited the Herald office when here. And Dr. Parrish always sent him the paper as long as he lived.

Dr. Parrish says he has a fine dental business in Hobbs.

Chuck Wilson, Billy Wartes and Lyle Shelton are attending a band school being held at Hardin Simmons in Abilene.

Several New Subjects To Be Carried By Brownfield Schools This Term

Laymen's Revival At First Christian Church

Announcements and plans for Fall and future work at the First Christian church, were made by the pastor and lay workers at a special meeting Wednesday night at the church, Ballard and Hill.

Among the unusual things of community interest will be the Laymen's Revival Meeting to be conducted by the Honorable Geo. Brown of Fort Worth, outstanding layman of the church of Christ in America today. He is a leader of Men's work in the Christian churches of the State of Texas, under the Auspices of the Texas Christian Missionary Society.

Mr. Brown will arrive in Brownfield and be at the services of the local Christian church next Sunday morning, for a special meeting and discussion of plans with the Lay Leaders of the church, according to Mr. Crawford Burrow, chairman of the local chapter of the Laymen's League of the Second District of West Texas. Mr. Brown will spend two weeks or more in organizing and assisting the men of the church in launching their program in Brownfield and Terry and Yoakum counties.

During the second week of his stay in Brownfield, Mr. Brown will conduct evangelistic services to which the public is invited.

Believes His Farm Will Make 475 Bales

Had a conversation with G. S. Webber, erstwhile druggist, but now a retired farmer. Some folks call them "windshield farmers" in jest, of course. But G. S. is entitled to retire. He family doctored a long time in Oklahoma before coming to Brownfield and bought the Palace Drug Store. He sold it many moons later to the present owners.

But back to the farm, G. S. does have one of the best farms in old Terry, and that means the best in the U. S. A. It is situated in the Needmore country, and that practical and successful farmer, Henry Bates is cultivating it. There is 950 acres in cotton, and Mr. Webber stated last week that he had been all over the field recently, and that there was a half bale per acre of grown bolls on the cotton now. Rah! for Henry and Ann—Rah! for G. S.

County Sets Tax Rate At $1.20

The Commissioners' Court recently set the County tax rate at $1.20 the same as last year. This with the state's 72 cents makes $1.92 on the one hundred dollar valuation.

Taxable values, are about the same as last year, plus new properties.

MRS ORB STICE ERIOUSLY ILL

Mrs. Orb Stice, wife of a well known banker, underwent major surgery at a Temple hospital early Wednesday morning.

Her mother, Mrs. R. M. Kendrick went there by plane, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry White and children and Mr. Pester, of Manhattan, Ill. were guests of the Charles Wilsons Sunday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Davis and son Earl left Friday for Erie, Penn. where they will visit for two weeks.

Golf Tournament Winners Announced

Winning over Harlan Glenn in the final round of the Brownfield Country Club Tournament last Sunday, Fred Smith took club championship honors. Jack Shirley won the championship flight consolation.

Winners of other flights are as follows: First Flight—Fred Baldwin. Consolation, J. T. Bowman. Second Flight—Jack Stricklin, Jr., Consolation, I. M. Bailey. Third Flight—W. T. McKinney, Consolation, J. E. Ricketts. Fourth Flight—Glenn Hahn. There was no consolation round in this flight.

Mrs. Lee Brownfield won the Women's Flight and Mrs. J. T. Bowman won consolation honors. Evoking considerable interest was the special flight, consisting of Tom May, Joe McGowan, Bob Bowers and O. L. Peterman. Tom May walked off with the prize in this event and Peterman was the consolation winner.

Prizes were awarded flight and consolation winners. Cold melon was served to club members at the conclusion of play Sunday afternoon.

Pairings were announced this week for the Partnership Tournament. Initial rounds are to be played off by Sunday afternoon.

Food Handlers School Well Attended

The food handlers school in session here this week, under personal instruction of W. D. Arnold of the State Department of Health, is being attended by over 60 persons, as well as many part time listeners.

Because District court was using the Court room early this week, the lessons are being given in Fellowship Hall of the Methodist church, which is well arranged for showing the slides and movies connected with it. The purposes of the project, is to in a general way, bring up to a high standard public health.

New Ford Tractors Now On Display

Happened over last week at the Brownfield Tractor Co., which is piloted by Ike Bailey and Glen Webber, located on the east side of the square. There we saw the new Ford tractor, and it is a compact piece of machinery and beautifully streamlined.

For some time since the dis-solvment of the Ford partnership with Ferguson, dealers have been up against the proposition of having no tractors, but the manufacturers of the Ford tractor, which is the same ownership of Ford cars, we understand, speed getting new tractors to dealers is anticipated.

In view of this fact, it is expected that Bailey & Webber will proceed with their building at the corner of Broadway and Eighth, in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Roberts and children; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brown and children; Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Schwartz and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Gillham returned Friday from a ten day vacation in Colorado.

Mrs. Ed Horner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hamm of this city with husband and family are vacationing this week in California, visiting her brothers, Wilburn and Edwin Hamm of San Diego, former residents of this city.

Check Up On The New Traffic Laws In Effect Sept. 5

Plans for broadening and enriching the curriculum of Brownfield High School for the coming school year include the installation of Physics, Choral Singing, Bible, and Distributive Education as regular offerings of the high school, according to Supt. S. P. Cowan.

Physics will be taught by Miss Noble; Choral Singing will be under the direction of Mr. Wentz. The course in Bible, to be taught by Mr. Fallon, offers a study of the Old Testament during the first semester and a study of the New Testament during the spring semester. Distributive Education, a course designed to fit students into vocations for which they are best fitted, will be taught by Mr. Covert; students enrolled for this course will attend classes half of the day and do practical work during the latter half of the day under the supervision of their teacher and various firms in Brownfield offering the type of training the student desires to learn. Distributive Education offers two credits to the student, thus making possible to the student the completion of the normal yearly load of four credits plus the opportunity to gain valuable work experience.

In compliance with requirements of the State Department of Education, every student will be required to take Physical Education. Students who hold certificates of disability from a physician will be the only exemptions from this requirement.

Registration for High School Students will be as follows: September 1 and 2—Seniors. September 3 and 4—Juniors. September 5—Sophomores. September 6—Freshmen.

Alpha Omega To Stage Style Show

The time, Thursday night, Sept. 4th. The place, Rio Theatre. Subject, a style show. In a nutshell, that is just what is going to happen. And the club ladies inform the Herald that the merchants of Brownfield are co-operating beautifully, and most of them will have a model on the stake to display their lovely feminine wear.

Not only that, but you get a full length screen show before and after the style show. As an added attraction, you will see Foy Mackey's School of Dancing pupils featured. You will see the very latest in fall wearing apparel, jewelry, hair styles and footwear and milinery.

You can see all this dirt cheap; only 50c.

Outstanding Citizens To Speak At Rally

The Nazarene Church will hold a city wide rally day August 31st beginning at 9:45 a. m. Special speakers will be Mayor Jordan, Judge Winston and Supt. Cowan. Evangelist Luther Pryor will deliver the message and songs and special music will be included in the service.

Rev. Perryman, pastor of the church, has invited representatives from each business firm to attend.

Terry's Big Pea Crop Being Harvested

Inquiries from our elevators here reveal they have already shipped out near 1,000 tons of green peas and many more are being harvested. Like all other crops, the dealers say "if it will rain" they will have almost as much more. The price is ranging better than $60 per ton. They are shipped to various canneries over the state. Dealers also expect to handle dry peas later.

There is entirely too much rape of young girls going on, even here on the south Plains, to suit the writer. Many of the victims of these stalwart, brave (?) men, are mere children, in their low teenage. Some of these rapists are old enough to be married and have families of their own, even if they do not. If and when these rapists who go in pairs or even trios to frame up on helpless children, are brought to justice, if they do not bring their wives and babies along to display to a wet eyed, sniveling jury, they will bring their "dear old mothers and fathers" along to persuade the jury that they didn't raise their boy to fill a felon's cell. Nor did the parents of the victim raise their daughters to appease a bunch of two legged beasts; and are perhaps too embarrassed to make much of a display in a courtroom. For that reason, many of these brutes almost go scott free or a light sentence. We have one idea that might help in such matters, but the public is too humane to institute it, as though these vultures are human. We would make stags out of all males found guilty of criminally assaulting girls or women by force. After spending a few years behind the prison walls at hard labor, the state or federal government could turn them loose on society again, or give them the choice of going to a colony of fellow stags to spend the rest of their dirty lives.

The Donley County Leader over at Clarendon, advises kindness to birds, and especially does Editor Estlack mention the dove and the stork as birds to be so honored. The dove, because he is a messenger of peace; the stork because he brings tax-exemptions. But we fear that Bro. Estlack, like the writer will never get any more tax exemptions in that direction.

And the Floydada Hesperian likes to remind the modern youth of some very unpleasant things, such as work and sweat. In a recent editorial, Editor Homer Steen confides that the old Confederate soldier was ages behind the modern youth. Instead of thinking of eight hour days, five days a week under air conditioned circumstances, the old Confed. and perhaps the Fed soldiers trooped home, rounded up the old "urmen and the brats, worked like wild fire for one or two years and moved west to grow up with the country. And they never referred to sweat as perspiration.

We heartily thank Garnett Reeves, formerly connected with the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce publicity department, but now in the insurance business in Lubbock, for his congratulations and good wishes for our continued efforts on the Herald. He states, "I believe in flowers for the living." We also thank Louie Moore, county clerk of Lubbock county for his thoughtfulness in sending us a number of cutouts of the write up about us that recently appeared in the Lubbock Avalanche. Maybe these are not big things, but it is a lot of the little, thoughtful things our friends do for us that makes this old world a happier place to live. We have never been able to feature a pleasant old world here below without friends to cheer us on. And we are often led to wonder when we read of people who live a hermit life, hord a fortune and die in squalor, just what such people get out of life.

It appears that the so-called college building amendment went over with a slim majority. If the opponents of the measure had gotten out and worked over the whole state last month instead of just the last week, as they did here in west Texas, the amendment would have been buried so deep that it would have been forgotten by the time the next legislature meets. But like our preparation for the last war—too little, too late.

Despite all we can do, the Weatherman seems to be in a very contrary mood, daggone him. We have persuaded, cajoled and almost offered bribes, but theascal will hardly inch from his position. Right now that guy is really in the doll drums, wind from the south, pretty hot days, but cooling breezes at night. Then he adds: "scattered afternoon thunder showers—not much change in temperature." We have been hearing that crack for two weeks now. Please give us a change. We have heard it thunder a few times, off quite a distance, but only a shower a few minutes Sunday noon.

Some of our funny paragraphers have noted that when football starts this fall, instead of "hold that line," the cry will probably be, "hold that hem." Some of the male writers and a few of the fems seem to be all hot and bothered about the "wimmen" lengthening their skirts. Take it easy fellows. If the gals want to hold the knee lengths they'll do so without any suggestions from you. Otherwise it would be as hard to keep 'em from letting 'em out, as it would to stop the Old 94 Cannon Ball passenger train with a feather. If they like the new styles, and think they can hold their "hims" by letting go their "hems," that's exactly what they will do, your opinion and desires to the contrary, notwithstanding.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove
Today I will pass a tip along to our college presidents. It will be my good turn for the day. College presidents have been plenty busy recent-like with their campuses over-flowing. They have not had time to notice. I reckon, the murmuring here and there that the country is over-stocked with synthetic economists, social uplifters, psychologists.

Not a week passes but what some guy or dame blows into our little burg here with a new cure for something or other that they can think up that needs curing. And I might add here, a tip to the program chairman of the book-review lunch clubs, etc. Get a local speaker who knows what he is talking about versus scratching around for some imported psychologist or economist who has just received his diploma and has not operated, owned or been in any kind of business or activities he is expounding about.

What this country needs over at the school house is more of the doctrine that teaches how to become a non-leaning, self-dependent citizen. As psychologists and theorists become more and more plentiful and get more in our way, and they find themselves on the 2 for a quarter counter in the bargain basement, it is gonna tax the college president's ability to square themselves for sponsoring such a curriculum.

Yours with the low down,
JO SERRA.

Panhandle - South Plains Fair Catalog To Be Out Soon

The catalog and premium list for the 30th Annual Panhandle South Plains Fair, which will be held in Lubbock, September 29 through October 4, is now in the hands of the printer and fair officials expect to have copies in the mail before the end of the month.

The 128-page booklet contains full information on all departments of the Fair, including names of superintendents and judges, awards to be made winners in all divisions, and rules and regulations for making entries.

The catalog goes to all last year's exhibitors, county agents, superintendents and judges for the Fair, vocational agriculture teachers, home demonstration agents, home demonstration club presidents and chairmen, and Chamber of Commerce secretaries.

Extra copies of the catalog will be available in the offices of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce. They may be obtained by writing the Chamber at Box 561, Lubbock, Texas, or by calling in person at the Chamber offices in the Lubbock city hall.

Camping With The F F A Boys

The Brownfield Future Farmers and the Advisor went to Christoval for a three day camping trip. Camping grounds were located near the recreational center on the bank of Concho River.

The recreational activities consisted of fishing, swimming, boating, touch football, baseball and dancing. Each member was outstanding in one particular phase of the recreational program. Tommy Riggs used his valuable time feeding the turtles his fish bait, but he was the only one that went home with fish. Bobby Stokes, Joe Johnson and Billy Ray Oliver could participate in all activities except swim the river; although they learned to swim under the direction of long winded swimmers such as Ray Carter, Carrol Johnson, Maurice Martin, Freddy Huckabee, and Billy Green.

Royce Parrish, Graham Swain, and Tommy Kennedy became experts in the operation of outboard motor boats. They were also well acquainted with evening maneuvering of row-boats. Wyndall Miller and Kenneth Tuttle enjoyed all music played on the juke box with the exception of the Coo Waltz, which became a favorite of one of the members. J. W. Parrish became so well acquainted that he wished to extend the encampment time two more days. Alton Martin expressed his favor for dancing instead of K. P. (cooking).

KENDRICKS ATTEND FAMILY REUNION

The annual reunion of the Cunningham family was held in Christoval, Texas, August 8, 9, and 10. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cunningham and family of Tokio; Mr. and Mrs. Will Cunningham and family of Utopia; Mrs. Pearl Scudday and family of Forsan and Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Kendrick and family, of Brownfield.

Many schoolmates and old friends from San Angelo enjoyed the reunion with the families.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. Leland Wilborn and two sons, Bobby and Billy of Oklahoma City, visited his sisters, Mrs. A. W. Puckett and Elsie Wilborn of this city and Mrs. T. V. Daniel of Meadow.

Good Advice For Elderly People

From a health standpoint, life after forty generally begins to be more complicated for the average individual, than it was in his earlier years. According to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, the principal health foes confronting people in middle life are heart disease, cancer, kidney disease, high blood pressure, hardening of the arteries, apoplexy, diabetes, and arthritis.

Middle aged people of today are healthier than were those of preceding generations, and the present generation, when they reach middle age, should enjoy even better health than their parents of today.

"Medical care in middle life has two important phases," Dr. Cox asserts. "The first is going to the doctor at regular intervals for a complete checkup, whether or not there have been symptoms that suggest the need for medical attention. The second is prompt attention to any illness, since this may mean the difference between complete recovery and prolonged invalidism. It is difficult to say which of these phases is the more important."

It has been found that men and women who faithfully pursue the habit of regular health examinations and who follow their physician's advice arising from them, tend to live longer, more satisfactorily, and freer from disease than those who simply take a chance and go to the doctor only when pain or disability forces them to give up their normal activities.

It is also a fact according to the State Health Officer, that many diseases of middle age respond to treatment in early stages whereas

Behind the Scenes in American Business

By Reynolds Knight

Bankers and others are beginning to show a little concern over the effects of easing the curbs on instalment buying and consumer credit. The reason that it is never a good thing to make it too easy for a man to go into debt. During the war, you remember, a clamp was put on consumer credit. But these controls will be lifted in November. Already the American people eager to buy automobiles, refrigerators and radios, and eager to spend for other purposes, are in debt to the tune of $10.7 billion. They have borrowed this amount to buy things on a "dollar down, rest of your life to pay" basis. This sum compares with the 1935-39 consumer credit average of $6.4 billions. Of course, part of the increase is due to higher prices. You need more dollars to buy a new car in 1947 than you did in 1941. So far, less than eight per cent of the vast quantity of goods being bought by people today are being bought on the instalment plan. But the trend is up and may spurt in November.

PRICE LINE — Belief that it can hold the price line on window and plate glass as a curb to rising building construction costs has been expressed by a glass manufacturer as the outgrowth of a unique management-labor pledge calling for increased production. Its belief, said the Libby-Owens-Ford Glass Company, that "we will be able to maintain present basic price levels through increased productivity" is warranted by the union's recognition "that full, uninterrupted production at low unit cost is necessary to take the pressure off prices curb inflation and bring down the cost of living." In a recent joint letter to employees, signed by glass company executives and representatives of the Federation of Glass, Ceramic & Silica Sand Workers of America, CIO, the company and union exchanged pledges of cooperation and the union stated it "will do everything possible publicly and privately to urge its members to individual cooperation in full production." Current average price of flat glass are at a level only 18 per cent above 1938, a "depression" year, although since that date wages have increased 84 per cent and material costs are still rising in the industry. Nevertheless, the glass company was prompted, it was said, "to give the maximum possible assurance of price stability."

THINGS TO COME— Cleaning

you house's "face" with a chemical bath before painting is made possible with a new spray washing device announced by an Indianapolis manufacturer — Laminated paper boxes with the strength and durability of wood are now available in lengths up to 20 feet for heavy duty packing and shipping — Featherweight magnesium dockboards are ready to ease manual labor at loading docks and platforms. Colonel Thompson Says There Is Plenty Of Oil In Texas

If there is a man in Texas that knows his oil, that man is Col. E. O. Thompson, chairman of Texas Railroad Commission, which commission also regulates the oil business for the state as well as the railroads. That fact is usually recognized outside Texas, as well. It is well known that Texas is by far the greatest producer of crude oil in the USA, and that it takes some real smart guys to run this billion dollar business in Texas.

So, one of the several commissions appointed at Washington to investigate this and that, including some of the investigators, invited the colonel to Washington to talk things over with the commission. The bone of contention seems to be in the oilless mid-west that produces no crude. But Thompson says as far as he can hear not a single tank has been empty of gasoline even in that section. And the only reason for a scarcity if one really exists, is lack of transportation and not oil or gasoline.

Of course they wanted to know the real reason of the bottleneck. Here are a few things the Colonel doped out for them, and some of them were things the boys at Washington had never heard of.

First off, he told them that a lot of crude was being wasted in making so-called high octane, and that when the motoring public thought they were getting better results and more mileage from a gallon of HC than they were regular, they were just kidding themselves.

The commission expressed itself as being highly pleased that a man of his knowledge of the oil

We Have To Go To Work Again

The Old He had lots of fun calling on the advertisers this week. Most of them were very busy, but not too busy to be friendly and jovial. Old Money Price was too busy to give us an ad, but we won't mention it. He bet a ten spot to our old straw hat that there was a writeup about us, and our picture in the Monday Star-Telegram.

Mon's one of these very positive guys. Some one suggested it was in the Avalanche. No, I don't take nothing but the Star-Telegram, and it was in my paper. He ought-to-uv lost.

SEVENTY ATTEND BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Bandy returned last week from their cabin at Possum Kingdom Lake where Mr. Bandy celebrated his birthday August 17th. Seventy enjoyed a picnic lunch served under the trees surrounding the cabin. Fish was the main dish with many other things added.

Attending from Brownfield were Mr. T. C. Hogue, sr., Mrs. B. L. McPherson, Mrs. Arch Fowler and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cloud and children.

Business would voluntarily come to Washington to testify. Then Thompson recommended that the bottleneck on steel be broken so that more piping could be had for both new wells and pipe lines. He stated that with more steel, 65,000 additional wells would have been put down.

He also recommended a slightly higher price for crude oil to encourage more wildcatting. He says there's plenty oil under the ground for all needs for years to come. The idea is to get it to the surface and transported where it's needed most.

"ANNOUNCEMENT TO OWNERS OF ARMED FORCES LEAVE BONDS"

The First National Bank is authorized by The United States Treasury Department to cash Armed Forces Leave Bonds for registered owners* (anytime after September 1, 1947).

There is no requirement that these bonds be cashed at this time in order to get your money. They can be cashed any time in the future, upon demand and without delay.

Unless you are in real need of the money now this institution and the United States Treasury Department strongly recommend that you permit your bond to earn interest at 2½ per cent (up to its maturity) until you actually need the cash. We will be glad to serve you any time.

To facilitate identification, owners should bring their ORIGINAL separation papers with them when presenting bonds for payment.

*Under no circumstances may registered owners cash their bonds before Sept. 2, 1947

Chicken Of Tomorrow Time For Labor May Hail From Texas Statesmanship

The Chicken-of-Tomorrow, a meatier bird with juicer drum sticks and more white meat to delight the national palate, definitely can be developed—and it may be Texas-bred, a Texas A and M poultry specialist predicted today.

His prediction was based on results of the 1947 Texas and Southwestern Chicken-of-Tomorrow contests held this summer at Fort Worth with Texas bred birds winning four of the first five places in the regional competition.

"The chickens entered in the state and regional contests had more white meat and were superior in every way to the average cockerels their age," declared F. Z. Beanblossom, A and M Extension Poultryman who is chairman of both the state and regional Chicken-of-Tomorrow committees.

"The next step in the three-year nation-wide contests will be selection by the National Committee of the poultrymen whose chickens will compete in 1948 for $7,000 in national prizes offered by a food store chain, of the contest," Beanblossom explained. "The committee is expected to make its selections in the next few months."

Since Texas entries took most of the top places in the regional contests, they will receive first priority from the National Committee for selection for the finals, the Extension Poultryman explained.

COKE PARTY GIVEN AS COURTESY TO MRS. TRIGG

As a courtesy to Mrs. Herman Trigg, of Brownwood, who visited here over the week end, Mmes. W. O. Schellinger and Ted Hardy entertained with a coke party Saturday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock in the Schellinger home. Mrs. Kyle Graves and Miss Ona Faye Tittle assisted with the hospitality.

Cokes were served from a bowl of crushed ice surrounded with asters and fern. Canapes and salted nuts completed the refreshments.

Twenty-eight guests called.

Claudia Mae and Laverne Aycock of Shamrock visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Brown last week.

Writing on the results of the Taft-Hartley labor law, David Lawrence said: "Already major labor unions have pledged themselves to settle their disputes with employers directly and to resort as little as possible to governmental boards—a development long hoped for but not until now beginning to be realized."

It may be that the new labor law will encourage a return to our traditional system of collective bargaining—and that the trend will be away from running to the government whenever labor and management find themselves in disagreement. One of the worst phases of labor troubles in recent years has been the trend toward dictatorial governmental intervention. If that were continued indefinitely, some governmental bureau would inevitably become the czar of all labor relations in this country—to the detriment of managers, stockholders and workers alike.

On the other hand, it is apparent that some large unions are still determined to do everything possible to make the Taft-Hartley law inoperative, to circumvent Congress and the popular will. Should these practices become widespread, at the expense of production and employment in this country, there will unquestionably be an irresistible public demand for legislation of a much more stringent character.

Labor statesmanship of the highest order is needed now.

West Texas Old Settlers Reunion Postponed

The Old Settlers reunion postponed until September 11, 12 and 13, 1947, at which time it will be held in the City Park in the City of Crosbyton, Texas.

Governor Beauford Jester will be in attendance on September 12, along with other prominent speakers.

There will be a rodeo, carnival, free barbecue, old settlers dances and well as dances for the young folks and other amusements.

The reason for the postponement was on account of conflicting with a revival meeting.

Come and bring your friends and have a good time.

Local Man Is Making Leather Goods

Mr. W. A. McLeod, 31, who with his mother, are located with Mrs. J. T. Auburg, is here taking streptococcus shorts for tuberculosis, and is engaged in making hand tooled leather goods, such as belts, billfolds, house shoes, etc., at times when he is not too ill from the effects of the drug to work. His mother is a girlhood friend of Mrs. Auburg.

This man tried to get into the army, navy and marines, but was rejected, but did help on some ships and was caught in frigid weather of the northeast Pacific, and developed the disease. Mrs. Auburg stated that he was picking up the leather goods work himself.

We saw some samples that are fine specimens and we think this man deserves your business along that line. His health seems to be improving.

Veterans' News

Agricultural training for nearly 40,000 World War II veterans on farms in Texas, Louisiana, and Mississippi probably will not be materially affected by new legislation passed by the 80th Congress, a Veteran's Administration official said this week.

William T. Murphy, VA director of vocational rehabilitation and education for the three states, said the new law (Public 377) assures continuance of full subsistence allowances for veterans engaged in approved institutional on-the-farm training.

New regulations under the act will be discussed by VA officials in St. Louis this week, Murphy said. He pointed out that the law actually stabilizes and gives congressional approval to most policies already established by VA in the Southwest for the farm training program.

Any new regulations made necessary by the act will be available to veterans, educators and agricultural leaders by October 1, Murphy said. World War II veterans taking institutional on-the-farm training in the Dallas Branch Area under the GI Bill include 21,500 in Texas, 11,000 in Mississippi and 6,500 in Louisiana. As more qualified instructors become available, an increase in this phase of veteran training is expected by VA.

Veterans whose training or education is interrupted in the middle of a month may not expect subsistence payments until the end of the month following that interruption, the Veterans Administration has reported in answer to numerous inquiries.

VA said that most veterans' accounts are on a current basis but that veterans whose training is halted in the middle of a month usually receive subsistence payments about four or five weeks from the date of the official termination of that training. All records of a veteran's interrupted training must be received before an account may be certified for payment.

Veterans are asked to notify VA immediately if their training or schooling is interrupted or if there is any change in training status.

G. I. Question And Answer Department

Q. How much time do I have in which to complete my education under the G I Bill?

A. Your education must be completed 9 years after July 25, 1947.

Q. I have a service-connected disability, and would like to know how long I will be eligible for admittance to a hospital.

A. Hospitalization, medical treatment, domiciliary care, and out-patient treatment are available to you during your entire lifetime.

Q. I would like to appear before the Rating Board in my own behalf. May I do this?

A. Yes, but a definite appointment should be made and you should be there at the time for which the hearing is designated.

Q. To what benefits is a man with a yellow or blue discharge entitled?

A. A yellow discharge from the Army is dishonorable and the veteran is not entitled to VA benefits. A yellow discharge from Navy service may be dishonorable or other than dishonorable. If dishonorable, the veteran is not eligible for benefits. If other than dishonorable, the veteran is entitled to file a claim and Veterans Administration will determine whether the claimant is entitled to benefits. The same procedure applies to blue discharges from the Army.

Q. May a veteran receive compensation from Veterans Administration and State benefits for old age?

A. Yes. There is no restriction as far as VA is concerned.

Sheriff's Force Busy Last Week

The Sheriff's department last week apprehended two men in separate acts and charged them with illegal possession of liquor, one with 29 pints, the other with 13 pints, filing two charges against one, to which they plead guilty.

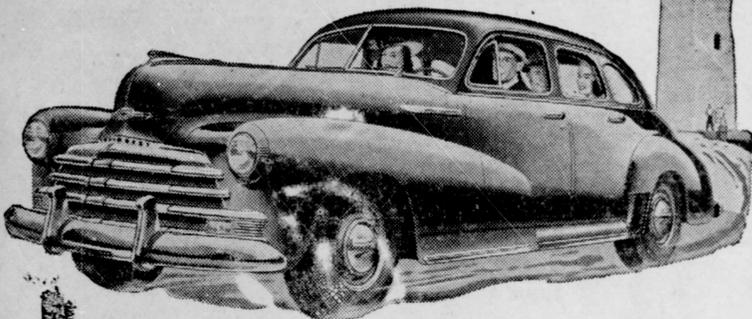

Later in the week they caught a Lubbock man passing through with 12 cases of beer which were taken in charge by the Sheriff. He also plead guilty.

Saturday they seized a ten gallon keg of home brew at the home of a woman here in town. She, too, entered a plea of guilty. All were fined $100.00 each.

Soil Conservation District News

The following figures were released recently from the 1945 USDA Summary of Crop Statistics taken from the Agricultural Census made at that time. Here are the revealing facts above average per-acre yield of crops in Texas, which apparently is too low due to depletion of soil fertility. (These are statewide averages.)

Cotton (lint)	134 lbs.
Corn	17 bu.
Oats	22 bu.
Peanuts	500 lbs.
Grain Sorghums	16 bu.
Wheat	10.5 bu.
Sweet Potatoes	90 bu.
Flax	7.3 bu.

In order to improve these yields more green manure crops, better crop rotation and improved cultural methods have been suggested. Better improving legumes are needed each year.

From latest reports, last year

(1946) approximately 1,000,000 acres of crop land was planted to legumes in Texas. This is a right move in the right direction in meeting the need for improved soil fertility, but acres are needed each year.

Jesse B. Thompson, Soil Surveyor, SCS, Muleshoe, Texas, spent the past week making soil surveys within the CYT District on several prospective cooperator farms, who have indicated that they want their farms planned for conservation practices for 1948.

A complete soil survey on any farm gives detailed information as to the extent of slope, wind erosion, soil types, whereby it becomes a guide as to what kinds of crops should be grown from a good land use standpoint. A soil survey becomes a definite guide to be used by the District in planning a coordinated conservation program on farms within the District.

O. A. Lemley, who farms east of Brownfield, contacted the District office this past week with the view of having a conservation plan made for his farm.

R. G. McNutt, who lives on Route 3 about 13 miles southwest of Brownfield, had the engineering crew to check his farm to determine a high point and total amount of land that could be irrigated if sufficient water could be found after drilling. If plenty of water is secured, he expects to work out a complete conservation program for the irrigated land and the dry land for his future farming operations for 1948.

A. T. Pickett, who farms east of Brownfield, completed this past week the bordering up and seeding in of 24 acres of improved irrigated pasture. He seeded in Alfalfa, Southern Smooth Brome, and Perennial Italian Rye grasses for permanent pasture.

Seth Brown, Route 5, Brownfield, contacted this office recently and gave an application for conservation planning on the E half of Section 506, Block D, Yoakum County. He expects to use a combination of several conservation practices and probably seed some grasses for pasture next year.

Plan cover crops now. Secure planting seed and be ready whenever the moisture comes.

To start improved pastures and seed to grass of old cultivated lands, make advanced preparation. Secure grass seed now.

OLD TIME REVIVAL IN PROGRESS

An old time Holy Ghost revival is being conducted by Evangelist W. M. Nelson, of Denver City, on Hill street, four blocks east of Lubbock highway and one block south of Tahoka highway.

Everybody is cordially invited to attend. The revival is strictly non-denominational. Come and bring your Bible.

YOUNG COUNTY REUNION

The former residents of Young County, Texas, now residing in Lubbock and adjacent counties will hold their annual reunion in Mackenzie Park, Lubbock, Sunday, August 31.

All Young County folks and their friends are invited.

Come, bring a well filled dinner basket, and meet your old friends.

La Verne Collier, student in the University of N. M. is here visiting between semesters.

Barney (Google) Dwight, and wife, of Tahoka, stopped by for a few minutes Friday. He was an early day photographer here. He married about four years ago. Same old Barney, with the same old foolishness.

The cotton leafworm is not known to survive the winters in the United States. New infestations are started each spring by moths that fly in from the south and lay their eggs on cotton.

BEWARE THE BLIND SPOT!

Oncoming bright headlights can momentarily blind the best of drivers. It requires seven seconds after passing glaring lights for your eyes to dilate again to the darkened road. Even in this brief space of time you may not see the dim figure in the road ahead of you until it is too late.

It's the early hours of darkness, especially in the Fall and Winter when traffic is still heavy, that produce the heaviest fatalities in driver-pedestrian accidents. The three hours after sunset are three times more dangerous than daylight hours.

A safe driver reduces his average speed at night. He looks away from glaring lights, watching the edge of the road on his side. He never "overdrives" his lights and can stop at any time within his headlight range. He is especially careful at intersections and is on the watch for unlighted vehicles, and motorists changing tires at the side of the road.

Pedestrians, for your own safety, walk to the left facing traffic, carry something white. Be extra cautious at night. Never forget, the life you save may be your own.

pital for a few more days.
 Mr. Earl Cornet made a business trip to Fort Worth during the first few days of this week.
 Mrs. I. B. Inman, of Portales, N. M., is visiting her daughter of this community this week.
 The Union H D Club will meet Thursday, Sept. 4 in the home of Ethel Montgomery. The Agent is to meet with them at that time.
 Announcements have been made that Union school will open Monday morning Sept. 1. Lunches are to be served Tuesday. Since the lunch room has not been completed, they will start serving lunches in the Home Economics building.

The volume of production of all U. S. crops this year is expected to be a little over last year's high record, well above the 10 year average, and slightly above the average for U. S. farmers' best years 1942 to 1946.

Mr. and Mrs. Dub Bryan, of Hiway, N. M., were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Been of Plains.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture forecasts that the final count on the nation's wheat crop will be 1.4 billion bushels, the largest crop on record. That record would be 61 per cent above average production, and 24 per cent above last year's production.

Several farms within the District were checked this past week to note effects in growing crops by the dry weather. A comparison was made in several sections noting good flat deep breaking compared as to ordinary shallow methods of preparing land before cropping planting. The flat breaking seemed to indicate crops were standing the dry weather much better on thoroughly prepared land. Contoured fields, after deep flat breaking, seemed to have still better results.

Edgar Allen Poe Thompson, just Ed to you, perhaps, came in Wednesday with a nice lot of peaches from his young orchard out in the Harmony community. But we'll bet a gill of buttermilk the Mrs. gathered the peaches. Thanks, anyway.

3 HARVEST SEASONS every year
 Spring—Summer—Fall

with the ALL-CROP HARVESTER
 "SUCCESSOR TO THE BINDER"

Risking your whole year's work and investment in a single crop is no longer necessary.

The All-Crop Harvester handles a wide variety of crops that mature at intervals from spring till snow flies. You have money coming in during three seasons instead of one.

Early clovers and grasses open the harvest season in late spring and early summer... followed by summer-ripening grains... then fall seed crops, sorghums and soybeans.

This one home-owned machine harvests them all.

The All-Crop Harvester's wide, rubber-faced bar cylinder with its finger-tip speed control gives you a choice of over 100 crops. Crops that not only diversify your income but improve the fertility and productivity of your entire farm.

Many legume and grass seeds qualify for the 1947 conservation payments of $3.50 per acre. Market prices per bushel are also excellent for most seeds.
