Letter from Houston.
 HOUSTON, May 29.
 Editor San Antonio Express: Our city has been the scene of lively excitement for the past week.
 It has been nothing but a vast pageant since the Fair began, amidst the shouts, the leagnes of lights, "And the roaring of the wheels" It seemed like a scene from the Arabian Nights instead of our usually quiet city. The Fair began under very favorable auspices. It was opened by Col. W. J. Hutchins, followed by Col. Ashbel Smith and Gov. Richard Coke. As I have not the time to give a detailed account of the Fair, I will just give some of its main features.
 There were specimens of the geological formations, of the flora of Texas, drugs, dry goods, curiosities of every description, a gallery of the fine arts, musical instruments; machinery, horned cattle and blooded stock, until it makes one's head dizzy to think of them.
 But Thursday was the biggest day, there being about 18,000 people on the grounds at one time.
 General Beauregard reviewed the Washington Guards of Galveston and spoke to the people assembled, and was followed by Gen. De Bray, who made some very happy remarks.
 The Washington Guards gave a hop at the Hutchins House which passed off very pleasantly. There was also a reunion of the Alpha Club, a select society of the young ladies and gentlemen of Houston, at the residence of J. F. Cruger, which your correspondent attended. After dancing and promenading in the soft light of the moon until the small hours of the morning, the party broke up and went to their homes very much impressed with the kind hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Cruger.
 Our city is improving rapidly; we shall have street cars running from the Int. & G. N. R. R. depot to the H & T C R R depot, and from the City Hall to the Fair Grounds. We have two daily papers and three weekly papers, The Age, Telegraph, Baptist Herald, Star, & Signet. The Telegraph is fast becoming the leading daily in the city, under the management of A. C. Gray. It is the standard for news and intelligence all over the State.
 We have had quite an excitement over the charges of the Galveston Mercury against Capt. J. E. Whittlesey, Postmaster of this city. Capt.
 Whittlesey, as soon as the charges were made, asked for an investigation, which was made in presence of Special Agents Petheridge and Southworth and numerous other witnesses. As Capt. Whittlesey was entirely exonerated, the Mercury changed its tactics, and accused Special Agents Petheridge and Southworth of being bribed with a basket of champagne, whereas their reputation for honesty and integrity is known all over the United States. And if we are to believe Baker's (the editor of the Mercury) statement of himself, he is the biggest scoundrel that ever trod God's footstool. In my next I will give a description of the city and environs. Hoping to send you another letter soon I remain &c.

of the law. He has great cunning.
 He mistakes it for intelligence. He is a fellow of infinite pretense. He publishes himself everywhere and is self-important wherever he goes.
 You will often find him in legislative bodies, in political assemblies, in common councils. He is sometimes there for specific villainy, sometimes on general principles of corruption, waiting on chance for any fraudulent job. He is always there for evil. The temper of his mind, the habits of his life, make him essentially mischievous. When he cannot cheat for gain he cheats for love. He haunts low places, and herds with the ignorant. It is his kindly office to set them by the ears, and to feed his vanity and his pockets from the quarrels he incites and foments. He is in everybody's business. He meddles in all things, and is indefatigable in mischief. He is just lawyer enough to be mischievous. He is a living example of Pope's truth, that a little learning is a dangerous thing. Among his ignorant companions he is infallible in all things. Sometimes he is reserved and sly, with knowing looks, which gain credit for wisdom and character, for thinking all he does not utter. Generally he is loquacious, demonstrative of his small eloquence. Then his tongue is too big for his mouth, and his mouth is too loose for truth.—[Exchange.]

ALOESTE.
 Behold the pettifogger, the black-leg of the law. He is, as his name imports, a stirrer-up of trifling grievances and quarrels. He sometimes emerges from professional obscurity and is charged with business which is disreputable only, through his own tortuous devices; for the ven-im cannot forge his instincts even among his betters. He is generally found, however, and he always begins in the lowest professional grade. Indeed he is the troglodyte

THE unfounded charge against members of the committee, that they were predetermined in their award, is of special application to our competitor...

If "possible," then, gratify us with the "proof." The EXPRESS never had any understanding with any of the aldermen about the city printing.

Bad Taste.—But for the blundering stupidity of a radical city administration, selected by that prince of administrative humbugs, E. J. Davis, San Antonio had the ground work at least or no cost, to have had a manufactory to-day...

Does our neighbor suppose that it will any favor to his argument to pull the name of Gov. Davis with "low case" initials instead of the usual capitals?

The Future of Galveston.

We have long and disinterestedly watched the contest between Galveston and Houston for supremacy as commercial cities of Texas.

Houston made the mistake of investing her energy and money at the wrong places. Had she immediately after the war put out her whole strength for the accomplishment of two objects—railroad connection with New Orleans...

Even St. Louis is beginning to fear Galveston. The recent visit of the Kansas City delegation to Galveston, to promote the export of the vast grain products of the immense West through that port...

From this time forth, every mile of railroad, every new farm opened, every immigrant family settled, every mine developed, every crop made, in Texas, North Louisiana, North Arkansas, the Indian Territory, Kansas; Nebraska, South Missouri, Southern Iowa, will all insure to the benefit of Galveston.

INDIANS.—We have just received the news from Comfort, that the Indians have again appeared in that vicinity and stolen several horses.

from Mr. Marquart all his saddle-horses. This news was brought to Boerne by Mr. Liedner, from Comfort. Mr. Teigmann, who carries the mail between Comfort and Boerne, saw a number of Indians with a herd of horses in the neighborhood of Beseler's farm.

Conference of the African M. E. Church.

The somewhat eventful occasion of the day for our city is the meeting of the Conference of the African M. E. Church. For the first time I think the congregation of the Presbyterian Church sat under the ministrations of a colored preacher.

NO RAIN YET. Everybody says it is going to rain, and we hope it will, some time or other, but it seems to consult its own leisure is coming. It ought to rain, or else "take in its sign," for it threatens to rain every day. If it does not rain soon, corn will sell at high prices before the crop of 1875 can be gathered.

Since the above was written, a heavy rain has fallen South of the city, and in sight of it.

THE FAIR DIRECTORS were busy in consultation yesterday, and seem determined to have everything ready for a grand exposition of industrial, mechanical, and stock productions of the country by next October. We trust the railroad will get as near to the city by that time as possible—near enough at least for a short ride on wheels to bring visitors into the city.

For all the styles of spring and summer hats go to PANCOAST & SON. 14-3-11f

We are under obligations to Messrs.
Wagner & Rummel for one dozen of their newly imported Berlin Tivoli Beer, undoubtedly the best Lager yet imported in Texas. It may not be generally known that the Tivoli Beer carried off the first premium for beer at the Vienna exhibition. It is entirely free from any taste unbecoming the favorite German beverage, is of light color and has the genuine hop-bitter taste. We predict that this beer will soon become the favorite of the people of San Antonio who do not take stock in total abstinence.

PANCOAST & SON, are constantly receiving a good assortment of cloths, cassimeres and chevrons for custom trade. The New Bransfels cassimere for sale.

OUR HOTELS.—We said yesterday in our editorial columns proper, that strangers should be accommodated, treated well, and encouraged to settle among us; that our hotel charges should be as light as possible, etc. It may be safely said that if all people would do as well by visitors as our hotels, nobody would have a right to complain. The fare at the San Antonio hotels is as fine as the country affords.
 We have the finest beef and mutton in the world, and the greatest variety of the very best vegetables. The houses are large, cool, and airy, and the attention paid to guests, ought to satisfy the most exacting. And the prices charged are cheaper than in any other hotels in the State, or in the country.

GENTLEMEN'S furnishing goods of the very best quality always to be found at PANCOAST & SON. 14-3-11f

ALLEGED MURDER BY LYCHING.—There is considerable excitement in this city in relation to the supposed murder, by lynching, of an unknown man. What makes the matter worse, one of the deputy sheriffs, a peace officer, is implicated by common rumor as one of the men engaged in the murder. We hope he will be able to vindicate himself from this serious charge; if not, the consequences to him, and to those engaged, will be grave indeed.

It seems that a German of good education, but whose name we have not learned, was working with Mr. Fred Borman near this city, in cutting hay. A mowing machine was broken by the running away of the horses, and Borman demanded pay for it, so we are informed, and the bird was denied his right to do so. It is asserted that in consequence of these and other reasons, the hired man left the house during Borman's absence, taking with him some money and several articles. The impression is that it was not so much intentional theft as a determination to have pay for his work, and not to pay for the broken mowing machine.

Deputy sheriff Huebner and Mr. Bor-man, without any writ, arrested the man at Leon Springs. They tied his hands behind him so severely that a by-stander urged that it would cause him to faint.
 They then started him on to San Antonio alone, saying they would overtake him.
 A Mexican now reports a body hanging to a tree near the place where all this occurred. The account given by Mr. Bor-man at first was that the prisoner had escaped, but he and his friends have already given several different and conflicting accounts of the matter, so we are told.
 Mr. Huebner was under what seemed a great stress last evening. That looks badly, also.

As the matter now stands, and until they can exculpate themselves by it, the impression is irresistible that a foul and brutal murder has been committed upon a helpless stranger. Mr. Borman and Mr.
 Huebner should be held to the strictest duress until the matter is thoroughly investigated. If they are innocent, the restraint will do them no harm; if they are guilty, they should not have a chance to "escape." The reputation of San Antonio and Bexar county under such a stain is a fall.

The American Sardinia Co.'s Boneless Sardines are much better, and less than half the cost of imported Sardines. 22-2-11f
